MEDIA GUIDE

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS
STATE CHAMPIONS • ACC CHAMPIONS • COTTON BOWL CHAMPIONS

Clemson posted an undefeated 15-0 record, becoming the first team to accomplish the feat since Penn in 1897. The Tigers won each of their final 10 games by 20+ points.

Clemson finished its sixth undefeated season (1900, 1906, 1948, 1950, 1981, 2018) and fourth perfect season (1900, 1948, 1981, 2018) in school history.

Clemson had a 15-0 record against a schedule that included a school-record 12 games against teams that finished with winning records.

Clemson's roster included 26 members who had already earned degrees before the game was played, including two with master's degrees.

THE CLEMSON FOOTBALL STANDARD

ONE OF THE WINNINGEST PROGRAMS

Alabama and Clemson rank No. 1 and 2 in the country in wins since 2015, with the two teams combining for five out of eight national championships in that time frame.

MOST WINS (SINCE 2015)

3.	Georgia	91	19	.835
4.	Ohio State	90	12	.882
5.	Oklahoma	84	21	.800

Clemson has a 142-24 record since starting its current stretch of 10-win seasons in 2011. Only Alabama (151-16) has more wins since 2011.

10-WIN SEASONS

Clemson enters 2023 riding a streak of 12 consecutive 10-win seasons. The record for consecutive 10-win seasons is 15, as Alabama's 15th consecutive 10-win season in 2022 broke Florida State's record of 14 from 1987-2000. In 2022, Clemson joined Florida State and Alabama as the only programs ever to reach 10 wins in a dozen straight seasons.

Last season was Clemson's 19th 10-win season in school history. It was Clemson's 12th such season under Dabo Swinney.

The last time Clemson did not win at least one postseason game was in 2010, when Clemson lost in the Meineke Car Care Bowl after not qualifying for the ACC Championship Game.

THE 775 CLUB

Clemson became the first ACC program and 14th FBS program to reach 775 wins with a win against UConn on Nov. 13, 2021. Clemson needs 11 more wins to become the first ACC member to reach 800 victories.

HISTORIC CONFERENCE REIGN

Clemson has dominated its conference more than any other FBS program in recent years. Clemson's 93.1 winning percentage against ACC competition since 2015, including postseason play, leads the nation.

As a counterpoint to conjecture that Clemson's in-conference success is limited to its membership in the ACC, Clemson is 12-6 against the SEC since 2015, a winning percentage that would rank third among current SEC membership.

Note: Power Five Conference schools (1992-21).

That year, Clemson also became the first ACC program to win six consecutive outright championships, as Florida State's streak of nine straight ACC championships included two co-titles that prevented Bobby Bowden's Seminoles from ever winning more than three straight titles outright.

In 2020, Clemson and Oklahoma's six-year streaks of outright titles made the two programs the first among current Power Five programs to win at least six straight outright titles since Oklahoma (12 from 1948-59) as part of the now-dissolved Big 8 Conference.

Clemson is also 13-7 (.650) against AP Top 10 opponents in that time frame, one of only five teams in college football to produce at least a dozen wins against Top 10 foes in that span.

Clemson's success hasn't been limited to teams ranked at the time of the game. Since 2015, Clemson's 63 wins against teams that finish .500 or better are second-most in the nation. Clemson's .840 winning percentage against that group also ranks second.

HOME SWEET HOME

Clemson produced an ACC-record 40-game winning streak in games played at Memorial Stadium from 2016-22, breaking the conference record of 37 set by Florida State under Bobby Bowden from 1992-2001.

Clemson's 40-game home winning streak in that span was one of only 15 home winning streaks of 35 games or more in FBS history.

CFP STAPLES

Nine full seasons into the College Football Playoff era, Clemson has cemented itself as one of the tournament's powerhouses of its inaugural decade. Only 14 programs have earned at least one College Football Playoff berth, and Clemson is second in CFP berths, CFP title game appearances, total CFP wins and CFP titles.

SIGN & DEVELOP

While proud of his incoming classes, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has long stated that a true ranking of a recruiting class cannot and should not be published until four years later when the group can be evaluated on performance rather than potential.

Much to Swinney's delight, The Athletic has annually assumed that role in recent years, re-ranking every recruiting class four years later to account for on-field performance.

For its re-rankings, The Athletic uses the following grading scale: 5 points: All-American, award winner, top-50 NFL Draft pick; 4: Multi-year starter, all-conference honors; 3: One-year starter or key reserve; 2: Career backup; 0: Minor or no contribution, left the program. The outlet also adds a bonus to each program's class average, derived from its total number of wins from 2017 through 2020 (e.g.: For re-ranking the class of 2017, Clemson won 51 games, so its class average received a bonus of 0.51).

Even in its current stretch of recruiting success, Swinney has often pointed out Clemson drops in rankings as its commitment to not oversigning leads to smaller recruiting classes, as well as noting that much of Clemson's on-field success is a function of the program's development, citing All-Americans like former three-star Isaiah Simmons or former two-star Nolan Turner. The re-rankings illustrate Clemson's pristine recent track record of talent identification, culture fit, resource allocation and player development.

CLEMSON RECRUITING RANKINGS AND RE-RANKINGS (VIA THE ATHLETIC)

Average	11.5	3.5	+8.0

Note: Initial rank according to 247 Composite

On average, Clemson ranked 11.5 in the 247 Composite team rankings across the 2014-19 recruiting cycles. Upon re-ranking those groups, despite having little room for improvement while recruiting at a Top 15 clip in that span, Clemson ranked 3.5 on average in the re-rankings, a ratings bump of eight spots. Each of those Clemson classes averaged at least 11 wins a season during their careers.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

- Through the spring of 2022, of 356 players who completed their athletic eligibility at Clemson and/or graduated early in Dabo Swinney's 14 full years as head coach, 350 (98 percent) have earned a degree during their time at Clemson.
- Clemson broke program multi-year APR records in three straight years from 2017-19 (987 in 2016-17, 992 in 2017-18 and 993 in 2018-19) before the NCAA suspended APR reporting during the COVID-19 pandemic. Upon reinstatement of APR reporting in June 2022, Clemson shattered its multi-year APR record with a 999 covering the 2017-18 through 2020-21 academic years.
- Most recently, Clemson posted a 995 multi-year APR covering 2018-19 through 2021-22, tied for third in the FBS and trailing only Northwestern and Wisconsin (996). Clemson's lofty academic success in that period coincided with on-field excellence that included three ACC titles, three College Football Playoff berths, two national championship game berths and the 2018 national championship.

- Clemson, Air Force and Northwestern are the only FBS programs to produce a 990+ multi-year APR in each of the last four reported cycles.
- Clemson is the only program in the country to finish among the Top 25 in APR rate among FBS schools and the AP Top 25 in each of the last 12 years.
- Prior to the suspension of APR Public Recognition Awards during the COVID-19 pandemic, the NCAA recognized Clemson with its annual honor, which is bestowed upon programs ranking in the Top 10 percent of their respective sports, for nine of the award's last 10 reported academic cycles. Only 37 of the 130 FBS programs earned at least one APR recognition across the 2009-10 through 2018-19 academic years. Only 30 of programs earned it multiple times. Clemson, Duke and Northwestern were the only ones to earn the award 9+ times in that 10-year span.
- With its award for the 2018-19 academic year, Clemson became the only FBS program since the NCAA created the APR metric in 2003 to win a national championship and an APR Public Recognition Award in the same year multiple times. Alabama is the only other school to accomplish the title/APR double in a single year once (2011-12 academic year).
- In 2018, in addition to becoming major college football's first 15-0 team since 1897, Clemson had a then-program-record 66 student-athletes with a 3.0+ GPA while setting a program record for team GPA.
- That year, Christian Wilkins became Clemson's first William V. Campbell Trophy winner, collecting the award known colloquially as the "Academic Heisman Trophy." He became the fifth player in the award's history, and the first in the College Football Playoff era, to earn the honor and a national title in the same season, joining Alabama's Barrett Jones (2012), Miami's Joaquin Gonzales (2001), Florida's Danny Wuerffel (1996) and Nebraska's Rob Zatechka (1994).
- Chad Carson and Kyle Young were first-team Academic All-Americans in the 2000 and 2001 seasons. Clemson was the only Division I school in the nation with two first-team picks each year. Young was a first-team Academic All-American from 1999-01 and became just the second ACC player in history to be a three-time, first-team selection.
- Dalton Freeman was a 2012 All-American on and off the field. He was a first-team All-American by AFCA and second-team Academic All-American by CoSIDA.
- Only eight players that applied for early entry for the NFL Draft had their degrees at the 2017 NFL Combine. Four (Deshaun Watson, Wayne Gallman, Artavis Scott and Mike Williams) were from Clemson.

- Entering the bowl season of its 2018 national championship campaign, Clemson's roster featured 26 graduates, the most of any bowl team.
- In 2022, Will Shipley became the first Tiger running back to earn Academic All-America honors and Clemson's first Academic All-American at any position since 2012.

BOWL HISTORY

- Clemson enters 2023 having earned a bowl berth in each of the last 18 seasons, the longest streak in the ACC and the fifth-longest streak in the nation. The 18-year streak more than doubles the second-longest streak in school history (seven from 1985-91).
- Clemson's 26 all-time bowl wins are tied for the 10th-most in college football history.
- Clemson won a bowl game every year from 2012-16 against a program led by a head coach who won a national title at some point in his career. That includes two in 2016, when the Tigers beat Urban Meyer (Ohio State) and Nick Saban (Alabama). Clemson added an additional win over Saban's Alabama squad in 2018.
- Fourteen of Clemson's 26 bowl wins have come against coaches who have won the FBS National Championship at some point in their careers. That includes wins over Les Miles (LSU) in 2012, Urban Meyer (Ohio State) in 2013 and 2016, Bob Stoops (Oklahoma) in 2014 and 2015, and Nick Saban in 2016 and 2018. A 15th win can be claimed with that figure when including national championships at all levels, as Clemson defeated then-Notre Dame Head Coach Brian Kelly, who won two Division II titles at Grand Valley State, in the 2018 Cotton Bowl.
- Clemson's first bowl game was a 6-3 victory over Boston College and Head Coach Frank Leahy in the 1940 Cotton Bowl. Clemson did not return to the Cotton Bowl until 2018, defeating Notre Dame, 30-3, in a College Football Playoff semifinal during a 15-0 national championship campaign.
- Clemson is 8-2 in its history in bowl games against Nebraska, Ohio State and Oklahoma, three of the top-eight programs in college football history in terms of wins. Clemson is the only program to have beaten Oklahoma three times in bowl play and is one of only three schools with multiple bowl victories over the Sooners to its credit. The Tigers are 4-1 vs. Ohio State and 1-1 vs. Nebraska. Including a 1-0 bowl mark against Notre Dame, 1-0 record against Penn State and 2-2 record against Alabama, Clemson is 12-4 in bowls all-time against the eight winningest programs in major college football history.
- Clemson has twice won bowl games in five straight years, including all five bowl games across the 1986-90 seasons and at least one bowl win in five straight seasons across seven bowl games from 2012-16.
- Between both bowl games and conference championship games, Clemson has won at least one postseason game in 12 straight years, the longest streak in FBS history.
- Hall of Fame Head Coach Woody Hayes suffered his final defeat against the Tigers in the 1978 Gator Bowl. Overall, Clemson has won 11 bowl games against head coaches who are enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame (Frank Leahy, Don Faurot, Andy Gustafson, Woody Hayes, Tom Osborne, Joe Paterno, Barry Switzer, Don Nehlen, Phillip Fulmer and two against Bob Stoops).

CHAMPIONSHIP TRADITION

- The Tigers were named national champions by every service in 1981, 2016 and 2018. In 1981, Clemson was the only school in the nation with a perfect record (12-0). It included three wins over top-10 teams (Georgia, Nebraska, North Carolina), the only team to beat three top-10 teams in 1981.

- The 1981 team had five All-Americans, including first-team selections Jeff Davis, Terry Kinard and Perry Tuttle. Thirty-one players on the 1981 squad were eventually drafted by the NFL and 22 players eventually played in the NFL. Twenty-three different players on the 1981 roster were First-Team All-ACC selections at one time during their Clemson careers.
- Clemson won its second national title in 2016 with a 14-1 record. The Tigers played the nation's toughest schedule that year, beating six teams that finished in the top 25 of the AP poll. Eleven Clemson opponents that year finished with a winning record. The Tigers defeated No. 3 Louisville, No. 2 Ohio State and No. 1 Alabama over the course of the season.
- Clemson earned its third national title in 2018 by becoming the first major college team to post a 15-0 record since Penn in 1897. Clemson won its final 10 games of the season by 20+ points and defeated No. 3 Notre Dame and No. 1 Alabama in the College Football Playoff by a combined score of 74-19.
- Since the ACC was formed, Clemson has more overall wins (535) and ACC wins (320 in regular season play) as a member than any other school.
- Clemson won or was co-champions of the ACC Atlantic Division nine times in 12 years (2009,11,12,15,16,17,18,19,22) and earned a title game berth in a division-less season in 2020.
- Clemson won the 2011, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020 and 2022 ACC championships under Dabo Swinney. Clemson is 60-5 in ACC regular-season play in the last eight seasons.
- From 2015-20, Clemson became the first team in ACC history to win six consecutive outright conference titles (2015-20). Clemson and Oklahoma's six-year streaks of outright conference titles those years made the two programs the first among current Power 5 Conference programs to win at least six straight outright titles since Oklahoma (12 from 1948-59).
- Every Clemson signing class under Swinney except for the incoming 2023 class has at least one ACC title to their credit in their tenures at Clemson, and every signing class from 2012-20 earned at least one College Football Playoff berth.

COACHING SUCCESS

- Dabo Swinney has a record of 161-39 during his head coaching career in 15 seasons. His 161 victories trail only Urban Meyer (165) for the most wins through the first 15 seasons of a head coaching career in FBS history.
- Swinney earned his 150th career win in only his 186th career game as head coach. He became the sixth-fastest coach in FBS history to 150 wins, trailing only Urban Meyer (176), Gil Dobie (180), Barry Switzer (180), Fielding Yost (184) and Joe Paterno (184). Swinney became the fourth fastest to 150 wins in the modern era.
- Swinney (161) enters 2023 four wins shy of the Clemson school record held by College Football Hall of Famer Frank Howard (165).
- Swinney won 12 coach-of-the-year honors in the 2015 season, two ACC and 10 for national coach of the year. That included national coach of the year by Associated Press, ESPN, Sporting News, Walter Camp Foundation and the American Football Coaches Association. He also won the Bear Bryant Award in 2015, 2016 and 2018, becoming the first three-time winner in the award's history. Swinney also won the Gene Stallings Award and FCA Coach of the Year in 2014 and the Bobby Dodd Award in 2011. Swinney was inducted into the state of Alabama Hall of Fame in 2018 and was selected as honorary coach of the AFCA Good Works Team in 2019.
- A Clemson assistant coach was a Frank Broyles Award finalist in four straight years from 2015-18 and won the award in back-to-back years. Brent Venables was a finalist in 2015 and won the award in 2016. Tony Elliott won the award in 2017. Jeff Scott was a finalist in 2018 (and semifinalist in 2019). The wins by Venables and Elliott in 2016-17 represented the first time two different coaches from the same school won the award in consecutive years. Clemson hired reigning Broyles Award winner Garrett Riley in 2023.

- Four former Tiger coaches (John Heisman, Frank Howard, Jess Neely and Danny Ford) are in the College Football Hall of Fame. Howard was Clemson's coach when the ACC was founded and promptly took the Tigers to six ACC titles. Howard and Swinney are tied for the school record for conference titles (eight each).
- Howard ended his career with 165 victories, and his 30-year tenure is still fifth-longest in NCAA history for a head coach serving at one school. His victory total was extraordinary considering Clemson played just 38 percent of its games at home during Howard's tenure.
- Danny Ford coached Clemson to the 1981 national championship and won six bowl games in his Tiger career. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in December 2017. He was the consensus national coach of the year in 1981, and he remains the youngest coach (33) to win a national title. He was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor in 2013.

EXPOSURE

- From 2018-22, Clemson games accounted for four of the seven most-watched college football games and five of the 16 most-watched games in that span.
- Clemson played in the most-watched game of five of six seasons from 2015-20, including when its 2020 semifinal game against Ohio State outdrew the national championship.
- Even as the industry transitions toward streaming, 111 of Clemson's last 113 games in the last seven years have aired on television.
- Clemson has played in the featured contest on ESPN's College GameDay 30 times, including 22 times since the start of the 2015 season. Clemson is 17-5 in those contests.
- In 2022, Clemson became the first program since the 2015 Oklahoma Sooners to appear in the ABC prime-time television window in three consecutive weeks.
- The interest in watching Clemson play hasn't been limited to television broadcasts. Clemson continues to provide one of the great in-venue experiences in all of sports, as Clemson enters 2023 having been ranked in the Top 20 in the nation average home attendance at Memorial Stadium for 42 straight seasons and has led the ACC in average home attendance each of the last 13 years. In 2022, Clemson led the nation in attendance per capita, as its 80,694 average attendance at Death Valley was equivalent to 456 percent of the city's population.

TREVOR LAWRENCE BECAME THE FIRST TIGER TO BE DRAFTED NO. 1 OVERALL WHEN HE WAS SELECTED BY THE JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS IN 2021.

• The first game on ACC Network was Clemson vs. Georgia Tech from Death Valley on Aug. 29, 2019.

HALL OF FAME

• Eight members of Clemson's program have been enshrined in the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame, including four coaches and four student-athletes.

• Clemson's Hall of Fame tradition began with John Heisman, who coached Clemson from 1900-03 and was Clemson's first inductee as part of the Class of 1954. Clemson coach and administrator Jess Neely was inducted in 1971. Frank Howard, Clemson's all-time winningest coach, followed with induction in 1989. Danny Ford, who led Clemson to the 1981 national championship at the age of 33, entered the Hall in 2017.

• Multi-sport legend Banks McFadden was the first Clemson player enshrined, earning induction in 1959. Two members of Clemson's 1981 national championship defense, Terry Kinard (2001) and Jeff Davis (2007), went on to earn induction after the turn of the century. The duo made Clemson's 1978 recruiting class the first in ACC history to produce two Hall of Famers.

• Of the 5.54 million individuals who have played college football since Princeton first battled Rutgers on Nov. 6, 1869, prior to induction of the 2023 class, only 1,056 players and 226 coaches have been immortalized in the Hall. Selection to it puts these Tiger legends who earned the distinction in the top 0.02 percent of those ever to play or coach college football.

• C.J. Spiller earned induction in the Class of 2021 in his second year of eligibility. Said Dabo Swinney of Spiller's induction: "For him to get in on his second attempt is such a compliment to the respect for his college football career… For me personally, he was my first five-star, my first first-rounder, my first Pro Bowl-er, and now my first College Football Hall of Famer… It's only fitting that C.J. was the first."

• Clemson had a special night in New York City on Dec. 11, 2001. That evening, Terry Kinard was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame and Kyle Young was a recipient of a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award. Clemson was the only school in the nation with one of each in 2001.

NATIONAL HONORS

• Clemson has a history of decorated football players. It boasts 104 players who have earned first, second or third-team All-America honors in its history.

• Clemson has produced at least one consensus All-American in three of the last five years and in nine of Dabo Swinney's 14 full seasons as head coach.

• In 2019, linebacker Isaiah Simmons became the sixth unanimous All-American in Clemson history, joining Terry Kinard (1982), Gaines Adams (2006), C.J. Spiller (2009), Da'Quan Bowers (2010) and Christian Wilkins (2018).

• In 2018, Wilkins joined William Perry, Levon Kirkland, Anthony Simmons and Sammy Watkins as three-time Tiger All-Americans. Clelin Ferrell joined Terry Kinard as the only two-time, first-team AP All-Americans in Tiger history with his second consecutive selection. Ferrell also won the Ted Hendricks Award as the nation's top defensive end, joining Da'Quan Bowers as one of two Hendricks Award winners in school history.

• The 2019 season marked the second straight year in which Clemson captured ACC Player of the Year (Travis Etienne), Offensive Player of the Year (Etienne) and Defensive Player of the Year (Isaiah Simmons). It marked the fifth time that one team swept all three awards since the inception of the offensive and defensive honors in 1993, but it represented the first time a program had accomplished a sweep of the three awards in consecutive years.

• In 2018, Clemson swept honors for ACC Coach of the Year (Dabo Swinney), ACC Player of the Year (Etienne), ACC Offensive Player of the Year (Etienne) and ACC Defensive Player of the Year (Clelin Ferrell), becoming the first school to do so since Maryland in 2001. Expanded to include Trevor Lawrence's selection as Offensive Rookie of the Year, Clemson was the first program to secure all those conference honors since Florida State in 1997.

• Vic Beasley was a two-time first-team All-American and the first Tiger since Bennie Cunningham to be a two-time All-American, Clemson graduate and first-round pick (1976 NFL draft). Christian Wilkins and Clelin Ferrell later accomplished the feat in the 2019 draft, as did Travis Etienne in the 2021 draft.

• Sammy Watkins, who was the No. 4 overall pick of the 2014 NFL Draft, was the first player in Clemson history to be named a first-team All-American by at least one service in three different seasons. Wilkins became the second such player in school history in 2018.

• When Watkins was named a first-team All-American as a first-year freshman in 2011, he followed Georgia's Herschel Walker (1980), San Diego State's Marshall Faulk (1991) and Oklahoma's Adrian Peterson (2004) as the fourth first-year freshman non-kicker in history to earn AP First-Team All-America honors.

• Clemson has had eight players win 11 national position awards since 2010. Deshaun Watson won the Manning Award and the Davey O'Brien Award as the top quarterback in 2015 and 2016. He also won the Unitas Award in 2016 and the Chic Harley Award. He won the Archie Griffin Award as top player in the nation in 2015, and the award also collected by Trevor Lawrence in 2018. Dwayne Allen won the Mackey Award as the top tight end in 2011 and Da'Quan Bowers won the Bronko Nagurski Award as the top defensive player in 2010. Bowers also won the Ted Hendricks Award in 2010, which Clelin Ferrell won in 2018. Ben Boulware won the Jack Lambert Award as the top linebacker in 2016. Christian Wilkins won the Willis Award as the top defensive lineman in 2017. Isaiah Simmons won the Butkus Award in 2019 as the nation's top linebacker.

• Clemson has had at least one All-American 43 of the last 46 years. In Dabo Swinney's 14 full seasons as head coach, he has had at least two All-Americans each year and 36 different players have made a first-team All-America squad. Sammy Watkins, Vic Beasley, Deshaun Watson, Clelin Ferrell, Christian Wilkins and Travis Etienne were all multi-time selections.

• Clemson has had at least one First-Team All-ACC player each of the last 46 years, the longest streak in ACC history. Clemson has had at least 10 All-ACC selections in eight straight years. In those eight years, all other ACC teams have produced 10+ selections in a single season a combined six times.

• Clemson had a conference-leading nine players (Joe Bostic, Jerry Butler, Bennie Cunningham, Jeff Davis, Steve Fuller, Terry Kinard, Michael Dean Perry, William Perry and Anthony Simmons) named to the ACC's 50-Year Anniversary team. All nine were All-Americans during at least one season at Clemson and played in the NFL.

• Terry Kinard was the first Tiger to win a national individual award. He was named 1982 national defensive player of the year by CBS. That year, he was a unanimous first-team All-American, the first unanimous All-American in Clemson football history.

NFL DRAFT PICKS

• Clemson has had at least one first-round draft choice in nine of the last 11 years. Clemson is one of only five schools with at least one first-round pick in at least eight of the last 11 drafts, alongside Alabama, Florida, Georgia and Ohio State.

• Dabo Swinney has coached 77 draft picks since becoming Clemson's head coach, the second-most of any coach in that span. His 17 first-round selections are second among active coaches.

• Clemson is one of only seven schools to have produced multiple draft picks in each of the last 21 NFL Drafts (Florida, LSU, Michigan, Oklahoma, Ohio State and USC).

• Clemson is one of six schools to have produced five or more selections in at least eight of the last 10 drafts.

• Since 2013, Clemson has produced first-round picks from the QB, RB, WR, DE, DT, LB and DB position groups. The only other school with at least one first-rounder at all those positions in that span is Alabama.

• Clemson has produced nine first-round picks from its defensive front seven (DL and LB) since 2015, the most of any school in the nation.

• In the 2019, 2020 and 2021 NFL Drafts, Clemson produced multiple first-round picks in three consecutive drafts for the first time in program history. Clemson and Alabama were the only schools to produce multiple first-round picks in each of those three drafts.

• In 2021, Trevor Lawrence became the program's first No. 1 overall pick, making Clemson the 51st program ever to produce a No. 1 pick. Clemson joined NC State and Florida State as the only ACC programs to have a No. 1 pick while a member of the conference (four other current ACC schools had No. 1 picks prior to joining the conference).

• With Trevor Lawrence and Travis Etienne both being selected by the Jacksonville Jaguars in the first round in 2021, the duo became the first QB/RB duo from a single school ever drafted by the same team in the first round of an NFL Draft in the Common Draft era.

• In 2019, Clemson produced three players selected as defensive linemen from a single school in a single draft for the first time in NFL Draft history. (Note: In 2006, NC State's Mario Williams, Manny Lawson and John McCargo went with the Nos. 1, 22 and 26 picks, respectively, though Lawson was officially submitted as a linebacker.) Clemson's entire starting defensive line from 2018 was drafted in the first four rounds in a span of the draft's first 117 picks.

- Clemson has had at least one player chosen by 30 of the 32 NFL franchises since 2003. The lone exceptions in that time frame are the Patriots, who last selected a Tiger in 1991, and the Panthers, who have never selected a Clemson player.
- Clemson's 2018 national championship roster has produced 22 draft picks and 19 undrafted free agent signings. Clemson's 11 defensive starters alone accounted for five first-round picks, a second-round pick, a third-round pick, two fourth-round picks and a college free agent signing.
- Clemson has produced 11 draft picks at wide receiver since the 2013 NFL Draft, tied for the second-most in the country. The program has produced at least one receiver in eight of the last 11 NFL Drafts, dating to DeAndre Hopkins' selection in 2013.

NFL INFLUENCE

- Thirty-three former Tigers have combined to win 41 Super Bowl championship rings as members of an active roster that season, including most recently Kansas City Chiefs receiver Cornell Powell, Los Angeles Rams offensive lineman Tremayne Anchrum, Tampa Bay Buccaneers punter Bradley Pinion and Kansas City Chiefs players Bashaud Breeland, Dorian O'Daniel and Sammy Watkins across the 2019-22 seasons. Injured reserve wide receiver Justyn Ross also added a Super Bowl ring in 2022. Clemson's leader is Jeff Bostic, who started on three Super Bowl championship teams with Washington.
- Clemson's three members of the Chiefs' Super Bowl LIV title-winning team in 2019 represented three of the 46 players (6.5 percent) on Kansas City's active game day roster for the Super Bowl. Clemson's three members of the Super Bowl champions tied for the second-most in school history, matching the 1981

49ers and 1986 Giants. It was Clemson's most members of a Super Bowl championship team since setting a school record for the 1987 NFL season, when Obed Ariri, Dan Benish, Jeff Bostic and K.D. Dunn all contributed to Washington's second Super Bowl championship.

- Clemson has had a former player on the active roster of a Super Bowl championship team during the season of 13 of the last 25 years.
- Grady Jarrett had 3.0 sacks for the Atlanta Falcons against Tom Brady and the Patriots in the Super Bowl LI after the 2016 season.
- Brian Dawkins retired in 2011 as one of the great safeties in the history of the game and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2018. A 1996 Clemson graduate, Dawkins was an All-American on Clemson's 1995 team. He became the first player in NFL history in 2002 to register a sack, interception, recovered fumble and receiving touchdown in the same game. He was named to the Pro Bowl nine times in his career, including the 2012 Pro Bowl after his final season.
- Levon Kirkland was named to the NFL All-Decade team (1990s) for his play with the Pittsburgh Steelers. Dawkins was named to the All-Decade team for the 2000s for his play with the Philadelphia Eagles.

NFL LEGACIES

- Brian Dawkins had his #20 retired by the Philadelphia Eagles during the 2012 season. Dawkins played 13 seasons for the Eagles and was named to the Pro Bowl seven times while playing for that franchise and nine times overall. He became Clemson's first enshrinee in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in August 2018.
- The late Dwight Clark had his #87 retired by the San Francisco 49ers after he finished his career in 1987. He was a starter on the 49ers' Super Bowl teams from the 1981 and 1984 seasons. He is most famous for his game-winning catch on a pass from Joe Montana against Dallas in the 1982 NFC Championship Game. Clark was the NFL MVP in the 1982 season, the only former Tiger to win NFL MVP honors.

- Charlie Waters was a three-time Pro Bowl pick with the Dallas Cowboys. He played on two Super Bowl teams.
- Waters and Jeff Bostic were both named to ESPN's 40-Man Roster of Greatest Super Bowl players, released prior to Super Bowl XL.
- The Perry brothers (William, Michael Dean) were starters on Clemson's 1984 defense. Both were named to the ACC's 50-Year Anniversary team in 2002. William played on Clemson's 1981 National Championship team as a freshman, then on the Super Bowl champion Bears of 1985. Michael Dean played in six Pro Bowls with Cleveland and Denver, second-most among former Tigers. Both were named ACC Player of the Year during their careers, William in 1984 and Michael Dean in 1987. They are the only brother combination in ACC history that can make that claim.

POLL PRESENCE

- From 2015-20, Clemson finished in the top four of the AP poll each year. Dabo Swinney became the fourth coach to record at least six consecutive top-four finishes since the AP poll began in 1936, an exclusive list that includes Florida State's Bobby Bowden (13), USC's Pete Carroll (seven) and Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson (six).
- Clemson's streak represented the fifth time a program has had a run of at least six top four finishes in the AP Poll. Miami (Fla.) had a seven-year run from 1986-92 with two different head coaches leading the program.
- The 2022 season marked the 36th year that Clemson was ranked in the final AP poll. It was the 15th time in the last 18 years – and 12th straight year – that Clemson was ranked in the final poll.
- Clemson finished 11-3 and No. 13 in the final AP poll in 2023. Alabama (15 years), Clemson (12) and Ohio State (11) are the only programs with active streaks of 10 years or longer finishing in the top 15 of the AP poll.
- Clemson was ranked in the top 25 of 107 consecutive AP polls from 2014-21, a school record and the second-longest active streak in the nation prior to its conclusion.
- Clemson ranked in the top five of 57 consecutive polls from 2017-21, the second-longest Top 5 streak in the history of the AP poll, which dates to 1936. Clemson also produced a school-record streak of 97 consecutive polls in the AP Top 10, the third-longest streak in poll history.
- The Tigers have beaten an AP-ranked opponent 33 of last 37 years, including 50 top-25 wins in the last 20 years. Dabo Swinney has recorded a Clemson-record 40 top-25 wins in his head coaching tenure.
- Clemson beat four top-25 teams in 2015 and five in 2016. The 2017 team broke that record with six. Last year, Clemson again collected four ranked wins.

BRIAN DAWKINS HAD A HALL OF FAME NFL CAREER.

NOTES

- Clemson won its first national title in any sport and the first for the ACC in football in 28 years.
- Clemson had five different players earn All-America honors, at the time more than any other Tiger team in history.
- There was no controversy concerning the voting of the National Champion in 1981. Clemson ended the season as the only undefeated, untied team and was the only team with three top-10 wins.
- Head Coach Danny Ford (age 33 at the time) remains the youngest head coach in history to win the National Championship.
- Clemson forced 41 turnovers in the 12 games, still a school record for turnovers forced in a season.
- During one stretch in the season, the Clemson defense held the opposition without a touchdown for 18 consecutive quarters and no opponent scored a rushing touchdown against Clemson during the first seven games of the season.
- Clemson won the national title in 1981 after going 6-5 the previous year. The Tigers were unranked in every preseason poll.
- Clemson's victory improvement of 5.5 games from the 1980 season to the 1981 season was the largest improvement in the nation.
- Only one team (Wofford) had more time of possession in a game against Clemson all season.
- Clemson had the lead at the end of the first quarter in only four of the 12 games.
- Clemson scored 316 points during the regular season of 1981, the exact same total Georgia scored during its 11-game regular season of 1980, the year the Bulldogs won the National Championship.

