SWINNEY SEEKS TO PASS BOWDEN AS CLEMSON HEADS TO FLORIDA STATE

After a neutral-site season opener and a three-game homestand, Clemson will make its true road debut on Saturday, Oct. 5 when the Tigers face the Florida State Seminoles. Kickoff at Doak Campbell Stadium in Tallahassee, Fla. is scheduled for 7 p.m. ET.

On Saturday, Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney will attempt to make conference history and pass a college football icon on a playing surface bearing that icon's name. With 173 career wins, Swinney enters the game tied with College Football Hall of Famer Bobby Bowden for the conference record for career head coaching victories leading an ACC program. Of Bowden's 377 NCAA-recognized career head coaching victories, 173 of his wins came during Florida State's membership in the ACC. A win on Saturday on Bobby Bowden Field at Doak Campbell Stadium would push Swinney past Bowden into sole possession of the ACC record.

"I have a picture in my office of when I had one win — one. It's a picture of me and Bobby Bowden. We lost the first game to Georgia Tech as an interim and then we won at Boston College and then we've got to go down to Tallahassee to play the Noles and Bobby Bowden," Swinney said postgame last Saturday after tying Bowden's mark. "He was one of the first people to call me that night as an interim. He became a mentor of mine, a friend of mine. He impacted me greatly both through Tommy and himself. I can't express enough how much love I have for him and the entire Bowden family... I've still got voicemails on my phone from him; he would call me and encourage me long after he was out of coaching."

NOTES

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney (173) attempting to pass Bobby Bowden (173 during Florida State's tenure in the ACC) for the most career head coaching victories leading an ACC program.

- Swinney (173) attempting to earn his 174th career win to pass the career win totals of College Football Hall of Famers Robert Neyland (173-31-12) and Frank Solich (173-101).

- Clemson (801-473-45) attempting to earn its 802nd victory all-time and potentially pass Auburn (801) for the 13th-most in FBS history. (Note: Auburn can move to 802 with a win against Georgia at 3:30 p.m. ET Saturday).

- Clemson and Florida State meeting after having represented the conference in the ACC Championship Game 14 times in 15 years since 2009, Dabo Swinney's first full season as the Tigers' head coach. Clemson has appeared in the championship game nine times in those 15 years while Florida State has done so in five. The teams have combined for 12 of the last 13 ACC titles, with the lone exception coming in Pitt's 2021 ACC title season.

- Clemson attempting to earn its 16th all-time victory against Florida State and its seventh all-time victory in Tallahassee.

- Clemson attempting to win a fourth consecutive game at Doak Campbell Stadium for the first time in series history.

- Clemson attempting to become only the fourth program ever to win four consecutive road games against Florida State in Tallahassee, joining Florida (six straight from 1966-76), Houston (four from 1966-78) and Miami (Fla.) (five from 1957-77 and four from 1981-87).

- Clemson attempting to avoid being beaten by the same team in back-to-back years since Florida State did so across a three-year span from 2012-14. Clemson has not lost to a single team in consecutive years since that stretch.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 23-10 under Dabo Swinney in games against teams to which Clemson lost its most recent game.

- Clemson playing its 2024 road opener by virtue of opening the first five weeks with a neutral-site game, three home games and an open date. Clemson's Oct. 5 true road opener at Florida State represents Clemson's latest road opener since Oct. 9, 2008, when Clemson's 12-7 loss at Wake Forest led to Clemson elevating Dabo Swinney to interim head coach the following week.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 37-8 in true road games since 2015. Clemson's .818 winning percentage in true road games since 2015 is the fourth-best road winning percentage in the nation, and Clemson's 36 road wins in that span are the third-most in the country.

- Clemson entering the game against 1-4 Florida State having not lost to a team with a losing record at the time of the game since losing to 2-5 Boston College in 2010.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 31-8 in night games since the start of the 2018 season. A win would also move Clemson to 52-11 at night since 2015.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 135-18 against AP-unranked teams under Dabo Swinney and improve to 112-8 in those games since the start of the 2012 season.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 98-13 in regular season play since the start of the 2015 season.

- Clemson attempting to score 40 or more points in four consecutive games for the first time since a five-game streak early in the 2020 season.

- Clemson attempting to win a fourth consecutive game by a margin of 24 or more points for the first time since an eight-game streak in 2019. It would also mark a three-game streak of 24-point wins in conference play, which would be Clemson's first against ACC opponents since 2020 against Pitt, Virginia Tech and Notre Dame.

- Clemson attempting to reach 400 yards in four straight games for the first time since reaching 400 yards in all 12 games in 2020.

- Clemson attempting to average 6.5 or more yards per play in four straight games for the first time since a five-game streak in the middle of the 2019 season.

- Clemson attempting to average 5.0 or more yards per carry in four straight games for the first time since the final four games of the 2019 season.

- Clemson entering the game having scored at least one rushing touchdown in a national-best 81 of its 86 games since the start of the 2018 season. Clemson has also rushed for multiple touchdowns in a national-best 67 games in that span.

- Clemson attempting to throw three or more touchdowns in four straight games for the first time since 2020.

- Clemson entering the game having recorded a one-play scoring drive in each of its last three games. Another one-play scoring drive this week would give Clemson four consecutive games with a one-play scoring drive for the first time since 2017.

- Clemson attempting to surrender one sack or fewer in four straight games for the first time since the final four games of the 2021 season.

- Clemson, which has not surrendered a first-quarter point this season, attempting to hold opponents scoreless in the first quarter of each of the first five games of a season for the first time in Dabo Swinney's tenure.

- Clemson entering the game ranked second in the nation in first quarter point differential (+18.25 points per game). The Tigers have outscored opponents by a 73-0 margin in first quarters this season.

- Clemson (one) needing one more defensive touchdown to extend its streak of scoring multiple defensive touchdowns to 15 straight seasons. The last time Clemson had fewer than two defensive touchdowns in a season was 2009, Dabo Swinney's first full season as head coach, when the Tigers supplemented a single defensive touchdown with six special teams touchdowns.

- Clemson attempting to force three or more takeaways in four consecutive games for the first time since the last three games of 2008 and the 2009 season opener. It would be Clemson's first time doing so in a single season since a seven-game streak to open 1983.

- Clemson attempting to pick off three or more passes in consecutive games for the first time since the final two games of the 2008 regular season.

- Clemson attempting to win the turnover margin for the ninth time in a 10-game span, including a five-game stretch to end the 2023 season.

- Clemson attempting to finish +2 or better in the turnover margin in a fourth straight game for the first time since 2013.

- Clemson attempting to play a seventh consecutive game (dating to last season) with one giveaway or fewer for the first time since a 12-game streak across the 2019-20 seasons. Dating to last season, Clemson has five giveaways over its last six games and has not had a multi-giveaway game in that span.

- Clemson attempting to reach double-digit tackles for loss in back-to-back games for the first time since the second and third games of the 2023 season against Charleston Southern and Florida Atlantic. It would be Clemson's first time doing so against back-to-back power conference opponents since 2020 against Virginia Tech and Notre Dame.

- Tight end Jake Briningstool (92) needing two receptions to move past John McMakin (93 from 1969-71) and Dwayne Allen (93 from 2009-11) for the second-most career receptions by a Clemson tight end.

- Briningstool (92) needing eight receptions to become the second tight end in Clemson history to reach 100 career receptions (Jordan Leggett, 112).

- Briningstool (1,013) chasing No. 4 Bennie Cunningham (1,044 from 1972-75) and No. 3 Dwayne Allen (1,079 from 2009-11) among the top five on Clemson's all-time career receiving yardage leaderboard for tight ends.

- Briningstool (13) continuing to chase Jordan Leggett (18 from 2013-16) for the school record for career receiving touchdowns by a tight end. Briningstool presently stands alone in second place.

- Briningstool attempting to catch a touchdown in consecutive games for the first time this season and the first time since games against Georgia Tech and North Carolina last November.

NOTES

- Briningstool (two touchdowns vs. App State) attempting to become the first Clemson tight end to catch multiple touchdown passes in multiple games in a single season since Brandon Ford in 2012 (two).

- Cornerback Ashton Hampton (one) attempting to join Arlington Nunn (three in 1990) and Dorian O'Daniel (two in 2017) as the only Clemson players since 1950 to record multiple interception returns for touchdowns in a season.

- Quarterback Cade Klubnik attempting to become the first Clemson quarterback to throw three or more touchdown passes in four straight games since Trevor Lawrence in 2020.

- Klubnik attempting to become the first Clemson quarterback under Dabo Swinney to account for four or more combined touchdowns rushing and passing in four consecutive games. Klubnik's 16 combined rushing and passing touchdowns in the last three games were one shy of Tajh Boyd's three-game mark of 17 against Duke, Virginia and NC State in 2012.

- Klubnik (45) needing four more combined rushing and passing touchdowns to enter the Top 10 in school history in career touchdown responsibility. He is chasing No. 10 James Davis (49 from 2005-08), No. 9 Travis Zachery (50 from 1998-2001), No. 8 DJ Uiagalelei (51 from 2020-22) and No. 7 C.J. Spiller (52 from 2006-09) on Clemson's leaderboard.

- Klubnik (four) needing one more rushing touchdown to set a new single-season career high in rushing touchdowns.

- Klubnik (10) chasing No. 9 Homer Jordan (11 from 1979-82) and No. 8 Rodney Williams (12 from 1985-88) on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career rushing touchdowns by a quarterback.

- Klubnik attempting to become the first Clemson quarterback to rush for a touchdown in four straight games since Trevor Lawrence across the final two games of 2019 and the first two games of 2020. He would be the first to do it in a single season since Kelly Bryant in the first four games of 2017.

- Klubnik (four) attempting to pass his former offensive coordinator Brandon Streeter (four) for sole possession of the fifth-most career 300-yard passing games in Clemson history.

- Klubnik (33) chasing No. 8 Nealon Greene (35 from 1994-97) and No. 7 DJ Uiagalelei (36 from 2020-22) on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career passing touchdowns.

- Klubnik (4,525) needing 123 passing yards to pass Rodney Williams (4,647 from 1985-88) and enter the Top 10 in Clemson history in career passing yards. He is also 215 yards shy of passing Kyle Parker (4,739) for ninth.

- Klubnik (4,525) needing 475 passing yards to become the ninth player in school history to reach 5,000 career passing yards.

- Klubnik (664) needing 36 pass attempts to become the 11th player in school history to throw 700 career passes.

