Academic Excellence

- Only 24 student-athletes in Clemson athletics history have earned All-America honors on the field and in the classroom in the same year. Three of the 24 student-athletes who have accomplished this have been golfers. Jonathan Byrd is one of three Clemson student-athletes to accomplish this twice (1998-99 and 1999-00) and D.J. Trahan did it in 2001-02. Trahan actually was named the National Player of the Year in 2002 when he was named a third-team Academic All-American by CoSIDA, the only Clemson National Player of the Year to also be an academic All-American in the same year. Stephen Behr, Jr. joined the group in grand style in 2015-16 when he was named a first-team Academic All-American, won the 90 Elite Award for the highest GPA among golfers at the National Championship, and won the Byron Nelson Award. He was also a third-team All-American on the course by the Golf Coaches Association.
- Jacob Bridgeman was named the ACC Scholar Athlete of the Year for men's golf in 2020-21 and 2021-22. He is the first ACC golfer to win the award in consecutive years since James White of Georgia Tech, (2010-11 and 2011-12). Bridgeman was also neamed the ACC Player of the Year and won the ACC Championship. He joins Ollie Schniederjans of Georgia Tech (2013-14) as the only ACC golfers to win all three honors in the same academic year.
- Three Clemson golfers have been named Academic Scholars by the Golf Coaches Association on three occasions. Jason Griffith accomplished this in 1986-88, Oswald Drawdy (1988-90) and 2021 senior William Nottingham were all three-time selections. Behr was a third-team Academic All-American by CoSIDA in 2014-15 and a first team selection in 2015-16.
- Ten times in the last 22 years the team has posted a team GPA of 3.0 or better for the spring semester, then finished in the top 16 in the nation at the NCAA Tournament. That includes the spring of 2021.
- Ben Martin, a senior in 2010, was a three-time selection to the All-ACC academic team and a two-time selection as an Academic Scholar by the Golf Coaches Association. He graduated in December of his final year at Clemson and is now on the PGA Tour.
- Crawford Reeves, a senior in 2012-13, was named to the All-ACC Academic team four straight years, also a first in Clemson golf history. Stephen Behr joined him in 2016 and Bryson Nimmer in 2019.
- Bryson Nimmer became the first Clemson golfer to make the All-ACC team and the All-ACC Academic team four consecutive years when he graduated in 2019.

Award Winners

- Charles Warren became Clemson's first NCAA Champion in 1997 when he captured the championship at Conway Farms Country Club outside Chicago. He defeated Brad Elder of Texas in a playoff and overcame a three-shot deficit to Jason Gore of Pepperdine during the final round. Warren won the NCAA Championship as a junior, then won the Dave Williams Award as the top senior golfer in the nation in 1998.
- D.J. Trahan won the Ben Hogan Award and the Jack Nicklaus Award in 2002 as a junior. During that 2001-02 academic year. Trahan won three tournaments, including the NCAA East Regional Championship. He posted a 70.33 stroke average, at the time one of the top 10 season stroke averages in NCAA history.
- Kyle Stanley won the Ben Hogan Award in 2009 as a junior. He finished second at the NCAA Tournament two of his three years at Clemson.
- Stephen Behr became the first Clemson golfer to win the Byron Nelson Award in 2016. It is presented to the top all-around student-athlete in college golf. He also won the Elite 90 Award at the NCAA Tournament as the golfer with the top GPA at the NCAA Men's Golf national tournament.
- Clemson has had 66 All-America selections over the years, including at least one All-American in nine consecutive seasons between 1996-04. The list includes 15 first-team All-Americans, 13 second-team selections, nine third-team selections and 27 honorable mention selections. Kyle Stanley was a first-team selection as a freshman in 2007, the only freshman in Clemson history to be named a first-team All-American. He was named first-team again in 2009 when he finished second at the NCAA Tournament. Turk Pettit was a first-team All-American in 2021 when he won the NCAA Championship and Jacob Bridgeman was a second-team selection each of his final two seasons.
- Six players (Chris Patton, Charles Warren, John Engler, Lucas Glover, D.J. Trahan and Kyle Stanley) have been named first-team All-American twice.
- Clemson had three All-Americans in 2018, as Bryson Nimmer was a second-team selection, and Doc Redman and Turk Pettit were honorable mention. Nimmer was a first-team selection in 2019 and sophomore Kyle Cottam was an honorable mention after finishing 11th at the NCAA national tournament.