- Good health was a big reason for Clemson's success in the 1981 season. Only five different starters missed any games during the entire season and no player missed more than two games all year. A collective total of only eight games were missed by five starters during the 1981 season.
- No opponent had a carry longer than 26 yards and no opponent had a play over 30 yards. The longest touchdown play against Clemson was 25 yards, on a halfback option pass from Mike Rozier to Anthony Steels (Nebraska) in the Orange Bowl.
- During offseason conditioning in the summer of 1981, Strength Coach George Dostal constructed a simple sign for his strength training facility…"1982 Orange Bowl, Clemson vs. Nebraska."
- The Clemson senior student who was in charge of pep rallies in 1981 was former CBS This Morning anchor Jane Robelot.
- The day after Clemson won at North Carolina, placekicker Donald Igwebuike flew to Maryland, where Clemson's No. 3 soccer team beat Maryland 4-0 to clinch the ACC title. Igwebuike played on two ACC title teams that fall, both of which finished in the top 10 in the nation.

NOTES

- National champions for the second time in school history and the first time since 1981.
- The Tigers finished with a 14-1 record after defeating previously undefeated and top-ranked Alabama 35-31 in the CFP National Championship Game on Jan. 9. Clemson's 14 wins tied the FBS record for victories in a season. It was the second year both Alabama and Clemson finished with 14-1 records.
- Clemson won the national championship while playing the nation's most difficult schedule according to the NCAA. Tiger opponents were 107-51 (.677) when not playing Clemson.
- Clemson was just the sixth national champion (since 1977) to have played the nation's most difficult schedule the season it won the title.
- Clemson defeated 11 FBS schools that finished the season with a winning record, including five that totaled 10+ wins and six who finished in the top 25 of the AP poll. Those schools were No. 2 Alabama, No. 6 Ohio State, No. 8 Florida State, No. 16 Virginia Tech, No. 21 Louisville and No. 24 Auburn. The six wins over teams that finished in the AP top 25 were the most in school history.
- For the sixth straight year, Clemson finished at least the same in its final poll as its preseason ranking by AP. Clemson was No. 2 in the preseason AP and coaches polls, then finished No. 1.
- Clemson beat top-ranked Alabama to win the national title, the first time Clemson defeated the No. 1 team. In the CFP semifinal, Clemson defeated No. 2 Ohio State 31-0. It marked the first time Clemson beat a No. 2 ranked team. Clemson was 0-9 in history when playing teams ranked in the top two, then defeated both in consecutive games just nine days apart.
- Clemson defeated No. 3 Louisville earlier in the season, giving Clemson wins over the No. 1, No. 2 and No. 3 teams.
- Clemson was never ranked No. 1 until the final poll and had to defeat a team (Alabama) that had been ranked No. 1 in every poll entering the playoff. It marked the first time a team defeated an opponent in the championship game who had been No. 1 in every poll since 2006, when Florida defeated Ohio State to win the national championship. It also happened in 2005, when Texas defeated Southern California, and in 1983, when Miami (Fla.) defeated Nebraska.
- Clemson was the first non-SEC team to beat Auburn and Alabama in the same year since 1990, when Southern Mississippi achieved the distinction.
- Clemson had a 3-0 record against SEC teams, the first time the Tigers defeated three SEC teams in one season.
- Clemson defeated Auburn, Florida State, Ohio State and Alabama, the programs that had combined to win each of the previous seven national championships.

- Clemson's 49-point win over South Carolina was the largest margin of victory by an ACC team over an SEC team in history. It was Clemson's third straight win over its rival.
- Clemson won the ACC championship for the second consecutive year, the first time in 28 years the Tigers won back-to-back league titles.
- The Tigers defeated a school-record five top-25 teams, including three top-three teams for the first time. Clemson finished the season with three straight wins over top-25 teams, the second time the program did that.
- Clemson joined Alabama as the first two schools to advance to the College Football Playoff in consecutive years.
- Clemson had nine First-Team All-ACC players, the most for the program since 1991.
- Sixteen of Clemson's starting 22 made an All-ACC team. Clemson had five more All-ACC selections than any other team.
- Seven different players were named first, second or third-team All-American, most in school history.
- Clemson showed an ability to win close games. The Tigers were 7-1 in games decided by seven points or less, establishing a school mark for wins by seven points or less in a season.
- The Tigers posted an 8-0 record away from home, the school's best mark for wins away from home in a season. Clemson had a 5-0 record on the opponents' home fields.

- Clemson opened the season with a win at Auburn, Clemson's first win there since 1950. It was first time Clemson opened the season with a road win over a current SEC team since 1903.
- Clemson left a game at Georgia Tech with a perfect record for the first time since 1903. Clemson had lost 11 straight when entering a game at Georgia Tech unbeaten.
- Clemson opened the season ranked No. 2 in the AP poll, its highest preseason ranking in school history.
- Clemson defeated Florida State in Tallahassee, just the second win for the program at Florida State since 1989.
- Clemson was honored for its graduation success rate of over 90 percent by AFCA.
- Clemson defeated Alabama for the first time since 1905.
- Dabo Swinney became the first head coach to win the national championship by defeating his alma mater.
- Dabo Swinney joined Bud Wilkinson as the only people to play on and serve as head coach of an AP national champion.
- Dabo Swinney won the Bear Bryant National Coach-of-the-Year Award, the first coach to win it in consecutive years.
- Clemson ended Alabama's 26-game winning streak, the longest winning streak Clemson has ended in its history. The 26-game streak was the third longest in SEC history and longest since the Crimson Tide had a 28-game winning streak from 1978-80.
- Clemson trailed 24-14 entering the fourth quarter. Nick Saban had been 97-0 with a 10-point lead in the fourth quarter.
- Nick Saban was 5-0 in national championship games and 12-1 in national or league championship games prior to the contest.
- Clemson ended Alabama's FBS record-tying 16-game winning streak against AP top-25 opponents.
- Nick Saban was 106-6 when leading at halftime at Alabama. Clemson overcame a 14-7 halftime deficit.

NOTES

- Clemson won its third football national championship in school history, joining the 1981 and 2016 squads. It marked the sixth national championship in any sport in Clemson history.
- Clemson had a 15-0 record, becoming the first team to accomplish the feat since Penn in 1897.
- Clemson became the second team to win multiple national championships in the College Football Playoff era since 2014 (Alabama).
- Clemson broke the school record of 14 wins, a mark previously shared with the 2015 and 2016 Tigers.
- Clemson finished its sixth undefeated season (1900, 1906, 1948, 1950, 1981, 2018) and fourth perfect season (1900, 1948, 1981, 2018) in school history.
- Clemson became the 20th team in AP poll history to finish a season as the AP No. 1 despite never appearing at No. 1 at any point of the regular season (2018 Clemson, 2016 Clemson, 2015 Alabama, 2014 Ohio State, 2011 Alabama, 2006 Florida, 2005 Texas, 2002 Ohio State, 1992 Alabama, 1989 Miami (Fla.), 1987 Miami (Fla.), 1986 Penn State, 1983 Miami (Fla.), 1982 Penn State, 1977 Notre Dame, 1973 Notre Dame, 1970 Nebraska, 1965 Alabama, 1964 Alabama, 1946 Notre Dame).
- Clemson won the ACC title for the fourth year in a row, marking the first time in ACC history a school won four consecutive outright league titles. The Tigers joined Florida (1993-96) as the only teams to win four consecutive Power Five Conference championship games.
- Clemson posted a 15-0 record against a schedule that included a school-record 12 games against teams who finished with winning records. The Tigers played the nation's most difficult schedule, as their opponents had a 120-57 record (.642) when not playing them.
- Clemson was in the top four of every CFP poll in 2018, including a No. 2 ranking entering the bowl games, ending the season having been ranked in the top four in 24 consecutive CFP polls.
- Clemson ranked in the top four of all 15 AP and USA Today Coaches polls for the first time in school history.
- Clemson won a school-record 13 of 15 games by at least 20 points, surpassing 2013 Florida State (12) for the most by any team since 2000. Clemson won its final 10 games by 20 points or more.
- Clemson won by an average margin of 31.1 points per game, the best margin in the nation and the second-largest in school history, trailing only a 35.3-point average margin in 1900. It passed the 30.4-point average margin in 1901, a season in which Clemson won one of its five games by a score of 122-0.
- Clemson played an average of 72.5 players per game in 2018, the most of any team in the AP Top 25. No other College Football Playoff participant averaged more than 56 players per game (Alabama, 55.7; Notre Dame, 54.4; Oklahoma, 52.4).

- Clemson was second in the nation in yards per rush (6.57) and first in the nation in yards per rush allowed (2.51), becoming the first program since at least 2009 to rank in the top two in both categories in a single season.
- Clemson tied team records in wins at home (seven), on the road (five), away from home (eight), in regular season conference play (eight) and against conference opponents (nine).
- Clemson posted a 5-0 record in road games, joining Northwestern as only teams in the nation to go 5-0 on the road. It marked the sixth time in school history (and the third time in four years) Clemson was 5-0 on the road.
- Clemson completed the four-year span with a 55-4 record, a school and ACC record that tied 2015-18 Alabama for the most wins in a four-year span in FBS history.
- With a victory over South Carolina in November, Clemson reached 100 wins in a decade for the first time in program history.
- Clemson featured five First-Team All-ACC selections and a total of 18 who made first, second or third team, more than any other school and the most in a season in school history.
- Clemson produced seven players who made an All-America team, second most in a season in school history. That included a record five first-team selections by at least one of the five major teams, the most first-team All-Americans in one season in school history.

- Clemson set a school record with 44.3 points per game, ahead of the previous record of 41.0 set in 2012. The Tigers reached 27 points in 15 straight games, a school record.
- Clemson scored a school-record 664 points, becoming the second team in ACC history to score 650 points in a single season (Florida State, 723 in 2013).
- Clemson broke the school and ACC record of 7,718 yards of offense, set in 2015, by recording 7,908 yards of offense.
- Clemson posted a school-record 527.2 yards per game, which included a record 15 games with 400 or more yards and a record-tying three 600-yard games. The Tigers set a school record by averaging 7.35 yards per play, shattering the previous record of 6.5 from 2006.
- Clemson led the country in scoring defense (13.1) for the first time in school history.
- Clemson set a school record with 54 sacks, breaking the mark held by the 2016 team (49). The 54 sacks were the third-most by any FBS team in a season since 2000.
- Clemson led the nation in sacks and tied for the national lead in tackles for loss (136).
- Clemson won the AFCA Academic Achievement Award for the first time in school history, becoming just the third program to win it and the national championship in the same year since the award began in 1981 (Notre Dame 1988 and Alabama 2017).
- In addition to the on-field success, Clemson produced team records in team GPA and number of players with recording a 3.0 or better GPA (66).
- Clemson placed seven players on the All-ACC Academic team, tied for second-most in school history and one shy of the school record.
- Christian Wilkins won the William V. Campbell Trophy from the National Football Foundation, the first Clemson player to win the award known colloquially as the Academic Heisman. He joined Barrett Jones (2012 Alabama), Joaquin Gonzales (2001 Miami), Danny Wuerffel (1996 Florida) and Rob Zatechka (1994 Nebraska) as the only players to win the Campbell Trophy and a national championship in the same season.

CREDENTIALS

Arrangements for media credentials for Clemson's home football games must be made through the Clemson Athletic Communications office. Requests by accredited media members must be made through the online credentialing system at SportsSystems.com/Clemson. Online credential requests for each Clemson home game will open two weeks prior to each game and will close at noon ET on Wednesday prior to each game.

Contact Chandler Simpson (mcsimp2@clemson.edu) or any member of the athletic communications team for more information on credential requests for Memorial Stadium.

The Clemson University Athletics Media Credential Policy is available at ClemsonTigers.com/MediaPolicy. The policy details credential eligibility and issuance priority for national and local outlets that cover Clemson football or its opponents on a regular basis. All credential approvals are made on a game-by-game basis independent of previous approvals and/or denials, and credential decisions for each contest are not beholden to prior credentialing precedents. Due to space limitations, credential quantities may be limited to a number lower than the total requested.

All credential requests will be filled on a space-available basis. Non-working spouses, dates, relatives, non-workers and anyone 16 years of age or younger are not permitted in the press box.

Media credential holders in the press box who are not actively covering the game, or credential wearers on the sideline who are not on assignment, will be asked to leave those respective areas. Press box or sideline security will be contacted should the credential wearer not comply. Credentials used in an unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately, and organizations responsible for credentials falling into improper hands will have credentials revoked for the rest of the year or the succeeding year, at the university's discretion.

EMAIL DISTRIBUTION LIST

Notes, stats, stories and other information are emailed out on a weekly basis from the athletic communications office. Media members may contact Brian Hennessy (bhennes@clemson.edu) to be put on the email list.

PARKING

A limited number of parking spaces reserved for the media is available on a game-by-game basis. Requests for media parking passes should be specified with credential requests. Due to space limitations, not all requests will be fulfilled.

Additionally, no motorhomes, campers or oversized vehicles will be permitted in media parking. Parking pass requests for satellite trucks should be made at least one week in advance.

PHOTOGRAPHERS & VIDEOGRAPHERS

Clemson follows guidelines established by the NCAA communications committee and ACC regarding sideline control to make certain the sideline is a working media area.

The following guidelines are adhered to:

1) Each photographer and runner is required to wear a photo vest.
2) Photo vests must be secured at the photographer's credential pickup at media will call outside Game 10 (visitors' tunnel). Both the credential and the photo vest must be worn on the field.
3) Prior to kickoff while recruits are present, photographers are not allowed south of the goalpost in the west endzone nor west of the south sideline 50-yard line.
4) After kickoff, no photographers are permitted in the bench area nor on the playing field.
5) Photo assistants or others holding a "sideline" pass must remain out of the photo area immediately adjacent to the playing field. This will make certain that photographers/videographers have the appropriate working area.
6) Tripods are not permitted on the sidelines.
7) The areas behind the team benches are considered bench areas and are to be used only for the passage between the north and south sidelines. This area may not be used as a photo zone.

PRESS BOX

The Bob Bradley Press Box is located on the first floor on the south side of Memorial Stadium. All radio and television booths, in addition to the press area, are on the same level. Photographers are encouraged to use the space available at field level, accessible in the visiting tunnel adjacent to the visitor locker room.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS

All requests to speak with players, coaches and staff should be directed to Ross Taylor (rt5@clemson.edu) or a member of the Clemson athletic communications staff. Members of the media who reach out directly to players, coaches or staff without prior approval of Clemson staff may face suspension or revocation of credentials.

SOCIAL MEDIA

The official Clemson football social media accounts for Twitter, Instagram and Facebook are all @ClemsonFB. Fans can find us on YouTube at Clemson Tigers.

2023 OUTLOOK

Head Coach Dabo Swinney has always been an avid student of competitive greatness, notably the competitive stamina required for individuals, teams, businesses and others to not only succeed at the highest level, but to do so repeatedly.

After a one-year aberration in 2021, Swinney's Tigers returned to the top of the ACC in 2022, parlaying Clemson's competitive stamina into its seventh conference title of the last eight years and into the Tigers' 12th consecutive 10-win season, the third-longest streak in FBS history. Clemson's win in the 2022 ACC Championship Game also gave the Tigers at least one postseason win in 12 consecutive years, the longest streak in major college football history.

Swinney's 2023 team will attempt to build on Clemson's enduring recent foundation of competitive excellence, assimilating new leadership into its offense at offensive coordinator and at quarterback while welcoming three All-Americans, according to various outlets, back to its defensive front seven.

OFFENSE

Clemson made arguably the biggest splash hire among assistant coaches in the 2023 offseason when Swinney announced in January the hiring of Garrett Riley as Clemson's Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks Coach. Riley won the Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach after his lone season at TCU in 2022 in which he helped turn the Horned Frogs from a 5-7 squad into a group that went 13-2 and earned a berth in the CFP National Championship Game.

In three years as an offensive coordinator prior to his arrival at Clemson at SMU (2020,21) and TCU (2022), all three Riley offenses finished in the top 15 nationally in scoring offense. His units as the coordinator at SMU and TCU from 2020-22 combined would rank third in the nation in points per game in that span at 38.6 points per game, trailing only Ohio State (44.0) and Alabama (43.0) in that stretch.

Riley's 2022 TCU squad led the FBS with 22 plays from scrimmage of 50 yards or more. He envisions that same explosiveness being central to Clemson's new offensive identity.

WILL SHIPLEY BECAME THE FIRST PLAYER IN HISTORY TO EARN ALL-ACC HONORS AT THREE DIFFERENT POSITIONS.

"We're going to be violent and fast," said Riley. "I think it starts there. No matter if we're in the passing game or the run game, we're going to attack."

Riley will inherit an offensive line that returns four starters, one of the nation's most versatile playmakers at running back and a highly touted quarterback whose skill set and mentality fits Riley's aggressiveness.

QUARTERBACKS

Clemson's transition at quarterback began in earnest in the first quarter of the 2022 ACC Championship Game when then-freshman Cade Klubnik entered in Clemson's third series and immediately engineered three consecutive touchdown drives followed by an end-of-half field goal drive. He earned MVP honors for that performance against No. 24 North Carolina after completing 20-of-24 passes for 279 yards and a touchdown, rushing seven times for 30 yards with a rushing touchdown and recording a 19-yard reception. In his next game, Klubnik threw for 320 yards in his first career start in the 2022 Orange Bowl and now enters the spring as Clemson's incumbent at the position.

Klubnik was a consensus five-star prospect in Clemson's 2022 recruiting class, and Riley inherited another top recruit at the position in the 2023 recruiting class in Christopher Vizzina. Vizzina ranked among the nation's top 50 prospects upon signing in December, and he enrolled in January to jumpstart his development. Clemson also added veteran depth at the position in December, signing transfer Paul Tyson after stints at Alabama (2019-21) and Arizona State (2022) to supplement fourth-year quarterback Hunter Helms, an original walk-on who earned a scholarship prior to the 2021 season.

RUNNING BACKS

Clemson's C.J. Spiller earned induction into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2021 as one of the most versatile and explosive players in the history of the sport. In his second season as running backs coach at Clemson in 2022, he produced another of college football's most versatile players as part of a deep unit that powered Clemson to a third-place ranking in the ACC in rushing yards.

Will Shipley returns for his third season at Clemson as one of the program's unquestioned leaders and heartbeats. In 2022, he was one of four finalists for the Paul Hornung Award, given annually to the nation's most versatile player. He was the only player in the nation to record at least 1,150 rushing yards, at least 200 receiving yards and at least 300 kickoff return yards, joining a pantheon of recent greats - Kansas State's Darren Sproles (2004), USC's Reggie Bush (2005), Cal's Jahvid Best (2008), Spiller (2009), Nebraska's Ameer Abdullah (2014), Stanford's Christian McCaffrey (2015 and 2016), Oklahoma's Joe Mixon (2016) and Penn State's Saquon Barkley (2017) - as the only Power Five Conference players to hit those figures in every category in the previous 20 seasons.

Shipley became the first player in history to earn First-Team All-ACC honors at three different positions, collecting first-team accolades in the running back, all-purpose and specialist categories. Perhaps most impressively, Shipley achieved immense on-field success while simultaneously carrying a 4.0 cumulative GPA and becoming Clemson's first Academic All-American since 2012.

Shipley's close friend and roommate Phil Mafah also returns for his third season following a career year as a sophomore. Mafah posted career highs in 2022, totaling 515 yards and four touchdowns on fewer than 100 carries, improving his yards-per-carry average by a full yard from his freshman campaign.

Joining Mafah among returning scholarship running backs is redshirt freshman Keith Adams Jr. Adams is a Clemson legacy who bears the same physicality that was the hallmark of his father, Keith Adams, a two-time All-America linebacker who won 1999 ACC Defensive Player of the Year and still holds Clemson's single-season records for tackles, tackles for loss and sacks. Domonique Thomas returns for his second season at Clemson, as the powerful back nicknamed "Quadzilla" for his rotund thighs earned a scholarship last season after walking on following a family tragedy that prematurely ended the early portion of his college career at NAIA Union College in Kentucky.

Two signees coming off prodigious prep careers bolstered the room in the summer. Jay Haynes rushed for more than 2,600 yards his final two prep seasons, including a 476-yard effort in one game as a senior that ranked second in Alabama high school history. Jarvis Green helped carry state powerhouse Dutch Fork High School to another state title as a senior in 2022 as part of a career in which he amassed more than 6,000 all-purpose yards.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Wide Receivers Coach Tyler Grisham made his name as a Clemson slot receiver from 2005-08 before moving on to a four-year NFL career. In his second season as Clemson's wide receivers coach, his tutelage aided in the breakout season of another standout slot receiver.

Antonio Williams earned freshman All-America honors for a 2022 season in which he led Clemson in receptions (56) and receiving yards (604) while making 10 starts, the most by a Clemson freshman receiver since Hunter Renfrow's redshirt freshman season (10 in 2015) and the most by a true freshman receiver at Clemson since Sammy Watkins (10 in 2011). Williams became the first true freshman to lead Clemson in receiving yards since Justyn Ross in 2018 and the first to lead in receptions since Artavis Scott in 2014.

Williams was one of three scholarship true freshmen at receiver last year, including Adam Randall and Cole Turner. Randall was in the midst of a head-turning set of practices before tearing his ACL last spring and spending the fall trying to play his way back into shape. Turner, despite redshirting, tied the Clemson record for the fewest games needed to record a 100-yard receiving performance when he gained 101 yards in his second career game in the 2022 ACC Championship Game.

Clemson's active leader in career receiving yards is junior Beaux Collins, who has compiled 780 yards and eight touchdowns in his first two seasons at Clemson. Before being slowed by injuries late in the year, he got off to a hot start in 2022, becoming the first Clemson player to catch a touchdown in each of the first four games of a season since Sammy Watkins in 2011.

After losing significant time early in his career to COVID-19, respiratory symptoms and gastroesophageal reflux disease, Brannon Spector returned in 2022 and scored touchdowns at Wake Forest and Boston College among his 15 receptions. Third-year receiver Troy Stellato will attempt to replicate Spector's blueprint for a successful return after missing the 2022 season with a knee injury suffered in preseason practice.

Clemson signed four wide receivers in its 2023 recruiting class. Noble Johnson enrolled midyear and participated in spring practice. He was joined in the summer by Tyler Brown, Ronan Hanafin and Misun Kelley, the last of whom was recruited as an athlete but is expected to start his career at receiver.

TIGHT ENDS

Passing Game Coordinator/Tight Ends Coach Kyle Richardson proclaimed himself to be "a pig in mud" during the 2023 season, as the arrival of Offensive Coordinator Garrett Riley meant Richardson's return to the Air Raid system he learned from system patriarch Hal Mumme at Southeastern Louisiana, a system Richardson ran to near-perfection during a remarkable high school coaching career at Rock Hill's Northwestern High School.

The NFL departure of four-year contributor Davis Allen creates opportunity for Clemson's next wave of tight ends, the most prolific of whom to date has been now-third-year tight end Jake Briningstool. Per the 247Sports Composite, the native of Brentwood, Tenn. was the nation's top-rated tight end in the class of 2021, two spots ahead of reigning Mackey Award recipient Brock Bowers. Briningstool posted career highs in receptions (25), receiving yards (285) and receiving touchdowns (4) in an elevated role of nearly 400 offensive snaps in 2022.

Sage Ennis enters his fourth year as a veteran of 278 offensive snaps over 31 career games. The other returning scholarship tight end is Josh Sapp, a Clemson legacy who redshirted last year and is the son of Patrick Sapp, a former Clemson quarterback-turned-linebacker who was a second-round pick in the 1996 NFL Draft. Scholarship signees Markus Dixon and Olsen Patt-Henry joined the group in the summer.

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

A year after Clemson battled season-long attrition and turnover along the offensive line in 2021, Offensive Line Coach Thomas Austin benefited from continuity in his first season on the job in 2022. Clemson played only three offensive line combinations over 14 games in 2022 after playing seven different combinations over 13 games in 2021. In 2022, four different offensive linemen played at least 900 offensive snaps for the second time in team history.

Clemson's only scholarship departure from its 2022 offensive line group was Jacobs Blocking Trophy winner Jordan McFadden, as Clemson's returning offensive linemen combined for 4,281 of the unit's 5,100+ offensive snaps in 2022. Four starters return, three of whom excelled in new positions.

Will Putnam is now the unit's elder statesman. A key reserve in 2019 and two-year starter at guard from 2020-21, Putnam seamlessly transitioned to center in 2022, earning All-ACC recognition in his first season at the position. Putnam enters 2023 having played 2,611 snaps from scrimmage, already the 19th most in Clemson history, over 47 career games with 36 starts.

Putnam's roommate, Walker Parks, returns for his third year as a starter in 2022 as a veteran of nearly 2,000 career snaps over 37 games with 26 starts. After serving as Clemson's starting right tackle in 2021, Parks started all 13 games in which he appeared in 2022 at right guard, a move that created room for Freshman All-American Blake Miller to start all 14 games and play 989 offensive snaps at right tackle. An opening-day starter, Miller joined Mitch Hyatt (2015) and Phil Prince (1944) as the only Clemson true freshmen since 1944 to start a season opener at offensive tackle.

Marcus Tate enters his third season having started 19 of his 24 career games at Clemson, including each of the first 11 games of 2022 at left guard prior to suffering a season-ending knee injury. The injury created opportunity for now-fourth-year lineman Mitchell Mayes, who played a career-high 405 snaps with four starts at guard, one in place of an injured Parks and three in place of an injured Tate.

Surgeries and rehab precluded Parks and Tate from participating fully in the spring, which Swinney called a "blessing in disguise" as Clemson sought to see which members of its crowded second unit from a year ago are ready to step into more prominent roles with the benefit of added practice reps. The veterans of that group are fourth-year linemen Bryn Tucker, Trent Howard and John Williams, all of whom were part of the 2020 recruiting class as Mayes. Tucker and Howard have played 127 and 125 career offensive snaps, respectively, while a season-long injury in 2021 helped limit Williams to only 29 career snaps to date.

Tristan Leigh, Ryan Linthicum and Dietrick Pennington all enter their third seasons in search of a redshirt sophomore leap. Clemson's group has been vocally bullish on Collin Sadler as he enters his second season in the program after a redshirt year in 2022.

All three of Clemson's 2023 signees along the offensive line enrolled in January and got a head start in spring practice. The talented and agile Texas two-step of Ian Reed and Harris Sewell was joined by mammoth interior presence Zack Owens, who arrived on campus in January north of 350 pounds.

DEFENSE

In his first full season as defensive coordinator, Wes Goodwin helped Clemson rank in the top 25 nationally in points allowed per game (22nd, 20.9), rushing yards allowed per game (13th, 102.7), yards allowed per carry (9th, 3.25), sacks (tied for 4th, 44), tackles for loss (2nd, 111) and passes defended (9th, 77). His unit reached those heights despite significant turnover in the back seven that included the departure of five 2021 starters with an incredible 269 combined games of experience.

This year, led by two stars in his linebacker group that emerged following those departures as well as some surprise returners, Goodwin's unit will attempt to continue to build upon the defensive foundation that has helped propel Clemson to seven of the last eight ACC titles.

DEFENSIVE TACKLES

Many at Clemson felt the program recorded a coup in welcoming former Clemson defensive tackle Nick Eason home in 2022 as the team's defensive run game coordinator/defensive tackles coach after 17 seasons as an NFL player and coach and one year coaching at Auburn. Those inclinations were proven right both on and off the field, as his unit's on-field performance was supplemented by his selection by 247Sports as the ACC's Recruiter of the Year.

While the unit was hit by the departure of prospective first-round pick Bryan Bresee, it received a jolt from the unexpected returns of Tyler Davis and Ruke Orhorhoro, two now-fifth-year players who elected to return to Clemson despite receiving positive draft grades from NFL talent evaluators. Davis was a 2022 FWAA All-American who is already tied with Christian Wilkins, Dexter Lawrence and William Perry with three each for the most career All-ACC selections by a defensive tackle in Clemson history. Orhorhoro posted 8.0 tackles for loss, 4.0 sacks, five pass breakups, nine quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery in 14 games with nine starts to earn third-team All-ACC honors from Phil Steele and Pro Football Focus in 2022.

Tré Williams and DeMonte Capehart are entering their fourth seasons at Clemson in 2023. Williams was a key cog in Clemson's defensive rotation amid a rash of injuries to the unit in 2021, playing 243 defensive snaps over 11 games with one start that year and contributing 142 snaps in 12 games in 2022. Injuries and depth limited Capehart in his first two seasons, but he emerged in rotational duty late in 2022, including a three-tackle performance in 17 snaps in the Orange Bowl.

Third-year junior Payton Page flashed in his 200-plus snaps over 14 games in 2022, as the sizable interior presence recorded 3.5 tackles for loss, a fumble recovery and a blocked field goal. Redshirt freshman

DEFENSIVE TACKLE TYLER DAVIS RETURNS FOR HIS FIFTH SEASON.

Caden Story rounds out the returning scholarship players at the position.

Eason's Recruiter of the Year bona fides were further legitimized in January upon the arrival of three heralded defensive tackle recruits as midyear enrollees. Peter Woods was a Rivals five-star prospect and ESPN's No. 9 overall recruit in the nation as a four-time 7A state champion in Alabama, and he is joined at the position by two Peach State standouts: Vic Burley, the reigning Georgia 5A Defensive Player of the Year, and Stephiylan Green, whom On3 ranked among the nation's top 50 players across all positions in the class of 2023.

DEFENSIVE ENDS

Eason's NFL experience is supplemented further along Clemson's defensive line by the presence of nine-year NFL veteran Lemanski Hall as defensive ends coach. Hall's unit helped Clemson's defense record 44 sacks in 2022, and the Tigers have reached the 40-sack milestone in nine consecutive seasons, or every year of the CFP era, while no other program has exceeded five such seasons in that span.

In 2018, many suspected Xavier Thomas would parlay his status as a consensus top-five recruit nationally into a "three-and-done" college career en route to the NFL. Thomas has showcased his immense ability at Clemson despite publicly battling COVID-19, depression and illness-related weight gain in his career plus a foot injury that cost him all but 52 defensive snaps in 2022. He elected to return for his sixth season at Clemson credited already with 30 career tackles for loss, 14.5 sacks and five caused fumbles amid his 49 career games with the Tigers.

Also returning for a sixth season is Justin Mascoll, a veteran and trusted option on the edge who has already logged more than 1,100 snaps in 53 career games with 13 starts in his career while rotating with a bevy of defensive ends who will be plying their craft in the NFL in 2023.

The NFL departures of K.J. Henry and Myles Murphy (and their combined 65 tackles for loss and 31 sacks in 96 combined career games) have opened playing time windows for Clemson's other defensive ends. Cade Denhoff and Zaire Patterson are both entering their redshirt sophomore seasons. Jahiem Lawson, the younger brother of former Clemson All-American and current NFL defensive end Shaq Lawson, also returns after redshirting in 2022.

Clemson added three defensive ends in its 2023 recruiting class. T.J. Parker continued Clemson's recent pipeline from Phenix City, Alabama's Central High School and enrolled at Clemson in January. David Ojiegbe and A.J. Hoffler added to Clemson's infusion of youth at the position in the summer.

