CLEMSON 21

GEORGIA 45

AUG. 30, 2014 • SANFORD STADIUM • ATHENS, GA.

It was an engaging matchup throughout the first half, but No. 12 Georgia pulled away to defeat No. 16 Clemson 45-21 in Athens behind an impressive rushing attack.

It was the Tigers' first loss in a season-opener under Head Coach Dabo Swinney. Clemson's last season-opening loss came in 2008 against Alabama.

Georgia's ground game, led by Todd Gurley, amassed 328 yards, with Gurley accounting for 198.

In his first career start, Cole Stoudt was out to show the Clemson offense was not all Tajh Boyd and Sammy Watkins. And in the first half, he did not disappoint. Stoudt and the offense orchestrated an effective 12-play, 70-yard scoring drive on the offense's first series, capped by a one-yard touchdown run by D.J. Howard.

Georgia rallied behind quarterback Hutson Mason and leaned on the dynamic, superstar ability of Gurley, as the Bulldogs scored two touchdowns to end the first quarter with a 14-7 lead.

Tiger fans saw a quick glimpse of the future when first-year freshman Deshaun Watson, one of the highest-rated dual-threat quarterbacks in the nation coming out of high school, entered the game in the second quarter. He led a six-play, 78-yard scoring drive, ending with a 30-yard passing touchdown to Charone Peake to even the score 14-14.

The Clemson defense played effectively in the first half, holding Georgia to 68 passing yards and 45 rushing yards, and Gurley amassed only 39 of those 113 total yards. But after Clemson took a 21-14 lead on C.J. Davidson's one-yard touchdown run in the second quarter, Gurley broke through, taking a kickoff return 100 yards to tie the score again.

Georgia kicked a field goal in the third quarter to take the lead for good, while the Bulldog defense kept Clemson off the scoreboard during the entire second half. Georgia scored on three consecutive offensive plays in the fourth quarter to pull away.

Clemson's offense finished the night with 291 yards of total offense, while Georgia had 459 total yards. The difference came on the ground, where Georgia totaled 328 rushing yards compared to Clemson's 88 rushing yards.

The Bulldogs used an average starting field position of its own 39 to claim victory, while the Tigers' average starting field position was their own 19. Ten of Georgia's 15 offensive drives started outside its own 32, while Clemson's best starting field position in 15 offensive drives was its own 32.

C.J. Davidson was the Tigers' leading rusher with 43 yards and a touchdown on 12 carries, while Mike Williams had three receptions for 88 yards. Peake had the Tigers' lone touchdown catch of the day.

SC STATE — 7

CLEMSON — 73

SEPT. 6, 2014 • MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

In their home opener, the No. 23 Clemson Tigers faced another type of Bulldog in SC State, looking to bounce back from the previous game in Athens, Ga., and the Tigers did not disappoint, cruising to a 73-7 win.

Clemson finished the day with 735 yards, while holding SC State to just 44, with the defense not giving up an offensive touchdown. The 73 points were the most by Clemson since scoring 82 points against Wake Forest in 1981, while the 66-point margin of victory was Clemson's largest since 1957, when the Tigers defeated Presbyterian College 66-0.

"This was a great win and I'm proud of our team today," said Head Coach Dabo Swinney. "We had to respond after last week and I think we did, and that's what matters. The coaches, the support staff and the players - everyone put forth the effort we needed."

On offense, Clemson moved the ball effectively, finishing with 268 rushing yards and 467 passing yards. Both quarterbacks had efficient games, as Cole Stoudt finished with 302 passing yards and a touchdown along with a pass efficiency rating of 163.4. Deshaun Watson had 154 passing yards, three touchdowns and a pass efficiency rating of 342.6. Watson's first game in Death Valley was all he could have ask for.

"It was great," said Watson. "Seeing all the orange in the stands and all the fans and Clemson Family support, and then running down the Hill with all my 'brothers' for the first time was a great experience."

In regard to Watson's performance against SC State, Offensive Coordinator Chad Morris liked what he saw out of the offense and praised Watson's progress and poise on the field, while also highlighting the Tigers still have two good quarterbacks to work with.

"You've got a great competition going on, and Cole is our starter, but that's a pleasure to have right now. We obviously know where Deshaun is, and he is the future down the road in years to come, but we're excited about Cole as well."

