2018 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

STATE CHAMPIONS • ACC CHAMPIONS • COTTON BOWL CHAMPIONS

- Clemson posted an undefeated 15-0 record, becoming the first team to accomplish the feat since Penn in 1897. The Tigers won each of their final 10 games by 20+ points.
- Clemson finished its sixth undefeated season (1900, 1906, 1948, 1950, 1981, 2018) and fourth perfect season (1900, 1948, 1981, 2018) in school history.
- Clemson had a 15-0 record against a schedule that included a school-record 12 games against teams who finished with winning records.
- Clemson's roster included 26 members that had already earned degrees before the game was played, including two with master's degrees.

THE CLEMSON FOOTBALL STANDARD

TIED FOR MOST WINS SINCE 2015

Clemson's recent success has been particularly pronounced in the midst of Clemson's six-year streak of College Football Playoff appearances since 2015. Clemson and Alabama have the most wins in the country in that span, with those teams combining for five out of six national championships.

MOST WINS (SINCE 2015)

3.	Ohio State	68	8	.905
4.	Oklahoma	67	12	.848
5.	Appalachian State	63	15	.808

Clemson has a 121-18 record since starting its current stretch of 10-win seasons in 2011. Only Alabama (127-12) has more wins since 2011. The Tigers also have the second-highest winning percentage (.871) in that time frame.

10-WIN SEASONS

Clemson enters 2021 riding a streak of 10 consecutive seasons with 10+ wins. The program's 10th consecutive 10-win season in 2020 made Clemson only the third program in FBS history to produce a "double-double" - double-digit wins in a double-digit number of consecutive seasons.

The Tigers have 17 10-win seasons in school history, with 10 coming under head coach Dabo Swinney. The 2019 season was Clemson's sixth with at least 12 wins, with Swinney sitting at the helm for five of them.

* - active streak

Of the 130 active FBS schools, only 12 programs have won at least six games every year since 2015. That number dips to six when pushing the win total to eight, and drops all the way to two (Clemson and Alabama) when setting the bar at 10 wins.

SENIORS CHASING HISTORY

Each of Clemson's last four senior classes have placed themselves among select company in college football history. The 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 Clemson seniors account for four of only 12 four-year classes in FBS history to reach 50 career wins. That includes the 2018 and 2019 groups that are tied with the 2018 Alabama seniors for the most wins in FBS history (55 wins in four years).

The 2021 Clemson seniors (excluding "Super Seniors" using their extra year of eligibility afforded by the NCAA) are 39-3 since 2018, the most wins of any active class in the country.

"A"NOTHER "C"LEMSON "C"HAMPIONSHIP

With its sixth straight conference title last year, Clemson became the first program ever to win 20 ACC Championships, five more than Florida State, which ranks second with 15.

Clemson was the first program in the conference championship game era to win six straight conference championship games. Clemson also became the first ACC program to win six consecutive outright titles, as Florida State had a streak of nine straight ACC titles, but that streak included two co-championships that prevented Bobby Bowden's Seminoles from ever winning four straight titles outright.

In 2020, Clemson and Oklahoma's six-year streaks of outright titles made the two programs the first among current Power Five programs to win at least six straight outright titles since Oklahoma (12 from 1948-59) as part of the now-dissolved Big 8 Conference.

BEHIND ALL-AMERICANS LIKE TRAVIS ETIENNE (#9) AND TREVOR LAWRENCE (#16), CLEMSON HAS 79 WINS IN THE LAST SIX YEARS, TIED FOR MOST IN THE NATION.

ESTEEMED COMPANY

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's run of excellence in his decade-plus at Clemson has placed him in the company of college football legends.

Swinney boasts a career winning percentage of .809, sitting as one of only 13 head coaches in history with at least 10 seasons of FBS head coaching experience to post a mark of .800 or better.

IN SEARCH OF WIN NO. 150

Entering 2021, Head Coach Dabo Swinney is 140-33 in 173 career games and needs 10 more wins to reach 150 career victories.

Among coaches who qualify for the NCAA FBS recordbook by virtue of five years or 50 wins as a major college head coach, only 15 have ever reached 150 career wins in 200 games or less.

FEWEST GAMES TO REACH 150 WINS

Rk	Coach	School(s)	Games
1.	Urban Meyer	BGSU, Utah, Fla., Ohio St.	176
2.	Gil Dobie	NDSU, Wash., Navy, Cornell, BC	180

	Bob Stoops	Oklahoma	187
8.	Bob Neyland	Tennessee	189
9.	Frank Kush	Arizona State	190
10.	Wallace Wade	Alabama, Duke	193

The fastest Swinney could reach 150 victories would be 183 games if Clemson were to open 2021 with 10 straight victories. That would place him above Fielding Yost and Joe Paterno to become the fourth-fastest FBS coach to 150 career wins and the third-fastest in the modern era.

STAFF CONTINUITY

Clemson has become a beacon of stability in the increasingly unstable environment of college football. Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney is in his 19th overall season at Clemson in 2021, including his 13th full season as head coach (and his 14th including an interim stint in 2008).

From the start of Swinney's first season as full-time head coach in 2009 through 2020, there have been nearly 400 head coaching tenures in the FBS (excluding those by interims), but only one such tenure at Clemson. Among the 11 schools ever to qualify for the College Football Playoff, only Clemson and Alabama have had only one head coach since 2009.

This year, Swinney can catch College Football Hall of Famer Frank Howard in total conference championships. Howard led Clemson to eight conference titles, including two Southern Conference championships and six ACC crowns. Swinney's seven ACC titles are the second most since the conference's founding in 1953.

THE CLEMSON FOOTBALL STANDARD

ALL-TIME ACC LEADERS

Since the conference's founding in 1953, no program has won more regular season games in Atlantic Coast Conference play than Clemson. With a win against Virginia last year, Clemson earned its 300th official regular season victory over an ACC opponent, becoming the first program to accomplish the feat.

A FAMILIAR NO. 1

Clemson opened the 2020 season at No. 1 atop both polls, marking the program's second straight top preseason ranking. With the top selection in the AP Poll, Clemson became the sixth program since the inception of the preseason poll in 1950 ever to open consecutive preseason polls at No. 1, joining Alabama (2016-18), Southern California (2004-05), Oklahoma (1985-87, 1974-75, 1956-57), Ohio State (1969-70) and Notre Dame (1953-54).

Seeing Clemson at No. 1 at some point in the season has started to feel familiar in recent years, as 2020 represented the sixth straight year in which Clemson appeared at No. 1 in at least one AP Poll. Dabo Swinney joined Nick Saban (13) as the only coach in AP Poll history (since 1936) to lead a team to at least one No. 1 ranking in six consecutive years. Clemson, Alabama (13 from 2008-20) and Miami (seven from 1986-92) are the only programs to appear at No. 1 in at least six consecutive years.

PLAYOFF STREAK

With six consecutive College Football Playoff appearances, Clemson's active playoff streak is as long or longer than all 32 NFL teams, 29 of 30 MLB teams, 28 of 31 NHL teams and 28 of 30 NBA teams.

So, despite only four teams making the College Football Playoff each year, Clemson's playoff streak is as long or longer than 117 of the 123 teams in the four major professional sports.

Included below is a look at the only six teams in the four major professional leagues with active playoff streaks exceeding Clemson's six:

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

- Through the spring of 2021, of 298 eligible players who completed their athletic eligibility at Clemson and/or graduated early in Dabo Swinney's 12 full years as head coach, 293 (98 percent) have earned a degree during their time at Clemson.
- In 2018, in addition to becoming major college football's first 15-0 team since 1897, Clemson recorded a then-program-record 66 student-athletes with a 3.0 or better GPA in the midst of setting a program record for team GPA.
- Prior to the NCAA suspending APR reporting during the COVID-19 pandemic, Clemson set a program record in APR in the NCAA's most recent figures released in May 2020, recording a multi-year APR score of 993 for the 2018-19 academic year. The performance marked the third straight year Clemson broke its program record in the metric after breaking its 992 from 2017-18, which had broken its 987 mark from 2016-17.

- Clemson's 993 multi-year APR ranked fourth in the Power Five and fifth among FBS programs, trailing only Washington (999), Ole Miss (997), Northwestern (995) and Air Force (995). That metric covered a four-year span in which Clemson matched its off-field success with on-field accolades that included a 55-4 record, four College Football Playoff appearances and two national championships.
- Clemson is one of only nine FBS programs to produce a 985+ multi-year APR in each of the past three reported cycles, along with Air Force, Boston College, Duke, Navy, Nevada, Northwestern, Stanford and Washington.
- The NCAA has recognized Clemson with its annual APR Public Recognition Award, which is bestowed upon programs ranking in the Top 10 percent of their respective sports, for nine of its last 10 reported academic years. Only 37 of the 130 FBS programs earned at least one APR recognition across the 2009-10 through 2018-19 academic years. Only 30 of programs earned it multiple times. Clemson, Duke and Northwestern were the only ones to earn the award nine or more times in that 10-year span. Though the NCAA did not report APR data for 2019-20, Clemson recorded a perfect 1000 APR score, which would have earned the program another APR Public Recognition Award under normal circumstances.
- With its award for the 2018-19 academic year, Clemson became the only FBS program since the NCAA created the APR metric in 2003 to win a national championship and an APR Public Recognition Award in the same year multiple times. Alabama is the only other school to accomplish the title/APR double in a single year once (2011-12 academic year).
- Clemson ranked in the top 10 percent among FBS schools in APR scores for six consecutive years (2010-16). Clemson was the only FBS program nationally to finish each in the top 25 of the AP poll and in the top 10 percent of APR scores every season between 2011-15.
- In 2018, Christian Wilkins became the first William V. Campbell Trophy winner in school history, collecting the award known colloquially as the "Academic Heisman Trophy." He became the fifth player in the award's history, and the first in the College Football Playoff era, to earn the honor and a national championship in the same season, joining Alabama's Barrett Jones (2012), Miami's Joaquin Gonzales (2001), Florida's Danny Wuerffel (1996) and Nebraska's Rob Zatechka (1994).

- Chad Carson and Kyle Young were first-team Academic All-Americans in the 2000 and 2001 seasons. Clemson was the only Division I school in the nation with two first-team picks each year. Young was a first-team Academic All-American from 1999-01 and became just the second ACC player in history to be a three-time, first-team selection. He is one of just two offensive linemen in college football history to be a three-time, first-team Academic All-American.

- Dalton Freeman was an All-American on the field and off the field in 2012. He was a first-team All-America center according to AFCA and second-team Academic All-American by CoSIDA.

- Deshaun Watson passed 37 hours during the 2015-16 academic year and threw 35 touchdown passes. He was first quarterback on record to accomplish 35 of each in same academic year.

- Only eight players that applied for early entry for the NFL Draft had their degrees at the 2017 NFL Combine. Four of the eight (Deshaun Watson, Wayne Gallman, Artavis Scott and Mike Williams) were from Clemson.

- Entering the bowl season of its 2018 national championship campaign, Clemson's roster featured 26 graduates, the most of any bowl team.

COACHING SUCCESS

- Dabo Swinney has a record of 140-33 in his head coaching career in 13 seasons. In 2017, he became just the fourth Division I coach to total 100 wins in his first 10 years. The others were Bob Stoops, Chris Petersen and Urban Meyer. In November 2019, Swinney recorded his 125th win in his 155th career game, becoming the 10th-fastest coach to reach 125 career wins in terms of games coached, behind George Woodruff, Urban Meyer, Bob Neyland, Chris Petersen, Joe Paterno, Fielding Yost, Barry Switzer, Bud Wilkinson and Henry Williams.

- With his 140 wins, Swinney is already second in history in coaching wins as a member of the ACC. Bobby Bowden leads the way with 173.

- Swinney has 18 wins over SEC teams in his career, most among active non-SEC coaches in that time period. He is 10-2 against the SEC in the last five years.

- Swinney won 12 coach-of-the-year honors in 2015, two ACC and 10 for national coach of the year. That included national coach of the year by Associated Press, ESPN, Sporting News, Walter Camp Foundation and the American Football Coaches Association. The former Alabama player also won the Bear Bryant Award in 2015, 2016 and 2018, becoming the first three-time winner in the award's history. Swinney also won the Gene Stallings Award and the FCA Coach-of-the-Year in 2014 and the Bobby Dodd Award in 2011. Swinney was inducted into the state of Alabama Hall of Fame in 2018 and was selected as honorary coach of the AFCA Good Works Team in 2019.

- A Clemson assistant coach was a Frank Broyles Award finalist in four straight years from 2015-18 and won the award in back-to-back years. Brent Venables was a finalist in 2015 and won the award in 2016. Tony Elliott won the award in 2017, and Jeff Scott was a finalist in 2018 (and semifinalist in 2019). The wins by Venables and Elliott in 2016-17 represented the first time two different coaches from the same school won the award in consecutive years.

- Clemson has a legendary coaching history. Four former Tiger coaches (John Heisman, Frank Howard, Jess Neely and Danny Ford) are in the College Football Hall of Fame. Howard was Clemson's coach when the ACC was founded and promptly took the Tigers to six ACC titles. Howard's eight overall conference championships in 30 years remain a Clemson record, though Dabo Swinney can match the mark with his next conference title.

- Howard concluded his career with 165 victories, and his 30-year tenure is still fifth-longest in NCAA history for a head coach serving at one school. His victory total was extraordinary considering Clemson played just 38 percent of the games at home during Howard's tenure.

- Danny Ford coached Clemson to the 1981 national championship and won six bowl games in his Tiger career. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in December 2017. He was the consensus national coach of the year in 1981, and he remains the youngest coach (33) to win a national title. He was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor in 2013.

- Tommy Bowden led Clemson to bowl games each of his first five years, the first coach in Clemson history to do that (Swinney since duplicated the accomplishment). He was named ACC Coach of the Year twice.

BOWL HISTORY

- Clemson enters 2021 having earned a bowl berth in each of the last 16 seasons, the longest streak in the ACC and the sixth-longest streak in the nation. The 16-year streak more than doubles the second-longest streak in school history (seven from 1985-91). Clemson is 11-9 in bowls in that stretch, including two bowl games in 2015, 2016, 2018 and 2019 as part of the College Football Playoff.

- Clemson's 25 all-time bowl wins are tied for the 12th-most in college football history.

- Clemson won a bowl game every year from 2012-16 against a program led by a head coach who won a national title at some point in his career. That includes two in 2016, when the Tigers beat Urban Meyer (Ohio State) and Nick Saban (Alabama). Clemson added an additional win over Saban's Alabama squad in 2018.

- Thirteen of Clemson's 25 bowl wins have come against coaches who have won the FBS National Championship at some point in their careers. That includes wins over Les Miles (LSU) in 2012, Urban Meyer (Ohio State) in 2013 and 2016, Bob Stoops (Oklahoma) in 2014 and 2015, and Nick Saban in 2016 and 2018. A 14th win can be claimed with that figure when including national championships at all levels, as Clemson defeated Notre Dame and Head Coach Brian Kelly, who won two Division II titles at Grand Valley State, in the 2018 Cotton Bowl.

- Clemson's first bowl game was a 6-3 victory over Boston College and Head Coach Frank Leahy in the 1940 Cotton Bowl. Clemson did not return to the Cotton Bowl until 2018, defeating Notre Dame, 30-3, in a College Football Playoff semifinal during a 15-0 national championship campaign.

- Clemson is 8-2 in its history in bowl games against Nebraska, Ohio State and Oklahoma, three of the top-seven programs in college football history in terms of wins. Clemson is the only program to have beaten Oklahoma three times in bowl play and is one of only three schools with multiple bowl victories over the Sooners to its credit. The Tigers are 4-1 vs. Ohio State and 1-1 vs. Nebraska. Including a 1-0 bowl mark against Notre Dame and 2-2 record against Alabama, Clemson is 11-4 in bowls all-time against the seven winningest programs in major college football history.

- Clemson won five straight bowl games between the 1986 and 1990 seasons. Clemson defeated Stanford, Penn State, Oklahoma, West Virginia and Illinois during its bowl winning streak. Clemson produced a streak of bowl wins in five straight seasons across seven bowl games from 2012-16.

- Hall of Fame Head Coach Woody Hayes suffered his final defeat against the Tigers in the 1978 Gator Bowl. Overall, Clemson has won bowl games against 11 head coaches who are enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame.

EXPOSURE

- Clemson is one of the most-televised teams in the nation every year. In 2020, all 12 games were on live television. That makes 84 of 86 over the last six years.

- Clemson has had at least 10 of its games televised each of the last 16 years.

- Clemson has played in the featured contest on ESPN's College GameDay 28 times, including 20 times since the start of the 2015 season. Clemson is 16-4 in those contests.

- Since the start of the 2018 season, Clemson games account for the four most-watched college football games and five of the 10 most-watched games.

- Clemson has played in the most-watched game of five of the past six seasons, including 2020, when its semifinal game against Ohio State outdrew the national championship.

- The interest in watching Clemson play hasn't been limited to television broadcasts. Clemson continues to provide one of the great in-venue experiences in all of sports, as Clemson enters 2021 having been ranked in the Top 20 in the nation average home attendance at Memorial Stadium for 40 straight seasons. Clemson has also led the ACC in average home attendance each of the last 11 years.

- The first game on ACC Network was Clemson vs. Georgia Tech from Death Valley on Aug. 29, 2019.

HALL OF FAME

- With the upcoming induction of C.J. Spiller in 2021, eight members of Clemson's program have been enshrined in the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame, including four coaches and four student-athletes.

- Clemson's Hall of Fame tradition began with John Heisman, who coached Clemson from 1900-03 and was Clemson's first inductee as part of the Class of 1954. Clemson coach and administrator Jess Neely was inducted in 1971. Frank Howard, Clemson's all-time winningest coach, followed with induction in 1989. Danny Ford, who led Clemson to the 1981 national championship at the age of 33, entered the Hall in 2017.

- Multi-sport legend Banks McFadden was the first Clemson player enshrined, earning induction in 1959. Two members of Clemson's 1981 national championship defense, Terry Kinard (2001) and Jeff Davis (2007), went on to earn induction after the turn of the century. Both members of Clemson's 1978 recruiting class, the duo made Clemson's 1978 recruiting class the first in ACC history to produce two Hall of Famers.

- Of the 5.47 million individuals who have played college football since Princeton first battled Rutgers on Nov. 6, 1869, including the Class of 2021, only 1,038 players and 223 coaches have been immortalized in the Hall. Selection to the Hall of Fame puts these Clemson legends who earned the distinction in the top 0.02 percent of those ever to play or coach college football.

- Said Dabo Swinney of Spiller's 2021 induction: "For him to get in on his second attempt is such a compliment to the respect for his college football career… For me personally, he was my first five-star, my first first-rounder, my first Pro Bowler, and now my first College Football Hall of Famer. Hopefully there will be some more to come down the years, but it's only fitting that C.J. was the first. I'm really just super proud of him and happy for him."

- Clemson had a special night in New York City on Dec. 11, 2001. That evening, Terry Kinard was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame and Kyle Young was a recipient of a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award. Clemson was the only school in the nation with one of each in 2001.

NATIONAL HONORS

- Clemson has a history of decorated football players. It boasts 98 players who have earned first, second or third-team All-America honors in its history.

- Clemson has produced at least one consensus All-American in each of the last three years and in nine of Dabo Swinney's 12 full seasons as head coach. Last year, Travis Etienne joined Terrence Flagler and C.J. Spiller as the third running back in Clemson history to earn consensus honors.

- In 2019, linebacker Isaiah Simmons became the sixth unanimous All-American in Clemson history, joining Terry Kinard (1982), Gaines Adams (2006), C.J. Spiller (2009), Da'Quan Bowers (2010) and Christian Wilkins (2018).

- In 2018, Wilkins joined William Perry, Levon Kirkland, Anthony Simmons and Sammy Watkins as three-time All-Americans from Clemson. Clelin Ferrell joined Terry Kinard as the only two-time, first-team AP All-Americans in Clemson history with his second consecutive selection. Ferrell also won the Ted Hendricks Award as the nation's top defensive end, joining Da'Quan Bowers as one of two Hendricks Award winners in Clemson history.

- The 2019 season marked the second straight year in which Clemson captured ACC Player of the Year (Travis Etienne), Offensive Player of the Year (Etienne) and Defensive Player of the Year (Isaiah Simmons). It marked the fifth time that one team swept all three awards since the inception of the offensive and defensive honors in 1993, but it represented the first time a program had accomplished a sweep of the three awards in consecutive years.

- In 2018, Clemson swept honors for ACC Coach of the Year (Dabo Swinney), ACC Player of the Year (Etienne), ACC Offensive Player of the Year (Etienne) and ACC Defensive Player of the Year (Clelin Ferrell), becoming the first school to do so since Maryland in 2001. Expanded to include Trevor Lawrence's selection as Offensive Rookie of the Year, Clemson was the first program to secure all those conference honors since Florida State in 1997.

- Vic Beasley was a two-time first-team All-American and the first Tiger since Bennie Cunningham to be a two-time All-American, Clemson graduate and first-round pick (1976 NFL draft). Christian Wilkins and Clelin Ferrell later accomplished the feat in the 2019 draft, as did Travis Etienne in the 2021 draft.

- Sammy Watkins, who was the No. 4 overall pick of the 2014 NFL Draft, was the first player in Clemson history to be named a first-team All-American by at least one service in three different seasons. Wilkins became the second such player in school history in 2018.

- When Watkins was named a first-team All-American as a first-year freshman in 2011, he joined Georgia's Herschel Walker (1980), San Diego State's Marshall Faulk (1991) and Oklahoma's Adrian Peterson (2004) as the only first-year freshmen non-kickers in history to earn AP First-Team All-America honors.

- Clemson has had eight players win 11 national position awards since 2010. Deshaun Watson won the Manning Award and the Davey O'Brien Award as the top quarterback in 2015 and 2016. He also won the Unitas Award in 2016 and the Chic Harley Award. He won the Archie Griffin Award as top player in the nation in 2015, and the award also collected by Trevor Lawrence in 2018. Dwayne Allen won the Mackey Award as the top tight end in 2011 and Da'Quan Bowers won the Bronko Nagurski Award as the top defensive player in 2010. Bowers also won the Ted Hendricks Award in 2010, which Clelin Ferrell won in 2018. Ben Boulware won the Jack Lambert Award as the top linebacker in 2016. Christian Wilkins won the Willis Award as the top defensive lineman in 2017. Isaiah Simmons won the Butkus Award in 2019 as the nation's top linebacker.

- Clemson has had at least one All-American 41 of the last 44 years. In Dabo Swinney's 12 full seasons as head coach, he has had at least two All-Americans each year and 29 different players have made a first-team All-America squad. Sammy Watkins, Vic Beasley, Deshaun Watson, Clelin Ferrell, Christian Wilkins and Travis Etienne were all multi-time selections.

- Clemson has had at least one First-Team All-ACC player each of the last 44 years, the longest streak in ACC history. In 2019, Clemson had a league-leading 16 players named First, Second or Third-Team All-ACC, two shy of the program record set in 2018.

- Clemson had nine players named to the ACC's 50-Year Anniversary team, more than any other school. The nine players were Joe Bostic, Jerry Butler, Bennie Cunningham, Jeff Davis, Steve Fuller, Terry Kinard, Michael Dean Perry, William Perry and Anthony Simmons. All nine players were All-Americans during at least one season at Clemson and played in the NFL.

- Terry Kinard was the first Tiger gridder to win a national individual award. He was named 1982 national defensive player-of-the-year by CBS. That year (his senior season), he was a unanimous first-team All-American, the first unanimous All-American in Clemson football history. He was named to the ACC's 50-Year Anniversary team in 2002, and he was also listed among the top-50 athletes in the history of the ACC, regardless of sport.

CHAMPIONSHIP TRADITION

- The Tigers were named national champions by every service in 1981, 2016 and 2018. In 1981, Clemson was the only school in the nation with a perfect record (12-0). It included three wins over top-10 teams (Georgia, Nebraska, North Carolina), the only team to beat three top-10 teams in 1981.

- The 1981 team had five All-Americans, including first-team selections Jeff Davis, Terry Kinard and Perry Tuttle. Thirty-one players on the 1981 squad were eventually drafted by the NFL and 22 players eventually played in the NFL. Twenty-three different players on the 1981 roster were First-Team All-ACC selections at one time during their Clemson careers.

- Clemson won its second national title in 2016 with a 14-1 record. The Tigers played the nation's toughest schedule that year, beating six teams that finished in the top 25 of the AP poll. Eleven Clemson opponents that year finished with a winning record. The Tigers defeated No. 3 Louisville, No. 2 Ohio State and No. 1 Alabama over the course of the season.

- Clemson earned its third national title in 2018 by becoming the first major college team to post a 15-0 record since Penn in 1897. Clemson won its final 10 games of the season by 20+ points and defeated No. 3 Notre Dame and No. 1 Alabama in the College Football Playoff by a combined score of 74-19.

- Since the ACC was formed, Clemson has more overall wins (514) and ACC wins (306 in regular season play) than any other school as a member.

- Clemson has won or been co-champions of the ACC Atlantic Division eight of the last 11 years (2009,11,12,15,16,17,18,19). Clemson also earned a Championship Game berth in a division-less season in 2020.

- Clemson won the 2011, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 ACC Championships under Dabo Swinney. Clemson is 46-3 in ACC regular season play in the last six seasons while becoming the first team in ACC history to win six consecutive outright conference titles.

- In 2020, Clemson and Oklahoma's six-year streaks of outright conference titles made the two programs the first among current Power Five programs to win at least six straight outright titles since Oklahoma (12 from 1948-59) as part of the now-dissolved Big 8 Conference.

