THE CLEMSON FOOTBALL STANDARD

MOST WINS SINCE 2015

Clemson has a 110-15 record since starting its current stretch of 10-win seasons in 2011. Only Alabama (113-12) has more wins 2011. The Tigers also have the second-highest winning percentage (.880) in that time frame.

MOST WINS (2011-19)

Rk	School	W	L	Pct.
1.	Alabama	113	12	0.904
2.	Clemson	110	15	0.880

9.	Oregon	88	31	0.739
10.	Stanford	86	34	0.717
	Florida State	86	32	0.729

The recent success has been particularly pronounced in the midst of Clemson's streak of College Football Playoff appearances since 2015. Clemson leads Alabama for the most wins in the country in that span, while the teams have split two national championships in that time frame.

10-WIN SEASONS

Clemson entered 2019 riding a streak of eight consecutive seasons with 10+ wins. The program's eighth consecutive 10-win season in 2018 tied the Tigers with the 1985-92 Miami Hurricanes and the 2004-11 Virginia Tech Hokies for the fourth-longest streak in FBS history and made Clemson one of only six programs to accomplish the feat.

By earning its 10th win of the 2019 season, Clemson became only the fourth program in FBS history to record at least nine consecutive 10-win seasons, tying the 2001-09 Texas Longhorns for the third-longest streak on record.

The record for consecutive 10-win seasons is 14, set by Florida State (1987-00). Alabama is the only other program with an active streak of at least nine.

The Tigers now have 16 10-win seasons in school history, with more than half coming in the last nine years under head coach Dabo Swinney. The 2019 season is Clemson's sixth with at least 12 wins, with Swinney sitting at the helm for five of them.

A CENTURY MARK FOR THE DECADE

Head Coach Dabo Swinney can vividly recall the looks he received when he said Clemson was on the cusp of the winningest decade in program history following a 2010 campaign in which the Tigers finished 6-7. In 2017, that vision became a reality with two seasons to spare when Clemson collected its 88th win of the decade in the ACC Championship Game against Miami (Fla.) to surpass the Tigers of the 1980s (87) for most wins in any decade in school history.

With a rivalry win against South Carolina to close the 2018 regular season, Clemson reached triple digits in wins in a decade for the first time in program history. Included below are the schools that have accomplished that feat.

100 WINS BY DECADE

Decade	Teams
1890s	Penn (124), Yale (116), Princeton (107), Harvard (103)
1900s	Yale (100), Penn (100)
1910s	None
1920s	None
1930s	None
1940s	None
1950s	None

2000s	Boise State (112), Oklahoma (110), Texas (110), Ohio State (102), Florida (100)
2010s	Alabama (123), Ohio State (117), Clemson (116) , Oklahoma (109), Boise State (107), Wisconsin (102), LSU (101)

Note: FBS programs

Clemson has a 116-22 record in the decade of the 2010s. That computes to an .840 winning percentage, the best for any decade in school history and the first time Clemson has won more than 80 percent in a single decade.

In the 1980s, Clemson had a .767 winning percentage (87-25-4), the nation's fifth-best winning percentage. Clemson did not have a losing season in any year in the 1980s under Danny Ford, who coached every game in that decade. Dabo Swinney has coached every game in the decade of the 2010s, and with Clemson clinching another winning season in 2019, will finish the decade with nine winning seasons and one losing season (6-7 in 2010).

SENIORS CHASING HISTORY

The 2018 Clemson seniors left their legacy not only in program history but also in the annals of the sport, recording 55 wins to tie for the most wins by any senior class in FBS history.

Throughout the 2018 season, Head Coach Dabo Swinney reminded his players that anything Clemson had done once, they'd done again. The 2019 senior class will have the opportunity for that maxim to once again ring true.

The 2019 Clemson seniors are 54-3 since 2016, passing the 2017 Clemson seniors for the second-most in school history and standing three wins ahead of Alabama's current seniors for the best active record. The group can tie the 2018 seniors for the best four-year mark in school, conference and Football Bowl Subdivision history with a win in the Fiesta Bowl and can go on to hold the mark outright if the team were to go on to win the College Football Playoff National Championship.

The 2019 seniors are the second Clemson class and one of only three classes all-time to reach 54 career wins in a four-year span. Clemson's 2019 group did so in 57 games, tying the 2018 Alabama seniors as the quickest to that mark.

FIVE LEAGUE TITLES IN A ROW

Clemson won its fifth straight ACC championship in 2019, as the Tigers and the Oklahoma Sooners both became the first programs in an active FBS conference since the 1971-75 Alabama Crimson Tide to win five consecutive outright titles.

POWER FIVE CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS (2015-19)

B12	Oklahoma	Oklahoma	Oklahoma	Oklahoma	Oklahoma
P12	Stanford	Washington	USC	Washington	Oregon
SEC	Alabama	Alabama	Georgia	Alabama	LSU

Clemson had already been the first ACC school to win four outright titles in a row prior to extending the streak to five in 2019. Florida State was a champion or co-champion nine years in a row from 1992-00, but never won more than three outright in a row.

The Tigers' victory over Pittsburgh in the 2018 ACC Championship Game made Clemson only the second Power Five Conference school since the inception of league championship games in 1992 to win four straight conference championship games, joining the Florida Gators, who won four straight SEC Championship Games in a row from 1993-96. Clemson became the first school to win five straight in the 2019 ACC Championship Game.

EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS

Clemson has equaled or exceeded its postseason AP and USA Today rankings in comparison to its preseason rankings each of the last eight years. That included quite an accomplishment in both 2016 and 2018, as it finished No. 1 by winning the national championship to exceed the school's No. 2 preseason ranking both times.

THE CLEMSON FOOTBALL STANDARD

Clemson exceeded its preseason ranking each of the last eight years in the coaches poll, a streak that will come to an end in 2019 by simple virtue of Clemson opening the season atop the 2019 poll.

With regard to Associated Press voting, Clemson has exceeded its preseason ranking in the AP poll in seven of the last eight years. The lone exception came in 2013, when Clemson was picked No. 8 in the AP preseason poll and finished No. 8.

CFP STREAK COMPARISON

With five consecutive CFP appearances, Clemson's active playoff streak is as long or longer than:

- 31 of 32 NFL teams
- 29 of 30 MLB teams
- 30 of 31 NHL teams
- 25 of 30 NBA teams

So, even despite only four teams making the College Football Playoff each year, Clemson's playoff streak is as long or longer than 115 of the 123 teams in the four major professional sports.

The only eight teams in professional sports with longer playoff streaks are:

LONGEST ACTIVE PLAYOFF STREAKS

POWER OVER THE POWER FIVE

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level,'" recounted Swinney. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2013, no team can claim more wins against Power Five Conference opponents than the Tigers.

ESTEEMED COMPANY

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's run of excellence in his decade-plus at Clemson has placed him in the company of college football legends.

Swinney enters this week with a winning percentage of .811, sitting as one of only 13 head coaches in history with at least 10 seasons of FBS head coaching experience to post a mark of .800 or better. That list presently includes Knute Rockne (.881), Frank Leahy (.864), Urban Meyer (.854), George Woodruff (.846), Barry Switzer (.837), Tom Osborne (.836), Fielding Yost (.833), Percy Haughton (.832), Bob Neyland (.826), Bud Wilkinson (.826), Jock Sutherland (.812), and Bob Devaney (.806).

Among the legends Swinney has already passed are College Football Hall of Famers Bo Schembechler (.775), Bear Bryant (.780) and Henry Williams (.785), as well as Nick Saban (.791 prior to NCAA adjustment), whose Crimson Tide were defeated by Swinney and the Tigers in the most recent national championship game.

Against Florida State earlier this year, Swinney passed the career total of Danny Ford, who won 121 combined games at Clemson (96) and Arkansas (25).

With a win against Wofford in early November, Swinney recorded his 125th win in his 155th career game. Per records available via Sports Reference, he became the 10th-fastest coach to reach 125 career wins in terms of games coached.

SWINNEY AT 150

In the 150-year anniversary season of college football, Head Coach Dabo Swinney coached his 150th game as leader of the Clemson program in the fourth game of the season against Charlotte. He became just the second Clemson coach to reach 150 career games, joining Hall of Famer Frank Howard, who coached 295 games as Clemson's head coach from 1940-69.

Only eight coaches have coached at least 150 games at schools presently in the Football Bowl Subdivision while achieving an .800 or better mark. Interestingly, Clemson holds a 4-0 combined all-time record against the top three coaches on the list.

TOP WIN PERCENTAGE IN ACC HISTORY

Head Coach Dabo Swinney entered the 2019 season already perched atop ACC history in overall winning percentage with a mark of .795 prior to the start of the season. He has since pushed that percentage to .811 with a 13-0 start in 2019.

Swinney also entered the season with a 69-16 record in ACC regular season games, a winning percentage of .812 that sat only .001 shy of College Football Hall of Famer Bobby Bowden's conference record of .813. Swinney passed Bowden in career winning percentage in ACC regular season play during Clemson's 52-14 win against Georgia Tech in the season opener. With Clemson's ACC regular season slate now concluded, Swinney's all-time record in those games now stands at 77-16 (.828).

MEET THE TIGERS

The Clemson Tigers enter their fifth consecutive College Football Playoff in search of the program's fourth national championship and with hopes of becoming the first repeat national champion in the CFP era. The Tigers would become the first back-to-back champion since Alabama's consecutive titles in BCS National Championship Games in 2011-12. The title would be Clemson's third in four years, which would place the Tigers with the 2009-12 Alabama Crimson Tide and 1994-97 Nebraska Cornhuskers as the only FBS programs in the AP poll era to accomplish the feat.

Clemson entered the season as the nation's No. 1 team in both polls for the first time in school history, a perch it held until the final week of September. Clemson would eventually drop as low as No. 4 in the AP Poll and No. 5 in the CFP listing before climbing back to No. 3, where it sits today in both major polls and in College Football Playoff seeding. The Tigers became the first team since Alabama in 1966 to enter the year as the AP No. 1 and finish the regular season third or lower despite not losing a game.

Clemson bulldozed its way through the majority of its 2019 campaign, posting a 13-0 record for only the third time in school history (2015, 2018 and 2019). Clemson has outscored its opponents, 605-138, an average margin of 35.9 points per game, outpacing the school record of 35.3 established by Coach John Heisman's squad in Clemson's fifth year of football in 1900. Along the way, Clemson has collected a national-best 11 wins against Power Five opponents, and even with the inclusion of a one-point conference road win in September, Clemson won those 11 games against Power Five opponents by an average of 34.5 points.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney entered the year confident in his football team but curious about the chemistry that would develop between a small but strong group of senior leaders and a young but talented group behind them that included 80 freshmen and sophomores. The chemistry exceeded his wildest expectations, as he told reporters "it came together beautifully" and labeled his team simply as "super fun."

Swinney's senior class sits at 54-3 for their careers, one win away from tying the FBS record for senior class wins and two wins away from passing the 2018 Clemson and Alabama seniors to hold the record outright. Two more wins would also give the Clemson seniors and the Clemson program 30 consecutive wins, which would break Florida State's ACC record of 29 (2012-14) and represent only the 12th winning streak of 30 or more games in FBS history.

OFFENSE

Clemson's dominance in 2019 has been driven in part by one of the nation's most explosive — and most balanced — offenses. Under the guidance of Co-Offensive Coordinators Tony Elliott and Jeff Scott, the Tigers enter the bowl season ranked in the top 10 in the nation in yards per carry (6.46, first), total touchdowns (81, second), yards per game (547.7, third), first downs per game (26.8, third), points per game (46.5, fourth), yards per play (7.51, fourth) and rush yards per game (252.9, 10th).

Clemson has already accrued 7,120 yards of offense this season, the fourth-most in school history. That total includes 3,288 rushing yards and 3,832 passing yards, making the 2019 season only the third 3,000/3,000-yard season rushing and passing in program annals (2015 and 2018). Clemson enters the bowl season as one of only three teams in the country averaging 250 yards per game both on the ground and through the air this season, joining fellow CFP participants Ohio State and Oklahoma in that category.

Clemson has been buoyed by fast starts this season, outscoring teams 170-17 in the opening quarter. Dating to the 2015 season, Clemson has won its last 50 games when scoring first. The man behind center for the fast starts this season has been quarterback

Trevor Lawrence (Cartersville, Ga.), the first-team All-ACC selection and Manning Award finalist who enters bowl season 28-0 at Clemson including a 24-0 record as a starter. The sophomore has completed 232-of-337 passes (68.8 percent) for 3,172 yards and a career-high 34 touchdowns with eight interceptions for a passer rating of 176.45.

Lawrence received criticism for interceptions early in the season, throwing his eighth of the season in the first quarter of Clemson's Oct. 19 game at Louisville, when he threw two interceptions in the opening period. Since the start of the second quarter of that game, Lawrence is 134-of-163 (82.2 percent) for 1,866 yards with 23 touchdowns and no interceptions for a passer rating of 224.9. He also has thrown 169 consecutive pass attempts without an interception, tying his own single-season school record of 169 set at the conclusion of last season.

Lawrence spent the offseason prior to the 2019 campaign with two dictated goals from Swinney: 1) get stronger, and 2) make more plays with his legs. Lawrence responded on both fronts, entering the season with an extra five pounds of muscle and then making noteworthy strides in his ability to both run and extend plays with his legs. Lawrence is third on the team in rushing yards (407) and second in rushing touchdown (seven), and his extension of plays inside and outside the pocket has led to numerous big plays downfield this season.

Swinney has said he believes his team has the two best quarterbacks in the ACC, speaking not only to his confidence in Lawrence but also in backup Chase Brice. The redshirt sophomore out of Grayson, Ga. will forever be cemented in Clemson lore for his clutch performance in 2018, when he kept Clemson's eventual 15-0 national championship season alive against Syracuse. In relief of an injured Lawrence that day, he led the Tigers to a come-from-behind victory on the strength of a 94-yard game-winning drive that featured a critical fourth-and-six conversion. This season, Brice is 50-of-85 for 581 yards with four touchdowns and added his first career rushing touchdown in the ACC Championship Game.

The quarterbacks are joined in the backfield by junior Travis Etienne (Jennings, La.), a junior for whom a larger printing budget would be required to adequately convey his career accolades and accomplishments. This season, Etienne became the ACC's all-time career leader in rushing touchdowns (54), total touchdowns (57) and points by a non-kicker (348). He earned ACC Player of the Year honors for the second straight season, becoming the first running back to collect the award in back-to-back seasons in more than four decades (Mike Voight in 1975-76).

Etienne, whose snub from the Doak Walker Award finalist list was the subject of passionate discourse from Swinney in the local and national media, has rushed for 1,500 yards in 2019 on 182 carries with 17 rushing touchdowns. His growth in the passing game was a focus of his in the offseason as well, evidenced now by his third-place rank on the team in receptions (29) and adding 298 yards and two scores in that capacity.

Spelling Etienne this season has been sophomore Lyn-J Dixon (Butler, Ga.). Dixon (7.11) ranks second behind only Etienne in career yards per carry in school history, adding to his career totals with 102 carries for 619 yards and six rushing touchdowns in 2019. At times this season, the running back rotation has also included respected team leader Darien Rencher (Anderson, S.C.), powerful freshman Chez Mellusi (Naples, Fla.) and shifty freshman Michel "Mikey" Dukes (Charleston, S.C.).

Clemson's 2019 receiving corps has had NFL scouts drooling and most defensive coordinators cowering, as College Football Playoff observers from 2018 are well aware of the capabilities of Clemson's two leading receivers, Tee Higgins and Justyn Ross.

Ross (Phenix City, Ala.) was arguably the Playoff's brightest star a year ago when he announced his presence on the game's biggest stages as a freshman, catching six passes for 148 yards with two touchdowns in the Cotton Bowl and six passes for 153 yards with one touchdown in the College Football Playoff National Championship. This season, Ross has recorded 742 yards and eight receiving touchdowns on a team-high 55 receptions.