The performances by other freshmen did not go unnoticed, as fans saw plenty of potential from more than just Watson. Wide Receiver Artavis Scott finished the day with six receptions for 164 yards and two touchdowns, passing both Aaron Kelly and Sammy Watkins in single-game receiving yards by a Tiger freshman. The previous record was set by Kelly against Temple in 2006 and Watkins against Auburn in 2011.

"It's a good accomplishment for me," said Scott. "I'm excited and I was blessed and thankful for it, but I know we have to handle more things than that."

Scott, who earned ACC Receiver-of-the-Week honors, also stated that the offense's performance would be good momentum heading into the bye week before hitting the road to Tallahassee against Florida State.

"It's going to keep building our momentum, practice is going to be high intensity like we've been doing and when this game comes, it's going to be a big week for us, and we're going to be ready when it comes," added Scott. "Coming back out, we don't want to get complacent. We want to keep doing the same things we're doing, moving the ball and keeping defenses on their heels and moving forward and building and building."

The Tigers got the job done in the running game as well as the passing game. Wayne Gallman led all rushers with 77 yards on 10 carries. Gallman made the most of his opportunities and did not let his chance get away from him.

"I had a lot of fun today, and I think it was just the beginning of something new," stated Gallman. "I think we have a whole lot more in store. The offensive line did a great job getting their blocks."

Gallman was not the only freshman running back to see his first extended game action. Adam Choice logged plenty of snaps on the day, finishing with 12 carries for 74 yards and a touchdown, the first of his Tiger career, while averaging 6.2 yards per carry. He also added two catches for 15 yards.

"We gave it our all and everything opened up," said Choice about the Tigers' success in the running game. "The offensive line did a great job and everything was there, so I believe if we work like that, good things will happen."

The defense's dominating performance was highlighted by its 14 tackles for loss by 12 different players. The 44 yards allowed by the Tiger defense were the fewest since 1963, when Clemson held Virginia to 41 yards.

CLEMSON 17

FLORIDA STATE 23

OT

SEPT. 20, 2014 • DOAK S. CAMPBELL STADIUM • TALLAHASSEE, FLA.

The No. 22 Clemson Tigers battled the defending National Champions and threatened to end No. 1 Florida State's 18-game winning streak, but the Seminoles prevailed 23-17 in overtime when Karlos Williams scored on a 12-yard walkoff run. The loss dropped the Tigers to 1-2 overall and 0-1 in the ACC. Florida State improved to 3-0 overall and 1-0 in league play.

The Tigers came into Doak S. Campbell Stadium with a prime opportunity to upset the defending title-holder, but a late turnover and crucial mistakes proved costly in a game that could simply be described as a missed opportunity.

It was Clemson's first game against a top-ranked team since 1999, when the Tigers hosted the Seminoles. It was also the Tigers' first overtime game since 2010.

A bright spot from the disappointing night, freshman quarterback Deshaun Watson entered the game on the Tigers' third drive and played the rest of the game, finishing 19-28 passing for 266 yards along with 30 rushing yards and a touchdown. Watson was named ACC Rookie-of-the-Week for his efforts. The Tiger offense finished with 407 total yards and running back C.J. Davidson led the Tigers with 54 yards on 12 carries.

Clemson's defense came to play early and often, amassing five sacks, with Vic Beasley registering two. Clemson also limited Florida State to just 317 total yards, including only 13 yards on 27 carries.

The Tigers kept Sean Maguire under pressure for most of the night, intercepting two passes in the fourth quarter. However, Maguire and the Seminole offense made just enough plays to overcome the Tigers' pass rush to stay undefeated.

NORTH CAROLINA 35

CLEMSON 50

SEPT. 27, 2014 • MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

In his first career start, Deshaun Watson passed for 435 yards and six touchdowns, as the Tigers earned their first ACC victory with a 50-35 win over North Carolina at Memorial Stadium. It was the first time in history Clemson scored exactly 50 points in a game.

Watson's six touchdowns made him the first Tiger in history to throw six touchdowns in a game and the first freshman in ACC history to do so. His 435 passing yards were also a freshman record, and he became just the fifth ACC player, regardless of class, to throw six touchdowns in a game.

Watson continued to show poise beyond that of a freshman quarterback, proving himself early and often in his first career start, though he was not too surprised about what to expect in his starting debut.

"I was expecting to go out there and execute, and that's what we did," said Watson. "It just happened that my offensive line was big and my receivers made great catches. And I'm happy with the records."

