DOUG KINGSMORE STADIUM

Doug Kingsmore Stadium, the home of Tiger baseball since 1970, has seen many changes and improvements over the years, but it has not lost its aesthetic beauty and unique feel on the west side of the Clemson University campus.

Doug Kingsmore Stadium has over 4,500 permanent seats, but is capable of holding 6,272 fans thanks to a hill area down the left-field line that is popular with students.

The park features a terrace in the outfield adjacent to the fence, similar to the old Crosley Field in Cincinnati. Former Head Coach Bill Wilhelm liked the look and practicality of a field with grass around the outfield instead of gravel or dirt.

In 2015, a three-story building was constructed behind the first-base dugout. It houses a state-of-the-art clubhouse, coaches offices and a player lounge among other amenities.

SEASON REVIEW STORY

The 2026 season started on a high note with the Tigers jumping out to a 15-1 record, but they missed the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2022. Clemson played a difficult schedule, which saw it face the top-five seeds in the final ACC standings during the regular season and seven of the top eight. Clemson finished with a 31-26 overall record and 10-20 ACC mark.

Of Clemson's 57 games, 27 (47 percent) were against teams that played in the 2026 NCAA Tournament. Clemson reached as high as No. 8 in the polls in early March, but its 51-week streak of being ranked in the top 25 of at least one poll (from 2023-26) came to an end. The Tigers played 170 consecutive games ranked in the top 25 of at least one poll during the stretch.

The 2026 Tigers still realized several achievements. Clemson (.373) had a higher on-base percentage in ACC regular-season games than its opponents (.370). Clemson's solid pitching staff was a big reason it had a 25-1 record when holding its opponents to less than five runs. When Clemson took an early lead, it had success, as it was 18-1 when leading at the end of the second inning.

Clemson's 1.32 WHIP was its best mark (excluding the 2020 season) since 2018 and 16th best in the country. The staff also had a 2.95 strikeout-to-walk ratio, its highest figure since 2017 and second-highest mark since 1996. It was also 12th highest in the nation. The Tigers, who had a 4.56 ERA and .245 opponents' batting average, had a 10.26 strikeout-per-nine-innings pitched mark as well.

Michael Sharman was Clemson's most valuable pitcher, as he was 6-2 with a 3.39 ERA and 77 strikeouts against only 11 walks in 77.0 innings pitched over 15 starts. His 7.00 strikeout-to-walk ratio was fifth in Tiger history and tied for fourth in the nation. Sharman did not allow more than four earned runs or two walks in any of his 15 starts. Aidan Knaak added a team-high 88 strikeouts to become just the seventh Tiger in history with 300 career strikeouts. His 13.81 strikeouts-per-nine-innings pitched mark in 2026 established a school record and was seventh in the country.

Ariston Veasey and Hayden Simmerson were two relievers who excelled in their first seasons at Clemson. Veasey had a 3.29 ERA, .143 opponents' batting average and 37 strikeouts in 27.1 innings pitched over a team-high 20 appearances. Simmerson totaled a team-high four saves, a 3.62 ERA, .158 opponents' batting average and 46 strikeouts against 11 walks in 32.1 innings pitched. Brendon Bennett and Danny Nelson earned All-ACC Freshman honors as well. It marked the first time since 2021 and second time in history that Clemson had two All-ACC Freshman selections.

Joe Allen was one of 13 Tigers who earned All-ACC Academic honors and became the first Clemson baseball player in history to be named to the team four times.

At the plate, Jacob Jarrell (second team) and Nate Savoie (third team) earned All-ACC honors. Jarrell led the team in homers (18) for the second year in a row, becoming the first Tiger since Seth Beer (2016-18) to lead Clemson in long balls in consecutive seasons. Savoie led Clemson in runs (52), hits (75), RBIs (52) and slugging percentage (.596) along with hitting .329 with 16 homers.

Luke Gaffney rebounded to have a stellar season by hitting .318 with nine homers, 43 RBIs and a .437 on-base percentage. He was named Clemson's top male ACC Scholar-Athlete (for all sports) in the 2025-26 academic year.

Jarren Purify and Tryston McCladdie played big roles in the lineup, but both suffered injuries at midseason. Purify only started and finished 34 of the 57 games, and Clemson had a 23-11 record in those 34 games, meaning the Tigers were 8-15 in the other 23 games. Purify led the team in batting average (.344) and on-base percentage (.454) along with totaling 13 steals.

McCladdie hit .281 with eight homers, 47 RBIs and a team-high 20 steals while splitting time in the outfield, at third base and at second base.