While Ross commanded much of the spotlight on the group to conclude 2018, it's the performance of Higgins (Oak Ridge, Tenn.) in 2019 that has placed the junior in the pantheon of greats at the school that has become "Wide Receiver U." Higgins enters the bowl season with eight touchdowns in his last three games, giving him 27 career touchdown receptions to tie DeAndre Hopkins and Sammy Watkins for the most in school history. Higgins' 1,082 yards and 13 receiving touchdowns lead the Tigers this season on 52 receptions.

The best story of the group might be in the slot, a position that features the remarkable comeback story of junior Amari Rodgers (Knoxville, Tenn.). Rodgers, beloved by coaches and teammates for his maturity and professionalism, tore his ACL in spring practice on March 25 and was expected to miss time during the 2019 season. Rodgers ultimately missed only one game, returning to action against No. 12 Texas A&M only 166 days following his injury. One week after his initial return, Rodgers showed off his rehab work to a national television audience at Syracuse, catching four passes for 121 yards with touchdowns of 16 and 87 yards.

The receiving corps also includes graduate Diondre Overton (Greensboro, N.C.), whom many outside observers assumed would transfer in 2019 in search of playing time in response to the stout combination of players on the Clemson depth chart. Instead, Overton remained with the program for his final year of eligibility, and the 6'4" target, who is popular among his teammates, is fifth on the team with 20 receptions this season including a school-record-tying three-touchdown performance against Boston College.

Other receivers with at least five receptions this season include junior Cornell Powell (Greenville, N.C.), junior T.J. Chase (Plant City, Fla.), junior Will Swinney (Clemson, S.C.), and freshmen Joseph Ngata (Folsom, Calif.) and Frank Ladson Jr. (Miami, Fla.).

Though opportunities for tight ends have been limited in the passing game by virtue of Clemson's arsenal of outside weapons, Clemson's tight ends have been a key component of the Tigers' continued dominance in the running game. Junior J.C. Chalk (Argyle, Texas) has started nearly every game for the Tigers this season, while Clemson has also gotten contributions from former walk-on linebacker Luke Price (Dillon, S.C.) and true freshman Davis Allen (Calhoun, Ga.). The playoff could also represent the return of Braden Galloway (Seneca, S.C.), who last appeared for Clemson in the 2018 ACC Championship Game before sitting out the College Football Playoff and the first 13 games of the 2019 season.

While Clemson's skill position players have rightfully garnered praise and attention in 2019, it's Clemson's experienced offensive line that has helped set the tone for the unit and for the team all year long. The group was named as a semifinalist for the Joe Moore Award, presented to the nation's top offensive line, and all five members of the group collected All-ACC honors in 2019.

The unit features four seniors, the first season in which Clemson has primarily featured four senior starters along the line since 2007. The group's versatility as both run blockers and pass protectors has helped Clemson exceed 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards in 10 of its 13 contests this season, one such performance shy of the most by any FBS team since 2000 (11 by both Marshall and Ohio State in 2014).

MEET THE TIGERS

While collectively strong, the unit is composed of distinctive parts. Senior left guard John Simpson (North Charleston, S.C.) was an Outland Trophy semifinalist and consensus All-American whose strength is matched only by his charisma. Two of his most memorable moments in Tiger orange have been A) wearing a blonde wig to the ACC Kickoff media event in honor of Trevor Lawrence and B) plowing into the end zone on a touch-down run at NC State in early November.

Senior right tackle Tremayne Anchrum (Powder Springs, Ga.) is one of the squad's most vocal leaders who was the other member of the group to pick up first-team All-ACC honors in 2019. Senior Sean Pollard (Jackson Springs, N.C.), a second-team All-ACC selection, is one of the team's most cerebral players who has transitioned from tackle to guard to center in his four seasons at Clemson. Senior right guard Gage Cervenka (Greenwood, S.C.), a second-team All-ACC pick, is Clemson's undisputed strongest member of the team who ESPN recognized as the most impactful player in college football in 2018 according to its PlayStation Player Impact rating.

The starting group is rounded out by sophomore left tackle Jackson Carman (Fairfield, Ohio), a third-team All-ACC honoree who has performed commendably in his first year as a starter while inheriting the unenviable task of following four-year starter and two-time Jacobs Blocking Trophy winner Mitch Hyatt at the position.

Several other members of the line have contributed to the rotation in the trenches this season, led by redshirt sophomore Matt Bockhorst (Cincinnati, Ohio). Others to receive substantial action this season have included junior Cade Stewart (Six Mile, S.C.), junior Chandler Reeves (McDonough, Ga.), redshirt freshman Jordan McFadden (Spartanburg, S.C.) and true freshman Will Putnam (Tampa, Fla.).

DEFENSE

The world wanted to talk about who was gone. In doing so, Swinney and the Clemson staff said the world missed who was still here.

Clemson did lose five defensive linemen — Clelin Ferrell, Christian Wilkins, Dexter Lawrence, Austin Bryant and Albert Huggins — to the NFL after 2018, but Swinney has pointed out that Clemson's 2019 defense has statistically outperformed Clemson's top-ranked scoring defense from 2018 despite the departure of whom he called "the freakazoids up front."

Despite their absence, the defense's performance under Defensive Coordinator Brent Venables in 2019 has been historic and in some cases unprecedented. The Tigers opened the season by keeping each of their first 12 opponents to fewer than 300 yards, marking the first time in ESPN Stats & Info searchable data going back to 1996 that a team had held the first 12 opponents of a season under that mark.

Clemson has not surrendered more than 20 points since the 2018 regular season finale and has now held 16 consecutive opponents to 20 or fewer points. A defensive streak of that length had not occurred at Clemson in 79 years, when Hall of Fame coaches Jess Neely and Frank Howard combined for a 31-game streak across the 1937-40 seasons.

Prior to the season, Swinney pointed to the leadership and talent in his back seven, which he said was the best back seven of his tenure at Clemson. The leadership and production in that group has led Clemson to at least a share of the national lead in points allowed per game (10.6, first), pass yards allowed per game (138.5, first), total yards allowed per game (244.7, first), opponent first downs per game (12.4, first), opponent completions (170, first), opponent passer rating (92.81, first), opponent completion percentage (50.3, tied for first) and opponent yards per pass attempt (5.3, tied for first).

The secondary is led by two senior starters at safety, graduate Tanner Muse (Belmont, N.C.) and senior K'Von Wallace (Richmond, Va.). Muse is a vocal leader who was a Thorpe Award semifinalist and first-team All-ACC selection while leading Clemson with four interceptions. Wallace, a third-team All-ACC pick, is a tone-setter for the defense who is about to become the first four-year college graduate in his family. The unit has also turned frequently to packages with extra safeties, which has provided substantial opportunities for senior Denzel Johnson (Columbia, S.C.) and junior Nolan Turner (Vestavia Hills, Ala.) as well as helped accelerate the growth of true freshmen Lannden Zanders (Shelby, N.C.) and Joseph Charleston (Milton, Ga.).

Clemson's strength at starting cornerback this season was extremely predictable at one position and one of the year's most surprising developments at the other position. Junior A.J. Terrell (Atlanta, Ga.) was one of the conference's top returning cover men who turned a third-team All-ACC performance in 2018 into a launching pad for a first-team All-ACC nod in 2019. But his fellow starter, sophomore Derion Kendrick (Rock Hill, S.C.), was a high school quarterback who played wide receiver for Clemson as a freshman in 2018. Kendrick did not play cornerback until Clemson's secondary was short on bodies in 2019 spring practice, when the Clemson coaching staff threw him on defense in one-on-one drills out of necessity. Eight months after that emergency experiment, Kendrick was a second-team All-ACC selection at cornerback.

Though he no longer resides specifically in the Clemson secondary, the Clemson defense has been headlined in 2019 by former defensive back Isaiah Simmons (Olathe, Kan.), who transitioned to linebacker in 2018 and was named as the country's top linebacker by becoming Clemson's first Butkus Award winner in school history in 2019. Simmons won ACC Defensive Player of the Year and was a finalist for the Bednarik, Nagurski and Lott IMPACT Trophy after posting 93 tackles, 14.0 tackles for loss, 7.0 sacks, seven pass breakups, two interceptions, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery through 13 games.

Simmons' fellow starters at linebacker this year have been graduate Chad Smith (Sterling, Va.) and fourth-year junior James Skalski (Sharpsburg, Ga.). Skalski, an All-ACC snub whom Swinney called a "war daddy," jokingly refers to having had "the sweetest gig on the team" in 2018, as he played only four games including the ACC Championship, Cotton Bowl and National Championship Game a season ago while taking a mid-career redshirt. Meanwhile, Smith's career journey has been a refreshing story of patience in the era of the transfer portal. Smith redshirted his first year and contributed on special teams and in reserve for three years before earning a starting role on defense in his fifth season with the program.

The starting linebackers have been spelled at times through the season by a young yet deep corps of reserves that has included sophomore Baylon Spector (Calhoun, Ga.), redshirt freshmen Mike Jones Jr. (Nashville, Tenn.) and Jake Venables (Clemson, S.C.) and true freshmen Kane Patterson (Brentwood, Tenn.) and Keith Maguire (Media, Pa.).

As for that supposedly depleted defensive line? After Swinney joked in the spring that the staff would be "changing a lot of diapers" on the young unit, the group has grown substantially over the course of the 2019 season, as three members of the group earned All-ACC honors, with another collecting an honorable mention selection.

On the interior, Clemson's defensive line has been led by one of its most precocious true freshmen in school history as well as one of the group's elder statesmen. First-year freshman Tyler Davis (Apopka, Fla.) started on day one — becoming the first true freshman defensive tackle to start a season opener at Clemson since 1974 — en route to collecting second-team All-ACC honors at the conclusion of the regular season. Alongside him has been graduate Nyles Pinckney (Beaufort, S.C.), a fourth-year member of the program who has helped lead a defensive tackles group that also includes youth in sophomore Jordan Williams (Virginia Beach, Va.) and true freshmen Ruke Orhorhoro (Lagos, Nigeria by way of River Rouge, Mich.) and Etinosa Reuben (Kansas City, Mo.). The group also includes junior Xavier Kelly (Wichita, Kan.), a talented artist who is in his second year at tackle after transitioning from defensive end.

Clemson has essentially featured three starters for two defensive end positions in 2019, splitting starts on a game-time decision basis among the trio of junior Justin Foster (Shelby, N.C.) and sophomores Logan Rudolph (Rock Hill, S.C.) and Xavier Thomas (Florence, S.C.). The coaching staff has praised Foster and Rudolph for their reliability, while Thomas has been noted for routinely being one of the unit's most disruptive players. That trio has been supplemented by contributions from redshirt freshmen K.J. Henry (Winston-Salem, N.C.) and Justin Mascoll (Snellville, Ga.).

SPECIAL TEAMS

Given Clemson's prolific scoring offense, sophomore B.T. Potter (Rock Hill, S.C.) has been provided plenty of opportunity to perform in two roles for which he's among the best in nation —kickoffs and PATs.

Potter leads in the nation in kickoff average with an average of 64.6 yards per kick. His 76.7 percent touch-back percentage on those kickoffs ranks eighth in the country. Potter is also a perfect 74-of-74 on PATs this season, pushing him to 81-of-81 on PATs in his career, only seven successful attempts shy of Clemson's consecutive PATs record held by Mark Buchholz (88 from 2007-08).

Potter is rounding into form on field goals, converting four of his last five attempts to enter the bowl season 12-of-19 on field goals in 2019. Potter briefly ceded the position to senior Steven Sawicki (Fayetteville, N.C.) midway, but reclaimed the job with a strong performance down the stretch that included a 51-yard field goal at Louisville, one of two field goals of 50-plus yards the strong-legged kicker has converted this season.

Junior Will Spiers (Cameron, S.C.) has been the team's primary punter. He has been responsible for 37 of Clemson's 45 punts in 2019, averaging 42.5 yards per punt, including eight of 50 yards or more. Ten of his 37 punts have been downed inside the opponent's 20-yard line against only two touchbacks. Spiers has been the starting punter for all 42 of his career games at Clemson.

Senior Patrick Phibbs (Pittsburgh, Pa.) has been the team's primary long snapper on both punts and kicks in 2019. Junior Will Swinney (Clemson, S.C.) is in his third year as the team's primary holder on placekicks.

Clemson's return game includes a number of dangerous options. Freshman Joseph Ngata (Folsom, Calif.) spent most of the season as the squad's kick returner, averaging 23.2 yards on 14 returns. Prior to the team's regular season finale at South Carolina, Swinney inserted starting running back Travis Etienne (Jennings, La.) into that role as part of Clemson's "Championship Phase" of the season, per Swinney's parlance. Etienne has averaged 27.3 yards per kickoff on his three returns in Clemson's two most recent contests.

The punt return job has been primarily split between wide receiver Amari Rodgers (Knoxville, Tenn.) and cornerback Derion Kendrick (Rock Hill, S.C.). Rodgers leads Clemson in punt returns (14), punt return yards (148) and punt return average (10.6), including a season-long 53-yarder vs. Wake Forest. Kendrick has accounted for eight returns, while another six returns have been split among Will Swinney (3), Will Brown (2) and Justyn Ross (1).

BOWL NOTES

SERIES HISTORY VS. OHIO STATE

Though Ohio State enters the Fiesta Bowl with 924 all-time victories, second-most in FBS history, the Buckeyes remain winless in three all-time meetings with Clemson.

All three previous matchups have come in postseason play, including the 1978 Gator Bowl, 2014 Orange Bowl and 2016 Fiesta Bowl. This year's contest will be a rematch of the teams' most recent meeting in 2016 in Clemson's only previous Fiesta Bowl appearance.

Every meeting between the two programs has come with both squads ranked the top 20 in the AP Poll. This will mark the second straight time that the teams will meet with both squads in the top three.

SERIES VETERANS

Eleven members of Clemson's current roster played in the Tigers' 31-0 defeat of Ohio State in the 2016 Fiesta Bowl. Current Clemson center Sean Pollard actually started at right tackle in the contest, playing 53 snaps from scrimmage while sharing playing time with current Clemson right tackle Tremayne Anchrum, who played 37 snaps in the game.

Nine players on Clemson's current roster, including Pollard and Anchrum, recorded at least one offensive or defensive snap in the contest: wide receiver Cornell Powell (23), wide receiver Diondre Overton (10), guard John Simpson (10), guard Gage Cervenka (eight), safety Denzel Johnson (one), safety Tanner Muse (one) and safety K'Von Wallace (one).

Two players on Clemson's current team appeared only on special teams in that game: linebackers Chad Smith and James Skalski.

CONNECTIONS TO THE BUCKEYE STATE

Clemson's current roster features two players from Ohio, with both playing along the Tiger offensive line.

Redshirt sophomore guard Matt Bockhorst, a native of Cincinnati, Ohio, has played 405 snaps over 13 games with one start this season. The financial management major completed his prep career at Cincinnati's St. Xavier High School prior to becoming the first Clemson signee from the state of Ohio since Cole Stoudt in 2011.

Sophomore offensive tackle Jackson Carman followed Bockhorst's lead a year later, joining the Tigers out of Ohio in the 2018 recruiting class. Carman, a native of Fairfield, Ohio, was a third-team All-ACC selection who has played 660 snaps over 13 games (all starts) at left tackle this season.

In addition, Clemson's current roster features a pair of Ohio State legacies. Cornerback Jake Herbstreit and wide receiver Tye Herbstreit are both true freshmen on Clemson's roster and are the sons of former Ohio State quarterback Kirk Herbstreit, who lettered for the Buckeyes from 1989-92 and collected team MVP honors for Ohio State as a senior. Jake and Tye's grandfather, Jim, was a former player and captain at Ohio State from 1958-60 who went on to serve as an assistant coach from 1960-61 under Woody Hayes.

BOWL STREAKS

With a berth in the Fiesta Bowl this season, Clemson extended its school-record bowl streak to 15 years in 2019. Clemson's 15-year bowl streak is the second longest in the ACC and the eighth-longest in the country.