Watson earned ACC Co-Offensive Back-of-the-Week and ACC Rookie-of-the-Week honors for his efforts.

But Watson was not the only story of the Tiger offense. Sophomore Germone Hopper led Clemson with 139 receiving yards and two touchdowns, with Mike Williams close behind with 122 receiving yards and two touchdowns. Clemson finished the night with 528 yards of offense.

"We have a lot of good, young receivers, so we just have to go out there and make a lot of plays," said Williams about the receivers' performance. "We came in Monday, put the game against Florida State to bed and got focused on North Carolina and had great preparation."

Hopper was certainly more involved in the passing game, and he stepped up when his number was called.

"Coach (Swinney) told me before the game I would be a big part of the offense early, so I was ready to play," said Hopper.

Offensive Coordinator Chad Morris was pleased with the offense's performance against the Tar Heel defense and likes what he is seeing out of an offense with a lot of young talent.

"A lot of excitement," said Morris. "Felt like all week long, this game was a pivotal moment for our program. If we came out and played with the effort that we did last week (against Florida State) and win and play well and get better, then it's going to set the tone for the rest of the season.

"It was really exciting to see these guys come out and play like they played, from play-two on. We don't have a lot of veterans on our side of the ball with experience, but we have young guys making plays, and it'll make an old man out of you real quick, but I'm excited for the future."

When asked about Watson's performance moving forward, Morris certainly had some strong words about the freshman quarterback's budding future.

"To come out and put on a performance like he did, from the second-effort throws, his patience in the pock- et, his ability to see the field and extend plays with his feet…that's what you like to see. I'm extremely proud of him, and I think he provides a spark for this football team, and not just for this offense, but the entire football team."

The Clemson defense brought pressure early and often, including a safety courtesy of defensive end Shaq Lawson, while fellow defensive end Vic Beasley notched two sacks, bringing his career total to 27, one shy of the Tiger record.

"We've been battle tested in games like Georgia and Florida State, so we know what it takes to win the big games," said Beasley. "We're definitely back on track now."

When asked about the sack record, Beasley said it was one of the goals he made upon returning for his senior season.

"I came back and wanted to break that record, and I look forward to doing so."

Bradley Pinion was a factor on special teams, averaging 46.6 yards on his five punts, with three punts inside the 20. He was named ACC Co-Specialist-of-the-Week.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney loved the team's response and its ability to bounce back from the previous week's overtime loss at No. 1 Florida State.

"We did what we had to do to win," said Swinney. "It was great to be back home. The crowd was awesome. We have another big week coming up and we're going to have to play well against NC State."

NC STATE — 0

CLEMSON — 41

OCT. 4, 2014 • MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

Clemson recorded its first shutout in the Dabo Swinney era, as the defense responded to the challenge set by the coaches in practice all week to limit big plays from opposing offenses, blanking NC State 41-0.

It was the Tigers' first shutout since 2008 against SC State and the first against an ACC opponent in 16 years. It was also the largest margin of victory in series history by either team.

"Our guys were invested and had a great week of practice after a humbling second half last week," said Defensive Coordinator Brent Venables. "Our guys played with incredible passion. I loved the intensity and discipline these guys played with.

"I'm happy that they've finally been rewarded for all their hard work. Our guys have really bounced back and had a strong performance. Offense, defense and special teams all complemented each other."

On offense, it was business as usual, as Deshaun Watson opened the game with a seven-play, 82-yard drive, capped by a 56-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mike Williams, setting the tone for the rest of the day.

Watson, who earned ACC Offensive Back-of-the-Week and ACC Rookie-of-the-Week honors, finished 17-29 passing for 267 yards and two touchdowns while adding two rushing touchdowns and 62 yards on the ground. Clemson also found a spark in the running game outside of Watson, as freshman Wayne Gallman finished with 13 carries for 58 yards, averaging 4.5 yards per carry.

On his 20th birthday, Williams received both of Watson's gift-wrapped touchdown passes of 56 and 31 yards, leading all players with 155 receiving yards. He continued to establish his presence as a dynamic threat in the Tigers' receiving corps. Williams was named ACC Receiver-of-the-Week for his efforts.

Clemson's offense finished with 493 total yards, including 226 rushing yards, averaging 4.5 yards per carry. Perhaps the biggest stat of the day was the lack of turnovers by the Clemson offense.