- All 12 of Clemson's signing classes since Swinney was named Clemson's full-time head coach have at least one ACC title to their credit in their four years at Clemson. Every signing class since 2012 has earned at least one College Football Playoff berth.

- In addition to its 20 ACC titles, Clemson won the Southern Conference title in 1940 and 1948 along with winning the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association in 1900, 1902, 1903 and 1906, giving the program 26 conference crowns, more than any other school in the ACC.

NFL LEGACIES

- Brian Dawkins had his No. 20 retired by the Philadelphia Eagles during the 2012 season. Dawkins played 13 seasons for the Eagles and was named to the Pro Bowl seven times while playing for that franchise and nine times overall. He became Clemson's first enshrinee in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in August 2018.

- The late Dwight Clark had his No. 87 retired by the San Francisco 49ers after he finished his career in 1987. He was a starter on the 49ers' Super Bowl teams from the 1981 and 1984 seasons, he is most famous for his game-winning catch on a pass from Joe Montana against Dallas in the 1982 NFC Championship Game. Clark was the NFL MVP in the 1982 season, the only former Tiger to win NFL MVP honors.

- Charlie Waters was a three-time Pro Bowl pick with the Dallas Cowboys. He played on two Super Bowl teams.

- Waters and Jeff Bostic were both named to ESPN's 40-Man Roster of Greatest Super Bowl players, released prior to Super Bowl XL.

- The Perry brothers (William, Michael Dean) were starters on Clemson's 1984 defense. Both were named to the ACC's 50-Year Anniversary team in 2002. William played on Clemson's 1981 National Championship team as a freshman, then on the Super Bowl champion Bears of 1985. Michael Dean played in six Pro Bowls with Cleveland and Denver, second-most among former Tigers. Both were named ACC Player of the Year during their careers, William in 1984 and Michael Dean in 1987. They are the only brother combination in ACC history that can make that claim.

NFL DRAFT PICKS

- Clemson has had at least one first-round draft choice in eight of the last nine years. Clemson is one of only three schools with at least one first-round pick in at least eight of the last nine drafts, alongside Alabama and Florida.

- In the 2019, 2020 and 2021 NFL Drafts, Clemson produced multiple first-round picks in three consecutive drafts for the first time in program history. Clemson and Alabama are the only schools to produce multiple first-round picks in each of the last three drafts.

- Clemson, Alabama and Ohio State are the only three schools with five or more picks in at least seven of the eight most recent drafts.
- Dabo Swinney has coached 69 draft picks since becoming Clemson's head coach, the second-most of any coach in the country in that span.
- In 2021, Trevor Lawrence became the program's first No. 1 overall pick, making Clemson the 51st program ever to produce a No. 1 pick. Clemson joined NC State and Florida State as the only ACC programs to have a No. 1 pick while a member of the conference (four other current ACC schools had No. 1 picks prior to joining the conference).
- With Trevor Lawrence and Travis Etienne both being selected by the Jacksonville Jaguars in the first round in 2021, the duo became the QB/RB duo from a single school ever drafted by the same team in the first round of an NFL Draft in the Common Draft era.
- In 2019, Clemson produced three players selected as defensive linemen from a single school in a single draft for the first time in NFL Draft history. (Note: In 2006, NC State's Mario Williams, Manny Lawson and John McCargo went with the Nos. 1, 22 and 26 picks, respectively, though Lawson was officially submitted as a linebacker.) Clemson's entire starting defensive line from 2018 was drafted in the first four rounds in a span of the draft's first 117 picks.
- Since 2013, Clemson has produced first-round picks from the QB, RB, WR, DE, DT, LB and DB position groups. The only other school with at least one first-rounder at all those positions in that span was Alabama.
- Clemson has had at least one player chosen by 29 of the 32 NFL franchises since 2003. The lone exceptions in that time frame are the Patriots, who last selected a Tiger in 1991, and the Panthers and Ravens, who have never selected a Clemson player.
- The 2020 NFL Draft was the final one to feature members of the starting lineup of Clemson's 2018 defense that led the nation in scoring defense en route to winning the national championship. Those 11 starters accounted for five first-round picks, a second-round pick, a third-round pick, two fourth-round picks, a college free agent signing and a rookie minicamp tryout invitee (plus two additional college free agent signings who were not primary starters).
- Clemson has produced 11 draft picks at wide receiver since the 2013 NFL Draft, the most in the country. The program has produced at least one receiver in eight of the last nine NFL Drafts, dating to DeAndre Hopkins' selection in 2013.
- Clemson has had at least one player selected in 19 consecutive drafts since 2003, representing the second-longest streak in school history behind a 24-year streak across the 1951-74 NFL Drafts.

NFL INFLUENCE

- Thirty-one former Tigers have combined to win 39 Super Bowl championship rings, including most recently Tampa Bay Buccaneers punter Bradley Pinion and Kansas City Chiefs players Bashaud Breeland, Dorian O'Daniel and Sammy Watkins over the last two Super Bowls. Clemson's leader is Jeff Bostic, who started on three Super Bowl championship teams with Washington.
- Clemson's three members of the Chiefs' title-winning team two seasons ago represented three of the 46 players (6.5 percent) on Kansas City's active game day roster for the Super Bowl. Clemson and Oklahoma (three each) were the most represented schools on the squad. Clemson's three members of the Super Bowl champions tied for the second-most in school history, matching the 1981 49ers and 1986 Giants. It was Clemson's most members of a Super Bowl championship team since setting a school record for the 1987 NFL season, when Obed Ariri, Dan Benish, Jeff Bostic and K.D. Dunn all contributed to Washington's second Super Bowl championship.
- Clemson has had a former player on a Super Bowl championship team in 11 of the last 23 years.
- Grady Jarrett had 3.0 sacks for the Atlanta Falcons against Tom Brady and the Patriots in the Super Bowl LI after the 2016 season.
- Brian Dawkins retired in 2011 as one of the great safeties in the history of the game and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2018. A 1996 Clemson graduate, Dawkins was an All-American on Clemson's 1995 team when he finished the season 10th in the nation in interceptions. He became the first player in NFL history in 2002 to register a sack, interception, recovered fumble and receiving touchdown in the same game. He was named to the Pro Bowl nine times in his career, including the 2012 Pro Bowl after his final season. He was named to the Pro Bowl more than any other former Tiger.
- Levon Kirkland was named to the NFL All-Decade team (1990s) for his play with the Pittsburgh Steelers. Dawkins was named to the All-Decade team for the 2000s for his play with the Philadelphia Eagles.

POLL PRESENCE

- Clemson has finished in the top four of the AP poll each of the last six years, a first in Tiger history. Dabo Swinney became the fourth coach to record at least six consecutive top-four finishes since the AP poll began in 1936, an exclusive list that includes Florida State's Bobby Bowden (13), Southern California's Pete Carroll (7) and Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson (6).
- Clemson's streak represents the fifth time a program has had a run of at least six top four finishes in the AP Poll. Miami (Fla.) had a seven-year run from 1986-92 with two different head coaches leading the program.
- The 2020 season marked the 34th year that Clemson was ranked in the final AP poll. It was the 13th time in the last 16 years – and 10th straight year – that Clemson was ranked in the final poll.
- Clemson enters 2021 with a school-record streak of 102 consecutive AP top-25 rankings, including 93 polls in a row in the top 10, tied with Alabama for the nation's longest active streak. The 93-poll streak in the top 10 is tied for the third-longest in poll history, behind Miami (137 from 1985-93) and Nebraska (96 from 1993-98).
- Clemson was in the top 20 of all the final polls from 1986-91, a six-year streak. The Tigers had two losses in each of those six years. Clemson is in the midst of a school-record nine-year streak of top-20 finishes.
- The Tigers have beaten an AP-ranked opponent 31 of last 35 years, including 45 top-25 wins in the last 18 years. Dabo Swinney has recorded 35 top-25 wins in his 12-plus years at the helm, already a Tiger record.
- Clemson beat four top-25 teams in 2015 and five in 2016. The 2017 team broke that record with six. The last six years have seen 13 wins over top-10 teams from Notre Dame, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Louisville, Ohio State, Alabama and Miami (Fla.).

1981 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP SEASON

NOTES

- Clemson won its first national title in any sport and the first for the ACC in football in 28 years.
- Clemson had five different players earn All-America honors, at the time more than any other Tiger team in history.
- There was no controversy concerning the voting of the National Champion in 1981. Clemson ended the season as the only undefeated, untied team and was the only team with three top-10 wins.
- Head Coach Danny Ford (age 33 at the time) remains the youngest head coach in history to win the National Championship.
- Clemson forced 41 turnovers in the 12 games, still a school record for turnovers forced in a season.
- During one stretch in the season, the Clemson defense held the opposition without a touchdown for 18 consecutive quarters and no opponent scored a rushing touchdown against Clemson during the first seven games of the season.
- Clemson won the national title in 1981 after going 6-5 the previous year. The Tigers were unranked in every preseason poll.
- Clemson's victory improvement of 5.5 games from the 1980 season to the 1981 season was the largest improvement in the nation.
- Only one team (Wofford) had more time of possession in a game against Clemson all season.
- Clemson had the lead at the end of the first quarter in only four of the 12 games.
- Clemson scored 316 points during the regular season of 1981, the exact same total Georgia scored during its 11-game regular season of 1980, the year the Bulldogs won the National Championship.

- Good health was a big reason for Clemson's success in the 1981 season. Only five different starters missed any games during the entire season and no player missed more than two games all year. A collective total of only eight games were missed by five starters during the 1981 season.
- No opponent had a carry longer than 26 yards and no opponent had a play over 30 yards. The longest touchdown play against Clemson was 25 yards, on a halfback option pass from Mike Rozier to Anthony Steels (Nebraska) in the Orange Bowl.
- During offseason conditioning in the summer of 1981, Strength Coach George Dostal constructed a simple sign for his strength training facility..."1982 Orange Bowl, Clemson vs. Nebraska."
- The Clemson senior student who was in charge of pep rallies in 1981 was former CBS This Morning anchor Jane Robelot.
- The day after Clemson won at North Carolina, placekicker Donald Igwebuike flew to Maryland, where Clemson's No. 3 soccer team beat Maryland 4-0 to clinch the ACC title. Igwebuike played on two ACC title teams that fall, both of which finished in the top 10 in the nation.

- National champions for the second time in school history, including the first time since 1981.
- The Tigers finished with a 14-1 record after defeating previously-undefeated and top-ranked Alabama 35-31 in the CFP National Championship Game on Jan. 9. Clemson's 14 wins tied the FBS record for victories in a season. It was the second year both Alabama and Clemson finished with 14-1 records.
- Clemson won the national championship while playing the nation's most difficult schedule according to the NCAA. Tiger opponents were 107-51 (.677) when not playing Clemson.
- Clemson was just the sixth national champion (since 1977) to have played the nation's most difficult schedule the season it won the title.
- Clemson defeated 11 FBS schools that finished the season with a winning record, including five that totaled 10+ wins and six who finished in the top 25 of the AP poll. Those schools were No. 2 Alabama, No. 6 Ohio State, No. 8 Florida State, No. 16 Virginia Tech, No. 21 Louisville and No. 24 Auburn. The six wins over teams that finished in the AP top 25 were the most in school history.
- For the sixth straight year, Clemson finished at least the same in its final poll as its preseason ranking by AP. Clemson was No. 2 in the preseason AP and coaches polls, then finished No. 1.
- Clemson beat top-ranked Alabama to win the national title, the first time Clemson defeated the No. 1 team. In the CFP semifinal, Clemson defeated No. 2 Ohio State 31-0. It marked the first time Clemson beat a No. 2 ranked team. Clemson was 0-9 in history when playing teams ranked in the top two, then defeated both in consecutive games just nine days apart.
- Clemson defeated No. 3 Louisville earlier in the season, giving Clemson wins over the No. 1, No. 2 and No. 3 teams.
- Clemson was never ranked No. 1 until the final poll and had to defeat a team (Alabama) that had been ranked No. 1 in every poll entering the playoff. It marked the first time a team defeated an opponent in the championship game who had been No. 1 in every poll since 2006, when Florida defeated Ohio State to win the national championship. It also happened in 2005, when Texas defeated Southern California, and in 1983, when Miami (Fla.) defeated Nebraska.
- Clemson was the first non-SEC team to beat Auburn and Alabama in the same year since 1990, when Southern Mississippi achieved the distinction.
- Clemson had a 3-0 record against SEC teams, the first time the Tigers defeated three SEC teams in one season.
- Clemson defeated Auburn, Florida State, Ohio State and Alabama, the programs that had combined to win each of the previous seven national championships.

- Clemson's 49-point win over South Carolina was the largest margin of victory by an ACC team over an SEC team in history. It was Clemson's third straight win over its rival.
- Clemson won the ACC championship for the second consecutive year, the first time in 28 years the Tigers won back-to-back league titles.
- The Tigers defeated a school-record five top-25 teams, including three top-three teams for the first time. Clemson finished the season with three straight wins over top-25 teams, the second time the program did that.
- Clemson joined Alabama as the only schools to advance to the College Football Playoff in consecutive years.
- Clemson had nine First-Team All-ACC players, the most for the program since 1991.
- Sixteen of Clemson's starting 22 made an All-ACC team. Clemson had five more All-ACC selections than any other team.
- Seven different players were named first, second or third-team All-American, most in school history.
- Clemson showed an ability to win close games. The Tigers were 7-1 in games decided by seven points or less, establishing a school mark for wins by seven points or less in a season.
- The Tigers posted an 8-0 record away from home, the school's best mark for wins away from home in a season. Clemson had a 5-0 record on the opponents' home fields.

- Clemson opened the season with a win at Auburn, Clemson's first win there since 1950. It was first time Clemson opened the season with a road win over a current SEC team since 1903.
- Clemson left a game at Georgia Tech with a perfect record for the first time since 1903. Clemson had lost 11 straight when entering a game at Georgia Tech unbeaten.
- Clemson opened the season ranked No. 2 in the AP poll, its highest preseason ranking in school history.
- Clemson defeated Florida State in Tallahassee, just the second win for the program at Florida State since 1989.
- Clemson was honored for its graduation success rate of over 90 percent by AFCA.
- Clemson defeated Alabama for the first time since 1905.
- Dabo Swinney became the first head coach to win the national championship by defeating his alma mater.
- Dabo Swinney joined Bud Wilkinson as the only people to play on and serve as head coach of an AP national champion.
- Dabo Swinney won the Bear Bryant National Coach-of-the-Year Award, the first coach to win it in consecutive years.
- Clemson ended Alabama's 26-game winning streak, the longest winning streak Clemson has ended in its history. The 26-game streak was the third longest in SEC history and longest since the Crimson Tide had a 28-game winning streak from 1978-80.
- Clemson trailed 24-14 entering the fourth quarter. Nick Saban had been 97-0 with a 10-point lead in the fourth quarter.
- Nick Saban was 5-0 in national championship games and 12-1 in national or league championship games prior to the contest.
- Clemson ended Alabama's FBS record-tying 16-game winning streak against AP top-25 opponents.
- Nick Saban was 106-6 when leading at halftime at Alabama. Clemson overcame a 14-7 halftime deficit.

NOTES

- Clemson won its third football national championship in school history, joining the 1981 and 2016 squads. It marked the sixth national championship in any sport in Clemson history.
- Clemson had a 15-0 record, becoming the first team to accomplish the feat since Penn in 1897.
- Clemson became the second team to win multiple national championships in the College Football Playoff era since 2014 (Alabama).
- Clemson broke the school record of 14 wins, a mark previously shared with the 2015 and 2016 Tigers.
- Clemson finished its sixth undefeated season (1900, 1906, 1948, 1950, 1981, 2018) and fourth perfect season (1900, 1948, 1981, 2018) in school history.
- Clemson became the 20th team in AP poll history to finish a season as the AP No. 1 despite never appearing at No. 1 at any point of the regular season (2018 Clemson, 2016 Clemson, 2015 Alabama, 2014 Ohio State, 2011 Alabama, 2006 Florida, 2005 Texas, 2002 Ohio State, 1992 Alabama, 1989 Miami (Fla.), 1987 Miami (Fla.), 1986 Penn State, 1983 Miami (Fla.), 1982 Penn State, 1977 Notre Dame, 1973 Notre Dame, 1970 Nebraska, 1965 Alabama, 1964 Alabama, 1946 Notre Dame).
- Clemson won the ACC title for the fourth year in a row, marking the first time in ACC history a school won four consecutive outright league titles. The Tigers joined Florida (1993-96) as the only teams to win four consecutive Power Five Conference championship games.
- Clemson posted a 15-0 record against a schedule that included a school-record 12 games against teams who finished with winning records. The Tigers played the nation's most difficult schedule, as their opponents had a 120-57 record (.642) when not playing them.
- Clemson was in the top four of every CFP poll in 2018, including a No. 2 ranking entering the bowl games, ending the season having been ranked in the top four in 24 consecutive CFP polls.
- Clemson ranked in the top four of all 15 AP and USA Today Coaches polls for the first time in school history.
- Clemson won a school-record 13 of 15 games by at least 20 points, surpassing 2013 Florida State (12) for the most by any team since 2000. Clemson won its final 10 games by 20 points or more.
- Clemson won by an average margin of 31.1 points per game, the best margin in the nation and the second-largest in school history, trailing only a 35.3-point average margin in 1900. It passed the 30.4-point average margin in 1901, a season in which Clemson won one of its five games by a score of 122-0.
- Clemson played an average of 72.5 players per game in 2018, the most of any team in the AP Top 25. No other College Football Playoff participant averaged more than 56 players per game (Alabama, 55.7; Notre Dame, 54.4; Oklahoma, 52.4).

- Clemson was second in the nation in yards per rush (6.57) and first in the nation in yards per rush allowed (2.51), becoming the first program since at least 2009 to rank in the top two in both categories in a single season.
- Clemson tied team records in wins at home (seven), on the road (five), away from home (eight), in regular season conference play (eight) and against conference opponents (nine).
- Clemson posted a 5-0 record in road games, joining Northwestern as only teams in the nation to go 5-0 on the road. It marked the sixth time in school history (and the third time in four years) Clemson was 5-0 on the road.
- Clemson completed the four-year span with a 55-4 record, a school and ACC record that tied 2015-18 Alabama for the most wins in a four-year span in FBS history.
- With a victory over South Carolina in November, Clemson reached 100 wins in a decade for the first time in program history.
- Clemson featured five First-Team All-ACC selections and a total of 18 who made first, second or third team, more than any other school and the most in a season in school history.
- Clemson produced seven players who made an All-America team, second most in a season in school history. That included a record five first-team selections by at least one of the five major teams, the most first-team All-Americans in one season in school history.

- Clemson set a school record with 44.3 points per game, ahead of the previous record of 41.0 set in 2012. The Tigers reached 27 points in 15 straight games, a school record.
- Clemson scored a school-record 664 points, becoming the second team in ACC history to score 650 points in a single season (Florida State, 723 in 2013).
- Clemson broke the school and ACC record of 7,718 yards of offense, set in 2015, by recording 7,908 yards of offense.
- Clemson posted a school-record 527.2 yards per game, which included a record 15 games with 400 or more yards and a record-tying three 600-yard games. The Tigers set a school record by averaging 7.35 yards per play, shattering the previous record of 6.5 from 2006.
- Clemson led the country in scoring defense (13.1) for the first time in school history.
- Clemson set a school record with 54 sacks, breaking the mark held by the 2016 team (49). The 54 sacks were the third-most by any FBS team in a season since 2000.
- Clemson led the nation in sacks and tied for the national lead in tackles for loss (136).
- Clemson won the AFCA Academic Achievement Award for the first time in school history, becoming just the third program to win it and the national championship in the same year since the award began in 1981 (Notre Dame 1988 and Alabama 2017).
- In addition to the on-field success, Clemson produced team records in team GPA and number of players with recording a 3.0 or better GPA (66).
- Clemson placed seven players on the All-ACC Academic team, tied for second-most in school history and one shy of the school record.
- Christian Wilkins won the William V. Campbell Trophy from the National Football Foundation, the first Clemson player to win the award known colloquially as the Academic Heisman. He joined Barrett Jones (2012 Alabama), Joaquin Gonzales (2001 Miami), Danny Wuerffel (1996 Florida) and Rob Zatechka (1994 Nebraska) as the only players to win the Campbell Trophy and a national championship in the same season.

CREDENTIALS

Arrangements for media credentials for Clemson's home football games must be made through the Clemson athletic communications office. Requests by accredited media members should be made through the Sports Systems online credentialing system. Contact Chandler Simpson (mcsimp2@clemson.edu) or any member of the athletic communications team for more information.

Clemson's media credential policy is available in full at ClemsonTigers.com/MediaPolicy. Priority for the issuance of credentials will be given to national publications, daily newspapers, radio stations, television stations and online outlets which cover Clemson football or our opponent on a regular basis. Due to space limitations, credential quantities may be limited to a number lower than the total requested. Should demand exceed supply, student publications, radio stations and websites that do not regularly cover Clemson or our opponent, may be limited to one working media credential and/or one sideline photo pass. Weekly publications, non-broadcasting radio representatives and other online-only outlets may not be granted credentials.

Other credential requests will be filled on a space-available basis. Non-working spouses, dates, relatives, non-workers and anyone 16 years of age or younger are not permitted in the press box. Media credentials must be requested at least 72 hours prior to the game.

Media credential holders in the press box who are not actively covering the game, or credential wearers on the sideline who are not on assignment, will be asked to leave those respective areas. Press box or sideline security will be contacted should the credential wearer not comply. Credentials used in an unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately, and organizations who allow credentials to fall into improper hands will have credentials revoked for the rest of the year or the succeeding year, at the university's discretion.

EMAIL DISTRIBUTION LIST

Notes, stats, stories and other information are emailed out on a weekly basis from the athletic communications office. Media members may contact Brian Hennessy (bhennes@clemson.edu) to be put on the email list.

PARKING

A limited number of season and individual-game parking spaces reserved for the media are available. Requests for media parking passes should be specified with credential requests. Due to space limitations, not all requests will be fulfilled.

Additionally, no motorhomes, campers or oversized vehicles will be permitted in media parking. Parking pass requests for satellite trucks should be made at least one week in advance.

PHOTOGRAPHERS & VIDEOGRAPHERS

Clemson follows guidelines established by the NCAA communications committee and ACC regarding sideline control to make certain the sideline is a working media area.

The following guidelines are adhered to:

1) Each photographer and runner is required to wear a photo vest.
2) Photo vests must be secured at the photographer's credential pickup at the entrance to the press box. Both the credential and the photo vest must be worn on the field.
3) Prior to kickoff while recruits are present, photographers are not allowed south of the goalpost in the west endzone nor west of the south sideline 50-yard line.
4) After kickoff, no photographers are permitted in the bench area nor on the playing field.
5) Photo assistants or others holding a "sideline" pass must remain out of the photo area immediately adjacent to the playing field. This will make certain that photographers/videographers have the appropriate working area.
6) Tripods are not permitted on the sidelines.
7) The areas behind the team benches are considered bench areas and are to be used only for the passage between the north and south sidelines. This area may not be used as a photo zone.

PRESS BOX

The Bob Bradley Press Box is located on the first floor on the south side of Memorial Stadium. All radio and television booths, in addition to the press area, are on the same level. Photographers are encouraged to use the space available at field level, accessible in the visiting tunnel adjacent to the visitor locker room.

CLEMSON RETURNS TO BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM IN CHARLOTTE, N.C. TO OPEN THE 2021 SEASON AGAINST GEORGIA ON SEPT. 4. THE TIGERS ARE 7-1 AT BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM, INCLUDING LAST SEASON'S ACC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME WIN OVER NOTRE DAME.

2021 OUTLOOK

How does a program with six straight ACC titles, six straight College Football Playoff berths and 10 straight 10-win seasons sustain success year-by-year?

"We tear it down and start all over."

Those are the words of Head Coach Dabo Swinney describing his program's annual process. That process continued in earnest this spring, as Clemson grinded through what Swinney calls the team's "Get Ready Phase" that spans January through April before its "Transformation Phase" during summer conditioning.

OFFENSE

Clemson's 2021 offense features a bevy of exciting, returning contributors supplemented by a number of compelling additions, a description that is as apt for the Clemson coaching staff as it is for the players. Clemson's remarkable run of coaching consistency was once again in effect this offseason, as the only changes among Clemson's 10 full-time assistant coaching positions related to Head Coach Dabo Swinney transitioning former Tight Ends Coach Danny Pearman to Clemson's newly created Director of Football Scouting position.

In Pearman's stead is now Assistant Head Coach and Offensive Coordinator Tony Elliott, who will transition over to coaching tight ends after overseeing Clemson's running backs since 2011, including three of Clemson's top four single-season rushing outputs in school history. Elliott's transition allowed Clemson to welcome back a program legend, adding College Football Hall of Famer C.J. Spiller as the team's new running backs coach after he served as an unpaid coaching intern in 2020 while completing postgraduate work in Athletic Leadership.

Spiller's adds a legend to the fold after Clemson saw two from recent years depart after 2020, as Clemson watched its winningest all-time quarterback in Trevor Lawrence and the ACC's all-time leading rushing rusher in Travis Etienne conclude their legendary college careers to depart for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Behind that group stood an immensely talented group ready to enter the spotlight upon the departure of those two superstars.