Amateur Championships

- Clemson players have had a strong heritage when it comes to success in national amateur events. The most noteworthy championships took place in 1989 and 2017 when Tigers claimed US Amateur titles. Chris Patton won the US Amateur title at Merion Country Club in Ardmore, PA. He then went on to be the low amateur at the 1990 Masters, finishing in 39th place. Doc Redman joined Patton as a Clemson US Amateur Champion in August of 2017 with a thrilling victory in 37 holes over Doug Ghim of the University of Texas.
- Three other Clemson golfers finished as runner-up at the US Amateur, Parker Moore in 1976, Danny Ellis in 1993, and Ben Martin in 2009. Michael Hoey, who played at Clemson in 1998-99, won the British Amateur in 2001.
- Three Tigers won the now defunct United States Public Links Championship and every occasion they were still Clemson golfers at the time of their triumph. Kevin Johnson won the US Public Links in 1986 and D.J. Trahan won the title in 2000, his freshman season at Clemson. Corbin Mills won the US Public Links in 2011 and played in the 2012 Masters. Mills also won the 2011 Players Amateur.
- The Sunnehanna Amateur is one of the top amateur tournaments each summer. A Clemson golfer won the event four consecutive years, 2001-04, including Lucas Glover, who was the 2001 champion and is now on the PGA Tour.
- In the summer of 2008, Phillip Mollica won his second Monroe Amateur and is the only person to win the event twice. Kyle Stanley won the Southern Amateur for the second time and played in the Arnold Palmer Invitational on the PGA Tour in 2009.

- William Nottingham won the North-South Amateur at Pinehurst #2 in 2017. He joined Mollica as the only Clemson golfers to win that event.

Coaching Heritage

- Clemson Head Coach Larry Penley, who retired after the 2021 season, won an ACC record 83 tournaments in his 38 years leading the program. That includes four in his final year. He guided Clemson to the ACC Championship that final season, the 10th ACC title of his career. The Clemson program won 18 tournaments over his last seven years.
- Penley is one of the few active coaches to be inducted into the College Golf Hall of Fame. At the age of 44 in 2003, he was inducted, the first coach in any sport in Clemson history to be inducted into the sport's Hall of Fame while still the Clemson coach. Baseball coach Jack Leggett joined him with his induction into the college baseball Hall of Fame in 2014.
- Penley was named the National Coach-of-the-Year by the College Golf Coaches Association and GolfWeek in 2003, the year he led the Clemson program to the NCAA Championship. He was a nine-time ACC Coach-of-the-Year, one of just two coaches in any sport to win ACC Coach of the Year in five different decades. He was named the NCAA District Coach of the Year in 2017, 2018 and 2021, giving him eight District Coach of the Year honors in his career.
- In Penley's 38 years he led the program to seven NCAA Regional titles, more than any other coach. He took Clemson to the NCAA Tournament all 37 years there was a tournament (no tournament in 2020 due to COVID19), in his career, and finished in the top-20 of the tournament, 25 times, more than any coach in Clemson history regardless of sport. That includes a tie for eighth at the NCAA National Tournament in 2019 and a tie for 13th in 2021. He actually claims 26 top 20 season finishes because Clemson was ranked 14th in the Golfweek final poll for 2020 when COVID19 ended the season.
- Prior to Penley, Clemson had great leadership under Bobby Robinson, who led the program from 1975-83. It was Robinson who took Clemson to its first NCAA Tournament in 1980, its first ACC Championship in 1982 and its first NCAA top 5 finish in 1983. The Clemson practice facility is named in his honor.