- Klubnik (424) entering the game 34 completions shy of Nealon Greene (458 from 1994-97) for eighth in school history in career pass completions.

- Klubnik (4,952) needing 24 combined passing and rushing yards to pass Travis Etienne (4,975 from 2017-20) for 11th in school history in career yards of total offense.

- Klubnik (4,952) needing 48 combined passing and rushing yards to become the 11th player in school history to record 5,000 career yards of total offense.

- Cornerback Avieon Terrell attempting to become the first Clemson player with a takeaway in three straight games since Wade Woodaz in the first three games of the 2023 season.

- Wide receiver Bryant Wesco Jr. (two) attempting to record his third 100-yard receiving game of his debut campaign to join Sammy Watkins (five in 2011), Artavis Scott (four in 2014), DeAndre Hopkins (three in 2010) and Justyn Ross (three in 2018) to become the fifth Clemson true freshman with three or more 100-yard receiving games since the NCAA instituted permanent freshman eligibility in 1972.

- Wesco attempting to become the first Clemson receiver with consecutive 100-yard receiving games since Cornell Powell against Notre Dame and Pitt in 2020.

- Wesco attempting to become the first Clemson freshman to record consecutive 100-yard receiving games since Justyn Ross against Notre Dame (148) and Alabama (153) in the College Football Playoff to end the 2018 season.

LATEST ROAD OPENERS

Saturday's game will be Clemson's 2024 road opener. The Tigers opened the season in Atlanta in a neutral-site contest against Georgia. Clemson then returned for a three-game homestand that also included the first of Clemson's two open dates in 2024.

Saturday's game being played on Oct. 5 represents Clemson's latest road opener since Oct. 9, 2008, when Clemson's 12-7 loss at Wake Forest in its road opener led to Clemson elevating Dabo Swinney to interim head coach the following week.

Saturday's game will tie for Clemson's fourth-latest road opener since joining the ACC in 1953.

SERIES HISTORY VS. FLORIDA STATE

Florida State holds a 21-15 advantage in the series with Clemson dating back to the schools' first meeting, a 38-13 Florida State win in Tallahassee in 1970. Clemson has a 13-7 advantage over the last 20 games, including wins in seven of the last eight meetings.

Clemson is 7-2 in its last nine meetings against the Seminoles with both Florida State wins coming in overtime. Florida State's last regulation win in the series came in 2013.

The home team has won 15 of the last 21 games in the series. Since 2003, Clemson has won at Florida State four times: in 2006, 2016, 2018 and 2022. Florida State's only wins at Clemson since 2001 were a decade apart in 2013 and 2023. Three of the last five road wins in the series (Florida State in 2013, Clemson in 2016 and 2018) all preceded National Championship victories at the end of the season, and one exception (2023) came in a season in which Florida State was excluded from the College Football Playoff despite an undefeated regular season and a conference championship.

In an 11-season span from 2009-19, the winner of the Clemson vs. Florida State game went on to win the Atlantic Division title, a streak that ended in 2020 in a divisionless season that ultimately did not feature a Clemson/Florida State matchup. From 2011-19, the winner of the Tigers/Seminoles matchup also won the ACC Championship, including six wins by Clemson in that span. Entering 2024, the teams have combined for 12 of the last 13 ACC titles.

This week, Clemson will attempt to become only the fourth program ever to win four consecutive road games against Florida State in Tallahassee, joining Florida (six straight from 1966-76), Houston (four from 1966-78) and Miami (Fla.) (five from 1957-77 and four from 1981-87).

CLEMSON-FLORIDA STATE MEMORIES

1988: Florida State defeated Clemson, 24-21, aided by an intricate fake punt executed by Bobby Bowden's team against the Tigers. The "Puntrookie" went for 78 yards on a run by LeRoy Butler, and the first down at the Clemson two-yard line led to the winning field goal for Florida State. Clemson's defense stiffened but Richie Andrews kicked a 19-yard field goal with 32 seconds left to give Florida State the victory. Both teams finished that season in the top 10.

1999-2007: These games represented the annual Bowden Bowl, as Clemson was coached by Tommy Bowden and Florida State by Bobby Bowden. Bobby had a 5-4 advantage in those nine games, but Tommy won the last three. They remain the only meetings of father and son head coaches in FBS history. The first Bowden Bowl came in 1999, a 17-14 victory for Florida State. That FSU team went on to win the national championship, and the 17 points and three-point victory margin were season lows for Florida State in that championship season. It was the closest Clemson had come to beating the No. 1 ranked team in the nation until the National Championship Game to end the 2016 season.

2003: Clemson upset a third-ranked Florida State team by a 26-10 score in a nationally televised Saturday night game at Death Valley. Florida State was coming off a 37-0 win at Notre Dame and Clemson was coming off a 45-17 loss at Wake Forest. Florida State had won 11 consecutive games in the series prior to the game.

2005: Clemson defeated eventual ACC champion Florida State, 35-14, in Memorial Stadium behind quarterback Charlie Whitehurst. The two teams were tied, 14-14, at the half before Clemson dominated the second half behind Whitehurst and receiver Chansi Stuckey.

2007: Clemson won on Labor Day night behind the running of James Davis. A year earlier, Davis had scored the winning touchdown at Florida State in 2006, and the 2007 victory gave Clemson three straight wins over the Seminoles, becoming the first ACC team to do that.

2009: C.J. Spiller put on a show for the ages with 312 all-purpose yards, then an all-time Clemson record, in a 40-24 victory. It was a big win on the way to Clemson's first Atlantic Division championship. It was Bobby Bowden's last game against Clemson. He had a 14-7 all-time record against Clemson but lost his last four appearances at Death Valley. However, his 6-4 record in the facility still represents the most victories at Clemson by an opposing head coach, one ahead of Georgia's Vince Dooley (five).

2014: Florida State overcame a 10-3 halftime deficit without suspended quarterback Jameis Winston to earn a 23-17 overtime victory on Sept. 20. The game, however, represented what ACC Network announcer Anish Shroff called in 2020 "a point of demarcation" for Clemson, as quarterback Deshaun Watson made his first start the following week. It had remained Clemson's last September loss until losing its 2021 season opener against No. 5 Georgia. The 2014 Clemson/FSU game also represented Clemson's last loss when holding an opponent to 23 or fewer points until that 2021 game against Georgia.

2016: The third-ranked Tigers won the fourth quarter, 17-6, to defeat No. 12 Florida State, 37-34. Deshaun Watson completed 27-of-43 passes for 378 yards and two scores and gained 52 more yards rushing for the Tigers, as Clemson produced 511 yards of total offense in 81 plays.

2018: Clemson routed Florida State, 59-10, in Tallahassee, the largest home loss in Florida State history. But the runaway win featured a little bit of historical symmetry. One of Clemson's touchdowns was scored on a two-yard touchdown run by tight end Garrett Williams, who scored his first career touchdown in the stadium in which his father, Dayne, played collegiately for Florida State. In 1988, Dayne was the upback who received the snap and handed the ball to LeRoy Butler on the infamous Puntrooskie against Clemson.

2019: Clemson became the 15th FBS program (and first ACC program) ever to reach 750 all-time wins after earning a 45-14 win against the Seminoles at Death Valley.

2020: Clemson traveled to Tallahassee but the game was postponed roughly three hours prior to kickoff and later canceled altogether. Previously, the last time Clemson had a game postponed after the team had already traveled to the site was in 1963, when the Tigers were slated to play South Carolina on Saturday, Nov. 23. Clemson returned from that 1963 trip to Columbia after the game was postponed following the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

MORE SWINNEY-BOWDEN REFLECTIONS

Though Bobby Bowden is inextricably and undeniably linked to Florida State, his influence also looms large in Clemson's program. Head Coach Dabo Swinney came to Clemson as its wide receivers coach in 2003 under Bobby's son, Tommy, who was Clemson's head coach at the time. Terry Bowden, another of Bobby's children, would also spend time at Clemson, serving as an unpaid graduate intern for two seasons from 2019-20 before moving on to a head coaching role.

The family atmosphere for which the elder Bowden was famous at Florida State remains a staple at Clemson now. Staff children are routinely present around Clemson's facility and the program hosts family dinners every Wednesday for student-athletes to be able to see coaches and staff not just in a professional capacity but also as models of the importance of being a good husband and good father.

Shortly after hearing news of Bowden's pancreatic cancer, Swinney shared some of his fondest memories of Bowden at ACC Kickoff in July 2021. Said Swinney:

"For me, he was the model. He was such a great example of not losing sight of the main thing: a man of faith, a great husband, great father. He loved his community. He was loyal. He was committed. He loved his players. And he was funny, he had a grace to him. And he's the model of consistency, I mean, the absolute model of consistency. But he's a special human being. I sat my office with him — I guess — two seasons ago in 2019 and we probably had about an hour in my office together just the two of us. He came in and he did our chapel. Ninety years old. Just the conversation was fascinating. Everything from letters he's written me to all the way back to being an interim and him calling me when all that went down to let me know, 'Hey, you have the Bowdens' full support,' and then three weeks later he smashed me down there in Tallahassee.

"But to come into my first ACC coaches meetings in Amelia Island in May, I'll never forget my very first meeting, you're talking about Jim Grobe and Groh and Paul Johnson and Cutcliffe and Friedgen and Beamer and all these guys. And here I come, and Bobby Bowden walks in and it's like, 'It's Bobby Bowden!' And I'm just fascinated sitting in the room with him. And, you know, there's some people that you can really think a lot of or like... I know I experienced this as a player, like you have so much respect, but then you get on the other side and you go, 'Oh, that guy's a jerk. That guy is this or that.' So sometimes people can let you down when you maybe get to know them in a different way, and I had this perception of him, and all I can say is when I got to know him kind of 'behind the curtain,' if you will, he was even better than what I could have imagined as far as just his genuineness, his kindness. He's smart, man, he's hilarious, used to crack me up.

"I remember, I've got my notebook, I've got notes, I'm ready. I'm ready to solve all the world's problems and be a part of this coaches fraternity and I'll never forget it. I go there and he's got his feet kicked back, he's got a USA Today, and we're in these deep-depth conversations, and you know, he's only done this 40 years at this point or whatever. He's heard it all. And we're in these deep conversations, whatever the topic of the day was, and he's just [miming motion] flipping through the USA Today, because you've got to be there. But ewwwvery now and then he goes, 'Boys, I don't think you want to do that,' then [resuming miming] flip back through [his newspaper].