LONGEST ACTIVE BOWL STREAKS

Clemson's 15-year streak dates back to a 19-10 Champs Sports Bowl win against Colorado to close the 2005 season. At 15 years, the streak now more than doubles Clemson's previous longest streak, which covered seven seasons from 1985-91.

Though Clemson did not make a bowl appearance in 2004, Clemson has been bowl eligible in 21 consecutive seasons, dating back to a 1999 appearance in the Peach Bowl.

ACC'S NATIONAL-BEST 10 BOWL TEAMS

No conference produced more bowl teams in 2019 than the ACC, which placed 10 of its 14 members in bowl games this postseason.

With the selection of 10 teams this year, the ACC has now had 42 bowl teams in the last four years, including double-digit selections all four years (11 in 2016, 10 in 2017, 11 in 2018 and 10 in 2019).

The ACC and SEC are the only conferences in the country to place a team in the College Football Playoff or the BCS Championship in each of the last seven years. The ACC leads all conferences in national championships in that span with three.

28 & COUNTING

Clemson enters this week riding a 28-game winning streak dating to the 2018 season opener. Clemson's active winning streak is one of only three double-digit winning streaks in the country and is nine wins ahead of the nation's next-longest streak.

ACTIVE WINNING STREAKS (FBS)

Rk	School	Wins
1.	Clemson	28
2.	Ohio State	19
3.	LSU	14
4.	Memphis	7
	Air Force	7

Clemson's current 28-game winning streak marks the program's 10th all-time winning streak of at least 10 games and the longest streak in team history. Clemson surpassed its previous record 17-game winning streak from 2014-15 for sole possession of the longest streak in school history with a 41-6 win against Syracuse on Sept. 14.

The current streak marks the third time Dabo Swinney has had a winning streak of at least 10 games.

Danny Ford had three separate streaks of at least 10 games, including a 13-game streak from 1980 through the last game of the 1981 season.

Frank Howard had a 15-game winning streak from 1947-49 and was part of a 13-game streak from 1939-40. The school's first 10-game winning streak took place under Walter Riggs and John Heisman from 1899 to 1901.

UNBEATEN

Clemson enters the bowl season as one of three undefeated FBS teams. The 2019 season marks the second straight year that three Power Five programs entered the bowl season undefeated, as Clemson, Alabama and Notre Dame entered the 2018 bowl season unscathed. Prior to 2018, that had most recently been accomplished by three Power Five teams in 2004 (USC, Oklahoma and Auburn).

Clemson	13-0	Fiesta vs. Ohio State (13-0)
LSU	13-0	Peach vs. Oklahoma (12-1)
Ohio State	13-0	Fiesta vs. Clemson (13-0)

The 2019 season represented the eighth time Clemson has completed the regular season with an undefeated record and the sixth time it has done so with a perfect record (no ties). Clemson earned conference titles in six of the previous seven instances, including national championship campaigns in 1981 and 2018.

A win against 13-win Ohio State would be Clemson's 12th against a team that entered the game with 10 or more wins. One of Clemson's 11 previous such victories came against Ohio State in the Orange Bowl on Jan. 3, 2014. Both of Clemson's national championship victories in the College Football Playoff era came against 14-win Alabama teams.

SEEKING 14 WINS

There have been 13 seasons of 14 or more wins in FBS history. Clemson accounts for three of those 14-win seasons, one shy of Alabama for the most 14-win seasons in FBS history. With Alabama unable to secure 14 wins in 2019, Clemson could tie the record for the most 14-win seasons with a win in the Fiesta Bowl.

Note: FBS history.

Among that group, the 2019 Tigers would be just the fifth ACC team in history to record at least 14 wins in a season. Clemson would account for four of those five 14-win seasons.

Clemson has posted the ACC's three most-recent 14-win seasons, recording a 14-1 record during both the 2015 and 2016 campaigns and a 15-0 record in 2018.

Clemson's 1981 National Championship team was the first ACC team to win 12 games in a season. Florida State accomplished the feat five times between 1993 and 2014, including a streak of three seasons with at least 12 wins from 2012-14. They won a then-record 14 games (14-0) in 2013, a mark tied by Clemson in 2015 and 2016 before being broken in 2018.

Both Pittsburgh and Miami have posted 12-win seasons in their school histories, but those years came prior to their addition to the ACC.

ACC: WE DO THIS

Arguments about conference strength were once again en vogue during the 2019 offseason, with various pundits and commentators offering opinions on the state of the ACC and the national landscape.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney has repeatedly contended that the quality of Clemson's conference competition has been central to its postseason success.

"This league doesn't take a back seat to anyone. It's a very competitive league," Swinney said at ACC Kick-off in July. "At the end of the day, I think the credit goes to this conference; I think that's why we've been so successful in the postseason."

Entering the 2019 season, the ACC:

- Had won more football national titles than any other conference since 2013 (three of the last six).

- Had a team in either the College Football Playoff or the BCS National Championship Game in each of the past six years.

- Matched its league record with 11 bowl teams in 2018, including Boston College, Clemson, Duke, Georgia Tech, Miami, NC State, Pitt, Syracuse, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Wake Forest. The 11 bowl teams tied for the most among any conference.

- Was the only conference to send every team to at least one bowl game from 2016-18. The ACC was tied for the most bowl teams (32) among all conferences in that span (11 in 2016, 10 in 2017, 11 in 2018).

- Had produced 19 postseason wins since the 2016 season, the most of any conference.

Those facts aren't lost on Swinney, who has actively contested narratives questioning the ACC's strength.

"The rhetoric used to be, 'Well, an ACC team's never going to win the national championship because they don't play anybody. So when they get to the postseason and they've gotta play the big bad boys, they can't beat them,'" Swinney said. "Well, now we win, and [they say] the only reason we win is because we don't play anybody. So you can't have it both ways."

PLAYING TO A STANDARD

While many attempted to center discussion of Clemson's play in 2019 on the quality of its opponents, under Head Coach Dabo Swinney, Clemson has subscribed to a philosophy of "it's not who you play, it's how you play." Inside the team's Allen N. Reeves Football Complex, a visual representation of the team's schedule includes a Clemson logo for every game in lieu of opponents' logos, not as a sign of disrespect, but rather as a visual reminder that every week Clemson is playing against its own standard as well.

The Clemson standard has been on display in the majority of the team's performances this season. SportSource Analytics tracks Relative Points and Relative Yards Per Game, described as the following:

"Sorts all FBS teams by the average percentage of points and yards they accumulated per game with respect to the opponents' normal points and yards averages. For example, if a team scores 21 points against a team that only gives up (on average) 14 points, they get a 150 percent for that game offensively. For offense, over 100 percent is considered good, and for defense under 100 percent is considered good."

The measure allows a window of insight into how Clemson has dominated its opponents relative to their typical performance, rather than leaning on the opponents' record.

TIGER RELATIVE POINTS & YARDS PER GAME

Category	Nat'l Rank	Pct.
Offensive Points Pct./Game	4	155.3
Offensive Yards Pct./Game	7	130.2
Defensive Points Pct./Game	1	38.0
Defensive Yards Pct./Game	1	61.8

*Note: 2019 only, FBS opponents only.

Effectively, the numbers communicate that Clemson scores 155.8 percent of the points and gains 130.2 percent of the yards typically allowed by its opponents on average, while limiting opponents to only 38.0 percent of the points and 61.8 percent of the yards it typically accrues.

In addition, Clemson ranks among the nation's best in game control, a measurement of what percentage of snaps teams have spent with various leads. Clemson has led for 85 percent of all plays this season, including holding a lead of at least 21 points for more than half of all plays and at least 35 points or more for more than a quarter of all plays.

20-POINT WINS & 14-POINT WINS

Clemson's 2019 squad extended two historically profound victory margin streaks early in the 2019 season.

Observers will often point to Clemson's 27-23 come-from-behind victory against Syracuse in late September of 2018 as a turning point in the team's 15-0 national championship season. Following that win, in which redshirt freshman Chase Brice led the team to victory after starting the week as the squad's third-team quarterback, Clemson won 11 straight games by at least 20 points. Per ESPN Stats & Info, Clemson's 11-game streak of 20-point wins across the 2018-19 seasons was one game shy of the 2018 Alabama Crimson Tide for the longest streak of 20-point wins in the AP Poll era (since 1936).

STREAKS OF 20-POINT WINS

Rk School	Year(s)	Streak
1. Alabama	2018	12
2. Clemson	2018-19	11
3. Stanford	2010-11	10
Boise State	2002	10
Temple	1973-74	10
Nebraska	1971	10
New Mexico State	1959-60	10

Note: AP poll era.

That streak was broken in the second week of the 2019 season when Texas A&M scored a touchdown with only six seconds remaining to cut Clemson's margin of victory from 21 to 14.

A one-point win at North Carolina in September brought Clemson's streak of 14 consecutive 14-point wins to a close. The streak tied for the third-longest in the AP poll era, per ESPN Stats & Info.

Note: 2018-19

Since the streak was snapped in a one-point win at North Carolina in September, Clemson has responded with another seven wins of 14 or more points, meaning the Tigers have won 21 of their last 22 contests by a margin of at least 14 points. Clemson has won 20 of those 22 contests by 20 or more.

POLL STREAKS

Clemson has been ranked in the top 25 of 84 consecutive AP polls dating to the 2014 season, the third-longest active streak in the nation. That includes a streak of 75 straight top-10 rankings, tied for first in the country with Alabama.

As far as total top-25 rankings since 2011, Clemson has appeared in 139 of a possible 146 polls (95.2 percent). That is the third-most in the nation, trailing only Alabama (146) and Oklahoma (142).

ROAD WARRIORS

With a road win against South Carolina in its regular season finale, Clemson has now won 24 of its last 25 true road games. A win in the ACC Championship Game also gave the Tigers a win in 38 of their last 41 games away from home overall.

With only neutral-site contests remaining, Clemson posted a 5-0 record on the road this year, with four road wins in ACC play plus a road victory against an SEC opponent. At Louisville on Oct. 19, Clemson won its 10th straight true road game, which marked only the second streak of 10 consecutive true road victories in the program's illustrious history. Clemson earned its 12th consecutive road victory on Nov. 30 at South Carolina, tying for the longest road winning streak in school history.

SENIOR CLASS SUPERLATIVES

Clemson honored its 2019 senior class with Senior Day festivities prior to its Nov. 16 contest against Wake Forest. As it enters the bowl season, the 2019 senior class...

... holds a 54-3 overall record in the last four years, one of only three senior classes in FBS history to post at least 54 career wins in four years.

... is a win away from tying the all-time FBS record for victories by a senior class (55, held jointly by the 2018 Clemson and Alabama seniors).

... was the second senior class in conference history to play in four consecutive ACC Championship games and became the second class in conference history to win four ACC titles outright, joining Clemson's 2018 class.

... is the only active senior class in the country to make four consecutive College Football Playoff berths and is Clemson's second straight senior class to earn four consecutive CFP bids.

... has won 46 games against Power Five conference opponents since 2016, the most in the country.

... has been ranked in the AP Top 10 in every poll of their careers, one of only two senior classes in the country able to make that claim. That includes a streak of 38 consecutive appearances in the Top 5 since 2017, the longest streak in school history.

... finished 27-1 in Death Valley, tying the 2017 and 2018 Clemson seniors for the most career wins at Memorial Stadium.

... produced a 30-2 record in ACC regular season play and a 34-2 overall record against ACC opponents. The 30th ACC regular season win tied the school record and concluded the seniors' regular season ACC careers one win shy of the all-time conference record of 31. This senior class earned a win against every conference opponent, becoming the first class since the ACC's move to 14 teams to accomplish the feat.

... finished 23-1 in ACC Atlantic Division play. The class posted 4-0 marks against five of its six Atlantic division foes (Boston College, Florida State, Louisville, NC State and Wake Forest).

... was the 14th Clemson senior class to post a perfect 4-0 record against South Carolina.

NIGHT MOVES

The Fiesta Bowl will represent Clemson's seventh night game of the 2019 season. Clemson is 31-3 in night games since 2015, including victories in each of its last 12 night games since the start of the 2018 season.

BOWL NOTES

SATURDAYS ARE FOR THE TIGERS

Clemson enters bowl season having won each of its last 42 Saturday games. Clemson went 12-2 during the 2017 campaign, with its only losses coming on a Friday at Syracuse and a Monday on New Year's Day in the Sugar Bowl.

You have to travel back to Nov. 12, 2016, a total of 1,141 days prior to the Fiesta Bowl, for Clemson's most recent loss on a Saturday.

Clemson's 42-game Saturday winning streak is the longest active streak in the FBS. The Tigers' current 42-game streak started following a 2016 loss to Pittsburgh that was preceded by a 21-game Saturday winning streak across the 2014-16 seasons, previously the longest such streak in program history.

STRONG OUT OF THE GATES

"Some start fast, some start slow, but the thoroughbred is great at the final pole."

Dabo Swinney has used that horse-racing analogy with his team in 2019 to encourage his team to "run its own race" this season. As far as individual games have been concerned, Clemson has not had to worry about starting slow.

Clemson has outscored opponents by a 170-17 margin (+153) in the first quarter. Entering bowl season, only 23 teams in the country (including Clemson) had a plus-153 point differential in entire games this season.

Clemson's 11.77-point average scoring differential in the first quarter is the largest in the country this season, contributing significantly to Clemson's No. 2 rank in overall scoring differential in 2019. The Fiesta Bowl will be a matchup of the country's top two teams in scoring margin this season.

In a division-clinching win against NC State on Nov. 9, Clemson finished the first quarter with a 28-0 lead. In doing so, Clemson tied its school record for first-quarter points, matching the 28 points scored against Duke in the first quarter on Nov. 3, 2012. The 28-point first quarter tied for the fourth most in any quarter in school history and was Clemson's 23rd quarter of 28 points or more all-time.

OWNING THE "MIDDLE EIGHT"

During its current run of four consecutive College Football Playoff appearances dating to 2015, Clemson has frequently won one of the hidden "games within the game."

SportSource Analytics tracks the "Middle Eight," the section of the game defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Clemson has outscored opponents in that time window 46 times since 2015, posting a 45-1 record in those contests.

Clemson was historically strong in that category in 2018, outscoring opponents 132-10 in the middle eight, an average margin of +8.1 points per game. That per-game differential was the largest by any program in the country since 2013.

One striking example of the importance of the middle eight came in the 2018 Cotton Bowl, as Clemson and Notre Dame played a tightly contested first half that saw Clemson holding only a 9-3 advantage with four minutes left in the first half. A touchdown with 1:44 remaining pushed Clemson's lead to 16-3, and Head Coach Dabo Swinney's decision to attack on a drive originating from Clemson's 20-yard line with 48 seconds remaining resulted in another score with two seconds to play in the second quarter, giving Clemson a 23-3 lead at the break.

The importance was also on display at Florida State in 2018, as after a scoreless first quarter, Clemson held only a 14-0 lead entering the final four minutes of the first half. Clemson scored two quick touchdowns in the final four minutes of the second quarter and opened the second half with another touchdown 58 seconds into the third quarter, giving the Tigers a commanding 35-0 lead in an eventual 59-10 win.

CLOSE-GAME SUCCESS

Though Clemson has not played a large number of one-possession games in recent times, the Tigers have proven very adept at winning such contests since 2011. The Tigers have played 29 games with a final margin of eight points or less, and Clemson's .862 winning percentage in those one-possession contests is the best in the country in that span.

TEAM PRODUCTION

Clemson's 62-17 win against Virginia in the ACC Championship Game represented quarterback Trevor Lawrence's 24th career start in his 28th career game. Clemson is 28-0 in Lawrence's time at Clemson, including a 24-0 record in his starts.

Lawrence is credited with 1,474 career offensive snaps at Clemson. In that time, he has never taken a second-half snap with Clemson trailing. The only game in which Clemson has trailed in the fourth quarter in Lawrence's tenure was in 2018 against Syracuse, a game Lawrence exited in the first half with an injury.