LINEBACKERS

Arguably no position group faced a steeper learning curve for 2022 than the linebackers, a unit that had to replace 69-game veteran and multi-time All-ACC selection James Skalski and 53-game veteran and current Buffalo Bill Baylon Spector. In his first season overseeing the unit, Linebackers Coach Wes Goodwin masterfully developed a pair of precocious talents that enter 2023 as one of college football's premier linebacking duos.

Upon his arrival at Clemson in 2021, there was no doubting the football pedigree of Jeremiah Trotter Jr., the son of "Axe Man" Jeremiah Trotter, a four-time Pro Bowler and veteran of 12 NFL seasons. In his first season as Clemson's Mike linebacker, "Axe Man Jr." was a revelation, earning second-team All-America honors from the Associated Press after starting all 14 games and leading the team in tackles (92) and tackles for loss (13.5), tying for the team lead in sacks (6.5) and adding six pass breakups, a caused fumble and an interception return for a touchdown. He was one of only three Power Five players in 2022 to reach at least 13 tackles for loss, six sacks and return an interception for a touchdown, joining two-time Nagurski Award winner Will Anderson Jr. of Alabama and national championship participant Dee Winters of TCU, and Trotter was the only member of that trio also to produce a caused fumble.

Trotter's running mate at the position in the 2021 recruiting class was Barrett Carter, a fluid athlete whom Swinney has repeatedly called "one of the best pure football players I've had in 20 years." Carter earned fourth-team All-America status from Phil Steele after he posted 77 tackles (10.5 for loss), 5.5 sacks, eight pass breakups, two interceptions and two caused fumbles in a unit-high 832 snaps over 13 games (all starts) in 2022. Prior to Carter and two others in 2022, the last two Power Five Conference players to reach 10 tackles for loss, five sacks, two caused fumbles and two interceptions in a season were Georgia's Nakobe Dean in 2021 and Clemson's Isaiah Simmons in 2019, years in which both players won the Butkus Award.

Clemson's coaching staff is confident in its ability to replace NFL-bound linebacker Trenton Simpson in part because of the eye-opening performance of now-sophomore Wade Woodaz down the stretch in the 2022 season. Woodaz blocked a punt in his first career contest, and late in the season, his versatility helped him start the ACC Championship Game win at safety and serve as the team's primary Sam linebacker, and record two tackles for loss, during Simpson's absence in the Orange Bowl.

The unit will seek to further develop two second-year players who redshirted a season ago: T.J. Dudley and Kobe McCloud. Goodwin also added two true freshmen at the position in the 2023 recruiting class, securing the signatures of midyear enrollees Dee Crayton and Jamal Anderson, the latter of whom is the son of the eight-year NFL running back and former All-Pro of the same name.

CORNERBACKS

Now entering his 11th season guiding Clemson's cornerbacks, Assistant Head Coach/Cornerbacks Coach Mike Reed is Clemson's longest-tenured position coach. He produced both first-team All-ACC corners in 2021 and oversaw a breakout stretch run by a young member of his unit in 2022.

Nate Wiggins, called by teammates and coaches as one of Clemson's most naturally gifted corners in recent memory, made a sophomore leap down the stretch of his second season in 2022. His 12 pass breakups were one shy of the Clemson sophomore record of 13 shared by James Lott (1987) and Justin Miller (2003) and were the most by a Clemson defender of any classification in a season since Coty Sensabaugh's 13 in 2011. His highlight 98-yard interception return in the ACC Championship Game was the longest play in the game's history and the second-longest interception return in Clemson history.

Wiggins will once again benefit from the accessibility of veteran wisdom, as Sheridan Jones opted to use his free year of eligibility from the COVID-19 pandemic to return for a fifth season at Clemson. Jones started all 10 games in which he appeared in 2022, pushing his career totals to 48 games and 21 starts.

Two of Clemson's cornerback signees in 2022, Toriano Pride Jr. and Jeadyn Lukus, each had moments to shine in their true freshman campaigns. Pride notched an interception in Clemson's prime-time win against No. 10 NC State and recorded a safety against Miami (Fla.), while Lukus snagged a highlight-reel interception of North Carolina's Drake Maye in the ACC Championship Game. The duo comprised two of Clemson's three cornerback signees in 2022, joining Myles Oliver, who missed every game except the Orange Bowl in 2022 while rehabbing from shoulder surgery.

Clemson added another trio of cornerbacks in its 2023 recruiting class. Shelton Lewis impressed coaches and teammates during bowl practices after enrolling early. The group welcomed Branden Strozier and Avieon Terrell over the summer. Terrell is the younger brother of former Clemson cornerback A.J. Terrell, now an All-Pro performer for the Atlanta Falcons.

SAFETIES

Goodwin and Reed weren't the only Clemson defensive coaches facing the departure of substantial experience from their 2021 units in 2022. While replacing 65-game veteran safety Nolan Turner, Co-Defensive Coordinator/Safeties Coach Mickey Conn mixed and matched his safeties in 2022 while helping Clemson to its 10th consecutive top-25 finish in scoring defense at 20.9 points per game.

The most veteran member of Conn's safety group is Jalyn Phillips, who elected to use his free COVID year to return for a fifth season at Clemson. Named by his teammates as a permanent team captain in 2022, Phillips started all 14 games, was second on the team in tackles (82) and added four pass breakups, an interception and a recovered fumble in 667 snaps.

Clemson also welcomes back a pair of productive safeties with prominent last names for their fourth years in the program. R.J. Mickens, son of nine-year NFL veteran Ray Mickens, is Clemson's active career leader in interceptions (5), while Tyler Venables, son of former Clemson coordinator and current Oklahoma coach Brent Venables, has fashioned himself into a key defensive and special teams contributor in playing 34 games over the last three seasons.

Andrew Mukuba was the ACC's Defensive Rookie of the Year in 2021 but battled through elbow, knee and ankle injuries in 2022 while starting at both safety and cornerback at various points of the season. Clemson's scholarship safety group will also include two second-year players: Sherrod Covil Jr., who played 13 games in his debut season in 2022, and Kylon Griffin, who appeared in two games while redshirting.

Two of Clemson's three signees at safety in the class of 2023 joined the program as midyear enrollees. Khalil Barnes was a multi-time player-of-the-year honoree in his district in Georgia, and Kylen Webb was a multi-position and multi-sport athlete at Florida's Sumner High School. Marietta, Ga. native Rob Billings rounded out the trio in the summer.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Director of Special Teams Bill Spiers and Special Teams Coordinator Mike Reed will be in the market for a new placekicker for the first time since the 2019 offseason, as gone from Clemson's group is B.T. Potter, who tied the Clemson record for games played (69) and exited holding school records in field goals (73), PATs (234), points by a placekicker (453), consecutive PATs made (the first 122 and last 112 of his career on either side of his lone miss), starts by a placekicker (54), yards on field goals (2,716), field goals of 40-plus yards (34) and field goals of 50-plus yards (9).

Robert Gunn III effectively served a year in residence as Potter's understudy in his freshman campaign in 2022. He enters his redshirt freshman season as the lone placekicker on scholarship, but he is joined by returning walk-ons Quinn Castner and Hogan Morton in competition for that spot in 2023.

Clemson's roster features two scholarship punters. Redshirt senior Aidan Swanson averaged 42.3 yards per punt in his first season as Clemson's starter at the position in 2022, and Jack Smith made his collegiate debut with a 47-yard punt in the ACC Championship Game amid a redshirt season.

Clemson split its snapping duties in 2022, and both long snappers are slated to return for 2023. Both Holden Caspersen and Philip Florenzo played in all 14 games a year ago, as Caspersen served as Clemson's snapper on punts while Florenzo handled snaps on placekicks.

DABO SWINNEY

- HEAD COACH
- 15TH FULL SEASON AS HEAD COACH
- 21ST SEASON ON CLEMSON STAFF
- ALABAMA '93

An illustrious coaching heritage is embedded in the foundation of Clemson football. At the dawn of the 20th century, the Tigers were led by future College Football Hall of Famer John Heisman. Hall of Famers Jess Neely, Frank Howard and Danny Ford followed in Heisman's winning tradition.

Now entering his 16th season (and 15th full season) as Clemson's head coach, Dabo Swinney has already carved his name into that foundation, elevating himself amid a pantheon of Clemson greats by becoming the first coach in program history to lead Clemson to multiple national championships.

Swinney's stratospheric start to his head coaching career placed his record not only among Clemson legends but also among the names of the winningest leaders in the 150-plus years of major college football.

Swinney coached the 200th game of his career in the 2022 Orange Bowl, and his 161-39 record through 200 career games positioned him alongside College Football Hall of Famers Bob Stoops and Robert Neyland for the fifth-most wins through 200 games in FBS history. His 161 wins also passed Stoops for the second-most through the first 15 seasons of a career in FBS annals despite Swinney being limited to only seven games in his first season while serving in an interim capacity.

Swinney's 2022 squad went 11-3 and returned the Tigers to the ACC throne, earning a 39-10 win in the ACC Championship Game against North Carolina to give the Tigers their seventh ACC title in eight years. Clemson became the first program in an active Power Five conference to win seven outright titles in an eight-year span since Alabama won eight out of nine SEC titles outright from 1971-79.

Clemson's 2022 squad extended its streak of consecutive 10-win seasons to 12, becoming only the third FBS program ever to record double-digit wins in a dozen consecutive seasons. The ACC title also gave Clemson's 2021 and 2022 recruiting classes their first conference title, ensuring that every recruiting class in Swinney's tenure as head coach has won at least one ACC championship at Clemson.

In 2021, Swinney's final win of the season in the Cheez-It Bowl was his 150th career win in his 186th game as head coach. In terms of games played, Swinney became the sixth-fastest coach in FBS history — and the fourth-fastest in the modern era — to earn 150 career wins, trailing Urban Meyer (176), Gil Dobie (180), Barry Switzer (180), Fielding Yost (184) and Joe Paterno (184). At the conclusion of that season, only 16 coaches in FBS history including Swinney had accomplished the feat within 200 games, and 14 of the 16 had been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame, with the lone exceptions being Swinney and Meyer, both of whom are not yet eligible.

Though other seasons resulted in more hardware, analysts and observers opined that 2021 might have been Swinney's best coaching job, as the Tiger mentor guided his team through adversity and attrition to overcome a 2-2 start to finish 10-3. Clemson entered that October as one of 28 Power Five teams with two or more losses, yet concluded the season as one of only two of those 28 programs to finish the season having reached 10 wins.

Swinney's 2021 Tigers played seven one-possession games, one shy of the school record, and went 5-2 in those contests. The squad's success came in spite of tremendous turnover and attrition, as 48 different players earned at least one start, eight more than in the pandemic-impacted 2020 season. Only 23 Tigers played in all 13 games, and only four offensive or defensive players started all 13. Between injuries and transfers, he held aloft the 2021 Cheez-It Bowl trophy following a game Clemson finished without the services of 30 scholarship players from its initial fall roster.

A year earlier, Swinney's squad accomplished its "double-double mission" in 2020, going 10-2 in a condensed season to give Clemson 10 consecutive 10-win seasons. Clemson became only the third program in FBS history to accomplish the feat and became the first school to win 10 games in 10 straight seasons as a member of the ACC, as only the final nine of Florida State's record 14-straight 10-win seasons came during the Seminoles' tenure in the ACC.

The pandemic-affected 2020 campaign was a historic one for the Tigers both as a team and individually, as quarterback Trevor Lawrence ascended to become the winningest quarterback in school history (34-2) and running back Travis Etienne added the ACC's all-time rushing crown (4,952 yards) to his arsenal of school and conference records. Etienne's versatility as a rusher and receiver earned him consensus All-American honors as an all-purpose selection, while Lawrence became the second Heisman Trophy finalist in program history, tying Deshaun Watson (second in 2016) for the highest finish in Heisman Trophy voting in school history.

The prolific backfield duo under Swinney's tutelage helped guide Clemson to its sixth consecutive outright conference title with a 34-10 win against Notre Dame in the ACC Championship Game. That day, Clemson and Oklahoma's six-year streaks of outright conference titles made the two programs the first among current Power Five programs to win at least six straight outright titles since Oklahoma (12 from 1948-59) as part of the now-dissolved Big 8 Conference.

The conference title helped Clemson secure its sixth College Football Playoff berth, becoming the first program ever to reach the postseason tournament in six consecutive seasons. Clemson is 6-4 all-time in College Football Playoff games, the second-most wins of any program since the format's inception.

Clemson finished 2020 as the nation's No. 3-ranked squad, the Tigers' sixth consecutive top-four finish in the AP poll. In doing so, Swinney joined Bobby Bowden (13), Pete Carroll (7) and Bud Wilkinson (6) as the only coaches since the AP Poll's inception in 1936 to record six consecutive top-four finishes. In that stretch, Clemson appeared in the top five of 57 consecutive AP Polls, the second-longest streak in poll history.

Clemson entered the third decade of the 21st century in 2020 after Swinney helped author one of the most prolific 10-year periods in the history of the sport. Clemson posted a 117-22 record under Swinney's leadership in the 2010s, and the program's 117 wins trailed only Penn (124 in the 1890s) and Alabama (124 in the 2010s) to tie for the third-most in a decade in major college football since 1890. Clemson's 117 wins in the 2010s represented the first 100-win decade in Clemson history.

Before a pandemic-shortened season in 2020, Clemson won at least 12 games in five straight seasons from 2015-19, tied for the longest such streak in the modern era and only two seasons shy of Penn's record seven-season streak from 1892-98. Clemson won 69 games in that five-year span, the most in a five-year stretch in the AP Poll era.

In 2019, the Tigers earned their fifth-consecutive College Football Playoff berth following their fifth-consecutive ACC title, becoming the first team in college football history to win five straight conference championship games since conference title games were created in 1992.

Clemson posted a 14-1 record that year, earning its fourth appearance in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game in five years. Prior to the season finale, Clemson extended its school-record winning streak to 29 games, tied with Florida State (2012-14) for the longest streak in ACC history and for the 12th-longest in FBS history.

Clemson dominated the vast majority of its 2019 opponents, including an eight-game streak of wins by 30 or more points to break the longest streak in the AP Poll era, surpassing the previous mark of seven games set by 2011 Houston and 1976 Michigan.

At 161-39, Swinney (.805) enters the 2023 season as the winningest active coach by percentage in the FBS among coaches with at least 10 seasons of head coaching experience. With an initial hire date of Oct. 13, 2008, he is the senior member of the ACC's head coaching fraternity and enters 2023 as the seventh-longest-tenured head coach in the FBS.

Clemson's success on the gridiron has been matched by its prowess in the classroom, as prior to the NCAA suspending APR reporting during the COVID-19 pandemic, Clemson was one of only three programs to earn top-10 percent APR recognition from the NCAA in at least nine of the previous 10 years, joining Duke and Northwestern. Clemson was in the top 10 of APR scores and the final top 25 of the AP and USA Today polls from 2011-15, the only FBS program that could make that claim. In 2017, Clemson became the first school to reach the College Football Playoff and finish in the top five of APR scores in the same year.

Clemson also produced the 2018 William V. Campbell Trophy winner (known colloquially as the "Academic Heisman") in Christian Wilkins and won the program's first AFCA Academic Achievement Award. Clemson repeated as AFCA Academic Achievement Award recipients in 2019, becoming the only school in the country to repeat and doing so while appearing in the national championship game in both seasons.

Swinney and Clemson's 2018 season was one for which statistics and superlatives accumulated in historic fashion. The Tigers became the first major college football team in the modern era (and the first since Penn in 1897) to finish a season with a 15-0 record.

The list of "firsts" was long and distinguished. Clemson became the first program to win four consecutive Atlantic Division titles, and with a 42-10 win against Pittsburgh in the ACC Championship Game, it became the first program to win four straight ACC titles outright.

Clemson's 15 wins included a school-record 12 against teams who finished with winning records. Clemson won by an average margin of 31.1 points per game, the best in the nation and the second-largest in school history, trailing only a 35.3-point average margin in 1900. Among the seasons it passed was a 30.4-point average margin in 1901, a season in which Clemson won one of its five games by a score of 122-0.

Clemson set school records in points (664) and total offense (7,718, also an ACC record). The defense held opponents to 13.1 points per game, leading the country in scoring defense for the first time in school history.

A critical point in the season came four games into the campaign. Following a 49-21 win at Georgia Tech in which true freshman quarterback Trevor Lawrence threw for four touchdowns in reserve, Swinney and the coaching staff elected to name Lawrence the starter, supplanting senior Kelly Bryant, who had led the Tigers to a 16-2 career record as a starter.

With Lawrence leading Swinney's Tigers, Clemson took flight. After a dramatic come-from-behind 27-23 win against Syracuse in which Lawrence exited the game with an injury, Clemson rattled off 10 consecutive wins of 20 points or more to conclude the season, and brought home the Woody Hayes Award as national coach of the year. Less than a week after winning the national title, he also won the Paul "Bear" Bryant Award, becoming the first three-time winner of the award. Including the 2018 Bryant and Hayes Awards, he has won national coach-of-the-year honors from at least one organization in five of the last 10 years.

The 2018 season was preceded by a 2017 campaign in which Clemson was on a mission to prove that it was built to last. Swinney guided the team to a 12-2 record, an ACC title and a College Football Playoff berth despite having only six scholarship seniors and losing players who accounted for 77 percent of the offense during the 2016 national championship season.

While Clemson was ranked No. 5 in the preseason AP Poll, few expected the Tigers to be ranked No. 1 in both polls and the College Football Playoff ranking entering the bowl season. In fact, Clemson was not even the preseason choice to win the ACC Atlantic Division.

Despite a setback in the Sugar Bowl to the eventual national champion, Alabama, Clemson finished ranked No. 4 in both polls. Swinney was inducted into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame following the season.

The Tiger-record six wins over top-25 teams in 2017, also a national best, included a school-record four on opponents' home fields and five away from home. The defense, including three defensive linemen, featured four players who were named All-American, helping Clemson finish in the top four in the nation in scoring defense (No. 2) and total defense (No. 4). Clemson led the ACC in the four major defensive categories (scoring, total, rushing, passing), a first in history.

The 2016 Tigers lived up to their hype after compiling a 14-1 record and earning a spot in the College Football Playoff for the second-straight year. Along the way, Clemson knocked off five top-25 foes.

Clemson defeated the top two teams in the national polls in consecutive games in the College Football Playoff at the end of the season. The Tigers blanked Ohio State, 31-0, in the Fiesta Bowl, the first shutout suffered by head coach Urban Meyer in his career and the first for Ohio State since 1993.

The Tigers then earned a rematch with No. 1 Alabama, and for the first time in school history, took down the top-ranked team in a second epic battle with the storied Crimson Tide program. Quarterback Deshaun Watson's touchdown pass to Hunter Renfrow with one second left on the clock gave Clemson a dramatic 35-31 victory in Tampa, Fla. Swinney received the Bear Bryant Award as national coach-of-the-year for the second consecutive season.

Swinney coached Watson to two record-setting seasons in 2015 and 2016. The two-time Heisman Trophy finalist became the first player in FBS history to total 4,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in a season in 2015, and he followed by setting an ACC record with 41 passing touchdowns in 2016. Watson won both the Davey O'Brien Award and Manning Award in back-to-back seasons.

Swinney guided Clemson to the No. 1 national ranking in every College Football Playoff poll in 2015 and led the Tigers to their first national championship game appearance under the new format after his team defeated Oklahoma, 37-17, in the 2015 Orange Bowl. The Tigers led Alabama in the fourth quarter of the championship contest, but came up just short (45-40) in an epic game in Glendale, Ariz.

Following the team's 14-1 record and No. 2 final ranking, he was the recipient of 10 national and two ACC Coach-of-the-Year honors.

In 2015, a then-Tiger-record 17 players were named to one of three All-ACC teams, including all five starting offensive linemen for the first time in school history. In 2016, 15 players were honored, including a school-record three first-team All-ACC offensive line selections.

The 2012, 2013 and 2014 seasons were also noteworthy, with three top-15 final rankings.

With a 40-6 Russell Athletic Bowl victory over Oklahoma in 2014, Swinney became the first coach in history to win three bowl games in consecutive seasons over teams whose head coaches had previously won the national title. He upped that mark to five years in a row in 2016.

Clemson capped off the 2013 season with a thrilling 40-35 victory over No. 6 Ohio State in the Orange Bowl. Clemson had an 11-2 record after finishing 7-1 in ACC regular-season games. It marked Clemson's first back-to-back 11-win seasons in school history. For the fourth time in his first five full seasons as head coach, Swinney was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year in 2013.

The 2012 season (11-2) gave Clemson back-to-back 10-win seasons for the first time in 22 years. Its seven conference wins in the regular season were then including blowout wins of No. 3 Notre Dame in the Cotton Bowl and No. 1 Alabama in the College Football Playoff National Championship.

Seven players earned first or second-team All-America honors, including a school-record three players who collected consensus honors. The 2018 Tigers produced a team-record 18 All-ACC picks and became the first team to produce the ACC Player of the Year, ACC Offensive Player of the Year, ACC Defensive Player of the Year, ACC Offensive Rookie of the Year and ACC Coach of the Year in a season since Florida State in 1997.

Accolades also accumulated for Swinney, who earned his second career ACC Coach-of-the-Year honor a school record, and Clemson was co-champion of the ACC Atlantic Division.

With Clemson's thrilling 25-24 win over No. 7 LSU in the 2012 Chick-fil-A Bowl, the Tigers finished the season ranked No. 9 in the USA Today poll. It was Clemson's first top-10 finish in one of the two major polls since 1990. Clemson also reached the 11-win mark for the first time since its 1981 national championship season.

Swinney's 2011 squad, which ended the season ranked No. 22 in the nation, captured Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 when it beat No. 3 Virginia Tech, 38-10, in the ACC Championship Game in Charlotte, N.C. It gave Clemson its first 10-win season since 1990. For his efforts, Swinney was named Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year in 2011 to become the first Tiger head coach to win a national coach-of-the-year award since Ford in 1981.

In 2010, Swinney became just the second Tiger coach to lead Clemson to a bowl game in his first two full years as head coach, joining his predecessor, Tommy Bowden. The 2010 schedule was one of the most challenging in school history, as nine bowl teams were on the regular-season slate and two of the four non-conference opponents were ranked in the top 25.

In 2009, Swinney's first full season as head coach at Clemson, he led the Tigers to their first ACC Atlantic Division title. The Tigers came just six points short of winning their first ACC title in 18 years. Swinney was named ACC Coach of the Year by Sporting News and was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year.

In October 2008, Swinney was named Clemson's interim head coach, replacing Bowden, who had been his position coach as a player at Alabama and was Clemson's head coach since 1999. He led the Tigers to a 4-2 record during the rest of the 2008 regular season, including a win over South Carolina in the regular-season finale to earn a Gator Bowl bid against Nebraska.

On Dec. 1, 2008, his interim tag was removed and he was named the program's head coach. At the time, there had been 28 interim head coaches at the FBS level since 1970, and those coaches had combined for a 26-86-2 record. Only one of those 28 interim coaches posted a winning record, and that was Swinney. When he was hired as head coach, he became just the second interim coach to be elevated to the head coach position at the same school during that time period.

Swinney hit the ground running in his first week as interim head coach, as he prepared for a 5-1 Georgia Tech team. He had to reorganize his staff and regroup his team and the fanbase in just five days. While the Tigers lost by four points, he accomplished many goals in that first week through his outstanding leadership. One of the most impressive demonstrations of unity came during the team's "Tiger Walk," which has since become a staple of Clemson's game day routine for both the team and fans.

Swinney has demonstrated his dedication to the community through Dabo's All In Team Foundation. Since 2009, the Swinney family and Dabo's All In Team Foundation have given more than $9.6 million back to communities and programs in the state, a number expected to exceed $10 million by the end of 2023. In its inaugural year, the foundation made the first contribution to the cancer fund established for former Boston College linebacker Mark Herzlich, and many schools followed its lead during the remainder of the season.

In 2022, the foundation distributed roughly $1.6 million in financial support to its core focus areas, with $1.15 million of that total being distributed to more than 230 deserving organizations and non-profits through the foundation's grant program. In total, the foundation's grant program has issued more than $6.2 million to worthy applicants in 15 years.

Swinney was named as the honorary coach for the 2019 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team, an honor for which Watson, a former Good Works Team selection, returned to Clemson to surprise Swinney during a team meeting. In the spring of 2021, Swinney accepted the Uncommon Award from Pro Football Hall of Fame Coach Tony Dungy, who presents the honor annually to figures in football who "take the tough road, follow a higher calling and set a higher standard."

The 1993 Alabama graduate joined the Clemson staff prior to the 2003 season. In his first 20 years as an assistant or head coach, the Tigers finished in the top 25 of the polls 16 times and totaled 46 wins over top-25 teams.

Swinney coached his wide receiver position to a level of consistency that had not been seen previously at Clemson. He had a wideout finish first or second in the ACC in catches in five of his six seasons as an assistant coach. In his first season, he had three of the top-10 receivers in the conference, a first in Tiger history.

In his 20 seasons at Clemson, a Tiger wide receiver has earned All-ACC status in 17 of those campaigns, including a first- or second-team All-ACC selection (Derrick Hamilton, Airese Currie, Chansi Stuckey, Aaron Kelly, Jacoby Ford, Sammy Watkins, DeAndre Hopkins, Artavis Scott, Mike Williams, Tee Higgins, Amari Rodgers) in 16 of those 20 seasons. In 2021, three of his protégés (Williams, Higgins and Hunter Renfrow) recorded 1,000-yard seasons in the NFL, while another (Chansi Stuckey) has gone on to serve as wide receivers coach at Baylor and Notre Dame.

The Alabama native has a reputation as one of the top recruiters in the nation. In 2006, he was listed as the No. 5 recruiter in the nation by Rivals. He signed 38 players in his five recruiting seasons as an assistant coach and was a major reason Clemson's 2008 recruiting class was rated No. 2 in the nation by ESPN when he signed 11 players. Clemson's 2020 class finished as a consensus Top 3 class, earning the top ranking from ESPN, a No. 2 rank by Rivals and a No. 3 ranking in the 247 Composite.

When Swinney accepted the interim head coaching position at Clemson on Oct. 13, 2008, he described his feelings as "bittersweet" because he was taking over for Bowden, who had been his first position coach at Alabama in the 1989 season. He had also brought Swinney back to the coaching profession in 2003 and has had a profound effect on his life. Both had followed similar paths as players; Bowden was a walk-on at West Virginia, and Swinney was a walk-on at Alabama.

Swinney received a commerce & business administration degree from Alabama in 1993 after lettering three times (1990-92). A walk-on who went on to earn a scholarship, Swinney was a wide receiver on Alabama's 1992 national championship team. He was also named Academic All-SEC along with being an SEC Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll member in 1990 and 1992.

Along with his appearance in the 1993 Sugar Bowl, his Alabama teams played in the 1990 Sugar Bowl, 1991 Fiesta Bowl and 1991 Blockbuster Bowl. Both Sugar Bowls came after winning the SEC title game.

After his playing career, he was a graduate assistant at Alabama from 1993-95. He received a master's degree in business administration from Alabama in 1995.

He became a full-time assistant coach at Alabama in February 1996 under head coach Gene Stallings and coached a total of five seasons there on a full-time basis. Swinney was assigned to coach the Crimson Tide's wide receivers and tight ends in 1996, a season that saw Alabama win the SEC West Division title. The following year, he solely coached the tight ends.

In 1998, he coached Alabama's wide receivers, a position he held for three years. At the end of 1999, Swinney coached the Crimson Tide in the 2000 Orange Bowl after winning the SEC Championship Game.

During his time at Alabama, Swinney was a part of six teams with double-digit wins, five top-10 finishes, one national title (1992), three SEC championships (1989,92,99) and five SEC West Division titles (1992,93,94,96,99) as a player and coach.

Swinney married the former Kathleen Bassett in 1994. They have three sons, Will, Drew and Clay. Will played for Clemson from 2017-21, appearing in 69 games and holding for 558 career kicking points while also scoring two touchdowns of his own. Drew was a core special teams player for Clemson from 2018-22 who served as the starting holder in his final campaign and caught 14 career passes. Both Will and Drew earned All-ACC Academic Team selections during their playing careers. Clay is a redshirt freshman on the 2023 Tiger football team.

FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

WOODY McCORVEY

- CHIEF OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION
- 22ND SEASON ON CLEMSON STAFF
- ALABAMA STATE '72

Woody McCorvey has been a significant part of the two greatest eras in Tiger football. In the 1980s he was on the staff of hall of fame coach Danny Ford, and helped Clemson to a 60-19-3 record, three ACC titles and four bowl wins. He was on the staff of five Clemson teams that finished in the final top 20 of the AP poll.

Now in his second stint at Clemson, Dabo Swinney would be the first to say how important he has been in contributing to Clemson's recent run of 12 consecutive 10-win seasons.

"He is my national security advisor," said Swinney. "My experience with him dates to my days as a player at Alabama when he was my position coach. He coached at Clemson in the 1980s under Danny Ford and knows all about our winning tradition."

The 2023 season is his 46th in college football as either a coach or an administrator. McCorvey returned to the Clemson program for the 2009 season, Swinney's first full year, and he has helped him bring the Tigers to a level of consistent excellence that culminated in national championships following the 2016 and 2018 seasons.

With Ford's induction in 2017, McCorvey has worked for three coaches in the College Football Hall of Fame. He has also been in significant coaching roles with Gene Stallings and Phil Fulmer. He has worked for four national championship coaches in Ford, Fulmer, Stallings and Swinney.

Swinney has a 157-36 record as head coach since McCorvey joined his staff. That includes eight wins over top-10 teams in bowl games in the last 11 years. The Tigers have won eight ACC titles, nine division titles (plus an additional championship berth in a divisionless season in 2020) and posted 11 bowl wins in 14 years.

McCorvey serves as the primary liaison between Swinney and the athletic and IPTAY administrations. He also oversees the management of the football administrative offices and has served as a key point of contact for NFL personnel as Clemson has expanded its pipeline to the pros.

He supervises the football budget and works with the academic staff to oversee that important area. With McCorvey's assistance, Clemson has become the only program in the country to finish among the Top 25 in APR rate among FBS schools and the AP Top 25 in each of the last 12 years. In 2022, he was named to the NCAA Football Rules Committee.

As a Clemson wide receivers and tight ends coach from 1983-89, he recruited future Pro Bowlers Donnell Woolford and Chester McGlockton. He also coached NFL players Keith Jennings and K.D. Dunn. McCorvey coached at the Division I level for 26 years and went to a bowl game 17 of those seasons. He coached or signed 36 players who went on to a professional football career.

McCORVEY'S COACHING EXPERIENCE

2004-08	Mississippi State	Starkville, Miss.

From 1990-2008, he coached in the SEC every year, including each of the last five at Mississippi State, where he served as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator in addition to coaching the quarterbacks. He was a big reason it won eight games, including wins over Auburn, Alabama, and Mississippi, in 2007. He also coached 2010 NFL draft pick Anthony Dixon.

McCorvey coached at Tennessee for five years (1999-03). With him heading the running game, the Volunteers had a 46-14 record. He helped guide Tennessee to the 2000 Fiesta Bowl, 2001 Cotton Bowl, 2002 Citrus Bowl, and 2002 and 2003 Peach Bowls.

ANN & WOODY McCORVEY

Tennessee won three consecutive New Year's Day Bowl games from 2000-02 as well.

Under McCorvey's leadership, Tennessee maintained the school's reputation of having an outstanding rushing attack. The Volunteers led the SEC in rushing in 1999, averaging 191.3 yards per game. His work helped tailback Travis Stephens pace the SEC in rushing yards (1,464) in 2001.