Much to the chagrin of the rest of the ACC, Passing Game Coordinator and Quarterbacks Coach Brandon Streeter, fresh off of coaching his second Heisman Trophy finalist in the last five years, has yet another prized pupil waiting behind center. Sophomore D.J. Uiagalelei (Inland Empire, Calif.), known colloquially as "Big Cinco," exited the spring as the favorite to start following a freshman campaign in which he dazzled in two starts necessitated by Lawrence's absence with COVID-19. The big-bodied Californian with an arm that Dabo Swinney once said "makes Trevor Lawrence look normal sometimes" not only put up prolific numbers (including 439 yards at Notre Dame, the most ever against the storied Irish program) but protected the ball exceptionally well, becoming only the second FBS player since 2000 to throw at least 115 passes and record at least five passing touchdowns with no interceptions.

Joining Uiagalelei in Clemson's quarterbacks room in the spring was third-year sophomore Taisun Phommachanh (Bridgeport, Conn.) and redshirt freshman walk-on Hunter Helms (West Columbia, S.C.). At the time of publication, Phommachanh's availability for 2021 was in question after he suffered an Achilles injury while leading a game-winning drive in Clemson's Spring Game. Bubba Chandler and Will Taylor were both selected in the 2021 MLB draft as well.

Clemson's quarterbacks will not lack options, as Clemson's rash of injuries at the position a year ago resulted in playing time and experience for a multitude of receivers, many of whom return for 2021. In his first season last year, Wide Receivers Coach Tyler Grisham carried Wide Receiver U's reputation by helping seniors Amari Rodgers and Cornell Powell combine for 130 catches, 1,902 yards and 14 touchdowns in 2020. Powell was one of Clemson's best stories in 2020 as a fifth-year senior who seized opportunity afforded in small part by injuries to Frank Ladson Jr. (Miami, Fla.) and Joseph Ngata (Folsom, Calif.) on the outside. That duo returns for their junior seasons in 2021 after Ladson briefly teased his downfield ability a year ago and Ngata looks to reach the "superstar" potential Dabo Swinney has often mentioned for him in his two years on campus.

Clemson's most impactful returning receiver may be one who didn't see the field in 2020, as 2021 could mark the return of fourth-year receiver Justyn Ross (Phenix City, Ala.), who missed all of last season after surgery following the diagnosis of a congenital fusion in his spine. While still attempting to hit medical checkpoints, Ross participated in spring ball in a non-contact capacity with an eye toward potential full participation in fall camp, a plan that was successful in current NFL receiver and former Clemson star Mike Williams' return from a neck injury in 2016 en route to becoming the No. 7 overall pick in the NFL Draft.

Ross' return would place him beside one of his former high school teammates, E.J. Williams (Phenix City, Ala.), who was one of Clemson's breakout stars down the stretch as a freshman in 2020.

Clemson's spring wide receiver corps also features a number of potential contributors both young and old, including "super senior" Will Swinney (Clemson, S.C.), redshirt sophomore Brannon Spector (Calhoun, Ga.) and sophomore Ajou Ajou (Brooks, Alberta) as well as mid-year enrollees Beaux Collins (Los Angeles, Calif.) and Dacari Collins (Atlanta, Ga.).

A year ago, Clemson received bolstered production from its tight end unit, as the group combined for 50 catches for 664 yards and seven touchdowns, the position group's most in a season in all categories since 2016. Clemson returns tight ends responsible for 43 catches, 615 yards and six touchdowns last year as Elliott enters his first season leading the unit.

Senior Braden Galloway (Anderson, S.C.) started all 12 games for Clemson as a junior last year, catching 27 passes for 369 yards with two touchdowns. He and junior Davis Allen (Calhoun, Ga.) provided Clemson a formidable tandem at the position, as Allen, whom Swinney has described as a "Pittsburgh Steeler-type" prototype tight end, added four touchdowns among his 16 catches for 247 yards and was often one of Clemson's most physical presences in the running game.

Clemson's scholarship depth at the tight end position also includes redshirt sophomore Jaelyn Lay (Atlanta, Ga.), redshirt freshman Sage Ennis (Graceville, Fla.) and midyear freshman enrollee Jake Briningstool (Brentwood, Tenn.).

At running back, Spiller inherits a group that lost a future Hall of Famer in Etienne but remains loaded with talented depth ready for increased roles. Clemson's leading rusher among returning players is Lyn-J Dixon (Butler, Ga.), the explosive fourth-year senior whose career 6.60 yards-per-carry average trails only Etienne in Clemson annals. His 6.60-yard average ranks as the eighth-best mark by any FBS player with at least 200 carries since 2018.

Junior Michel Dukes (Charleston, S.C.) enters his third season at Clemson having flashed his potential in limited action behind Etienne and Dixon over the last two seasons. He now undertakes upperclassman status alongside sixth-year "super senior" Darien Rencher, who has become one of the most respected leaders in Clemson's program, and in all of college football, as he was named the recipient of the Disney Spirit Award in 2020.

Clemson's youth in the running back room includes powerful sophomore Kobe Pace (Cedartown, Ga.), as well as a pair of midyear freshmen enrollees, Phil Mafah (Loganville, Ga.), who returned from an ankle injury suffered as a high school senior, and Will Shipley (Weddington, N.C.), a highly touted all-purpose back who quickly garnered attention from Clemson players and staff upon the start of winter workouts.

In the trenches, Offensive Line Coach Robbie Caldwell returns three of his five starters from 2020 after the graduation of center Cade Stewart and the departure of tackle Jackson Carman for the Cincinnati Bengals. The senior leader of the group is Matt Bockhorst (Cincinnati, Ohio), who started all 12 games for Clemson at left guard last year and has appeared in a unit-high 40 career contests. At the opposite guard position, junior Will Putnam (Tampa, Fla.) returns after starting all 12 games at right guard, and at right tackle, Clemson welcomes back redshirt junior Jordan McFadden (Spartanburg, S.C.), who also started all 12 games in 2020. The trio were all in their first years as starters in 2020 as Clemson led the ACC in fewest sacks allowed per game (1.67).

If the incumbents hold, Clemson will be in search of two new starters following a 2020 campaign in which Clemson's exceedingly young second offensive line included three true freshmen and two redshirt freshmen. Clemson's "next man up" in 2020, and presumably moving forward, was now-sophomore Walker Parks (Lexington, Ky.), who played 199 offensive snaps along both Clemson's interior and at tackle, the most of any Clemson non-starter on the offensive line last season. Third-year interior lineman Hunter Rayburn (Pensacola, Fla.) performed well at center in the spring, garnering praise from unit veterans and from the Clemson coaching staff.

In addition to Parks, the unit has an additional five second-year players, Paul Tchio (Milton, Ga.), Mitchell Mayes (Raleigh, N.C.), Trent Howard (Birmingham, Ala.), Bryn Tucker (Knoxville, Tenn.) and John Williams (Canton, Ga.) all seeking bigger roles in 2021.

Redshirt sophomore Mason Trotter (Roebuck, S.C.) served as Clemson's primary backup at center a season ago, playing a combined 147 offensive snaps at center and guard. Third-year sophomore Tayquon Johnson (Williamsport, Md.) is in his second season since transitioning from defensive line to offensive line. Midyear freshman offensive line enrollees on campus this spring include Ryan Linthicum (Damascus, Md.) and Marcus Tate (Sunrise, Fla.).

DEFENSE

Defensively, the reign of Associate Head Coach/Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers Coach Brent Venables continues into its 10th season at Clemson. Under Venables' guidance, Clemson has finished in the top 15 in the nation in total defense in each of the last seven seasons, the longest active streak in the country. Clemson has finished in the top 10 in that category in six of those seven seasons, tied with Wisconsin for the most such finishes in the nation. Venables will preside over Clemson's most veteran group in the modern era, as Clemson returns a Swinney-era record nine defensive starters for the first time, surpassing its eight returning starters entering 2009 and 2018.

The position group directly under Venables' purview got its own experience boost in January, when veteran linebacker James Skalski (Sharpsburg, Ga.) announced his intention to utilize the NCAA blanket eligibility waiver for 2020 to return for his "super senior" sixth year in 2021. Skalski, the heart and soul of the Clemson defense who is the only player ever to play in (and win) five ACC Championship Games, has played in 56 career games at Clemson, sitting alongside fellow super seniors Will Spiers and Will Swinney three games shy of the Clemson record of 59, held by select members of the 2018 and 2019 senior classes.

Last year, Skalski and fellow linebacker Baylon Spector (Calhoun, Ga.) formed a hard-hitting tandem Dabo Swinney called "The Bruise Brothers." Spector returns for his second year as a full-time starter after the coaching staff credited him with a team-high 72 tackles (10.5 for loss), a team-high 4.5 sacks, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery in 2020.

The transfer of linebacker Mike Jones Jr., one of Clemson's two departing starters from 2020, creates additional opportunity at Clemson's nickel/sam linebacker spot, a position that Trenton Simpson (Charlotte, N.C.) seized down the stretch of his true freshman season along with his role as a situational edge rusher. Despite playing shy of 300 snaps and starting only three of his 12 games played, Simpson finished tied for second on the team with 4.0 sacks.

The rest of the linebacking corps is a similar mixture of experienced depth and high-upside youth. Jake Venables (Clemson, S.C.) earned four starts at middle linebacker in Skalski's absence last year, finishing fifth on the team in tackles. Venables, in his fourth year, is joined by a trio of third-year players seeking additional opportunities to make an impact: LaVonta Bentley (Birmingham, Ala.), Keith Maguire (Media, Pa.) and Kane Patterson (Brentwood, Tenn.). Clemson's scholarship depth at linebacker also includes second-year players Sergio Allen (Fort Valley, Ga.) and Kevin Swint (Carrollton, Ga.), who combined to play in 15 games a year ago, as well as midyear enrollee Jeremiah Trotter Jr. (Mt. Laurel, N.J.), the son of 12-year NFL veteran Jeremiah Trotter Sr. Swint cross-trained at defensive end in the spring as an additional pass-rush option.

Clemson's linebacking corps will operate behind an immensely talented defensive line, a group that flashed tremendous potential in 2020 despite its collective youth. Clemson's defensive linemen combined for 44 starts last season (including games in which Clemson started only three down linemen), 23 starts of which were by true freshmen or sophomores and an additional 16 of which came from players in their third year in the program. Only five starts are unaccounted for among Clemson's returning group, with those five belonging to veteran defensive tackles Nyles Pinckney and Jordan Williams, who transferred to Minnesota and Virginia Tech, respectively, in search of more playing time as a function of Clemson's young stars that have quickly ascended to the starting lineup.

The defensive ends remain under the tutelage of Defensive Ends Coach Lemanski Hall, who helped Clemson tie for the national lead in sacks in 2020. Last year, he helped true freshman Myles Murphy (Marietta, Ga.)

make an immediate impact, as the consensus top-10 recruit collected Freshman All-America status from The Athletic, ESPN, Rivals and the Football Writers Association of America and was named ACC Co-Newcomer of the Year by the Associated Press.

Hall's unit will be hoping for a full bill of health, something that eluded it in 2020. Justin Foster (Shelby, N.C.) and Xavier Thomas (Florence, S.C.) entered 2020 slated as likely starters after the duo combined for 21 starts in 2019, but both battled challenges that resulted in unavailability for much of the 2020 campaign. Foster missed the entire 2020 campaign with medical concerns and briefly announced his retirement this past February before instead opting to return in May, and Thomas had intended to take a four-game medical redshirt a year ago after complications with both COVID-19 and strep throat but ultimately appeared in seven games upon the NCAA granting a free year of eligibility in 2020. Thomas (22.5) ranks first in career tackles for loss on Clemson's current roster.

With Foster and Thomas limited in 2020, Clemson leaned on K.J. Henry (Winston-Salem, N.C.) and Justin Mascoll (Snellville, Ga.), a duo of then-redshirt-sophomores that combined for 15 starts. Both return for 2021 amid a scholarship defensive end group that includes "super senior" former walk-on Regan Upshaw (Bradenton, Fla.) and redshirt sophomore Greg Williams (Swansea, S.C.) and was joined in January by midyear enrollee Cade Denhoff (Plant City, Fla.).

Hall's defensive ends flank an interior group led by Defensive Tackles Coach Todd Bates, who has helped every primary starter in his tenures at Jacksonville State (2014-16) and Clemson (2017-20) to at least one all-conference selection. His two incumbent starters are ones whose play and results early in their careers often placed them in the company of other young Clemson defensive tackle phenoms such as William "Refrigerator" Perry and Dexter Lawrence.

Tyler Davis (Apopka, Fla.) returns for his junior campaign, as his sterling 2019 season in which he became the first true freshman defensive tackle to start a season opener at Clemson since 1974 was followed by a season in which he grinded out seven starts while battling injury all throughout the 2020 season. The 2019 All-ACC selection was joined last year by the nation's top recruit, Bryan Bresee (Damascus, Md.), who stormed onto the scene to earn freshman All-America honors in 2020 and join Lawrence as the second ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year in Clemson history. The powerful, precocious tackle added 6.5 tackles for loss, 4.0 sacks (tying Perry and others for third-most ever by a Clemson true freshman), two pass breakups, a forced fumble and a safety to earn first-team All-ACC honors. He joined Clemson in 2020 alongside two additional highly touted defensive tackles from Clemson's prized 2020 recruiting class, now-second-year tackles DeMonte Capehart (Hartsville, S.C.) and Tré Williams (Windsor, Conn.).

Third-year tackle Ruke Orhorhoro (Lagos, Nigeria) entered the 2020 season primed for more playing time as a key rotational piece prior to suffering an injury in the season opener that cost him all but four games of what would have been a medical redshirt season under normal circumstances. Larger roles could also ensue for fourth-year junior Darnell Jefferies (Covington, Ga.) and third-year sophomore Etinosa Reuben (Kansas City, Mo.), both of whom played in seven games in 2020. The scholarship group is rounded out by midyear enrollee Payton Page (Greensboro, N.C.), an imposing figure who already stands 6-foot-4 and more than 350 pounds at 18 years of age.

A year ago, Clemson faced the task of replacing three of its four starters in the defensive backfield from 2019. In a reversal of script, this year, Cornerbacks Coach Mike Reed and Safeties Coach Mickey Conn return nine of 10 defensive backs who started at least one game for the Tigers in 2020, a list lengthened by Clemson's proclivity for opening games in packages with extra corners and safeties a year ago.

Now a junior, former cornerback Andrew Booth Jr. (Dacula, Ga.) flashed in his four starts, riding SportsCenter Top 10 interceptions against Virginia and Pittsburgh and an acrobatic pass breakup in against Miami (Fla.) to a Second-Team All-ACC selection.

Fellow junior Sheridan Jones (Norfolk, Va.) started eight games at cornerback a season ago, notching his first career interception after more than doubling his defensive snap count from his freshman campaign (140 in 2019, 300 in 2020). Senior Mario Goodrich (Kansas City, Mo.) started four games a year ago, including a two-interception performance against Pittsburgh in November for which he won ACC Defensive Back of the Week after posting the first multi-interception game by a Clemson player since Cordrea Tankersley in the 2016 ACC Championship Game.

Last season provided early exposure for now-sophomores Malcolm Greene (Richmond, Va.) and Fred Davis II (Jacksonville, Fla.), a duo that totaled 31 tackles, four pass breakups, 1.5 sacks and an interception in 380 combined defensive snaps in 2020. The group was joined in January by midyear freshman enrollee Nate Wiggins (Atlanta, Ga.), a product of the same high school that produced former Clemson cornerback and 2020 first-round pick A.J. Terrell.

Like the linebacker unit in front of it, the safeties group will be led by its own "super senior," as Nolan Turner (Vestavia Hills, Ala.) elected to utilize his blanket NCAA eligibility waiver for a sixth season in 2021. Last season, Turner earned a second-team All-America selection from the American Football Coaches Association, giving Clemson an All-America safety for a second straight year and representing the first time Clemson has had a safety honored by NCAA-recognized selectors in consecutive seasons since 1981-82, when Terry Kinard parlayed first-team honors by the AP and FWAA in 1981 into unanimous All-American honors in 1982. Two years ago, it was Turner's interception that sealed Clemson's Fiesta Bowl win and second straight National Championship Game berth.

Turner's running mate at safety for most of 2020 was now-junior Lannden Zanders (Shelby, N.C.), who started nine of the 10 games in which he appeared and was credited with 34 tackles (2.5 for loss), three pass breakups, a forced fumble and a sack. Zanders was one of four safeties in Clemson's 2019 recruiting class, alongside junior Joseph Charleston (Milton, Ga.), junior Jalyn Phillips (Lawrenceville, Ga.) and redshirt sophomore Ray Thornton III (Columbus, Ga.), all three of whom were relied upon in various packages in 2020. Charleston started six games, finishing third on the defense in both snaps (502) and tackles (55). Phillips notched his first career interception against Syracuse, while Thornton's 2020 season was highlighted by a decleating sideline tackle against The Citadel.

R.J. Mickens (Southlake, Texas) and Tyler Venables (Clemson, S.C.) combined for 250 defensive snaps in their true freshman seasons in 2020. Andrew Mukuba (Austin, Texas), a midyear enrollee who impressed immediately after joining the group in January after committing to Clemson sight unseen by virtue of NCAA recruiting restrictions preventing recruiting visits during the COVID-19 pandemic, rounds out Clemson's scholarship depth at safety.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Clemson's experience extends to its battery of specialists, where the Tigers have a combined 17 years of college experience among their starting kicker, punter, holder and long snapper. Senior B.T. Potter (Rock Hill, S.C.) is Clemson's incumbent at placekicker and returns after a sparkling 2020 season in which he was a Lou Groza Award semifinalist and All-ACC Academic Team honoree after going 18-of-23 on field goals (with three blocked) and 61-of-62 on PATs. His leg strength has been a weapon for Clemson since 2018, as he enters 2021 with 231 touchbacks on 299 career kickoffs (77 percent) and a school-record-tying five career field goals of 50 yards or more.

Punter Will Spiers (Cameron, S.C.) elected to use the 2020 NCAA blanket eligibility waiver to return for his "super senior" campaign in 2021 after putting together one of the best seasons by a punter in school history last year. He enters the new season already holding school records for starts by a punter (56), career punts (211), punts downed inside the 20 (81) and total punting yards (9,483), and his 44.0-yards-per-punt average in 2020 represented the second-best single-season mark in school history. Spiers also contributed in other ways in 2020, rushing for six yards and a first down on a fake punt and completing 2-of-3 passes for 13 yards as an emergency quarterback.

Redshirt sophomore Aidan Swanson (Tampa, Fla.), a punter by trade who has developed into an option at placekicker as well, provides scholarship depth at both positions.

Clemson will return its starting long snapper for both punts and placekicks for the first time since 2018, as it welcomes back redshirt senior Jack Maddox (Acton, Mass.), who snapped in every game for Clemson in 2020. Maddox, who could also return for 2022 if he chooses to utilize his extra available year of eligibility, earned both the starting job and a scholarship last fall. Will Swinney is the incumbent holder and a four-year starter at the position who has held for 458 of those 463 kicking points (field goals or PATs) since 2017.

DABO SWINNEY

- HEAD COACH
- 13TH FULL SEASON AS HEAD COACH
- 19TH SEASON AT CLEMSON
- ALABAMA '93

An illustrious coaching heritage is embedded in the foundation of Clemson football. At the dawn of the 20th century, the Tigers were led by future College Football Hall of Famer John Heisman. Hall of Famers Jess Neely, Frank Howard and Danny Ford followed in Heisman's winning tradition.

Now entering his 14th season (and 13th full season) as Clemson's head coach, Dabo Swinney has already carved his name into that foundation, elevating himself amid a pantheon of Clemson greats by becoming the first coach in program history to lead Clemson to multiple national championships.

Swinney's most recent squad accomplished its "double-double mission" in 2020, going 10-2 in a condensed season to give Clemson 10 consecutive 10-win seasons. Clemson became only the third program in FBS history to accomplish the feat and became the first school to win 10 games in 10 straight seasons as a member of the ACC, as only the final nine of Florida State's record 14-straight 10-win seasons came during the Seminoles' tenure in the ACC.

The pandemic-affected 2020 campaign was a historic one for the Tigers both as a team and individually, as quarterback Trevor Lawrence ascended to become the winningest quarterback in school history (34-2) and running back Travis Etienne added the ACC's all-time rushing crown (4,952 yards) to his arsenal of school and conference records. Etienne's versatility as a rusher and receiver earned him consensus All-American honors as an all-purpose selection, while Lawrence became the second Heisman Trophy finalist in program history, tying Deshaun Watson (second in 2016) for the highest finish in Heisman Trophy voting in school history.

The prolific backfield duo under Swinney's tutelage helped guide Clemson to its sixth consecutive outright conference title with a 34-10 win against Notre Dame in the ACC Championship Game. That day, Clemson and Oklahoma's six-year streaks of outright conference titles made the two programs the first among current Power Five programs to win at least six straight outright titles since Oklahoma (12 from 1948-59) as part of the now-dissolved Big 8 Conference.

The conference title helped Clemson secure its record-tying sixth College Football Playoff berth, becoming the first program ever to reach the postseason tournament in six consecutive seasons. Clemson is 6-4 all-time in College Football Playoff games, the second-most wins of any program and twice the number of the third-place program (three, Ohio State).

Clemson finished the 2020 season as the nation's No. 3-ranked squad, the Tigers' sixth consecutive top-four finish in the AP poll. In doing so, Swinney joined Bobby Bowden (13), Pete Carroll (7) and Bud Wilkinson (6) as the only coaches since the AP Poll's inception in 1936 to record six consecutive top-four finishes. In all, Clemson enters the 2021 preseason having appeared in the top five of 56 consecutive AP Polls, the second-longest streak in poll history.

Going into 2020, Clemson entered the third decade of the 21st century after Swinney helped author one of the most prolific 10-year periods in the history of the sport. Clemson posted a 117-22 record under Swinney's leadership in the 2010s, and the program's 117 wins trailed only Penn (124 in the 1890s) and Alabama (124 in the 2010s) to tie for the third-most in a decade in major college football since 1890. Clemson's 117 wins in 2010s represented the first 100-win decade in Clemson history.

Before a pandemic-shortened season in 2020, Clemson won at least 12 games in five straight seasons from 2015-19, tied for the longest such streak in the modern era and only two seasons shy of Penn's record seven-season streak from 1892-98. Clemson won 69 games in that five-year span, the most in a five-year stretch in the AP Poll era.

In 2019, the Tigers earned their fifth consecutive College Football Playoff berth following their fifth-consecutive ACC title, becoming the first team in college football history to win five straight conference championship games since conference title games were created in 1992.

Clemson posted a 14-1 season that year, earning its fourth appearance in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game in five years. Prior to the season finale, Clemson extended its school-record winning streak to 29 games, tied with Florida State (2012-14) for the longest streak in ACC history and for the 12th-longest in FBS history.

Clemson dominated the vast majority of its 2019 opponents, including an eight-game streak of wins by 30 or more points to break the longest streak in the AP Poll era, surpassing the previous mark of seven games set by 2011 Houston and 1976 Michigan. During the campaign, Swinney recorded his 125th win in his 155th career game, becoming the 10th-fastest coach to reach 125 career wins in terms of games coached.

At 140-33, Swinney (.809) enters the 2020 season as the winningest active coach by percentage in the FBS among coaches with at least five seasons of head coaching experience. With the addition of the 2020 ACC Championship, all 12 of Swinney's recruiting classes have won at least one ACC title in their careers, and every recruiting class since 2012 has earned at least one College Football Playoff berth.

Clemson's success on the gridiron has been matched by its prowess in the classroom, as prior to the NCAA suspending APR reporting during the COVID-19 pandemic, Clemson was one of only three programs to earn top-10 percent APR recognition from the NCAA in at least nine of the previous 10 years, joining Duke and Northwestern. Clemson was in the top 10 of APR scores and the final top 25 of the AP and USA Today polls from 2011-15, the only FBS program that could make that claim. In 2017, Clemson became the first school to reach the College Football Playoff and finish in the top five of APR scores in the same year.

Clemson also produced the 2018 William V. Campbell Trophy winner (known colloquially as the "Academic Heisman") in Christian Wilkins and won the program's first AFCA Academic Achievement Award. Clemson repeated as AFCA Academic Achievement Award recipients in 2019, becoming the only school in the country to repeat and doing so while appearing in the national championship game in both seasons.

Swinney and Clemson's 2018 season was one for which statistics and superlatives accumulated in historic fashion. The Tigers became the first major college football team in the modern era (and the first since Penn in 1897) to finish a season with a 15-0 record.

The list of "firsts" was long and distinguished. Clemson became the first program to win four consecutive Atlantic Division titles, and with a 42-10 win against Pittsburgh in the ACC Championship Game, it became the first program to win four straight ACC titles outright.

Clemson's 15 wins included a school-record 12 against teams who finished with winning records. Clemson won by an average margin of 31.1 points per game, the best in the nation and the second-largest in school history, trailing only a 35.3-point average margin in 1900. Among the seasons it passed was a 30.4-point average margin in 1901, a season in which Clemson won one of its five games by a score of 122-0.

Clemson set school records in points (664) and total offense (7,718, also an ACC record). The defense held opponents to 13.1 points per game, leading the country in scoring defense for the first time in school history.

A critical point in the season came four games into the campaign. Following a 49-21 win at Georgia Tech in which true freshman quarterback Trevor Lawrence threw for four touchdowns in reserve, Swinney and the coaching staff elected to name Lawrence the starter, supplanting senior Kelly Bryant, who had led the Tigers to a 16-2 career record as a starter.