"Then eventually he would take it, he just put it on his chest and [mimics napping]... He'd just take a nap. Like, nobody would say a word. Nobody. What are you going to do? And then you're not thinking he's listening and we're in this conversation — I think it was the year we were talking about the Sun Bowl and should we add the Sun Bowl — and he's over there [napping] and all of the sudden, he goes, 'Well, boys, y'all gonna be doing this a lot longer than me, but y'all want the Sun Bowl. That's a great bowl right there. That's a great trip...' He goes through the thing and it's over.

"So, I mean, he was just the best, such a respected guy. And, you know, when he says he's at peace, he means that. I think he told Tommy and Terry, 'Hey, if y'all want to plan a big funeral, you can do that, but I ain't gonna be there.' And that was his message. So he just has an unbelievable perspective. He's just been a great example to me and so many people. And you know, whenever that time comes, when the good Lord calls home with he'll be ready."

NOTES

After Bowden's passing in August that year, Swinney also recounted his final conversation with Bowden. The phone conversation took place while Swinney was in Clemson's Memorial Stadium, sitting near the same area of the grounds where Bowden's Florida State squad ran its famous Puntrooskie.

"His purpose in life was very clear, and that was to know [God] and make Him known. That was it. He won a few games along the way, but he never forgot what his purpose was.

"Even in the very end, he had an unbelievable sense of humor. The thing I told him before I hung up the phone — and it was really hard to hang up the phone — the last thing I told him was I said, 'All right, Coach, if you get to heaven before me, just maybe, every now and then, get one of them balls through the uprights or something like that.' But he goes, 'Boy! You don't want my help. I had a tendency to be wide!'

"I just died laughing. That's classic Bobby Bowden. I am forever grateful to have spent time with him."

LAST MEETING

Florida State 31, Clemson 24

(Sept. 23, 2023, Clemson, S.C.)

CLEMSON, S.C. — Sophomore quarterback Cade Klubnik threw for 283 yards and Clemson ran for 146 more, but the Tigers' upset bid fell short in overtime against No. 3 Florida State, 31-24, at Memorial Stadium. The Seminoles scored on the second play of overtime and held Clemson on the ensuing possession to seal the win.

Clemson (2-2, 0-2 ACC) piled up 429 yards of offense and held No. 3 Florida State (4-0, 2-0 ACC) to just 22 rushing yards and 311 total yards. Clemson also recorded 25 first downs to Florida State's 16.

Klubnik completed 25-of-38 passes for 283 yards and one touchdown. Phil Mafah led Clemson in rushing, averaging 6.9 yards per carry and totaling 69 yards, 46 of which came on one play. Freshman Tyler Brown recorded a then-career-high 84 receiving yards to lead Clemson. On defense, Clemson limited Florida State to just 22 yards rushing on 20 carries, forced four three-and-outs and registered five tackles for a loss, including two sacks.

Clemson opened the scoring on its second possession, driving 79 yards in 15 plays, including a critical fourth-and-one conversion by Mafah. Kicker Jonathan Weitz capped the drive with a 30-yard field goal on his first career field goal attempt less than a week after he came out of retirement to rejoin the team.

Clemson's defense then produced its second straight stop with Jeremiah Trotter Jr. wrapping up Jordan Travis for a seven-yard loss. On the third play of Clemson's ensuing drive, a 28-yard pass over the middle to Tyler Brown put Clemson inside the 10-yard line and set up Klubnik to find the end zone on a one-yard quarterback sneak with 11:33 left in the first half for a 10-0 lead.

Florida State scored its first touchdown of the day on a seven-yard touchdown pass to cut the score to 10-7 with 5:10 left to play in the first half. Clemson responded with a touchdown drive of its own, as Klubnik found tight end Jake Briningstool down the field for a 33-yard completion and then connected with Will Shipley for a 10-yard touchdown pass. Klubnik was 4-for-4 for 64 yards on the drive.

Travis capped off a quick 1:50 drive with a two-yard rushing touchdown for Florida State to make the score 17-14 at the half. The Seminoles tied the game at 17 with a 48-yard field goal on the opening possession of the second half.

Klubnik led Clemson on a 77-yard scoring drive in the third quarter with Shipley punching the ball one yard into the end zone to give Clemson a 24-17 lead with 3:32 left in the frame. Florida State tied the game after Klubnik was hit by Kalen DeLoach, who then recovered a Klubnik fumble and returned it 56 yards to tie the game, 24-24, with 31 seconds remaining in the third quarter.

Late in the fourth quarter, Clemson's defense came up with a critical stop at Florida State's own seven-yard line as Xavier Thomas tackled Travis for the sack on third down. With good field positioning and 6:56 left on the clock, Klubnik and company took Clemson 43 yards down the field but were unable to come away with points following a missed 30-yard field goal attempt. The Tigers' defense forced a Florida State turnover on downs on the ensuing possession to force overtime.

On Florida State's second play of the opening possession of overtime, Travis found Keon Coleman for a 24-yard touchdown pass. An incomplete pass from Klubnik on fourth down on Clemson's overtime possession sealed the 31-24 victory for Florida State.

LAST MEETING IN TALLAHASSEE

Clemson 34, Florida State 28

(Oct. 15, 2022, Tallahassee, Fla.)

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — No. 4/5 Clemson scored 17 points in a two-minute span on either side of halftime to take command of a 34-28 win at Florida State on Saturday night. Quarterback DJ Uiagalelei led Clemson on six consecutive scoring drives as the Tigers (7-0, 5-0 ACC) won their 13th consecutive game overall and seventh in a row in the series against the Seminoles (4-3, 2-3 ACC). Running back Will Shipley tallied a then-career-best 238 all-purpose yards (121 rushing, 48 receiving, 69 kickoff return) in leading the Tiger attack.

Defensively, Clemson allowed touchdowns on two of the first three drives before settling in and holding the Seminoles scoreless for its next six drives, which included three fourth-down stops. The Tigers tallied nine tackles for loss and a key strip-sack just before halftime that led to another score.

Jeremiah Trotter Jr. was credited with a career-best and team-season-high 13 tackles, earning ACC Linebacker of the Week honors. Myles Murphy had six tackles, including 3.5 for loss, and two sacks.

Uiagalelei accounted for four total touchdowns (three passing, one rushing), was 15-of-23 through the air for 203 yards and picked up a five-yard rushing touchdown.

Florida State struck first, taking the ball and going on a nine-play, 75-yard touchdown drive. Clemson's defense responded on its next opportunity, as Myles Murphy forced Florida State to punt after sacking Florida State quarterback Jordan Travis for a 15-yard loss. On the Tigers' next possession, Uiagalelei avoided a sack, stepped up in the pocket, and threw a 59-yard dime to Antonio Williams for the Tigers' first touchdown of the night.

The Seminoles took a 14-7 lead after eating up 6:57 minutes of clock on a 15-play, 93-yard touchdown drive. Uiagalelei led a response, orchestrating a 13-play, 75-yard drive that included two third-down conversions and a fourth-down pickup. A 17-yard reception by Williams set the Tigers up inside the 10-yard line, and Uiagalelei found Jake Briningstool from seven yards out for the score two plays later. On the extra point, which tied the score at 14-14, B.T. Potter passed Chandler Catanzaro (404 from 2010-13) to become the highest-scoring kicker in Clemson history.

On Clemson's next drive, Potter hit a 47-yard field goal to give Clemson a lead with 1:51 to play in the first half, his 30th career field goal of 40 yards or longer. On the ensuing Florida State possession, Murphy again got to Travis, forcing a fumble that Tyler Davis recovered at the FSU 42-yard line.

Shipley took the first play 36 yards inside the 10-yard line, and Uiagalelei scored on a bootleg to the right from five yards out, his fourth touchdown on the ground this season. Clemson went into halftime holding a 24-14 lead.

Clemson came out of halftime strong, as Shipley took the opening kickoff 69 yards to the FSU 31. On the first play from scrimmage, Uiagalelei handed off to Phil Mafah, who tossed to Williams in the backfield. Williams tossed the ball back to Uiagalelei, who hit Davis Allen in stride up the left sideline for a 31-yard touchdown, the 10th touchdown reception of Allen's career. Potter tacked on a 34-yarder at the 7:32 mark of the third quarter to extend Clemson's lead to 34-14.

The Seminoles scored two touchdowns in the fourth quarter to bring the final score to 34-28.

-- FROM THE ARCHIVES --

ON THIS DATE

- Oct. 5, 1896: Clemson held its first practice in program history on a 50' x 200' field in front of the college.

- Oct. 5, 1901: Clemson opened the season with a 122-0 win over Guilford, the most points scored in Tiger history. Clemson averaged 30 yards per play and a touchdown every minute and 26 seconds. The first half lasted 20 minutes while the second half lasted only 10 minutes. Legend has it that every man on the team scored a touchdown in the game.

- Oct. 5, 1974: Clemson defeated Georgia in Death Valley, 28-24, giving Clemson wins over Georgia and Georgia Tech in the same season for the first time since 1914.

- Overall: Clemson is 7-8 all-time in games contested on Oct. 5 but won its most recent such contest, a 49-14 win against Syracuse in 2013.

NOTES FROM LAST GAME

- With the 26-point win, Clemson has now won three consecutive games by 24 or more points for the first time since the 2020 season against Pitt, Virginia Tech and Notre Dame. That stretch also marked the last time Clemson won consecutive ACC games by 24-plus points.

- Clemson has now scored 40 points in three consecutive games for the first time since the final three games of the 2020 regular season against Notre Dame, Pitt and Virginia Tech.

- Clemson has scored 165 points in its last three games, its most in a three-game span since 2019 when it scored 166 against Wofford, NC State and Wake Forest. It is the sixth three-game stretch of 165 or more points in program history.

- Clemson held Stanford without a point on three of the four possessions that entered the Clemson red zone. In doing so, Clemson held an opponent pointless on at least three red zone possessions in a single game for the first time since the 2022 ACC Championship Game (North Carolina, 2-for-5).

- Clemson forced three turnovers on downs, as Stanford finished the game 0-for-3 on fourth down conversions. It marked Clemson's first time forcing at least three turnovers on downs since last November against North Carolina (2-for-5).

- Clemson rushed for 150 yards on 30 carries (5.0 yards per carry). Stanford entered the week ranked third in the nation in rushing yards allowed per game (51.67) and fifth in the nation in yards allowed per carry (2.18).

- Clemson averaged 6.64 yards per play. Clemson has now averaged 6.6 yards per play in three consecutive games for the first time since the first three games of the 2020 season.