One year prior, McCorvey helped tailback Travis Henry finish second in the league and 14th in the nation in rushing yards (1,314). Another of his protégés was Jamal Lewis, who finished in the top five on the Tennessee career rushing list and was the No. 5 overall pick of the 2000 NFL Draft.

Prior to joining the staff at Tennessee, McCorvey worked one season at South Carolina, where he served as the wide receivers coach in 1998 under former Tiger assistant coach Brad Scott.

McCorvey took the South Carolina job following an eight-year stay at Alabama from 1990-97. He served seven seasons as its wide receivers coach and the 1996 campaign as offensive coordinator. He was the assistant head coach in 1997 as well.

Alabama had five top-25 final rankings in his tenure, including three seasons in the top five. The Crimson Tide won the 1992 national title with McCorvey serving as wide receivers coach and Swinney as one of his student-athletes. That season culminated with a 34-13 win over heavily-favored Miami (Fla.) in the Sugar Bowl. Current Clemson Director of Football Scouting Danny Pearman was also on that staff.

From 1990-96, Alabama posted a 70-16-1 record and played in six bowl games. With McCorvey leading the offense in 1996, Alabama finished 10-3, including a win over Michigan in the Outback Bowl.

Alabama's players flourished under his guidance. As offensive coordinator, running back Shaun Alexander established many school records and later went on to a Pro Bowl career with the Seattle Seahawks. In 1993, David Palmer established school records for catches and receiving yards along with earning first-team All-America honors. Palmer was third in the Heisman Trophy balloting, the highest finish in history for an Alabama player at the time.

From 1979-82, he served as an assistant coach at Alabama A&M and helped that program to the No. 6 rushing offense in Division II in 1981 after finishing 11th in the nation in scoring offense in 1980. McCorvey began his college coaching career at North Carolina Central in 1978.

McCorvey began his coaching career with a six-year stint (1972-77) at J.M. Tate Senior High School in Florida. He played quarterback at Alabama State from 1968-71, earning his bachelor's degree from Alabama State in 1972 and a master's degree from West Florida in 1977.

He was the recipient of the 2015 AFCA Outstanding Achievement Award for his contributions to college football. In 2013, he was on the Rose Bowl Advisory Committee and returned to that role in 2017. He was a member of the College Football Playoff Advisory Committee in 2014-15 as well.

In 2010, McCorvey was inducted into the Atmore (Ala.) Hall of Fame. He was inducted into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame in 2020 as part of an induction class that included Sylvester Croom, with whom he coached at Mississippi State. In 2021, he was honored as an Alabama Football Legend by the TaxAct Camellia Bowl.

The Atmore, Ala., native is married to the former Ann Brown. The couple has a son, Marlon, daughter-in-law Brooke, and grandson, Beau.

PERSONAL DATA
Born Aug. 16, 1972 ... he and his wife, Kimberley, have two daughters, Michaela Rae and Milan Skye.

- Placed two cornerbacks on the 2020 All-ACC team, as Derion Kendrick earned first-team honors and Booth earned a second-team selection as the defensive backfield helped Clemson to a sixth consecutive ACC title and College Football Playoff berth.
- Shared 2019 FootballScoop Defensive Backs Coach of the Year honors with Safeties Coach Mickey Conn, as Reed's corners helped Clemson finish third in the nation in scoring defense (13.5 points per game) and fourth in the nation in total defense (288.3 yards per game) in 2019, ranking second in opponent passer rating (105.37) and fourth in the country in passing yards allowed per game (172.3).
- Produced two All-ACC selections in 2019, as A.J. Terrell earned a first-team selection, while Kendrick earned a second-team selection after transitioning to the position only six months prior to the season.
- Placed both 2018 starting corners on the All-ACC team, including Trayvon Mullen's second-team selection and Terrell's third-team nod. Helped both play major roles in Clemson's 44-16 National Championship Game win, as Terrell opened the scoring on a pick-six, and Mullen earned Defensive MVP honors with six tackles, an interception, a sack and a caused fumble.
- Contributed to Clemson's 2018 defense leading the nation in scoring defense (13.1 points per game) for the first time in school history.
- His cornerbacks helped Clemson rank fifth in the nation in pass efficiency defense (106.9) in 2017.
- Coached two First-Team All-ACC defensive backs Jadar Johnson and Cordrea Tankersley in 2016.
- His defensive backs contributed to the 2015 Tigers ranking fourth in the nation in third-down defense.
- Coached first-team All-ACC cornerback Mackensie Alexander, second-team All-ACC safety Jayron Kearse and third-team All-ACC cornerback Cordrea Tankersley in 2015 en route to being named FootballScoop Defensive Backs Coach of the Year.
- Helped the 2014 squad lead the nation in total defense (260.8), while also ranking in the top five in many other statistical categories. Coached first-team All-ACC cornerback Garry Peters that season.

- His defensive backs combined for 15 interceptions in 2013. Bashaud Breeland, who had a team-tying-high four interceptions and 74 tackles, was a second-team All-ACC selection and a fourth-round draft pick.
- His defensive backs helped Clemson finish 10th in the nation in turnovers forced (30) in 2013.
- Was the defensive backs coach at NC State for six seasons (2007-12).
- Coached NC State All-American David Amerson, who ranked third in ACC history in career interceptions (18). As a professional coach with the Philadelphia Eagles, he worked with former Clemson All-American and nine-time Pro Bowl selection Brian Dawkins.
- Helped the Wolfpack to four bowl games in his six years with the program. That includes 2012, when NC State beat a top-five Florida State team and played Vanderbilt in the Music City Bowl.
- Three times in his last five years in Raleigh, NC State finished in the top 20 in the nation in interceptions.
- The 2011 NC State squad had 27 interceptions, the most by an FBS school since 2003, when Nebraska had 32. The total tied for second-most in ACC history and the most since 1994, when Virginia had 27 interceptions.
- In 2011, Amerson had 13 interceptions to lead the nation, five more than any other player. It tied for the third-most interceptions in NCAA history. Amerson also led the nation in interception return yards (205). Amerson was a unanimous All-American in 2011, when he was also a Thorpe Award finalist and won the Jack Tatum Award.
- In addition to Amerson, Reed also coached four different all-conference players at NC State across six seasons.
- Played on three bowl teams that finished with top-25 AP rankings, including the 1993 season when Boston College upset top-ranked Notre Dame in South Bend.
- Played three seasons for Tom Coughlin, who went on to win two Super Bowl championships with the New York Giants, and his senior year for Dan Henning, who also went on to coach in the NFL.
- Was the last selection of the 1995 NFL Draft by the Carolina Panthers and played two seasons (1995-96) for that team, including the 1995 team that played its home games at Memorial Stadium. He also played for the NFL Europe team in Frankfurt and was team captain of the 1999 team that won the World Bowl.

- Between his stints at Clemson, Goodwin spent three years with the NFL's Arizona Cardinals, serving as an assistant to head coach Bruce Arians from 2015-17.
- Cardinals squads for which Goodwin worked compiled a 28-19-1 record, including a 13-3 NFC West championship season in 2015 in which Arizona reached the NFC Championship Game.
- Said Arians upon Goodwin's promotion to defensive coordinator at Clemson: "Wesley is one of the best young defensive minds I've had the opportunity to work with. He was with my staff for three years in Arizona and I saw him grow defensively, and offensively, that whole time. He has a bright, bright future. One thing is for sure – they are going to be an attacking type of defense and I know he is going to do great things with this opportunity."
- Began his athletic coaching career as a baseball manager at Mississippi State under legendary NCAA baseball coach Ron Polk before transitioning to football.
- Served as a student assistant and graduate assistant for the Bulldogs, working alongside head coach Sylvester Croom, defensive coordinator Ellis Johnson and offensive coordinator (and current Clemson Chief of Football Administration) Woody McCorvey.
- Earned his undergraduate degree from Mississippi State in 2007 and his master's degree in 2009.
- Said Head Coach Dabo Swinney upon Swinney's promotion in December 2021: "All I can tell you is Wes Goodwin is special. Everybody that has ever worked with him, everybody who knows him, these players, they know who he is and what he's capable of ... There's a reason those NFL guys have been trying to hire him. He's a very, very, very, very talented young coach with an incredibly bright future."
- Continued Swinney: "Wes has worked with the best of the best. He got his start with Ellis Johnson, and I worked with Ellis at Alabama. Ellis is one of the best. He worked with Kevin Steele; Kevin is one of the best. And then he's been around some great ones in the NFL. Spent time with Sylvester Croom as well. He and I [smiling] have both done a tour of duty with Bruce [Arians]... We've always had that connection, and Bruce has tried to take him back, but we were able to hang on to him. He's worked obviously with Brent [Venables], so he has a wealth of experience that I think he will tap into and do it his way."

EDUCATION
Degree in business administration and management from Clemson in 2009 ... master's degree in human resource development in 2016.

PERSONAL DATA
Born June 11, 1987 ... he and his wife, Maggie, have three children, Lilla, Davis & Mary Gwynne.

- Named as Clemson's full-time wide receivers coach on Feb. 6, 2020 and added the role of recruiting coordinator following the 2021 season.
- Served as Clemson's interim wide receivers coach for portions of the team's bowl preparation in 2019 after Co-Offensive Coordinator/Wide Receivers Coach Jeff Scott was announced as the new head coach at USF. Scott returned after the early signing period to coach through the College Football Playoff.
- Though in his fourth season as a full-time coach, he is entering his 14th overall season in a variety of roles at Clemson, including four as a player (2005-08), two as a graduate assistant (2014-15) and four as an offensive analyst (2016-19).
- In addition to serving as an offensive analyst, he served as assistant camp director in 2018 and 2019.
- Led Antonio Williams to freshman All-America honors by ESPN, On3, Pro Football Focus and The Athletic in 2022, as Williams had 56 receptions for 604 yards and four touchdowns. His 10 starts were the most by a Tiger true freshman wideout since Sammy Watkins in 2011, and he became the first true freshman to lead Clemson in receiving yards since Justyn Ross in 2018 and the first to lead in receptions since Artavis Scott in 2014.
- Was a steadying force for a 2021 receiver corps that dealt with significant injuries and attrition that resulted in Clemson playing the latter portion of the season without the services of seven scholarship receivers. Clemson had 25 different players — including 13 different wide receivers — catch a pass in 2021, the most in the Dabo Swinney era.
- Despite fielding a 2020 unit that was without three of its top four outside receivers for the majority of the season, helped Clemson produce a school-record 348.5 passing yards per game, surpassing the 333.9 passing yards per game averaged by Clemson's 2016 national championship squad.
- Produced two All-ACC performers in his first season in 2020, placing Amari Rodgers on the first team and Cornell Powell on the third team. Clemson was one of only two schools with multiple selections at receiver.
- Helped Powell become one of the breakout stars of 2020 as a fifth-year senior, helping him record career highs in receptions (53), receiving yards (882), receiving touchdowns (seven) after entering 2020 with 40 career receptions for 329 yards and three touchdowns in his first four years from 2016-19.
- Helped Clemson to a 32-19 record and four bowl appearances as a player from 2005-08, then helped the program to a 79-8 record and 10 bowl appearances in six years as a support staff member from 2014-19 for a combined 111-27 record at Clemson in playing and support staff roles before his hire as receivers coach.
- Served as an added resource for a staff that has produced Clemson's illustrious line of wide receivers while in a support role. During his time as a graduate assistant and offensive analyst from 2014-19, Clemson produced five receivers — Artavis Scott (2014,15,16), Mike Williams (2014,16), Deon Cain (2017), Hunter Renfrow (2017,18), Tee Higgins (2018,19) — who earned 10 All-ACC selections.
- Prior to his full-time hire, six of Clemson's 10 most-prolific passing yardage seasons at the time had come during his time on Clemson's support staff.
- Said Head Coach Dabo Swinney of Grisham's hiring as the full-time wide receivers coach: "I'm just super excited for Grish. There's never been a guy more prepared to be the receivers coach at Clemson than Tyler Grisham. He had a great four-year career here. Clemson fans certainly loved him. He had a lot of big moments and went on and grinded out a four-year NFL career... He's ready and is going to do an unbelievable job for us. He's going to be special."
- Is a 2009 graduate of Clemson University, earning his bachelor's in business administration and management. He later earned a master's from Clemson in human resource development in 2016. He is one of five on-field Clemson assistant coaches with at least one degree from Clemson, joining Nick Eason (2001), Thomas Austin (2009), C.J. Spiller (2009) and Kyle Richardson (M.S. 2020).
- Was a four-year letterman for the Tigers from 2005-08. He finished his career with 132 receptions for 1,390 yards and eight touchdowns.
- Signed with the Pittsburgh Steelers as a free agent in 2009, appearing in four games that season. He served on the Steelers' practice squad in 2010 and 2011 and with the Denver Broncos' practice squad in 2012.
- Native of Birmingham, Ala., who was an all-region selection while playing wide receiver, tailback, quarterback and defensive back at Spain Park High School in Hoover, Ala.

- Formally named as Clemson's passing game coordinator and tight ends coach on Dec. 14, 2021 prior to Clemson's victory against Iowa State in the 2021 Cheez-It Bowl.
- Though entering his second full season in an on-field role at Clemson, 2023 will represent his eighth season on Clemson's staff.
- In his first full season as Clemson's passing game coordinator and tight ends coach in 2022, helped his tight ends group record 67 catches, 748 yards and 10 touchdowns. The 67 catches were the unit's most under Dabo Swinney, and its 10 touchdowns matched its unit-high mark from the 2011 and 2012 seasons.
- Helped Davis Allen post career highs in receptions (39), receiving yards (443) and touchdowns (five) in 2022 en route to third-team All-ACC honors while Jake Briningstool accrued 285 yards and four touchdowns on 25 receptions.
- Guided Allen and Briningstool as Clemson became one of eight FBS teams — and one of only five in the Power Five — to have multiple tight ends catch at least four touchdown passes in 2022 (Ball State, Kansas, North Carolina, Penn State, SMU, Utah and Western Kentucky).
- Served in numerous capacities at Clemson prior to assuming his current position, including tenures as Senior Offensive Assistant and Director of Player Development and Freshman Transition.

EDUCATION

Degree in history from Appalachian State in 2001 ... earned master's degree in educational leadership from California University ... also has a master's degree in athletic leadership from Clemson.

PERSONAL DATA

Born April 22, 1978 ... married to his wife, Amanda, and has two daughters, Lexi and Presley ... Amanda is an Associate Athletic Director at Clemson.

- Was a key off-field contributor to Clemson's offensive success in support staff roles from 2016-21. Clemson's balanced attack resulted in the Tigers being one of only three teams in the country with at least 16,000 cumulative rushing yards and at least 23,000 total passing yards across those six seasons.
- During his six years on the support staff, helped serve as an additional resource to then-Quarterbacks Coach Brandon Streeter, as the corps produced Heisman Trophy finalists Deshaun Watson and Trevor Lawrence.
- Part of support staff during Lawrence's career 34-2 record as a starter, as the Georgia native became the winningest quarterback in Tiger history and posted the third-best winning percentage (.944) by a starting quarterback with at least 30 career starts since Division I split in 1978, trailing only Ken Dorsey (.950) and Matt Leinart (.949). Lawrence would go on to become the No. 1 pick in the 2021 NFL Draft.
- Served in both football and administrative support roles in 2020 when he was Director of Player Development & Freshman Transition and played a key role in the on-boarding and assimilation of the highly touted 2020 class into Clemson's program.
- Prior to coming to Clemson, was one of South Carolina's most successful high school coaches during his tenure at Northwestern High School in Rock Hill, S.C.
- As head coach from 2011-15, led the Trojans to a 58-13 (.817) record, including four region championships, three state title game appearances and state championships in both 2013 and 2015.
- Led a Northwestern program that produced NFL quarterback Mason Rudolph, NFL wide receiver Cordarrelle Patterson, former Clemson defensive end Logan Rudolph and former Tennessee quarterback Justin Worley. Also coached NFL tight end Jared Cook during his time at North Gwinnett (Ga.) High School.
- Helped Northwestern to a record of 107-24 (.817) with eight Region III championships and three state championships in his nine total seasons with the program from 2007-15, including his time as offensive coordinator (2007-10) and head coach (2011-15).
- Part of two undefeated seasons at Northwestern, including a 15-0 year as offensive coordinator in 2010 and a 15-0 campaign as head coach in 2013.
- Inducted into the York County Sports Hall of Fame in 2019 as one of six members in an induction class that also included Jadeveon Clowney.
- Earned his undergraduate degree from Appalachian State in 2001.
- Has two master's degrees, including a 2020 master's degree in athletic leadership from Clemson.
- Began his coaching career with assisstant coaching positions at Lee County High School in Sanford, N.C., Avery County High School in Newland, N.C. and North Gwinnett High School in Georgia.
- Said Head Coach Dabo Swinney upon Richardson's promotion to his current role: "Kyle was one of the best high school coaches in the entire Southeast. Talk about a guy that's been patient. I hired him, I think he was coming off his third straight state championship appearance. He's had opportunities and he's stayed here for a chance to coach at Clemson. He is one of the brightest and most well-prepared guys that we have to step into this role and be the tight ends coach and passing game coordinator. He has got a great acumen for football. He brings great leadership ability from being a head coach for a long time. This is a great next step for him. He's done a lot of different things within our program in support staff roles, and I'm just really excited to see him have this opportunity. I'm so thankful that he stayed patient and thankful that now I've got the opportunity to hire him."

postseason accolades for quarterbacks Shane Buechele and Tanner Mordecai.
- In his three years as an offensive coordinator prior to his arrival at Clemson, all three offenses finished in the top 15 nationally in scoring offense. His units as coordinator at SMU and TCU from 2020-22 combined would rank third in the nation in points per game in that span at 38.6 points per game, trailing only Ohio State (44.0) and Alabama (43.0) in that stretch.
- Riley's combined SMU and TCU squads would also rank fifth in total touchdowns, sixth in offensive plays of 30-plus yards and 11th in yards per play across the 2020-22 seasons.

- Spent the 2019 season as the running backs coach at App State. The Mountaineers compiled a 13-1 record including a Sun Belt Conference title and a win in the New Orleans Bowl.
- Mentored Appalachian State's Darrynton Evans to Sun Belt Offensive Player of the Year honors. Evans totaled 1,740 all-purpose yards, including 1,250 rushing yards and 20 touchdowns that year before later becoming a third-round selection of the Tennessee Titans in the 2020 NFL Draft.
- Spent three seasons at Kansas from 2016-18 in various capacities. He joined the Jayhawks as an offensive analyst in 2016 before transitioning to an on-field role as the team's quarterbacks coach in 2017 and its tight ends/fullbacks coach in 2018.
- Made his FBS debut at East Carolina from 2013-15. After spending his first two seasons as a graduate assistant, he was promoted to Outside Receivers Coach in 2015. That year, East Carolina's Zay Jones caught 98 passes for 1,009 yards as part of the receiver's FBS-record 399 career receptions.
- Began coaching career in 2011, when he served as a passing game assistant and quarterbacks coach at Roosevelt High School in Lubbock, Texas.
- Moved to the collegiate ranks in 2012, helping rebuild an Augustana (Ill.) College program that was 2-8 prior to his arrival into a 5-5 squad that improved its rushing total by 500 yards during his season as the program's running backs coach.

- Earned degree in general business from Texas Tech in 2012.
- Said Head Coach Dabo Swinney of Riley's hire: "Garrett has an incredible track record. His body of work - including this past season when his ninth-ranked scoring offense helped TCU transform from a five-win team into a 13-win national championship game finalist in their coaching staff's first season - speaks for itself... Garrett was at the top of my list. I am thankful that he shared my belief in Clemson University and our football program, and I am thankful that he wants to be part of our tradition and family. He is a dynamic, young offensive coordinator who will bring a lot of excitement and explosiveness to the Clemson offense."

Clemson limited opponents to one sack or fewer in eight games in 2021 and ranked second in the ACC in fewest sacks allowed (21.0).
- Spent the 2019-20 seasons as the offensive line coach at Georgia State.

- In his debut season with the Panthers, his unit helped power Georgia State to 241.6 rushing yards per game, good for No. 12 in the nation.
- His tutelage helped three of his five starters (left tackle Hunter Atkinson, left guard Shamarious Gilmore and center Malik Sumter) at Georgia State to all-conference honors and guided a fourth (right tackle Travis Glover) to Freshman All-America status. Atkinson would go on to earn a free agent contract with the Atlanta Falcons.
- Spent four years on Clemson's support staff from 2015-18, helping the Tigers to three national championship game berths and two national titles in that span.
- Started his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Clemson in 2015. Spent three years in an on-field GA role before moving to an off-field video GA position for Clemson's 2018 national championship season.
- Served in a support role on a staff that helped 10 offensive linemen to 17 total All-ACC selections from 2015-18: Mitch Hyatt (four), Tyrone Crowder (three), Jay Guillermo (two), Justin Falcinelli (two), and Eric Mac Lain, Joe Gore, Taylor Hearn, Tremayne Anchrum, Sean Pollard and John Simpson (one each). Also returned to assist a staff that helped Jordan McFadden earn All-ACC honors in 2021 before Austin was named as the program's offensive line coach for 2022.
- Took the reins to the Clemson offensive line from veteran offensive line coach Robbie Caldwell, who transitioned into an off-field administrative role after 2021. Caldwell coached 532 career games at the collegiate level over 44 years before entrusting the unit to Austin.
- Starred along Clemson's offensive line from 2006-09, appearing in 48 games with 39 starts, including starting each of his last 38 games.
- Played 2,501 snaps from scrimmage in his Clemson career, the 13th-most of any player at the time of his graduation.
- Was a third-team All-America selection by the Sporting News in 2009 and also earned Strength & Conditioning All-American status as well.
- Earned All-ACC selections in both 2008 and 2009 as part of a unit that powered running back C.J. Spiller to eventual induction into the College Football Hall of Fame.
- Was a three-time All-ACC Academic selection, earning the honor in each of his last three seasons at Clemson. Prior to the selection of the 2021 team, he was one of only 19 Clemson players to earn at least three career All-ACC Academic Team selections since the conference was founded in 1953.
- Team captain on Clemson's 2009 squad that went 9-5 and earned Clemson an ACC Championship Game berth in Dabo Swinney's first full season as head coach.
- Played four years in the NFL with the Houston Texans, Carolina Panthers and Indianapolis Colts from 2010-13.
- Earned a political science degree from Clemson in 2009.

- Moved into one of the 10 full-time coaching positions as defensive ends coach in 2018.
- Comprised one-half of a defensive line coaching duo that collectively was one of four finalists for 2020 FootballScoop Defensive Line Coach of the Year honors.
- Placed both starting defensive ends on the 2022 All-ACC team, as Myles Murphy (first team) and K.J. Henry (second team) contributed to Clemson's fourth-place finish nationally in sacks (44). Henry garnered third-team All-America status from PFF and Murphy became the No. 28 overall selection in the 2023 NFL Draft.
- Guided both Murphy (second team) and Xavier Thomas (third team) to All-ACC honors in 2021, as Clemson led the conference and finished second in the nation in scoring defense (14.8). While earning a fourth-team All-America nod from Phil Steele, Murphy joined Gaines Adams, Vic Beasley and Clelin Ferrell as the only Clemson players since 2000 to post multiple seasons with multiple forced fumbles and at least four sacks.
- Coached a group of edge rushers that helped Clemson finish tied for first in the country in sacks (46) and second in the country in tackles for loss (109) in 2020.
- Helped Murphy make an immediate impact as a true freshman in 2020, helping him collect Freshman All-America status from The Athletic, ESPN, Rivals and the Football Writers Association of America and be named ACC Co-Newcomer of the Year by the AP.
- Guided a group that helped Clemson hold opponents under 300 total yards in each of the first 12 games of the season in 2019, becoming the first program to accomplish the feat in data available back to 1996.
- Helped lead Xavier Thomas to a third-team All-ACC selection in 2019.

EDUCATION

Earned his degree in criminal justice from Alabama in 2008.

PERSONAL DATA

Born Nov. 24, 1970 ... he and his wife, Leslie, have three children, Cameron, Jalen and Kennedi.

- In his first season as an assistant coach in 2018, he helped Clemson win a national championship and set a school record with 54 sacks, the third most by any FBS team since 2000. The unit led the nation in sacks and tied for the national lead in tackles for loss (136).
- Helped Clelin Ferrell, the No. 4 pick in the 2019 NFL Draft, win the Ted Hendricks Award and ACC Defensive Player of the Year while earning consensus All-America status in 2018. Fellow starter Austin Bryant took home third-team All-ACC honors and Cotton Bowl Most Outstanding Player.

- Served as a defensive analyst in 2015 and 2016 and as a senior defensive analyst in 2017, helping the Tigers to a 40-4 record, three ACC championships and three College Football Playoff berths in those three seasons. In his first four years at Clemson, the Tigers faced Alabama, his alma mater, in the postseason. Clemson faced Alabama just once in the 40 years prior to his arrival at Clemson.
- Clemson finished in the top four of the AP and coaches polls in every season from his arrival in 2015 through 2020, the longest streak in Clemson history. Clemson has been ranked in the top 5 of the AP Poll in 89 of a possible 114 polls in his tenure (78.1 percent), trailing only Alabama for the most in that time frame. That includes a 57-poll streak from 2017-21, the second-longest streak in AP Poll history.
- His relationship with Head Coach Dabo Swinney dates to their college careers at Alabama. Both were members of the 1992 national championship team. Hall earned first-team All-SEC honors in 1992 and was a UPI Honorable Mention All-American. He was captain of Alabama's 1993 team and was named to the Alabama All-Decade team for the 1990s.
- The Alabama native led the 1992 Crimson Tide national championship team in tackles (70), including eight tackles for loss and five sacks. He added 76 tackles as a senior in 1993. He was named first-team All-SEC by the coaches in both seasons.
- Alabama had a 40-9-1 record during his four seasons and played four bowl games. The Crimson Tide won three of those bowl games, including a 34-13 victory over Miami (Fla.) in the Sugar Bowl at the end of the 1992 season that gave Alabama the national championship.
- Drafted by the Houston Oilers and played in the NFL for nine seasons and 101 games from 1994-02. His top year came in 2001 when he had 62 tackles for the Vikings, tied for fifth on the team. He started 13 games and played all 16 games that year, helping the Vikings to the second round of the playoffs.
- Upon his retirement as a player, began his career as a volunteer coach at Centennial High School in Franklin, Tenn. He then did an internship with the Tennessee Titans through the NFL Diversity Coaching Fellowship. In this role, he observed NFL coaches and worked with them to evaluate players.
- Worked as a recruiting coordinator and professional performance director at D1 Sports Training & Therapy. He coached football and served as the strength & conditioning coach at Christ Presbyterian Academy before moving on to his career at The Ensworth School.
- Came to Clemson prior to the 2015 season after seven years as linebackers coach and fitness instructor at The Ensworth School.
- Attended Valley (Ala.) High School, where he played quarterback and defensive back. As a senior, he totaled 1,110 rushing yards and 20 touchdowns. He also had 20 interceptions on the way to winning all-state honors.

- Named as Clemson's running backs coach on Feb. 5, 2021.
- Served as an unpaid coaching intern during the 2020 season
- In 2022, helped Will Shipley become the first player in ACC history to earn first-team all-conference honors at three different positions (running back, all-purpose and specialist) and be named as one of four finalists for the Paul Hornung Award, given annually to the nation's most versatile player.
- With 15 rushing touchdowns as a sophomore, Shipley joined Clemson's Travis Etienne, Louisville's Lamar Jackson and North Carolina's Giovani Bernard as the only ACC players since 2000 to rush for at least 11 touchdowns in both their freshman and sophomore seasons.
- Also mentored Shipley as the second-year back became Clemson's first Academic All-American since 2012.
- In his first season in an on-field role in 2021, he had two different rushers (Shipley and Kobe Pace) reach 500 rushing yards, giving Clemson multiple 500-yard rushers for the sixth time in a seven-year span.
- Shipley led Clemson in rushing touchdowns (11), total touchdowns (11), rushing attempts (149) and rushing yards (739) in 2021, becoming the first Clemson player other than Travis Etienne or Wayne Gallman to lead Clemson in rushing since 2013 (Rod McDowell) when Shipley was in fifth grade.
- Shipley's 11 rushing touchdowns passed Spiller (11 in 2006) for the second-most by a Clemson true freshman since 1972 and finished two shy of the Clemson true freshman record (Travis Etienne, 13 in 2017).

2006 Music City Bowl ... 2007 Chick-fil-A Bowl ... 2008 Gator Bowl ... 2009 Music City Bowl.

PERSONAL DATA
Born Aug. 5, 1987 ... married to his wife, Daysha, and has a daughter, Shania, and son, Cade.

- In 2020, assisted the Tiger coaching staff that helped Travis Etienne become a consensus All-American as an all-purpose/athlete selection, becoming the 29th player ever to earn consensus All-America honors at Clemson and the school's 31st total consensus selection. Spiller and Etienne comprise two of Clemson's three all-time consensus All-Americans at the running back position.
- While on staff in an unpaid role, watched Etienne break Clemson single-season records for a running back in receptions (48) and receiving yards (588) and tie the running back mark for 100-yard receiving games (two) while adding two receiving touchdowns. Etienne joined Stanford's Christian McCaffrey, Oklahoma's Joe Mixon and Penn State's Saquon Barkley as the only Power Five players to post 900 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in a single season since 2015.

- Stands as one of the most decorated and beloved players in Clemson history from his four-year career as a running back for the Tigers from 2006-09.
- Was selected for induction into the College Football Hall of Fame as a member of the Class of 2021, earning the distinction in only his second year of eligibility.
- Became Clemson's eighth inductee in the College Football Hall of Fame, joining four coaches (John Heisman, Jess Neely, Frank Howard and Danny Ford) and three players (Banks McFadden, Terry Kinard and Jeff Davis). At the time of his selection, Spiller became one of only 1,038 players and 223 coaches immortalized in the Hall, putting him at the time in the top 0.02 percent of those who have played or coached the sport.
- Inducted into both the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame and South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame in 2020 for his immense contribution to athletics at both the university and state levels.
- His historic college career culminated with a senior season in 2009 in which he finished sixth in Heisman Trophy voting after winning ACC Player of the Year and being selected as a unanimous first-team All-American. He became the first player in the history of the Walter Camp All-America team to be first or second-team All-American at two positions in the same year.
- Still holds ACC single-season and career records for all-purpose yards, posting 2,680 in 2009 and finishing his career with 7,588, which was second-most in FBS history at the time of his graduation.
- Recorded 21 career touchdowns covering at least 50 yards and had an ACC-record eight kick returns for touchdowns in his career.
- Was also a three-time All-American in track and first-team strength All-American in 2008.
- Entered the coaching ranks after an eight-year NFL career from 2010-17 after being the ninth overall selection in the 2010 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills.
- His NFL career included tenures with the Bills, New Orleans Saints, Seattle Seahawks, New York Jets and Kansas City Chiefs, and he was a Pro Bowl selection in 2012. He and college teammate Jacoby Ford remain the only Clemson products ever to record multiple rushing touchdowns, multiple receiving touchdowns and multiple kick return touchdowns during an NFL career.
- Head Coach Dabo Swinney upon Spiller's hire: "He is one of the greatest ambassadors that we've had for our program for a long time, and now for him to be able to come back and be able to sow seeds into these young men and teach all the things he's learned throughout his career, there's not a guy on this staff that's more committed and more ALL IN for Clemson than C.J. Spiller, that's for sure... To have C.J. out on the road recruiting and have him leading these young men day in and day out is something I'm really, really excited about."
- Graduated from Clemson with a degree in sociology in three-and-a-half years on Dec. 17, 2009, receiving a standing ovation from the Clemson University Board of Trustees, the first such occurrence for a student-athlete.