With Lawrence leading Swinney's Tigers, Clemson took flight. After a dramatic come-from-behind 27-23 win against Syracuse in which Lawrence exited the game with an injury, Clemson rattled off 10 consecutive wins of 20 points or more to conclude the season, including blowout wins of No. 3 Notre Dame in the Cotton Bowl and No. 1 Alabama in the College Football Playoff National Championship.

Seven players earned first or second-team All-America honors, including a school-record three players who collected consensus honors. The 2018 Tigers produced a team-record 18 All-ACC picks and became the first team to produce the ACC Player-of-the-Year, ACC Offensive Player-of-the-Year, ACC Defensive Player-of-the-Year, ACC Offensive Rookie-of-the-Year and ACC Coach-of-the-Year in a season since Florida State in 1997.

Accolades also accumulated for Swinney, who earned his second career ACC Coach-of-the-Year honor and brought home the Woody Hayes Award as national coach-of-the-year. Less than a week after winning the national title, he also won the Paul "Bear" Bryant Award, becoming the first three-time winner of the award. Including the 2018 Bryant and Hayes Awards, he has won national coach-of-the-year honors from at least one organization in five of the last eight years.

The 2018 season was preceded by a 2017 campaign in which Clemson was on a mission to prove that it was built to last. Swinney guided the team to a 12-2 record, an ACC title and a College Football Playoff berth despite having only six scholarship seniors and losing players who accounted for 77 percent of the offense during the 2016 national championship season.

While Clemson was ranked No. 5 in the preseason AP Poll, few expected the Tigers to be ranked No. 1 in both polls and the College Football Playoff ranking entering the bowl season. In fact, Clemson was not even the preseason choice to win the ACC Atlantic Division.

Despite a setback in the Sugar Bowl to the eventual national champion, Alabama, Clemson finished ranked No. 4 in both polls. He was inducted into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame following the season.

Its school-record six wins over top-25 teams in 2017, also a national best, included a school-record four on opponents' home fields and five away from home. The defense, including three defensive linemen, featured four players who were named All-American, helping Clemson rank in the top four in the nation in scoring defense (No. 2) and total defense (No. 4). Clemson led the ACC in the four major defensive categories (scoring, total, rushing, passing), a first in history.

The 2016 Tigers lived up to their hype after compiling a 14-1 record and earning a spot in the College Football Playoff for the second-straight year. Along the way, Clemson knocked off five top-25 foes.

Clemson defeated the top two teams in the national polls in consecutive games in the College Football Playoff at the end of the season. The Tigers blanked Ohio State, 31-0, in the Fiesta Bowl, the first shutout suffered by head coach Urban Meyer in his career and the first for Ohio State since 1993.

The Tigers then earned a rematch with No. 1 Alabama, and for the first time in school history, took down the top-ranked team in a second epic battle with the storied Crimson Tide program. Quarterback Deshaun Watson's touchdown pass to Hunter Renfrow with one second left on the clock gave Clemson a dramatic 35-31 victory in Tampa, Fla. Swinney received the Bear Bryant Award as national coach-of-the-year for the second consecutive season.

Swinney coached Watson to two record-setting seasons in 2015 and 2016. The two-time Heisman Trophy finalist became the first player in FBS history to total 4,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in a season in 2015, and he followed by setting an ACC record with 41 passing touchdowns in 2016. Watson won the both Davey O'Brien Award and Manning Award in back-to-back seasons.

Swinney guided Clemson to the No. 1 national ranking in every College Football Playoff poll in 2015 and led the Tigers to their first national championship game appearance under the new format after his team defeated Oklahoma, 37-17, in the 2015 Orange Bowl. The Tigers led Alabama in the fourth quarter of the championship contest, but came up just short (45-40) in an epic game in Glendale, Ariz.

Following the team's 14-1 record and No. 2 final ranking, he was the recipient of 10 national and two ACC Coach-of-the-Year honors.

Clemson capped off the 2013 season with a thrilling 40-35 victory over No. 6 Ohio State in the Orange Bowl. Clemson had an 11-2 record after finishing 7-1 in ACC regular-season games. It marked Clemson's first back-to-back 11-win seasons in school history. For the fourth time in his first five full seasons as head coach, Swinney was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual National Coach-of-the-Year in 2013.

The 2012 season (11-2) was a groundbreaking year for Swinney's Tigers when looking at the overall consistency of the program. The seven conference wins in the regular season were then a school record, while Clemson was co-champion of the ACC Atlantic Division.

With Clemson's thrilling 25-24 win over No. 7 LSU in the 2012 Chick-fil-A Bowl, the Tigers finished the season ranked No. 9 in the USA Today poll. It was Clemson's first top-10 finish in one of the two major polls since 1990. Clemson also reached the 11-win mark for the first time since its 1981 national championship season.

Swinney's 2011 squad, which ended the season ranked No. 22 in the nation, captured Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 when it beat No. 3 Virginia Tech, 38-10, in the ACC Championship Game in Charlotte, N.C. It gave Clemson its first 10-win season since 1990. For his efforts, Swinney was named Bobby Dodd National Coach-of-the-Year in 2011 to become the first Tiger head coach to win a national coach-of-the-year award since Ford in 1981.

In 2010, Swinney became just the second Tiger coach to lead Clemson to a bowl game in his first two full years as head coach, joining his predecessor, Tommy Bowden. The 2010 schedule was one of the most challenging in school history, as nine bowl teams were on the regular-season slate and two of the four non-conference opponents were ranked in the top 25.

In 2009, Swinney's first full season as head coach at Clemson, he led the Tigers to their first title of the ACC Atlantic Division. The Tigers came just six points short of winning their first ACC title in 18 years. Swinney was named ACC coach-of-the-year by Sporting News and was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach-of-the-Year.

In October 2008, Swinney was named Clemson's interim head coach, replacing Bowden, who had been his position coach as a player at Alabama and was Clemson's head coach since 1999. He led the Tigers to a 4-2 record during the rest of the 2008 regular season, including a win over South Carolina in the regular-season finale to earn a Gator Bowl bid against Nebraska.

On Dec. 1, 2008, his interim tag was removed and he was named the program's head coach. At the time, there had been 28 interim head coaches at the FBS level since 1970, and those coaches had combined for a 26-86-2 record. Only one of those 28 interim coaches posted a winning record, and that was Swinney. When he was hired as head coach, he became just the second interim coach to be elevated to the head coach position at the same school during that time period.

Swinney hit the ground running in his first week as interim head coach, as he prepared for a 5-1 Georgia Tech team. He had to reorganize his staff and regroup his team and the fanbase in just five days. While the Tigers lost by four points, he accomplished many goals in that first week through his outstanding leadership. One of the most impressive demonstrations of unity came during the team's "Tiger Walk," which has since become a staple of Clemson's game day routine for both the team and fans.

Swinney has demonstrated his dedication to the community through Dabo's All In Team Foundation. Since 2009, the Swinney family and Dabo's All In Team Foundation have given more than $5.5 million back to communities and programs in the state. In its inaugural year, the foundation made the first contribution to the cancer fund established for former Boston College linebacker Mark Herzlich, and many schools followed its lead during the remainder of the season.

The foundation had a banner year in 2019, as it awarded more than $1,082,000 in grant funding to more than 165 deserving organizations and non-profits in South Carolina and raised $400,000 for breast cancer research and prevention during the organization's annual Ladies Clinic. The foundation's efforts went virtual in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020, as the organization's ALL IN Virtual Fundraising Event alone raised nearly $1 million for organizations and efforts in South Carolina.

Swinney was named as the honorary coach for the 2019 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team, a honor for which Watson, a former Good Works Team selection, returned to Clemson to surprise Swinney with during a team meeting.

In 2015, a then-Tiger-record 17 players were named to one of three All-ACC teams, including all five starting offensive linemen for the first time in school history. In 2016, 15 players were honored, including a school-record three first-team All-ACC offensive line selections.

The 2012, 2013 and 2014 seasons were also noteworthy, with three top-15 final rankings.

With a 40-6 Russell Athletic Bowl victory over Oklahoma in 2014, Swinney became the first coach in history to win three bowl games in consecutive seasons over teams whose head coaches had previously won the national title. He upped that mark to five years in a row in 2016.

The 1993 Alabama graduate joined the Clemson staff prior to the 2003 season. In his first 18 years as an assistant or head coach, the Tigers finished in the top 25 of the polls 14 times and totaled 41 wins over top-25 teams.

Swinney coached his wide receiver position to a level of consistency that had not been seen previously at Clemson. He had a wide receiver finish first or second in the ACC in catches in five of his six seasons as an assistant coach. In his first season, he had three of the top-10 receivers in the conference, a first in Tiger history.

In his 18 seasons at Clemson, a Tiger wide receiver has earned All-ACC status in 17 of those campaigns, including a first- or second-team All-ACC selection (Derrick Hamilton, Airese Currie, Chansi Stuckey, Aaron Kelly, Jacoby Ford, Sammy Watkins, DeAndre Hopkins, Artavis Scott, Mike Williams, Tee Higgins, Amari Rodgers) in 16 of those 18 seasons.

The Alabama native has a reputation as one of the top recruiters in the nation. In 2006, he was listed as the No. 5 recruiter in the nation by Rivals. He signed 38 players in his five recruiting seasons as an assistant coach and was a major reason Clemson's 2008 recruit-ing class was rated No. 2 in the nation by ESPN when he signed 11 players. Clemson's 2020 class finished as a consensus Top 3 class, earning the top ranking from ESPN, a No. 2 rank by Rivals and a No. 3 ranking in the 247 Composite.

When Swinney accepted the interim head coaching position at Clemson on Oct. 13, 2008, he described his feelings as "bittersweet," because he was taking over for Bowden, who had been his first position coach at Alabama in the 1989 season. He had also brought Swinney back to the coaching profession in 2003 and has had a profound effect on his life. Both had followed similar paths as players, as Bowden was a walk-on at West Virginia and Swinney was a walk-on at Alabama.

Swinney received a commerce & business admin-istration degree from Alabama in 1993 after letter-ing three times (1990-92). A walk-on who went on to earn a scholarship, Swinney was a wide receiver on Alabama's 1992 national championship team. He was also named Academic All-SEC along with being an SEC Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll member in 1990 and 1992.

Along with his appearance in the 1993 Sugar Bowl, his Alabama teams played in the 1990 Sugar Bowl, 1991 Fiesta Bowl and 1991 Blockbuster Bowl. Both Sugar Bowl appearances came after winning the SEC title game.

After his playing career, he was a graduate assistant at Alabama from 1993-95. He received a master's de-gree in business administration from Alabama in 1995.

He became a full-time assistant coach at Alabama in February 1996 under head coach Gene Stallings and coached a total of five seasons there on a full-time ba-sis. Swinney was assigned to coach the Crimson Tide's wide receivers and tight ends in 1996, a season that saw Alabama win the SEC West Division title. The fol-lowing year, he solely coached the tight ends.

In 1998, he coached Alabama's wide receivers, a position he held for three years. At the end of 1999, Swinney coached the Crimson Tide in the 2000 Orange Bowl after winning the SEC Championship Game.

During his time at Alabama, Swinney was a part of six teams with double-digit wins, five top-10 fin-ishes, one national title (1992), three SEC champion-ships (1989,92,99) and five SEC West Division titles (1992,93,94,96,99) as a player and coach.

Swinney married the former Kathleen Bassett in 1994. They have three sons, Will, Drew and Clay. Will and Drew are both on the 2021 Tiger football team.

FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

WOODY McCORVEY

- CHIEF OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION
- 20TH SEASON AT CLEMSON
- ALABAMA STATE '72

Woody McCorvey has been a significant part of the two greatest eras in Tiger football. In the 1980s he was on the staff of hall of fame coach Danny Ford, and helped Clemson to a 60-19-3 record, three ACC titles and four bowl wins. He was on the staff of five Clemson teams that finished in the final top 20 of the AP poll.

Now, McCorvey is back at Clemson, and Dabo Swinney would be the first to say how important he has been in contributing to Clemson's recent run of 10 consecutive 10-win seasons.

"He is my national security advisor," said Swinney. "My experience with him dates to my days as a player at Alabama when he was my position coach. He coached at Clemson in the 1980s under Danny Ford and knows all about our winning tradition."

The 2021 season is his 44th in college football as either a coach or an administrator. He returned to Clemson for the 2009 season, Swinney's first full year, and he has helped him bring the Tigers to a level of consistent excellence that culminated in national championships following the 2016 and 2018 seasons.

With Ford's induction in 2017, McCorvey has now worked for three coaches in the College Football Hall of Fame. He has also been in significant coaching roles with Gene Stallings and Phil Fulmer. He has worked for four national championship coaches in Ford, Fulmer, Stallings and Swinney.

Swinney has a 136-30 record as head coach since McCorvey joined his staff. That includes eight wins over top-10 teams in bowl games in the last nine years. The Tigers have won seven ACC titles, eight division titles (plus an additional championship berth in a divisionless season in 2020) and posted 10 bowl wins in 12 years.

McCorvey serves as the primary liaison between Swinney and the athletic and IPTAY administrations.

McCORVEY'S COACHING EXPERIENCE

Year(s)	School	Location
1972-77	Tate High School	Pensacola, Fla.
1978	North Carolina Central	Durham, N.C.
1979-82	Alabama A&M	Huntsville, Ala.
1983-89	Clemson	Clemson, S.C.
1990-97	Alabama	Tuscaloosa, Ala.
1998	South Carolina	Columbia, S.C.
1999-04	Tennessee	Knoxville, Tenn.
2004-08	Mississippi State	Starkville, Miss.

He also oversees the management of the football administrative offices.

He supervises the football budget and works with the academic staff to oversee that important area. Prior to the NCAA suspending APR reporting in the COVID-19 pandemic, Clemson finished in the top-10 percent of all FBS programs in APR scores in nine of the previous 10 years, one of only three schools to make that claim.

As a Clemson wide receivers and tight ends coach from 1983-89, he recruited future Pro Bowlers Donnell Woolford and Chester McGlockton. He also coached NFL players Keith Jennings and K.D. Dunn.

McCorvey coached at the Division I level for 26 years and went to a bowl game 17 of those seasons. He coached or signed 36 players who went on to a professional football career as well.

From 1990-08, he coached in the SEC every year, including each of the last five at Mississippi State, where he served as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator in addition to coaching the quarterbacks. He was a big reason it won eight games, including wins over Auburn, Alabama, and Mississippi, in 2007. He also coached 2010 NFL draft pick Anthony Dixon.

McCorvey coached at Tennessee for five years (1999-03). With him heading the running game, the Volunteers had a 46-14 record. He helped guide Tennessee to the 2000 Fiesta Bowl, 2001 Cotton Bowl, 2002 Citrus Bowl, and 2002 and 2003 Peach Bowls. Tennessee won three consecutive New Year's Day Bowl games from 2000-02 as well.

Under McCorvey's leadership, Tennessee maintained the school's reputation of having an outstanding rushing attack. The Volunteers led the SEC in rushing in 1999, averaging 191.3 yards per game. His work helped tailback Travis Stephens pace the SEC in rushing yards (1,464) in 2001.

One year prior, McCorvey helped tailback Travis Henry finish second in the league and 14th in the nation in rushing yards (1,314). Another of his protegés was Jamal Lewis, who finished in the top five on the Tennessee career rushing list and was the No. 5 overall pick of the 2000 NFL draft. Lewis had an All-Pro career in the NFL.

Prior to joining the staff at Tennessee, McCorvey worked one season at South Carolina, where he served as the wide receivers coach in 1998 under former Tiger assistant coach Brad Scott.

McCorvey took the South Carolina job following an eight-year stay at Alabama from 1990-97. He served seven seasons as its wide receivers coach and the 1996 campaign as offensive coordinator. He was the assistant head coach in 1997 as well.

Alabama had five top-25 final rankings in his tenure, including three seasons in the top five. The Crimson Tide won the 1992 national title with McCorvey serving as wide receivers coach and Swinney as one of his student-athletes. That season culminated with a 34-13 win over heavily-favored Miami (Fla.) in the Sugar Bowl. Current Clemson Director of Football Scouting Danny Pearman was also on that staff.

During the 1990-96 era, Alabama posted a 70-16-1 record and played in six bowl games. With McCorvey at the controls of the offense in 1996, Alabama finished 10-3, including a win over Michigan in the Outback Bowl.

Alabama's players flourished under his guidance. As offensive coordinator, running back Shaun Alexander established many school records and later went on to a Pro Bowl career with the Seattle Seahawks. In 1993, David Palmer established school records for catches and receiving yards along with earning first-team All-America honors. Palmer was third in the Heisman Trophy balloting, the highest finish in history for an Alabama player at the time.

From 1979-82, he served as an assistant coach at Alabama A&M and helped that program to the No. 6 rushing offense in Division II in 1981 after finishing 11th in the nation in scoring offense in 1980. McCorvey began his college coaching career at North Carolina Central in 1978.

McCorvey began his coaching career with a six-year stint (1972-77) at J.M. Tate Senior High School in Florida. A quarterback at Alabama State from 1968-71, McCorvey earned his bachelor's degree from Alabama State in 1972 and a Master's degree from West Florida in 1977.

He was the recipient of the 2015 AFCA Outstanding Achievement Award for his contributions to college football. In 2013, he was on the Rose Bowl Advisory Committee and returned to that role in 2017. He was a member of the College Football Playoff Advisory Committee in 2014-15 as well.

In 2010, McCorvey was inducted into the Atmore (Ala.) Hall of Fame. He was inducted into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame in 2020 as part of an induction class that included Sylvester Croom, with whom he coached at Mississippi State.

The Atmore, Ala., native is married to the former Ann Brown. The couple has a son, Marlon, daughter-in-law Brooke, and grandson, Beau.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE
Played two seasons (1989,90) at Garden City (Kan.) Community College ... lettered two times as a linebacker at Kansas State (1991,92).

EDUCATION
Graduated from Kansas State with a political science degree in 1992.

PERSONAL DATA
Born Dec. 18, 1970 ... he and his wife, Julie, have two sons, Jake and Tyler, and two daughters, Laney and Addie.

- In his 25 years as a full-time assistant coach, his teams have 25 winning seasons, have been to 29 bowl games and have won 10+ games 21 times.
- Has coached in eight national championship games, helping Clemson to four berths and two titles. Also has a 13-2 mark in 15 conference championship games in which he's coached, including a 6-0 record in ACC Championship Games with Clemson.
- Clemson led the ACC in total defense (326.8 yards per game) in 2020 for the fourth time in five years.
- His 2020 group produced 46 sacks, tied for the most in the nation, despite no single player producing more than 4.5. A total of 21 Clemson players contributed at least half a sack, the most in the country and the most in a season in the Dabo Swinney era.
- Helped linebacker Isaiah Simmons earn the 2019 Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker. Simmons was Venables' seventh career Butkus finalist and third career Butkus winner. Simmons earned ACC Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2019 as one of Clemson's eight All-ACC selections on defense.
- Coordinated a 2019 unit that did not allow its first 12 opponents to reach 300 yards, the first unit on record since 1996 to do so. Clemson finished in the Top 10 in total defense (228.3 yards per game) for a sixth straight season, the longest active streak in the country, and finished third in the country in scoring defense (13.5 points per game).
- Helped Clemson hold opponents to 20 or fewer points in 16 consecutive games from 2018-19. A streak of that length had not occurred at Clemson in 79 years, when Hall of Famers Jess Neely and Frank Howard combined for a 31-game streak from 1937-40.
- Led the country in scoring defense (13.1 points per game) for the first time in school history in 2018.

Ranked fourth in rushing defense (96.3 yards per game), fifth in total defense (285.9 yards per game).
- Unit set a school record with 54 sacks in 2018, the third-most by any FBS team in a season since 2000.
- His 2018 defense produced five first- or second-team All-Americans, including two consensus selections (Clelin Ferrell and Christian Wilkins). Ferrell also won the Ted Hendricks Award as the nation's top defensive end and Wilkins won the Campbell Trophy, known colloquially as the "Academic Heisman." Linebacker Tre Lamar was a finalist for the Butkus Award.
- His 2017 defense was second in the nation in scoring defense (13.6) and fourth in the nation in total defense (276.7).
- Helped linebackers Dorian O'Daniel (2017) and Tre Lamar (2018) earn Butkus Award finalist selections.
- Recipient of the 2016 Frank Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach. His 2016 group amassed 130 tackles for loss and a then-school-record 49 sacks. His teams led the NCAA in tackles for loss four seasons in a row from 2013-16.

- Ben Boulware was a first-team All-ACC performer and second-team Walter Camp All-American in 2016, as well as ACC Co-Defensive Player of the Year.
- Was FootballScoop's Defensive Coordinator of the Year in 2014 and Rivals' Recruiter of the Year in 2015.
- Finalist for the 2015 Broyles Award after his defense finished fourth nationally in third-down conversion percentage (27.7) and in sacks per game (3.2) and fifth in tackles for loss per game (8.4).
- His 2014 defense led the nation in total defense (260.8), pass efficiency defense (98.3), first downs allowed (185), third-down conversion percentage defense (27.4) and tackles for loss (131).
- His 2013 unit led the nation in tackles for loss (122).
- Named one of Rivals' top-25 recruiters in the nation in 2013 and one of 247Sports' top-50 recruiters in the nation in 2013.
- Coached 13 years (1999-11) at Oklahoma and three years (1996-98) at Kansas State. Was a graduate assistant at Kansas State for three years (1993-95).
- Served as co-defensive coordinator (1999-03) and defensive coordinator at Oklahoma (2004-11).
- Linebackers under his direction were named Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year five times and Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year five times. Has coached three Butkus Award winners and among seven total Butkus Award finalists in his career.
- Broyles Award finalist in the 2006 season when Oklahoma led the Big 12 in total defense and scoring defense.
- Oklahoma ranked first in the nation in total defense, first in passing defense, second in pass efficiency defense, third in scoring defense and fifth in turnover margin in 2003.
- His 2001 defense was fourth in the nation in scoring defense, fourth in total defense, fifth in pass effiency defense and seventh in rushing defense.
- Also owns a national title ring as co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Oklahoma in 2000.
- As a player at Kansas State, he was Honorable Mention All-Big Eight in 1992 with 124 tackles. He was also an All-American at Garden City (Kan.) Community College who recorded 276 career tackles.

- Helped Lawrence win the Archie Griffin Award in 2018 as the nation's most valuable player after he set school freshman records in passing yards, passing touchdowns and wins as a starting quarterback.
- Coached Manning Award finalist and Davey O'Brien Award semifinalist Kelly Bryant in 2017. Earned Quarterbacks Coach of the Year from 247Sports.

- Coached Clemson's first two-time Heisman Trophy finalist, Deshaun Watson. He became the first player in FBS history with at least 4,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in a season in 2015.
- Watson was a two-time recipient of the Davey O'Brien and Manning awards, given to the nation's top quarterback. He also won the 2016 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and 2016 Bobby Bowden Award.
- Coached the 2015 Tigers to 11 consecutive games with at least 500 yards of total offense, a school record.
- Six of the seven teams he worked with as an offensive coordinator between the 2008-14 seasons finished the year in the top 25 of the FCS poll. That included the 2014 Richmond team that entered the FCS playoffs ranked No. 16 in the nation.
- Helped the 2014 Richmond team to a 9-5 record and a bid to the FCS playoffs, as the Spiders reached the second round.
- Guided Richmond to a top-20 finish in passing offense each season from 2012-14. That included a 314-yard average, eighth highest in the nation, in 2014. The Spiders averaged 461 yards per game, 19th-most in the nation, and were second in third-down conversion percentage (51.6) and third in first downs (332).
- Richmond was seventh in the nation in passing yards (328) in 2013. Virtually every Richmond individual game, season and career school passing record was established during the 2013 season. The 2012 Richmond offense was 20th in passing offense and 21st in scoring offense. The Spider offense saw five players earn All-CAA recognition.
- Streeter served as quarterbacks coach at Liberty for six years, the last three as offensive coordinator. In 2011, Liberty led the Big South Conference in passing yards and pass efficiency.
- In 2010, Liberty averaged 36.5 points per game, a better mark than in 2009, when the Flames led the nation in scoring offense (36.4). That Liberty team won the Big South Conference title for a fourth straight year.
- He served as a graduate assistant at Clemson in 2004 and 2005, when Dabo Swinney was an assistant coach. Streeter worked with quarterback Charlie Whitehurst, third on Clemson's career passing yards chart, during those two seasons.
- Three-time letterman at Clemson from 1997-99. He was Clemson's starting quarterback the last two years. He was also a three-time member of the ACC Academic Honor Roll.

freshman interior lineman in 2020, Clemson's second straight season having the FBS leader among first-year defensive tackles in that category (Tyler Davis in 2019).
- Along with Defensive Ends Coach Lemanski Hall, comprised a duo that was one of four finalists for 2020 FootballScoop Defensive Line Coach of the Year.
- In 2019, helped accelerate the development of an extremely young defensive line, a group that helped Clemson's defense hold each of its first 12 opponents under 300 total yards, the first program in available records back to 1996 to accomplish the feat.