As a team, Clemson has averaged 46.0 points in Lawrence's 24 career starts, the highest average for any team in the country whose quarterback has recorded 20 career starts.

YARDS PER PLAY

Clemson shattered its school record for yards per play in 2018 at 7.35, the program's first time exceeding seven yards per play in a season. Clemson is ahead of that pace by averaging 7.51 yards per play in 2019.

Including special teams, Clemson recorded a school-record 19 touchdowns of 50 yards or more in 2018. Players responsible for 17 of the 19 touchdowns of 50 yards or more returned for Clemson in 2019. Justyn Ross led Clemson with six such touchdowns, followed by four from Travis Etienne, three each from Lyn-J Dixon and Amari Rodgers, and one each by now-departed running backs Adam Choice and Tavien Feaster.

Clemson has recorded 10 touchdowns of 50 yards or more in 2019, including six passing, three rushing and one via interception return. The 10 50-plus-yard touchdowns ranked tied for fifth-most in a season for Clemson since 1950.

Clemson opened the 2019 season with an explosive performance in a 52-14 win against Georgia Tech. The Tigers racked up 632 yards of offense on only 79 plays, averaging 8.0 yards per play even despite a methodical 11-play, 42-yard clock-killing drive to conclude the game. Clemson amassed 411 of those yards on 49 carries, a rushing average of 8.4 yards. Against Louisville, Clemson exceeded the 8.0-yard mark again, rushing for 298 yards on 37 carries for an 8.1-yard average. Clemson posted its third 8.0-plus-yard effort of the season against Wofford, averaging 11.3 yards per carry by accruing 419 yards on 37 attempts.

Including the three such games this season, Clemson's six games with an 8.0 or better yards per carry average since 2018 are the most in the FBS, and have helped Clemson rank first in the country in yards per carry (6.46) in 2019.

Clemson has produced a touchdown run of 90 yards (Travis Etienne vs. Georgia Tech), touchdown pass of 87 yards (Trevor Lawrence to Amari Rodgers at Syracuse) and touchdown run of 86 yards (Etienne vs. Wofford) in 2019. The 2019 Tigers joined the 2013 squad as the only teams in program history to post multiple touchdowns from scrimmage of 85+ yards in a season. This year's squad is the first to produce plays of 85 or more yards both on the ground and through the air.

600-YARD GAMES

Clemson produced its fourth 600-yard game of the season in the team's ninth game of 2019, breaking a school record set previously during the 2012, 2017 and 2018 campaigns. The Tigers then extended that record with a 619-yard performance in the ACC Championship Game against Virginia.

Clemson's third 600-yard game of the season came in a 674-yard effort against Boston College on Oct. 26.

BOWL NOTES

Clemson outgained the Eagles, 674-177, in the game. The 497-yard differential was Clemson's biggest since a 545-yard advantage against Kent State on Sept. 2, 2017 and was Clemson's largest yardage differential against an ACC opponent since the conference's founding in 1953, surpassing a 464-yard advantage against Wake Forest in 2000.

Clemson added another dominant performance one week later with a 446-yard margin against Wofford.

ESTABLISHED FIREPOWER

Clemson's eye-popping, record-setting offensive campaign in 2018 was authored at the skill positions in large part by underclassmen. The group was led in passing by true freshman Trevor Lawrence (3,280 yards), in rushing by sophomore Travis Etienne (1,658) and in receiving by sophomore Tee Higgins (59 receptions, 12 touchdowns) and freshman Justyn Ross (1,000 receiving yards).

Clemson was one of only three FBS programs to produce a 3,000-yard passer, 1,500-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver in 2018 and one of only 20 teams (including only nine Power Five teams) to accomplish the feat this decade. By virtue of Lawrence, Etienne and Tee Higgins each reaching their respective thresholds this season, Clemson became the first program this decade to produce a player in all three categories in back-to-back seasons.

Entering bowl season, Clemson is the only school with a 3,000/1,500/1,000-yard passing/rushing/receiving trio in 2019.

As noted by ESPN, the 2019 Tigers were the first team to return its leading passer, rusher and receiver from a national championship squad since 2010, when Alabama returned leading passer Greg McElroy, leading rusher Mark Ingram and leading receiver Julio Jones from its 2009 championship squad.

OFFENSIVE BALANCE

During Clemson's active 28-game win streak, the Tigers have featured remarkable offensive balance. Prior to last year's College Football Playoff National Championship Game that dropped Clemson to 248.2 rushing yards per game for the season, Clemson's 2018 squad had been the first team in Clemson history to average at least 250 yards per game rushing and passing. Only three Clemson teams in history have averaged at least 200 yards per game of each in the same season (2000, 2015 and 2018).

This year, Clemson is one of only three teams to average 250 rushing yards and 250 passing yards per game, with the other two being two of Clemson's fellow College Football Playoff participants — Ohio State and Oklahoma. Of Clemson's 7,120 total yards this season, 46.2 percent of its yards have come on the ground, with 53.8 percent coming through the air. Clemson has broken the 3,000-yard mark both rushing and passing this season, making the 2019 campaign only the third 3,000/3,000 season in school history (2015 and 2018).

Clemson has exceeded both 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards in a game 51 times under Dabo Swinney, posting a perfect record in those contests. Clemson's 17 such games since the start of the 2018 season are the most in the country.

Prior to being limited to 168 rushing yards against Wake Forest, Clemson had reached the 200/200 plateau in each of its five previous contests, its longest such streak on record. Clemson got back on pace with 200/200 performances at South Carolina in the regular season finale and against Virginia in the ACC Championship Game.

SACK DIFFERENTIAL

Clemson's domination in its current winning streak has been powered in part at the line of scrimmage, where Clemson holds an 92-30 edge over opponents in sacks in that time frame. Clemson's +62 margin in sacks since 2018 is by far the top differential in the country, as no other program can boast a sack differential greater than +50 since 2018.

300 OR FEWER YARDS

Clemson opened the season by keeping each of their first 12 opponents to fewer than 300 yards, marking the first time in ESPN Stats & Info searchable data going back to 1996 that a team had held the first 12 opponents of a season under that mark. ACC Coastal Division champion Virginia became the first team to hit the 300-yard plateau on Clemson, accounting for 387 in the ACC Championship Game.

Included below is a look at the most games holding opponents under 300 yards to open a season since 2000.

20 OR FEWER POINTS

Clemson has not surrendered more than 20 points since the 2018 regular season finale and enters the Fiesta Bowl having held 16 consecutive opponents to 20 or fewer points. A defensive streak of that length had not occurred at Clemson in 79 years, when Hall of Fame Coaches Jess Neely and Frank Howard combined for a 31-game streak across the 1937-40 seasons.

Prior to the 16-game streak in 2018-19, there had been only four streaks of 15 or more such games in Clemson history. All four came in a vastly different era not just for college football, but for Clemson University as well. At the time of all four previous streaks, Clemson was an all-male, military institution still operating as Clemson Agricultural College before becoming known as Clemson University in 1964.

STOPPING THE RUN

Clemson held Texas A&M to 2.0 yards per carry on 27 carries in Week 2, the lowest yards-per-carry average allowed by Clemson since holding Boston College to 0.3 yards per carry on Nov. 10, 2018. A week after the Texas A&M game, Clemson then held Syracuse to 0.4 yards per carry in prime time.

In November, Clemson held Wake Forest to 1.7 yards per carry, marking the 20th time since 2014 that Clemson has held an opponent to 2.0 or fewer yards per carry, fourth-most in the country. Clemson is 19-1 in those contests.

Prior to facing Louisville on Oct. 19, Clemson had gone 27 consecutive games without allowing opponents to produce a 100-yard rusher, which had been the longest active streak in the country and the school's longest since at least 1980.

Clemson's two 100-yard rushers allowed since 2018 rank tied for the second-fewest in the country.

POINTS ALLOWED PER POSSESSION

Since Brent Venables joined Clemson as defensive coordinator prior to the 2012 season, Clemson has allowed only 1.12 points per possession against FBS opponents, the second-fewest in the country in that span. No program has given up fewer points per possession against FBS opponents since 2018, as Clemson's 0.76 points allowed per possession since the start of last season makes Clemson the only program in the country to allow fewer than a full point per drive to opponents.

SACKS ALLOWED

Clemson is powered up front in 2019 by one of the most senior-laden offensive lines in school history. Alongside sophomore left tackle Jackson Carman, Clemson's line includes four senior starters in left guard John Simpson, center Sean Pollard, right guard Gage Cervenka and right tackle Tremayne Anchrum, a group of five that has been named as a Joe Moore Award semifinalist.

In the season opener, Clemson started four senior offensive linemen in a game for the first time since the 2011 South Carolina game, when Phillip Price, David Smith, Antoine McClain and Landon Walker started alongside junior Dalton Freeman. The last time Clemson had four senior starters on the offensive line for the majority of a season was 2007, when sophomore Thomas Austin was joined by seniors Barry Richardson, Chris McDuffie, Brandon Pilgrim and Christian Capote.

Dating to last season, Clemson's offense has allowed only 18 total sacks in its last 21 games, including holding teams to zero sacks in nine of those 21 contests.

Clemson's protection for quarterback Trevor Lawrence has taken on an almost-mythical quality, according to Syracuse Head Coach Dino Babers, whose own prolific defensive line was held without a sack against Clemson in 2019.

"[It's like] Game of Thrones. He's got a castle, he's got a moat, he's got some dragons. That dude's protected," Babers said.

DOMINANT DEFENSE

Since the advent of the College Football Playoff in 2014, Clemson has routinely produced one of the nation's elite defenses.

Clemson has finished in the top 10 in the country in total defense in each of the last five seasons and has ranked among the top 10 in scoring defense in three of those campaigns.

2018 DEFENSE VS. 2019 DEFENSE

Clemson's 2018 defense became the first in school history to lead the nation in scoring defense, limiting teams to 13.1 points per game en route to a 15-0 season and a national championship. A comparison of numbers between the 2018 and 2019 Clemson defenses shows that this year's unit is matching or exceeding the output of the 2018 group that included seven players (including two reserves) that made NFL rosters this season (Christian Wilkins, Clelin Ferrell, Dexter Lawrence, Austin Bryant, Mark Fields, Trayvon Mullen and Albert Huggins).

Below is a look at 13 key defensive categories. The 2019 group is ahead of the 2018 team's season averages in eight of the 13, including scoring defense, pass defense and total defense.

TIGER DEFENSE SEASON AVERAGES

BACKFIELD INVADERS

Clemson's defense calls Death Valley home but might as well file for dual residency in opponents' backfields. Since 2014, Clemson leads the nation in both sacks and tackles for loss.

Clemson recorded a banner day in both categories in the win at Syracuse. Clemson had 15 tackles for loss, tied for the fifth most in a game in school history and the most under Dabo Swinney. It was Clemson's most since recording 15 vs. Utah State on Oct. 16, 2004.

Among those 15 tackles for loss were eight sacks, tied for the eighth most in a game in school history.

MULTI-SACK GAMES

Prior to being held without a sack against option-heavy Wofford on Nov. 2, Clemson had recorded multiple sacks in each of its previous 16 games, dating to last season. Clemson has posted 25 multiple-sack games since 2018, the most in the FBS.

NO FLY ZONE

While outside observers focused on the loss of four NFL draft picks (plus an additional undrafted free agent signing) from Clemson's defensive line after 2018, Head Coach Dabo Swinney spent the offseason telling anyone who would listen that the Tigers were returning the best back seven he's had in his tenure at Clemson.

Clemson's pass defense has rewarded Swinney's faith, ranking among the nation's best in nearly every key statistical pass defense category.

POINTS OFF TURNOVERS

Since the start of the 2018 postseason, Clemson's offense and defense have both been dominant in possessions starting following turnovers. Since the 2018

ACC Championship Game, the Tigers hold a 179-21 advantage against opponents in points off turnovers.

Clemson recorded a 7-0 margin in points off turnovers against Syracuse on Sept. 14, a particularly impressive stat when accounting for the degree of difficulty. In that contest, Clemson's two giveaways resulted in Syracuse starting resulting drives at the Clemson nine-yard line and Clemson three-yard line. Those two drives ended in an interception and a turnover on downs, respectively.

ALL-ACC HONORS

Clemson produced a conference-best 16 All-ACC selections this season. The Tigers' 16 picks across the first, second and third teams are double the number of the next-closest programs.

Clemson's 16 selections tied for the third-most in school history, trailing the program's 18 selections in 2018 and 17 selections in 2015.

Clemson produced eight first-team selections, including quarterback Trevor Lawrence, running back Travis Etienne, wide receiver Tee Higgins, offensive tackle Tremayne Anchrum, offensive guard John Simpson, linebacker Isaiah Simmons, cornerback A.J. Terrell and safety Tanner Muse.

Clemson produced four players each on both the second and third teams. Offensive lineman Gage Cervenka, center Sean Pollard, defensive tackle Tyler Davis and cornerback Derion Kendrick all earned second-team honors, while offensive tackle Jackson Carman, defensive end Xavier Thomas, defensive tackle Nyles Pinckney and safety K'Von Wallace all collected third-team selections.

PLAYERS PER GAME

Clemson played an average of 72.5 players per game in 2018, an average that far exceeded all other AP Top 25 finishers, including previous College Football Playoff participants Alabama (55.7), Notre Dame (55.4) and Oklahoma (52.4).

The approach to creating functional depth and rewarding players ready to play has been a key philosophy for Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose own collegiate playing career was hatched as a walk-on fighting for playing time in Alabama's receiving corps.

"We're fully committed to playing guys who deserve to play," Swinney said. "You commit to a guy early in the season, and even if a guy's only played 10 percent of the snaps, when you get to game eight or nine, they've got some good experience."

That philosophy was on display in record fashion in Clemson's Sept. 21 contest against Charlotte. In that game, Clemson played a school-record 111 players. Clemson later played 105 players against Wofford in early November.

YOUTH MOVEMENT

One year after Clemson returned a school-record 61 lettermen for the 2018 season, Clemson entered the 2019 campaign with a roster that included 80 freshmen and sophomores.

However, despite the roster featuring the largest freshman class in Dabo Swinney's tenure at Clemson, the Tigers' youth is not devoid of experience. Last season, the first year of new redshirt regulations allowed Clemson to play a then-school-record 20 true freshmen in 2018. Clemson immediately shattered that record in its 2019 season opener, with 27 true freshmen making their collegiate debuts in that contest. An additional eight players made their debuts three weeks later against Charlotte.

First-year freshmen to play for Clemson this year include Davis Allen, LaVonta Bentley, Kaleb Boateng, Andrew Booth Jr., Joseph Charleston, David Cote, Mac Cranford, Tyler Davis, Michel Dukes, Hampton Earle, Hamp Greene, Chase Guynup, Tye Herbstreit, Jake Herbstreit, Tayquon Johnson, Sheridan Jones, Frank Ladson Jr., Jaelyn Lay, Zac McIntosh, Matt McMahan, Chez Mellusi, Joseph Ngata, Ruke Orhororo, Kane Patterson, Jalyn Phillips, Taisun Phommachanh, Will Putnam, Hunter Rayburn, Etinosa Reuben, Brannon Spector, Aidan Swanson, Ray Thornton III, Mason Trotter, Jonathan Weitz, Greg Williams and Lannden Zanders.

The only true freshmen not to see game action for Clemson this year are injured linebackers Bryton Constantin and Matthew Maloney.

Among the first-year freshmen to make an impact in 2019 is defensive tackle Tyler Davis, who earned a start in the season opener. He became the first Clemson player on record since 1973 to start a season opener against a conference opponent as a true freshman.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

In addition to Clemson's elite on-field performance in 2018, the squad simultaneously posted one of the best academic semesters in the program's history. The squad posted team records in average GPA and number of players earning a 3.0 or better, all while collecting the AFCA Academic Achievement Award for the first time in Clemson history.