DEFENSIVE GRADUATE ASSISTANT

TIGERS

Stephone Anthony is in his second season as a defensive graduate assistant at Clemson in 2023.

Anthony starred at linebacker for Clemson from 2011-14, as his 2,264 career defensive snaps currently rank third-most by a Clemson linebacker all-time. A two-time All-ACC selection who led Clemson in tackles in 2013 and 2014, Anthony helped anchor Clemson's defense that ranked No. 1 nationally in total defense in his senior season in 2014 (260.8 yards allowed per game).

The New Orleans Saints selected Anthony in the first round (No. 31 overall) of the 2015 NFL Draft. He spent six seasons in the NFL with the Saints, Miami Dolphins, New York Jets and Arizona Cardinals before entering the coaching ranks upon his return to Clemson in early 2022.

Anthony graduated from Clemson in December 2014 with a degree in sociology.

JOEY BATSON

DIRECTOR OF STRENGTH & CONDITIONING
27TH SEASON ON CLEMSON STAFF
NEWBERRY '85

TIGERS

Joey Batson is entering his 38th year as a Strength & Conditioning Coach at the collegiate level and 27th year as the Director of Strength Training at Clemson University in 2023. He has served as a head strength and conditioning coach 34 of his 38 years of service.

Batson was named Master Strength and Conditioning Coach by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa) in May of 2009. This honor is the highest given in the strength and conditioning coaching profession.

Not only does Batson bring professional experience to the position at Clemson, he brings experience as a football player at the college level. The Travelers Rest, S.C. native was a tight end at The Citadel in 1979 before transferring to Newberry, where he was a two-year letterman and team co-captain as a senior.

Batson earned his degree in physical education from Newberry and his master's degree in education from Clemson in 1988. Prior to his collegiate career, Batson was named to the 1977 South Carolina High School All-State football team as a defensive end.

As of the conclusion of the 2022 season and prior to the 2023 NFL Draft, during his time as Clemson's Director of Strength and Conditioning, Batson has coached 75 All-Americans; 229 All-ACC selections; 25 national award winners; 52 Strength and Conditioning All-Americans; 20 NFL first-round draft picks; 102 NFL Draft picks; 31 ACC yearly honorees and 12 Super Bowl champions. He has helped Clemson to 24 bowl games, 17 Top-25 finishes, eight Top-10 finishes, eight ACC Championships, nine ACC Atlantic Division Championships (plus an additional championship game berth in a division-less season in 2020), six College Football Playoff appearances, four National Championship Game appearances and two National Championships.

Batson is married to the former Susan Malone of Greenville, S.C. The couple has two children: Michael, a former Clemson punter, and Ben, a former quarterback and safety for the Tigers who has since moved into strength & conditioning coaching as well.

TIGERS

Da'Quan Bowers is in his first season as a full-time staff member at Clemson, returning to his alma mater in January 2023 in a defensive player development role after spending the previous three seasons as South Florida's defensive line coach.

Bowers' decorated college career at Clemson from 2008-10 culminated in him earning unanimous All-America honors as a junior in 2010. That year, the former No. 1 overall recruit in the country earned the Bronko Nagurski Trophy as college football's top defensive player, the Ted Hendricks Award as the nation's top defensive end and the ACC's Defensive Player of the Year award.

Bowers was selected by Tampa Bay in the second round of the 2011 NFL Draft. He played five seasons in Tampa and played the 2017 CFL season for the Edmonton Eskimos. In 2018, he entered the coaching ranks as a volunteer student assistant while completing his Clemson degree in parks, recreation and tourism management.

A native of Bamberg, S.C., Bowers is married to his wife, Monique, and has three children: a daughter, Karsyn, and sons, Truth and Brave.

DANIEL BOYD

DEFENSIVE PLAYER DEVELOPMENT
8TH SEASON ON CLEMSON STAFF

TIGERS

Daniel Boyd is in his third season assisting with defensive player development and in his eighth season with the program overall in 2023. Boyd transitioned into the role in 2021 after serving as a defensive student coach from 2016-18 and as a video graduate assistant from 2019-20.

From 2009-15, Boyd served as a sniper in the U.S. Army with two combat tours to Afghanistan. A native of Lamar, S.C., he is married to his wife, Heather, and the couple has two sons, Andrew and William.

TAJH BOYD

OFFENSIVE PLAYER DEVELOPMENT
3RD SEASON ON CLEMSON STAFF
CLEMSON '13

TIGERS

Tajh Boyd is in his third season assisting with offensive player development in 2023 after his standout playing career with the Tigers.

Boyd was a record-setting quarterback for the Tigers from 2010-13, setting school career marks in nearly every passing category, including completions (901), passing yards (11,904) and passing touchdowns (107) as well as in touchdown responsibility (133). The three-time All-ACC pick and 2012 AFCA first-team All-American won ACC Player of the Year in 2012, and he finished his career as a finalist for the Unitas and Manning Awards as one of Clemson's team captains in 2013.

Boyd graduated from Clemson in 2013 with a degree in sociology.

ROBBIE CALDWELL

DIR. OF HS RELATIONS & SOPHOMORE TRANSITION
13TH SEASON ON CLEMSON STAFF
FURMAN '77

TIGERS

Robbie Caldwell is in his second season as Clemson's Director of High School Relations and Sophomore Transition in 2023 after spending the 44 previous years as an on-field coach at the college level. At the time of his transition from on-field coaching to administration after the 2021 season, Caldwell had coached 532 career college games.

Caldwell joined Clemson as its offensive line coach in 2011, helping the Tigers to a 131-21 record, 11 10-plus win seasons, seven ACC titles, four appearances in the national championship game and two national titles in his 11 seasons guiding the unit. In his final seven seasons, Caldwell's unit produced 25 all-conference selections, the second-most of any Power Five program in that span.

Caldwell helped guide Dalton Freeman (2012), Tyrone Crowder (2017), Mitch Hyatt (2017-18), John Simpson (2019) and Jackson Carman (2020), including consensus status for Hyatt in 2018 and Simpson in 2019. The consecutive selections by Hyatt and Simpson represented Clemson's first back-to-back consensus honors on the offensive line since Stacy Long and Jeb Flesch accomplished the feat in 1990 and 1991.

Before coming to Clemson, Caldwell coached offensive lines at Furman (1978-85), NC State (1986-99), North Carolina (2000-01) and Vanderbilt (2002-09) prior to serving as Vanderbilt's head coach in 2010.

Caldwell was a three-year letterman as a center at Furman from 1973-75, earning team MVP honors in his final season. To date, he is the only center in Furman history to earn team MVP honors. In 1977, he served as an assistant football coach and head baseball coach at Hanahan (S.C.) High School before beginning his collegiate coaching career as a student assistant coach at Furman under Art Baker in 1976. He became Furman's full-time offensive line coach in 1978 and was inducted into the Furman Athletic Hall of Fame in 2019 for his contributions as both a player and coach.

A native of Pageland, S.C. and a 1977 Furman graduate, Caldwell is married to his wife, Nora, and has a daughter, Emsley.

Tyrone Crowder is in his second season in an offensive player development role at Clemson after originally rejoining his alma mater as an offensive graduate assistant prior to the 2021 season.

Crowder entered the coaching ranks at the high school level, serving as offensive line coach at Daniel High School in Central, S.C. for three seasons from 2018-20, helping Daniel to the 2020 Class AAA championship. He also served as a special education aide at R.C. Edwards Middle School in Central.

Crowder was a four-year letterman at guard for Clemson from 2014-17, starting 41 of the 48 games in which he appeared. A three-time All-ACC selection, he started on Clemson's national championship team in 2016 and earned third-team All-American honors from the Associated Press in 2017.

Crowder earned his degree in sociology from Clemson in 2017.

ASSISTANT AD • FOOTBALL PLAYER RELATIONS

As part of his 20 years with Clemson's football program and 24 years with the university, Jeff Davis is in his 15th year as Assistant Athletic Director of Football Player Relations and External Affairs in 2023. Davis oversees the player relations arm of Clemson Football, entitled P.A.W. Journey. A natural outgrowth of his spirit of leadership, Davis founded P.A.W. Journey to cultivate Clemson's football scholar-athletes into first-class men and world-class leaders through personal growth, life skills and professional development.

During the six years prior to his current position, Davis served as the Assistant Athletic Director for Major Gifts, where he helped fundraise major gifts for the WestZone Club at Memorial Stadium. He also served as the primary spokesman for Clemson University's Call Me MISTER Program in the role of field director from 1999-2003.

Davis was an All-American linebacker from 1978-81 and captained the Tigers during their 1981 national championship run. "The Judge" registered a then-Tiger-record of 175 tackles in 1981. That same season, he became just the third defensive player in ACC history to be named league MVP. Davis had 14 tackles as Clemson topped Nebraska, 22-15, in the 1982 Orange Bowl to claim its first national title.

A fifth-round draft pick by Tampa Bay in 1982, Davis went on to play six seasons in the NFL. During his time as a professional football player, he also completed his Bachelor of Science in Industrial Education and graduated from Clemson in 1984.

In 1995, he became the fourth member of the Clemson Ring of Honor and was named to Clemson's Centennial Team in 1996. In 2002, he was named to the ACC's 50-Year Anniversary team. In 2007, Davis was accorded the highest honor attainable for a college player when he was inducted into the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame.

In 1999, he returned to Clemson as Field Director of Call Me MISTER, a program that seeks to increase the pool of available teachers from broader, more diverse backgrounds, particularly among South Carolina's lowest performing elementary schools. In 2001, during his appearance on The Oprah Winfrey Show, he was awarded $100,000 for Call Me MISTER from Oprah Winfrey's Angel Network.

Davis is the president of Goal Line Stand, which supports young people and adults who seek to remain committed to values that shape and govern their lives. He is also an ordained pastor who currently pastors FreeWay Church of Clemson with his wife, Joni. He and Joni, who he met while attending Clemson, are the proud parents of their six children, Jeneé, Jourdan, Judea, Jeuel, Jedidiah ("JD") and Judah, and the couple is the blessed grandparents of a grandchild, Doren. All have obtained degrees from Clemson, bringing the total of Clemson degrees in the Davis family to 10, including seven bachelor's and three master's degrees. Continuing his legacy in Clemson athletics, his third daughter, Judea, played forward for the Clemson Women's Soccer Team, and his twin sons, JD and Judah, were also linebackers on Clemson's 2016 and 2018 national championship teams.

MIKE DOOLEY
DIR. OF FB ADMIN. & PLAYER PERSONNEL

Mike Dooley is in his 19th year with the Tiger football program in 2023 and serves as director of football administration and player personnel.

Dooley is responsible for overseeing the day-to-day operations of the program and team travel including bowl games. His role also includes daily administration and management of all team personnel including student-athletes, as well as serving as the summer camp director. Since 2016, he has also served in a national capacity as a member of the College Football Playoff Advisory Committee.

Dooley served two years (2005-06) as a video graduate assistant (defense) and two years (2007-08) as an offensive graduate assistant coach at Clemson. He also served as interim tight ends coach in 2008.

Dooley worked as an assistant coach at Greenville (S.C.) High School from 1998-04 before. His responsibilities included defensive coordinator from 2000-04 and assistant head coach in 2004. Greenville High had a 33-4 overall record in his last three years, including a 12-1 mark in 2003. His background also includes his tenure as an assistant coach for the Carolina Rhinos of the af2 league in 2002, when his responsibilities included coaching the defensive backs.

Dooley, a native of Toccoa, Ga., lettered as a defensive end at Furman from 1993-95 and had a sack at Clemson in 1994. He was also an academic honor roll member and received his degree in health & exercise science from Furman in 1998.

He is married to the former Allison Woodlee, a 2003 graduate of Clemson. They have a daughter, Eliza, and son, Austin.

JOHN GRASS

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE OFFENSE
JACKSONVILLE STATE '90

A veteran with more than three decades of college and high school coaching experience, John Grass is in his second full season as special assistant to the offense at Clemson in 2023.

Grass joined Clemson in an off-field capacity in advance of the team's 2021 Cheez-It Bowl victory. He came to the Tigers following a nine-year head coaching stint at his alma mater, Jacksonville State, the final eight seasons of which he served as the Gamecocks' head coach. In his final campaign, his Gamecocks recorded one of the biggest upsets of the 2021 season, earning a dramatic 20-17 win at Florida State.

Grass joined Jacksonville State in 2013 as Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Coordinator under Head Coach Bill Clark before being tabbed for the head coaching job following Clark's departure for UAB prior to the 2014 season. Grass led JSU to a 72-26 record from 2014-

21, winning six Ohio Valley Conference titles and being named the conference's Coach of the Year in each of his first three campaigns. Grass earned AFCA National Coach of the Year in 2015 after leading the Gamecocks to an FBS national championship game berth.

Prior to joining the college coaching ranks, Grass spent 22 years as an accomplished high school assistant coach and head coach in the state of Alabama. After assistant coaching stops at Ashville High School (1990-92) and Eufaula High School (1993-94), he became Ashville's head coach from 1995-99. After two years as offensive coordinator at Hoover from 2000-01, he would go on to be head coach at Alabama's Albertville (2002), Moody (2003-05), Spain Park (2006-07) and Oxford (2008-12) high schools, posting a high school head coaching career record of 123-60.

Grass earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Jacksonville State in 1990. He added a master's of physical education from Jacksonville State in 1997 and a specialist degree in administration from Lincoln Memorial University in 2010. He is married to the former Jada Arnold, and the couple has a daughter, Jules, and two sons, Jud and Jace.

SENIOR ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Paul Hogan is in his 12th year at Clemson serving as a Senior Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach under Director Joey Batson in 2023. Hogan earned a Master's degree in management from the University of Alabama in December 2004.

He is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA), a Strength and Conditioning Coach Certified (SCCC) through the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa), a Master Strength and Conditioning Coach (MSCC), and a Certified Sports Nutrition Consultant (CSNC) through the American Fitness Professionals & Associates (AFPA).

Hogan was a four-year starter at center with Alabama from 1997-2000 and was a three-time All-SEC pick and All-American at center. He started 44 of his 45 career games and also earned Academic All-SEC honors two years.

Following his graduation in 2000, Hogan signed a free-agent contract with the Oakland Raiders.

Hogan spent 2005-06 as an on-field graduate assistant at Clemson. Hogan got his first full-time strength and conditioning job at Samford University in 2007 as Head of Strength and Conditioning for football. He spent seven years at Samford, where he oversaw all aspects of the football training program and performance nutrition. Hogan returned to Clemson in 2012 as a Senior Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach.

Hogan is a native of Valdosta, Ga., where he attended Valdosta High School. In 2019, Hogan was inducted into the Valdosta High School Hall of Fame. He is married to the former Jennifer Rouzie of Tuscaloosa, Ala., and the couple has two sons, Rouzie and Jackson.

DENNIS LOVE

ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH
13TH SEASON ON CLEMSON STAFF
CATAWBA '00

Dennis Love returned to Clemson in January 2022, rejoining the football program as an assistant football strength and conditioning coach. The 2023 season will be his 13th serving Clemson student-athletes across his two tenures.

The strength and conditioning veteran of two decades served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Auburn for the 2021 season after a four-year stint as the associate director of football strength & conditioning at Purdue from 2017-20. He spent the 2015-16 seasons as an assistant strength & conditioning coach with the Denver Broncos, helping the franchise to victory in Super Bowl 50.

Love spent 11 seasons at Clemson from 2004-14, including the final four as the director of Olympic sports strength & conditioning. During his time as director, he oversaw the strength & conditioning for 14 Olympic sports at Clemson while serving as the head strength coach for the baseball, men's soccer and women's volleyball teams.

In his first season working with the baseball program in 2010, Clemson advanced to the College World Series and finished third nationally in the final polls. He also assisted with the football program, working primarily with the defensive line and skill positions.

Love, a native of Cheraw, S.C. who earned a bachelor's degree from Catawba in recreation in 2000, is certified by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association, the National Association of Speed and Explosion and United States Weightlifting, and he is a Certified Football Performance Specialist. He also holds a master's degree in counselor education obtained from Clemson in 2008.

DeANDRE McDANIEL

SENIOR DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT
9TH SEASON ON CLEMSON STAFF
CLEMSON '10

DeAndre McDaniel is in his ninth season on staff at Clemson and his second as Clemson's senior defensive assistant after being promoted from defensive analyst in December 2021. Clemson's defense finished in the Top 15 in total defense in each of his first seven seasons on staff and earned Top 3 finishes in scoring defense four times in that span.

Prior to joining Clemson's support staff, McDaniel was one of the top safeties at Clemson in the 2000s. He was a first-team All-America safety in 2009 and third-team selection in 2010. He tied for third in the nation and was first in the ACC in interceptions in 2009. That season, he was the only player in the nation to have at least eight interceptions and 100 tackles.

As a senior, McDaniel, a 2010 Clemson graduate, led the Tigers in interceptions and tackles in 2010. He finished his career with 15 interceptions in his 53 games and was a two-time first-team All-ACC selection. He earned induction into the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame in 2023.

McDaniel is married to his wife, Talia, and has four children: Deandre Jr., Carson, Londyn and Kross.
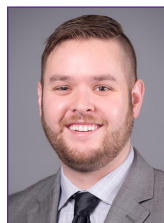

SAM OGDEN

DIRECTOR OF VIDEO & TECHNOLOGY
JACKSONVILLE STATE '14

Sam Ogden is in his fourth season as Clemson's director of football video after joining the program in early 2020. In this role, Ogden oversees Clemson's football video department, including the shooting, processing and management of all game and practice video as well as producing internal video content for the team and staff.

Ogden joined Clemson after spending two seasons at Arkansas in the same capacity from 2018-19. His service at Arkansas was part of a five years he served under former Clemson offensive coordinator Chad Morris, including three years at SMU from 2015-17.

Ogden, a 2014 graduate of Jacksonville State with a degree in communications, worked with Jacksonville State's football team for four years and the men's basketball teams for three seasons. He later earned his master's degree in sports management from the school in 2016. Following his final year at Jacksonville State, Ogden was selected the FCS Video Coordinator of the Year by the Collegiate Sports Video Association (CSVA). He spent the 2014 football season as the video coordinator at the University of South Alabama.

A native of Bellefontaine, Ohio, Ogden is married to his wife, Chloe, and has a son, Lincoln.

DANNY PEARMAN

DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Danny Pearman is in his 17th season as a full-time member of Clemson's staff and in his third year as Director of Football Scouting in 2023.

Before transitioning into his current role in 2021, Pearman spent 12 seasons as Clemson's special teams coordinator and tight ends coach from 2009-20 after joining the program in December 2008 in advance of the team's Gator Bowl appearance. In that span, he helped evaluate, recruit and develop several NFL players in his dual role, including 2011 Mackey Award winner Dwayne Allen, two-time Mackey Award finalist Jordan Leggett and Super Bowl champion Bradley Pinion, among others. He also had purview of the team's offensive tackles from 2009-10, helping launch tackle Chris Hairston to a seven-year NFL career.

Prior to transitioning to scouting, Pearman's teams played 29 bowl games in his 29 seasons as a full-time assistant coach, a figure that extends to 32 bowl games in 32 seasons upon inclusion of his three years as a graduate assistant. He started his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Clemson across the 1988-89 seasons, before joining Alabama as a graduate assistant for the 1990 season.

Pearman coached Alabama's offensive tackles and special teams from 1991-97, helping the Crimson Tide to the 1992 national championship. On that squad was wide receiver Dabo Swinney, with whom Pearman would then coach at Alabama from 1993-97. Pearman would go on to coach at Virginia Tech (1998-2005), North Carolina (2006), Duke (2007) and Maryland (2008) before returning to Clemson.

A 1987 Clemson graduate, Pearman played tight end on Clemson's 1986 and 1987 ACC title teams. He is married to his wife, Kristy, and has two sons, Tanner and Trent, and a daughter, Taylor. Trent is a quarterback on Clemson's 2022 team.

ABE REED

SENIOR DIRECTOR OF FACILITY MANAGEMENT
HOUSTON '97

The 2023 season marks Abe Reed's 26th season at Clemson in a variety of capacities since joining the program as a graduate assistant in 1998 and being hired full-time in 2000.

Reed spent 25 seasons serving the equipment needs of Clemson student-athletes, including 10 seasons as the football program's equipment director. In 2022, he added facility management responsibility for the Allen N. Reeves Football Complex and Poe Indoor Facility, and 2023 marks his first season focusing wholly on facility operations.

Reed is a 1997 graduate of Houston, where he earned a biology degree. He was a student manager at Houston before being hired in a full-time capacity serving multiple sports at Clemson. He previously served as the AEMA District III secretary since 2011 and was the AEMA District III Equipment Manager of the Year in 2012.

He is marred to the former Holly Hepfer of Sumter, S.C. They have two children, a son, Lance, and a daughter, Lillian.

FOOTBALL SUPPORT STAFF

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC TRAINING
TCU '13

Pat Richards is entering his second season as Clemson's Director of Football Athletic Training in 2023.

Prior to joining Clemson, Richards most recently served as Associate Director of Sports Medicine at the University of Houston for the Cougars' 12-2 season and No. 17 final national ranking. His professional experience began as an athletic training intern with the Dallas Cowboys during the 2012 NFL season. In the years to follow, he served as a graduate assistant at Utah (2013-14), as an athletic training intern at Louisville (2015), as an associate athletic trainer at Mississippi State (2016-18) and as the associate director of sports medicine at Louisiana (2019-20) prior to his role at Houston.

Richards earned his bachelor's degree in athletic training from TCU in 2013 before earning a master's degree in exercise and sport science from the University of Utah in 2015.

Upon his hire, Richards became only the fourth person to formally serve as Clemson Football's head athletic trainer since 1948. Clemson Athletic Hall of Famer Herman McGee held the role from 1948-57 amidst his 46 total years of service at Clemson that included roles overseeing athletic grounds and equipment. Though there was no designated head trainer in 1958, legendary long-time Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves trainer Dave Pursley temporarily assisted in that capacity alongside McGee during Clemson's 1958 ACC title season while also assisting MLB farm clubs. Fred Hoover, a Clemson Athletic Hall of Famer and 2002 South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame inductee, led football training efforts as head athletic trainer from 1959-98. Danny Poole served as Clemson's Director of Sports Medicine across the 1999-2021 football seasons as part of his roughly 40 years at Clemson, after which the South Carolina House of Representatives introduced and adopted a resolution to recognize and honor Poole for his service to Clemson student-athletes in early 2022.

JOE ROBBINS
DIRECTOR OF CREATIVE MEDIA
GRAND VALLEY STATE '16
TIGERS

Joe Robbins is entering his fifth season at Clemson and his second as Director of Football Creative Media in 2023.

Robbins joined Clemson as its graphic design coordinator prior to the 2019 season and has since overseen graphic design for Clemson's recruiting efforts. His larger contributions to Clemson's broad range of visual media content for prospective student-athletes resulted in his promotion to Director of Football Creative Media following the 2021 season.

Robbins was a four-year letterwinner at Grand Valley State as a wide receiver from 2013-16, helping the Lakers to three appearances in the Division II playoffs. He graduated from Grand Valley State in 2016 with a degree in film and video before spending the 2017-18 seasons as the lead graphic designer for Michigan State's football program.

A native of Petoskey, Mich., Robbins is married to his wife, Meg, and the couple has a daughter, Della.

CLEMSON '21
TIGERS

Andrew Shipman is in his third season as a video graduate assistant for the offense in 2023 and his seventh season with the program overall.

Shipman served as a student coaching assistant for Clemson from 2017-20. In that role, he assisted with self-scouting and other assorted tasks as the Tigers made College Football Playoff appearances in all four campaigns. Prior to attending Clemson, he assisted current Clemson Passing Game Coordinator/Tight Ends Coach Kyle Richardson during Richardson's tenure as head coach at Northwestern High School in Rock Hill, S.C., helping the Trojans to state titles in 2013 and 2015.

Shipman earned bachelor's degrees from Clemson in both accounting and economics in August 2021, also securing a minor in athletic leadership.

CHAD SMITH
VIDEO GRADUATE ASSISTANT
TIGERS

Chad Smith is entering his second season as a video graduate assistant with Clemson's defense in 2023.

Smith played linebacker at Clemson from 2015-19, helping the Tigers to five ACC titles, five consecutive College Football Playoff appearances, four national championship game berths and two national titles. In his final season in 2019, he earned All-ACC Academic and NFF Hampshire Honor Society accolades, and in his penultimate game, he posted 12 tackles to earn Fiesta Bowl defensive MVP honors in a dramatic playoff semifinal win against No. 2 Ohio State.

A native of Sterling, Va., Smith earned a degree in sports communication from Clemson in 2018. The three-time ACC Honor Roll selection added a master's degree in communication, technology and society in December 2019.

JORDAN SORRELLS

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

JIM CLEMENTS

- CLEMSON UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT
- 10TH FULL SEASON AT CLEMSON
- UMBC '85, '91, '93, JOHNS HOPKINS '88

James P. Clements became Clemson University's 15th president on Dec. 31, 2013 after serving as president of West Virginia University. Since his arrival, the value of the Tiger Paw has never been higher, driven by the university's elevated academic reputation and the exposure from Clemson University's athletic success on the national stage.

Under his leadership, Clemson has raised the bar in academics, admissions, enrollment, retention rates, graduation rates, research and diversity. Clements has also led the way in helping to raise more than $2.5 billion in private funds during his career, including approximately $1.7 billion since he arrived at Clemson.

Clements is a nationally recognized leader in higher education who has served as president of a university in three different athletic conferences, Big East Conference, Big 12 Conference and Atlantic Coast Conference, where he served as the 2016-17 Chair of the ACC Council of Presidents. He currently serves on the board of directors for the ACC and as one of 11 members on the College Football Playoff Board of Managers.

Clements serves on the board of directors of the American Council on Education, the executive committee for the Council of Competitiveness, the Council of Presidents for the Association of Governing Boards and the Special Olympics International Board. Clements previously served as the Chair of the Board for the Association of Public & Land-Grant Universities.

Prior to his service at WVU, he served as provost and vice president for academic affairs, vice president for

UNDER CLEMENTS' LEADERSHIP

- He has led commencement ceremonies for nearly 61,000 graduates at Clemson. These Clemson graduates represent more than one third of Clemson's 180,000 living alumni.
- Freshman applications have more than tripled since his arrival to more than 60,000 in 2023.
- Clements has helped raise more than $2.5 billion in private funds, including approximately $1.7 billion since he arrived at Clemson, resulting in record-breaking fundraising every year.
- The value of the Clemson Foundation Endowment has doubled since Clements arrived at Clemson and surpassed $1 billion for the first time in 2021.
- Total research expenditures reached an all-time high of $263 million this past year.
- Clemson achieved and was re-affirmed Carnegie R1 for highest research activity.
- Nearly $2 billion has been invested in new or renovated facilities.
- Clemson is on more than 100 top-20 lists, including "Happiest Students," "Great Career Services," "Most Trusted Universities" and "Best Alumni Network."

Economic Development & Community Outreach and as the Robert W. Deutsch Distinguished Professor of Information Technology at Towson University, the second largest university in the University System of Maryland, where he was a four-time winner of the Faculty Member-of-the-Year Award, given by Towson students.

Clements holds a bachelor of science degree in computer science as well as a master's degree and Ph.D.

in operations analysis from the University of Maryland, Baltimore County. He also holds a master's degree in computer science from Johns Hopkins University's Whiting School of Engineering and was awarded an honorary degree as Doctor of Public Education from his alma mater, UMBC. His Successful Project Management book is now in its seventh edition and is published in multiple languages and used in numerous countries.

Clements was born in Arlington, Va., but spent the majority of his life in Maryland before relocating to West Virginia and then Clemson. He and his wife, Beth, have been married for 32 years and have four children and five grandchildren.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

GRAHAM NEFF

- DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
- 2ND FULL SEASON AS DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS AT CLEMSON
- 11TH FULL SEASON AT CLEMSON
- GEORGIA TECH '06

Graham Neff was named Clemson's 14th Director of Athletics on Dec. 23, 2021 in the midst of his ninth year at Clemson and is now in his second year in the role.

His first year in Tigertown was at full speed, as he oversaw significant facility development, including investments at football and a women's sport expansion project to house Clemson's new lacrosse and gymnastics teams. He led the bringing of Clemson's multimedia rights in-house, developed a comprehensive NIL program and launched a streaming service, Clemson+. IPTAY has seen record-breaking growth in the past year, which included the largest gift in IPTAY history.

The 39-year-old has been in senior leadership positions within Clemson Athletics since 2013, including as chief financial officer and director of capital projects prior to his most recent role as deputy director of athletics. Neff has helped oversee the build and financing of more than $200 million in facility improvements, aided in the continued development of IPTAY, and served as a sport administrator for football and men's basketball.

Neff works consistently with key university stakeholders, including the university Executive Leadership Team, Board of Trustees, IPTAY Board of Directors, Athletics Council, as well as several university committees and appointments.

During his time as a sport supervisor, the football program won two national championships, the men's basketball program made a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances, including a Sweet 16 run in 2018. Academically, Clemson's graduation success rate has been above 91 percent for seven consecutive years, and student-athlete total GPA has been above 3.0 for nine straight semesters.

Neff has helped develop several key areas of the department, including the financial philosophy, fundraising, student-athlete welfare, and external operations management, and in 2019 was named one of Sports Business Daily's Power Players and in 2021 was named to SBJ's 40 Under 40 list.

Prior to his role as Deputy AD, he joined Clemson in 2013 as Associate AD of Finance and Facilities. Before Clemson, Neff served two-plus years in several senior administrative roles at Middle Tennessee State Athletics, with emphasis in finance, facilities and external operations.

A civil engineering graduate of Georgia Tech, he served as a student manager for Coach Paul Hewitt and the men's basketball program, advancing to a Final Four in 2004. Neff worked in the Financial Advisory Services group at Deloitte and Touche from 2006 to 2008, prior to returning to a finance and ticketing role at the Georgia Tech Athletic Association. He earned an MBA from Georgia Tech in 2010.

Neff and his wife Kristin have three sons, Grady and twins Emmett and Nolan.

IPTAY, founded in 1934, was one of the first scholarship fundraising organizations in college athletics. Its roots trace back to Oct. 16, 1931 following a surprising 6-0 football loss against The Citadel.

After the game, Captains Frank Jervey and Pete Heffner along with Head Coach Jess Neely and Assistant Coach Joe Davis met in a car outside the stadium in Florence, S.C. to discuss various ways Clemson could establish its football program to a competitive status.

Shortly after the meeting, Dr. Rupert Fike offered his help after corresponding with Jervey. Neely believed he could run a successful football team if he was provided a $10,000-a-year increase in scholarships.

Initially, Jervey called for members to pay $30 a year, but Fike recommended a smaller amount of money, which he believed would lead to more members joining. Fike charged 100 people to step forward and pay $10 a year, which is where the name IPTAY (I Pay Ten A Year) originated.

In 1934, the first year of IPTAY, over $1,600 was raised. Some donors negotiated payments in the form of bartering because of the Great Depression. Milk, sweet potatoes, turnip greens and other goods were accepted in an attempt to build a solid membership base.

However, the hard work of Fike and his colleagues began to pay off in the 1939 season, as the Tigers went to their first bowl game, the 1940 Cotton Bowl, where they beat Boston College 6-3 and finished in the top 25 of the AP poll. Coincidentally, IPTAY reached Neely's $10,000 goal for the first time in 1939.

In more recent years, IPTAY's growth of support for Clemson student-athletes has continued to elevate. In addition to athletic scholarships, IPTAY also provides funding for new and upgraded facilities, strength & conditioning, nutrition services, life skills and more. IPTAY is also a strong supporter of Tiger Band, providing funding for new uniforms and travel expenses.

IPTAY is considered by many to be the father of athletic fundraising. It was the first organization in the nation to build and fund an academic support facility solely for educational resources for student-athletes.