"We ran a balanced offense today," said Watson. "I give all of the credit to our offensive line, the running backs found holes and our receivers made me look good. We're getting better each week. I give the offensive line all the credit. I love those guys."

Offensive Coordinator Chad Morris praised the offense for its balanced attack against the Wolfpack and was pleased with the Tigers' performance, especially in the turnover battle. Clemson did not commit a turnover.

"I think what you're seeing is a group of guys getting better every week," stated Morris. "No turnovers is huge, we stress that all the time, and we want to run the football. We want to be more effective in the run game and really challenge our offensive line, so I'm really proud of those guys and how they responded.

"I'm just proud of our great team effort overall. It's hard to shut anyone out."

The defense faced a challenge in quarterback Jacoby Brissett, who entered the game leading the ACC with 13 passing touchdowns. The Tigers stepped up to the challenge, holding NC State to only 36 total yards in the first half. The front seven was spearheaded by Vic Beasley, who tied Clemson's all-time career sack record of 28 while collecting a caused fumble and return for a touchdown.

Clemson's defense forced three turnovers on the day, with caused fumbles by Stephone Anthony and Kellen Jones along with Beasley's. The defense refused to yield, holding the Wolfpack to 154 total yards of offense. Grady Jarrett led all tacklers with nine.

"We definitely built off of last week and are showing our progress over the last few weeks as a whole," said Jarrett. "We prepared for it all and we played what we had and had a really strong game on defense."

More than anything, the Tigers' performance in all aspects of the game was all Swinney could ask for from his team, and they did not disappoint.

"This is my first shutout as a head coach, so this is extra special for me," added Swinney.

LOUISVILLE 17

CLEMSON 23

OCT. 11, 2014 • MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

The No. 25 Clemson Tigers pulled out a 23-17 victory over Louisville with their backs against the wall, holding the Cardinals on a last-minute, goal-line stand to preserve a hard-fought victory in the first-ever meeting between the two schools.

With freshman quarterback Deshaun Watson forced to leave the game due to a broken hand, Cole Stoudt stepped in and went 20-33 passing for 162 yards. Freshman Artavis Scott led all receivers with 10 receptions for 66 yards, while freshman Adam Choice led all rushers with 61 yards on 16 carries.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney praised Stoudt for his resiliency coming off a shoulder injury and appreciated how his senior led the team once Watson went down in the first quarter.

"Cole didn't take a snap in practice all week because of his shoulder," admitted Swinney. "Instead of pouting and crying, all he did was choose to have a good attitude and go back to work.

"Cole told me, 'Coach, I'll be ready when you need me.' It does your heart good to see a young man rise up and be there for his teammates. I couldn't be more proud of him."

Clemson's defense and special teams play won the game for the Tigers, which included a 72-yard return by Adam Humphries on the Cardinals' first punt of the game. Humphries, who was named ACC Specialist-of-the-Week, became the first Tiger to return a punt for a touchdown since C.J. Spiller scored on a 77-yard punt return against Boston College in 2009.

Another bright note on special teams, placekicker Ammon Lakip made all three of his field-goal attempts, including two of 40+ yards, which led to praise from Swinney.

"He went 3-3 with one off the backboard," joked Swinney about Lakip's 40-yard field goal off the right upright that gave Clemson the lead for good on the last play of the third quarter. "I think he called that one."

In the second quarter, Garry Peters made one of the game's biggest plays when he sacked Reggie Bonnafon and forced a fumble, which was recovered by Tavaris Barnes in the endzone for the go-ahead touchdown.

Vic Beasley also recorded a sack to bring his career total to 29 and set Clemson's all-time sack record, moving ahead of Michael Dean Perry and the late Gaines Adams.

"It's definitely special to be among names like Michael Dean Perry and Gaines Adams," said Beasley. "They helped set the example for me."

Defensive Coordinator Brent Venables couldn't say enough about how his defense performed at every turn during the game, coming up with the big plays when they needed them, especially on Louisville's final drive.

"They played with everything they got, and we needed it today," said Venables. "These guys showed resiliency, toughness and courage. Our guys were ready for it, and I'm really proud of them."

In his first career start in place of an injured Tony Steward, sophomore linebacker Ben Boulware led the defense with 12 tackles, including a game-high three tackles for loss and one sack. Safety Jayron Kearse made a game-saving tackle on James Quick after a 73-yard catch and run late in the game, which would have tied the score and put the Cardinals ahead 24-23 with a successful extra-point attempt.