Conference Championship Tradition

- Clemson has won the ACC Championship 11 times (including a co-championship in 1990). Clemson won the title in 1982, 1987, 1988, 1990, 1997, 1998, 2000, 2003, 2004, 2016 and 2021. Clemson has finished in the top four of the event for 15 of the last 21 years. The Tigers won the 2016 event with a 25-under par score and won by 11 shots, its largest victory margin in history.
- Clemson won the 2021 ACC title in Larry Penley's final year in dramatic fashion. After finishing second in the stroke play qualifier, the Tigers defeated NC State and Florida State (3-2) to win the title. Clemson trailed 2-0 in the match play championship, then won the final three matches on the course.
- Clemson has had the individual ACC Champion eight times. Charles Warren won the tournament in 1997 and 1998, Clemson's only two-time winner. He won the NCAA Championship in 1997 as well and is one of only two ACC golfers to win the ACC Championship and the NCAA Championship in the same year.
- Jacob Bridgeman won the 2022 ACC title in a playoff with defending champion Peter Fountain of North Carolina.
- Clemson has had 42 different players named first-team All-ACC a total of 86 times. Clemson had at least two different All-ACC golfers every year from 1997-07. D.J. Trahan, Jonathan Byrd and Bryson Nimmer are the only three Tigers who have been named first-team All-ACC four consecutive years.
- Turk Pettit became Clemson's second NCAA Champion in 2021 when he won the title with a seven under par score of 273 at Grayhawk Country Club in Scottsdale, Arizona.

International Competition

- Clemson has been prominent in the history of the Walker Cup. Between 1997 and 2003, Clemson had at least one representative at each Walker Cup, including 2001 when Lucas Glover and D.J. Trahan were members of the United States team and Michael Hoey was on the Great Britain team. Seven players with ties to Clemson have participated in the Walker Cup since 1997. Doc Redman (2017) was Clemson's most recent Walker Cup player.
- The Palmer Cup is another international amateur competition held each year. Between 1997-2004, Clemson had 13 players on United States or Great Britain squads. That includes John Engler who is one of the few three-time selections to the United States team. D.J. Trahan was a two-time selection to the United States squad and was the team captain in 2002. Tiger Head Coach Larry Penley served as the head coach of the United States team in 2004.
- Jacob Bridgeman had a 3-1 record for the United States squad in 2021 at the Palmer Cup, helping the US to a team victory.
- Kyle Stanley was a member of the United States Walker Cup championship team in 2007 and Redman was on the victorious 2017 United States team.
- In terms of professional international play, Lucas Glover was a member of the winning United States President's Cup teams in 2007 and 2009.

NCAA Tournament Excellence

- Clemson has been to the NCAA Tournament 41 years overall, including an active streak of 40 consecutive years (1982-2019, and 2021, no tournament in 2020). The last time Clemson was not in the NCAA Tournament when there was a tournament was the spring of 1981. That is the longest streak in any sport in Clemson history. Clemson had a streak of reaching the national portion of the NCAA Tournament in 23 consecutive years between 1982-04, the second longest streak of national appearances in NCAA history.
- Clemson finished tied for 13th at the NCAA national tournament in 2021, the sixth straight year Clemson reached the National Tournament.
- Clemson has won seven NCAA Regional Championships in its history. Clemson had a pair of "three-peats" in regional championships, winning in 1993-94-95 and in 2002-03-04.

- Clemson had a streak of seven straight top 10 finishes at the NCAA Tournament between 1997-03. It is also tied for the longest streak of its kind in Clemson sports history. The Clemson men's soccer program had seven top-10s in a row between 1973-79 and the men's tennis team had seven consecutive top-10s from 1980-86.
- When Clemson finished fifth at the NCAA Men's Golf Championship at Purdue University in 2008, it marked the ninth time since 1997 that the Tigers recorded a top-10 finish, more than any other school during that 12-year period.
- Clemson's fifth-place finish in 2008 was the eighth time Larry Penley had a top-five team at Clemson.