Vickery Hall opened in 1991 and established itself as a nationally-recognized program for student-athlete support. The program moved to the Nieri Family Student-Athlete Enrichment Center at the west endzone of Memorial Stadium in 2017.

The IPTAY Collegiate Club, started in 1997, continues to be the model student fundraising organization in the country. Additionally, the IPTAY Tiger Cub Club allows children to be members of IPTAY at a young age. The IPTAY REP volunteer program continues to be a leadership group that grows the IPTAY organization through its role as volunteer annual fundraisers.

IPTAY introduced the endowment of positions program under former Executive Director George Bennett. IPTAY implemented the program in 1994 during the 85th-birthday celebration for former Clemson Head Coach Frank Howard. The first endowment honored Howard, who coached the Tigers for 39 seasons and established much of Clemson football's storied traditions.

The Riggs giving level, established in 2015, is IPTAY's highest annual donation level. IPTAY, led by CEO Davis Babb, has expanded its organizational service to move toward a broader scope of full service. This includes capital gifts, improved marketing plans, estate planning and increasing our membership through our IPTAY REP volunteer program.

For additional information on how you can support IPTAY and all Clemson University student-athletes, call the McCarter Family IPTAY Center at 1-800-CLEMSON or visit the IPTAY website at ClemsonTigers.com/IPTAY.

ALLEN N. REEVES FOOTBALL COMPLEX

Head Coach Dabo Swinney and Clemson Athletics sought to build "the forever home of Clemson football" when envisioning what would become the Allen N. Reeves Football Complex, which opened in January 2017. Six years later, the facility remains among the gold standards of performance facilities not just in college football but in all of sports worldwide.

While discussion about the $55 million facility spanning in excess of 142,000 square feet often centers around its bells and whistles, its design offers unparalleled functionality. During the facility's ideation, Clemson staff toured more than 35 sports performance facilities, pulling the best, most innovative ideas from every location and using the gleaned insight to create what 247Sports ranked as the nation's No. 1 facility as recently as 2021.

Upon entry to the main lobby of the Allen N. Reeves Football Complex, the first thing visitors see are national championship trophies sitting in front of a video screen flanked by massive trophy cases housing additional hardware from Clemson's history. The lobby also displays a scaled replica of Howard's Rock and the Hill from Memorial Stadium, which also includes a button to play audio of Brent Musburger describing college football's grandest entrance prior to Clemson's 2013 game against Georgia.

At the behest of Swinney's original design, immediately visible on the lobby's right side is the home of P.A.W. Journey, a program that cultivates leadership on the team through four main pillars: personal growth, life skills and community service, career and professional development and former player engagement, under the guidance of former All-American Jeff Davis. Next to it, a corridor lined with all of the rings won in Clemson history leads to the Hendrix Family Paw Bistro, the best-in-class dining facility whose cuisine is cited by many current and former players as their favorite part of the facility.

Despite national praise for the young facility, Clemson has not rested in its pursuit of making the facility the nation's standard-bearer. In the last several years, Clemson has continued to invest in the facility's ability to meet the needs of the modern student-athlete both on and off the field.

In early 2023, Clemson completed the addition of the Allen N. Reeves Clemson Athletics Branding Institute, a 12,000-square-foot, two-story area on the west end of the Betty Sheppard Poe & William Maxwell Poe Indoor Facility and steps from Clemson's spacious weight room. The institute, described in detail on pages 46 and 47 and known colloquially as "The CAB," contains two spacious photo and video studios, a customizable lighting grid, an audio studio, editing space, office space, meeting space and more to provide on-site resources for student-athletes choosing to pursue sponsorship opportunities and content generation. The lower lever of the facility is also home to the Smart Family Media Center for press conferences.

ALLEN N. REEVES FOOTBALL COMPLEX

A balcony on the top level of the institute overlooks the Poe Indoor Facility, an 80,000-square-foot, $10 million structure completed in late 2012. Clemson updated the facility in the spring of 2023, replacing the decade-old playing surface with a Hellas Matrix Helix monofilament synthetic turf system with RealFill rubber atop its Cushdrain drainage and shock pad. The surface helps to minimize wear and tear on Clemson's players while allowing the team to continue its preparation in the event of inclement weather. The facility also received an aesthetic and functional facelift in 2023, with new photos and graphics adorning the walls and the addition of new storage areas for equipment staff. The facility also includes raised video platforms, a game-ready scoreboard, four play clocks, a videoboard and a booming sound system.

A year earlier, Clemson invested significantly in the holistic health and wellness of its student-athletes with the completion of its "100 Yards of Wellness" area inside the Reeves Football Complex in 2022. Detailed further on pages 48-49, the project has become a central hub and a hotbed of student-athlete activity as modern athletes continue to buy into the concept of "prehab," load management and active recovery. The collaboration of Clemson Director of Applied Science Dr. Alex Bina and Head Athletic Trainer Pat Richards, two young, dynamic leaders in their respective fields, has kept Clemson at the forefront as one of the world's top sports science facilities.

In addition to being a free resource for Clemson's active student-athletes, the space has become a draw for Clemson's alumni in the NFL. With Clemson's professional-grade-or-better training areas, Tigers in the NFL have routinely returned, and brought their NFL teammates, to train in Clemson's facilities in summers between minicamp and training camp. The facility, including the 100 Yards of Wellness area, has inspired both awe and jealousy from NFL players who played collegiately at other programs.

Adjacent to the dining area and 100 Yards of Wellness are the outdoor player village and indoor player lounge. The outdoor area includes a nine-hole miniature golf course, an artificial-surface wiffle ball diamond, sand volleyball facility, pickleball court, a horseshoe pit, fountain with a Tiger Paw monument, outdoor kitchen and a lounge area.

The indoor player lounge is complete with a two-lane bowling alley, Pop-A-

Shot, three different video game console centers, multiple ping-pong and pool tables, a shuffleboard table and Super Bikes motorcycle arcade game. Adjacent to the ping-pong tables is a golf simulator, where student-athletes can play many great golf courses from around the world and learn the game (and professional networking tool) in a comfortable setting.

Down the corridor from the golf simulator is an expanded and renovated barber shop with a pedicure station and massage chairs. The shop's 2021 expansion was designed and constructed in part by former Tiger defensive end Justin Foster, a construction science graduate who served as an assistant superintendent on the renovation project prior to his final season at Clemson. Next to the barber shop is the nap room, designed to offer players a designated space to combat one of the largest obstacles to good mental health: lack of sleep.

Clemson's enormous weight room covers 23,000 square feet and debuted as the country's largest football-only weight room. The entire team can work out at once in the area that includes 20 inlay platforms, numerous machines, fatbells, kettlebells and dumbbells, as well as a well-equipped cardio deck overlooking the lifting area. It also houses the offices of Performance Nutritionist Meaghan Turcotte and her staff as well as a nutritional fuel bar.

Clemson's hydrotherapy areas include a large horizontal 47-degree cold tub that can handle 61 players at any one time. Next to the locker room, it sits adjacent to the hydrotherapy portion of the 100 Yards of Wellness area that hosts a lap pool and four therapy pools.

The second floor houses offices and meeting spaces for Clemson football personnel, including Swinney's office is in the corner with accrued career memorabilia that serves for invited guests as a de facto museum of Clemson football and the future College Football Hall of Famer's career journey.

The second floor contains dedicated and customized meeting space for each position and the team meeting room that seats 180 people. The second level also features a movie theater with 20 lounge chairs.

But perhaps most famously, connecting the second-floor meeting spaces down to the locker room, weight room and practice fields is Clemson's renowned slide, which represents the most efficient means to get Tiger players from meetings to practice in a timely manner.

P.A.W. JOURNEY

P.A.W. JOURNEY
AMBASSADORS

Clemson football is unapologetic about developing its scholar-athletes through the cutting-edge leadership initiative that is P.A.W. Journey. P.A.W., which stands for "Passionate About Winning," is the founding principle of this player relations program, positioning Clemson's football scholar-athletes to maintain a continually competitive posture towards all aspects of their lives.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney consistently encourages his scholar-athletes to maximize all that football has to offer, including the opportunities it creates and the skills it cultivates within each young man that can be used for a lifetime. P.A.W. Journey, serving as the guiding light for how to transfer all the treasure to be gained from football, supports scholar-athletes in this endeavor daily.

P.A.W. Journey focuses on holistic development through its four pillars: Striped, C.U. in Life, 5th Quarter and Overtime. These pillars work harmoniously to progressively develop individuals as a whole, so they can become first-class men and world-class leaders.

Striped intentionally identifies and fosters each person's sense of purpose and the man they aspire to become. C.U. in Life bridges the gap between excellence on the football field and excellence in community, career and around the globe.

5th Quarter instills entrepreneurial spirit and executive skills through professional development, influential marketplace exposure and purposeful employment opportunities. Overtime provides Clemson football alumni and former players with opportunities for leadership, growth and relationships, both internal and external to Clemson University.

Founded and led by Clemson's very own Jeff Davis, P.A.W. Journey is the model player relations program in the country. Along with his team of dedicated personnel, Rashard Hall, Jeuel Davis, Antoine McClain and Kayla Owens, P.A.W. Journey supports and mentors Clemson's football scholar-athletes from the time they step foot on campus to their graduation and beyond.

PERSONAL GROWTH

Striped intentionally identifies and fosters each individual's sense of purpose and the man they aspire to become. It emphasizes personal growth through utilizing influence, overcoming adversity and initiating transformation.

CHARACTER • CONFIDENCE • CONVICTION

LIFE SKILLS & COMMUNITY SERVICE

C.U. in Life provides opportunities to learn and apply transferable skills, such as financial literacy, communication and mental health awareness. It encourages engagement in sustainable service that promotes the understanding and appreciation of humanity in domestic and global contexts.

EDUCATE • EMPOWER • ENGAGE

CAREER & PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

5th Quarter instills entrepreneurial spirit and executive skills through professional development, influential marketplace exposure and purposeful employment opportunities. It provides a platform for continual connection to Clemson.

PREPARATION • PASSION • PURPOSE

FORMER PLAYER ENGAGEMENT

Overtime provides Clemson football alumni and former players with opportunities for leadership, growth and relationships, both internal and external to Clemson University.

CELEBRATION • CONNECTION • COMMITMENT

Praise for the P.A.W. Journey experience was echoed by alumnus Milan Richard.

"P.A.W. Journey continues to impact my life every day, as I am constantly applying different skill sets that were nurtured through the program in the workforce, my personal life and my spiritual life! It will continue to be a staple in our program and the difference maker throughout all of college football, for many years to come."

Richard served as a P.A.W. Journey ambassador, a prestigious leadership position currently held by 40 football scholar-athletes that allows them to collaborate with the P.A.W. Journey staff to address the team's needs and desires, as well as to be a representative for P.A.W. Journey on the team and campus, in the marketplace and in the community.

Richard has also taken advantage of those opportunities mentioned, as the Tiger scholar-athlete completed microinternships with various companies across the country. He has also returned to be a speaker to the team he once played on.

The program not only encourages men to hone their skills and passions, it empowers them to lead. While no two journeys look the same, the ability to lead with confidence and conviction grows each day with each young man.

"My internship was incredible with the NFL," said running back Will Shipley. "I was able to meet so many people and pick up knowledge from every department of the operation. Being in the 'Big Apple' was a great experience."

In addition to his outstanding leadership and performance in the football arena, Shipley has been a formidable force of leadership in every arena of life, including serving as a P.A.W. Journey ambassador and a member of the Tiger Leadership Academy, reading to elementary school children and fundraising for the Levine Children's Hospital while maintaining a 4.0 GPA at Clemson.

Within the ever-evolving landscape of college football, P.A.W. Journey is confident in its ability to recognize and respond to the needs of the newly empowered scholar-athlete at Clemson University and beyond. Because being passionate about winning, in football, and more importantly, in life, will always be the foundation for every Clemson Tiger to pursue first-class manhood and world-class leadership.

THE C.A.B.

"WHAT DOES A CAB DO? IT GIVES YOU A LIFT TO YOUR DESTINATION. BUT YOU HAVE TO PAY THE FARE. YOU HAVE TO PUT IN THE WORK."

DABO SWINNEY

The "Best" in "Best is the Standard" got better in early 2023, as Clemson opened the Allen N. Reeves Clemson Athletics Branding Institute to provide Clemson student-athletes best-in-class facilities and resources for branding, marketing, sponsorship, content creation and more.

Attached to the west end of the Poe Indoor Facility, the new 12,000-square-foot, two-story facility now houses two photo and video studios, an audio studio, editing space, conference room and the office of Name, Image and Likeness Coordinator C.D. Davies, all intended to provide on-site resources for student-athletes choosing to pursue sponsorship opportunities and content generation. The facility is also home to the Smart Family Media Center.

From its ideation, "The CAB," as Head Coach Dabo Swinney nicknamed it, has been intended as a destination for student-athletes seeking branding guidance and resources to help elevate themselves among a crowded marketplace.

"We're going to call it The CAB because what does a cab do? It gives you a lift to your destination," Swinney said. "But guess what, you've gotta pay the fare. We can't do it for you. You've got to do the work. I'm really excited about it because it's a living, breathing space where our guys know they can go for expertise.

"If you're injured, you go to the training room. If you want to get stronger, you go to the weight room. This was an opportunity for our guys to know that if they want help with branding and sponsorship and NIL and tax education and finances and all of these very real-world issues, you go to The CAB where we have a dedicated space with people ready to help them."

According to Davies, that real-world experience is indispensable and part of Clemson's educational mission.

"This is a great education for them," Davies said of the opportunity for student-athletes to monetize their name, image and likeness. "They're getting an education that a lot of business schools don't get to give young people as far as actually being in the midst of doing these deals and negotiating for themselves, and we're giving them all the tools we can to make sure our players are in control of these transactions."

At the top of the stairs to the second floor of the new facility is a conference room overlooking Clemson's indoor practice field, providing a location for potential sponsors and collectives like Tiger-Impact and Dear Old Clemson to meet with Clemson student-athletes.

Down the walkway overlooking the practice field sit three studio spaces for content creation. The first includes a 625-square-foot infinity wall plus permanently installed customizable lighting to provide Clemson content creators and others quick, turnkey options for professional-grade studio space. It also includes a feature wall adorned with a neon-backlit Clemson logo. The second studio is a blank canvas to provide greater flexibility for creation of custom photo and video sets. The third is a soundproof studio complete with top-of-the-line RØDECaster equipment for the production of audio content such as podcasts.

The ground level is home to the Smart Family Media Center, which will serve as a central hub for Clemson's award-winning media operations. The 1,200-square-foot center includes wired workspace for 40 media members to work comfortably and efficiently while interviewing Clemson personnel seated in front of the stage's 163-inch video branding wall, which can be customized for each student-athlete.

The creation of the Smart Family Media Center is the latest illustration of Clemson's larger commitment to serving local and national media and helping them tell the stories of Clemson's student-athletes. Clemson's Athletic Communications staff has won 10 Super 11 awards, presented annually by the Football Writers Association of America to the Football Bowl Subdivision's most helpful sports information departments, tied for the most in the award's history. Clemson's coaches' and student-athletes' helpfulness and authenticity with the media resulted in Clemson becoming the first program ever to earn the honor in eight consecutive years, doing so from 2015-22.

At the entry point to the top level is the office for Davies, whose addition in the summer of 2022 gave Clemson's student-athletes a direct line to a resource with more than 30 years of executive leadership in the financial services sector.

"I guarantee you there is no one in the country that has someone like C.D. Davies as their NIL Coordinator," Swinney said. "He is overkill qualified, but it is a blessing for us at Clemson and a blessing for our team. He's been a CEO at major companies and corporations all throughout his career.

"This is all elementary to him compared to the world he comes from, but to our players, he is a major asset when it comes to finances, taxes, contracts, LLCs — anything that could come up in this space — for them to be able to have a good resource and sounding board and guidance and again fulfill what we're trying to do, which is protect our players, train our players and truly educate them so they can maximize and navigate this NIL space."
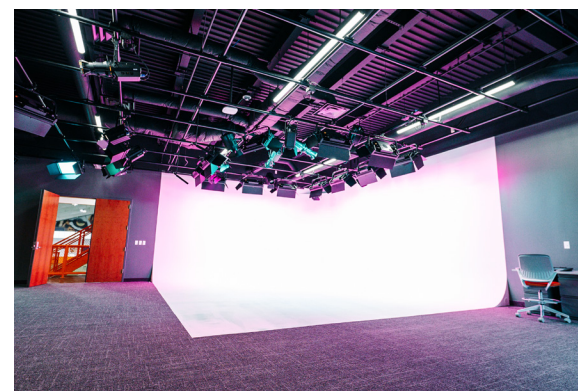

In addition to his role with Clemson, Davies serves as the Chief Executive Officer for Figure Acquisition Corporation. His impressive business background also includes successful tenures as the CEO of CitiMortgage and Head of Citi Global Mortgage; as CEO of LendingTree, Wachovia Mortgage, and QBE First; as well as the head of Capital One Home Loans.

Building construction and renovations for The CAB also included the creation of updated spaces for pro scouts and for returning Clemson football players. The Pro Scout Room has nine workstations for NFL scouts to watch tape, write reports and meet with Clemson personnel. A few yards away is Clemson's NFL locker room, a dedicated space for former NFL players to dress and shower upon their returns to Clemson to train in the offseason.

100 YARDS OF WELLNESS

Completed in 2022, Clemson's "100 Yards of Wellness" project represents the natural evolution of Clemson Football's long-time commitment to student-athlete health and wellness. By literally and figuratively breaking down walls, the space combines Clemson's athletic training and rehabilitation expertise with its continued innovation in active recovery and applied science. The result is a best-in-class facility that reflects Clemson's investment in the holistic well-being of the young men in its football program.

RESTORE | OPTIMIZE | PERFORM

Clemson's path to the forefront of elite athlete recovery started with a culture change. For generations, despite the best efforts and cheeriest dispositions of athletic trainers, an unfortunate misconception lingered: The athletic training room is for the injured, and for the injured, the athletic training room is not a happy place to be.

"We really wanted to get away from the mentality of the 'Training Room,' if you will," Head Coach Dabo Swinney said, mimicking air quotes. "We wanted to get away from the idea was that it was only for guys who are injured and don't want to be in there."

Enter the Jeanne & Brian Penner 100 Yards of Wellness, Clemson's new $4.9-million wellness space at the Allen N. Reeves Football Complex spanning roughly 300 feet in length that has become a central hub of activity and major point of pride for Clemson Football.

Completed in August 2022, 100 Yards of Wellness represents the natural evolution of Clemson Football's long-time commitment to student-athlete health and wellness. By literally and figuratively breaking down walls that divided the focus areas, the new space combines Clemson's athletic training and rehabilitation expertise with its continued innovation in active recovery and applied science.

"Now it's a total wellness commitment, the mental side, the wellness side, the 'prehab' side, the applied science side, your stretching, your nutrition, all of it combined in this one big space," said Swinney. "It's created an environment where the guys want to be there all the time."

In 2018, Clemson enclosed what was previously an outdoor patio area to create the Clemson Applied Science Lab (or CASL, pronounced "Castle"). The area served a two-fold mission. It served as the hub of Clemson's data and performance analysis as well as a space for "prehab" and recovery.

As Clemson's student-athletes bought in, the space became one of the Allen N. Reeves Football Complex's most heavily trafficked areas. With demand quickly outgrowing the footprint, Clemson embarked upon the renovation and expansion immediately after the team's final practice of the spring in 2022.

Whereas walls previously divided the athletic training room from the recovery space, the new open-concept area features Clemson's medical diagnostic and treatment area to the north and the recovery space to the south, bisected by a nutrition bar. Visitors are often surprised to find an almost club-like atmosphere with upbeat music and moving colored lights creating a welcoming environment rather than a stale, clinical one.

Trainer Pat Richards, and Clemson's applied science group, pioneered by Dr. Alex Bina.

"There is no one in the country I would rather have caring for our student-athletes in these positions than the duo of Pat Richards and Alex Bina," Swinney said. "Pat is incredibly well-respected and is a young, dynamic leader in the athletic training industry. And Alex is an example of blooming where you're planted. He was a student volunteer who went from working from a laptop on a weight room stool to creating an applied science department that operates college football's premier recovery facility. Those two are the best in the business, and that shows in how much our players love them and trust them."

Clemson's treatment and athletic training room area includes all requisite athletic training resources including a diagnostic office with a full digital X-ray space and diagnostic ultrasound, general medical exam room, 30 yards of turf, and hydrotherapy areas, including two underwater treadmills. Among the many features of the recovery center are:

- A cryotherapy chamber for muscle recovery through extreme cold temperature exposure.
- A sensory deprivation float tank that houses 1,200 pounds of Epsom salt dissolved in water at skin temperature to remove athletes from light, sound and some gravitational force.
- Infrared hyperthermic Cocoon pods for far-infrared light therapy and vibrational massage.
- Photobiomodulation therapy beds that leverage multiple wavelengths of infrared light to reduce oxidative stress.
- A hyperbaric chamber to create a pressurized environment for concentrated oxygen intake.
- Numerous massage chairs, including both percussive massage and hydro-massage options.
- Percussive Hypervolt massage guns.
- Dedicated tables and space for practioner-assisted stretching, percussive massage gun therapy, and Normatec compressive sleeves provided to each player prior to the season.
- Functional testing equipment to obtain objective information on student-athlete muscle and joint function that can be used for injury prevention and return-to-play purposes.

The renovations also included updating Clemson's outdoor basketball court into an indoor basketball court, which, in addition to being a source of friendly competition for players and staff, now can be transformed following games into a movement studio for active recovery modalities like yoga.
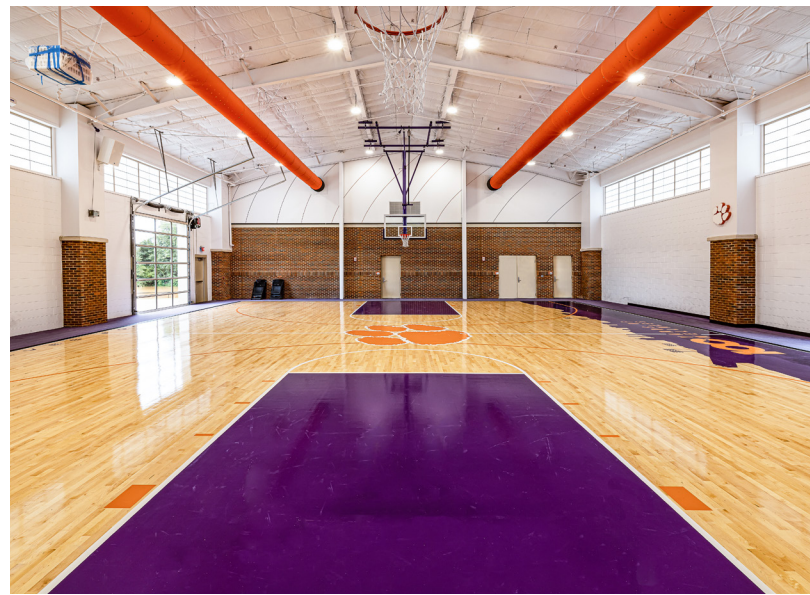

The Clemson Applied Science Lab also became a nap destination, but the high-energy vibes and heavy traffic of the subsequent 100 Yards of Wellness space required an additional solution. Atop a portion of the south end of the recovery area is what the team calls "Tranquility Tower," an upstairs, quiet location with much of the same recovery equipment but in a serene, peaceful environment conducive to rest and away from the social activity of the main floor.

Clemson's recovery resources have become a source of envy for its former players. Two-time All-American and NFL wide receiver Sammy Watkins remarked to Swinney that he routinely spends more than $50,000 annually on services to maintain his body now provided to Clemson student-athletes for free.

CLEMSON APPLIED SCIENCE LAB

Clemson Applied Science Lab (CASL) has a very simple mission…"Carry out the vision of the head football coach by providing confidence to student-athletes that their physical and technical development is constantly advancing."

Director of Applied Science Dr. Alex Bina has done everything in his power to ensure that those words ring true and Clemson student-athletes are given every possible opportunity to both improve performance and physically recover, using any and all modern technologies available.

The two key focuses of CASL are maximizing performance and expediting recovery.

The ultimate goal is quantifying body performance. Once the body and its abilities are put into numerical terms, it becomes considerably easier to determine what needs to be improved and the best possible route to enhance it.

Throughout the yearly training cycle, athletes are evaluated using technologies that leverage motion capture, force plates, sensory station, augmented reality, force transducers and GPS sensors in order to quantify athletic development. Through this process, an athlete's body composition, movement efficiency, vertical jump performance, cognitive reasoning skills, hamstring strength and on-field speed become clear to both coach and athlete alike.

By building a database of the "Clemson Effect" on athlete development and performance, the Clemson football staff can continue to build championship teams for future generations of Tiger players.

Not only does CASL provide coaches and student-athletes with quantitative data with which they can analyze performance, it also is a key resource for student-athletes to use during the recovery process. Bina stressed that quick and healthy recovery is the priority of the staff at CASL.

The path to success in recovery is a two-step process. The first is communication and collaboration between the student-athlete and his strength & conditioning coach, nutrition and sports medicine experts and his sports psychologist. The second is using the established baseline scores of the student-athlete as targets for return-to-play protocols and as a foundation for injury-prevention training.

Clemson Applied Science Lab concerns itself heavily with the mental aspect of sports performance. Student-athletes get access to a sensory-deprivation float tank, which eliminates all external stimuli and gives the closest estimation of "true peace" possible. This also improves sleep quality, which is a large part of both mental and physical performance. Along with sensory deprivation tanks, CASL utilizes cryotherapy to further stimulate recovery.

Bina has always been interested in bioengineering, which is the degree he earned from Penn State. Bina, who received his Ph.D. from Clemson, is implementing a simple plan, which is to "learn how the body works as a machine and put students in a position to manipulate that machine to improve recovery and performance."

Tiger players have been responding very positively to the work that Bina and CASL have done for them, and as a program, Clemson has seen tremendous success in terms of both its players' short and long-term recoveries.

Bina wants to ensure that "everything possible is being done for them" in order to get them back to their peak performance as healthily and as quickly as possible.

As far as long-term and overarching goals and aspirations for CASL, Bina offered the following.

"When we talk about, 'Best is the Standard,' that means in all ways possible. This is just another piece of that puzzle."

As part of the Allen N. Reeves Football Complex that opened on Feb. 1, 2017, the Tiger program opened one of the top strength training facilities in the nation. The 23,000 square-foot football facility has all the latest in modern strength training that helps the Tigers prepare year-round.

The facility includes 20 inlay platforms, 30 pieces of cardio equipment, a full line of fatbells, kettlebells and dumbbells, eight different training zones and a nutrition bar.

The facility also has the latest high-tech sound system, many flatscreens and the best lighting available that puts wall graphics in full view, leading to the best possible work environment.

The facility is attached to the indoor football facility and faces the outdoor practice facility, making for the most convenient and efficient facility in the nation.

MEMORIAL STADIUM

Clemson's Memorial Stadium has been held in high esteem for many years. Whether it be players from the 1940s and 1950s, opposing players from the 1970s and 1980s or even professional players in the 1990s, the ambiance of this special setting is what college football is all about.

Clemson has finished in the top 20 in the country in average home attendance for 42 straight seasons. Clemson ranked third in the country and first in the ACC in total attendance in 2020 and led the conference (and finished 14th in the nation) in average attendance in 2022.

The storied edifice added to its legend when the first meeting of father-and-son head coaches (Bowden Bowl I) took place before a record crowd of 86,092 fans in 1999. The legend was further enhanced from 2016-22, when the Tigers recorded an ACC-record 40-game home winning streak, tied for the eighth-longest streak in FBS history. Since the advent of the College Football Playoff prior to the 2014 season, Clemson is 59-2 at home, tied for the highest home winning percentage in the country.

The facility's mystique is derived from its many traditions, which date to its opening in the 1942 season, the legendary games and players and Clemson's corresponding rate of success. Entering 2023, the Tigers have totaled 334 wins in 81 years and have won 76.0 percent of the contests (334-103-7). Visiting defending national champions are 0-3 all-time at Memorial Stadium.

The stadium has definitely been good to the Tigers, but it was constructed against the advice of at least one coach. Before Jess Neely left for Rice after the 1939 season, he gave Clemson a message.

"Don't ever let them talk you into building a big stadium," he said. "Put about 10,000 seats behind the YMCA. That's all you'll ever need."

Instead of following Neely's advice, Clemson officials decided to build the new stadium in a valley on the western part of campus. The crews went to work, clearing, cutting, pouring and forming. On Sept. 19, 1942, Memorial Stadium opened with Clemson defeating Presbyterian College, 32-13. Those 20,000 seats installed for the opener would soon grow.

When the original part of the stadium was built in the early 1940s, much of the work was done by scholarship athletes, including football players. The first staking out of the stadium was done by two members of the football team, A.N. Cameron and Hugh Webb. Webb returned to Clemson years later to be an architecture professor and Cameron went on to become a civil engineer in Louisiana.

The construction of Memorial Stadium did not proceed without problems. One afternoon during the clearing of the land, a young player proudly announced that he was not allergic to poison oak. He then proceeded to attack the poison oak with a swing blade, throwing the plants to and fro. The next day, the boy was swollen twice his size and was hospitalized.

There are many other stories about the stadium, including one that Frank Howard put a chew of tobacco in each corner as the concrete was poured.

Howard said that the seeding of the grass caused a few problems.

"About 40 people and I laid sod on the field," he said. "After three weeks on July 15, we had only gotten about halfway through. "I told them that it had taken us three weeks to get that far and I would give them three more weeks' pay for however long it took to finish. I also told them we would have 50 gallons of ice cream when we got through.

"After that, it took them three days to do the rest of the field. Then we sat down in the middle of the field and ate up that whole 50 gallons."

Howard said on the day of the first game in the stadium, "The gates were hung at 1 p.m., and we played at 2 p.m."

In 1958, 18,000 sideline seats were added, and in 1960, 5,658 west end-zone seats were added in response to increasing attendance. With the large east endzone ("Green Grass" section), this expansion increased capacity to 53,000.

Later, upper decks were added to each side of the stadium as crowds swelled, the first in 1978 and the second in 1983. It increased capacity to over 80,000, which makes it one of the largest on-campus stadiums in the country. In 2006, the WestZone was added.

The original part of Memorial Stadium was built at a cost of only $125,000, or $6.25 per seat. Memorial Stadium's newest upper deck was finished in 1983 at a cost of $13.5 million, or $866 per seat.

In 2022, Clemson debuted a number of stadium enhancements. The videoboard got its first major upgrade since 2005, installing the new affectionately and unofficially nicknamed "DaboTron" that measures 126 feet wide by 56.5 feet tall, eighth largest in the NCAA at the time of its installation. The eight main stadium light poles were updated to an LED system, allowing for light fixture control, spotlighting of Howard's Rock and higher-quality field lighting.

The west side of the stadium also received a facelift with the addition of IP-TAY's Masters Club, a 688-seat premium area on the concourse level. Clemson also installed new signage honoring the all-time greats, championship seasons, and backlighting the traditional "Clemson Welcomes You To Death Valley" signage.

Clemson began Phase II of renovations after the conclusion of the 2022 season. The renovations included a new gameday locker room and a complete reimagining of Lot 5 and the Tiger Walk experience as a 365-day destination for Clemson fans.

Through the years, Memorial Stadium has become known as "Death Valley" across the country. It was tagged by Presbyterian College Head Coach Lonnie McMillian during the late 1940s. After bringing his teams to Clemson for many years and getting whipped, he said the place was like "Death Valley." A few years later, the name stuck.

In 1974, the playing surface was named Frank Howard Field for the legendary coach because of his long service and dedication to Clemson University. Luckily, it wasn't built behind the YMCA.