In November 2019, the AFCA announced that Clemson had repeated as Academic Achievement Award winners, making Clemson the only school in the country to earn the award across both of the 2018-19 seasons.

The NCAA announced APR metrics for the 2017-18 academic year as well as public recognition awards for the Top 10 percent of programs in each sport at every level in spring of 2019. Clemson set a program record with a 992 APR for the 2017-18 academic year, third-best in the FBS, earning NCAA recognition for the eighth time in the last nine years.

Clemson is one of only 34 of the 130 FBS programs to earn at least one APR recognition since the 2009-10 academic year, one of only 28 to earn it multiple times, and one of only three programs to earn the award eight-plus times in that span.

In the second week of November, the American Football Coaches Association announced that Clemson was one of six programs to earn the 2019 AFCA Academic Achievement Award. Clemson has now won the award in back-to-back years and is the only program to repeat across the 2018-19 seasons.

RELATIVELY SPEAKING

Clemson's 2019 roster has many connections to college and professional athletics. Below is a list of the connections:

- Tremayne Anchrum, OL: His father, Tremayne, played college basketball at Southern California.
- Ben Batson, QB: Son of Clemson strength and conditioning coach Joey Batson.
- J.C. Chalk, TE: Grandson of former Alabama coach Gene Stallings, who was Dabo Swinney's head coach at Alabama when Swinney was a player.
- Bryton Constantin, LB: Son of Tony Harris, who played college basketball at University of New Orleans, then in NBA with the 76ers and Celtics.
- Carson Donnelly, DB: Father, Chris, played at Alabama with Dabo Swinney.
- Brian Dawkins, Jr., CB: Son of former Clemson All-American and nine-time NFL Pro Bowl safety Brian Dawkins, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2018.
- Hamp Greene, WR: Son of Hamp Greene, who was a kicker on Alabama's 1992 national championship squad with Dabo Swinney.
- Jake Herbstreit, CB, and Tye Herbstreit, WR: Sons of former Ohio State quarterback Kirk Herbstreit.
- Mike Jones Jr., LB: Son of Mike Jones Sr., who played at NC State prior to a nine-year NFL career with the Cardinals, Patriots, Rams and Titans.
- Joseph Ngata, WR: Brother of Washington linebacker Ariel Ngata.
- Ruke Orhororo, DE: Cousin of three family members who played or are still playing college football — Michael Ojemudia (Iowa), Mario Ojemudia (Michigan) and Ovie Oghoufo (Notre Dame).
- Patrick Phibbs, LS: Son of Bruce Phibbs, who won a Division I-AA championship with Southern Illinois in 1983 as a fullback and long snapper.
- Luke Price, TE: Brother of former Clemson offensive lineman Phillip Price.

BOWL NOTES

- Amari Rodgers, WR: Son of former Tennessee quarterback Tee Martin.

BOWL SUCCESS UNDER SWINNEY

Clemson has posted a 9-5 bowl record under Head Coach Dabo Swinney, including an 8-2 mark in its last 10 bowl games dating back to the 2012 season.

The Tigers' eight bowl wins since 2012 have not come against run-of-the-mill opponents. All eight of Swinney's bowl victories in that span have come against head coaches with national championship victories to their credit at various levels of NCAA play, including two wins each against Nick Saban, Urban Meyer and Bob Stoops, as well as single victories against Les Miles and Brian Kelly. Four of the five coaches have won FBS titles, while Kelly was a two-time champion at the Division II level.

The Fiesta Bowl will be Clemson's eighth College Football Playoff game since the Playoff's inception in 2014, but it will represent Clemson's first against a head coach without a national championship on his head coaching résumé.

SWINNEY IN NFL STADIUMS

The Fiesta Bowl at State Farm Stadium, home of the Arizona Cardinals, will be Clemson's 13th game in an NFL stadium in the last five years. Clemson has won 13 of its last 15 games in NFL stadiums, including three last season (an ACC Championship victory at the home of the Panthers, a Cotton Bowl victory at the home of the Cowboys, and a National Championship Game at the home of the 49ers) as well as one this season in the ACC Championship Game in Charlotte. Clemson has a 16-6 record in NFL stadiums under Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

200-YARD RUSHING GAMES

Travis Etienne wasted no time rewriting history in 2019. He recorded a then-career-high 205 yards in the season opener against Georgia Tech, the 17th 200-yard rushing game in Clemson history. At the time, it was Etienne's second career 200-yard day, tying him with Ray Yauger, Terrence Flagler, Raymond Priester and Andre Ellington for the most in school history.

Etienne then went on a record-grabbing spree on Nov. 2 against Wofford. He posted a career-high 212 yards on only nine carries, becoming the first Clemson player to post three career 200-yard games and joining Terrence Flagler as the only players with multiple 200-yard games in a single season. Etienne set those marks in the same contest in which he rushed for his 48th career touchdown to break James Davis' career record at Clemson.

Etienne's 12 carries against Georgia Tech had been the fewest by any Clemson player in the midst of a 200-yard performance. He undercut that mark with his nine-carry performance against Wofford, becoming only the third FBS player since 2000 to rush for 200 yards on single-digit carries.

100-YARD RUSHING GAMES

With 17 career 100-yard rushing performances (eight in 2019, eight in 2018 and one in 2017), Etienne tied Wayne Gallman's school career record of 17 from 2014-16.

4.	James Davis	2005-08	14
5.	C.J. Spiller	2006-09	12
	Andre Ellington	2009-12	12

Another 100-yard game in the Fiesta Bowl would be Etienne's ninth of the season, which would set a new single-season career high and tie Gallman (nine in 2015) for the most in a season in school history.

2.	Travis Etienne	2019	8
	Travis Etienne	2018	8
4.	Raymond Priester	1996	7

Prior to being held to 51 yards at South Carolina, Etienne set the school record for consecutive 100-yard rushing games with six straight, breaking the previous mark of five set by Kenny Flowers in 1985 and by Raymond Priester in 1996-97. That six-game streak is tied for the eighth-longest in ACC history.

10.0+ PER CARRY

Etienne's explosive 2019 season opener resulted in an average of 17.1 yards per carry against Georgia Tech, which at the time was the second-best single-game average of his career (19.1 vs. Louisville in 2018). Against Louisville in mid-October, he ripped off 192 yards on 14 carries for a 13.7-yard average, and in early November, he posted a career-best 23.6-yard average on nine carries for 212 yards against Wofford.

The games marked the 10th, 11th and 12th times in Etienne's career that he averaged at least 10 yards per carry in a game with at least five rushing attempts. His 12 qualifying games passed Colin Kaepernick for the most by any FBS player since 2000.

ETIENNE VS. THE NATION

Since becoming Clemson's starting running back entering the 2018 season, Etienne has accrued 3,158 rushing yards and a national-best 41 rushing touchdowns. In that time frame, Etienne has single-handedly outrushed 15 FBS programs, including seven Power Five schools.

3,000-YARD CLUB

Etienne is presently one of only 16 active FBS players with 3,000 career rushing yards. His 493 carries are by far the fewest by any member of that club.

AIMING AT ACC RECORDS

With a multitude of Clemson career records in hand, Etienne's next run on record books has come at the conference level, where he is the all-time ACC leader in rushing touchdowns and total touchdowns and ranks in the Top 5 in 200-yard rushing games and yards per carry.

Presently, Etienne is fourth according to conference thresholds in which players qualify by reaching 1,000 career rushing yards. His average is the best in ACC history by any player with at least 200 career carries.

ETN1K

Etienne reached 1,000 rushing yards on the 2019 season in Clemson's ninth game despite averaging 13.7 carries per game through the team's first nine contests. In reaching the 1,000-yard mark in that game against Wofford, he tied the mark for the fastest any Clemson player has rushed for 1,000 yards in a season and became only the second Clemson player to reach 1,000 rushing yards in single-digit games.

HISTORY OF EXPLOSIVENESS

Nine of Etienne's 54 career rushing touchdowns have covered at least 50 yards. His nine rushing touchdowns of 50-plus yards are the most by a Clemson player in records back to 1950, and his nine total touchdowns covering that length are the third-most in that time frame.

5.	Jacoby Ford		5	1	2	8

Including a 90-yard touchdown run in the season opener against Georgia Tech and an 86-yard touchdown run against Wofford, Etienne has two touchdown runs of 85-plus yards this season. Since 1950, he is the first Clemson player to record two touchdown runs of 85-plus yards. Etienne has three runs of 80 or more yards in his career, surpassing the previous school record held by Derrick Witherspoon and C.J. Spiller (two each).

TOUCHDOWN STREAKS

Etienne accounts for three of the nine-longest streaks of consecutive games with a rushing touchdown in school history. He enters this week having rushed for a touchdown in seven straight games and can break his longest career streak (seven) by scoring on the ground again this week.

DOING MORE WITH LESS

Etienne posted school records in rushing yards (1,658) and rushing touchdowns (24) in 2018 despite recording only 204 carries. His record-setting campaign in 2018 resulted in his selection as a Doak Walker Award finalist, as he joined C.J. Spiller (2009) as only the players in Clemson history to be named as a finalist for the honor.

The award eventually went to Wisconsin's Jonathan Taylor, who turned in a superb season of his own with 2,194 yards and 16 touchdowns on 307 attempts. Taylor averaged 7.15 yards per carry and averaged a touchdown every 19.1 carries; on 104 fewer carries, Etienne averaged 8.13 yards per carry and a touchdown every 8.5 carries.

If Etienne had received the same number of carries as Taylor and maintained his per-carry averages for rushing yards and rushing touchdowns, the resulting pace would total 2,495 yards and 36 rushing touchdowns, higher totals than every Heisman running back since Barry Sanders in 1988.

PRODUCING TEE-Ds

While teammate Justyn Ross led Clemson with 1,000 receiving yards in 2018, no Clemson receiver found the end zone last season more than Tee Higgins. The Tennessee native recorded 12 receiving touchdowns, tied at the time with two different seasons by Sammy Watkins for the second-most in a single season in school history.

Higgins has followed his impressive 2018 campaign with an All-America caliber performance in 2019, accounting for 52 catches and team highs in receiving yards (1,082) and receiving touchdowns (13).

Higgins' performance has placed him in the company of some of the all-time greats presently populating Clemson's career leaderboard for receiving touchdowns. In the ACC Championship he scored three touchdowns against Virginia, tying a school record and surging into a tie for the most career receiving touchdowns in Clemson history.

Higgins scored three touchdowns against Wake Forest, and his second and third touchdowns in the game were scored 29 seconds apart, the shortest period of time between touchdowns for a Clemson player since Derrick Hamilton scored 14 seconds apart on touchdown passes from Charlie Whitehurst against Duke in 2003.

Higgins enters the Fiesta Bowl having scored at least one receiving touchdown in five straight games. Higgins' five-game touchdown streak ties the longest of his career and the second-longest in school history.

300-YARD GAMES

Clemson's balance and its willingness to take what defenses offer on the ground or through the air sometimes limits opportunities for Trevor Lawrence to accrue some of the passing numbers put up around the country. But even playing in an offense that values balance and for a coach who values spreading playing time throughout the roster, Lawrence has still been able to light up defenses in his young career.

Lawrence posted five 300-yard games in his freshman campaign in 2018, including 300-yard efforts in both College Football Playoff games. He posted his sixth career 300-yard game in Week 3 of the 2019 season, throwing for a career-high 395 yards in a win at Syracuse, and then added his seventh 300-yard game with an ACC Championship Game-record 302 yards vs. Virginia.

INTERCEPTION AVOIDANCE

The ascendance of Lawrence was key in Clemson's record-setting explosiveness in 2018. But often lost amid the barrage of big plays was Lawrence's ability to keep the ball in Clemson's hands.

While mild panic emerged from national observers about Lawrence's eight interceptions in 2019, Lawrence still holds Clemson's career interception rate record and is the only qualified passer in school history to throw an interception on fewer than two percent of pass attempts.

Lawrence set a single-season Clemson record by closing the 2018 season with 169 consecutive pass attempts without an interception. Lawrence threw an interception on his 13th pass attempt of the season opener against Georgia Tech, ending a streak of 182 consecutive pass attempts without an interception. Lawrence's streak ended five attempts shy of the school record held by Tajh Boyd (187, 2012-13).

Lawrence enters the Fiesta Bowl having again thrown 169 consecutive pass attempts without an interception, dating to the first half of Clemson's Oct. 19 game at Louisville. That tied his own single-season record set last season and is the fourth-longest active streak in the country.

Against South Carolina, Lawrence set a school record for consecutive completions in a single game, completing 18 consecutive passes to break the mark held by Cullen Harper (15 vs. Central Michigan in 2007) and Kelly Bryant (15 vs. Miami in 2017). His 18 consecutive completions tied ACC single-game records held by Virginia's Michael Rocco (vs. Miami in 2012) and North Carolina's Mitch Trubisky (vs. James Madison in 2016).

COMEBACK KID

Since his arrival at Clemson in 2017, Amari Rodgers has been hailed by coaches and teammates as one of the program's hardest workers. The work ahead of Rodgers was substantial on March 25 this season, when the junior wide receiver from Knoxville, Tenn., tore his ACL during spring practice.

Rodgers attacked his rehab with his trademark work ethic, returning to action 166 days later in Clemson's Week 2 game against Texas A&M, receiving a thunderous roar from Death Valley following his first reception.

A week later, Rodgers re-announced his presence nationally, catching four passes for 121 yards with two receiving touchdowns in a 41-6 prime-time win at Syracuse. His performance included touchdown receptions of 16 and 87 yards, the latter of which tied for the fourth-longest pass play in program history.

Rodgers' performance at Syracuse came with an odd historical parallel. The game was the first sellout at Syracuse since 1998, when Rodgers' father, Tee Martin, quarterbacked Tennessee to a win at Syracuse at the beginning of a national championship season.

MR. VERSATILITY

A track star turned safety turned linebacker turned free-ranging weapon, Clemson's Isaiah Simmons has rapidly emerged as one of college football's most versatile players.

"He was like a young giraffe running around out there. He was elbows and knees," Head Coach Dabo Swinney described of Simmons' arrival on campus. "Quickly, the one thing that showed up early was his physicality. He likes it. That showed up quick [as did] just his pure athleticism."

In addition to being Clemson's most-prolific tackler, Simmons leads Clemson this season in sacks (7.0) and tackles for loss (14.0) while also contributing seven pass breakups, two interceptions, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Presently, Simmons is one of only six FBS players — and one of only three in the Power Five — credited with at least 80 tackles, 10 tackles for loss and 5 sacks this season. Simmons is one of only four players on that list to have also recorded multiple interceptions.

Simmons is already the fourth Clemson player since 2000 to record at least 65 tackles, 11.5 tackles for loss and 6.0 sacks in a season. The other three to accomplish the feat are some of Clemson's most decorated defenders of the last decade (and, notably, all defensive linemen).

"He's what everybody's looking for because he's that hybrid guy," Swinney said of Simmons. "He's long. He can cover. He can play first, second and third down. He legitimately could go play safety. He's a guy that could probably make all-conference for us at probably three different positions if you played him there."

SIMMONS CAPTURES AWARDS

The Butkus Foundation announced on Dec. 8 that Simmons had won the 2019 Butkus Award, presented annually to the nation's top linebacker. Matt Butkus, son of Pro Football and College Football Hall of Famer and award namesake Dick Butkus, surprised Simmons with the honor at the Allen N. Reeves Football Complex during the team's College Football Playoff Selection Show watch party.

Simmons became the first Clemson player to earn the honor in the award's 35-year history. He garnered 29 percent of the weighted vote and 35 percent of first place votes from the selection committee, earning the honor over an esteemed group of finalists that included Wisconsin's Zack Baun, Texas Tech's Jordyn Brooks, Penn State's Micah Parsons, Cal's Evan Weaver and Wyoming's Logan Wilson.

Simmons was the first ACC player to collect the award since Boston College's Luke Kuechly in 2011.