- Both of his primary 2019 starters — true freshman Tyler Davis (second-team) and Nyles Pinckney (third-team) — earned All-ACC selections, as every primary starter in his tenure at Clemson has earned at least one all-conference honor. Davis earned the honor in 2019 while starting 13 games, the most by a true freshman defensive lineman in school history, including becoming the first Clemson defensive tackle to start a season opener as a true freshman since Jeff Mills in 1974.
- Coached one of the nation's best defensive lines in 2017 and 2018, including Austin Bryant, Clelin Ferrell, Dexter Lawrence and Christian Wilkins. All four earned either All-America or first-team All-ACC honors under Bates' guidance.
- Helped Wilkins collect Outland, Nagurski, Bednarik and Lott IMPACT finalist selections in 2018 in addition to winning the William V. Campbell Trophy.
- Guided Wilkins as he became the fifth unanimous All-American in Clemson history in 2018.
- Placed both of his starters at defensive tackle (Wilkins and Lawrence) on the First-Team All-ACC list in 2018 after the duo helped Clemson lead the nation in sacks (54) and scoring defense (13.1 points per game) and tie for the national lead in tackles for loss (136).
- His 2017 Tigers finished second in the nation in scoring defense (13.6) and fourth in total defense (276.7).
- Helped Jacksonville State to a 33-6 record in three seasons (2014-16). The Gamecocks reached the FCS National Championship Game in 2015 and compiled a perfect 23-0 mark in the Ohio Valley Conference with three titles in his time there.
- Produced multiple All-OVC selections in all three years of his tenure at Jacksonville State, as all five players to serve as primary starters in that span (Caleb Lawrence, Devaunte Sigler, Randy Robinson and Desmond Owino) all earned all-conference honors under Bates.
- Helped the 2016 Jacksonville State team to a 10-2 record and No. 6 final FCS ranking. That team was fourth in the nation in total defense, allowing just 275 yards per game.
- In 2014, Jacksonville State allowed a league-best 128 yards per game on the ground.
- Began his coaching career at Talladega (Ala.) High School in 2007, then served at Oxford (Ala.) High School from 2008-11.
- Spent time as an assistant coach at Idaho State in 2011 and 2012, then at East Central Junior College in Mississippi in 2013.
- Earned three letters at Alabama as a defensive end from 2001-04. He was a permanent co-captain in 2004.
- Alabama went to two bowl games in his career, as a freshman when it beat Iowa State in the Independence Bowl and Music City Bowl his senior year.
- Alabama was 10-3 and No. 11 in the final AP poll in 2002, Bates' sophomore season.
- Played defensive end for the Titans in 2005 and 2006.

ROBBIE CALDWELL

- OFFENSIVE LINEMEN
- 11TH SEASON AT CLEMSON
- 44TH SEASON OVERALL
- FURMAN '77

- Enters the 2021 season with a staff-high 43 years of experience in college coaching and staff-high 519 games as a college coach.
- Reached the 500-game milestone for his coaching career in 2019. Entering 2021, his 519 collegiate games coached are the most of any active Power Five coach. He, Maryland's Ron Zook and Stanford's Duane Akina are the only Power Five coaches to have coached 500 career games across the collegiate and pro ranks (Zook in the NFL, Akina in the CFL).
- Clemson has a 121-18 record, 10 10-plus win seasons, seven ACC titles, four appearances in the national championship game and national titles in 2016 and 2018 since his hire in 2011.
- Clemson offensive linemen have earned 24 all-conference selections since 2015, the most from any Power Five program in the country. That includes 10 first-team all-conference selections, tied with Alabama for third-most in the Power Five.
- Led by First-Team All-ACC tackle Jackson Carman and Second-Team All-ACC guard Matt Bockhorst, Clemson allowed only 20 sacks in 2020, tying for the fewest in the ACC. It was the first time Clemson led the ACC in sacks allowed per game in the Dabo Swinney era.
- Helped guard John Simpson earn consensus All-America status and an Outland Trophy semifinalist selection in 2019. Simpson was one of all five starters along the offensive line to earn All-ACC honors in 2019 and became the third-highest Clemson offensive lineman selected in the NFL Draft (No. 109 overall) since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.
- Helped Clemson produce a school-record 3,723 rushing yards in 2018, breaking the record of 3,469 that had stood since 1978. Also broke the school records in yards per carry (6.55) and rushing touchdowns (49).

- Produced two All-ACC performers in his first season in 2020, placing Amari Rodgers on the first team and Cornell Powell on the third team. Clemson was one of only two schools with multiple selections at receiver.
- Helped Powell become one of the breakout stars of 2020 as a fifth-year senior, helping him record career highs in receptions (53), receiving yards (882), receiving touchdowns (seven) after entering 2020 with 40 career receptions for 329 yards and three touchdowns in his first four years from 2016-19.
- Helped Clemson to a 32-19 record and four bowl appearances as a player from 2005-08, then helped the program to a 79-8 record and 10 bowl appearances in six years as a support staff member from 2014-19 for a combined 111-27 record at Clemson in playing and support staff roles before his hire as receivers coach.
- Served as an added resource for a staff that has produced Clemson's illustrious line of wide receivers while in a support role. During his time as a graduate assistant and offensive analyst from 2014-19, Clemson produced five receivers — Artavis Scott (2014,15,16), Mike Williams (2014,16), Deon Cain (2017), Hunter Renfrow (2017,18), Tee Higgins (2018,19) — who earned 10 All-ACC selections.
- Prior to his full-time hire, six of Clemson's 10 most-prolific passing yardage seasons in school history at the time had come during his time on Clemson's support staff.
- Said Head Coach Dabo Swinney of Grisham's hiring as the full-time wide receivers coach: "I'm just super excited for Grish. There's never been a guy more prepared to be the receivers coach at Clemson than Tyler Grisham. He had a great four-year career here. Clemson fans certainly loved him. He had a lot of big moments and went on and grinded out a four-year NFL career... He's ready and is going to do an unbelievable job for us. He's going to be special."
- Is a 2009 graduate of Clemson University, earning his bachelor's in business administration and management. He later earned a Master's from Clemson in human resource development in 2016. - Named as Clemson's running backs coach on Feb. 5, 2021.
- Head Coach Dabo Swinney upon Spiller's hire: "He is one of the greatest ambassadors that we've had for our program for a long time and now for him to be able to come back and be able to sow seeds into these young men and teach all the things he's learned throughout his career, there's not a guy on this staff that's more committed and more ALL IN for Clemson than C.J. Spiller, that's for sure… To have C.J. out on the road recruiting and have him leading these young men day in and day out is something I'm really, really excited about."
- Served as an unpaid coaching intern during the 2020 season
- In 2020, Spiller assisted the Tiger coaching staff that helped Travis Etienne become a consensus All-American as an all-purpose/athlete selection, becoming the 29th player ever to earn consensus All-America honors at Clemson and the school's 31st total consensus selection. Spiller and Etienne comprise two of Clemson's three all-time consensus All-Americans at the running back position.

PERSONAL DATA

Born Aug. 5, 1987 … married to his wife, Daysha, and has one daughter, Shania.

- While on staff in an unpaid role, watched Etienne break Clemson single-season records for a running back in receptions (48) and receiving yards (588) and tie the running back mark for 100-yard receiving games (two) while adding two receiving touchdowns. Etienne joined Stanford's Christian McCaffrey, Oklahoma's Joe Mixon and Penn State's Saquon Barkley as the only Power Five players to post 900 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in a single season since 2015.
- Stands as one of the most decorated and beloved players in Clemson history from his four-year career as a running back for the Tigers from 2006-09.
- Was selected for induction into the College Football Hall of Fame as a member of the Class of 2021, earning the distinction in only his second year of eligibility.
- Became Clemson's eighth inductee in the College Football Hall of Fame, joining four coaches (John Heisman, Jess Neely, Frank Howard and Danny Ford) and three players (Banks McFadden, Terry Kinard and Jeff Davis). At the time of his selection, Spiller became one of only 1,038 players and 223 coaches have been immortalized in the Hall, putting him in the top 0.02 percent of those who have played or coached the sport.
- Inducted into both the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame and South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame in 2020 for his immense contribution to athletics at both the university and state levels.
- His historic college career culminated with a senior season in 2009 in which he finished sixth in Heisman Trophy voting after winning ACC Player of the Year and being selected as a unanimous first-team All-American. He became the first player in the history of the Walter Camp All-America team to be first or second-team All-American at two positions in the same year.
- Still holds ACC single-season and career records for all-purpose yards, posting 2,680 in 2009 and finishing his career with 7,588, which was second-most in FBS history at the time of his graduation.
- Was one of the most exciting players in the sport's history, as he recorded 21 career touchdowns covering at least 50 yards and had an ACC-record eight kick returns for touchdowns in his career.
- Was also a three-time All-American in track and first-team strength All-American in 2008.
- Entered the coaching ranks after an eight-year NFL career from 2010-17 after being the ninth overall selection in the 2010 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills.
- His NFL career included tenures with the Bills, New Orleans Saints, Seattle Seahawks, New York Jets and Kansas City Chiefs, and he was a Pro Bowl selection in 2012. He and college teammate Jacoby Ford remain the only Clemson products ever to record multiple rushing touchdowns, multiple receiving touchdowns and multiple kick return touchdowns during an NFL career.
- Graduated from Clemson with a degree in sociology in three-and-a-half years on Dec. 17, 2009, receiving a standing ovation from the Clemson University Board of Trustees, the first such occurence for a student-athlete.

Clemson has won at least 10 games in each of McCombs' eight previous seasons assisting Clemson's coaching staff on special teams, including six ACC titles, six CFP berths and two national championships. During that time, Clemson has finished in the top half of the ACC in kickoff coverage six times, including leading the conference and finishing 13th in the country with 17.56 yards allowed per return in 2019.

McCombs began his career working as a student assistant at Clemson in 2005 and was a player development coach in the strength training room from 2010-12. He earned a bachelor's degree in sport management from Clemson in 2009.

DeANDRE McDANIEL

DEFENSIVE ANALYST & ASSISTANT CAMP DIRECTOR
CLEMSON '10
TIGERS

DeAndre McDaniel is in his seventh year on staff at Clemson and his fourth as a defensive analyst and assistant camp director.

Prior to joining Clemson's support staff, McDaniel was one of the top safeties at Clemson in the 2000s. He was a first-team All-America safety in 2009 and third-team selection in 2010. He tied for third in the nation and was first in the ACC in interceptions in 2009. That season, he was the only player in the nation to have at least eight interceptions and 100 tackles.

McDaniel, a 2010 Clemson graduate, led the Tigers in interceptions and tackles in 2010 as a senior. He finished his career with 15 interceptions in his 53 games and was a two-time first-team All-ACC selection.

KALEB NOBLES

OFFENSIVE PLAYER DEVELOPMENT
1ST SEASON AT CLEMSON
VALDOSTA STATE '15
TIGERS

Kaleb Nobles is in his first season at Clemson in an offensive player development role for the Tigers.

Nobles joined the program after coaching three years at West Florida, where he helped shape the program into a Division II powerhouse. He served in multiple capacities immediately following his playing career, serving as quarterbacks coach from 2017-19, adding director of football operations duties for 2018-19 as well as the role of co-offensive coordinator in 2019. In his final season, he helped lead the program to its first national title in only its fourth year of existence.

Nobles played quarterback at Valdosta State from 2012-15, earning a degree in health care administration in 2015. He transferred to West Florida, where he completed his final year of eligibility as the first quarterback in program history in 2016.

Nobles is the brother of former Clemson fullback and tight end Kasey Nobles.

SAM OGDEN

DIRECTOR OF VIDEO

WHAT IS CAPCO?

Marketing/Advertising • Technology • Digital Properties

Beginning July 1, 2021, Clemson University and the Athletic Department assumed partnerships internally via a new venture called the CAPCO, or the Clemson Athletics Properties Company.

The tide in college athletics and partnerships has begun to shift, and Clemson is positioning itself for a long, prosperous future by managing opportunities in-house that had previously been routed through a third party.

CAPCO manages the day-to-day multimedia rights, broadcast rights, partnerships and external sales and service within the Department of Athletics. CAPCO will also provide a pathway for departments on campus to explore and pursue partnership opportunities.

CAPCO was created as a one-of-a-kind collaboration to enable Clemson Athletics, IPTAY and Clemson University to maximize value to partners and will be set up as an affiliated entity of Clemson University. Clemson Athletics will also work with the University on existing and new corporate partnerships.

CAPCO will be housed within athletics, meaning there is no longer a third party or intermediary between the partner/advertiser and the institution - it is directly connected.

Fans will not notice a difference in operations, but will see a greater impact in the ways in which Clemson aligns with partners to provide value back to fans.

Clemson Athletics will immediately build out a leadership, sales and fulfillment team to begin in the coming months.

Clemson has always been a little bit different, and this allows us to represent ourselves. This structure will give Clemson greater visibility and flexibility into how we can best serve those who align with Clemson Athletics, from local businesses to some of the largest organizations in the world. CAPCO will enable Clemson to serve these groups, while also resulting in new opportunities to engage and provide value to our fans, exposure to our university, and resources to our department.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

JIM CLEMENTS

- CLEMSON UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT
- 8TH SEASON AT CLEMSON
- UMBC '85

Jim Clements became Clemson University's 15th president on Dec. 31, 2013 after serving as president of West Virginia University. Since his arrival, the value of the Tiger Paw has never been higher, driven by the university's elevated academic reputation and the exposure from Clemson University's athletic success on the national stage.

Under Clements' leadership, Clemson has raised the bar in academics, admissions, enrollment, research, retention rates, graduation rates and diversity. Clements has also led the way in helping to raise more than $1.2 billion in private funds since he arrived at Clemson.

Clements is a nationally recognized leader in higher education who has served as president of a university in three different athletic conferences, Big East Conference, Big 12 Conference and Atlantic Coast Conference, where he served as the 2016-17 Chair of the ACC Council of Presidents. In April 2021, Clements was named to the College Football Playoff Board of Managers.

He currently serves on the board of directors of the American Council on Education, the executive committee for the Council of Competitiveness, the Council of Presidents for the Association of Governing Boards and on the Special Olympics International Board of Directors. Clements previously served as the Chair of the Board for the Association of Public & Land-Grant Universities.

UNDER CLEMENTS' LEADERSHIP

- He has led commencement ceremonies for more than 46,000 graduates.
- Undergraduate applications have increased 153 percent.
- Clemson has raised more than $1.2 billion in private funds, resulting in record-breaking fundraising every year.
- The value of Clemson Foundation Endowment surpassed $950 million.
- Total research expenditures reached an all-time high of $230 million.
- Clemson achieved and then was re-affirmed Carnegie R1 highest research activity.
- Approximately $1 billion in new or renovated facilities have been constructed, including Wilber O. & Ann Powers College of Business, Allen N. Reeves Football Complex, Watt Family Innovation Center, the new soccer facility, Snow Family Outdoor Fitness & Wellness Complex, Andy Quattlebaum Outdoor Education Center, McWhorter Stadium (softball), Early Childhood Education Center, Littlejohn Coliseum and Douthit Hills, the largest construction project in university history.
- The Clemson Forward strategic plan was launched and is currently being refreshed.

He holds a degree in computer science as well as a master's degree and Ph.D. in operations analysis from the University of Maryland, Baltimore County. Clements also holds a master's degree in computer science from Johns Hopkins University's Whiting School of Engineering and was awarded an honorary degree as Doctor of Public Education from his alma mater, UMBC.
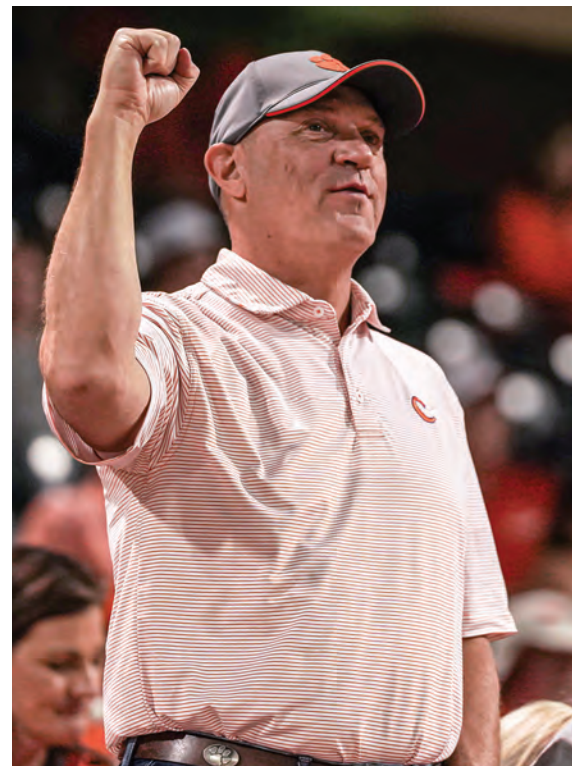

Clements' "Successful Project Management" book is now in its seventh edition and has been published in multiple languages and used in numerous countries.

Clements was born in Arlington, Va., but spent the majority of his life in Maryland before relocating to West Virginia and then to Clemson. He and his wife, Beth, have been married for 30 years and have four children, Tyler, Hannah, Maggie and Grace; two sons-in-law, Tanner Coombs and Max Kinser; a daughter-in-law, Margot Murray Clements; a grandson, Cannon Coombs and another grandchild due in July 2021.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

DAN RADAKOVICH

- DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
- 9TH SEASON AT CLEMSON
- INDIANA (PA.) '80

Named the 13th director of athletics in Clemson history on Dec. 1, 2012, Dan Radakovich has continuously led the Tiger athletic department to high achievements, both on the field and in the classroom, while developing significant upgrades in finance and facilities. Since his arrival, Radakovich has led Clemson athletics to a period of sustained success a growth, considered among the greatest stretches in school history.

As a department, Tiger student-athletes have recorded nine semesters with a 3.0 GPA or higher, including a record 3.57 GPA in the spring of 2020. Radakovich has guided the department successfully throughout the pandemic, helping Clemson to reopen athletic operations, including safely hosting 112,367 fans at Memorial Stadium in 2020, third most in the nation.

In 2020-21, Clemson had its best finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup since 2007, finishing No. 36. Highlighting the athletic year, the football program claimed the ACC title and appeared in the College Football Playoff, the men's soccer program claimed the 2020 ACC championship, and the women's soccer program advanced to the Elite Eight in their sixth-straight NCAA Tournament appearance. Additionally, Radakovich oversaw the development of the softball program at Clemson, which officially began in the spring of 2020. That program earned the ACC regular-season championship in 2021 and made its first trip to the NCAA Tournament. Clemson also made NCAA appearances in men's basketball, indoor and outdoor track & field and men's and women's golf.

During Radakovich's tenure, IPTAY has seen more than $200 million in contributions and he was instrumental in the Cornerstone Partner Program, which together has helped fund more than $80 million in scholarships and numerous investments in the student-athlete experience.

Radakovich's tenure has been highlighted by the success of the football program, which has claimed the 2016 and 2018 national titles. The Tigers have won six consecutive ACC titles and have made six straight College Football Playoffs.

The Clemson athletic department set a school record for the highest score in the NCAA's graduation success rate at 93 percent in 2020, while a school-record seven programs were recognized by the NCAA for outstanding APR. Clemson has been at 91 percent or higher for seven straight years.

The highlight of the 2018-19 academic year was a second football national title in three years, as Clemson beat Alabama 44-16 in the national championship game in Santa Clara, Calif. During the 2017-18 academic year, Clemson became the first school in history to reach the College Football Playoff, advance to the Sweet 16 of the men's basketball NCAA Tournament and host a baseball regional.

Student-athlete development continues to be a driving force for the athletic department under Radakovich, and the Nieri Family Student-Athlete Enrichment Center in the newly-renovated WestZone is a state-of-the-art facility for student-athlete development in the classroom and community. The development, rebranding and expansion of football's P.A.W. Journey highlights a best-in-class approach to preparation for life after their Clemson football careers.

The athletic district has received a near-complete facelift in the past few years, and Littlejohn Coliseum opened to rave reviews following a $63 million renovation. Allen N. Reeves Football Complex opened in 2017 and has set the standard for football facilities.

Since 2013, the athletic department has received approvals for more than $200 million in facility improvements and increased spending on direct student-athlete development programs, including nutrition, mental health and professional development, by $2.4 million. His department has increased overall revenue from $69 million in fiscal year 2014 to a budgeted $131 million in fiscal year 2020.

As a result of the litany of accomplishments, he was named 2017 SportsBusiness Journal Athletic Director-of-the-Year after being a finalist in 2015. He also serves as Chair of the Board of LEAD1, which represents athletic directors at the D-I level.

Prior to his arrival, he amassed a wealth of experience serving in significant athletic administrative roles at Miami (Fla.), Long Beach State, South Carolina and LSU in addition to athletic directorships at American University and Georgia Tech. His administrative career spans 30 years.

College football entered a new era in 2014 with the College Football Playoff, and he was at the forefront. He was one of 13 people, including one of only five FBS directors of athletics, to be named to the committee.

In 2012, he was named by NCAA president Mark Emmert as one of 10 directors of athletics to a new advisory commission charged with making recommendations for the future of NCAA rules and policies.

Radakovich came to Clemson from Georgia Tech, where he served with distinction for six years (2006-12). Just Clemson's fifth director of athletics since 1940, he replaced Terry Don Phillips, who retired after over 10 years directing the program.

Prior to his tenure at Georgia Tech, Radakovich worked as a senior associate athletic director at LSU from 2001-06. He had many responsibilities that dealt with the football program and worked closely with then head coach Nick Saban, including the year (2003) the Tigers won the national title.

Between 1994 and 2000, he served as chief financial officer at South Carolina.

He gained experience on the West Coast from 1989-94, when he was a senior associate athletic director at Long Beach State. He got his start in administration at Miami in 1983 as the athletic business manager.

The Aliquippa, Pa. native was first made aware of Tiger athletics through the basketball exploits of Butch Zatezalo, who was from the same town. Zatezalo was a three-time All-ACC Tiger whose legendary 25-point scoring nights received a lot of attention in Pennsylvania in the 1960s when he was a youth.

Radakovich is a 1980 graduate of Indiana (Pa.), where he earned a bachelor's degree in finance. He was also a football letterman and student coach with the Crimson Hawk program, and he was inducted into the school's athletic hall of fame in 2021. He previously was enshrined into the Beaver County Sports Hall of Fame in 2008 and was recognized as a distinguished alumnus from Indiana in 2009. He earned his master's degree in business administration from Miami in 1982.

Radakovich, born June 9, 1958, and his wife, Marcie, have two sons, Christian, a 2012 Georgia Tech graduate, and Grant, a 2015 Mercer graduate who was a tight end on Clemson's 2016 national title football team.

ALLEN N. REEVES FOOTBALL COMPLEX

Head Coach Dabo Swinney and the Tiger staff sought to build "the forever home of Clemson football" when envisioning what would become the Allen N. Reeves Football Complex, which opened in January 2017 and remains among the gold standards of performance facilities, not only in college football, but in all of sports.

While discussion about the $55 million facility that covers 142,000 square feet often centers around its bells and whistles, by design, it offers unparalleled functionality, the primary goal for Thad Turnipseed when he met with Swinney in 2012 about his vision for a team facility.

"Coach Swinney has always lived by the slogan, 'Best is the Standard,' and that is what he sought to do in the design of this building," said Turnipseed. "I went to 36 different football facilities around the nation. He said to take the best from each place, and that is what we did."

Despite national praise for the young facility, Clemson has not rested in its pursuit of making the facility the nation's standard-bearer. In the years since its opening, it has added the 2,400-square-foot Clemson Applied Science Lab under the purview of Director of Applied Science Alex Bina, helping to put the program at the forefront of the recovery and sports science movement.

The sports science lab in CASL includes Sparta Science force plates to judge force efficiency, a DARI motion capture lab to quantify functional movement, a Trazer augmented reality station to measure change of direction, Nord-Bords to gauge hamstring strength and a Senaptec sensory station to quantify cognitive performance, decision making and visual acuity.

The recovery center portion of the facility features a cryotherapy chamber for muscle recovery, a sensory deprivation pod that houses 1,200 pounds of Epsom salt dissolved in water at skin temperature to remove athletes from light, sound and some gravitational force, two infrared hyperthermic cocoon pods for far-infrared heat therapy and vibrational massage, four massage chairs, percussive massage guns and dedicated tables and space for Normatec compressive sleeves to supplement the Normatec air pressure massage systems provided to each player prior to the season.

While CASL sits toward the rear of the facility, the first things visitors see upon entry to the main lobby of Allen N. Reeves Football Complex are the national championship trophies sitting in front of a video screen flanked by massive trophy cases housing additional hardware from Clemson's history. The lobby also displays a scaled replica of Howard's Rock and the Hill from Memorial Stadium, which also includes a button to play audio of Brent Musburger describing college football's grandest entrance prior to Clemson's game against Georgia in 2013.

Off the lobby to the right is the home of P.A.W. Journey, which cultivates leadership on the team through three main pillars of personal growth, life skills and professional development under the guidance of former All-American Jeff Davis. A corridor near that area leads to the Paw Bistro, the best-in-class dining facility, led by Executive Performance Chef Hali Foreman, who many current and former players have cited as their favorite part of the facility.

Adjacent to the dining area are the outdoor player village and indoor player lounge. The outdoor area includes a nine-hole miniature golf course, a covered full-court basketball facility with glass backboards and a state-of-the-art surface, an artificial-surface wiffle ball diamond, sand volleyball facility, a horseshoe pit, wading pool with a Tiger Paw monument, outdoor kitchen and a lounge area with a 20-foot video screen. Overall, the outdoor village spans 1.5 acres.

The indoor player lounge features arguably the most fun room, complete with a two-lane bowling alley, Pop-A-Shot, three different video game console centers, multiple ping-pong and pool tables and a table shuffleboard. Adjacent to the ping-pong tables is a golf simulator, where players can play Augusta National, St. Andrews and Pebble Beach along with many other great golf courses from around the world.

Down the corridor from the golf simulator is a barber shop and shoeshine area. Next to the barber shop is the nap room, designed to offer student-athletes a designated space to combat one of the largest obstacles for the mental health of young people: lack of sleep.