National Championship Season of 2003

- Clemson won the NCAA Tournament in 2003, the fourth national championship in the history of the school's athletic program. It was the first NCAA title for any sport at Clemson in 16 years. Clemson has three titles since, the 2016 and 2018 football national titles, and the 2021 title in men's soccer.
- During the 2003 spring season, Clemson won the ACC Championship, the NCAA East Regional and the NCAA National Tournament. Clemson became the first Division I school to win its conference, NCAA regional and national championship in the same year.
- Clemson won six tournaments overall during the 2002-03 academic year, more than any other Division I school and it is still tied for the most tournament titles in one season in Clemson history. Clemson also won six in 2016-17.
- The 2002-03 Clemson team never finished lower than third in any event the entire year and had an incredible 183-8-3 won-loss record against the field in stroke play competition, a 95.1 percentage. Clemson finished first or second in 13 of its 14 events that year, and was ranked number one in the nation in every poll from the preseason to the postseason.
- The most dominant statistic for that season concerned the final Sagarin team rankings. The distance between Clemson and second ranked Oklahoma State in the Sagarin rating was equal to the distance between second-ranked Oklahoma State and the 20th-ranked school.

Pipeline to the PGA

- Clemson had six former players with PGA Tour status in 2022. Those players with status included Ben Martin, Kyle Stanley, Lucas Glover, D.J. Trahan, Doc Redman and Jonathan Byrd. Bryson Nimmer and Jacob Bridgeman also played in PGA events that year.
- For 2022-23, Glover, Martin, Redman and Carson Young have full status on tour, while Stanley, Trahan and Byrd have status as former tournament winners.
- Jonathan Byrd (5), Lucas Glover (4), D.J. Trahan (2), Kyle Stanley (2) and Ben Martin (1) have combined for 14 PGA Tour wins since 2002. Trahan won the Bob Hope Chrysler Classic in January of 2008 and then finished fourth at the United States Open. Byrd won the Justin Timberlake Invitational with a hole-in-one on the third playoff hole in 2010, the only time in PGA Tour history that has happened. He then won the first event of the 2011 season when he won the Hyundai Tournament of Champions in Maui in another playoff. He was the first golfer to win consecutive PGA Tour events since Tiger Woods in 2009. Kyle Stanley won the Quicken Loans National in 2017 and Lucas Glover won the John Deere in July of 2021.
- A Clemson golfer won at least one PGA Tour event nine consecutive years (every year between 2004-12). Two different Tigers won an event in 2011, as Jonathan Byrd won the season opening Hyndai Classic in Maui and Lucas Glover won the Wells Fargo Invitational in Charlotte. That was the first time two different golfers from Clemson won an event in the same year.
- Clemson, UNLV and Arizona State all had former players win at least one tournament nine consecutive years between 2004-12.
- Lucas Glover won the 2009 United States Open to become the first former Tiger to win a professional Major. Glover defeated the World's number-one and two players in Tiger Woods and Phil Mickelson, respectively. Glover then finished fifth at the PGA in August and was ninth in the final PGA money ranking. He also helped the United States to the President's Cup championship and won the PGA Grand Slam in October.
- Michael Hoey has won five events on the European Tour, including the Russian Open in 2013. He finished 25th in the European Tour money list in 2011 and won two events, including a victory over Rory McIlroy at the Dunhill Cup.
- Ben Martin won his first PGA Tour event in November of 2014 when he won the Shriners Classic in Las Vegas. He finished 30th on the PGA Tour Money List in 2014-15 with over $2.7 million.

Poll Presence

- The history of college golf polls is not very long, but since they have had in-season polls, Clemson has been omnipresent. Between 1996 and 2004, Clemson ranked in the final top-10 eight of nine seasons and in the top-20 each year. That includes a streak of seven consecutive seasons with a top five finish from 1997-03.
- Clemson had a streak of 105 consecutive polls ranked in the top 10 in the nation between December 4, 1996 through May 7, 2004. Within that streak, Clemson was ranked in the top five in the nation for 62 consecutive polls between March 11, 1998 and June 15, 2001, and for 89 of 90 polls between March 11, 1998 and May 7, 2004.
- As far as individuals are concerned, Clemson has had 32 players ranked in the top 25 of the final Sagarin computer rankings since 1996. The highest final ranking for a player is a number-two finish by D.J. Trahan in 2002 and 2003. He was named a first-team All-American each year. Kyle Stanley finished fifth in 2009. Bryson Nimmer finished 15th in 2018 and eighth in 2019. Turk Pettit was the #10 ranked player by Golfweek/Sagarin in 2021 when he won the National Championship and Jacob Bridgeman was 14th. Bridgeman made it consecutive top 15 finishes in 2022 with a #12 final ranking.
- Clemson has been in the top 25 of 251 of the last 280 Golf World Coaches polls and in the top 10 in 145 of the last 280 entering the spring of 2023.