- Quarterback Cade Klubnik completed 15-of-31 passes for 255 yards with four passing touchdowns and added seven carries for 48 yards with a rushing touchdown.

- Klubnik's four touchdown passes tied for the second-most of his career and represented the fourth four-touchdown passing game of his career.

- Klubnik became the first Clemson quarterback to throw three or more touchdown passes in three straight games since Trevor Lawrence's four-game streak in 2020.

- Including his rushing touchdown, Klubnik was responsible for five total touchdowns, the second-most of his career and his second such game of 2024 (seven vs. Appalachian State).

- Klubnik has now rushed for a touchdown in three straight games for the first time in his career.

- On his fourth touchdown pass of the game, Klubnik (33) passed Kyle Parker (32) for the ninth-most career passing touchdowns in Clemson history.

- Klubnik opened the scoring on a 34-yard touchdown run on Clemson's opening possession. It marked the second straight game that Klubnik rushed for a touchdown on Clemson's opening possession.

- Clemson has now scored a touchdown on its opening possession of three consecutive games in a single season for the first time since 2019 against Wofford, NC State and Wake Forest.

NOTES

- Klubnik became the first Clemson quarterback to rush for a touchdown in three straight games since DJ Uiagalelei in November 2022.

- The rushing touchdown was Klubnik's career-high-tying fourth of the season and the 10th of his career.

- Clemson has now scored at least one rushing touchdown in a national-best 81 of its 86 games since the start of the 2018 season.

- Clemson has now rushed for a touchdown in 56 consecutive home games, the nation's longest active streak. The last team to hold Clemson without a rushing touchdown in Death Valley was Troy in 2016.

- Tight end Jake Briningstool recorded his third touchdown reception of the season on a three-yard pass from Klubnik late in the second quarter.

- On his second-quarter touchdown reception, Briningstool (13) moved past John McMakin (1969-71), Dwayne Allen (2009-11), Brandon Ford (2009-12) and Davis Allen (2019-22) for sole possession of the second-most career touchdown receptions by a tight end in school history (12 each).

- On the second-quarter touchdown pass to Briningstool, Klubnik (33) became the 10th player in Clemson history to throw 30 career touchdown passes.

- Wide receiver Cole Turner recorded the first receiving touchdown of his career on a 43-yard touchdown pass from Klubnik in the third quarter.

- Including an 18-yard rushing touchdown a week earlier against NC State, Turner has now scored in consecutive games for the first time in his career.

- Wide receiver Bryant Wesco Jr. caught two passes for 104 yards and a touchdown.

- The game was the second 100-yard receiving game of Wesco's career. Wesco joined Sammy Watkins as the only players in Clemson history to record multiple 100-yard receiving games in the first four games of a collegiate career.

- Wesco caught a 70-yard pass from Klubnik in the first quarter. It was six yards shy of the duo's career long, a 76-yard connection earlier this season against Appalachian State.

- Clemson has now recorded multiple passes of 70-plus yards in a season for the first time since 2020 (Trevor Lawrence, passes of 83 and 70 yards to Amari Rodgers and Cornell Powell, respectively).

- Wesco became the first Clemson receiver with multiple receptions of 70 or more yards in a single season since Sammy Watkins in 2013 (three).

- Wesco added the second touchdown reception of his freshman season on a 34-yard pass from Klubnik in the fourth quarter.

- Wesco's touchdown reception came on the first play following a Stanford turnover on downs. Clemson has now recorded a one-play touchdown drive in three consecutive games for the first time since a four-game streak in 2017.

- Tight end Olsen Patt-Henry recorded his first career touchdown reception on a two-yard pass from Klubnik in the fourth quarter.

- Clemson allowed only one sack and has now surrendered one sack or fewer in three straight games for the first time since a four-game streak to end the 2021 season.

- Clemson matched its season high (set twice previously) by recording three takeaways.

- Clemson has now forced three or more takeaways in three consecutive games for the first time since last year's Notre Dame, Georgia Tech and North Carolina games.

- Clemson recorded three interceptions for the first time since picking off four passes against Georgia Tech last November.

- Clemson finished +2 in the turnover margin to win the turnover margin for the third time this season and the 101st time in Dabo Swinney's tenure. Clemson is now 95-6 in Swinney's tenure when it wins the turnover margin.

- Clemson won the turnover margin for the eighth time in a nine-game span, including a five-game stretch to end the 2023 season.

- Clemson has now finished +2 or better in the turnover margin in three straight games for the first time since a four-game streak in 2013.

- Linebacker Wade Woodaz recorded his first forced fumble of the season, the second of his career, on a Clemson fourth-down stop to force a turnover on downs on the game's opening possession.

- In the third quarter, Woodaz recorded his first interception of the season, the third of his career.

- Cornerback Avieon Terrell snuffed out a Stanford red zone drive on the Cardinal's second possession, recording his second career interception, his first of the season.

- Terrell's interception was his first since last November against Georgia Tech.

- Cornerback Jeadyn Lukus made Clemson's second red zone stop of the first quarter on Stanford's third possession, recording his second career interception.

- Lukus' interception was the second of his career and his first since the 2022 ACC Championship Game against North Carolina.

- Clemson recorded a season-high four sacks and a season-high 10 tackles for loss.

- Defensive end T.J. Parker recorded his third sack of the last two games with a third-down sack in the first quarter.

- Parker has now recorded a sack in back-to-back games for the first time since last season against Syracuse and Wake Forest.

- Linebacker Sammy Brown recorded his first career sack in the third quarter.

- Brown added a second sack in the fourth quarter to give him the first multi-sack game of his career.

- Linebacker Barrett Carter tied his career high with 3.5 tackles for loss, matching his total against Louisville in 2022.

- Carter added a sack in the fourth quarter, pushing his career total to 10.0.

- Carter finished with 3.5 tackles for loss.

- Kicker Nolan Hauser converted a 20-yard field goal on Clemson's second possession and later opened the second half with a 33-yard field goal, marking the first multi-field-goal game of his career.

- Hauser had a PAT attempt blocked on Clemson's fourth touchdown of the game. It snapped a streak of 25 consecutive made kicks to open his collegiate career (five field goals & 20 PATs).

- Hauser is now five-for-five on field goals and 21-of-22 on PATs in his true freshman campaign.

- Linebacker Jamal Anderson recorded a partial punt block in the fourth quarter, Clemson's first blocked punt since blocking two punts in the 2022 season opener against Georgia Tech.

- Clemson scored in a 284th consecutive game to pass the 1997-2019 Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets for sole possession of the 15th-longest streak of games without being shutout in FBS history.

- Clemson held a 10-0 lead after the first quarter and has now outscored opponents 73-0 in first quarters this season. The 2024 season marks Clemson's first time holding its first four opponents of the season without any first-quarter points since 2020 (59-0).

- Clemson hosted Stanford for the first time and faced Stanford in any location for the second time in school history, joining Clemson's win in the 1986 Gator Bowl.

- Stanford became only the second team from California ever to play in Death Valley, joining Pro Football

Hall of Famer George Allen's Long Beach State squad that lost to Clemson, 59-0, in the 1990 season opener.

- Stanford traveled roughly 2,200 miles as the crow flies, the farthest distance an opponent has traveled to face the Tigers in Clemson all-time, surpassing the roughly 2,000 miles traveled by Long Beach State in 1990.

- Captains for the contest were offensive lineman Trent Howard, center Ryan Linthicum, punter Aidan Swanson and safety Tyler Venables.

WITH THE WIN...

- Clemson (801-473-45) earned its 801st victory all-time and tied Auburn (801) for the 13th-most wins in FBS history.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney earned his 173rd head coaching victory to tie Bobby Bowden (173 during Florida State's tenure in the ACC) for the most career head coaching victories leading an ACC program.

- Swinney (173) passed the career win total of College Football Hall of Famer Dan Devine (172-57-9) and matched the career win totals of College Football Hall of Famers Robert Neyland (173-31-12) and Frank Solich (173-101).

- Swinney (100-9) earned his 100th career home victory to become the first coach in Clemson history to win 100 career home games. Frank Howard ranks second in school history with 81.

- Swinney (100) joined Mack Brown (156), Kirk Ferentz (121) and Brian Kelly (104) as the only active FBS coaches to win 100 career home games, according to Stats Perform.

- Clemson improved to 68-3 at Death Valley in the College Football Playoff era. With identical home records, Clemson and Alabama are tied for the nation's best home record in that time frame.

- Clemson improved to 100-15 against ACC opponents, including postseason play, since 2011. Clemson became the third team in the country to win 100 games against conference opponents in that span (Alabama and Ohio State).

- Clemson improved to 2-0 all-time against Stanford.

- Clemson made Stanford the 25th different power conference program to be defeated by the Tigers at least once since 2013. Clemson's 111 wins against power conference opponents in that span lead the nation.

- In defeating Stanford Head Coach Troy Taylor, Clemson improved to 165-73-3 all-time (and 48-7 since 2011) when facing a coach for the first time.

- Clemson hosted its 100th Homecoming game on record since its first official Homecoming game in 1922 and improved to 78-19-3 on Homecoming. The Tigers are now 47-4-2 on Homecoming since 1971.

- Clemson won its 13th consecutive Homecoming game to take sole possession of the school record for its longest Homecoming winning streak (12 from 1977-88).

- Clemson improved to 30-8 in night games since the start of the 2018 season. Clemson is also 51-11 at night since 2015.

- Clemson won its 22nd consecutive night game in Death Valley, a streak that dates to the middle of the 2013 season. Clemson's 22-game home winning streak in night games is the second-longest active streak in the country.

- Clemson improved to 25-3 under Dabo Swinney in night games in Death Valley.

- Clemson improved to 134-18 against AP-unranked teams under Dabo Swinney and is now 111-8 in those games since the start of the 2012 season.

- Clemson improved to 97-13 in regular season play since the start of the 2015 season.

- Clemson improved to 83-6 when scoring first since 2015.

NOTES

- Clemson is now 40-1 since 2015 when intercepting multiple passes in a game.

- Clemson has now won 117 of its last 122 games when leading at halftime.

- Clemson is now 138-4 since 2011 when leading after three quarters.

- Clemson now has a 81-4 record when winning the turnover margin since 2011.

- Clemson has won 115 of its last 116 games when holding teams under 23 points (dates to 2010).

SCORING CHANGES

- On the final play of the first quarter, Clemson's T.J. Parker was credited with a forced fumble (recovered immediately by the quarterback) on his sack.