RUNNING DOWN THE HILL

What has been described by television commentator Brent Musburger as "the most exciting 25 seconds in college football" from a color and pageantry standpoint actually started out as a matter-of-fact entrance, mainly because of necessity.

The first 20,000 seats in Memorial Stadium were built and ready for use before the 1942 season, less than a year after Pearl Harbor was bombed and the U.S. was drawn into World War II.

The shortest entry into Memorial Stadium was a short walk down Williamson Road from Fike Fieldhouse's dressing rooms to a gate at the top of the Hill, located behind the east endzone. There were no dressing facilities inside the west endzone…there was only a giant clock, where the hands turned, and a scoreboard that was operated by hand.

Players would dress in Fike Fieldhouse, walk down Williamson Road, enter at the gate underneath where the scoreboard now stands and jog down the Hill for their warmup exercises. There was little fanfare, no cannon shot fired, no Tiger Paw flag and no "Tiger Rag" played…just the team making its entrance and lining up to do the side-straddle hop. That is the way things went for the next 25 years.

In 1964 or 1965, Sam Jones (Clemson class of 1919) made a trip to California. He stopped at a spot in Death Valley, Calif. and picked up a white flint rock. Jones presented the rock to legendary Head Coach Frank Howard as being from Death Valley, California to Death Valley, South Carolina.

The rock laid on Howard's office floor in Fike Fieldhouse for months. One day, he was cleaning up his office and told Gene Willimon (IPTAY executive secretary) to "take this rock and throw it over the fence or out in the ditch…do something with it, but get it out of my office!"

Willimon did not think that was the way a rock should be treated. After all, it had been brought over 1,900 miles by a very sincere Tiger fan.

By the mid 1960s, Memorial Stadium was living up to its moniker ("Death Valley"), because of the number of Tiger victories that had been recorded there. Actually, the name was first used by Lonnie McMillan, head coach at Presbyterian during the 1940s.

McMillan and the other Blue Hose coaches before him opened each season by playing at Clemson. Seldom scoring (24 shutouts in 39 games) and with only three wins and four ties, his teams were getting "killed" by the Tigers regularly.

In 1948, McMillan made the remark to the press that he was taking his team to play Clemson in "Death Valley." An occasional reference to Memorial Stadium by that name could be heard for the next four years, but when Howard started calling it "Death Valley" in the 1950s, the name took off like wildfire. Clemson celebrated its 80th year in the "Valley" in 2021 with a 6-0 home record and its fifth straight undefeated home campaign.

But getting back to Howard's Rock.

It was mounted on a pedestal at the top of the Hill on the east side of the stadium. It was unveiled Sept. 24, 1966, when Clemson played Virginia. The Tigers trailed by 18 points with 17 minutes left and came back to win 40-35 on a 75-yard pass from Jimmy Addison to Jacky Jackson in the fourth quarter. That was quite a debut for Howard's Rock.

The team members started rubbing Howard's Rock prior to running down the Hill on Sept. 23, 1967, a day when Clemson defeated Wake Forest 23-6.

Prior to running down the Hill, Howard told his players, "If you're going to give 110 percent, you can rub that Rock. If you're not, keep your filthy hands off it!"

When Hootie Ingram succeeded Howard as head coach in 1970, he made the logical decision that the team would make its final entrance out of the new dressing room in the west endzone.

In all home games in 1970 and 1971 and the first four games of 1972 when the Tigers did not run down the Hill, their combined record was 6-9.

The seniors, led by Ben Anderson, decided to come down the Hill prior to the South Carolina game, the 1972 finale. The result, in a cold, freezing rain, was a 7-6 victory when Jimmy Williamson knocked down a two-point conversion attempt, which preserved the narrow win.

Clemson has made the entrance before every home contest since 1942, except for the years mentioned and the first game of the 1973 season (428 times entering 2023).

After final warmups, the team gathers in its dressing room under the west endzone stands for its final pregame instructions. Ten minutes prior to kickoff, the players and coaches board multiple buses, ride around the north stands to the east endzone and disembark to the top of the Hill behind Howard's Rock.

At the appointed time, the cannon booms, and led by a giant Tiger Paw flag carried by cheerleaders and Rally Cats, the band forms two lines for the team to run between and strikes up "Tiger Rag." The frenzy starts in all sincerity and usually lasts three hours.

It is a tradition that has inspired Clemson players for many years. USA Today agreed, as it rated it the best entrance in the nation in 2017.

No. 4 Clemson defeated Georgia Tech, 41-10, at Mercedes-Benz Stadium on Labor Day night. Clemson's special teams had a superlative performance, as Carson Donnelly and Wade Woodaz both blocked punts to give Clemson multiple punt blocks in a single game for the first time since 2007.

Clemson's defense made an impact on the game's first play from scrimmage, as pressure from defensive end K.J. Henry resulted in safety Andrew Mukuba's first career interception.

In the second quarter, after its first punt block, Clemson opened the scoring on a one-yard touchdown run by running back Will Shipley. Clemson then drove 67 yards in eight plays and extended the lead on a six-yard touchdown pass from quarterback DJ Uiagalelei to wide receiver Beaux Collins. Clemson would carry a 14-3 lead into halftime.

Georgia Tech drew to within four on a 13-yard touchdown pass early in the third quarter. The Tiger offense provided a quick answer to take a 17-10 lead, as B.T. Potter hit a 29-yard field goal with 5:41 to play in the third quarter, capping a 12-play, 63-yard drive.

The field goal started Clemson's run of 27 unanswered points down the stretch to earn the win. Potter converted field goal attempts of 29 and 32 yards, and the first-team offense added rushing touchdowns by Uiagalelei and Shipley before ceding to the second unit, when true freshman quarterback Cade Klubnik led Clemson 66 yards and found Will Taylor in the end zone for a three-yard touchdown pass, pushing the final margin to 41-10.

No. 5/4 Clemson scored touchdowns on five of its first six drives in a 35-12 win against Furman. Clemson debuted new renovations to Memorial Stadium, including its 7,100-plus-square-foot videoboard, on a cool, overcast afternoon.

The win was Clemson's 35th consecutive victory at home, only the 15th home winning streak of 35 games or more in FBS history.

Quarterback DJ Uiagalelei completed 21-for-27 passes for 231 yards for a career-high 166.7 passer rating. Clemson rushed for 147 yards on 28 carries, led by Will Shipley, who scored two touchdowns.

Clemson's defense held Furman to 12 points, forced two turnovers and recorded two fourth-down stops. The unit registered nine tackles for loss. Five different Clemson players registered at least seven tackles, including LaVonta Bentley, who had three tackles for loss.

Clemson scored touchdowns on each of its first three possessions with two touchdown runs by Shipley bookending a two-yard touchdown pass from Uiagalelei to Jake Briningstool, giving the Tigers a 21-3 lead early in the second quarter. The teams traded touchdowns in the final two minutes of the first half to enter halftime with a 28-9 Clemson advantage.

Clemson opened the second half with a stop on Barrett Carter's first career interception. On the ensuing drive, Beaux Collins toe-tapped a nine-yard pass from Uiagalelei in the right side of the end zone to give Clemson a 35-9 lead. Furman added a field goal with 48 seconds to play in the third quarter, and a scoreless fourth quarter resulted in the 35-12 final score.

Sophomore running back Will Shipley rushed 12 times for a career-high 139 yards and two touchdowns as Clemson used a 35-point second half in a 48-20 victory over Louisiana Tech. Clemson gained 521 total yards, including 280 on the ground, and forced four turnovers, leading to 21 Tiger points.

The Tigers' defense kept the Bulldogs out of the end zone for the first three quarters and held Louisiana Tech to only six total rushing yards. Quarterback DJ Uiagalelei was 17-of-29 for 221 yards and two scores through the air and picked up 62 yards on the ground on nine carries.

Clemson scored on eight of its 13 drives, not including running out the clock on its final possession. With the game set at 13-6 entering the second half, Clemson exploded for three touchdowns, including twice scoring 32-yard touchdowns on one-play drives.

Shipley's performance made him the first Clemson player on record back to 1950 to score multiple rushing touchdowns in each of the first three games of a season. He averaged 11.6 yards per carry and became the first Clemson player to average at least 10 yards per carry on at least 10 attempts since Travis Etienne in the 2020 ACC Championship Game against Notre Dame.

R.J. Mickens, Jeremiah Trotter Jr. and Malcolm Greene all recorded interceptions in the contest, while Kevin Swint recorded his first career fumble recovery on a wild snap.

No. 5 Clemson earned a dramatic double-overtime win at No. 21/16 Wake Forest, 51-45. Quarterback DJ Uiagalelei completed 26-of-41 passes for a season-high 371 passing yards and a career-high five touchdown passes in the win.

Clemson accumulated 559 total yards. The Tigers converted 16-of-23 third downs, breaking the school record of 15 third down conversions set against Western Carolina in 1983.

Clemson ran out to an early 14-0 lead on touchdown passes from Uiagalelei in the first quarter. Two Wake Forest touchdowns and two B.T. Potter field goals brought the halftime score to 20-14.

A prolific third quarter by Wake Forest with three touchdown passes gave the Demon Deacons a 35-28 lead entering the fourth quarter. Down 38-35, Potter nailed a 52-yarder with 4:01 remaining in regulation and the Clemson defense then held to force overtime.

The teams traded touchdowns and two-point conversions in the first overtime. Uiagalelei then hit Davis Allen for Allen's second touchdown of the game in the second overtime. A beleaguered Clemson secondary then sealed the win with a fourth-down pass breakup on Wake Forest's possession to give the Tigers their first road overtime win since 2009.

In the first Top 10 matchup in the 90-game history of the Clemson-NC State rivalry, No. 5 Clemson defeated No. 10 NC State at an electric, sold-out Memorial Stadium. Clemson recorded its 37th consecutive home win, tying the longest home winning streak in ACC history.

Clemson's defense recorded three sacks and two turnovers while holding NC State to only 34 rushing yards on 21 carries, the Wolfpack's worst yards-per-carry average (1.6) in ACC play since 2016. Offensively, quarterback DJ Uiagalelei passed for 209 yards and a score and ran for a career-high 73 yards and two touchdowns in the victory.

The teams traded long drives and 20-yard field goals on their opening possessions. NC State took a 10-6 lead in the second quarter, but Uiagalelei drove Clemson 75 yards in 1:20 in a two-minute situation to give Clemson a 13-10 halftime lead.

Coming out of halftime, Clemson forced an NC State three-and-out as Barrett Carter and Myles Murphy both registered sacks. On Clemson's ensuing possession, Uiagalelei rushed 39 yards inside the NC State 10-yard line. Uiagalelei then completed a seven-yard touchdown pass to Jake Briningstool, increasing Clemson's lead to 20-10 early in the third quarter.

Toriano Pride Jr. later recorded his first career interception, setting up B.T. Potter's third field goal of the night to increase Clemson's lead to 23-13. A sneaky playaction bootleg by Uiagalelei for his second rushing touchdown of the night extended the lead to 30-13 until a late NC State touchdown brought the final score to 30-20.

No. 5 Clemson scored touchdowns on either side of halftime to pull away from Boston College, 31-3, at Alumni Stadium. The Tigers held the Eagles to 34 rushing yards, piled up 11 tackles for loss and four sacks, broke up eight passes and registered 13 quarterback hurries in the victory.

The Tigers scored 28 unanswered points in the game's final 31 minutes to earn the victory. Clemson shut out the Eagles in the second half, allowing just 86 total yards after halftime. Clemson's three points allowed were its fewest surrendered in its series with Boston College since 1952 when the Tigers shut out the Eagles at Braves Field.

Defensive end Xavier Thomas earned the Leather Helmet Award as the game's most valuable player after a career-high-tying 2.0 sacks in the victory despite playing only six snaps in his return to action from a foot injury suffered in fall camp.

Quarterback DJ Uiagalelei threw for 220 yards and three scores and led the Tigers in rushing for a second consecutive game with 69 yards on 12 carries.

Running back Will Shipley gave Clemson a 10-3 advantage with 45 seconds to play in the first half. Coming out of half, the Tigers came up with a quick stop and then Uiagalelei led the Tigers 73 yards on five plays, hitting Joseph Ngata in stride for a 38-yard score. Clemson added to its lead on the first play of the fourth quarter, as Uiagalelei found Beaux Collins alone in the end zone for a 10-yard score to push the lead to 24-3.

Uiagalelei hit Brannon Spector for a 13-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter, his third touchdown pass of the day to his third different receiver. Uiagalelei had a key rush during the series, picking up 40 yards on third-and-3 to help set up the score.

DOAK CAMPBELL STADIUM • TALLAHASSEE, FLA.

No. 4/5 Clemson scored 17 points in a two-minute span on either side of halftime to take command of a 34-28 win at Florida State. Running back Will Shipley tallied a career-best 238 all-purpose yards (121 rushing, 48 receiving, 69 kickoff return).

Defensively, Clemson allowed touchdowns on two of the first three drives before settling in and holding the Seminoles scoreless for its next six drives, which included three fourth-down stops. Myles Murphy had six tackles, including 3.5 for loss, and two sacks.

DJ Uiagalelei accounted for four total touchdowns (three passing, one rushing), was 15-of-23 through the air for 203 yards, and added a five-yard rushing touchdown.

After Florida State struck first, Uiagalelei avoided a sack, stepped up in the pocket and threw a 59-yard touchdown to Antonio Williams on Clemson's second drive.

The Seminoles took a 14-7 lead on a 15-play, 93-yard touchdown drive, but Clemson responded with 27 consecutive points to take a 34-14 lead, as tight ends Jake Briningstool and Davis Allen added scores in addition to Uiagalelei's touchdown on the ground. B.T. Potter also added field goals 47 yards and 34 yards, and with his second extra point of the game, he passed Chandler Catanzaro (404 from 2010-13) to become the highest-scoring kicker in Clemson history.

The Seminoles scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter to bring the score to 34-28. Brannon Spector then recovered a Florida State onside kick attempt, enabling Clemson to run out the clock for the win.

MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

No. 5 Clemson overcame four turnovers and an early 14-point deficit to earn a 27-21 win against No. 14 Syracuse at Memorial Stadium. The victory was Clemson's 38th in a row at home, breaking the ACC record set by Florida State from 1992-2001.

Running back Will Shipley had another career day, recording 242 all-purpose yards including a career-high 172 rushing yards on a career-high 27 carries with two touchdowns to spark Clemson's 293 rushing yards. Clemson's defense recorded a season-high five sacks and shut out the Orange in the second half as Clemson scored 20 unanswered points for the win.

Clemson took a 7-0 lead on a one-yard touchdown run by Shipley on its opening possession. Syracuse responded with a 75-yard touchdown drive to tie the game at seven.

Clemson's next two possessions resulted in turnovers. Ja'Had Carter intercepted DJ Uiagalelei to terminate one possession, and on Clemson's next drive, the Tigers drove to the Syracuse three-yard line, but Carter returned an Uiagalelei fumble 90 yards for a 14-7 Syracuse lead. A Garrett Shrader touchdown run later in the quarter pushed the Orange to a 21-7 lead. BT Potter cut the Clemson deficit to 21-10 with a 44-yard field goal before halftime.

A scoreless third quarter was not without drama. After Uiagalelei's second interception of the day, Clemson inserted Cade Klubnik at quarterback. Klubnik and the Clemson ground game led Clemson to touchdown drives of 80 yards and 61 yards to give Clemson a 24-21 lead. An additional Potter field goal and a game-winning interception by R.J. Mickens sealed the 26-21 victory.

The win was Clemson's first in a game in which it trailed by 11 or more points in the fourth quarter since the 2012 Chick-fil-A Bowl against LSU.

NOTRE DAME STADIUM • NOTRE DAME, IND.

Notre Dame took advantage of a pair of non-offensive touchdowns and an interception deep in Tiger territory that led to another score to defeat No. 5/5 Clemson, 35-14, at Notre Dame Stadium. The loss snapped Clemson's nation-leading 14-game winning streak. Earlier in the evening, by virtue of Pitt's win over Syracuse, Clemson clinched a place in the ACC Championship Game.

With 9:08 left in the first quarter, Notre Dame's Prince Kollie returned a blocked punt 17 yards for a Notre Dame touchdown. The Irish would score another touchdown with 38 seconds left in the first half, making the score 14-0 at the half.

Cade Klubnik entered the game at quarterback with 1:30 left in the third quarter, but an interception on his first pass attempt gave Notre Dame the ball on the Clemson 14-yard line. The Irish scored three plays later to take a 21-0 lead.

DJ Uiagalelei returned at quarterback on Clemson's following possession and led the Tigers 56 yards before Benjamin Morrison intercepted his pass and returned it 96 yards for a touchdown, increasing Notre Dame's lead to 28-0 with 12:58 left to play. Running back Will Shipley got the Tigers on the scoreboard with 10:14 left in the fourth quarter, punching the ball into the end zone with a one-yard rushing touchdown.

Notre Dame added one more touchdown with 4:16 left in the fourth quarter, and Clemson scored the game's final points when Uiagalelei threw a four-yard touchdown pass to Joseph Ngata.

The contest marked Clemson's first time since 2007 surrendering touchdowns on offense, defense and special teams in a single game.

2022 GAME RECAPS

No. 12 Clemson clinched the final ACC Atlantic Division crown outright with a 31-16 victory against Louisville on Nov. 12. The win extended Clemson's home winning streak six full calendar years since its last home loss.

Wide receiver Antonio Williams registered a career-high 106 all-purpose yards including 83 yards on a Clemson-freshman-record-tying 10 receptions and added a six-yard pass completion as well. Running backs Phil Mafah (106 yards) and Will Shipley (97) led the Tigers to 248 rushing yards on the day.

Clemson's defense registered four sacks and nine tackles for loss. Linebacker Barrett Carter posted eight tackles, 3.5 tackles for loss, two sacks and an interception. He became the first player in the country to register at least 3.5 tackles for loss, 2.0 sacks and an interception in a game between Power Five teams since 2011.

DJ Uiagalelei opened the scoring with an 11-yard rushing touchdown on Clemson's opening drive, and a B.T. Potter field goal extended the lead to 10. A touchdown run by Tiyon Evans got the Cardinals on the board early in the second quarter, but a touchdown pass from Uiagalelei to Williams put Clemson up 17-7 at the half.

Shipley extended Clemson's lead on a highlight reel 25-yard touchdown run in the third quarter, hurdling a defender at the 10-yard line and splitting two more for the score. After a Louisville field goal, Mafah helped seal the victory in the fourth quarter with a 39-yard touchdown for Clemson late in the fourth quarter. Louisville threw a touchdown pass on the game's final play to bring the final score to 31-16.

No. 9 Clemson secured its 12th consecutive 10-win season with a 40-10 Senior Day victory against Miami at Memorial Stadium. The win was Clemson's 40th consecutive victory at home and gave Clemson its first lead in its all-time series with Miami.

Clemson held the Hurricanes to just 98 yards of total offense, Miami's third-lowest offensive output in school history. Clemson's balanced offensive attack produced 201 rushing yards and 246 passing yards, as the Tigers tallied 27 first downs to just six for Miami.

DJ Uiagalelei threw and rushed for a touchdown on Clemson's first two possessions, including a seven-yard passing touchdown to Davis Allen and an eight-yard scamper, to give Clemson a 14-0 lead after one quarter. A three-yard touchdown pass to super senior Luke Price and a 32-yard B.T. Potter field goal gave Clemson a 24-0 advantage at halftime.

A low-scoring third quarter featured a 44-yard field goal from Miami's Andres Borregales and a sack for a safety by Clemson's Toriano Pride Jr. Early in the fourth quarter, Miami's briefly cut the lead to two scores with a one-yard touchdown pass that made the score 26-10.

Clemson, however, put together two scoring drives for the game's final 14 points, including a three-yard touchdown run by Will Shipley and a one-yard touchdown run by Kobe Pace.

Linebacker Trenton Simpson recorded 2.0 of Clemson's season-high-tying five sacks on the game. Miami only ran 42 offensive plays, the fewest by a Clemson opponent since 1992 (North Carolina, 42). It marked only the eighth time since 1954 that a Clemson opponent ran 42 or fewer plays in a game.

South Carolina overcame a 14-point first-quarter deficit to snap a seven-game losing streak to Clemson and end Clemson's 40-game home winning streak, defeating the Tigers, 31-30, at Memorial Stadium.

Clemson ran for 237 yards but committed three critical turnovers. With 132 rushing yards on 15 carries on Saturday, running back Will Shipley reached 1,000 rushing yards on the season to record the 23rd 1,000-yard rushing season in school history.

Clemson scored first on a 35-yard pick-six by Jeremiah Trotter Jr. Trotter finished the game with eight tackles, 3.0 tackles for loss, 2.0 sacks and an interception return for a touchdown. A DJ Uiagalelei nine-yard rushing touchdown putting Clemson up 14-0 with 5:52 left in the first quarter.

A four-yard second-quarter touchdown pass on fourth-and-goal got South Carolina on the board, and a Clemson safety on an intentional grounding made the score 16-7. Clemson fumbled the ensuing free kick, and a South Carolina touchdown pulled it to 16-14. An Antonio Williams touchdown and a goal-line interception by R.J. Mickens made it a 26-14 Clemson lead at the half.

Touchdowns by South Carolina's Jaheim Bell and Antwane Wells Jr. bookended an 11-yard Shipley touchdown in the third quarter, and South Carolina took its first lead in the fourth quarter on a 35-yard field goal.

Clemson's defense forced late stops. However, a fumble on Clemson's final punt return gave South Carolina the ball back with 2:05 left to play, and a first down on 3rd-and-4 and sealed the 31-30 victory for the Gamecocks.

ORANGE BOWL • DEC. 30, 2022
HARD ROCK STADIUM • MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

No. 10 Clemson earned a decisive 39-10 victory over No. 22 North Carolina to claim the 2022 ACC Championship at Bank of America Stadium. With the win, Clemson claimed its seventh conference championship in the past eight years.

Freshman quarterback Cade Klubnik entered the game on Clemson's third drive, leading the Tigers to scores on five of his first six drives. Klubnik finished the game 20-for-24 passing with 274 passing yards and added 30 rushing yards and 19 receiving yards to be named the game's Most Valuable Player. Nate Wiggins blocked a field goal attempt and returned an interception 98 yards for a touchdown.

Clemson's defense came away with a touchdown, three takeaways, four sacks, eight quarterback hurries and seven tackles for a loss. Special teams contributed a blocked field goal and B.T. Potter was perfect on a 52-yard field goal and 4-for-4 on extra points, becoming the first player in ACC history to record 100 or more points in four different seasons.

The Tar Heels struck first with a three-yard rushing touchdown, but their momentum would be short-lived. Klubnik led a nine-play touchdown drive on his first possession to tie the game. Rushing touchdowns by Phil Mafah and Klubnik on later possessions and an exchange of field goals made the score 24-10 at the half.

Clemson outscored North Carolina 15-0 in the third, including the touchdown by Wiggins, two-point conversion by Drew Swinney and rushing touchdown by Will Shipley to bring the final score to 39-10.

CFP No. 7 Clemson fell, 31-14, to No. 6 Tennessee at the Capital One Orange Bowl at Hard Rock Stadium. The Tigers ran 101 plays, the second-highest mark in school history, and produced 34 first downs, both school bowl records, in the defeat.

Clemson freshman quarterback Cade Klubnik completed 30-for-54 passes for 320 yards and rushed 20 times for 51 yards and a touchdown in his first career start. On defense, Clemson forced five Tennessee three-and-outs, registered four sacks and produced eight tackles for loss. The Tigers also forced the Volunteers to punt a season-high eight times.

The Volunteers opened the scoring on their second drive on Joe Milton's 16-yard touchdown pass to Bru McCoy. Each of Clemson's first eight drives advanced into Tennessee territory, but the Tigers were unable to convert any of the possessions into touchdowns. Clemson missed three field goals and weren't able to convert a fake field goal, which allowed Tennessee to take a 14-0 Volunteer lead on a two-yard touchdown run with 9:03 to play in the second quarter.

B.T. Potter converted a 31-yard field goal at the conclusion of a 10-play, 46-yard drive as Clemson trailed 14-3 at the end of the first half despite outgaining the Volunteers, 273-19. Potter added another three points on the board with a 40-yard field goal in the third quarter, his 73rd career field goal to break the Clemson record held previously by Nelson Welch.

Tennessee increased its lead to 21-6 with five seconds remaining in the third quarter. In the fourth, Klubnik rushed four yards for a touchdown and Will Shipley added a two-point conversion to cut the lead to 21-14. But Tennessee responded with a 46-yard touchdown from Milton to Ramel Keyton pass to take a 28-14 advantage. A late Tennessee field goal brought the final score to 31-14.

CLEMSON RING OF HONOR MEMBERS

The Clemson Ring of Honor is the highest honor a Tiger student-athlete can receive. A recipient must first be a member of the Clemson Hall of Fame, earn at least an undergraduate degree and make a significant contribution to the heritage of Tiger athletics. Nine members of the football program and one football team are in the Ring of Honor.

FOOTBALL RING OF HONOR MEMBERS

1981 FOOTBALL TEAM

The 1981 football team was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor during the fall of 2006 in conjunction with the team's 25-year anniversary celebration of winning the national title. Every player, coach, manager and administrator associated with that team is considered in the Ring of Honor within the team concept. The Tigers had a perfect 12-0 record that season, as they defeated Nebraska by a score of 22-15 in the 1982 Orange Bowl to claim the National Championship. For more information on Clemson's 1981 squad, see page 8.

JERRY BUTLER

Jerry Butler joined teammate Steve Fuller in the Clemson Ring of Honor in 1999. The two-time All-ACC player was a first-team All-American in 1978 when he and Fuller led Clemson to a No. 6 national ranking and an 11-1 record. He had at least one reception in 36 consecutive games. In 1979, Butler was the No. 5 overall NFL draft pick by Buffalo, where he played at a Pro Bowl level for seven seasons.

FRED CONE

Fred Cone, who was inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1997, was the first player in Clemson history to rush for 2,000 yards in a career. Cone played for the Tigers from 1948-50. He is eighth on the Clemson career list for rushing touchdowns (30). Cone was a starter on two undefeated Clemson teams (1948,50), one of only two players in school history to accomplish that feat.

JEFF DAVIS

Jeff Davis, captain of the 1981 national title team, joined the Ring of Honor in 1995. He was a first-team All-American in 1981 when he led the team in tackles (175). Davis was also named ACC MVP and defensive MVP of the Orange Bowl win over Nebraska, the game that clinched the national championship for the Tigers. He was also inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in December 2007.

DANNY FORD

Danny Ford coached Clemson to the 1981 national title at the age of 33, still the youngest coach to win one. Ford won five ACC titles and six bowl games in his 11 years as the head coach. He had a 26-10-1 record against coaches in the College Football Hall of Fame, including wins over Joe Paterno, Barry Switzer, Woody Hayes, Vince Dooley, Steve Spurrier and Tom Osborne. He finished his Tiger career with a 96-29-4 record and his 76.0 winning percentage is still among the best in ACC history. Ford was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor at the season-opening Georgia game of 2013 and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in December 2017.

STEVE FULLER

Steve Fuller was a charter member of the Ring of Honor in 1994. He is one of three football players in Clemson history to be chosen as an All-American on the field and in the classroom in the same year. Fuller was a two-time, first-team Academic All-American and a third-team All-American in 1978. He was the first Tiger to be named ACC Player-of-the-Year twice and was an NCAA Top Five Award winner in 1979, the only Tiger athlete to win the award.

FRANK HOWARD

Frank Howard was a charter member of the Ring of Honor in 1994. As head coach from 1940-69, he led Clemson to eight league championships, six bowl games and six top-25 seasons. Howard, who totaled 165 victories, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1989.

TERRY KINARD

Terry Kinard (1979-82) was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor in 2001, the same year he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. The safety from Sumter, S.C. was named national defensive player-of-the-year by CBS Sports during his senior season in 1982. Kinard was named to the All Decade of the 1980's College Football team by USA Today and to the All-Century team by Sports Illustrated in 2000.

LEVON KIRKLAND

Levon Kirkland was a two-time All-American and three-time, First-Team All-ACC selection as an outside linebacker for the Tigers between 1988-91. He was a second-team All-American and a finalist for the Butkus Award on the 1990 team, which led the nation in total defense. He was also a first-team All-American in 1991. Kirkland was a second-round draft pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers and went on to an 11-year All-Pro career. He returned after his playing career to earn his Clemson degree and was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor in 2019.

BANKS McFADDEN

Banks McFadden was one of three charter members of the Clemson Ring of Honor in 1994. He was named the nation's most versatile athlete in 1939 when he was an All-American in football and basketball in the same calendar year, the only Tiger to accomplish that feat. He led the Tigers to their first bowl bid, a 6-3 victory over Boston College in the 1940 Cotton Bowl, and to the Southern Conference basketball title. He was the No. 4 overall pick of the 1940 NFL draft, tied for the highest in school history.

OFFENSIVE LINEMAN TRADITION

WILL PUTNAM

2 Number of years Dalton Freeman (2011,12) and Kyle Young (2000,01) were finalists for the Rimington Trophy, which is given to the top center in the nation.

3 Number of consecutive years Kyle Young was named a first-team Academic All-American, just the second three-time selection among offensive linemen in college football history. Young was also a two-time All-American on the field.

3 Number of First-Team All-ACC offensive linemen Clemson had in 2016 and 2017, the only two times the Tigers have had three first-team selections.

27 Number of all-conference selections by the Clemson offensive line since 2015, the most in the ACC and second most among Power Five Conference schools.

46 Jackson Carman's selection in the 2021 NFL draft, Clemson's highest-selected offensive lineman in 50 years.

WIDE RECEIVER & TIGHT END TRADITION

1 Number of tight ends named to the ACC 50-Year Anniversary team. The only pick was former Tiger Bennie Cunningham, an All-America tight end in 1974 and 1975.

2 Number of times Jordan Leggett was a Mackey Award finalist

3 Number of 1,000-yard NFL receivers from Clemson in 2021 (Tee Higgins, Hunter Renfrow, Mike Williams). No other school produced more than two.

6 Number of consecutive years Clemson had a wideout selected in the NFL draft from 2016-21, the nation's longest streak in that span.

11 Number of Tiger wide receivers drafted since the 2013 NFL draft, second most in the nation. Also, the number of ACC receiving-yardage champions Clemson has had, including DeAndre Hopkins in 2012 and Sammy Watkins in 2013.

50 Number of receptions for Dwayne Allen in 2011, when he earned the Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end.

853 Number of career receptions for DeAndre Hopkins since he entered the NFL in 2013, the most in the league during that span.

QUARTERBACK TRADITION
1 Overall selection for Trevor Lawrence by the Jacksonville Jaguars in the 2021 NFL draft, making him the first No. 1 overall pick in Clemson football history.

2 Number of quarterbacks in FBS history to pass for at least 4,000 yards and rush for 1,000 yards in a season. In 2015, Deshaun Watson was the first to accomplish the feat.

2 Number of second-place finishes in the 2016 and 2020 Heisman Trophy voting by Deshaun Watson and Trevor Lawrence, respectively, tied for the highest finishes in Tiger history.

4 Number of victories without a loss Charlie Whitehurst had as a starting quarterback against South Carolina in his career (2002-05). He is the only starting signal-caller in series history to have a 4-0 record.

20 Touchdown passes and home runs for two-sport athlete Kyle Parker during the 2009-10 academic year, the first NCAA Division I athlete to reach 20 of each in one season. He became Clemson's 51st all-time major league player when he played with the Colorado Rockies in 2014.

30 Number of passing touchdowns by Trevor Lawrence in 2018 against only four interceptions, as he became the first first-year freshman starting quarterback to lead his team to the national title since 1985.