Every school has special memories of its teams that have claimed national championships. That is certainly the case with Clemson, who won its fourth in the school's athletic history on May 30, 2003 when the Tiger golf program won its first NCAA title with a two-shot victory over Oklahoma State at Karsten Creek in Stillwater, OK.

Clemson won three national team titles in the 1980s, the football title in 1981, and men's soccer in 1984 and 1987. All three of those championships were gained in extraordinary circumstances.

The football team had finished 6-5 in the previous season and was not ranked in any of the preseason top 20 polls for 1981. Then Danny Ford's Tigers went a perfect 12-0, the only undefeated team in college football that year, finishing the year with a 22-15 win over perennial favorite Nebraska.

The 1984 Clemson soccer team became the first team in any sport in NCAA history to defeat the numbers-four, three, two and one seeds in an NCAA Tournament in winning the national championship. Four years later Dr. I.M. Ibrahim's team entered the tournament as the number-23 seeded team in the 24-team field, then won the championship in a Final Four played at Clemson's Riggs Field.

Unlike the program's three previous titles, the Clemson golf team of 2002-03 had been ranked number-one in the nation from the preseason poll, and by a wide margin. Heading into the national tournament at Stillwater, Clemson's margin over second-ranked Florida in the Golfweek/Sagarin ranking, was equal in computer points to the distance between #2 Florida and the 17th place team, New Mexico.

"We had a dominating regular season," said Head Coach Larry Penley when commenting on his 20th and most magical season at Clemson. "We were in every tournament and won five events before the NCAAs at Stillwater."

But, that momentum from the regular season did not carry much weight heading to the national championships because the Tigers were faced with the task of winning the championship on Oklahoma State's home course, the very challenging Karsten Creek.

Many other schools have played host to the golf national championship in recent years, but those programs had not been ranked in the top 10 in the nation entering the event. In fact each of the last two University courses to play host to the event, Ohio State in 2002 and Duke in 2001, did not even have their teams qualify for the national tournament.

Oklahoma State entered the tournament ranked fifth in the nation, and was on a hot streak entering the national tournament having recorded five tournament victories in the spring, including the NCAA Central Regional. The Cowboys had won nine national championships, including eight under current coach Mike Holder.

"It was a big challenge and a lot of pressure, but this team was mature enough and prepared for it," said Penley. "We had great leadership from D.J. Trahan and Ben Duncan all year and it carried over to the NCAAs."

Clemson was in or near the lead in each of the first three rounds, never trailing by more than four strokes at the end of any round. Clemson, Oklahoma State and UCLA, the top three teams all season, played together all four rounds, which added to the intrigue of the event.

In many ways, Larry Penley's golf team was faced with the task of playing the Final Four against Duke in Cameron Indoor Stadium. The comparisons were amazing. Mike Holder has eight National Championships at Oklahoma State, Duke basketball Coach Mike Krzyewski has eight Final Fours at Duke. Cameron is known for its intimate atmosphere, while the NCAA allowed spectators to walk the fairways with the players the entire tournament. The final round was played in 90 degree heat. Prior to the installation of air conditioning in Cameron Indoor Stadium in 2002, it seemed to be 90 degrees in that facility on days the Tiger basketball team has played at Duke.

Aside from the atmosphere surrounding the course, you can make a case that the home course advantage in golf is greater than any other sport. Oklahoma State's players play that course every day. They know where all the breaks are in slick greens, know what clubs to hit from every distance in the fairway, know when to go for broke and when to play conservatively.

When Jack Ferguson hit his second shot to the 18th green in the final round, no less than 500 people (490 were Oklahoma State fans) stood as close as 15 yards from his back swing. When Oklahoma State's Hunter Mahan put his second shot on 18 within 15 feet from the cup with a shot at an eagle three, you would have thought Shane Battier had just nailed a three-pointer with under 10 seconds left in Cameron.

But, as had been his demeanor all week, Ferguson hit his approach just 15 feet by the hole. When he eventually two-putted for a par five to give Clemson the victory it gave the Tigers a landmark national championship victory, its first on an opponent's home facility.