Clemson's enormous weight room covers 23,000 square feet and was the country's largest football-only weight room at the time it was built. The entire team can work out at once in the area that includes 20 inlay platforms, numerous machines, fatbells, kettlebells and dumbbells, as well as a well-equipped cardio deck overlooking the lifting area. It also houses the offices of Paul Harrington and the performance nutrition staff as well as a nutritional fuel bar.

The weight room connects to the Betty Sheppard Poe & William Maxwell Poe Indoor Football Facility, an 80,000-square-foot, $10 million structure. It includes a full-sized synthetic turf field, raised video platforms, a game-ready scoreboard, four play-clocks, a videoboard and a booming sound system. The facility has enabled Clemson to continue its preparation despite inclement weather.

Prior to the complex's construction, large tubs were brought to the outside wall of the indoor football facility, as players traded off getting into the tubs. Now, there is one large horizontal 47-degree cold tub that can handle 61 players at any one time, making the process much more efficient. It sits adjacent to Clemson's state-of-the-art training room that also features a lap pool and four therapy pools.

The second floor houses offices and meeting spaces for Clemson football personnel. Swinney's office is in the corner and fittingly overlooks the practice fields at one side and the outdoor basketball court on the other.

The second floor is the home of Clemson football's video department, a multi-screened facility that rivals many broadcast networks. It sits next to a studio that produces much of @ClemsonFB's award-winning social media content and serves as the setting for many of Clemson's national media interviews as well as the home of the bureau cam for Clemson's appearances on ACC Network, as the room features a direct fiber-optic line to ESPN in Bristol, Conn.

The second floor contains a meeting room for each position and the team meeting room that has seats for 180 (up from 158 for the team meeting room at Memorial Stadium). The floor also features a movie theater with 20 lounge chairs.

But perhaps most famously, connecting the second floor meeting spaces down to the locker room, weight room and practice fields is the slide.

"This idea came straight from Coach Swinney," said Turnipseed. "He saw it at the Google headquarters in the 2013 movie, 'The Internship.' He loved it."

The slide is near the back of the facility and represents the most efficient means to getting 120 players from meetings to practice in a timely manner.

P.A.W. JOURNEY

The notion that P.A.W. Journey is a step ahead of other similar programs around the nation was repeated by all scholar-athletes who were asked about their experience.

"P.A.W. Journey is the industry leader in what they do, and it's not even close," stated offensive guard Matt Bockhorst. "P.A.W. Journey has shown that Clemson football players are so much more than the guys you see play on Saturdays."

The program not only empowers men to lead, it also educates, supports and challenges the scholar-athletes throughout their journey.

"P.A.W. Journey does countless things that a lot of people don't see," added Henry. "We as players know that day (peaceful demonstration in 2020) doesn't get done that way without the direction of our leaders in P.A.W. Journey."

In conjunction with the leadership skills and confidence training that P.A.W. Journey affords to the scholar-athletes, the program ensures that these men are ready to follow their professional aspirations.

Through P.A.W. Journey, Clemson scholar-athletes meet with CEOs of Fortune 500 companies and partake in micro-internships to help discover their abilities and passions in the workforce. The scholar-athletes have been taking full advantage of these opportunities.

Bockhorst credited P.A.W. Journey with helping find his next step when his playing days come to an end.

"It is my intention to pursue a career in wealth management, and that would not be the case if not for P.A.W. Journey," explained Bockhorst. "Through the micro-internship program, I was able to intern two weeks with Merrill Lynch, and it completely solidified what I want to do with my career."

A scholar-athlete's identity is often consumed by his athletic abilities. The P.A.W. Journey program confronts this notion by helping its leaders find themselves and discover their passions.

P.A.W. Journey has recognized and responded to the needs of an ever-growing sophisticated scholar-athlete. Through changing landscapes, the expectations of what it means to be a Clemson Tiger will continue to rise and be met with the empowerment afforded through P.A.W. Journey.

The Clemson program is constantly preparing its scholar-athletes for life through the innovative and unique program called P.A.W. Journey. P.A.W., which stands for "passionate about winning," positions scholar-athletes to maintain a continually competitive posture towards all aspects of life.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney consistently emphasizes to his scholar-athletes that football creates options and cultivates skills that each young leader uses for a lifetime. P.A.W. Journey serves as a guiding light to fulfill that vision through its daily work and the long-standing relationships it produces.

P.A.W. Journey holistically develops football scholar-athletes through personal growth, life skills and career and professional development. The pillars, Striped, C.U. in Life and 5th Quarter, work harmoniously together to develop the whole man.

Striped intentionally identifies and fosters each individual's sense of purpose and promotes maturity throughout his leadership development. This pillar helps leaders build character through, among other ways, overcoming challenges to ultimately achieve strength and maturity.

C.U. in Life equips the young men with transferable skills and provides opportunities to serve in domestic and global impacts. Initiatives within this program teach scholar-athletes critical life skills necessary to earn respect and become impactful men of society.

The 5th Quarter pillar instills practical professionalism through the ability to enhance business acumen, expand networks and gain purposeful employment. The pillar ensures that each leader serves as an example in the marketplace through internships, shadowing opportunities and developmental workshops.

To address the needs of its alumni, P.A.W. Journey introduced its newest pillar, Overtime. Serving as a way to connect and remain engaged with Clemson, Overtime demonstrates the lifetime commitment of the program to its leaders and Tiger football alumni base.

P.A.W. Journey is unique to Clemson and is an influential leader in the player development industry. P.A.W. Journey's distinction and dedicated personnel, led by Jeff Davis, Savannah Bailey, Rashard Hall, Antoine McClain and Karli Welch, engage scholar-athletes from the time they step foot on campus through their graduation and beyond.

"With everything great about Clemson football, P.A.W. Journey was the outlier that made me commit to Clemson," explained defensive end K.J. Henry. "Many schools have a group that will try to help you with life after football, but it's a different level here and it is Clemson's way of being above everyone else."

CLEMSON APPLIED SCIENCE LAB

Clemson Applied Science Lab (CASL) has a very simple mission: "Carry out the vision of the head football coach by providing confidence to student-athletes that their physical and technical development is constantly advancing."

Director of Applied Science Alex Bina has done everything in his power to ensure that those words ring true and Clemson student-athletes are given every possible opportunity to both improve performance and physically recover, using any and all modern technologies available.

The two key focuses of CASL are maximizing performance and expediting recovery.

The ultimate goal is quantifying body performance. Once the body and its abilities are put into numerical terms, it becomes considerably easier to determine what needs to be improved and the best possible route to enhance it.

Throughout the yearly training cycle, athletes are evaluated using technologies that leverage motion capture, force plates, sensory station, augmented reality, force transducers and GPS sensors in order to quantify athletic development. Through this process, an athlete's body composition, movement efficiency, vertical jump performance, cognitive reasoning skills, hamstring strength and on-field speed become clear to both coach and athlete alike.

By building a database of the "Clemson Effect" on athlete development and performance, the Clemson football staff can continue to build championship teams for future generations of Tiger players.

Not only does CASL provide coaches and student-athletes with quantitative data with which they can analyze performance, it also is a key resource for student-athletes to use during the recovery process. Bina stressed that quick and healthy recovery is the priority of the staff at CASL.

The path to success in recovery is a two-step process. The first is communication and collaboration between the student-athlete and their strength & conditioning coach, nutrition and sports medicine experts and their sports psychologist. The second step is using the established baseline scores of the student-athlete as targets for return-to-play protocols and as a foundation for injury-prevention training.

Clemson Applied Science Lab concerns itself heavily with the mental aspect of sports performance. Student-athletes get access to a sensory-deprivation float tank, which eliminates all external stimuli and gives the closest estimation of "true peace" possible. This also improves sleep quality, which is a large part of both mental and physical performance. Along with sensory deprivation tanks, CASL utilizes cryotherapy to further stimulate recovery.

Bina has always been interested in bioengineering, which is the degree he earned from Penn State. Bina, who is also pursuing his Ph.D. at Clemson, is implementing a simple plan, which is to "learn how the body works as a machine and put students in a position to manipulate that machine to improve recovery and performance."

Tiger players have been responding very positively to the work that Bina and CASL have done for them, and as a program, Clemson has seen tremendous success in terms of both their players' short and long-term recoveries.

Bina wants to ensure that "everything possible is being done for them" in order to get them back to their peak performance as healthily and as quickly as possible.

As far as long-term and overarching goals and aspirations for CASL, Bina offered the following.

"When we talk about, 'Best is the Standard,' that means in all ways possible. This is just another piece of that puzzle."

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

As part of the Allen N. Reeves Football Complex that opened on Feb. 1, 2017, the Tiger program opened one of the top strength training facilities in the nation. The 23,000 square-foot football facility has all the latest in modern strength training that helps the Tigers prepare year-round.

The facility includes 20 inlay platforms, 30 pieces of cardio equipment, a full line of fatbells, kettlebells and dumbbells, eight different training zones and a nutrition bar.

The facility also has the latest high-tech sound system, many flatscreens and the best lighting available that puts wall graphics in full view, leading to the best possible work environment.

The facility is attached to the indoor football facility and faces the outdoor practice facility, making for the most convenient and efficient facility in the nation.

RUNNING DOWN THE HILL

What has been described by television commentator Brent Musburger as "the most exciting 25 seconds in college football" from a color and pageantry standpoint actually started out as a matter-of-fact entrance, mainly because of necessity.

The first 20,000 seats in Memorial Stadium were built and ready for use before the 1942 season, less than a year after Pearl Harbor was bombed and the U.S. was drawn into World War II.

The shortest entry into Memorial Stadium was a short walk down Williamson Road from Fike Fieldhouse's dressing rooms to a gate at the top of the Hill, located behind the east endzone. There were no dressing facilities inside the west endzone...there was only a giant clock, where the hands turned, and a scoreboard that was operated by hand.

Players would dress in Fike Fieldhouse, walk down Williamson Road, enter at the gate underneath where the scoreboard now stands and jog down the Hill for their warmup exercises. There was little fanfare, no cannon shot fired, no Tiger Paw flag and no "Tiger Rag" played...just the team making its entrance and lining up to do the side-straddle hop. That is the way things went for the next 25 years.

In 1964 or 1965, Sam Jones (Clemson class of 1919) made a trip to California. He stopped at a spot in Death Valley, Calif. and picked up a white flint rock. He presented the rock to Head Coach Frank Howard as being from Death Valley, California to Death Valley, South Carolina.

The rock laid on Howard's office floor in Fike Fieldhouse for years. One day, he was cleaning up his office and told Gene Willimon (executive secretary of IPTAY) to "take this rock and throw it over the fence or out in the ditch...do something with it, but get it out of my office!"

Willimon did not think that was the way a rock should be treated. After all, it had been brought over 1,900 miles by a very sincere Tiger fan.

By the mid 1960s, Memorial Stadium was living up to its moniker ("Death Valley") because of the number of Tiger wins that had been recorded there. Actually, the name was first used by Lonnie McMillan, head coach at Presbyterian during the 1940s.

McMillan and the other Blue Hose coaches before him opened each season by playing at Clemson. Seldom scoring (24 shutouts in 39 games) and with only three wins and four ties, his teams were getting "killed" by the Tigers regularly.

In 1948, McMillan made the remark to the press that he was taking his team to play Clemson in "Death Valley." An occasional reference to Memorial Stadium by that name could be heard for the next four years, but when Howard started calling it "Death Valley" in the 1950s, the name took off like wildfire. Clemson celebrated its 79th year in the "Valley" in 2020 with a 6-0 home record and its fourth straight undefeated home campaign.

But getting back to Howard's Rock.

It was mounted on a pedestal at the top of the Hill on the east side of the stadium. It was unveiled Sept. 24, 1966, when Clemson played Virginia. The Tigers trailed by 18 points with 17 minutes left and came back to win 40-35 on a 75-yard pass from Jimmy Addison to Jacky Jackson in the fourth quarter. That was quite a debut for Howard's Rock.

The team members started rubbing Howard's Rock prior to running down the Hill on Sept. 23, 1967, a day when Clemson defeated Wake Forest 23-6.

Prior to running down the Hill, Howard told his players, "If you're going to give 110 percent, you can rub that Rock. If you're not, keep your filthy hands off it!"

Howard told of the incident the following day on his television show, and the story became legend.

When Hootie Ingram succeeded Howard as head coach in 1970, he made the logical decision that the team would make its final entrance out of the new dressing room in the west endzone.

In all home games in 1970 and 1971 and the first four games of 1972 when the Tigers did not run down the Hill, their combined record was 6-9.

The seniors, led by Ben Anderson, decided to come down the Hill prior to the South Carolina game, the 1972 finale. The result, in a cold, freezing rain, was a 7-6 victory when Jimmy Williamson knocked down a two-point conversion attempt, which preserved the narrow win.

Clemson has made the entrance before every home game since 1942, except for the years mentioned and the first game of 1973 (415 times entering 2021).

After final warmups, the team gathers back in its dressing room under the west endzone stands for its final pregame instructions. Ten minutes prior to kickoff, the team boards three buses, rides around behind the north stands to the east endzone and disembarks to the top of the Hill behind Howard's Rock.

At the appointed time, the cannon booms, and led by a giant Tiger Paw flag carried by cheerleaders and Rally Cats, the band forms two lines for the team to run between and strikes up "Tiger Rag." The frenzy starts in all sincerity and usually lasts three hours.

It is a tradition that has inspired Clemson players for many years. USA Today agrees, as it rated it the best entrance in the nation in 2017.

MEMORIAL STADIUM

Memorial Stadium has been held in high esteem for many years. Whether it be players from the 1940s and 1950s, opposing players from the 1970s and 1980s, professional stars in the 1990s or Tiger players from the 21st century, the ambiance of this special setting is what college football is all about.

The storied edifice added to its legend when the first meeting of father-and-son head coaches (Bowden Bowl I) took place before a record crowd of 86,092 fans in 1999. Clemson has finished in the top 20 in the country in average home attendance 40 straight seasons. In 2020, Clemson was seventh in the nation and first in the ACC in average home attendance.

The legend was further enhanced in 2020, when the Tigers registered a 6-0 home record for a fourth straight year to extend their home winning streak to a school-record 28 games. Since the advent of the College Football Playoff prior to the 2014 season, Clemson is 47-1 at home, the highest home winning percentage in the country.

Those impressive numbers were a few of many reasons Stadium Journey rated Clemson as having the No. 10 stadium experience in the country for all sports in 2017 and No. 1 for the sport of college football.

The facility's mystique is derived from its many traditions, which date to its opening in the 1942 season, the leg-endary games and players and Clemson's corresponding rate of success. Entering 2021, the Tigers have totaled 322 wins in 79 years and have won nearly 76 percent of the contests (322-102-7). Visiting defending national champions are 0-3 all-time at Memorial Stadium as well.

The stadium has definitely been good to the Tigers, but it was constructed against the advice of one coach. Before Jess Neely left for Rice after the 1939 season, he gave Clemson a message.

"Don't ever let them talk you into building a big stadium," he said. "Put about 10,000 seats behind the YMCA. That's all you'll ever need."

Instead of following Neely's advice, Clemson officials decided to build the new stadium in a valley on the western part of campus. The place took some clearing, as there were many trees, but luckily there were no hedges.

The crews went to work, clearing, cutting, pouring and forming. On Sept. 19, 1942, Memorial Stadium opened with Clemson defeating Presbyterian 32-13. Those 20,000 seats installed for the opener would soon grow.

When the original part of the stadium was built in the early 1940s, much of the work was done by scholarship athletes, including football players. The first staking out of the stadium was done by two members of the football team, A.N. Cameron and Hugh Webb. Webb returned to Clemson years later to be an architecture professor and Cameron became a civil engineer in Louisiana.

The construction of Memorial Stadium did not proceed without problems. One afternoon during the clearing of the land, a young player proudly announced that he was not allergic to poison oak. He then proceeded to attack the poison oak with a swing blade, throwing the plants to and fro. The next day, the boy was swollen twice his size and was hospitalized.

MEMORIAL STADIUM

There are many other stories about the stadium, including one that Frank Howard put a chew of tobacco in each corner as the concrete was poured.

Howard said that the seeding of the grass caused a few problems.

"About 40 people and I laid sod on the field. After three weeks on July 15, we had only gotten about halfway through.

"I told them that it had taken us three weeks to get that far and I would give them three more weeks' pay for however long it took to finish. I also told them we would have 50 gallons of ice cream when we got through.

"After that, it took them three days to do the rest of the field. Then we sat down in the middle of the field and ate up that whole 50 gallons."

Howard said on the day of the first game in the stadium, "The gates were hung at 1 p.m. and we played at 2 p.m." But that would be all of the construction for awhile.

Then in 1958, 18,000 sideline seats were added, and in 1960, 5,658 west endzone seats were added in response to increasing attendance. With the large east endzone ("Green Grass" section), this expansion increased capacity to 53,000.

Later, upper decks were added to each side of the stadium as crowds swelled, the first in 1978 and the second in 1983. It increased capacity to over 80,000, which makes it one of the largest on-campus stadiums in the country. In 2005, the WestZone was added, an area that contains locker rooms, offices, a student-athlete enrichment center and luxury club level that holds over 1,000 seats.

The effect that inflation has had can be dramatically seen in the differences in stadium construction. The original part of Memorial Stadium was built at a cost of only $125,000, or $6.25 per seat. Memorial Stadium's newest upper deck was finished in 1983 at a cost of $13.5 million, or $866 per seat.

In October 2019, the Clemson University Board of Trustees approved stadium plans to improve campus connectivity, enhance fan experience and add new premium seating opportunities for future seasons.

The proposal included a new videoboard measuring approximately 126 feet wide by 57 feet tall (7,166 square feet), or nearly five times the current videoboard's surface area, as well as a new sound system and LED lighting at Memorial Stadium.

Through the years, Memorial Stadium has become known as "Death Valley" across the country. It was tagged by Presbyterian Head Coach Lonnie McMillan during the late 1940s. After bringing his teams to Clemson for many years and getting whipped, he said the place was like "Death Valley." A few years later, the name stuck.

In 1974, the playing surface was named Frank Howard Field for the legendary coach because of his long service and dedication to Clemson University.

Luckily, it wasn't built behind the YMCA.

IPTAY, founded in 1934, was one of the first scholarship fundraising organization in college athletics. Its roots trace back to Oct. 16, 1931 following a surprising 6-0 football loss against The Citadel.

After the game, Captains Frank Jervey and Pete Heffner along with Head Coach Jess Neely and Assistant Coach Joe Davis met in a car outside the stadium in Florence, S.C. to discuss various ways Clemson could establish its football program to a competitive status.

Shortly after the meeting, Dr. Rupert Fike offered his help after corresponding with Jervey. Neely believed he could run a successful football team if he was provided a $10,000-a-year increase in scholarships.

Initially, Jervey called for members to pay $30 a year, but Fike recommended a smaller amount of money, which he believed would lead to more members joining. Fike charged 100 people to step forward and pay $10 a year, which is where the name IPTAY (I Pay Ten A Year) originated.

In 1934, the first year of IPTAY, over $1,600 was raised. Some donors negotiated payments in the form of bartering because of the Great Depression. Milk, sweet potatoes, turnip greens and other goods were accepted in an attempt to build a solid membership base.

However, the hard work of Fike and his colleagues began to pay off during the 1939 season, as the Tigers went to their first bowl game, the 1940 Cotton Bowl, where they beat Boston College 6-3 and finished in the top 25 of the AP poll. Coincidentally, IPTAY reached Neely's $10,000 goal for the first time in 1939.

In more recent years, IPTAY's growth of support for Clemson student-athletes has continued to grow. In addition to athletic scholarships, IPTAY also provides funding for new and upgraded facilities, strength & conditioning, nutrition services, life skills and more. IPTAY is also a strong supporter of Tiger Band through support of new uniforms and travel expenses.

IPTAY is considered by many to be the father of athletic fundraising. It was the first organization in the nation to build and fund an academic support facility built solely for educational support of student-athletes.

Vickery Hall opened in 1991 and established itself as a nationally-recognized program for student-athlete support. The program moved to the Nieri Family Student-Athlete Enrichment Center at the west endzone of Memorial Stadium in 2017.

The IPTAY Collegiate Club, started in 1997, continues to be the model student fundraising organization in the country. Additional IPTAY youth programs include Tiger Cub Club and IPTAY CATS (Clemson Active Teen Support). The IPTAY representative program continues to be a leadership group that grows the IPTAY organization through its role as volunteer annual fundraisers.

IPTAY introduced the endowment of positions program under former Executive Director George Bennett. IPTAY implemented the program in 1994 during the 85th-birthday celebration for former Clemson Head Coach Frank Howard. The first endowment honored Howard, who coached the Tigers for 39 seasons and established much of Clemson football's storied traditions.

The Riggs giving level, established in 2015, is IPTAY's highest annual donation level. IPTAY, led by CEO Davis Babb, has expanded its organizational service to move toward a broader scope of full service. This includes capital gifts, improved marketing plans, estate planning and increasing our membership through our IPTAY representative program.

For more information on how to support IPTAY and Clemson University student-athletes, call the IPTAY office at 1-800-CLEMSON or log on to our website, ClemsonTigers.com/IPTAY.

THE NEW IPTAY CENTER OPENED AT MEMORIAL STADIUM IN 2019.

CLEMSON DEVELOPMENT

Each year, The Athletic re-ranks recruiting classes using the following grade scale.

5 points: All-American, award winner, top-50 NFL Draft pick; 4: Multiyear starter, all-conference honors; 3: One-year starter or key reserve; 2: Career backup; 0: Minor or no contribution, left the program. The outlet also adds a bonus to each program's class average, derived from its total number of wins from 2017 through 2020 (e.g.: For re-ranking the Class of 2017, Clemson won 51 games, so its class averages received a bonus of 0.51).

Head Coach Dabo Swinney has pointed out that Clemson often drops in rankings for signing smaller recruiting classes as a function of lower attrition than other programs, as well as noting that much of the Tigers' on-field success is a function of the program's development. The re-rankings illustrate Clemson's pristine recent track record of talent identification, culture fit, resource allocation and player development.

Note: Initial rank according to 247 Composite

Clemson's recruiting classes have finished in the top 15 of at least one of three primary recruiting services (ESPN, Rivals, 247 Sports) every year since 2011. Clemson is one of only seven schools in the country to produce a top-15 class in each of the last 11 recruiting cycles, a group that also includes Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, LSU, Notre Dame and Ohio State.

2020 GAME RECAPS

CLEMSON	37
WAKE FOREST	13

SEPT. 12, 2020
TRUIST FIELD • WINSTON-SALEM, N.C.

A stellar outing by quarterback Trevor Lawrence and a Clemson-record 18th career 100-yard rushing performance by running back Travis Etienne led No. 1 Clemson to a 37-13 victory over Wake Forest in front of only 68 people in the first game under COVID-19 protocols.

Lawrence went 22-of-28 for 351 yards and a touchdown along with two touchdown runs. With 102 yards, Etienne passed Wayne Gallman (17 from 2014-16) for Clemson's career 100-yard rushing games record.

Defensively, Winston-Salem native K.J. Henry recorded the first of Clemson's six sacks on the night. Myles Murphy (2.0) and Bryan Bresee (0.5) each contributed sacks to become Clemson's first true freshmen with sacks in a season-opener since 2016.

Lawrence's two rushing touchdowns gave the Tigers a 14-0 first quarter lead, marking his first career game with multiple rushing touchdowns. His first passing touchdown of the season was a 12-yard strike to tight end J.C. Chalk in the second quarter.

A career-long-tying 52-yard B.T. Potter field goal as the first half expired gave Clemson a 27-0 halftime lead. During the game, Potter broke Mark Buchholz's Clemson record for consecutive PATs (88 from 2007-08).

Clemson carried a 37-3 lead into the fourth quarter before surrendering the final 10 points. The Tigers played 78 of their 80 available players in the contest.

THE CITADEL	0
CLEMSON	49

SEPT. 19, 2020
MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

No. 1 Clemson won its home opener in front of a socially distanced crowd of 18,609 fans at Memorial Stadium, defeating The Citadel by a score of 49-0. The victory marked Clemson's 31st consecutive regular season win, passing the 2013-15 Florida State Seminoles for the longest such streak in ACC history.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence went 8-of-9 passing for 168 yards with three passing touchdowns and a rushing touchdown. Freshman quarterback D.J. Uiagalelei added his first two career scores on the ground.

All of Clemson's points came in a 49-point first half, Clemson's most points in the first two quarters of play since scoring 49 against Temple in a 63-9 victory on Oct. 12, 2006.

Clemson's defense held the Bulldogs to just 162 total yards and added a score of its own when linebacker James Skalski returned a fumble 17 yards for the first touchdown of his career. Freshman Myles Murphy added two tackles for loss and forced the fumble that led to the Skalski scoop-and-score.

Wide receiver Frank Ladson Jr. recorded career highs in receptions (three), receiving yards (87) and receiving touchdowns (two).

Clemson produced its first shutout since the 2016 Fiesta Bowl, a 31-0 win against Ohio State. It was Clemson's first regular season shutout since a 54-0 win against Syracuse in 2016. The shutout was Clemson's seventh under Head Coach Dabo Swinney, and its fifth home shutout in his tenure.

OCT. 3, 2020
MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

Clemson improved to 3-0 with a 41-23 win against Virginia at Memorial Stadium. The win extended Clemson's winning streak on Saturdays to 46, passing the 1953-57 Oklahoma Sooners for the longest such streak in FBS history.