Clemson began the season with a three-game sweep, including shutouts in the final two games, of Army West Point in the first meetings between the programs. Savoie burst onto the scene by going 8-for-11 (.727) with seven RBIs in the series. Clemson continued its winning streak by defeating Charlotte 11-1, sweeping Bryant in three home games and beating Presbyterian at home.

The Tigers then won two of three games over rival South Carolina. After a setback in the first game, Sharman pitched a complete game, the first by a Tiger since 2024, in the 4-1 win at Segra Park in the second game. He allowed only four hits, one run and no walks with four strikeouts, as he only threw 78 pitches (67 strikes). He did not throw more than 11 pitches in any inning and was named national and ACC Pitcher-of-the-Week. Clemson won the series with a 7-2 victory in the third game at Doug Kingsmore Stadium. The Tiger pitching staff allowed four hits in each of the three games.

The Tigers hit a season-high four homers in a 12-1 win over Michigan State at Fluor Field, then they swept La Salle in four home games by a combined score of 52-12.

Clemson's struggles began with a 6-1 loss against Georgia Southern in North Augusta and two losses in three home games to No. 3 Georgia Tech. In the win in the series finale, McCladdie went 4-for-6 with a Tiger-record-tying three doubles and two RBIs.

After midweek wins at College of Charleston and The Citadel, Notre Dame swept the Tigers in Indiana, then No. 15 Coastal Carolina rallied for an 11-9 win at Clemson and Miami (Fla.) won two of three games at Doug Kingsmore Stadium in late March. In Clemson's victory over the Hurricanes, McCladdie went 3-for-4 with two homers, including the go-ahead long ball in the seventh inning, a double and three RBIs.

Wake Forest downed the Tigers 15-4 in a non-conference game in Charlotte before Clemson traveled to the Golden State to win three of four games, including two victories at Stanford. In the series opener, Simmerson pitched 4.0 scoreless innings of one-hit ball to record the save. Clemson capped the trip with a 6-4 comeback win at Santa Clara thanks in large part to a three-run homer with two outs in the eighth inning by Jason Fultz Jr., the first long ball of his career.

Clemson returned home to win one of three games against No. 5 North Carolina, but a 6-4 setback in 14 innings in the second game was pivotal. The Tigers rebounded to defeat Charlotte 7-3 on the road thanks in large part to a six-run first inning. No. 9 Virginia then won two of three games in Charlottesville. In Clemson's victory, Sharman pitched 8.0 strong innings to register the win and earn ACC Pitcher-of-the-Week honors for the second time in 2026.

Clemson returned home to defeat USC Upstate 7-2, then the Tigers concluded April by being swept in three games at Louisville. Gaffney was 7-for-10 with an .813 on-base percentage in the series.

After final exams, Clemson won two of three home games against No. 13 Boston College, as Purify made his return to the lineup. Clemson scored 11 runs in the first inning in the second game, a 14-4 Tiger win. It was the Tigers' most runs in an inning since 2019, Clemson's most runs in an ACC regular-season game since 2005 and tied for the second-most runs in a first inning in school history. In the series finale, Clemson rallied for a 4-3 win, as Purify was 3-for-4 with a homer and the go-ahead, run-scoring single in the eighth inning.

The Tigers downed No. 7 Coastal Carolina 8-4 in Conway before winning one of three home games against No. 12 Florida State. In Clemson's win, Nelson retired all 12 batters he faced in relief to earn the win. The Tigers concluded the regular season with a 5-1 loss at USC Upstate and one win in three games at Virginia Tech.

The Tigers faced Notre Dame in the ACC Tournament at Charlotte and hit three homers, but they ultimately fell 5-4. Sharman, Veasey and Simmerson combined for 16 strikeouts, the most by Clemson in ACC Tournament game, its 200th all-time.

Clemson averaged 5,029 fans per home date (28), the 14th-highest figure in the nation and second in the ACC. It was Clemson's second-highest average home attendance in history.

Five Tigers were selected in the MLB draft after the season. Knaak was picked in the fifth round (No. 163 overall) by the Milwaukee Brewers, Justin LeGuernic was chosen in the sixth round (No. 180 overall) by the Kansas City Royals, Jarrell was selected in the eighth round (No. 232 overall) by the Atlanta Braves, Veasey was picked in the 11th round (No. 337 overall) by the Chicago Cubs and Drew Titsworth was chosen in the 11th round (No. 339 overall) by the Philadelphia Phillies. Sharman signed a free-agent contract with the Chicago White Sox as well.