"It was a great feeling," said Penley, who had led Clemson to six top four finishes previously, but never with a championship on his resume until 2003. "Any championship is special, but to win it at Oklahoma State made it more special because they have been the program that has had the most NCAA appearances, the most national championships, the most tradition. We have great respect for their program, so to win on their home course was memorable."

Clemson had become the first golf program in history to win its conference, NCAA regional and NCAA national tournament in the same year, an accomplishment that puts the resume of the 2003 Tiger golf team in perspective on a college golf history and Clemson athletic history basis.

"This was a total team effort. You knew going into the season that D.J. Trahan would be there every tournament. A key was the improvement of Jack Ferguson and Matt Hendrix over the previous year. They're stroke average improvement was among the top 10 in Clemson history from one season to the next. Gregg Jones was steady, especially in postseason play. Ben Duncan had a great NCAA Tournament. His score counted in each of the last three rounds when it meant the most.

"We did not have an individual finish in the top 15 of the NCAA Tournament, yet we won the national championship. That shows you how solid we were as a team."

Notes on Penley's 83 Wins at Clemson

- 83 wins include just two with Clemson as the host school playing on what could be considered a Clemson home course. Those two wins took place at the Clemson Invitational at The Cliffs at Keowee Falls near Clemson. The other 81 wins took place on the road.
- With the 83 wins Penley established an ACC record for career wins. Wake Forest legend Jesse Haddock had 74 tournament wins and current Georgia Tech coach Bruce Heppler had 65 as of the end of the 2020-21 academic year.
- Penley's greatest victory took place at the 2003 NCAA Tournament in Stillwater, Oklahoma where the Tigers won by two shots over host school Oklahoma State. That was an amazing accomplishment considering the second-ranked Cowboys had a team with three future PGA Tour players and it was played on the Cowboys own Karsten Creek Course.
- In addition to the NCAA Championship in 2003, Penley's Tigers won seven NCAA Regional Tournaments, more than any other college coach in history. The Tigers won 10 ACC Tournaments as well, including the 2016 league event by 11 shots and the 2021 ACC Tournament that was won with a 3-2 Match Play victory over #2 ranked Florida State.
- A further look inside Penley's career shows that his teams were able to win on different types of courses, hard or easy, long or short. His teams won with a score below-par 38 times, and with a score over par 41 times. Once they won with an even par score. The other three victories came in match play events.
- The Tigers won tournaments in 16 different states, Puerto Rico and Japan over his 38 years.
- What is most impressive is that he won on a consistent basis throughout his career. He won 19 tournaments in the 1980s, 25 in the 1990s, 15 in the 2000s, 18 in the 2010s and six in the 2020s. That includes 18 tournament victories in his last six years, so he certainly did not coast at the end of his career.
- Penley pupils also won on an individual basis. Under Penley's tutelage, Clemson golfers won 61 medalist honors, including two NCAA National Tournaments (Charles Warren in 1997 and Turk Pettit in 2021), two NCAA Regionals and six ACC Tournaments. On the amateur level, Penley had two US Amateur champions, three United States Public Links champions and 13 South Carolina Amateur Champions.

Clemson opened the 2021-22 season in Scottsdale, Arizona at the Maui Jim Intercollegiate. For the first time since 1983, the program had a new leader as Head Coach Jordan Byrd took over the reins from Hall of Fame coach Larry Penley, who retired after 38 years.

Byrd and the Tigers wasted little time in showing the team was deserving of its #11 preseason ranking with a second-place finish in the strong field and set numerous school records in the process.

All five Clemson golfers shot in the 60s in the same round for the first time in seven seasons in the final round, and the Tigers's 54-hole team score of 43-under-par set a school record.

The Tigers finished second out of 15 teams, six of whom were ranked in the top 25 in the preseason polls. Georgia Tech broke its previous school record by 12 shots with a 796 team score, while Clemson's 797 set the Clemson 54-hole record by 14 shots.

The Tigers were nine shots down with seven holes left, then made an incredible run to see the tournament come down to the last hole.