"That's something we go through every day in practice," said Kearse. "We have to get to the ball."

With Louisville out of timeouts, the Clemson defense kept the Cardinals out of the endzone on the final drive, stuffing a potential game-winning touchdown run on second down and forcing the Cardinals to spike the ball on third down.

On fourth down from the Clemson two, Will Gardner's pass was broken up by defensive tackle DeShawn Williams, sealing the Tigers' victory. The game was put into the hands of the defense, and it responded in spectacular fashion.

"That's just heart," added Swinney. "That's what it's all about right there, seeing a group of guys play like a family that have each other's back."

CLEMSON 17

BOSTON COLLEGE 13

OCT. 18, 2014 • ALUMNI STADIUM • CHESTNUT HILL, MASS.

For the second game in a row, the Clemson defense needed to make one final stop to give the Tigers a win. And two games in a row, the Clemson defense did just that.

C.J. Davidson scored from 32 yards out with 9:35 remaining in the game and No. 22 Clemson's relentless defense held from there in a 17-13 win over Boston College at Alumni Stadium.

Boston College quarterback Tyler Murphy did plenty of scrambling in the second half and had his team in Tiger territory late in the fourth quarter. But the Clemson defense forced four straight incompletions and the Tigers preserved the victory to take home the O'Rourke-McFadden Trophy for the sixth time in seven years.

"Two weeks in a row, our defense has had to stand up four downs in a row in the redzone, and we got it done," said Head Coach Dabo Swinney. "This was another character win, the second week in a row."

The Tigers held the Eagles to just 120 rushing yards, no small feat considering Boston College entered the game with a top-five rushing offense in the nation.

"We'll take it," stated a relieved Defensive Coordinator Brent Venables after the game. "You feel like you need a therapist after a game like that. But we found a way to win and made some huge stops.

"We have to be better disciplined. We're going to have to rep all those trick plays in practice until we learn how to stop them. But I love our guys for the resolve and the fight that they showed. They were a top-five rushing team in the country and we really shut them down."

Cole Stoudt played well in his first start since the Florida State game on September 20. The senior finished with a career-high 29 completions on 45 attempts for 285 yards. He directed the Tigers to 398 yards of total offense and 22 first downs.

"I still had a lot of shoulder pain this week, but I just tried to battle," said Stoudt, who received the Leather Helmet Award as the game MVP. "Our coaches put together a great gameplan and it was a great team effort to get this done today."

Wayne Gallman scored the first Tiger touchdown, scampering in from 17 yards for his first career score. Gallman finished with 15 carries for 39 yards, while another Tiger freshman, wideout Artavis Scott, had 10 receptions for 72 yards. Mike Williams added eight catches for a game-high 128 yards.

After Boston College took a 13-10 lead in the fourth quarter, the Clemson offense responded when it needed it most. On third-and-long during a rain shower, Stoudt found Williams down the sideline for a 32-yard gain. A few plays later, Davidson found paydirt from 32 yards out to put the Tigers ahead for good.

Clemson's defense took advantage of several miscues from the Eagle offense, including a big drop in the first quarter on a potential touchdown pass and an underthrow on a successful reverse play in the third quarter. The Eagles also missed an extra point, which forced them to go for a touchdown on the final drive.

"We saw a lot of contributions from a lot of guys," said Swinney. "The thing that I was the most proud of is that we were able to rush for two touchdowns in two scoring situations.

"We knew it was going to be a slugfest. That's a quality win."

SYRACUSE — 6

CLEMSON — 16

OCT. 25, 2014 • MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

The Clemson defense dominated again and Wayne Gallman rushed for 101 yards, as the Tigers won another physical battle against Syracuse by a score of 16-6. With the win in the first meeting between the two schools at Memorial Stadium, the No. 20 Tigers moved to 5-1 in the ACC, 6-2 overall and became bowl eligible.

"We keep finding ways to win," said Head Coach Dabo Swinney. "As long as we have one more point than the opponent, that's all that matters. We got it done."

Gallman, who was named ACC Rookie-of-the-Week, finished with 101 yards on 28 carries. Mike Williams led the Tigers in receiving yards with 72 and Artavis Scott led with seven receptions.

The Clemson defense played strong again, keeping the Orange off the scoreboard in the second half. The Tigers had four sacks, a significant accomplishment considering Syracuse had only allowed five sacks entering the game.