- A fourth quarter tackle for loss split by Barrett Carter and Wade Woodaz on 2nd-and-12 from the Stanford 23 has been changed to a tackle for loss shared by Carter and A.J. Hoffer.

ONE OF THE ERA'S WINNINGEST PROGRAMS

Alabama and Clemson rank No. 1 and 2 in the country in wins since 2015, with the two teams combining for five national championships in that time frame.

MOST WINS (SINCE 2015)

Rk	School	W	L	Pct.
1.	Alabama	119	12	.908
2.	Clemson	112	18	.862
3.	Georgia	107	20	.843
4.	Ohio State	105	14	.882
5.	Oklahoma	98	25	.797

Clemson has a 154-29 record since 2011, becoming the second program to reach 150 wins in that span.

3.	Ohio State	149	24	.861
4.	Georgia	147	34	.812
5.	Oklahoma	137	38	.783

Clemson's lofty perch in that ranking reflects not only its dominance against middle- and lower-tier opponents, but also its success in matchups with other premier programs. From 2011-23, 41 different programs currently in power conferences recorded at least 90 wins in that span. Clemson has played 17 of those 41 programs since 2011 and is 70-22 (.761) in those contests and is .500 or better against 15 of the 17 teams.

SEASONS OF 9+ OR 10+ WINS

Though Clemson's streak of 12 consecutive 10-win seasons concluded in 2023, Clemson won each of its final five games of the year to conclude the year at 9-4. It was Clemson's 13th consecutive season with nine or more wins, the nation's second-longest active streak, and it ranks tied for fourth in major college football history.

With a No. 22 ranking in the final College Football Playoff rankings in 2023, Clemson became one of three programs (alongside Alabama and Ohio State) to finish in the CFP Top 25 in all 10 years of the four-team format.

Among the 15 programs ever to qualify for the College Football Playoff in its inaugural decade, Clemson was one of only five to hold a positive point differential in CFP play. Clemson also owns three of the eight largest wins by point differential in CFP history and is the only program to win three CFP games by at least 25 points.

SENIOR SUCCESS

Every January, Head Coach Dabo Swinney conducts his first official meeting with his new team. The first order of business in the meeting is to "reset the room," reorganizing the seating arrangement with seniors in front and all succeeding classes in order behind them in the team auditorium.

Several of Swinney's senior classes placed themselves among select company in college football history. The 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 Clemson seniors account for four of only 14 four-year classes in FBS history to reach 50 career wins. That includes the 2018 and 2019 groups that are tied with the 2018 Alabama seniors for the most wins in FBS history (55 wins in four years).

HISTORIC CONFERENCE REIGN

In 2020, Clemson became the first program ever to win 20 ACC Championships. That year, Clemson became the first program in the conference championship game era to win six straight conference championship games. Clemson also became the first ACC program to win six consecutive outright titles, as Florida State had a streak of nine straight ACC titles, but that streak included two co-championships that prevented Bobby Bowden's Seminoles from ever winning more than three straight titles outright.

Clemson's 2022 ACC title was the program's seventh in eight years, as the Tigers became the first team in an active power conference to win seven outright conference titles in an eight-year span since Alabama won eight SEC titles in nine seasons from 1971-79.

Including titles from its days as a member of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association and Southern Conference, Clemson has 27 conference championships overall, also the most of any current ACC school. Duke ranks second among the ACC's current membership with 18 overall conference titles, including 11 Southern Conference titles and seven ACC titles.

The Tigers won the 1900, 1902 and 1903 SIAA Conference championships under John Heisman, then the 1906 SIAA title under Bob Williams. Clemson also won the 1940 and 1948 Southern Conference titles under Frank Howard. Howard won eight total conference titles, including two in the Southern Conference and six in the ACC. Swinney matched Howard with his eighth conference title in 2022.

For the last quarter-century, Clemson's ACC success has not been a roller-coaster ride of lofty heights and deep lows. The last time Clemson finished a season below .500 in regular season conference play was in 1998, when Tommy West's 3-8 squad went 1-7 in ACC play. Clemson's 25-year streak of being .500 or better in conference play is tied for the longest active streak in the country and tied for the fourth-longest of any streak since 1966.

POWER OVER POWER CONFERENCE FOES

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level,'" recounted Swinney. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2013, no team can claim more wins against power conference opponents than the Tigers. On Nov. 12, 2022, Clemson became the first program to reach 100 victories against power conference opponents since 2013.

Clemson's national-best 111 power conference wins since 2013 include victories against Wake Forest (11), Boston College (10), Syracuse (10), Georgia Tech (10), NC State (9), Louisville (8), South Carolina (8), Florida State (7), North Carolina (5), Miami (4), Notre Dame (4), Ohio State (3), Virginia (3), Virginia Tech (3), Alabama (2), Pitt (2), Auburn (2), Oklahoma (2), Texas A&M (2), Georgia (1), Duke (1), Maryland (1), Iowa State (1), Kentucky (1) and Stanford (1).

On a year-by-year basis, Clemson has finished the season atop the country in wins against power conference opponents four times since the institution of the College Football Playoff in 2014, including four of the last seven years. That includes 13 wins against power conference opponents in 2018, the first team ever to reach that figure.

SIGN AND DEVELOP

While proud of his incoming classes, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has long stated that a true ranking of a recruiting class cannot and should not be published until four years later when the group can be evaluated on performance rather than potential.

Much to Swinney's delight, The Athletic has annually assumed that role in recent years, re-ranking every recruiting class four years later to account for on-field performance.

For its re-rankings, The Athletic uses the following grading scale: 5 points: All-American, award winner, top-50 NFL Draft pick; 4: Multi-year starter, all-conference honors; 3: One-year starter or key reserve; 2: Career backup; 0: Minor or no contribution, left the program. The outlet also adds a bonus to each program's class average, derived from its total number of wins from 2017 through 2020 (e.g.: For re-ranking the Class of 2017, Clemson won 51 games, so its class average received a bonus of 0.51).

Even in its current stretch of recruiting success, Swinney has pointed out that Clemson often falls in rankings as its commitment to not oversigning leads to smaller recruiting classes, as well as noting that much of Clemson's on-field success is a function of the program's development, citing All-Americans like former three-star Isaiah Simmons or former two-star Nolan Turner. The re-rankings illustrate Clemson's impressive track record of talent identification, culture fit, resource allocation and player development.

2019	10	5	+5	45-9
2020	3	7	-4	40-12
Average	10.2	4.0	+6.2

Note: Initial rank according to 247 Composite

On average, Clemson ranked 10.2 in the 247 Composite team rankings across the 2014-20 recruiting cycles. Upon re-ranking those groups, despite having little room for improvement while recruiting at a Top 15 clip in that span, Clemson ranked 4.0 on average in the re-rankings, a ratings bump of roughly six spots. Each of those Clemson classes averaged at least 10 wins a season during their careers.

TEAM TALENT

Despite the program often fielding questions about its roster-building philosophy and means of talent acquisition, Clemson ranks as having the nation's fifth-most-talented roster in 247Sports' Team Talent Composite.

Clemson has ranked in the top five in this metric every year since 2020 and in the top 10 in every year since 2016.

-- HEAD COACH DABO SWINNEY --

CLEMSON'S ALL-TIME WINNINGEST COACH

College Football Hall of Famer Frank Howard, known as "The Bashful Baron of Barlow Bend," compiled a 165-118-12 record in 30 seasons at Clemson from 1940-69.

With a 31-23 upset of No. 12 Notre Dame in 2023, Dabo Swinney earned his 166th career victory as Clemson's head coach, surpassing Howard to become Clemson's all-time winningest coach. Swinney accomplished the feat in his 29th career game.

HEAD COACH CONTINUITY

Over the last decade-and-a-half, Clemson became a beacon of stability in the increasingly unstable environment of college football. Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney is in his 22nd overall season at Clemson in 2024, including his 16th full season as head coach (and his 17th including an interim stint in 2008).

From the start of Swinney's first season as full-time head coach in 2009 through 2023, there were 465 head coaching tenures in the FBS (excluding those by interims) but only one such tenure at Clemson.

Clemson is the only school in the ACC with only one head coach since the start of the 2009 season, and among the 15 schools ever to qualify for the College Football Playoff, only Clemson has had only one head coach since 2009.

SIX "FINAL FOURS" FOR SWINNEY

While the term "Final Four" may still be the linguistic property of college basketball, since the advent of the four-team College Football Playoff in 2014, Head Coach Dabo Swinney had Clemson among the sport's final four teams six times from 2015-20, becoming the first coach to lead a team to six consecutive College Football Playoffs since the format's institution in 2014.

The NCAA men's college basketball tournament dates to 1939. In the history of that tournament, only John Wooden of UCLA (nine from 1967-75) and Mike Krzyzewski of Duke (five from 1988-92) coached teams to at least five consecutive Final Fours. With his sixth "Final Four" appearance in 2020, Swinney joined basketball's Wooden as the only college football or men's basketball coaches to take teams to six consecutive Final Fours in their respective sports.

Swinney is among only nine coaches in football and men's basketball to record six career Final Four berths. He is one of only six with a winning record in Final Four games.

* - Men's Basketball Final Four or College Football Playoff

^ - indicates streak of at least six consecutive Final Fours

Swinney's ability to place his team among the nation's elite quartet has also been illustrated by the polls. Clemson finished first in the AP Poll in 2016 and 2018, second in 2015 and 2019, third in 2020 and fourth in 2017. Swinney became just the fourth coach to record at least six consecutive top four finishes since the AP Poll began in 1936, an exclusive list that also includes Florida State's Bobby Bowden (13), USC's Pete Carroll (seven) and Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson (six).

Clemson's streak represented the fifth time a program has had a run of at least six top four finishes in the AP Poll. Miami (Fla.) had a seven-year run from 1986-92 with two different head coaches leading the program.

Swinney ranks second among coaches in both College Football Playoff appearances and College Football Playoff wins. Through the College Football Playoff's first 10 years, only 10 head coaches ever won a CFP game, and only six (four of whom are no longer active) have won a CFP national championship.

THROUGH 200 GAMES

The 2022 Orange Bowl was the 200th game in Dabo Swinney's head coaching career. Among coaches who qualify for the NCAA FBS record book by virtue of five years or 50 wins as a major college head coach, 17 coaches had earned at least 150 victories in their first 200 career games as head coach as of the conclusion of the 2022 season.

At 161-39 through 200 games, Swinney tied Bob Stoops and Robert Neyland (162 each) for the fifth-most wins through 200 career games in major college football history.