"We've made a lot of history this year, and one of those things is having our first ever Butkus Award winner," Head Coach Dabo Swinney said. "We've had some great players come through, but I'm so happy for Isaiah. He's so deserving and I'm so happy for his family. What an unbelievable job by Coach V [Brent Venables] in developing him into a Butkus Award winner. It's a special moment for our team and for Isaiah."

Also present for the surprise were Denise Simmons, Isaiah's mother, and Mario Simmons, Isaiah's brother. During the presentation, Simmons spoke by phone with Dick Butkus, who congratulated the Tiger linebacker on the honor and encouraged him to use his platform to give back.

The week before, Simmons was named ACC Defensive Player of the Year, giving Clemson back-to-back ACC Defensive Player of the Year honors after eventual No. 4 overall NFL Draft pick Clelin Ferrell collected the award in 2018. Though three Clemson defensive ends had won ACC Defensive Player of the Year in the previous 13 years, Simmons became the first Clemson linebacker to win it since Leroy Hill in 2004.

"Simmons is one of the most versatile athletes to play the linebacker position," the Butkus Award selection committee said in a statement. "He's an exceptional athlete with unique length and makes plays at all three levels, with terrific rush ability, blitz timing, cover skill and tackling range. He's a modern-day linebacker with special match-up skills. For as good of a football player as he is, he's a better person and will represent the Butkus Award with class."

#WRU TO THE NFL

Clemson's status as an elite producer of pro talent has been inarguable in recent years, particularly at wide receiver, where the school has adopted the moniker of "Wide Receiver U" (or #WRU in hashtag form).

Since the 2013 NFL Draft, no school has had more receivers selected in the NFL Draft than Clemson.

HEAD COACH DABO SWINNEY

An illustrious coaching heritage is embedded in the foundation of Clemson football. At the dawn of the 20th century, the Tigers were led by future College Football Hall of Famer John Heisman. Hall of Famers Jess Neely, Frank Howard and Danny Ford followed in Heisman's winning tradition.

In only 12 seasons at Clemson (11 full seasons) including 2019, Dabo Swinney has carved his name into that foundation, elevating himself amid a pantheon of Clemson greats by becoming the first coach in program history to lead Clemson to multiple national championships.

Clemson enters the 2019 bowl season at 13-0 and riding a school-record 28-game winning streak, one game shy of the second-longest streak in ACC history. Swinney's Tigers have produced nine consecutive 10-win seasons, tied with the 2001-09 Texas Longhorns for the third-longest streak in FBS history.

Clemson secured its record-tying fifth College Football Playoff berth in 2019, matching the five collected by Alabama from 2014-18. The Tigers earned the berth following their fifth-consecutive ACC championship, becoming the first team in college football history to win five straight conference championship games since conference title games were created in 1992.

At 129-30, Swinney (.811) enters the 2019 bowl season as the winningest active coach by percentage in the FBS among coaches with at least five seasons of head coaching experience. With the addition of the 2019 ACC Championship, all 11 of Swinney's recruiting classes have won at least one ACC title in their careers.

Swinney and Clemson's 2018 season was one for which statistics and superlatives accumulated in historic fashion. The Tigers became the first major college football team in the modern era (and the first since the Penn Quakers in 1897) to finish a season with a 15-0 record.

The list of "firsts" was long and distinguished. Clemson became the first ACC program to beat Florida State in four consecutive years, handing the Seminoles their worst home loss in school history. It became the first program to win four consecutive Atlantic Division titles. And with a 42-10 win against Pitt in the ACC Championship Game, the Tigers became the first program to win four consecutive ACC titles outright.

Clemson's 15 wins included a school-record 12 against teams who finished with winning records. Clemson won by an average margin of 31.1 points per game, the best in the nation and the second-largest in school history, trailing only a 35.3-point average margin in 1900. Among the seasons it passed was a 30.4-point average margin in 1901, a season in which Clemson won one of its five games by a score of 122-0.

Clemson set school records in points (664) and total offense (7,718, also an ACC record). Conversely, the defense held opponents to 13.1 points per game, leading the country in scoring defense for the first time in school history.

A critical point in the season came four games into the campaign. Following a 49-21 win at Georgia Tech in which true freshman quarterback Trevor Lawrence threw for four touchdowns in reserve, Swinney and the coaching staff elected to name Lawrence the starter, supplanting senior Kelly Bryant, who had led the Tigers to a 16-2 career record as a starter.

With Lawrence leading Swinney's Tigers, Clemson took flight. After a dramatic come-from-behind 27-23 win against Syracuse after Lawrence exited the game with an injury, Clemson rattled off 10 consecutive wins of 20 points or more to conclude the season, including blowout wins of No. 3 Notre Dame in the Cotton Bowl and No. 1 Alabama in the College Football Playoff National Championship.

Seven players earned first- or second-team All-America honors, including a school-record three players who collected consensus honors. The 2018 Tigers produced a team-record 18 All-ACC picks and became the first team to produce the ACC Player-of-the-Year, ACC Offensive Player-of-the-Year, ACC Defensive Player-of-the-Year, ACC Offensive Rookie-of-the-Year and ACC Coach-of-the-Year in a season since Florida State in 1997.

Accolades also accumulated for Swinney, who earned his second career ACC Coach-of-the-Year selection and brought home the Woody Hayes Award as national coach-of-the-year. Less than a week after winning the national title, he also won the Paul "Bear" Bryant Award, becoming the first three-time winner in the award's history. With the 2018 Bryant and Hayes Awards, Swinney has now won national coach-of-the-year honors from at least one organization in five of the last seven years.

The 2018 season was preceded by a 2017 campaign in which Clemson was on a mission to prove that it was built to last. Swinney guided the team to a 12-2 record, an ACC title and a College Football Playoff berth despite having only six scholarship seniors and losing players who accounted for 77 percent of the offense during the 2016 national championship season.

While Clemson was ranked No. 5 in the preseason AP poll, few expected the Tigers to be ranked No. 1 in both polls and the College Football Playoff ranking entering the bowl season. In fact, Clemson was not even the preseason choice to win the ACC Atlantic Division.

Despite a setback in the Sugar Bowl to the eventual national champion, Alabama, Clemson finished No. 4 in both polls. Swinney joined Bobby Bowden as the only ACC head coaches to lead a program to a final top-five ranking three straight seasons, a streak he upped to four in a row in the 2018 season. He was inducted into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame following the season.

Clemson's school-record six wins over top-25 teams in 2017, also a national best, included a school-record four on opponents' home fields and five away from home. The defense, including three defensive linemen, featured four players who were named All-American, helping Clemson rank in the top four in the nation in scoring defense (No. 2) and total defense (No. 4). Clemson led the ACC in the four major defensive categories (scoring, total, rushing, passing), a first in program history.

The 2016 Tigers lived up to their hype after compiling a 14-1 record and earning a spot in the College Football Playoff for the second-straight year. Along the way, Clemson knocked off five top-25 foes.

Clemson defeated the top two teams in the national polls in consecutive games in the College Football Playoff at the end of the season. The Tigers blanked Ohio State, 31-0, in the Fiesta Bowl, the first shutout suffered by head coach Urban Meyer in his career and the first for Ohio State since 1993.

The Tigers then earned a rematch with No. 1 Alabama, and for the first time in school history, took down the top-ranked team in a second epic battle with the storied Crimson Tide program. Quarterback Deshaun Watson's touchdown pass to Hunter Renfrow with one second left on the clock gave Clemson a dramatic 35-31 victory in Tampa, Fla. Swinney received the Bear Bryant Award as national coach-of-the-year for the second consecutive season.

Swinney coached Watson to two record-setting years (2015,16). The two-time Heisman Trophy finalist became the first player in FBS history to total 4,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in a season (2015), and he followed by setting an ACC record with 41 passing touchdowns in 2016. He won the Davey O'Brien Award and Manning Award in back-to-back years.

From 2011-18, Clemson compiled a 97-15 record, the most wins in an eight-year period in school history. Clemson enters the final year of the decade having won 103 games in the 2010s, marking the first 100-win decade in Clemson history.

Clemson was in the top 10 of APR scores and the final top 25 of the AP and USA Today polls from 2011-15, the only FBS program that could make that claim. In 2017, Clemson became the first school to reach the College Football Playoff and finish in the top five of APR scores in the same year. Clemson is one of only three programs to earn Top 10 percent APR recognition from the NCAA in at least eight of the last nine years. In 2018, Clemson produced the Campbell Trophy win-

Swinney guided Clemson to the No. 1 national ranking in every College Football Playoff poll in 2015 and led the Tigers to their first national championship game appearance under the new format after his team defeated Oklahoma, 37-17, in the 2015 Orange Bowl. The Tigers led Alabama in the fourth quarter of the championship contest, but came up just short (45-40) in an epic game in Glendale, Ariz.

PERSONAL DATA

Born Nov. 20, 1969 in Birmingham, Ala. ... married to the former Kathleen Bassett ... the couple has three sons (Will, Drew, Clay).

Following the team's 14-1 record and No. 2 final ranking, he was the recipient of 10 national and two ACC coach-of-the-year honors.

In the 2015 season, a then-Tiger-record 17 players were named to one of three All-ACC teams, including all five starting offensive linemen for the first time in school history. In 2016, 15 players were honored, including a school-record three First-Team All-ACC offensive line selections.

The 2012, 2013 and 2014 seasons were also noteworthy, with three top-15 final rankings. Each of Clemson's teams from 2011-18 registered double-digit wins, the first time the program did it eight straight seasons. Only Alabama has duplicated the feat.

With a 2014 Russell Athletic Bowl victory (40-6) over Oklahoma, Swinney became the first and only coach in history to win three bowl games in consecutive seasons over teams whose head coaches had previously won the national title. He upped that mark to five years in a row in 2016.

Clemson capped off the 2013 season with a thrilling 40-35 victory over No. 6 Ohio State in the Orange Bowl. Clemson had an 11-2 record after finishing 7-1 in ACC regular-season games. It marked Clemson's first back-to-back 11-win seasons in school history. For the fourth time in his first five full seasons as head coach, Swinney was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual National Coach-of-the-Year in 2013.

The 2012 season (11-2) was a groundbreaking year for Swinney's Tigers when looking at the overall consistency of the program. The seven conference wins in the regular season were then a school record, while Clemson was co-champion of the ACC Atlantic Division.

With Clemson's thrilling 25-24 win over No. 7 Louisiana State in the 2012 Chick-fil-A Bowl, the Tigers finished the season ranked No. 9 in the USA Today poll. It was Clemson's first top-10 finish in one of the two major polls since 1990. Clemson also reached the 11-win mark for the first time since its 1981 national championship season.

Swinney's 2011 squad, which ended the season ranked No. 22 in the nation, captured Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 when it beat No. 3 Virginia Tech, 38-10, in the ACC Championship Game in Charlotte, N.C. It gave Clemson its first 10-win season since 1990. For his efforts, Swinney was named Bobby Dodd National Coach-of-the-Year in 2011 to become the first Tiger head coach to win a national coach-of-the-year award since Ford in 1981.

In 2010, Swinney became just the second Tiger coach to lead Clemson to a bowl game in his first two full years as head coach, joining his predecessor, Tommy Bowden. The 2010 schedule was one of the most challenging in school history, as nine bowl teams were on the regular-season slate and two of the four non-conference opponents were ranked in the top 25.

In 2009, Swinney's first full season as head coach at Clemson, he led the Tigers to their first championship of the ACC Atlantic Division. The Tigers came just six points short of winning their first ACC title in 18 years. Swinney was named ACC Coach-of-the-Year by Sporting News and was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach-of-the-Year.

In October 2008, Swinney was named Clemson's interim head coach, replacing Bowden, who had been his position coach as a player at Alabama and was Clemson's head coach since 1999. He led the Tigers to a 4-2 record during the remainder of the 2008 regular season, including a win over South Carolina in the regular-season finale to earn a Gator Bowl bid against Nebraska.

On Dec. 1, 2008, Swinney's interim tag was removed and he was named the program's head coach. At the time, there had been 28 interim head coaches at the FBS level since 1970, and those coaches had combined for a record of 26-86-2. Only one of those 28 interim coaches posted a winning record, and that was Swinney. When he was hired as head coach, he became just the second interim coach to be elevated to the head coach position at the same school during that time period.

Swinney hit the ground running in his first week as interim head coach, as he prepared for a 5-1 Georgia Tech team. He had to reorganize his staff and regroup his team and the fanbase in just five days. While the Tigers lost by four points, he accomplished many goals in that first week through his outstanding leadership. One of the most impressive demonstrations of unity came during the team's "Tiger Walk."

Swinney has demonstrated his community involvement through Dabo's All In Team Foundation, which made the first contribution to the cancer fund established for former Boston College linebacker Mark Herzlich. Many schools followed his lead during the remainder of the season.

The 1993 Alabama graduate joined the Clemson staff prior to the 2003 season. In his first 16 years as an assistant or head coach, the Tigers finished in the top 25 of the polls 12 times and totaled 37 wins over top-25 teams.

Swinney coached his wide receiver position to a level of consistency that had not been seen previously at Clemson. He had a wideout finish first or second in the ACC in catches in five of his six years as an assistant coach. In his first year, he had three of the top-10 receivers in the ACC, a first in Tiger history. He has coached a first- or second-team All-ACC wideout (Derrick Hamilton, Airese Currie, Chansi Stuckey, Aaron Kelly, Jacoby Ford, Sammy Watkins, DeAndre Hopkins, Artavis Scott, Mike Williams, Tee Higgins) in 14 of his 16 seasons in Tigertown, also unprecedented at Clemson.

The Alabama native has a reputation as one of the top recruiters in the nation. In 2006, he was listed as the No. 5 recruiter in the nation by Rivals. He signed 38 players in his five recruiting seasons as an assistant coach and was a major reason Clemson's 2008 recruiting class was rated No. 2 in the nation by ESPN when he signed 11 players.

When Swinney accepted the interim head coaching position at Clemson on Oct. 13, 2008, he described his feelings as "bittersweet," because he was taking over for Bowden, who had been his first position coach at Alabama in the 1989 season. Bowden had also brought Swinney back to the coaching profession in 2003 and has had a profound effect on his life. Both had followed similar paths as players, as Bowden was a walk-on at West Virginia and Swinney was a walk-on at Alabama.

Swinney received a commerce & business administration degree from Alabama in 1993 after lettering three times (1990-92). A walk-on who went on to earn a scholarship, Swinney was a wide receiver on Alabama's 1992 national championship team. He was also named Academic All-SEC along with being an SEC Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll member in 1990 and 1992.

Along with his appearance in the 1993 Sugar Bowl, his Alabama teams played in the 1990 Sugar Bowl, 1991 Fiesta Bowl and 1991 Blockbuster Bowl. Both Sugar Bowl appearances came after winning the SEC title game.

After his playing career, Swinney served as a graduate assistant at Alabama from 1993-95. In December 1995, he received a master's degree in business administration from Alabama.

He became a full-time assistant coach at Alabama in February 1996 under head coach Gene Stallings and coached a total of five seasons there on a full-time basis. Swinney was assigned to coach the Crimson Tide's wide receivers and tight ends in 1996, a season that saw Alabama win the SEC West Division title. The following year, he solely coached the tight ends.

In 1998, he coached Alabama's wide receivers, a position he held for three years. At the end of 1999, Swinney coached the Crimson Tide in the 2000 Orange Bowl after winning the SEC Championship Game.

During his time at Alabama, Swinney was a part of six teams with double-digit wins, five top-10 finishes, one national title (1992), three SEC championships (1989,92,99) and five SEC West Division titles (1992,93,94,96,99) as a player and coach.

Swinney married the former Kathleen Bassett in 1994. They have three sons, Will (21), Drew (19) and Clay (16). Will, a junior, and Drew, a redshirt freshman, are both on the 2019 Tiger football team.