The Tigers had 12 tackles for loss and held Syracuse to 3-16 on third-down attempts. The defense also forced three turnovers, with interceptions by safety Robert Smith and Stephone Anthony, who was named ACC Co-Linebacker-of-the-Week, along with a recovered fumble by cornerback Mackensie Alexander. The lost fumble was the first by Syracuse in over 278 snaps, which dated to its September 20 game against Maryland.

The homecoming crowd was electric and the support was appreciated by the team.

"It's really special when you can go out on defense and everyone gets loud and cheers for you," said Grady Jarrett. "It's a very satisfying feeling to know the amount of support we have to get the ball back for our offense."

In a low-scoring affair, special teams continued to be a solid contributor for the Tigers. Ammon Lakip, who was the ACC Specialist-of-the-Week, was 3-3 on field goals.

"It's not often that you're minus in the turnover margin and still win," said Swinney.

The biggest drive for the Clemson offense came in the second half, when Cole Stoudt orchestrated a seven-play, 73-yard drive, capped by a 19-yard touchdown pass to Stanton Seckinger in the fourth quarter to give the Tigers a 16-6 lead.

"We got the running game going, improved on some things and made key plays in the second half," said Stoudt.

The seniors recorded their 25th ACC win, the most ever by a Clemson class.

CLEMSON 34

WAKE FOREST 20

NOV. 6, 2014 • BB&T FIELD • WINSTON-SALEM, N.C.

The No. 19 Clemson Tigers overcame a slow start but finished fast in a 34-20 triumph at Wake Forest. The win, Clemson's sixth straight, moved the Tigers to 7-2 overall and 6-1 in the ACC.

Clemson compiled 427 yards of offense and limited Wake Forest to just 119. The Demon Deacons were held to only seven yards on the ground, while the Tigers racked up 13 tackles for loss.

"There was way too much frustration instead of accountability early on," admitted Defensive Coordinator Brent Venables. "I think our experience and leadership took over. We had poise in the second half and got into a rhythm."

The score was tied 20-20 early in the fourth quarter, but the turning point came when freshman Artavis Scott caught a flip pass from Cole Stoudt on an end-around and evaded tacklers to score the go-ahead touchdown on a 68-yard play. The highlight play helped spark the offense, and the Tigers pulled away in the final 10 minutes.

"It's amazing what happens when one guy makes a play and everyone starts believing," said Offensive Coordinator Chad Morris."

Offensively, Stoudt passed for 282 yards and three touchdowns. Freshmen Wayne Gallman and Scott were the standout performers for the offense. The two accounted for all four of the Tiger touchdowns, with Gallman posting 149 yards from scrimmage. Scott tallied eight catches for 122 yards and two scores. It marked the first time in history Tiger freshmen totaled 100 rushing yards and 100 receiving yards in the same game.

Morris credited the Tiger fans in attendance on a cold and windy night for having a big impact on the game.

"We had unbelievable fans tonight. Our fans were incredible. They were everywhere, hollering and cheering. We really appreciate that. Hats off to our fanbase. It doesn't matter where we go...our fans travel and we love them for that."

"It's a tough place to play, but our fans gave us an edge," stated Stoudt. "That was probably the best our offensive line has played. They were a huge factor in this game."

Wake Forest went up 7-0 early, but Clemson responded with an Ammon Lakip field goal and a screen pass for a touchdown to Gallman, who was named ACC Rookie-of-the-Week, to take the lead in the second quarter. The Tigers were up 17-14 on their final drive of the first half, when two defensive penalties gave Wake Forest a chance to tie the score on an untimed down. Mike Weaver was true from 50 yards out to even the score at halftime.

"When it counted, we got it done," said senior Grady Jarrett. "It was a complete team effort on this win. I felt like we were flat at the beginning of the game, but we fixed it. If we want the defense to be what we want, we have to get better week-in and week-out."

CLEMSON 6

GEORGIA TECH 28

NOV. 15, 2014 • BOBBY DODD STADIUM • ATLANTA, GA.

The No. 17 Clemson Tigers lost starting quarterback Deshaun Watson to a knee injury and could not overcome three turnovers, two of which were converted for touchdowns, in No. 23 Georgia Tech's 28-6 win in Atlanta. With the loss, the Tigers finished their ACC campaign with a 6-2 record and fell to 7-3 overall. Georgia Tech improved to 9-2 overall and finished 6-2 in the ACC Coastal Division.