Trevor Lawrence was 25-for-38 passing for 329 yards and three touchdowns, including two to Amari Rodgers. Travis Etienne totaled 187 yards from scrimmage, including 73 on the ground and a career-high and Clemson running back record 114 through the air.

Clemson's defense picked off Virginia quarterback Brennan Armstrong twice. Nolan Turner recorded the Tigers' first interception of the season in the second quarter, and on the first drive of the second half, Andrew Booth Jr. made a spectacular one-handed interception, the first of his career, in the corner of the end zone.

Lyn-J Dixon returned the opening kickoff of the game for a career-long 52 yards, setting the tone for Clemson to run out to a 24-3 lead before a late second-quarter Virginia touchdown made it 24-10 Clemson at the half.

The Tigers opened the second half scoring off the Booth interception with a 42-yard Potter field goal. The Cavaliers answered with a touchdown before Etienne recorded his second score of the game to give Clemson a 34-17 lead. Chez Mellusi added a fourth quarter two-yard rushing touchdown, his first of the season and first since the 2019 ACC Championship against the Cavaliers, to extend the Tiger lead to 41-17 before a late Virginia touchdown brought the final score to 41-23.

No. 1 Clemson earned a 42-17 victory over No. 7 Miami (Fla.) in Clemson's first regular season matchup of Top 10 teams since 2016.

Clemson's defense kept the Hurricanes offense in check all night, allowing only 210 yards, while the offense piled up 550. Sheridan Jones, Derion Kendrick and Kane Patterson each had an interception while the Clemson pass rush totaled five sacks.

Trevor Lawrence completed 29-of-41 passes for 292 yards and three touchdowns and Travis Etienne ran for 149 yards and two scores and caught a game-high eight passes for 73 yards. Etienne's second rushing touchdown was the 60th of his career, making him only the 12th player in official FBS records to score 60 career rushing touchdowns

Braden Galloway produced the first multi-touchdown game by a Clemson tight end since 2016, catching touchdown passes of 24 and 11 yards. Davis Allen added his first career touchdown as well to give Clemson tight ends three touchdowns in the contest.

Clemson controlled the ball for 12:31 of the first quarter and ran 25 plays to Miami's six. At halftime, Clemson held a 21-3 advantage in first downs.

Miami scored its first touchdown of the game on the final play of the first half, blocking a 61-yard field goal attempt by B.T. Potter and returning it 48 yards for a touchdown. It was one of three Miami field goal blocks.

Clemson's 25-point win represented its sixth victory of 25 points or more against an AP Top 10 opponent all-time.

No. 1 Clemson cruised to the largest conference win in ACC history, defeating Georgia Tech, 73-7, at Bobby Dodd Stadium.

Clemson scored a modern-era school-record 52 first-half points, as Trevor Lawrence was 22-for-27 passing for 391 yards and five touchdowns in the first half alone. Lawrence finished with a career-high 404 passing yards. Wide receiver Amari Rodgers found the end zone twice in a career-high 161 yard performance as 17 different Tigers caught a pass, the most in the Dabo Swinney era.

Among those with a touchdown was defensive tackle Nyles Pinckney, who scored on a one-yard touchdown run in the second quarter. Travis Etienne scored a three-yard rushing touchdown in the second quarter as well, giving him 408 career points to break Chandler Catanzaro's school record of 404.

The Tiger defense forced three turnovers and totaled four sacks. Clemson held Georgia Tech to seven first downs, its second straight game holding its opponent to single-digit first downs.

Chez Mellusi, Kobe Pace and Ajou Ajou added second half touchdowns. Pace's came on Hunter Helms's first career touchdown pass. Ajou's touchdown, also from Helms, marked the first of his career as well.

Top-ranked Clemson improved to 6-0 with a 47-21 victory over Syracuse. After Clemson raced out to a 17-0 lead, Syracuse pulled to within six points at 27-21 before Clemson rattled off 20 unanswered points to seal the game.

The Tigers' defense forced a momentum-swinging strip-sack in the third quarter that was returned for a touchdown by Andrew Booth Jr. Clemson also had three interceptions, one each by Nolan Turner, Mike Jones Jr. and Jalyn Phillips.

Travis Etienne scored three rushing touchdowns on 16 carries and totaled 86 yards on the ground. Trevor Lawrence was 27-of-43 passing for 289 yards and two touchdowns.

Syracuse returned a Lawrence interception 39 yards for a touchdown and the Tigers responded with another Potter field goal to give them a 27-14 lead as the first half expired. With Clemson's fumble return touchdown and Syracuse's interception return touchdown, the game was Clemson's first in which both teams recorded a defensive touchdown since 2014 when Clemson's Jadar Johnson and South Carolina State's Dominique Mitchell each scored via fumble return.

The win gave Clemson a school-record 26-game home unbeaten streak. Clemson went unbeaten in 25 straight games at Memorial Stadium from 1980-84 with 23 wins and two ties in that span.

BOSTON COLLEGE	28
CLEMSON	34

OCT. 31, 2020
MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

No. 1 Clemson scored 24 unanswered points to overcome an 18-point deficit to defeat Boston College, 34-28 at Death Valley. The comeback tied for the second-largest in school history and was Clemson's largest at Memorial Stadium all-time.

Running back Travis Etienne totaled 224 all-purpose yards, including 84 rushing on 20 carries, becoming the ACC's all-time leading rusher by breaking the record held by NC State's Ted Brown (4,602) since 1978. His 140 receiving yards also broke his own school running back record set earlier this season against Virginia (114).

Making his first career start, quarterback D.J. Uiagalelei dazzled, going 30-for-41 passing for 342 yards and two touchdowns. He also added 25 yards and a touchdown on the ground after learning on Thursday he would start in place of Trevor Lawrence, who missed the game after testing positive for COVID-19.

The Eagles scored on their opening two possessions, and Clemson was one yard away from tying the game at 14 when Boston College picked up a fumbled exchange and returned it 97 yards for a touchdown for a 21-7 lead. Boston College extended the lead to 28-10 with 1:02 remaining in the second quarter, but a B.T. Potter 50-yard field goal cut Clemson's halftime deficit to 15.

Clemson outscored Boston College in the third quarter, 13-0, to cut the lead to two on a touchdown run and touchdown pass by Uiagalelei. Clemson took its first lead early in the fourth quarter on a 17-yard touchdown run by Etienne. The Eagles had the ball at their four-yard line with 1:24 remaining, but on the drive's first play, freshman Bryan Bresee forced an intentional grounding penalty in the endzone for a safety to seal the win.

NOTRE DAME (2OT)	47

NOV. 7, 2020
NOTRE DAME STADIUM • NOTRE DAME, IND.

No. 1 Clemson fell to No. 4 Notre Dame, 47-40, in double overtime in the highest-ranked matchup of ACC squads in conference history.

The Irish jumped out to an early 10-0 lead. The Tigers responded with a 53-yard bomb from D.J. Uiagalelei to Cornell Powell. Powell finished with a career-high 161 yards on six receptions. Uiagalelei finished with 439 passing yards, the most ever surrendered by Notre Dame.

The second quarter saw the two teams exchange field goals before an Etienne fumble was recovered by Notre Dame and returned for a touchdown to give the Irish a 20-10 advantage before ultimately going into halftime at 23-13 in favor of Notre Dame.

The Tigers scored 10 consecutive points to open the third, tying the game at 23. Another Notre Dame field goal gave the Irish a 26-23 lead, which was quickly erased by B.T. Potter's career-high fourth field goal of the game. With 9:14 remaining and the score locked at 26-26, Uiagalelei led the Tigers on a 12-play, 74-yard touchdown drive lasting 5:41 capped by a Travis Etienne three-yard touchdown run to give Clemson the lead.

On its last possession of regulation, Notre Dame cashed in on a 91-yard touchdown drive that sent the game into overtime. Both teams scored touchdowns in the first frame, but when Notre Dame opened the second overtime period with a score, the Tigers allowed two sacks to thwart the comeback bid.

GAME 9

PITTSBURGH	17
CLEMSON	52

NOV. 28, 2020
MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

No. 4 Clemson defeated Pitt, 52-17, on Senior Day behind a 403-yard passing performance by Trevor Lawrence in his return from a two-game absence. Clemson forced five turnovers, including four interceptions, two from cornerback Mario Goodrich. The game was Clemson's first in 21 days, its longest regular season layoff since 1918.

The Tigers raced out to a 31-0 lead behind 31 first-quarter points, a school record against an FBS opponent. E.J. Williams, wearing No. 39 to honor his father on Military Appreciation Day, opened the scoring with his first career touchdown catch. Cornell Powell added a first-quarter score amid a career-high 176 receiving yards and became only the third Tiger ever to post at least 150 receiving yards in back-to-back games.

The Tigers took a 38-10 lead into halftime, but a Lawrence fumble on the opening play of the second half led to a Panthers touchdown that cut the deficit to 21 points. After the two teams traded several punts, Travis Etienne cashed in his second score on a three-yard touchdown run. A late Chez Mellusi receiving touchdown from D.J. Uiagalelei brought the final score to 52-17.

With the victory on Senior Day, Clemson's 2020 seniors finished 27-0 at home, the first Clemson class to go undefeated at Death Valley and the first FBS class to go undefeated at home since Boise State and Oklahoma in 2010.

No. 4/3 Clemson defeated Virginia Tech, 45-10, to advance to its sixth consecutive ACC Championship Game. With the win, Trevor Lawrence (33-1) passed Rodney Williams, Tajh Boyd and Deshaun Watson to become the winningest starting quarterback in school history.

Tied at 10-10 early in the second quarter, Clemson rattled off 35 unanswered points for the victory.

Clemson opened the scoring with a 28-yard B.T. Potter field goal, but the Hokies responded to take their only lead of the game on a seven-play, 75-yard touchdown drive. The Tigers regained the advantage when Lawrence scampered for a 17-yard score.

After a 54-yard Virginia Tech field goal evened the score at 10-10, Lyn-J Dixon capped off a 75-yard drive with a 19-yard touchdown run. The Tigers escaped with a 17-10 halftime lead after a hail mary pass was caught at the one-yard line as the half expired.

After Myles Murphy forced his third fumble of the season, Clemson cashed in on the turnover with a seven-yard Lawrence touchdown run to open the second-half scoring. Derion Kendrick later scooped a Virginia Tech fumble and returned it 66 yards for a touchdown to give Clemson a 31-10 third quarter lead.

In the fourth quarter, Lawrence found Cornell Powell for a 65-yard touchdown. Darien Rencher, who won the Disney Spirit Award earlier in the week, capped the scoring by taking a handoff 50 yards for his first touchdown of the season and the longest rush of his career.

No. 3 Clemson won its sixth straight outright ACC title with a commanding 34-10 win against No. 2 Notre Dame. Trevor Lawrence, who did not play in a November loss to Notre Dame, completed 25-of-36 passes for 322 yards and two touchdowns and added a 34-yard touchdown run among his 90 rushing yards to earn MVP.

The Tigers held the Fighting Irish to just 263 yards and sacked quarterback Ian Book six times. James Skalski, who became the first player to ever appear in five ACC championships, recorded a sack and five total tackles.

Notre Dame opened the scoring with a 51-yard field goal on the first drive of the game. After a missed 24-yard attempt on the Irish's next drive, the Tigers quickly capitalized with a 67-yard touchdown bomb from Lawrence to Amari Rodgers to take a 7-3 lead, starting a run of 34 consecutive Clemson points.

After a 33-yard E.J. Williams touchdown and a 27-yard B.T. Potter field goal, on a fourth and one in the final minute of the half, Etienne pushed the halftime lead to 24-3 on a 44-yard touchdown run.

Lawrence opened the second half scoring with a 34-yard touchdown scamper. Potter added another field goal. The Fighting Irish scored their lone points of the second half on a 21-yard run to bring the score to 34-10.

The game represented only the fourth time in the AP Poll era that two teams faced one another twice in a single season with both teams ranked in the AP Top 5 for both meetings. Clemson's win improved teams that lost the first meeting to 4-0 in those rematches, with the team that lost the first game winning the rematch by at least 21 points in all four meetings.

No. 2 Clemson fell to No. 3 Ohio State in the Allstate Sugar Bowl by a score of 49-28. Clemson ended the 125th season in school history with a 10-2 mark.

Heisman Trophy finalist Trevor Lawrence fell to 34-2 for his career as Clemson's starting quarterback while throwing for 400 yards on 33-for-48 passing.

Lawrence opened a high-scoring first quarter on the first possession of the game with a two-yard rushing touchdown. The Buckeyes responded with a touchdown to even the score at seven. Travis Etienne found the end zone on a three-yard rush, becoming the ACC's all-time leading scorer (468) on the play.

Ohio State would score touchdowns on each of its next four drives, giving them five consecutive touchdown drives of 75 yards or more, to take a 35-14 advantage into halftime.

On the first possession of the second half, Mike Jones Jr. intercepted OSU quarterback Justin Fields in the Clemson end zone. Clemson capitalized on the turnover with a nine-play, 80-yard drive, culminating in a 10-yard touchdown pass from Lawrence to Cornell Powell.

The Tigers' comeback effort was quickly thwarted when Fields connected on a 56-yard touchdown to Chris Olave to extend the Buckeye lead to 42-21. Another long touchdown pass by Ohio State put the game out of reach.

Lawrence found Powell for another touchdown, but the Buckeyes secured their first ever win over Clemson and advanced to the College Football Playoff National Championship.

CLEMSON RING OF HONOR MEMBERS

The Clemson Ring of Honor is the highest honor a Tiger student-athlete can receive. A recipient must first be a member of the Clemson Hall of Fame, earn at least an undergraduate degree and make a significant contribution to the heritage of Tiger athletics. Honorees will have their jersey retired. Nine members of the football program and one football team are in the Ring of Honor.

FOOTBALL RING OF HONOR MEMBERS

1981 FOOTBALL TEAM

The 1981 football team was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor during the fall of 2006 in conjunction with the team's 25-year anniversary celebration of winning the national title. Every player, coach, manager and administrator associated with that team is considered in the Ring of Honor within the team concept. The Tigers had a perfect 12-0 record that season, as they defeated Nebraska by a score of 22-15 in the 1982 Orange Bowl to claim the National Championship. For more information on Clemson's 1981 squad, see page 8.

JERRY BUTLER

Jerry Butler joined teammate Steve Fuller in the Clemson Ring of Honor in 1999. The two-time All-ACC player was a first-team All-American in 1978 when he and Fuller led Clemson to a No. 6 national ranking and an 11-1 record. He had at least one reception in 36 consecutive games. In 1979, Butler was the No. 5 overall NFL draft pick by Buffalo, where he played at a Pro Bowl level for seven seasons.

FRED CONE

Fred Cone, who was inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1997, was the first player in Clemson history to rush for 2,000 yards in a career. Cone played for the Tigers from 1948-50. He is eighth on the Clemson career list for rushing touchdowns (30). Cone was a starter on two undefeated Clemson teams (1948,50), one of only two players in school history to accomplish that feat.

JEFF DAVIS

Jeff Davis, captain of the 1981 national title team, joined the Ring of Honor in 1995. He was a first-team All-American in 1981 when he led the team in tackles (175). Davis was also named ACC MVP and defensive MVP of the Orange Bowl win over Nebraska, the game that clinched the national championship for the Tigers. He was also inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in December 2007.

DANNY FORD

Danny Ford coached Clemson to the 1981 national title at the age of 33, still the youngest coach to win one. Ford won five ACC titles and six bowl games in his 11 years as the head coach. He had a 26-10-1 record against coaches in the College Football Hall of Fame, including wins over Joe Paterno, Barry Switzer, Woody Hayes, Vince Dooley, Steve Spurrier and Tom Osborne. He finished his Tiger career with a 96-29-4 record and his 76.0 winning percentage is still among the best in ACC history. Ford was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor at the season-opening Georgia game of 2013 and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in December 2017.

STEVE FULLER

Steve Fuller was a charter member of the Ring of Honor in 1994. He is one of three football players in Clemson history to be chosen as an All-American on the field and in the classroom in the same year. Fuller was a two-time, first-team Academic All-American and a third-team All-American in 1978. He was the first Tiger to be named ACC Player-of-the-Year twice and was an NCAA Top Five Award winner in 1979, the only Tiger athlete to win the award.

FRANK HOWARD

Frank Howard was a charter member of the Ring of Honor in 1994. As head coach from 1940-69, he led Clemson to eight league championships, six bowl games and six top-25 seasons. Howard, who totaled 165 victories, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1989.

TERRY KINARD

Terry Kinard (1979-82) was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor in 2001, the same year he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. The safety from Sumter, S.C. was named national defensive player-of-the-year by CBS Sports during his senior season in 1982. Kinard was named to the All Decade of the 1980's College Football team by USA Today and to the All-Century team by Sports Illustrated in 2000.

LEVON KIRKLAND

Levon Kirkland was a two-time All-American and three-time, First-Team All-ACC selection as an outside linebacker for the Tigers between 1988-91. He was a second-team All-American and a finalist for the Butkus Award on the 1990 team, which led the nation in total defense. He was also a first-team All-American in 1991. Kirkland was a second-round draft pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers and went on to an 11-year All-Pro career. He returned after his playing career to earn his Clemson degree and was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor in 2019.

BANKS McFADDEN

Banks McFadden was one of three charter members of the Clemson Ring of Honor in 1994. He was named the nation's most versatile athlete in 1939 when he was an All-American in football and basketball in the same calendar year, the only Tiger to accomplish that feat. He led the Tigers to their first bowl bid, a 6-3 victory over Boston College in the 1940 Cotton Bowl, and to the Southern Conference basketball title. He was the No. 4 overall pick of the 1940 NFL draft, tied for the highest in school history.

JACKSON CARMAN

2 Number of years Dalton Freeman (2011,12) and Kyle Young (2000,01) were finalists for the Rimington Trophy, which is given to the top center in the nation.

3 Number of consecutive years Kyle Young was named a First-Team Verizon Academic All-American, just the second three-time selection among offensive linemen in college football history. Young was also a two-time All-American on the field.

3 Number of First-Team All-ACC offensive linemen Clemson had in 2016 and 2017, the only two times the Tigers have had three first-team selections.

24 Number of all-conference selections by the Clemson offensive line from 2015-20, the most of any Power Five Conference school.

46 Jackson Carman's selection in the 2021 NFL draft, Clemson's highest-selected offensive lineman in 50 years.

3754 Number of career snaps from scrimmage for Mitch Hyatt, the most by a Tiger at any position in history. Hyatt won the ACC Jacobs Blocking Trophy in each of his final two seasons at Clemson.

AMARI RODGERS

1 Number of tight ends named to the ACC 50-Year Anniversary team. The only pick was former Tiger Bennie Cunningham, an All-America tight end in 1974 and 1975.

2 Number of times Jordan Leggett was a Mackey Award finalist

6 Number of consecutive years Clemson has had a wide receiver selected in the NFL draft, the nation's longest active streak.

11 Number of Tiger wide receivers drafted since the 2013 NFL draft, most in the nation. Also, the number of ACC receiving-yardage champions Clemson has had. That includes DeAndre Hopkins in 2012 and Sammy Watkins in 2013.

50 Number of receptions for Dwayne Allen in 2011, when he earned the Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end.

747 Number of career receptions for DeAndre Hopkins since he entered the NFL in 2013, the most in the league during that span.

1902 Combined receiving yards by Amari Rodgers and Cornell Powell in 2020 before both were selected in the 2021 NFL draft, Clemson's third draft under Head Coach Dabo Swinney with multiple wideouts selected.

QUARTERBACK TRADITION

TREVOR LAWRENCE

1 Overall selection for Trevor Lawrence by the Jacksonville Jaguars in the 2021 NFL draft, making him the first No. 1 overall pick in Clemson football history.

2 Number of quarterbacks in FBS history to pass for at least 4,000 yards and rush for 1,000 yards in a season. In 2015, Deshaun Watson was the first to accomplish the feat.

2 Finishes in the 2016 and 2020 Heisman Trophy voting by Deshaun Watson and Trevor Lawrence, tied for the highest finishes in Tiger history.

4 Number of victories without a loss Charlie Whitehurst had as a starting quarterback against South Carolina in his career (2002-05). He is the only starting signal-caller in series history to have a 4-0 record.

20 Touchdown passes and home runs for two-sport athlete Kyle Parker during the 2009-10 academic year, the first NCAA Division I athlete to reach 20 of each in one season. He became Clemson's 51st all-time major league player when he played with the Colorado Rockies in 2014.

30 Number of passing touchdowns by Trevor Lawrence in 2018 against only four interceptions, as he became the first first-year freshman starting quarterback to lead his team to the national title since 1985.

34 Career victories by Trevor Lawrence as a starting quarterback, breaking the Clemson record previously held by three Tigers. His 94.4 winning percentage (34-2) was third best by a starting quarterback with at least 30 starts since Division I split in 1978.

133 Tajh Boyd's career touchdown responsibility total, an ACC record. He had 107 passing TDs and 26 rushing scores.

DEFENSIVE BACK TRADITION

NOLAN TURNER

1 Round in which cornerback A.J. Terrell was drafted in 2020 with the No. 16 overall selection by the Falcons, Clemson's highest cornerback draft pick since 2006 All-Rookie pick Tye Hill.

2 Number of Super Bowls that Byron Maxwell played for the Seattle Seahawks, winning a title with the organization in 2013.

3 Number of players in Clemson's 2015 secondary that were named to one of the All-ACC teams: Mackensie Alexander, Jayron Kearse and Cordrea Tankersley. The only starter who was not an All-ACC pick was T.J. Green, a second-round 2016 NFL draft pick. Clemson's 2018, 2019 and 2020 secondaries also produced three All-ACC selections.

9 Number of Pro Bowls for Brian Dawkins, one of the NFL's best safeties. He has more Pro Bowl selections than any other former Tiger.

10 Number of NFL drafts in the last 13 years in which Clemson had at least one defensive back chosen.

10 Number of former Tiger defensive backs who played at least one NFL regular-season game in 2020.

22 Number of years in the last 26 seasons that Clemson has produced at least one All-ACC defensive back.

WALTER RIGGS

Walter Riggs could easily be called the father of Clemson Football. He coached the football program at Clemson, not only because he had football experience, but he was also one of only two people on the Clemson campus to have ever seen a football game when the sport started in 1896. (The other person was Frank Thompkins who played in the backfield on Clemson's first team in 1896).

On Sept. 30, 1896, a small crowd gathered in one of the barrack's rooms and the group discussed the feasibility of organizing a football association. A committee of three was appointed to consult Professor Riggs as to management of a football team and to ask his aid as coach.

When the Tigers traveled to Furman for their first game on Oct. 31, 1896, it was the first time that many of the players had ever seen a full-sized regulation football field.

Riggs stepped down as football coach after the first season because the players wanted him to devote all his time to being a professor in the engineering department.

Riggs could easily be called a loyal man, as he answered the need of the Clemson football team again in 1899. The Clemson Athletic Association was low on money and could not afford to hire a coach. Therefore, he again answered the call of the school and became head coach in 1899 for free.

Riggs originally came to Clemson from Auburn. He graduated with top honors in 1893 with a B.S. degree in electrical and mechanical engineering. At Auburn, he was captain and catcher of the baseball team as well as the manager and left end of the football team. He also served as class president and was the director of the Glee Club.

Upon his graduation at Auburn, he was assistant to the president of the college until 1896, then he made his trek to Clemson.

Riggs later became president of Clemson on March 7, 1911 and in 1915, a new football stadium with other athletic facilities was named in his honor as Riggs Field. It is currently the home of the Tiger soccer team. In two years of coaching, Riggs guided the Tigers to a career record of 6-3.

W.M. WILLIAMS

Clemson's second coach, W.M. Williams, was a native of West Point, Ga. He played at Auburn on the teams of 1894, 1895 and 1896, under the coaching of John Heisman. He was considered the best blocking halfback in the south. Williams led Clemson to the state championship and to a 2-2 season. During his time as coach, Clemson played two games in three days. Clemson was victorious over the Charlotte Y on October 23, but lost to North Carolina 28-0 on October 25.

The Tigers' third coach, J.A. Penton of Alabama, was captain and starting guard on the University of Virginia teams of 1893, 1894 and 1895. He was captain of the '95 Virginia team that beat North Carolina to win the Championship of the South. Penton also played fullback at Auburn in '97 under John Heisman's coaching. Under Penton, Clemson won 55-0 over Bingham in its first home game, as W.C. Forsythe kicked every point after touchdown (11). In his only season at Clemson, Penton guided Clemson to a 3-1 record and the state title.

One of the most famous football coaches in the nation, John Heisman, coached at Clemson from 1900-03. He turned Clemson from virtually an unknown college to a southern powerhouse at the turn of the century. Heisman attended Brown University, taking the two-year law course offered at that time, and was a center on the football team. During the fall of 1889, he transferred to Pennsylvania. He lettered in football at both schools and graduated from Pennsylvania in 1893.

In the spring of 1894, Walter Riggs was a graduate manager for the football team at Auburn. It fell on his shoulders to find a coach for the season of 1895. Riggs wrote to Carl Williams, the Pennsylvania captain of 1894, asking him to suggest a suitable coach. He replied recommending J.W. Heisman, an ex-Pennsylvania player, and his coach at Oberlin.

After several weeks, Riggs finally found Heisman in Texas, where he was raising tomatoes. Having sunk all of his capital into the tomato venture, he was glad to return to his old love. He readily went to coach at Auburn for $500 a year.

His coaching career began at Oberlin in 1892 and lasted 36 years. It included positions at Akron, Auburn, Clemson, Georgia Tech, Pennsylvania, Washington & Jefferson and Rice. He had an overall career record of 185-70-17.