8th Season at Clemson
24th Season Overall
Kansas State '92
Born Dec. 18, 1970

- Including this year, in his 24 years as a full-time assistant coach, his teams have 24 winning seasons, have been to 29 bowl games and have won 10+ games 20 times.
- Helped linebacker Isaiah Simmons earn the 2019 Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker. Simmons was Venables' seventh career Butkus finalist and third career Butkus winner.
- Helped Simmons earn ACC Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2019 among Clemson's eight All-ACC selections on defense.
- Coordinates a 2019 unit that has helped Clemson enter the bowl season ranked first in the nation in scoring defense (10.6), first in passing defense (138.5) and first in total defense (244.7). The unit did not allow its first 12 opponents to reach 300 yards, the first unit on record since 1996 to do so.
- Entered 2019 having previously coached in seven national championship games, including three appearances and two victories at Clemson.
- Helped Clemson lead the nation in scoring defense (13.1) for the first time in school history in 2018, helping Clemson become the first 15-0 team since 1897.

SAFETIES

3rd Season at Clemson
3rd Season Overall
Alabama '95
Born Oct. 9, 1971

- Became a full-time assistant coach (safeties) in January 2017.
- Helped both starters earn All-ACC honors in 2019, as Tanner Muse earned first-team honors and K'Von Wallace as a third-team selection for Clemson's pass defense that enters the bowl season ranked first in the nation in scoring defense (10.6), passing defense (138.5) and total defense (244.7).
- Produced a Second-Team All-ACC honoree in Muse and an Honorable Mention selection in Wallace in 2018, as Clemson's 15-0 squad led the nation in scoring defense (13.1).
- His safeties were a big reason Clemson was fifth in the nation in pass efficiency defense (106.9) in 2017.
- Served as a senior defensive analyst in 2016, helping the Tigers to the program's second national championship with a victory over his alma mater, Alabama.
- Contributed to a 2016 Clemson defense that finished tied for first in the nation in fewest passing yards allowed per attempt (5.6) and fourth in passing efficiency defense (100.2).
- Came to Clemson after 16 seasons as head coach at Grayson (Ga.) High School. The Rams were 137-48 during that time with seven region championships, a state championship in 2011 and a state semifinal playoff appearance in 2015.
- Grayson High School finished in the top 25 in the nation four times, including No. 3 in 2011. The program reached the No. 1 ranking in the nation twice during his tenure.
- Began his coaching career at Grayson High School on March 21, 2000, and started his career at Clemson on March 21, 2016.
- He owned the most wins at the highest classification in the state of Georgia before he came to Clemson.
- Coached several current college and NFL players at Grayson High School, including two-time All-ACC running back Wayne Gallman, the No. 5 rusher in Clemson history. He also coached former Clemson starting cornerback Ryan Carter and former backup quarterback Nick Schuessler.
- Tiger quarterback Chase Brice is Conn's nephew.
- Coached at his alma mater, South Gwinnett High School in Atlanta, in 1998 and 1999. David Green, who went on to play four years as a starter at Georgia, was his quarterback.
- Former graduate assistant coach at Alabama in 1996 and 1997. He was on staff when Dabo Swinney was a full-time coach with the Crimson Tide. Alabama was 10-3 and went to the Outback Bowl in 1996 with Conn and Swinney on staff.
- College teammate of Swinney at Alabama, as they were both on the 1992 national title team under Head Coach Gene Stallings. Conn lettered during the 1992, 1993 and 1994 seasons, but was on the team from 1990-94. He redshirted his freshman year.

- Moved into one of the now 10 full-time coaching positions in 2018 after being hired to coach defensive ends.
- Has overseen a young group in 2019 whose pressure has helped Clemson enter the bowl season ranked first in the nation in scoring defense (10.6), passing defense (138.5) and total defense (244.7). Sophomore Xavier Thomas collected third-team All-ACC honors for his performance.
- In his first season as a full-time assistant coach in 2018, produced a Ted Hendricks Award winner as Clelin Ferrell was honored as the nation's best defensive end.
- Served as a defensive analyst in 2015 and 2016 and as a senior defensive analyst in 2017, helping the Tigers to a 40-4 record in those three seasons, three ACC championships and three College Football Playoff berths. Clemson won the 2016 national championship, finished runner-up to Alabama in 2015 and the semifinals in the Sugar Bowl in 2017.
- Including his time as an analyst, Clemson has finished in the top four of the AP and coaches polls in every year of his tenure, the longest stretch of top-four finishes in school history. Clemson's five College Football Playoff berths are tied for the most all-time, with all five coming in Hall's tenure at Clemson.
- Hall's relationship with head coach Dabo Swinney dates to their college careers at Alabama. Both were members of the 1992 national championship team. Hall earned First-Team All-SEC honors in 1992 and was a UPI Honorable Mention All-American. He was a captain of Alabama's 1993 team and was named to the Alabama All-Decade team for the 1990s.
- The native of Alabama led the 1992 Crimson Tide national championship team in tackles (70), including eight tackles for loss and five sacks. He added 76 tackles as a senior in 1993. He was named First-Team All-SEC by the coaches both years.
- Alabama was 40-9-1 in his four years and played four bowl games. The Crimson Tide won three of those bowl games, including a 34-13 win over Miami (Fla.) in the Sugar Bowl at the end of the 1992 season that gave Alabama the national title.
- Drafted by the Houston Oilers and played in the NFL for nine years and 101 games from 1994-02. His top year came in 2001 when he had 62 tackles for the Vikings, tied for fifth on the team. He started 13 games and played all 16 games that year, helping the Vikings to the second round of the playoffs.

RECRUITING COORDINATOR QUARTERBACKS

6th Season at Clemson
14th Season Overall
Clemson '99
Born Jan. 1, 1977

- Came to Clemson as the recruiting coordinator and quarterbacks coach in December 2014 after serving three seasons (2012-14) as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Richmond.
- Has overseen the explosive sophomore year of Trevor Lawrence in 2019, helping him earn first-team All-ACC honors after completing 232-of-337 for 3,172 yards with 34 touchdowns for an ACC-best 176.44 passer rating prior to bowl season.
- Accelerated the learning curve and acclimatization of Lawrence as a true freshman in 2018, helping him garner a finalist selection from the Manning Award and a semifinalist selection by the Davey O'Brien Award in 2018.
- Coached Kelly Bryant in 2017. Bryant was a Manning Award finalist and Davey O'Brien Award semifinalist.
- As recruiting coordinator, he spearheaded Clemson's consensus top-10 class in February 2016 and 2017.

- Coached Clemson's first two-time Heisman Trophy finalist, Deshaun Watson. He became the first player in FBS history with at least 4,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in 2015, and ended his career in dramatic fashion as the Most Valuable Offensive Player of Clemson's 35-31 win over Alabama that delivered the school's second national championship in 2016.
- Watson was a two-time recipient of the Davey O'Brien and Manning awards. He also won the 2016 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and 2016 Bobby Bowden Award.
- Six of the seven teams he worked with as an offensive coordinator from 2008-14 finished the season in the top 25 of the FCS poll. That included the 2014 Richmond team that entered the FCS playoffs ranked No. 16. Five of the last eight teams were conference champions or co-champions, and Clemson has finished in the top two in each of his three seasons.

2019 GAME RECAPS

GAME 1	GEORGIA TECH	14
	CLEMSON	52
	AUG. 29, 2019 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

Behind a career-best 205 rushing yards from Travis Etienne, the No. 1/1 Clemson Tigers defeated the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets, 52-14, at Memorial Stadium on Aug. 29. Clemson rushed for 411 yards, its most in a season-opener since 1957 and the most allowed by Georgia Tech since 1975.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence opened the scoring for the Tigers with a six-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. Lawrence completed 13-of-23 pass attempts for 168 yards and one touchdown on the day and added three carries for 24 yards with the rushing touchdown.

Etienne found the endzone three times among his 12 attempts, including a career-long and school-record-tying 90-yard touchdown run in the opening quarter. It was the longest run by any player in Memorial Stadium history. His third and final score of the night came from 48 yards out in the opening minutes of the third quarter.

Tee Higgins finished with four catches for 98 yards, including a 62-yard touchdown from Lawrence with 4:34 to go in the first half to put Clemson ahead 28-0 after two quarters. Second-half touchdowns by Lyn-J Dixon and Frank Ladson Jr. and a 51-yard field goal by B.T. Potter completed the scoring for Clemson.

Clemson forced four turnovers, including interceptions by Tanner Muse and Denzel Johnson and fumble recoveries by Baylon Spector and Xavier Kelly. The four takeaways were Clemson's most since 2015 against Notre Dame. Isaiah Simmons led the defense with nine tackles.

GAME 2	TEXAS A&M	10
	CLEMSON	24
	SEPT. 7, 2019 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

No. 1/1 Clemson extended its winning streak to 17 games, tying the school record set across the 2014-15 seasons, as the Tigers defeated the No. 12/11 Texas A&M Aggies inside a sold-out Memorial Stadium, 24-10.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 24-of-35 passes for 268 passing yards and one passing touchdown along with his second rushing touchdown of the season. Lyn-J Dixon led the ground attack, posting 79 yards on 11 attempts and one touchdown.

One year after Clemson's top-ranked scoring defense allowed 501 yards at Texas A&M, Clemson held Texas A&M to 289 total yards on Saturday. It included holding quarterback Kellen Mond to 236 passing yards (97 through three quarters) after Mond accounted for 430 yards in the teams' meeting in 2018.

After a scoreless first quarter, Texas A&M opened the scoring on a 16-play drive that ended with a 32-yard field goal. But Clemson responded with three scoring drives to end the half. Lawrence connected with Justyn Ross for a 30-yard touchdown in the second quarter. After a 29-yard field goal by B.T. Potter, Lawrence rushed for his second touchdown of the season with 33 seconds remaining in the second quarter to push the lead to 14 at the break.

Dixon added a rushing touchdown in the second half to bring Clemson's point total to 24. Texas A&M's lone touchdown of the day came on a Jalen Wydermyer touchdown reception with only six seconds remaining, snapping a streak of 11 consecutive wins by 20 points or more, one shy of the most by any team in the AP Poll era (since 1936).

GAME 3	CLEMSON	41
	SYRACUSE	6
	SEPT. 14, 2019 THE DOME • SYRACUSE, N.Y.

No. 1/1 Clemson set a new school record with its 18th consecutive victory, defeating the Syracuse Orange, 41-6, at The Dome in Clemson's first road test of the season. It was a charged atmosphere, representing the third-largest crowd in facility history and Syracuse's first home sellout since 1998.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 22-of-39 passes for a career-high 395 yards with three passing touchdowns. His 395 passing yards represented the 11th-highest single game total in school history.

Clemson had two receivers post 100-yard games. Tee Higgins recorded 150 yards on seven receptions, all in the first half, the most by a Tiger in a half since Sammy Watkins' school-record 177-yard first half against Wake Forest in 2012. Amari Rodgers added 121 yards on four catches, including touchdown receptions of 16 and 87 yards.

Clemson led throughout, with Rodgers opening the scoring. Twice, Clemson gifted Syracuse the ball inside Clemson's own 10-yard line following turnovers, but Clemson forced an interception and turnover on downs on the resulting possessions.

Despite the gaudy offensive numbers, the story of the game was Clemson's stout defense, which held Syracuse out of the endzone and helped Clemson outgain Syracuse, 612-187. Clemson finished with 15 tackles for loss, its most in the Dabo Swinney era, including eight sacks, tied for the eighth-most in a game in school history.

2019 GAME RECAPS

GAME 4	CHARLOTTE	10
	CLEMSON	52
SEPT. 21, 2019
MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

Top-ranked Clemson defeated Charlotte 52-10 at Memorial Stadium night in Dabo Swinney's 150th career game as head coach at Clemson. The win extended Clemson's school-record win streak to 19 games, dating to the start of the 2018 season. The Tiger defense held the 49ers to 216 yards of total offense.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence threw two touchdown passes, including a 58-yard touchdown to Tee Higgins on his first attempt of the game, as well as a two-yard touchdown pass to Cornell Powell early in the second quarter before giving way to the Tiger reserves. Chase Brice connected with Joseph Ngata for a 37-yard touchdown in the third quarter. The touchdown reception was Ngata's first career touchdown reception. Running backs Travis Etienne, Lyn-J Dixon and Michel Dukes all accounted for a rushing touchdown, respectively, as well.

Clemson held Charlotte to 63 passing yards. Safety K'Von Wallace returned a 66-yard interception for a touchdown in the first quarter, his fourth career interception and first career touchdown.

Clemson played a school-record 111 players in the contest, shattering the previous record of 94, set against The Citadel in 2017 and again against Louisville in 2018.

GAME 5	CLEMSON	21
	NORTH CAROLINA	20
SEPT. 28, 2019
KENAN STADIUM • CHAPEL HILL, N.C.

No. 1 Clemson stopped North Carolina on a two-point conversion attempt with less than two minutes remaining to defeat the Tar Heels, 21-20, at Kenan Memorial Stadium. The game marked the first time in nine years that the Tigers traveled to Chapel Hill, N.C., and represented the first time since 2002 that Clemson beat the Tar Heels in Chapel Hill.

North Carolina opened the game with a four-play touchdown drive capped by a 40-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Sam Howell to Dyami Brown. Running back Travis Etienne eventually responded for Clemson with a 13-yard touchdown in the second quarter.

After Howell produced a second passing touchdown for North Carolina, quarterback Trevor Lawrence found the endzone for his fourth rushing touchdown of the season to tie the game at 14 with less than a minute to go before halftime.

The teams traded scoreless possessions throughout the third quarter, but in the fourth quarter, Lawrence connected with Tee Higgins on a 38-yard touchdown to give the Tigers their first lead of the game with 9:54 remaining. Lawrence finished the contest having completed 18-of-30 passes for 206 yards and a career-best 45 rushing yards. Higgins finished with game highs in receptions (six) and receiving yards (129).

Trailing 21-14, North Carolina engineered a 16-play, 75-yard touchdown drive to pull within one point with 1:17 remaining. North Carolina Head Coach Mack Brown opted to try a two-point conversion attempt, but the Tiger defense stood tall, as Xavier Thomas, James Skalski and Nolan Turner combined to tackle quarterback Sam Howell to preserve the lead. A Clemson recovery on an ensuing outside kick sealed the victory.

GAME 6	FLORIDA STATE	14
	CLEMSON	45
OCT. 12, 2019
MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

No. 2 Clemson defeated Florida State Seminoles, 45-14, as Clemson became just the 15th FBS program — and the first in the Atlantic Coast Conference — to reach 750 all-time wins.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 17-25 passes for 170 yards and three touchdowns. Lawrence also rushed for his fifth touchdown of the season in the contest. Wide receiver Justyn Ross added two touchdown receptions in the second quarter, finishing with 61 receiving yards on five catches.

Running back Travis Etienne surpassed 3,000 career rushing yards on the afternoon, finishing with 127 rushing yards and a three-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter. Amari Rodgers added a 29-yard touchdown on a reverse to open the scoring in the second half.

Though Clemson's offense helped the Tigers run out to a quick 28-0 lead, the defense was one of the stories of the game, forcing four turnovers, including three interceptions. Cornerback Derion Kendrick recorded his first career interception, which he returned 38 yards for a pick-six. It was Clemson's second interception return for touchdown this season, giving Clemson multiple pick sixes in every season since 2013.

Clemson's 39:37 possession time was the program's longest since its school-record 42:58 possession time against North Carolina on Nov. 7, 1992.

2019 GAME RECAPS

GAME 7	CLEMSON	45
	LOUISVILLE	10
	OCT. 19, 2019 CARDINAL STADIUM • LOUISVILLE, KY.

No. 3/2 Clemson defeated Louisville, 45-10, at Cardinal Stadium. The Tiger defense forced three turnovers and totaled six sacks in the win, holding Louisville to just 263 yards.

Clemson racked up 551 yards offensively behind another big day from junior running back Travis Etienne in helping the Tigers to their 10th consecutive true road win.