"This loss hurts, but we have to rally together," said Head Coach Dabo Swinney. "We have to respond, simple as that."

With Watson making his first start since the Louisville game on October 11, the Tiger offense was operating well and led 3-0, threatening to add to it. But Watson immediately grasped for his knee after a first-down run to the Yellow Jacket 14 and left the game. Cole Stoudt's pass was intercepted and returned for a touchdown three plays later, giving the Yellow Jackets the lead for good.

The Tigers hung tough defensively, yielding just 117 yards in the first half to one of the nation's best rushing attacks, but trailed 9-3.

Early in the second half, the Yellow Jackets intercepted a Stoudt pass and converted it into points. They later took another one for six to blow the game open.

Despite Clemson's offensive struggles, the Tiger defense stood tall most of the day, allowing just 353 yards to a team averaging 481.3 entering the contest. It also allowed just one touchdown.

Offensively, freshman Wayne Gallman continued to show his development. The Peach State native produced 88 yards on 15 carries. Watson added seven rushes for 40 yards.

"We won't make any excuses," said Offensive Coordinator Chad Morris. "We have to be able to operate our base offense."

GEORGIA STATE 0

CLEMSON 28

NOV. 22, 2014 • MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney described it as a "special day," as Clemson defeated Georgia State 28-0 on Military Appreciation Day at Memorial Stadium.

The win marked the Tigers' eighth straight at home, moving the Tigers to 8-3 on the season. Clemson's defense recorded its second shutout of the year, the first time since 1998 that the Tigers registered multiple shutouts in one year.

Tyshon Dye was the star on offense, as the freshman running back scored two touchdowns and rushed for 124 yards in just his second game as a Tiger. D.J. Howard had 43 yards on eight carries and Wayne Gallman added 30 rushing yards and a touchdown.

"We were going to make a point to feature Tyshon Dye," said Swinney. "You can see that he has something special. I can see what's coming down the road for us in the running game. It's exciting."

"We ran the ball well today," said Offensive Coordinator Chad Morris. "It was a good mixup seeing Dye play. He continues to get better each and every week. Our big focus this week was how we could build confidence in our offense, and I think we did a good job of that."

On the other side of the ball, Clemson's defense limited Georgia State to 155 yards, including just 40 yards on the ground. The defense came away with three turnovers on day, with interceptions by Korrin Wiggins, Jayron Kearse and Garry Peters, all of which were converted into touchdowns by the Tiger offense.

The game started slow for the Clemson offense, but Dye got things moving when he scored his first career touchdown midway through the first quarter to put the Tigers ahead 7-0, capping a five-play, 30-yard drive.

Dye would get the call again and came through with his second touchdown of the day to give the Tigers a 14-0 lead near the end of the first quarter. The offense punched it in twice more before halftime, with a nine-yard touchdown run by Gallman and a quick strike from Cole Stoudt to Mike Williams to extend the Tigers' lead to 28-0 at halftime. Stoudt credited the offensive line.

"The offensive line did a great job today. All of it comes down to our preparation. We put in a great week and a lot of people got their confidence back."

"Today was a special day for our seniors," added Swinney. "They got their 40th win and tied an all-time record with that 1990 group."

SOUTH CAROLINA 17

CLEMSON 35

NOV. 29, 2014 • MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

Enough was enough for No. 23 Clemson, especially the seniors. And three freshmen who don't know what losing to South Carolina is like get to keep it that way for at least another year.

After five straight years on the short end, Clemson finally broke through and won the annual rivalry game by a score of 35-17 and brought an end to a losing streak that kept many from realizing just how outstanding the program has been over the last several years.

New to the rivalry, Deshaun Watson (14-19 passing for 269 yards, two passing touchdowns and two rushing touchdowns), Wayne Gallman (191 yards and one touchdown on 27 carries) and Artavis Scott (seven receptions for 185 yards and two touchdowns) helped deliver long-awaited relief to the Tiger program and its fanbase.

The contest marked the first time that Clemson had a 250-yard passer, 180-yard rusher and 180-yard receiver in the same game, and it happened with three freshmen. Scott also totaled the most receiving yards by a Tiger in Memorial Stadium history.

The Tigers boasted their most balanced offensive attack in weeks, thanks in large part to the offensive line that helped Clemson rush for 225 yards while not allowing a sack. One of those offensive linemen, Kalon Davis, was named ACC Co-Offensive Lineman-of-the-Week.