Four previous Clemson head coaches earned 150+ FBS wins in their careers: John Heisman (186), Jess Neely (207), Frank Howard (165) and Ken Hatfield (168). Howard, a College Football Hall of Famer, recorded his 150th victory in his 273rd career game, in a 14-10 victory against Maryland in 1966 that clinched a piece of what later became an outright ACC title. Heisman earned win No. 150 in game No. 203, Neely earned it in game No. 268, and Hatfield did it in game 259, though none of those three won more than 43 games in their Clemson tenures.

Included below are the number of games needed for a sample of other notable coaches to reach 150 victories: John Vaught (201), Mark Richt (205), Red Blaik (207), Dan Devine (208), Woody Hayes (209), Bear Bryant (212), Ara Parseghian (212), Pat Dye (212), Bobby Bowden (213), Pop Warner (214), LaVell Edwards (214), Jim Tressel (214), Vince Dooley (214), Amos Alonzo Stagg (225), John Cooper (225), Frank Beamer (230), Lou Holtz (230), Bill Snyder (231), Johnny Majors (255), George Welsh (261), Hayden Fry

FIRST 15 SEASONS

Dabo Swinney completed his 15th season (and his 14th full season) in 2022 with a 161-39 record. Swinney amassed the second-most wins through a coach's first 15 seasons in FBS history despite not having the benefit of a full season in his first year, as he went 4-3 on an interim basis in his first season in 2008 after taking over for Tommy Bowden in October.

With a win against Stanford on Sept. 28, Swinney tied Bobby Bowden for the most career head coaching victories leading an ACC program.

In 2023, Swinney's 101st career regular-season conference win pushed him past Frank Howard (100) for sole possession of the Clemson record for career regular season conference victories. Howard went 100-48-5 in conference play across the Southern Conference and Atlantic Coast Conference, including 66 ACC wins.

CHAMPIONSHIP LINEAGE

After being named Clemson's full-time coach in December of 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney set about securing his first signing class in 2009.

His first class, which he tabbed the "Dandy Dozen," brought home Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 during their junior campaign in 2011. Every Clemson signing class under Swinney except its two most recent classes has at least one ACC title to their credit in their tenures at Clemson, and every signing class from 2012-20 earned at least one College Football Playoff berth.

THE ROARING 20s?

Clemson finished the 2010s with 117 victories, tied for the third-most victories in a decade in major college football since the 1890s, trailing only Penn (124 in the 1890s) and Alabama (124 in the 2010s). As Clemson seeks a 40th win since 2020, Clemson is already ahead of its pace from last decade.

Clemson was ranked No. 1 in nine consecutive polls to open 2020, its longest streak at No. 1 in school history.

Prior to topping out at No. 3 in 2021, Clemson appeared at No. 1 in at least one AP Poll in six consecutive years from 2015-20. Dabo Swinney joined Nick Saban (14) as the only coach in AP Poll history (since 1936) to lead a team to at least one No. 1 ranking in six consecutive years. Clemson, Alabama (15 from 2008-22) and Miami (seven from 1986-92) remain the only programs to appear at No. 1 in at least six consecutive years.

NOTES

ACC SUCCESS

Clemson has won 73 of its last 82 games vs. ACC opponents, a time frame that includes ACC Championship Game wins against North Carolina (2015 and 2022), Virginia Tech (2016), Miami (2017), Pitt (2018), Virginia (2019) and Notre Dame (2020).

Clemson has a winning record in its last 10 meetings against 13 of its ACC counterparts.

DEATH VALLEY ROARS

Frank Howard Field at Memorial Stadium garnered its famous nickname in the 1940s when Presbyterian College Head Coach Lonnie McMillian, after many years of bringing his teams in for drubbings, dubbed the venue as "Death Valley."

The name stuck, and its patrons have done their part to make it live up to its name and its reputation. In the first 10 years of the College Football Playoff era from 2014-23, Clemson's home atmosphere helped draw 148 false starts by opponents, the second-most of any home venue in the country and the most by a power conference program.

HISTORIC NIGHT VS. APP STATE

Klubnik put together one of the greatest single-game performances in Clemson and ACC history in Clemson's 66-20 win against Appalachian State on Sept. 7. Klubnik only played the first half but finished the contest having completed 24-of-26 passes for a career-high 378 yards and five passing touchdowns in addition to scoring two rushing touchdowns while leading the Tigers to touchdowns on all eight drives he engineered.

For the performance, Klubnik collected Walter Camp National Offensive Player of the Week, Davey O'Brien National Quarterback of the Week and PFF Offensive Player of the Week honors while splitting ACC Quarterback of the Week accolades. Included below are some of the statistical superlatives from No. 2's offensive clinic in game No. 2:

- Klubnik finished with a pass efficiency rating of 277.9, breaking Tajh Boyd's school record for a single game with a minimum of 20 attempts (261.9 vs. Syracuse in 2013).

- According to ESPN Stats & Info, Klubnik became the first FBS quarterback in the last 25 years with five or more passing touchdowns, multiple rushing touchdowns and a completion percentage of 90.0 percent or better.

- Klubnik's 378 passing yards were the most by a Clemson quarterback in a half since Trevor Lawrence's 391-yard first half at Georgia Tech in 2020.

- Despite playing only one half, Klubnik's 378 passing yards tied for the 19th-most in a game in school history. It was the most by a Clemson quarterback since Trevor Lawrence's 400 passing yards against Ohio State to end the 2020 season.

- Klubnik's five passing touchdowns set a career high, passing his previous high of four set twice last season. It was the first five-touchdown passing game by a Clemson quarterback since DJ Uiagalelei's five passing touchdowns at Wake Forest in 2022.

- Klubnik's five passing touchdowns in the first half tied a school record, matching Tajh Boyd (vs. Wake Forest in 2012 and The Citadel in 2013) and Trevor Lawrence (vs. Georgia Tech in 2020).

- Klubnik became the first Clemson quarterback to be responsible for seven combined passing and rushing touchdowns since Tajh Boyd's ACC-record eight-touchdown performance against NC State in 2011. (Note: Lamar Jackson later tied Boyd's ACC record against in 2016).

- Klubnik became the first ACC quarterback to record at least four passing touchdowns and multiple rushing touchdowns in a single half since Louisville's Lamar Jackson in 2016, according to ESPN Stats & Info. Klubnik finished with five passing touchdowns and two rushing touchdowns in the first half.

- Klubnik recorded multiple passing touchdowns and multiple rushing touchdowns in a single game for the first time in his career. He became the first Clemson quarterback to accomplish the feat since Deshaun Watson against Virginia Tech in the 2016 ACC Championship Game.

- Klubnik completed his first 13 passes of the game, the longest streak of consecutive completions in his career.

KLUBNIK AFTER WEEK 1

Head Coach Dabo Swinney graded Klubnik with a "B" in Clemson's disappointing season opener against Georgia, but Swinney called Klubnik's play "elite" in the two games that followed and "awesome" in game four against Stanford.

The statistics for Klubnik individually — and for Clemson's offense as a whole on drives he led — corroborate Swinney's assessment.

INTERCEPTION AVOIDANCE

In 2023, Cade Klubnik threw 170 consecutive pass attempts without an interception from Sept. 9 against Charleston Southern until Oct. 21 at Miami (Fla.). His streak ended 12 attempts shy of the top three by a quarterback in school history. Clemson's streak as a team ended at 184 pass attempts.

Note: Klubnik's career-long 170-attempt streak in 2023 fell just shy of the Top 3

For his career, Klubnik is among the most interception-averse passers in Clemson history.

300-YARD GAMES

Klubnik is one of only 14 quarterbacks in Clemson history to record at least one 300-yard passing game and one of only eight to record multiple 300-yard passing games.

His four career 300-yard games are tied with his former offensive coordinator Brandon Streeeter.

SPREADING THE BALL AROUND

Offensive Coordinator Garrett Riley's scheme places importance on spreading the ball to various playmakers, and coaches have praised Klubnik's natural penchant for distributing the ball to his various weapons.

In Week 2 of 2023, Klubnik and his fellow quarterbacks completed passes to 16 different receivers, Clemson's second-most in a single game in Dabo Swinney's tenure.

Clemson's highwater mark in that category in 2024 came in its second game of the season when it completed passes to 13 different receivers against App State.

RUSHING TOUCHDOWNS

Klubnik has already rushed for a career-high-tying four rushing touchdowns in 2024. His fourth rushing touchdown of the season against Stanford on Sept. 28 gave him double digits for his career and moved him into the Top 10 among Clemson quarterbacks all-time.

FROM THE SIDELINE TO THE STAGE

Klubnik's national breakout came in the 2022 ACC Championship Game against North Carolina. He entered the game on Clemson's third possession and completed 20-of-24 passes for 279 yards and a passing touchdown and added seven carries for 30 yards and a rushing touchdown. His 83.3 completion percentage set an ACC Championship Game record and led to his selection as the game's Most Valuable Player in Clemson's 39-10 victory. He became the third freshman (and second true freshman) in the game's history to earn the honor.

300+ IN FIRST CAREER START

In the 2022 Orange Bowl, Cade Klubnik completed 30-of-54 passes for 320 yards and also rushed 20 times for 51 yards with a touchdown. His 74 plays of total offense (combined rush attempts and pass attempts) were the fifth-most by an individual in Clemson history.

Klubnik's 320 yards were the fourth-most by a Clemson quarterback making his first career start since 1953, as he became only the fourth Clemson quarterback to exceed 300 passing yards in their first start.

Klubnik became the first Clemson freshman quarterback on record to make his starting debut in postseason play. He also became the first Clemson quarterback to make his first career start against an AP Top 6 opponent since Brandon Streeeter did so against No. 5 Florida State in 1997.

Klubnik became only the eighth true freshman to start at quarterback for Clemson since the NCAA instituted permanent freshman eligibility in 1972, joining Steve Fuller (1975), Willie Jordan (1975), Patrick Sapp (1992), Nealon Greene (1994), Deshaun Watson (2014), Trevor Lawrence (2018) and DJ Uiagalelei (2020).

-- NO. 6 WR TYLER BROWN --

INSTANT IMPACT

Tyler Brown's hometown of Greenville, S.C., is roughly 30 miles from Clemson, so perhaps it should have come as no surprise that he seemed to feel right at home in Clemson's offense as a true freshman in 2023.

Brown led Clemson in receptions and receiving yards that year, marking the second straight year a freshman led the team in both categories.