Etienne continued his stellar play against the Cardinals, rushing for 192 yards on 14 attempts including a 49-yard touchdown run in the third quarter. It gave him 443 yards on 28 carries and three touchdowns on the ground in three career games against Louisville. It marked the first time Etienne rushed for 100-plus yards in back-to-back games since a three-game streak in 2018 against South Carolina, Pittsburgh and Notre Dame.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 20-of-29 passes and three touchdown passes despite starting the game 3-for-7 for five yards with two interceptions in the first quarter. Justyn Ross, Joseph Ngata and Cornell Powell each hauled in a touchdown reception.

Linebacker Isaiah Simmons led the defense once again, registering eight total tackles, two sacks and one pass breakup. Justin Foster tallied a career-best two sacks and 3.5 tackles for loss. K'Von Wallace and A.J. Terrell each recorded interceptions in the contest.

With the victory, Head Coach Dabo Swinney became the winningest active FBS coach by percentage among coaches with at least five seasons of experience.

GAME 8	BOSTON COLLEGE	7
	CLEMSON	59
	OCT. 26, 2019 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

No. 4/2 Clemson extended the nation's longest winning streak to 23 games at Memorial Stadium, dominating Boston College, 59-7, on Homecoming. Clemson outgained Boston College, 674-177, and the 497-yard differential was Clemson's largest against an ACC opponent since the conference's founding in 1953, surpassing a 464-yard advantage against Wake Forest in 2000.

Diondre Overton tied a school record with three touchdown receptions. He finished with three receptions for 119 receiving yards, with his three catches resulting in touchdowns of 22, 63 and 34 yards.

Travis Etienne recorded his fifth three-touchdown game of his Clemson career, scoring three first-half touchdowns and posting 109 yards on 16 carries. Trevor Lawrence completed 16-of-19 passes for 275 yards and three touchdowns for a career-high passer rating of 257.9. In addition to throwing two touchdowns to Overton, Lawrence found Amari Rodgers for Rodgers' third touchdown of the season on a 19-yard strike.

The Clemson defense held the Boston College rushing attack, which posted 429 yards against NC State a week earlier, to only 96 yards. The Eagles came into the contest ranked sixth in the nation and first in the ACC with 278.3 rushing yards per game. Logan Rudolph returned a fumble 39 yards to score his first career touchdown. Chad Smith led the defense with nine total tackles, a forced fumble and a sack.

GAME 9	WOFFORD	14
	CLEMSON	59
	NOV. 2, 2019 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

Behind a career-best 212 rushing yards from running back Travis Etienne, No. 4/3 Clemson defeated Wofford, 59-14, at Memorial Stadium on Military Appreciation Day. The win also extended Clemson's home winning streak to 21 games, tying the school record.

Etienne broke James Davis' (47 from 2005-08) school rushing touchdowns record in the second quarter on an 86-yard touchdown, his second score of the day. Etienne's 212 yards came on just nine attempts. Etienne crossed the 1,000-yard mark on the season in just nine games, tying Terrence Flagler's for fewest games needed to reach 1,000 rushing yards in a season.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence threw for three touchdowns and 218 yards in the win. Lawrence completed 12-of-16 passes and rushed for 33 yards on four attempts with a rushing touchdown. Amari Rodgers caught his fourth touchdown of the season, a 35-yard strike in the first quarter. Justyn Ross and Tee Higgins also added receiving touchdowns in the contest.

Clemson's explosive offense gave the Tigers back-to-back 600-yard games and four straight 45-point games for the first time in school history.

Isaiah Simmons recorded his first interception of the season, picking off Wofford quarterback Joe Newman in the second quarter. Jake Venables tied for a team high with eight total tackle, four of which resulted in a loss. Conversely, Clemson's offense ran 64 plays, none of which produced negative yardage.

2019 GAME RECAPS

GAME 10	CLEMSON	55
	NC STATE	10
	NOV. 9, 2019 CARTER-FINLEY STADIUM • RALEIGH, N.C.

Notified just before kick of the opportunity to clinch the Atlantic Division, No. 4/3 Clemson secured its spot in the ACC Championship Game with a 55-10 win at NC State.

Clemson warmed up in its traditional white pants but switched to its championship "orange britches" right before kickoff upon being informed of Wake Forest's loss to Virginia Tech. Clemson then used a record-tying 28-point first quarter to run out to a 28-0 lead.

Running back Travis Etienne added three total touchdowns to bring his career total to 54, breaking C.J. Spiller's record for career touchdowns (51). Etienne finished the game with 112 rushing yards on 14 attempts, and hauled in three receptions for 31 yards.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 20-of-27 passes for 276 yards and three touchdowns, becoming the first Clemson quarterback to pass for three touchdowns in five consecutive games. The sophomore also rushed for a career-high 59 yards on eight attempts and found the endzone once on the ground.

Justyn Ross and Tee Higgins each recorded 33-yard touchdown receptions. Offensive lineman John Simpson scored his first career touchdown, scoring on a one-yard handoff.

Clemson forced four NC State turnovers, all fumbles, as Xavier Thomas, Chad Smith, Tyler Davis and Jack Maddox all recorded fumble recoveries. The defense allowed 290 total yards, its 10th straight opponent to accrue fewer than 300 yards to open the season.

GAME 11	WAKE FOREST	3
	CLEMSON	52
	NOV. 16, 2019 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

No. 3/3 Clemson downed Wake Forest, 52-3, on Senior Day, setting a school record with its 22nd consecutive home victory. The 49-point victory was an ACC-record sixth straight by 30 or more.

The Tigers scored on a Trevor Lawrence pass to Tee Higgins on their opening drive, then closed out the half with back-to-back scores from Lawrence to Higgins in just 29 seconds of game clock. The half's final touchdown was set up by an A.J. Terrell interception and gave the Tigers a 31-3 halftime lead. Clemson added touchdowns from Joseph Ngata, Frank Ladson Jr. and Lyn-J Dixon in the second half.

Lawrence recorded a career-high tying four touchdown passes and connected on 21-of-27 passing for 272 yards. Tee Higgins caught three touchdown passes, marking the Tigers' eighth three-touchdown receiving performance in school history and the second such performance this season. Etienne turned in 16 carries for 121 yards and a touchdown, while also catching three passes for 37 yards and took sole possession of the school record for consecutive 100-yard rushing games by reaching the mark in a sixth straight game.

Safety Tanner Muse recorded four tackles (two for loss) and an interception, as the Tiger defense held Wake Forest to 105 total yards of offense (41 passing, 64 rushing). Clemson's defense forced seven three-and-outs while limiting Wake Forest to only five first downs. With the win, Clemson joined 1944 Army and 1972 Nebraska as the only teams in the AP Poll era to win four consecutive games by 45 or more points.

GAME 12	CLEMSON	38
	SOUTH CAROLINA	3
	NOV. 30, 2019 WILLIAMS-BRICE STADIUM • COLUMBIA, S.C.

No. 3/3 Clemson defeated South Carolina, 38-3, at Williams-Brice Stadium, completing the eighth undefeated regular season in school history. The win marked Clemson's 27th consecutive victory and sixth in a row against the Gamecocks. Travis Etienne broke the ACC career total (57) and rushing touchdowns (53) record with his second rushing touchdowns of the game.

Etienne finished with 51 rushing yards on 15 attempts with two rushing touchdowns. Quarterback Trevor Lawrence completed 26-of-36 passes and 295 yards. He threw three touchdowns, extending his streak of consecutive games with three touchdown passes to seven. Lawrence also rushed for a career best 66-yards. Lawrence set a school record with 18 consecutive completions, which tied the ACC record.

Wide receiver Tee Higgins hauled in his ninth and 10th receiving touchdowns of the year, making him the first Clemson receiver to post back-to-back seasons of double-digit touchdown receptions. Justyn Ross also added a 16-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter amidst his career-high nine receptions for 111 yards to give the Tigers a 21-3 first-half lead.

The Clemson defense held South Carolina to only 172 total yards, the Tigers' top defensive output against the Gamecocks since 1989. Cornerback Derion Kendrick recorded his second interception of the season on the game's opening possession, and linebacker Isaiah Simmons added 10 total tackles, two of them being for a loss, and a sack. With the win, Clemson tied 2011 Houston and 1976 Michigan for the longest streak of 30-point wins in the AP Poll era (seven).

2019 GAME RECAPS

GAME 13	VIRGINIA	17
	CLEMSON	62
	DEC. 7, 2019 BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM • CHARLOTTE, N.C.

No. 3/3 Clemson defeated No. 22/22 Virginia 62-17 to win its fifth consecutive ACC Championship Game at Bank of America Stadium. Clemson became the first team in college football history to win five straight conference championship games.

Trevor Lawrence set an ACC Championship Game record with four touchdown passes, three of which went to Tee Higgins. Clemson built a 31-7 halftime lead, scoring on its first five possessions, en route to an ACC Championship Game record 62 points and 619 total yards.

The sophomore quarterback finished 16-of-22 and 302 passing yards. Higgins finished with three touchdown receptions and 182 receiving yards, each setting an ACC Championship Game record. With three touchdown receptions on the night, Higgins tied Clemson's all-time receiving touchdowns record with 27.

Travis Etienne rushed for 114 yards and one touchdown on the night. Etienne reached 1,500 rushing yards in a season for the second consecutive season, becoming the first player in program history to accomplish the feat.

Linebacker Isaiah Simmons, who was named as the Butkus Award winner the following day, posted nine tackles and one of Clemson's three interceptions on the evening. Virginia native K'Von Wallace added nine tackles and two pass breakups in the contest.

1978 GATOR BOWL

17

DEC. 29, 1978 • GATOR BOWL • JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

Danny Ford made his Clemson debut as head coach in grand style with a 17-15 victory over Ohio State and coaching legend Woody Hayes to close the 1978 season. The victory gave the Tigers an 11-1 final record, tying the school record (at the time) for victories in a season. With the win, Clemson finished tied for No. 6 in the coaches poll and No. 6 by AP.

Ford had been named head coach of the Tigers on December 10 after Charley Pell resigned as head coach to take the same position with the Florida program. Ford was just 30 years old at the time, the youngest head coach in the nation.

While Clemson had a young coach on the sideline, it had an old quarterback by college standards on the field. Steve Fuller, a third-team All-American and first-team Academic All-American, was in his fourth year as a starter and ran the offense efficiently. He ran a Tiger offense that had just one turnover in 80 plays.

Fuller led a 15-play, 80-yard touchdown drive to give Clemson a 7-3 lead in the second quarter.

The Tigers drove downfield behind some Fuller passes to the Ohio State 30 and Obed Ariri kicked a 47-yard field goal to put Clemson up 10-9 at halftime.

Clemson scored the only points of the third quarter on a one-yard run by freshman Cliff Austin. It completed an 83-yard drive that took 18 plays.

With 8:11 left and Clemson holding a 17-9 lead, Schlichter scored his second touchdown of the game to bring Ohio State to within two points. Ohio State went for two, but Jim Stuckey tackled Schlichter on a quarterback sweep to prevent the score.

Ohio State got the ball back after a failed Tiger drive. Faced with a third-and-five at the Clemson 24, second-team middle guard Charlie Bauman intercepted Schlichter when he dropped into coverage. It was the only interception of Bauman's four-year career and the only turnover of the night for the Buckeye offense.

On the return, Bauman was run out-of-bounds in front of the Ohio State bench. There was a scuffle that involved Hayes, and consecutive unsportsmanlike conduct penalties were called on Ohio State, giving Clemson excellent field position. Clemson ran out the clock, giving the Tigers their first win over a Big Ten school.

Bubba Brown was the star of the Clemson defense with 22 tackles. Randy Scott added 16 tackles and Jim Stuckey had 11 to key the Clemson defense.

2014 ORANGE BOWL

CLEMSON

40

OHIO STATE

35

JAN. 3, 2014 • SUN LIFE STADIUM • MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

Brent Venables bristled a bit earlier in the week when he was asked about the Orange Bowl against No. 6 Ohio State being billed as a shootout.

While the final score, 40-35 in favor of No. 11 Clemson, may have indicated that was the case, its defensive coordinator could smile afterward knowing his unit made the plays that were the difference.

It was not all defense for Clemson, as Sammy Watkins set Tiger and Orange Bowl records with 16 receptions and 227 receiving yards to garner MVP honors, and Tajh Boyd accounted for 505 yards of total offense and six touchdowns. Despite outgaining Ohio State by 108 yards and largely dominating on both sides of the ball, the Tigers trailed at halftime 22-20.

The Tigers cashed in on two third-quarter turnovers, as Watkins and Martavis Bryant made acrobatic touchdown catches to put Clemson ahead.

Stanton Seckinger put Clemson ahead with a five-yard catch with 6:16 left, and Spencer Shuey's and Stephone Anthony's takeaways finished Ohio State off.

Things looked bleak for the Tigers after Ohio State stretched its lead to 29-20 and got another stop to open the second half.

Clemson got a break after its offense had been forced to punt, as Corey Brown muffed a punt and Clemson recovered. The Tigers cashed in, as Watkins made an acrobatic catch for a 30-yard touchdown that narrowed Ohio State's lead to 29-27.

The Tiger defense kept the momentum going on the ensuing drive. Braxton Miller was intercepted by Jayron Kearse to give Clemson the ball at the Ohio State 38.

Bryant then hauled in a juggling catch in the corner of the endzone to put the Tigers back on top 34-29 with 32 seconds left in the third quarter.

After the Buckeyes regained the lead, the Tigers went back in front on a five-yard grab by Seckinger, whom Boyd found wide open for the touchdown. The score put Clemson on top 40-35 with 6:16 remaining.

With the Buckeyes facing third-and-13 on the ensuing drive, Breeland crashed in on a corner blitz and hit Miller, the ball popped loose and Shuey snatched it out of the air at the Ohio State 47.

The Tigers gave the ball right back, as Ohio State came up with an interception three plays later, but Anthony picked Miller off two plays later to get the ball back for Clemson and seal the win.

2016 FIESTA BOWL

CLEMSON

31

DEC. 31, 2016 • UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM • GLENDALE, ARIZ.

Clemson used a dominating defense and the efficient all-around play of quarterback Deshaun Watson to defeat No. 2 ranked Ohio State, 31-0 in the Playstation Fiesta Bowl in Glendale, Ariz. It was the worst margin of defeat in a bowl game in Ohio State history.

It marked the first time an Urban Meyer coached team has been shutout in 194 games and the first time Ohio State was shut out since 1993. Ohio State entered the game averaging 42.7 points per game, ninth in the nation, and 480 yards per game total offense. Buckeye quarterback J.T Barrett had just 127 yards passing and -2 rushing.

Overall, Ohio State had just 88 yards rushing and 127 passing for 215 yards of total offense. They averaged just 3.8 yards a play and had just nine first downs.

Watson, the offensive MVP of the game, hit on 26-36 passes for 259 yards and a score. He added 57 yards rushing and two scores. Wayne Gallman was Clemson's top rusher with 85 yards on 18 attempts and a score. Mike Williams had six catches for 96 yards, while Hunter Renfrow added 5-50.

Clelin Ferrell was named the defensive player-of-the-game thanks to his three tackles for loss, including a sack. Van Smith led the Clemson defense with nine tackles, while Carlos Watkins had two sacks, giving him 10.5 for the season, a record for a Clemson defensive lineman.

Ohio State missed two field goals in the first quarter and those misses proved to be momentum swaying plays. Clemson's Greg Huegel hit on a 45-yarder in the first quarter to give Huegel a 3-0 advantage. The Tigers later scored again in the opening period on a one-yard run by Watson, a play that culminated a 70-yard scoring drive.

It became 17-0 at halftime when Watson found reserve running back C.J. Fuller out of the backfield on a wheel route. Fuller made the catch in the endzone to give Clemson a 17-0 lead. Fuller, from nearby Easley, S.C., had just four catches for 17 yards all year before that play.

The Tigers made it 31-0 with 8:47 left. Clemson took over at the Ohio State seven after Van Smith intercepted the ball at the Clemson seven, then ran 86 yards to the Ohio State seven to set up Watson's last score. It was the fifth longest interception return in school history, longest in a bowl game.