This was also the first tournament in Clemson history that all five Clemson players shot par-or-better in all three rounds. Clemson's team scores by round were 266-264-267, and it marked the first time in school history Clemson shot under 270 in all three rounds. The Tigers also had 80 birdies and two eagles as a team, the most under-par holes in a 54-hole tournament in school history.

Individually, Kyle Cottam finished with a 196 score and Jacob Bridgeman shot 199, the first time two Clemson players have broken 200 in the same tournament. Bridgeman's 62 in the second round tied the school record for an 18-hole score.

Cottam's 196 total was second best in Clemson history behind the 195 shot by Bryson Nimmer at the same Arizona tournament in the fall of 2018. Cottam's -14 was tied for the seventh best score vs. par in Clemson history. The "super senior" from Knoxville, Tenn. had rounds of 64-65-67 in finishing fifth in the 90-player field. His opening round 64 was his career best.

The victory moved Clemson to number-seven in the Sept. 17, 2021 Bushnell Coaches Poll.

Clemson played just three events in the fall, as one was cancelled due to inclement weather. That set up a busy spring slate of eight tournaments.

A big highlight of the spring season was the victory at the Wake Forest Invitational at the famed Pinehurst #2 course in North Carolina March 7-8. Colby Patton and Zack Gordon were co-medalists, leading Clemson to a 16-stroke victory over the future ACC Champion Demon Deacons and other ACC Schools. It was the first team tournament victory for first-year head coach Jordan Byrd.

It was quite a performance considering the Tigers were without leader Jacob Bridgeman, who was qualifying that week for the Canadian Tour.

Clemson won the tournament in wire-to-wire fashion and had the low team score in each round, including a two-under-par 278 in the final round, the low team round of the tournament. Carter Pendley had his finest performance as a Tiger with a seventh place showing off a 216 score and Kyle Cottam finished ninth giving Clemson four top 10s.

Clemson won the event at the future home of the US Open with an 858 score, 18 over par on the par 70 layout. Duke was second at 874 and host Wake Forest was third at 882. NC State finished tied for fourth in the 12-team event with an 887 score.

Clemson's 16-stroke victory margin tied for the second largest for the program in the last 19 years. Clemson won the 2016 Bandon Dunes by 17 shots and the 2020 Palmetto Intercollegiate by 16 shots.

Patton and Gordon finished with 54-hole scores of two-over-par 212. It marked just the second time in Clemson history that two Tiger golfers tied for medalist honors in the same tournament. The only other time took place at the 1987 Gamecock Intercollegiate when Kevin Johnson and Chris Patton shared medalist honors. Chris Patton is Colby Patton's dad and was an All-American at Clemson between 1987-90.

The Pattons became just the second father-son combination in Clemson history to win tournaments. Tony Nimmer and Bryson Nimmer also accomplished the feat.

Bridgeman was back in the lineup for the Linger Longer Invitational two weeks later and won the event with a 16-under-par score of 200.

Bridgeman won the 90-player event by six shots over his nearest competitor, tied for the largest margin of victory by a Clemson golfer in school history. The six-shot margin matched Doc Redman's six-shot win at the Jackrabbit during the 2015-16 season.

Bridgeman kept his incredible play going at the ACC Championship where he won in a playoff over Peter Fountain of North Carolina.

Bridgeman shot 13-under-par 203 for the 54 holes. The performance gave Bridgeman five consecutive top four finishes (two victories), the first streak of its kind by a Clemson golfer in 20 years. D.J. Trahan had six straight top four finishes in the spring of 2002. It was Bridgeman's fifth career win, tying the Clemson victory record.

Clemson received a bid to the NCAA Regional Tournament in Columbus, Ohio, the 40th consecutive NCAA Tournament for the program. The Tigers were the number-four seed in the tournament.

The Tigers were led by Bridgeman, who finished 12th overall with an even-par 213, including 69 in the final round. That was Bridgeman's 50th career round in the 60s, a Clemson record. The Tigers finished sixth in the 13-team field, missing the five-team cut by just four shots.

The regional tournament was the final event for a threesome of outstanding seniors. Cottam and Patton had played five years and been starters on five NCAA Tournament teams, including four that had gone to the NCAA Championship Tournament.