NOTES

Brown earned ACC Rookie of the Week honors against Florida Atlantic in 2023 after recording three receptions for 49 yards and two touchdowns against the Owls, becoming the first Clemson freshman wide receiver with two receiving touchdowns in a single game since Justyn Ross against Notre Dame in the 2018 Cotton Bowl. Brown also added a 44-yard punt return in that contest.

Against Syracuse that year, he recorded career highs in receptions (nine) and receiving yards (153). Brown's 153 receiving yards against the Orange in 2023 were the most by a Clemson true freshman since Justyn Ross' 153 yards against Alabama in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game to conclude the 2018 season.

Brown earned both ACC Rookie of the Week and ACC Receiver of the Week for his performance at Syracuse. He joined Sammy Watkins and Deshaun Watson as the only players in school history to win multiple ACC weekly honors in a single week.

Brown finished fourth in the Power Five and seventh in the nation in receptions by a freshman in 2023.

-- NO. 7 RB PHIL MAFAH --

MAFAH MAN'S CAREER DAY I

Mild-mannered but hard-running, Phil Mafah was long referenced as part of a one-two punch at running back alongside his then-roommate Will Shipley for most of his career. But with Shipley out with a concussion against No. 12 Notre Dame in early November in 2023, Mafah moved from a co-starring role to featured status and ran with the opportunity.

Technically, he ran with the opportunity a school-record-tying 36 times.

Mafah recorded a career-high 186 rushing yards on those 36 carries with two rushing touchdowns in the 31-23 win against the Irish. His 36 carries tied the school record shared by Jim Shirley (36 against NC State in 1951), Ray Yauger (36 against Wake Forest in 1969) and Raymond Priestler (36 against Maryland in 1997).

Mafah's 186 yards were the most by a Clemson player since Kobe Pace's 191-yard rushing performance against Wake Forest in 2021. It was the first 150-yard rushing game by a Clemson player since Shipley's 172-yard rushing performance against Syracuse in 2022.

"I knew going into the game that I would probably have to take a bigger load so I just came in with a mindset that whatever carries I get, I'm going to try to make the most out of each and every one," Mafah said following the defeat of Notre Dame. "I'm just glad that included a win for us."

Mafah, dubbed "Mafah Man" by Running Backs Coach C.J. Spiller, recorded career highs in rushing attempts (179), rushing yards (965), rushing touchdowns (13), receptions (21) and receiving yards (108) in 506 snaps over 13 games (five starts) in 2023.

MAFAH MAN'S CAREER DAY II

Mafah earned Most Valuable Player honors for the 2023 Gator Bowl after scoring a career-high four rushing touchdowns on 11 carries against Kentucky. His four rushing touchdowns in the game broke the Clemson bowl record (three by Tracy Johnson vs. Penn State in the 1988 Citrus Bowl) and the Gator Bowl record (three set by many players), as he became the first Clemson player to rush for four touchdowns in a game since C.J. Spiller against Georgia Tech in the 2009 ACC Championship Game.

Three of Mafah's Gator Bowl touchdowns came in the fourth quarter, making him the first Clemson player to score three touchdowns in any single quarter since DeAndre Hopkins against Duke in 2012. He became the first Clemson player with three touchdowns in a fourth quarter since at least 1996.

10+ RUSHING TDs SINCE 2015

Mafah's 13 rushing touchdowns in 2023 gave Clemson at least one player with double-digit rushing touchdowns in a ninth consecutive season. Clemson's nine consecutive seasons with at least one player with double-digit rushing touchdowns enter 2024 as the longest active streak in the country.

BRINNY'S BIG BREAKOUT IN 2023

The departure of long-time trusted tight end Davis Allen after Allen's selection by the Los Angeles Rams in the 2023 NFL Draft created an opportunity for Jake Briningstool in his junior season in 2023. The Nashville-area native who was the top-ranked tight end in the 2021 recruiting class that also included Brock Bowers took advantage with a career year that included a number of record-setting performances.

Briningstool recorded career highs in receptions (50), receiving yards (498) and receiving touchdowns (five) in 2023 en route to All-ACC honors.

Briningstool turned in his first signature performance of his career to date on Oct. 21 last season, catching five passes for a school-tight-end-record 126 yards with two touchdowns against Miami (Fla.). Briningstool's 126 yards were the most in a game by an ACC tight end this season and the most by an ACC tight end (per PFF designations) since Oct. 5, 2019, when Miami's Brevin

Jordan had 136 yards on two more catches against Virginia Tech.

CLEMSON TIGHT END HISTORY

By scoring his 10th career touchdown in a win against North Carolina in 2023, Briningstool became the seventh tight end in school history to reach double-digit career touchdown receptions.

Early in the 2024 season, Briningstool shot into sole possession of second in school history in career receiving touchdowns by tight ends.

In Clemson's dramatic bowl win to close 2023, Briningstool gained 91 yards on nine receptions, tying the Clemson single-game school record for receptions by a tight end, matching John McMakin (vs. Florida State in 1970) and Brandon Ford (vs. LSU in 2012). His ninth reception of the game was his 50th of the season, tying the single-season school record for receptions by a tight end set by Dwayne Allen in 2011 (50).

Clemson's tight ends combined for nine catches for 130 yards and two touchdowns in its Sept. 7 win against Appalachian State, the most receiving yards by a tight end group in a game under Dabo Swinney.

-- NO. 12 WR BRYANT WESCO JR. --

LET'S GO, MR. WESCO

True freshman Bryant Wesco Jr. recorded one catch in 12 snaps in Clemson's season opener, as missed opportunities and inefficiency by Clemson — combined with a condensed contest that featured the fewest combined snaps (112) in a Clemson game since 2006 — limited his involvement in his collegiate debut. Afterward, Clemson's coaches vowed to involve him more the following week.

Consider that vow fulfilled.

In his second career game, Wesco caught three passes for 130 yards and a touchdown against Appalachian State, tying the Clemson record for the fewest games needed to record a 100-yard receiving game.

With his second career 100-yard receiving game amid a two-catch, 104-yard performance against Stanford on Sept. 29, Wesco joined Sammy Watkins as the only Clemson players ever to record multiple 100-yard receiving games in the first four games of a collegiate career. With a 70-yard catch in the game, Wesco also became the first Clemson player with multiple 70-yard receptions in a season since Watkins in 2013.

ALL-CONFERENCE O-LINEMEN

Since 2015, Clemson has produced a total of 29 All-ACC selections along the offensive line, including 11 first-team honors. Clemson's 29 all-conference selections by offensive linemen are the second-most of any power conference program, and its 11 first-team selections rank fifth in that span.

SportSource Analytics produces an Offensive Line Efficiency metric that takes into account tackle for loss percentages, sack percentages, percentages of rushes gaining 4+ yards and success on third-or-fourth-and-short. Clemson among the national leaders in that total metric since 2015.

OFFENSIVE LINE EFFICIENCY SINCE 2015

Rk Team	TFL%	Sack%	4+ Rush%	3rd/S%	4th/S%	OL Eff.
1. Ohio State	8.3	5.1	49.3	75.3	74.0	87.4

5. Air Force	8.2	7.2	50.8	78.1	75.9	80.1

Note: Per SportSource Analytics; 4+ Rush% is the number of rushes gaining four or more yards; 3rd/S% and 4th/S% track conversion rates of rushes on third and 1-2 and fourth and 1-2.

Clemson was impacted by starting six different offensive line combinations in 2023 while both trying to find its best option at left tackle and managing the long-term losses of starting guards Walker Parks and Marcus Tate. Clemson has started only two combinations through four games in 2024.

The group is under new leadership in 2024, as Clemson's added more than 20 years of coaching experience at the position in hiring new offensive line coach Matt Luke.

"He brings an incredible résumé and a wealth of experience and has worked with a bunch of great coaches and players over his career," Dabo Swinney said of Luke's hire. "I have no doubt he will be a great addition."

TRENCH WARFARE

Clemson's success in its 72-14 run since 2018 has been powered in part at the line of scrimmage, where Clemson holds a 273-136 edge over opponents in sacks in that time frame. Clemson's +137 margin in sacks since 2018 is the highest differential in the country.

BARRETT CARTER

Though Clemson lost two-time All-America linebacker Jeremiah Trotter Jr. to the 2024 NFL Draft, Clemson's linebacking corps received a boost when 2023 All-ACC selection Barrett Carter opted to return for his senior season.

"He's one of the best football players in my 20 years at Clemson," Swinney said. "He's a pure football player. I mean, the guy can play anywhere. He could go play tailback, he could play corner, he can play safety, he can play Nickel/Sam, he can play Mike, he can play Will. He's special... He's so smart and he's got unbelievable instincts for the game."

Close observers of Clemson in 2022 quickly recognized Carter's impact in his first year as a starter, and Carter served notice of his arrival to the country with a signature performance against Louisville that year. Carter recorded eight tackles (3.5 for loss), two sacks, an interception and a pass breakup, becoming the first player to record 3.5 or more tackles for loss, 2.0 or more sacks and an interception in a game between two Power Five teams since South Carolina's Melvin Ingram against Auburn in 2011.

Carter finished 2022 credited by the coaching staff with 77 tackles (10.5 for loss), tied for third-most on the team, with 5.5 sacks, eight pass breakups, two interceptions and two forced fumbles in a unit-high 832 snaps over 13 games (all starts). His 832 snaps were the sixth-most by a Clemson linebacker on record.

Carter was one of only three players in the Power Five with at least 10 tackles for loss, 5.0 sacks, multiple interceptions and multiple forced fumbles in 2022. Before Carter and two others reached the marks in 2022, the last two Power Five players to reach Carter's numbers in all four categories were both Butkus Award winners: Georgia's Nakobe Dean (2021) and Clemson's Isaiah Simmons (2019).

No. 0 has also been a hero in the community. He has volunteered his time for the Our Friend Christopher organization in the memory of his late former teammate Christopher Miles, who died of a brain tumor. He also routinely reads to local elementary schools and serves as a mentor to local youth and has aspirations of one day opening a training facility for young athletes.

"I remember I was that young kid that looked up to football players," Carter said. "Now that I have the opportunity to give back, I have no choice but to do so. I just put myself in those shoes and remember when I was that kid."

CARTER'S GATOR BOWL PERFORMANCE

Carter was a star of Clemson's thrilling 38-35 Gator Bowl win against Kentucky to close the 2023 season. Clemson's ability to outscore Kentucky 28-14 in the final frame to earn the comeback win was buoyed by Clemson's four takeaways in the fourth quarter.