John Heisman invented the hidden ball trick, the handoff, the double lateral and the "flea flicker." He pioneered the forward pass, arguing that it would scatter the mob. Heisman also originated the center snap and the word hike (previously the center used to roll the ball on the ground to the quarterback).

Heisman guided Clemson to conference titles in 1900 and 1902, and he led the Tigers to their first "bowl game" in 1903, when Clemson and Cumberland met on November 26 for the "Championship of the South." Cumberland, who had earlier defeated Auburn, Alabama and Vanderbilt, was considered to be champion of the southern states of Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee and Kentucky. The game was played on a neutral site, Montgomery, Ala. Cumberland and Clemson fought to an 11-11 tie. After the news got back to Clemson that the game was a tie, the students and the local townspeople built a bonfire and paraded around the campus.

Overall, Heisman took Clemson to a 19-3-2 record in his four seasons. His 83.3 winning percentage is still the best in Clemson history. He was also the Clemson baseball coach from 1901-1903.

SHACK SHEALY

Shack Shealy holds the distinction of being the only Tiger to have coached his alma mater. He lettered at Clemson from 1896-99 and later played two years at Iowa State. Shealy was a four-year starter playing right guard, end and in his senior year, he played in the backfield. He only coached Clemson one year (1904) and led the Tigers to a 3-3-1 record, including wins over Alabama, Georgia and Tennessee.

Ed Cochems lettered at Wisconsin in 1899, 1900 and 1901. He was described as a great halfback or end on the strong Wisconsin teams at the turn of the century, including the 1901 undefeated team. In his playing career, he had a 100-yard kickoff return in a 35-0 win over Chicago in 1901, and had four touchdowns against Notre Dame in 1900. After his playing days, he immediately went into coaching. He was the head coach of North Dakota in 1902 and 1903 and served briefly as an assistant with former teammate, Art Curtis at Wisconsin in 1904.

Cochems led Clemson to a 3-2-1 record overall, including wins over Georgia and Auburn. After his Clemson career, he was head coach and athletic director at St. Louis in 1906. After the forward pass was legalized in 1906, Cochems did something with the pass at once in his first year at St. Louis, while other coaches stuck with the running game. He taught his players not to throw the ball end-over-end, but instead like a projectile - a spiral. He called this new weapon a projectile pass.

Historians credit Cochems as being the first coach to use and perfect the first legal pass in a game. The first studied refinements in throwing the ball, which led to the spiral, occurred in 1906 under Cochems. Brad Robinson of St. Louis threw the first forward pass to Jack Schneider on Sept. 5, 1906 in Waukensha against Carroll.

BOB WILLIAMS

Bob Williams is one of the few coaches in the nation to have coached football at two rivals. Williams coached football at both Clemson and South Carolina. Before coming to Clemson, he coached at Davidson in 1905. He coached at South Carolina for two years and guided the Gamecocks to a 6-1 record in 1902 and an 8-2 slate in 1903.

In his career at South Carolina, he administered the most unexpected defeat of Clemson, as he beat a heavily favored Heisman team, 12-6 in 1902.

He served the Tigers as head coach a total of four terms (1906,09,13-15,26). Between 1915-26, Williams practiced law in Roanoke, Va. and was the city's mayor.

One of the highlights of his career included leading the 1906 team to an unbeaten season (4-0-3), which included wins over Georgia, Auburn, Tennessee and a Heisman-coached Georgia Tech squad.

FRANK SHAUGHNESSY

Frank Shaughnessy was known for his ability as a sports administrator. He served many positions, from a pro hockey coach to the International Baseball League Commissioner. A graduate in pharmacy at Notre Dame, he was captain of the baseball and football teams during his senior season. After his graduation in 1905, he coached baseball at Notre Dame. The summer before coming to Clemson, he played for Ottawa of the Eastern League. That summer, he played left field and ended the season with a .352 batting average. He played nine MLB games in 1905 and 1908 with Washington and the Philadelphia Athletics.

At Clemson, he coached the baseball teams during 1907 and 1908, and he was head football mentor in 1907, where he posted a 4-4 record.

Shaughnessy made his name in baseball, but he took part in many other sports. Besides being a sports legend at Notre Dame, he managed the NHL's Ottawa Senators to the 1915 Stanley Cup Finals and coached football teams at Clemson, Washington and Lee and McGill. He retired as the president of the International Baseball league in 1960.

In a game against Kansas, Shaughnessy ran 107 yards for the only Irish score, as Kansas won the game 24-5. Football fields were 110 yards back then and touchdowns were five points. This is still a Notre Dame record. He passed away in 1969.

JOHN STONE

John Stone is one of three coaches who graduated from Vanderbilt and later became head football coach at Clemson. While at Vanderbilt, he was a member of the All-Southern Football team for four years. He was a big man for his time, standing 6'2". Clemson was 1-6 in 1908, but the Tigers lost many of their star players and substitutes from 1907 due to a college prank that saw 306 students expelled.

FRANK DOBSON

Frank Dobson was a pro baseball player before coming to Clemson, as he was the property of the Pittsburgh Nationals. Walter Riggs, President of the Clemson Athletic Association, thought it was unfair to keep shuffling coaches year after year. He offered Dobson a three-year contract, which was the first contract offered and signed by a Clemson coach.

At Clemson, he coached football, basketball and baseball. He was Clemson's first basketball coach, leading it to its only undefeated season (4-0) in history in the inaugural season (1911-12). In 1912-13, Clemson had a 9-5 record. He was head baseball coach from 1911-13.

WAYNE HART

Wayne Hart served as head coach at Clemson in 1916 and coached the Tigers to a 3-6 record. Under Hart, the Tigers defeated Furman and South Carolina. He played three seasons at tackle for Georgetown. Hart also played one season at George Washington. He was a member of the All-South Atlantic team on four occasions. Hart also served as an assistant coach at Georgetown.

In 1913, Hart coached the Washington Vigilants, a professional football team, and did not lose a single contest. During his last two seasons prior to his arrival to Clemson, he coached various sports at Technical High School in Washington, D.C.

EDWARD DONAHUE

Edward Donahue had to be one of the most organized men in the country. During the 1918-19 academic year, Donahue was the head coach of four Clemson sports… football, basketball, baseball and track. During his four-year career, he served as basketball and baseball coach for two years and head track coach for one season.

He was an outstanding athlete at Washington and Lee, where he played in the backfield on the football team and played catcher on the baseball diamond. Upon graduation, he was an assistant in football and was the head baseball and basketball coach.

E.J. STEWART

E.J. Stewart was head football coach for two years at Clemson, 1921-22. However, he coached more than one sport during his stay at Tigertown. In the spring of 1921, Stewart coached the baseball and track teams while conducting spring football practice. During the fall, Stewart's football team had a 1-6-2 record, but he improved to a 5-4 slate in 1922. He went on to coach the track teams in 1922 and 1923.

Stewart was a standout athlete in football, baseball, basketball and track at Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio. Upon his graduation, Stewart played, organized and served as head coach of the Massilon (Ohio) Professional football team.

Stewart also coached at Nebraska and Texas. At Nebraska, he led the Cornhuskers to a combined record of 11-4 in 1916 and 1917. The Cornhuskers also captured the Missouri Valley Conference title during both seasons. After leaving Nebraska, he entered the automobile business as President and Treasurer of the Stewart Motor Co. Due to the economic conditions at the time, he decided to go back into coaching.

BUD SAUNDERS

Bud Saunders graduated from Missouri in 1911 with a bachelors degree in Law. At Missouri, he played both football and basketball. Saunders wanted to play two other sports, but a conference rule forbid a student-athlete from participating in more than two sports.

Saunders served as football coach at Knox College before arriving at Clemson. In football, Saunders coached for four seasons from 1923-26. He also coached the basketball teams in 1924 and 1925. Saunders' best season in football came during the 1923 campaign, as he led the Tigers to a 5-2-1 record.

JOSH CODY

Josh Cody, fondly known as "big man," will always be a favorite to Clemson fans. Cody, a big man in stature at 6-2, 220 pounds, led Clemson to victories over South Carolina for four straight years. He is the only coach in Clemson history who has been around more than two seasons who never lost a football game to South Carolina. He also defeated Furman three straight years. Cody had a 13-0-1 record in home games and posted a 72 percent winning mark overall, the fourth-best mark in Clemson history.

After a 5-3-1 start in the 1927 season, Cody guided the Tigers to back-to-back 8-3 seasons in 1928 and 1929. On May 6, 1929, to show appreciation, Cody was given a new Buick by the alumni, student body and faculty.

In his final season (1930), the Tigers finished with a record of 8-2. Cody also coached basketball at Clemson for five seasons and guided Clemson to a 16-9 slate in 1930. During the 1928-30 seasons, he guided Clemson to a 22-4 mark at home. Cody went on to coach Temple's men basketball team from 1942-52. He took the Owls to their first NCAA Tournament in 1944.

JESS NEELY

Clemson played in its first bowl game under Jess Neely in the 1940 Cotton Bowl. The Tigers, unknown at the time, became a household word after defeating heavily-favored Boston College 6-3 in the Cotton Bowl. It was the Tigers' first victory over a top-20 ranked team in school history. Clemson had a 43-35-7 record during Neely's tenure.

Neely came to Clemson in 1931 and his recruitment of Banks McFadden took Clemson to another level. In 1938, Neely coached Clemson to a second-place finish in the Southern Conference with a 7-1-1 record.

In 1939, Banks McFadden became Clemson's second All-American, and the team concluded the season with a trip to Dallas for the Cotton Bowl. Neely left Clemson in January 1940 and moved on to Rice, where he took that school to new heights. Neely is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame. Neely's landmark accomplishments in the 1930s at Clemson contributed significantly to Clemson's outstanding football tradition.

Frank Howard succeeded Jess Neely in 1940 when Neely moved on to Rice. He got the job when he seconded his own nomination during a meeting of the president and athletic council. He signed a one-year contract, then lost the document and never had another in his 30 years as head coach.

He graduated from Alabama in 1931, where he was a star lineman. He played in the 1930 Rose Bowl, then started his coaching career under Neely at Clemson in 1931, and was a part of a rebirth of Tiger football in the late 1930s. He was an assistant on the 1939 team that posted a 9-1 mark and beat Boston College 6-3 in the Tigers' first bowl game.

In 1940, he began his head coaching career with a bang as he won the Southern Conference title, the first of eight conference titles Howard won in his coaching career, still a Tiger coaching record.

Howard had his most successful season in 1948 when he took Clemson to an 11-0 record, the Tigers' first perfect season since 1900. The campaign included a Southern Conference championship, a Gator Bowl win over Missouri and a No. 11 final ranking. He nearly duplicated the feat in 1950 when he guided Clemson to a No. 10 AP final ranking, a 9-0-1 finish and a 15-14 win over Miami (Fla.) in the Orange Bowl.

When he retired in 1969, Howard was the fifth-winningest coach in the nation with 165 victories, quite an accomplishment considering only 38 percent of his games were at home. He had 96 wins as an ACC coach, now fourth in conference history, and he captured six (five outright and one co-championship) ACC titles, a record Bobby Bowden broke in 1998. Howard's teams appeared in six bowl games, 63 of his players were drafted by the NFL, and 37 played in the league.

Howard, a native of Barlow Bend, Ala., had six top-20 seasons, won eight conference titles (two Southern, six ACC), won 100 conference games and was a two-time ACC Coach-of-the-Year. He coached 25 academic All-ACC selections and five Academic All-Americans. Eleven of his players were chosen on-the-field All-Americans. Howard was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1989 and he was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor in 1994.

HOOTIE INGRAM

Hootie Ingram will be best remembered as the coach who made the Tiger Paw famous. Before his first year as head coach in 1970, Clemson introduced the Tiger Paw as the official logo of Clemson University's Athletic teams.

Ingram graduated from Alabama in 1955. He also received his master's degree in school administration from Alabama and later became Crimson Tide athletic director. The native of Tuscaloosa, Ala., was an All-SEC defensive back for the Crimson Tide as a senior. He had his best season (5-6) at Clemson in 1971. He also finished second in the ACC standings with a 4-2 league mark in 1971. He was later inducted into the Orange Bowl Hall of Fame.

Red Parker spent four years at Clemson as head coach. His 1974 squad lived up to the theme "Excitement Galore, Clemson Football '74" and had a 7-4 record, with victories over Georgia, Georgia Tech and South Carolina. Before arriving in Tiger-town, Parker spent seven years (1966-72) as head coach at The Citadel. He guided the Bulldogs to a 8-3 record during in the 1971 campaign.

Parker earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Arkansas A&M in 1953. He earned three letters each in football, basketball and track, as a running back-defensive back, second-baseman/shortstop and sprinter. He later served as head coach at Harmony Grove High School in Arkansas. He died Jan. 4, 2016.

Charley Pell, who was Clemson's head coach in 1977,78 authored college football's Cinderella story in 1977. The Albertville, Ala. product took a team that was 3-6-2 in 1976, and led the 1977 Tigers to an 8-2-1 regular-season mark and a berth in the Gator Bowl. It was Clemson's first final top-20 season since 1959. He coached Clemson to a 10-1 regular season in the 1978 season before he left to become head coach at Florida. Clemson's 1978 team beat Ohio State in the Gator Bowl and finished ranked No. 6 in the AP poll in his second year as Clemson's head coach.

He was a near unanimous choice as ACC Coach-of-the-Year in 1977 and 1978, the first coach, regardless of sport, to win ACC Coach-of-the-Year honors in each of his first two years. A two-way starter and three-year letterwinner at Alabama, Pell was on its 1961 National Championship team.

He came to Clemson in 1976 and served as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator. Pell passed away in June 2001 after battling cancer.

Danny Ford had an auspicious beginning to his head coaching career. He gained a 17-15 win over Ohio State in the 1978 Gator Bowl. The 30-year-old coach, the youngest in Division I at the time, also defeated a college football legend in a contest that put Clemson on the national map, as he defeated Woody Hayes in the latter's last game. He had taken over the coaching reigns on Dec. 10, 1978 when Charley Pell resigned to become head coach at Florida.

Ford kept things going in 1979 with wins over Georgia and Notre Dame and another trip to a bowl (Peach). In 1981, he helped Clemson reach the summit of college football by winning the national title. His Tigers downed three top-10 teams during the course of the 12-0 season that concluded with a 22-15 win over Nebraska in the Orange Bowl. Ford was named National Coach-of-the-Year.

The wins continued in 1982 and 1983, as Clemson had consecutive 9-1-1 years. Clemson finished in the top 12 in both years, and had a 30-2-2 record over a three-year period, best in the nation.

Clemson won three straight ACC titles under his guidance between 1986-88. In 1989, Clemson registered a 10-2 season and top 12 national ranking, the fourth straight season Clemson finished in the final AP top 20. He closed his career with a 27-7 win over West Virginia in the Gator Bowl, his sixth bowl win in eight tries and his fourth in succession.

Ford was the third winningest active coach in the nation on a percentage basis at the end of the 1989 season. He finished with a 96-29-4 career ledger at Clemson and remains one of only four coaches in ACC history with better than a 75 percent winning mark (minimum of four years). Ford finished his Tiger career with a 76-percent winning percentage and five ACC championships.

The 1969 Alabama graduate is still the youngest coach to win the national title, as he was just 33-years-old when the Tigers shocked the college football world in 1981. He coached 71 first-team All ACC selections and 26 All-Americans. Forty-two of his former Tigers were drafted by the NFL, and he earned 18 wins over AP top-20 teams during his career. Additionally, 11 of his former players won Super Bowl championship rings. At one stretch, his teams were ranked in the AP top 20 for 41 straight polls, a Tiger record. He had a 31-13-1 record against 15 coaches who are now in the Hall of Fame.

Ford is a member of the Clemson Hall of Fame, the state of South Carolina Hall of Fame and the Orange Bowl Hall of Fame.

Ford was an All-SEC pick and All-SEC Academic choice at Alabama. He attended Alabama initially on a basketball/football scholarship, but he only played football after his freshman season. Ford played in three bowl games for the Crimson Tide. He later served as head coach at Arkansas from 1994-97. Ford was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor on Aug. 31, 2013 and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in December 2017.

KEN HATFIELD

Ken Hatfield led the Tigers to a 32-13-1 record during his four-year tenure, led the squad to three bowl appearances and an ACC championship. With a victory over Illinois in the 1991 Hall of Fame Bowl, Hatfield became the first Clemson coach to win 10 games in his first year and his .833 winning percentage was the best for a first-year Clemson coach since 1900, when John Heisman was 6-0. That season included six victories over teams with winning records, more than any other team that year with the exception of National Champion Georgia Tech.

Hatfield was also just the eighth coach in the previous 13 years to take a team to a top-10 AP final ranking in his first year with the program, as the Tigers finished the year No. 9 in the AP poll. The Helena, Ark. native would also lead the 1991 and 1993 Tiger teams to top 25-rankings. Clemson became the third school that Hatfield coached to a top-20 ranking, as his 1983 Air Force team ranked No. 15 and he led four Arkansas teams to top-20 rankings. He became the sixth coach in NCAA history to accomplish that feat.

Hatfield played for three years at Arkansas (1962-64) and was a starter on the 1964 National Championship team. The defensive back earned his fame as the nation's top punt returner in 1963 and 1964. He was the first player to finish in the top two in the nation in punt returns three straight years, as he finished second in 1962. He retired as Rice's head coach in 2005 with 168 career wins. He is now retired and living in Arkansas.

TOMMY WEST

Tommy West's five-year resumé as Clemson head coach included four bowl appearances, 12 road victories, 86 school records and unparalleled academic excellence. West took Clemson to three straight bowl games between the 1995 and 1997 seasons, just the second Clemson coach in history to take the Tigers to bowl games in three straight seasons.

Academically, 61 Tigers made the ACC Academic Honor Roll in his last four years, twice as many as the best previous four-year total in school history.

West took over as head coach on Nov. 29, 1993 and less than a month later had a bowl victory. The former Tennessee tight end succeeded Ken Hatfield, who left four days after a victory over South Carolina to end the 1993 season.

It was West's second tour of duty with Clemson. He had been a linebackers coach under Danny Ford between 1982-89. Clemson was 69-20-4 and had six AP top 20 finishes in that eight-year era.

West coached the Tigers in the 1993 Peach Bowl, a thrilling 14-13 win over Kentucky. He became the first coach in college history to win a bowl game in his first game without having coached the team in any capacity earlier in the year.

West's best season was 1995, as Clemson finished the regular season with five straight victories by 17 points or more and was invited to the Gator Bowl. Clemson was ranked in the top 25 of every poll at the end of the 1995 regular season. That Clemson team also finished fourth in the nation in rushing offense.

West recruited some of the top players in Tiger history. The school was in the top 10 in the nation in NFL draftees during the 1998 and 1999 selection process, and all 11 players were recruited by West. The list included three first-round defensive picks (Trevor Pryce, Anthony Simmons, Antwan Edwards). Clemson was the only school in the nation to have six defensive players drafted in 1999 and the only school to have a first-round defensive pick in 1997, 1998 and 1999.

The native of Gainesville, Ga. finished his career with a 31-28 record and had four wins over top-25 teams. He was the head coach at Memphis from 2001-09 and he led the Tigers to a nine-win season and the program's first bowl appearance in 32 years in 2003. He took Memphis to five bowls overall, and overall he coached in nine bowl games as a head coach. West was the defensive coordinator at Southern Mississippi in 2012 and is now an assistant coach at Middle Tennessee.

TOMMY BOWDEN

Tommy Bowden was a consistent winner over his nine-and-a-half years as Clemson's head coach. From 1999-08, he never had a losing season, and that included a streak of eight consecutive winning seasons from 2000-07. During those seasons, only four other Division I coaches had a winning season in all eight of those years with the same program.

Bowden was a two-time ACC Coach-of-the-Year, joining Frank Howard, Charley Pell, Danny Ford and Dabo Swinney with that distinction. He first won the honor in 1999, his first year when he took over a team that had been 3-8 the previous season, to a 6-6 season against a top-10 schedule according to the Sagarin ratings. Clemson played three undefeated teams during the regular season (Marshall, Virginia Tech, Florida State).

His first year included a nationally-televised game against Florida State that featured the first-ever Division I coaching matchup of father and son. Bobby Bowden's Seminoles won that game by a score of 17-14, Florida State's closest game in an undefeated National Championship season. The game attracted over 85,000 fans and the largest media contingent in the history of Memorial Stadium. There were nine Bowden Bowls overall, with Bobby winning five, but Tommy won four of the last five contests.

Bowden took Clemson to an 8-0 start and a No. 3 national ranking in 2000 before finishing with a 9-2 regular-season record and a No. 14 final ranking. The regular season concluded with a 16-14 victory over a top-25 South Carolina team. A 50-yard pass from Woodrow Dantzler to Rod Gardner is regarded as one of the most-exciting plays in Clemson history. The following year, Dantzler went on to become the first quarterback in Division I history to reach 2,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in a single season.

Bowden also won ACC Coach-of-the-Year honors in 2003 when he led the Tigers to a 9-4 record. That season, the Tigers won their last four games, including a 26-10 win over No. 3 Florida State. Clemson defeated South Carolina 63-17 in the regular-season finale and completed the season with a 27-14 win over No. 6 Tennessee in the Peach Bowl. Clemson finished the year in the top 25 of both polls as well.

Bowden finished with a 7-2 record against the Gamecocks. The 77.8 winning percentage is the best in school history among Tiger coaches who served the program at least five seasons. All seven of his victories were over Hall of Fame Head Coaches Lou Holtz and Steve Spurrier.

After a 3-3 start to the 2008 season, Bowden resigned on October 13, four days after a 12-7 loss at Wake Forest. He had a 72-45 record (.615) at Clemson for those nine-and-a-half seasons. Bowden never had a losing season, overall or in the ACC, during his nine complete seasons. He led the Tigers to eight bowl games.

Bowden now resides in Florida.

Clemson has a rich bowl tradition. The Tigers have 25 bowl wins, tied for 11th most in history, and their 47 bowl games are 12th most in history. Their first bowl game was in the 1940 Cotton Bowl when the Tigers defeated Frank Leahy (Boston College) 6-3.

The Tigers have played in a bowl game 32 of the last 36 years (including the 2020 season). That is among the top-10 bowl appearances since 1985. Clemson has also been bowl-eligible 22 consecutive years.

The Tigers have beaten some of the top programs in college football history in bowl games. The list of schools Clemson has beaten in a bowl game includes prominent programs Alabama, LSU, Miami (Fla.), Nebraska, Notre Dame, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Penn State, Stanford, Tennessee and West Virginia.

Clemson won its first three bowl games, victories over Boston College, Missouri and Miami (Fla.). The three coaches Clemson beat in those games were Frank Leahy, Don Faurot and Andy Gustafson, and all three are in the College Football Hall of Fame.

Seven different head coaches (Jess Neely, Frank Howard, Danny Ford, Ken Hatfield, Tommy West, Tommy Bowden, Dabo Swinney) have all been victorious in bowl games for the Tigers since the 1939 season.

Overall, 10 of Clemson's 25 bowl wins have come against head coaches who are in the College Football Hall of Fame. Clemson is 4-0 in bowl games against the top-six winningest coaches in FBS history in terms of winning percentage (Frank Leahy, Tom Osborne, Barry Switzer and Urban Meyer). The Tigers also have eight bowl wins over top-10 teams since 2012.

Clemson has achieved bowl wins over some of the greatest coaches in history:

- Frank Leahy when Clemson defeated Boston College in the 1940 Cotton Bowl.
- Joe Paterno (Penn State) when Clemson beat Penn State 35-10 in the 1988 Citrus Bowl. It was Paterno's largest margin of defeat in a bowl game.
- Woody Hayes (Ohio State) in the 1978 Gator Bowl, Hayes' last game as a coach.
- Barry Switzer (Oklahoma) in the 1989 Citrus Bowl, Switzer's final game as a college coach.
- Tom Osborne (Nebraska) in the 1982 Orange Bowl, which gave Clemson its first national championship at the end of the 1981 season.
- Don Nehlen (West Virginia) when Clemson downed the Mountaineers 27-7 in the 1989 Gator Bowl.
- Phillip Fulmer (Tennessee), who had over 150 career wins, in the 2003 Peach Bowl.
- Les Miles (LSU), who led the Tigers to the 2007 national championship, fell to Clemson 25-24 in the 2012 Chick-fil-A Bowl.
- Urban Meyer (Ohio State) in the 2013 Orange Bowl and 2016 Fiesta Bowl
- Bob Stoops, who won a national championship in the 2000 season with Oklahoma, saw his Sooners fall in back to back bowl games, including the 2015 Orange Bowl.
- Nick Saban, who had won four national championships and was riding a 26-game winning streak, fell to the Tigers in the 2016 national championship game in Florida.
- Nick Saban for the second time at the end of the 2018 season, as the Tigers claimed their second national title in three years with a 44-16 win.

2016 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS
STATE CHAMPIONS • ACC CHAMPIONS • FIESTA BOWL CHAMPIONS

• The Tigers finished with a 14-1 record after defeating previously-undefeated and top-ranked Alabama 35-31 in the CFP National Championship Game on Jan. 9. Clemson's 14 wins tied the FBS record for victories in a season.

• Clemson was just the sixth national champion (since 1977) to have played the nation's most difficult schedule the season it won the title.

• Clemson defeated 11 FBS schools that finished with a winning record, including five that totaled 10+ wins and six who finished in the top 25 of the AP poll. Those schools were No. 2 Alabama, No. 6 Ohio State, No. 8 Florida State, No. 16 Virginia Tech, No. 21 Louisville and No. 24 Auburn.