34 Career victories by Trevor Lawrence as a starting quarterback, breaking the Clemson record previously held by three Tigers. His 94.4 winning percentage (34-2) was third best by a starting quarterback with at least 30 starts since Division I split in 1978.

133 Tajh Boyd's career touchdown responsibility total, an ACC record. He had 107 passing TDs and 26 rushing scores.

LINEBACKER TRADITION

TRENTON SIMPSON

1 Stephone Anthony led Clemson's top-ranked total defense in tackles in 2014. He was then selected in the first round of the 2015 NFL Draft by the New Orleans Saints.

2 Number of FBS players since 2013 that have recorded at least 100 tackles, 16 tackles for loss, eight sacks and multiple interceptions in a season, including Isaiah Simmons, who in 2019 became the first player to do so since Khalil Mack.

5 Number of ACC Championship Games played by James Skalski, making him the first player ever to play in (and win) five conference title games.

13.1 Average points per game allowed by the 2018 defense, as the linebackers helped Clemson finish first in the nation in scoring defense for the first time in school history.

43 Number of former Tiger linebackers who have made an NFL roster during the regular season.

43 Jersey number of both Keith Adams and Leroy Hill, both of whom won ACC Defensive Player-of-the-Year honors at Clemson. Adams won the award in the 1999 season and Hill took home the hardware in 2004.

160 Number of tackles by B.J. Goodson during the Tigers' 2015 national championship runner-up season. Goodson was first-team All-ACC and then drafted in the fourth round by the New York Giants.

2007 Year former All-American Jeff Davis was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

1 Round in which 2021 All-Pro A.J. Terrell was drafted in 2020 with the No. 16 overall selection by the Falcons, Clemson's highest cornerback draft pick since 2006 All-Rookie pick Tye Hill.

2 Number of Super Bowls that Byron Maxwell played for the Seattle Seahawks, winning a title with the organization in 2013.

3 Number of players in Clemson's 2015 secondary that were named to one of the All-ACC teams: Mackensie Alexander, Jayron Kearse and Cordrea Tankersley. The only starter who was not an All-ACC pick was T.J. Green, a 2016 second-round NFL draft pick. Each of Clemson's last four secondaries since 2018 have also produced three All-ACC selections.

9 Number of Pro Bowls for Brian Dawkins, one of the NFL's best safeties. He has more Pro Bowl selections than any other former Tiger.

11 Number of NFL drafts in the last 15 years in which Clemson had at least one defensive back chosen.

23 Number of years in the last 28 seasons that Clemson has produced at least one All-ACC defensive back.

1997 Last year a school produced both First-Team All-ACC cornerbacks until 2021, when Andrew Booth Jr. and Mario Goodrich swept the honors.

FORMER HEAD COACHES

Walter Riggs could easily be called the father of Clemson Football. He coached the football program at Clemson, not only because he had football experience, but he was also one of only two people on the Clemson campus to have ever seen a football game when the sport started in 1896. (The other person was Frank Thompkins who played in the backfield on Clemson's first team in 1896).

On Sept. 30, 1896, a small crowd gathered in one of the barracks' rooms and the group discussed the feasibility of organizing a football association. A committee of three was appointed to consult Professor Riggs as to management of a football team and to ask his aid as coach.

When the Tigers traveled to Furman for their first game on Oct. 31, 1896, it was the first time that many of the players had ever seen a full-sized regulation football field.

Riggs stepped down as football coach after the first season because the players wanted him to devote all his time to being a professor in the engineering department.

Riggs could easily be called a loyal man, as he answered the need of the Clemson football team again in 1899. The Clemson Athletic Association was low on money and could not afford to hire a coach. Therefore, he again answered the call of the school and became head coach in 1899 for free.

Riggs originally came to Clemson from Auburn. He graduated with top honors in 1893 with a B.S. degree in electrical and mechanical engineering. At Auburn, he was captain and catcher of the baseball team as well as the manager and left end of the football team. He also served as class president and was the director of the Glee Club.

Upon his graduation at Auburn, he was assistant to the president of the college until 1896, then he made his trek to Clemson.

Riggs later became president of Clemson on March 7, 1911 and in 1915, a new football stadium with other athletic facilities was named in his honor as Riggs Field. It is currently the home of the Tiger soccer team. In two years of coaching, Riggs guided the Tigers to a career record of 6-3.

W.M. WILLIAMS

Clemson's second coach, W.M. Williams, was a native of West Point, Ga. He played at Auburn on the teams of 1894, 1895 and 1896, under the coaching of John Heisman. He was considered the best blocking halfback in the south. Williams led Clemson to the state championship and to a 2-2 season. During his time as coach, Clemson played two games in three days. Clemson was victorious over the Charlotte Y on October 23, but lost to North Carolina 28-0 on October 25.

The Tigers' third coach, J.A. Penton of Alabama, was captain and starting guard on the University of Virginia teams of 1893, 1894 and 1895. He was captain of the '95 Virginia team that beat North Carolina to win the Championship of the South. Penton also played fullback at Auburn in '97 under John Heisman's coaching. Under Penton, Clemson won 55-0 over Bingham in its first home game, as W.C. Forsythe kicked every point after touchdown (11). In his only season at Clemson, Penton guided Clemson to a 3-1 record and the state title.

One of the most famous football coaches in the nation, John Heisman, coached at Clemson from 1900-03. He turned Clemson from virtually an unknown college to a southern powerhouse at the turn of the century. Heisman attended Brown University, taking the two-year law course offered at that time, and was a center on the football team. During the fall of 1889, he transferred to Pennsylvania. He lettered in football at both schools and graduated from Pennsylvania in 1893.

In the spring of 1894, Walter Riggs was a graduate manager for the football team at Auburn. It fell on his shoulders to find a coach for the season of 1895. Riggs wrote to Carl Williams, the Pennsylvania captain of 1894, asking him to suggest a suitable coach. He replied recommending J.W. Heisman, an ex-Pennsylvania player, and his coach at Oberlin.

After several weeks, Riggs finally found Heisman in Texas, where he was raising tomatoes. Having sunk all of his capital into the tomato venture, he was glad to return to his old love. He readily went to coach at Auburn for $500 a year.

His coaching career began at Oberlin in 1892 and lasted 36 years. It included positions at Akron, Auburn, Clemson, Georgia Tech, Pennsylvania, Washington & Jefferson and Rice. He had an overall career record of 185-70-17.

John Heisman invented the hidden ball trick, the handoff, the double lateral and the "flea flicker." He pioneered the forward pass, arguing that it would scatter the mob. Heisman also originated the center snap and the word hike (previously the center used to roll the ball on the ground to the quarterback).

Heisman guided Clemson to conference titles in 1900 and 1902, and he led the Tigers to their first unofficial "bowl game" in 1903, when Clemson and Cumberland met on November 26 for the "Championship of the South." Cumberland, who had earlier defeated Auburn, Alabama and Vanderbilt, was considered to be champion of the southern states of Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee and Kentucky. The game was played on a neutral site, Montgomery, Ala. Cumberland and Clemson fought to an 11-11 tie. After the news got back to Clemson that the game was a tie, the students and the local townspeople built a bonfire and paraded around the campus.

Overall, Heisman took Clemson to a 19-3-2 record in his four seasons. His 83.3 winning percentage is still the best in Clemson history. He was also the Clemson baseball coach from 1901-03.

SHACK SHEALY

Shack Shealy holds the distinction of being the only Tiger to have coached his alma mater. He lettered at Clemson from 1896-99 and later played two years at Iowa State. Shealy was a four-year starter playing right guard, end and in his senior year, he played in the backfield. He only coached Clemson one year (1904) and led the Tigers to a 3-3-1 record, including wins over Alabama, Georgia and Tennessee.

Ed Cochems lettered at Wisconsin in 1899, 1900 and 1901. He was described as a great halfback or end on the strong Wisconsin teams at the turn of the century, including the 1901 undefeated team. In his playing career, he had a 100-yard kickoff return in a 35-0 win over Chicago in 1901, and had four touchdowns against Notre Dame in 1900. After his playing days, he immediately went into coaching. He was the head coach of North Dakota in 1902 and 1903 and served briefly as an assistant with former teammate, Art Curtis at Wisconsin in 1904.

Cochems led Clemson to a 3-2-1 record overall, including wins over Georgia and Auburn. After his Clemson career, he was head coach and athletic director at St. Louis in 1906. After the forward pass was legalized in 1906, Cochems did something with the pass at once in his first year at St. Louis, while other coaches stuck with the running game. He taught his players not to throw the ball end-over-end, but instead like a projectile - a spiral. He called this new weapon a projectile pass.

Historians credit Cochems as being the first coach to use and perfect the first legal pass in a game. The first studied refinements in throwing the ball, which led to the spiral, occurred in 1906 under Cochems. Brad Robinson of St. Louis threw the first forward pass to Jack Schneider on Sept. 5, 1906 in Waukensha against Carroll.

Bob Williams is one of the few coaches in the nation to have coached football at two rivals. Williams coached football at both Clemson and South Carolina. Before coming to Clemson, he coached at Davidson in 1905. He coached at South Carolina for two years and guided the Gamecocks to a 6-1 record in 1902 and an 8-2 slate in 1903.

In his career at South Carolina, he administered the most unexpected defeat of Clemson, as he beat a heavily favored Heisman team, 12-6 in 1902.

He served the Tigers as head coach a total of four terms (1906,09,13-15,26). Between 1915-26, Williams practiced law in Roanoke, Va. and was the city's mayor.

Frank Shaughnessy was known for his ability as a sports administrator. He served many positions, from a pro hockey coach to the International Baseball League Commissioner. A graduate in pharmacy at Notre Dame, he was captain of the baseball and football teams during his senior season. After his graduation in 1905, he coached baseball at Notre Dame. The summer before coming to Clemson, he played for Ottawa of the Eastern League. That summer, he played left field and ended the season with a .352 batting average. He played nine MLB games in 1905 and 1908 with Washington and the Philadelphia Athletics.

At Clemson, he coached the baseball teams during 1907 and 1908, and he was head football mentor in 1907, where he posted a 4-4 record.

Shaughnessy made his name in baseball, but he took part in many other sports. Besides being a sports legend at Notre Dame, he managed the NHL's Ottawa Senators to the 1915 Stanley Cup Finals and coached football teams at Clemson, Washington and Lee, and McGill. He retired as the president of the International Baseball league in 1960.

In a game against Kansas, Shaughnessy ran 107 yards for the only Irish score, as Kansas won the game 24-5. Football fields were 110 yards back then and touchdowns were five points. Shaughnessy passed away in 1969.

JOHN STONE

John Stone is one of three coaches who graduated from Vanderbilt and later became head football coach at Clemson. While at Vanderbilt, he was a member of the All-Southern Football team for four years. He was a big man for his time, standing 6'2". Clemson was 1-6 in 1908, but the Tigers lost many of their star players and substitutes from 1907 due to a college prank that saw 306 students expelled.

Frank Dobson was a pro baseball player before coming to Clemson, as he was the property of the Pittsburgh Nationals. Walter Riggs, President of the Clemson Athletic Association, thought it was unfair to keep shuffling coaches year after year. He offered Dobson a three-year contract, which was the first contract offered and signed by a Clemson coach.

At Clemson, he coached football, basketball and baseball. He was Clemson's first basketball coach, leading it to its only undefeated season (4-0) in history in the inaugural season (1911-12). In 1912-13, Clemson had a 9-5 record. He was head baseball coach from 1911-13.

Wayne Hart served as head coach at Clemson in 1916 and coached the Tigers to a 3-6 record. Under Hart, the Tigers defeated Furman and South Carolina. He played three seasons at tackle for Georgetown. Hart also played one season at George Washington. He was a member of the All-South Atlantic team on four occasions. Hart also served as an assistant coach at Georgetown.

In 1913, Hart coached the Washington Vigilants, a professional football team, and did not lose a single contest. During his last two seasons prior to his arrival to Clemson, he coached various sports at Technical High School in Washington, D.C.

EDWARD DONAHUE

Edward Donahue had to be one of the most organized men in the country. During the 1918-19 academic year, Donahue was the head coach of four Clemson sports... football, basketball, baseball and track. During his four-year career, he served as basketball and baseball coach for two years and head track coach for one season.

He was an outstanding athlete at Washington and Lee, where he played in the backfield on the football team and played catcher on the baseball diamond. Upon graduation, he was an assistant in football and was the head baseball and basketball coach.

E.J. Stewart was head football coach for two years at Clemson, 1921-22. However, he coached more than one sport during his stay at Tigertown. In the spring of 1921, Stewart coached the baseball and track teams while conducting spring football practice. During the fall, Stewart's football team had a 1-6-2 record, but he improved to a 5-4 slate in 1922. He went on to coach the track teams in 1922 and 1923.

Stewart was a standout athlete in football, baseball, basketball and track at Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio. Upon his graduation, Stewart played, organized and served as head coach of the Massillon (Ohio) professional football team.

Stewart also coached at Nebraska and Texas. At Nebraska, he led the Cornhuskers to a combined record of 11-4 in 1916 and 1917. The Cornhuskers also captured the Missouri Valley Conference title during both seasons. After leaving Nebraska, he entered the automobile business as President and Treasurer of the Stewart Motor Co. Due to the economic conditions at the time, he decided to go back into coaching.

BUD SAUNDERS

Bud Saunders graduated from Missouri in 1911 with a bachelors degree in law. At Missouri, he played both football and basketball. Saunders wanted to play two other sports, but a conference rule forbid a student-athlete from participating in more than two sports.

Saunders served as football coach at Knox College before arriving at Clemson. In football, Saunders coached for four seasons from 1923-26. He also coached the basketball teams in 1924 and 1925. Saunders' best season in football came during the 1923 campaign, as he led the Tigers to a 5-2-1 record.

Josh Cody, fondly known as "big man," will always be a favorite to Clemson fans. Cody, a big man in stature at 6-2, 220 pounds, led Clemson to victories over South Carolina for four straight years. He is the only coach in Clemson history who has been around more than two seasons who never lost a football game to South Carolina. He also defeated Furman three straight years. Cody had a 13-0-1 record in home games and posted a 72-percent winning mark overall, the fourth-best mark in Clemson history.

After a 5-3-1 start in the 1927 season, Cody guided the Tigers to back-to-back 8-3 seasons in 1928 and 1929. On May 6, 1929, to show appreciation, Cody was given a new Buick by the alumni, student body and faculty.

In his final season (1930), the Tigers finished with a record of 8-2. Cody also coached basketball at Clemson for five seasons and guided Clemson to a 16-9 slate in 1930. During the 1928-30 seasons, he guided Clemson to a 22-4 mark at home. Cody went on to coach Temple's men's basketball team from 1942-52. He took the Owls to their first NCAA Tournament in 1944.

JESS NEELY

Clemson played in its first bowl game under Jess Neely in the 1940 Cotton Bowl. The Tigers, unknown at the time, became a household word after defeating heavily-favored Boston College 6-3 in the Cotton Bowl. It was the Tigers' first victory over a top-20 ranked team in school history. Clemson had a 43-35-7 record during Neely's tenure.

Neely came to Clemson in 1931 and his recruitment of Banks McFadden took Clemson to another level. In 1938, Neely coached Clemson to a second-place finish in the Southern Conference with a 7-1-1 record.

In 1939, Banks McFadden became Clemson's second All-American, and the team concluded the season with a trip to Dallas for the Cotton Bowl. Neely left Clemson in January 1940 and moved on to Rice, where he took that school to new heights. Neely is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame. Neely's landmark accomplishments in the 1930s at Clemson contributed significantly to Clemson's outstanding football tradition.

Frank Howard succeeded Jess Neely in 1940 when Neely moved on to Rice. He got the job when he seconded his own nomination during a meeting of the president and athletic council. He signed a one-year contract, then lost the document and never had another in his 30 years as head coach.

He graduated from Alabama in 1931, where he was a star lineman. He played in the 1930 Rose Bowl, then started his coaching career under Neely at Clemson in 1931, and was a part of a rebirth of Tiger football in the late 1930s. He was an assistant on the 1939 team that posted a 9-1 mark and beat Boston College 6-3 in the Tigers' first bowl game.

In 1940, he began his head coaching career with a bang as he won the Southern Conference title, the first of eight conference titles that Howard won in his coaching career, a feat that wouldn't be matched at Clemson until Dabo Swinney's eighth conference crown in 2022.

Howard had his most successful season in 1948 when he took Clemson to an 11-0 record, the Tigers' first perfect season since 1900. The campaign included a Southern Conference championship, a Gator Bowl win over Missouri and a No. 11 final ranking. He nearly duplicated the feat in 1950 when he guided Clemson to a No. 10 AP final ranking, a 9-0-1 finish and a 15-14 win over Miami (Fla.) in the Orange Bowl.

When he retired in 1969, Howard was the fifth-winningest coach in the nation with 165 victories, quite an accomplishment considering only 38 percent of his games were at home. He had 96 wins as an ACC coach and captured six (five outright and one co-championship) ACC titles, a record Bobby Bowden broke in 1998. Howard's teams appeared in six bowl games, 63 of his players were drafted by the NFL, and 37 played in the league.

Howard, a native of Barlow Bend, Ala., had six top-20 seasons, won eight conference titles (two Southern, six ACC), won 100 conference games and was a two-time ACC Coach-of-the-Year. He coached 25 academic All-ACC selections and five Academic All-Americans. Eleven of his players were chosen on-the-field All-Americans. Howard was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1989 and he was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor in 1994.

HOOTIE INGRAM

Hootie Ingram will be best remembered as the coach who made the Tiger Paw famous. Before his first year as head coach in 1970, Clemson introduced the Tiger Paw as the official logo of Clemson University's Athletic teams.

Ingram graduated from Alabama in 1955. He also received his master's degree in school administration from Alabama and later became Crimson Tide athletic director. The native of Tuscaloosa, Ala., was an All-SEC defensive back for the Crimson Tide as a senior. He had his best season (5-6) at Clemson in 1971. He also finished second in the ACC standings with a 4-2 league mark in 1971. He was later inducted into the Orange Bowl Hall of Fame.

Red Parker spent four years at Clemson as head coach. His 1974 squad lived up to the theme "Excitement Galore, Clemson Football '74" and had a 7-4 record, with victories over Georgia, Georgia Tech and South Carolina. Before arriving in Tiger-town, Parker spent seven years (1966-72) as head coach at The Citadel. He guided the Bulldogs to a 8-3 record during the 1971 campaign.

Parker earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Arkansas A&M in 1953. He earned three letters each in football, basketball and track, as a running back/defensive back, second baseman/shortstop and sprinter. He later served as head coach at Harmony Grove High School in Arkansas. He died Jan. 4, 2016.

Charley Pell, who was Clemson's head coach in 1977,78 authored college football's Cinderella story in 1977. The Albertville, Ala. product took a team that was 3-6-2 in 1976, and led the 1977 Tigers to an 8-2-1 regular-season mark and a berth in the Gator Bowl. It was Clemson's first final top-20 season since 1959. He coached Clemson to a 10-1 regular season in the 1978 season before he left to become head coach at Florida. Clemson's 1978 team beat Ohio State in the Gator Bowl and finished ranked No. 6 in the AP poll in his second year as Clemson's head coach.

He was a near unanimous choice as ACC Coach-of-the-Year in 1977 and 1978, the first coach, regardless of sport, to win ACC Coach-of-the-Year honors in each of his first two years. A two-way starter and three-year letterwinner at Alabama, Pell was on its 1961 national championship team.

He came to Clemson in 1976 and served as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator. Pell passed away in June 2001 after battling cancer.

Danny Ford had an auspicious beginning to his head coaching career. He gained a 17-15 win over Ohio State in the 1978 Gator Bowl. The 30-year-old coach, the youngest in Division I at the time, also defeated a college football legend in a contest that put Clemson on the national map, as he defeated Woody Hayes in the latter's last game. He had taken over the coaching reigns on Dec. 10, 1978 when Charley Pell resigned to become head coach at Florida.

Ford kept things going in 1979 with wins over Georgia and Notre Dame and another trip to a bowl (Peach). In 1981, he helped Clemson reach the summit of college football by winning the national title. His Tigers downed three top-10 teams during the course of the 12-0 season that concluded with a 22-15 win over Nebraska in the Orange Bowl. Ford was named National Coach-of-the-Year.

The wins continued in 1982 and 1983, as Clemson had consecutive 9-1-1 years. Clemson finished in the top 12 in both years, and had a 30-2-2 record over a three-year period, best in the nation.

Clemson won three straight ACC titles under his guidance between 1986-88. In 1989, Clemson registered a 10-2 season and top 12 national ranking, the fourth straight season Clemson finished in the final AP top 20. He closed his career with a 27-7 win over West Virginia in the Gator Bowl, his sixth bowl win in eight tries and his fourth in succession.

Ford was the third winningest active coach in the nation on a percentage basis at the end of the 1989 season. He finished with a 96-29-4 career ledger at Clemson. Ford finished his Tiger career with a 76-percent winning percentage and five ACC championships.

The 1969 Alabama graduate is still the youngest coach to win the national title, as he was just 33-years-old when the Tigers shocked the college football world in 1981. He coached 71 First-Team All-ACC selections and 26 All-Americans. Forty-two of his former Tigers were drafted by the NFL, and he earned 18 wins over AP top-20 teams during his career. Additionally, 11 of his former players won Super Bowl championship rings. At one stretch, his teams were ranked in the AP top 20 for 41 straight polls, a Tiger record. He had a 31-13-1 record against 15 coaches who are now in the Hall of Fame.

Ford is a member of the Clemson Hall of Fame, the state of South Carolina Hall of Fame and the Orange Bowl Hall of Fame.

Ford was an All-SEC pick and All-SEC Academic choice at Alabama. He attended Alabama initially on a basketball/football scholarship, but he only played football after his freshman season. Ford played in three bowl games for the Crimson Tide. He later served as head coach at Arkansas from 1994-97. Ford was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor on Aug. 31, 2013 and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in December 2017.

Ken Hatfield led the Tigers to a 32-13-1 record during his four-year tenure, led the squad to three bowl appearances and an ACC championship. With a victory over Illinois in the 1991 Hall of Fame Bowl, Hatfield became the first Clemson coach to win 10 games in his first year and his .833 winning percentage was the best for a first-year Clemson coach since 1900, when John Heisman was 6-0. That season included six victories over teams with winning records, more than any other team that year with the exception of National Champion Georgia Tech.

Hatfield was also just the eighth coach in the previous 13 years to take a team to a top-10 AP final ranking in his first year with the program, as the Tigers finished the year No. 9 in the AP poll. The Helena, Ark. native would also lead the 1991 and 1993 Tiger teams to top 25-rankings. Clemson became the third school that Hatfield coached to a top-20 ranking, as his 1983 Air Force team ranked No. 15 and he led four Arkansas teams to top-20 rankings. He became the sixth coach in NCAA history to accomplish that feat.

Hatfield played for three years at Arkansas (1962-64) and was a starter on the 1964 National Championship team. The defensive back earned his fame as the nation's top punt returner in 1963 and 1964. He was the first player to finish in the top two in the nation in punt returns three straight years, as he finished second in 1962. He retired as Rice's head coach in 2005 with 168 career wins. He is now retired and living in Arkansas.

Tommy West's five-year resumé as Clemson head coach included four bowl appearances, 12 road victories, 86 school records and previously unparalleled academic excellence. West took Clemson to three straight bowl games between the 1995 and 1997 seasons, just the second Clemson coach in history to take the Tigers to bowl games in three straight seasons.

Academically, 61 Tigers made the ACC Academic Honor Roll in his last four years, twice as many as the best previous four-year total in school history.

West took over as head coach on Nov. 29, 1993 and less than a month later had a bowl victory. The former Tennessee tight end succeeded Ken Hatfield, who left four days after a victory over South Carolina to end the 1993 season.

It was West's second tour of duty with Clemson. He had been a linebackers coach under Danny Ford between 1982-89. Clemson was 69-20-4 and had six AP top 20 finishes in that eight-year era.

West coached the Tigers in the 1993 Peach Bowl, a thrilling 14-13 win over Kentucky. He became the first coach in college history to win a bowl game in his first game without having coached the team in any capacity earlier in the year.

West's best season was 1995, as Clemson finished the regular season with five straight victories by 17 points or more and was invited to the Gator Bowl. Clemson was ranked in the top 20 of every poll at the end of the 1995 regular season. That Clemson team also finished fourth in the nation in rushing offense.

West recruited some of the top players in Tiger history. The school was in the top 10 in the nation in NFL draftees during the 1998 and 1999 selection process, and all 11 players were recruited by West. The list included three first-round defensive picks (Trevor Pryce, Anthony Simmons, Antwan Edwards). Clemson was the only school in the nation to have six defensive players drafted in 1999 and the only school to have a first-round defensive pick in 1997, 1998 and 1999.

The native of Gainesville, Ga. finished his career with a 31-28 record and had four wins over top-25 teams. He was the head coach at Memphis from 2001-09 and he led the Tigers to a nine-win season and the program's first bowl appearance in 32 years in 2003. He took Memphis to five bowls overall, and overall he coached in nine bowl games as a head coach. West was the defensive coordinator at Southern Mississippi in 2012 and is currently an assistant coach at Middle Tennessee.

TOMMY BOWDEN

Tommy Bowden was a consistent winner over his nine-and-a-half years as Clemson's head coach. From 1999-08, he never had a losing season, and that included a streak of eight consecutive winning seasons from 2000-07. During those seasons, only four other Division I coaches had a winning season in all eight of those years with the same program.

Bowden was a two-time ACC Coach-of-the-Year, joining Frank Howard, Charley Pell and Danny Ford (and later Dabo Swinney) with that distinction. He first won the honor in 1999, his first year when he took over a team that had been 3-8 the previous season, to a 6-6 season against a top-10 schedule according to the Sagarin ratings. Clemson played three undefeated teams during the regular season (Marshall, Virginia Tech, Florida State).

His first year included a nationally-televised game against Florida State that featured the first-ever Division I coaching matchup of father and son. Bobby Bowden's Seminoles won that game by a score of 17-14, Florida State's closest game in an undefeated national championship season. The game attracted over 85,000 fans and the largest media contingent in the history of Memorial Stadium. There were nine Bowden Bowls overall, with Bobby winning five games, but Tommy won four of the last five contests.

Bowden took Clemson to an 8-0 start and a No. 3 national ranking in 2000 before finishing with a 9-2 regular-season record and a No. 14 final ranking. The regular season concluded with a 16-14 victory over a top-25 South Carolina team. A 50-yard pass from Woodrow Dantzler to Rod Gardner is regarded as one of the most-exciting plays in Clemson history. The following year, Dantzler went on to become the first quarterback in Division I history to reach 2,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in a single season.

Bowden also won ACC Coach-of-the-Year honors in 2003 when he led the Tigers to a 9-4 record. That season, the Tigers won their last four games, including a 26-10 win over No. 3 Florida State. Clemson defeated South Carolina 63-17 in the regular-season finale and completed the season with a 27-14 win over No. 6 Tennessee in the Peach Bowl. Clemson finished the year in the top 25 of both polls as well.

Bowden finished with a 7-2 record against the Gamecocks. At the time of his departure, the 77.8 winning percentage was the best in school history among Clemson coaches who served the program at least five seasons. All seven of his victories were over Hall of Fame Head Coaches Lou Holtz and Steve Spurrier.

After a 3-3 start to the 2008 season, Bowden resigned on October 13, four days after a 12-7 loss at Wake Forest. He had a 72-45 record (.615) at Clemson for those nine-and-a-half seasons. Bowden never had a losing season, overall or in the ACC, during his nine complete seasons. He led the Tigers to eight bowl games.

Bowden now resides in Florida.

DEXTER LAWRENCE (#90) AND CHRISTIAN WILKINS (#42) WERE BIG REASONS CLEMSON HELD OPPONENTS TO A NATIONAL-BEST 13.1 POINTS PER GAME IN 2018.

Clemson has a rich bowl tradition. The Tigers have 26 bowl wins, tied for 10th most in history, and their 49 bowl games are tied for 12th most in history. Their first bowl game was in the 1940 Cotton Bowl when the Tigers defeated Frank Leahy (Boston College) 6-3.

The Tigers have played in a bowl game 34 of the last 38 years. That is among the top-10 bowl appearances since 1985. Clemson has also been bowl-eligible 24 consecutive years.

The Tigers have beaten some of the top programs in college football history in bowl games. The list of schools Clemson has beaten in a bowl game includes prominent programs Alabama, LSU, Miami (Fla.), Nebraska, Notre Dame, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Penn State, Stanford, Tennessee and West Virginia.

Clemson won its first three bowl games, victories over Boston College, Missouri and Miami (Fla.). The three coaches Clemson beat in those games were Frank Leahy, Don Faurot and Andy Gustafson, and all three are in the College Football Hall of Fame.

Seven different head coaches (Jess Neely, Frank Howard, Danny Ford, Ken Hatfield, Tommy West, Tommy Bowden, Dabo Swinney) have all been victorious in bowl games for the Tigers since the 1939 season.

Overall, 10 of Clemson's 26 bowl wins have come against head coaches who are in the College Football Hall of Fame. Clemson is 4-0 in bowl games against the top-six winningest coaches in FBS history in terms of winning percentage (Frank Leahy, Tom Osborne, Barry Switzer and Urban Meyer). The Tigers also have eight bowl wins over top-10 teams since 2012.

Clemson has achieved bowl wins over some of the greatest coaches in history:

- Frank Leahy when Clemson defeated Boston College in the 1940 Cotton Bowl.
- Joe Paterno (Penn State) when Clemson beat Penn State 35-10 in the 1988 Citrus Bowl. It was Paterno's largest margin of defeat in a bowl game.
- Woody Hayes (Ohio State) in the 1978 Gator Bowl, Hayes' last game as a coach.
- Barry Switzer (Oklahoma) in the 1989 Citrus Bowl, Switzer's final game as a college coach.
- Tom Osborne (Nebraska) in the 1982 Orange Bowl, which gave Clemson its first national championship at the end of the 1981 season.
- Don Nehlen (West Virginia) when Clemson downed the Mountaineers 27-7 in the 1989 Gator Bowl.
- Phillip Fulmer (Tennessee), who had over 150 career wins, in the 2003 Peach Bowl.
- Les Miles (LSU), who led the Tigers to the 2007 national championship, fell to Clemson 25-24 in the 2012 Chick-fil-A Bowl.
- Urban Meyer (Ohio State) in the 2013 Orange Bowl and 2016 Fiesta Bowl
- Bob Stoops, who won a national championship in the 2000 season with Oklahoma, saw his Sooners fall in back to back bowl games, including the 2015 Orange Bowl.
- Nick Saban, who had won four national championships and was riding a 26-game winning streak, fell to the Tigers in the 2016 national championship game in Florida.
- Nick Saban for the second time at the end of the 2018 season, as the Tigers claimed their second national title in three years with a 44-16 win.

CLEMSON WON ITS SECOND NATIONAL TITLE IN JANUARY 2017.

CLEMSON DEFEATED NORTH CAROLINA 39-10 TO CAPTURE THE 2022 ACC CHAMPIONSHIP.

STATE CHAMPIONS • ACC CHAMPIONS • FIESTA BOWL CHAMPIONS

The Tigers finished with a 14-1 record after defeating previously undefeated and top-ranked Alabama 35-31 in the CFP National Championship Game on Jan. 9. Clemson's 14 wins tied the FBS record for victories in a season.

Clemson was just the sixth national champion (since 1977) to play the nation's most difficult schedule the season it won the title.

Clemson defeated 11 FBS schools that finished with a winning record, including five that totaled 10+ wins and six that finished in the top 25 of the AP poll. Those schools were No. 2 Alabama, No. 6 Ohio State, No. 8 Florida State, No. 16 Virginia Tech, No. 21 Louisville and No. 24 Auburn.