"The gameplan was excellent today," said Watson. "We went out and executed. Give a lot credit to our offensive line for allowing us to run the ball and for our great pass protection today."

Head Coach Dabo Swinney couldn't say enough about his team's discipline during the week and its execution on both sides of the ball.

"It's a great way to finish the regular season," stated Swinney. "We knew they were focused, and I'm so proud of them. It was obviously great to get this win."

On defense, the Tigers totaled 13 tackles for loss and five sacks. In his final home game, defensive end Vic Beasley, who was named ACC Defensive Lineman-of-the-Week, registered three tackles for loss, two sacks and a caused fumble. Clemson also limited South Carolina's running game, as the Gamecocks were held to only 63 yards on 33 carries.

"I can't say much more about these guys," said Defensive Coordinator Brent Venables. "They're incredible and the best group I've been around. They deserved this. They have been on edge and they were so hungry for this game today. They played with incredible passion."

The raucous crowd was put on edge early when the Gamecocks took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a touchdown run by Pharoh Cooper. But Scott answered with a 53-yard touchdown catch, and the Tigers never looked back. They followed with rushing touchdowns by Gallman and Watson to give Clemson a 21-10 halftime lead.

In the second half, Clemson's defense stalled a South Carolina drive that ended in a missed field goal, then Scott scored again on a 70-yard touchdown pass from Watson to extend Clemson's lead to 28-10.

The Tiger defense recorded a goal-line stand in the third quarter and then denied the Gamecocks on another critical fourth down in the fourth quarter to end a potential scoring drive.

South Carolina made things interesting with a late touchdown to narrow Clemson's lead to 28-17, but the Tigers delivered the final blow with a nine-play, 75-yard scoring drive that featured only running plays, including Watson's second rushing touchdown of the game.

Swinney credited the fans for the support and atmosphere they provided in Death Valley.

"The fans were incredible today, and I hope they'll enjoy this one."

OKLAHOMA 6

CLEMSON 40

RUSSELL ATHLETIC BOWL • DEC. 29, 2014 • ORLANDO CITRUS BOWL STADIUM • ORLANDO, FLA.

Three-point underdog before the game, 34-point victor after.

The No. 18 Clemson Tigers dominated all aspects of the Russell Athletic Bowl in an impressive 40-6 win over the favored and No. 24 ranked Oklahoma Sooners.

For the Tigers and Head Coach Dabo Swinney, the victory marked a third straight year with an impressive bowl win against a storied opponent. Clemson defeated Louisiana State and Head Coach Les Miles in the 2012 Chick-fil-A Bowl, Ohio State and Head Coach Urban Meyer in the 2014 Orange Bowl (at the end of the 2013 season) and Oklahoma and Head Coach Bob Stoops in the 2014 Russell Athletic Bowl.

The win also gave the Clemson senior class 42 victories from 2011-14, extending its school record. The Tigers have recorded four straight seasons with double-digit wins, one of only four FBS programs who can make that claim along with Alabama, Northern Illinois and Oregon.

Senior Cole Stoudt was named game MVP, a nice end to the quarterback's season and career at Clemson. He finished with a career-high 319 yards and three touchdowns against no interceptions on 26-36 passing and added a rushing touchdown.

Artavis Scott had eight receptions for a game-high 114 yards and one touchdown, while Mike Williams added a game-high nine catches for 112 yards and a touchdown. It marked the first time Clemson had two 100-yard receivers in a bowl game.

Scott started the scoring when he took a screen pass 65 yards for a touchdown on Clemson's first offensive play of the game.

The Tigers' top-ranked defense did not disappoint, forcing five turnovers and holding Oklahoma to 275 yards and a lone score in the fourth quarter. Defensively, Korrin Wiggins had a team-tying-high six tackles and an interception. Ben Boulware had a 47-yard interception return for a touchdown and recovered a fumble. Grady Jarrett added 3.5 tackles for loss, while Vic Beasley had three tackles for loss.

In their first game as co-offensive coordinators, Tony Elliott and Jeff Scott put together a gameplan that resulted in 40 points.

"It's hard to start your playcalling career better than that," said Swinney. "We were in sync and in rhythm."

"We're not going anywere. This is another big win for our program, a great way to end 2014. And I can't wait for 2015."