Trailing by five, Carter batted a Devin Leary pass into the air, spun around and dove to secure an interception that led to a Clemson field goal. On Kentucky's very next offensive play, Carter recovered a Barion Brown fumble that led to a Phil Mafah go-ahead touchdown on the following play.

Carter's performance marked the second straight game in which a Clemson defender recorded a takeaway on consecutive plays, joining Khalil Barnes' performance at South Carolina in Clemson's regular season finale. Prior to Barnes and Carter accomplishing the feat, the last time it had been accomplished was in 1995, when future Pro Football Hall of Famer Brian Dawkins accomplished the feat against Duke.

Against Kentucky, Carter was credited with five tackles, three pass breakups, an interception, a fumble recovery and a half-sack in the game, earning selection to the AP's All-Bowl Team.

OPENING A CAN OF WOODAZ

As conference and national acclaim began to accrue for Clemson's linebacking duo of Barrett Carter and Jeremiah Trotter Jr. in recent years, Dabo Swinney was quick to advise observers not to sleep on Wade Woodaz.

"He's a baller," Swinney said. "The kid is tough, physical, he can really run. He really understands the game at a high level. He played most of his [prep] career as a quarterback and as a safety, so he has a great understanding of the game. He plays really, really hard; he's a great effort guy, he's a great preparer and he loves it. He's a fun guy to coach and a fun guy to watch play because he plays the way you want everybody to play."

The first career start for versatile hybrid linebacker from Tampa actually came at safety in the 2022 ACC Championship Game. He then served as Clemson's primary Sam linebacker in the 2022 Orange Bowl.

Woodaz opened the 2023 season with a takeaway in three straight games. He recovered a muffed punt in the season opener at Duke, his second straight season opener with an impact special teams play after blocking a punt in his collegiate debut a year earlier. In Clemson's second game against Charleston Southern, he recorded his first career interception and returned it 35 yards for a touchdown to help Clemson blow the game open.

A week later against Florida Atlantic, he returned another interception 59 yards. In doing so, he became the first Clemson linebacker with an interception in consecutive games since Isaiah Simmons accomplished the feat in the ACC Championship Game and Fiesta Bowl of his Butkus Award-winning 2019 campaign.

The only Clemson player since 1996 other than Woodaz to have a takeaway in each of the team's first three games of a season was DeAndre McDaniel, Clemson's current senior defensive assistant and nickelbacks coach, who posted a takeaway in each of Clemson's first three games in 2009 en route to All-America honors that season.

WE SEE YOU, T.J. PARKER 🤩🤩

While preseason praise and accolades for Clemson's 2023 true freshmen defensive linemen were aimed primarily at defensive lineman Peter Woods, Woods' best friend, defensive end T.J. Parker, emphatically announced his arrival last season.

Parker's production behind the line of scrimmage in 2023 was the best by a first-year freshman in school history.

Parker tied for the national lead in tackles for loss among freshmen in 2023 with 12.5. Additionally, his 5.5 sacks ranked fourth nationally — and second in power conferences — among freshmen.

4.	T.J. Parker	Clemson	5.5
5.	Samuel Okunlola	Pittsburgh	5.0
	Anthony Hill Jr.	Texas	5.0

In his fifth career game, Parker recorded 2.0 sacks against Syracuse, factoring into three different sacks with one full sack and two split sacks. He became only the fourth Clemson freshman under Dabo Swinney to record 2.0 sacks in a game. Two of the other three — Myles Murphy and Dexter Lawrence — were eventual first round picks in the NFL Draft.

Parker is a product of Central High School in Phenix City, Ala., a school that has become a Clemson hotbed in recent years. Parker became Clemson's fourth signee (and fifth overall player including walk-on safety Caleb Nix) from Central since 2018, a pipeline that started with Justyn Ross in Clemson's 2018 recruiting class.

Parker initially committed to Penn State but coveted a Clemson offer. He decommitted from the Nittany Lions in hopes of soliciting Clemson, and Clemson's 2023 recruiting class immediately went to work.

"CV [Christopher Vizzina], Peter and a few other guys on the team, they hit me up with the eyes emoji on Instagram," Parker said. "It was like, 'You know what time it is.' I texted Coach Ski [Then-Clemson Defensive Ends Coach Lemanski Hall] the eyes emoji, the same thing they sent me, and from there we got in contact and a few days later they offered and I committed."

THE CFP ERA'S DOMINANT DEFENSE

Since the advent of the College Football Playoff in 2014, Clemson has routinely produced one of the nation's elite defenses.

Clemson has ranked in the Top 30 in the country in total defense in all 10 seasons of the CFP era and has ranked among the Top 30 in scoring defense in each of those campaigns (including five Top 5 finishes in the category).

GOOD UNDER GOODWIN

Wes Goodwin took over as Clemson's defensive coordinator prior to the Tigers' 2021 Cheez-It Bowl win against Iowa State. He entered 2024 having spent 28 games as Clemson's defensive coordinator, and he held opponents below their season averages for both yards and points in 24 of those contests.

Included below are comparisons of the yards and points surrendered by Clemson in Goodwin's tenure as defensive playcaller from his 2021 Cheez-It Bowl debut through the end of last season. Games in which Goodwin's unit did not hold opponents below their season average are italicized.

SWANSON'S SURGE

Punter Aidan Swanson returned for his sixth year at Clemson in 2024 following a breakout campaign in his second year as Clemson's starting punter in 2023.

Last year, he improved his punting average from 2022 by roughly a yard-and-a-half and nearly doubled the rate at which he was pinning opponents inside the 20.

AIDAN SWANSON, SEASONS AS A STARTER

Season	Punts	Avg.	Long	I20	I20%
2022	62	42.3	67	16	25.8%
2023	61	43.7	62	28	45.9%
2024	16	43.1	54	2	12.5%

Swanson's 28 punts downed inside the 20 in 2023 tied Bradley Pinion's school record for punts inside the 20 in a single season (28 in 2014).

Swanson's 2023 punting average of 43.67 yards ranked fifth in a season in Clemson history and was only the second average of 43+ yards by a Clemson punter since the turn of the century. He also recorded a 41.98-yard net punting average according to the NCAA formula for the metric, the second-best mark in school history behind Dale Hatcher's 42.4 in 1984.

SEMINAL SWANSON SHOWINGS

Vs. Florida State (2023): Swanson had a career day against Florida State on Sept. 23. His 53.2-yard average was a single-game high for his career, surpassing his 52.5-yard average against Syracuse in 2022. It was the best average by a Clemson punter with a minimum of three punts since Will Spiers' 53.6-yard average against Syracuse in 2020.

Swanson's four punts in that game included a 60-yarder in the first quarter and a 62-yarder in the third quarter. He joined Pittsburgh's Daniel Sparks (2022), Wake Forest's Dom Maggio (2019) and Miami's Pat O'Donnell (2013) as the only ACC players since 2008 with multiple 60-yard punts in a single game, according to Stats Perform.

Vs. Notre Dame (2023): Swanson placed a career-high five of his six punts inside the 20 against the Irish. It was the most punts placed inside the 20 by a Clemson punter since Will Spiers in the National Championship Game to end the 2019 season (five vs. LSU), earning Swanson ACC Specialist of the Week honors.

At South Carolina (2023): Swanson immediately tied his mark for punts inside the 20 in the regular season finale, dropping five punts inside the 20 in a nine-point win against South Carolina.

THE OTHER SWINNEY DYNASTY

Like the Colquitt family punting at Tennessee, the Swinney family holding for placekicks at Clemson has become a dynasty of its own.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's oldest son, Will, arrived at Clemson in 2017 and immediately earned Clemson's starting holder position on placekicks. He played five seasons and a record-tying 69 games at Clemson through 2021. In those five seasons, Clemson scored 565 points on placekicks, including field goals and PATs, and he held for 555 of those 565 points. The only 10 Clemson kicking points not held by Will in his career were instead held by his brother, Drew, who was Clemson's starter at the position in 2022.

NOTES

Will and Drew were succeeded by the youngest of the three Swinney boys, Clay, a redshirt sophomore who entered his second season as Clemson's starting holder in 2024. Clay's presence creates a plausible scenario in which every Clemson placekick in a full 10-year span from 2017-26 could be held by a Swinney.

Clemson's last hold by any player outside the Swinney family was on the final point of Clemson's 2016 national championship, as Seth Ryan, coincidentally also the son of a famous long-time coach (Rex Ryan), held the PAT following Hunter Renfrow's game-winning touchdown with one second remaining.

Note: Listed points only reflect kicking points on held field goals or PATs. Will Swinney scored 12 additional points, six via receiving touchdown on offense and six via rushing touchdown on a fake field goal; Drew Swinney scored two additional points on a fake PAT.

Clemson's Sept. 28 win against Stanford marked Clemson's 100th consecutive game with a Swinney as holder, a game that ironically resulted in Dabo Swinney's 100th career home win at Memorial Stadium. The family crossed 800 kicking points held for in the contest as well.

EXPLOSIVENESS IS BACK

From 2018-20, Clemson strung together its three best seasons in school history in yards per play while accumulating a 39-3 record and three College Football Playoff berths. In the three years to follow, Clemson's explosiveness dropped from an average of seventh nationally to an average of 91st.

Through September, Clemson's explosiveness appears to be back in 2024. The Tigers rank in the Top 20 in yards per play and rank among the nation's best in scrimmage plays of various distances.

FIRST QUARTER COMPLETE

Head Coach Dabo Swinney often likes to break the 12-game regular season into three-game "quarters" for his team. Clemson finished the first quarter of its 2024 regular season 2-1, but Clemson responded resoundingly to a disappointing loss to Georgia in the season opener.

The response was powered largely by two of Clemson's most explosive offensive performances in recent memory. Clemson scored 66 points on 712 yards against App State (9.8 yards per play) and scored 59 points on 523 yards against NC State (7.8 yards per play) in blowout victories. In doing so, Clemson scored 59 or more points in back-to-back games for only the third time in school history (59 vs. both Boston College and Wofford in 2019; 59 vs. Florida State and 77 vs. Louisville in 2018) and was one point away from scoring 60 in back-to-back games for the first time in program annals.

Despite being held to three points in its season opener, Clemson's first three games of the season have ranked among the most prolific first three games in program history. Clemson's record for points through three games is 157, set by John Heisman's 1901 team that scored 122 points in its season opener against Guilford.

2.	2000	155
3.	1900	136

4.	2024	128
5.	2020	127

Clemson's first quarter performance was powered by its performance in literal first quarters. Clemson drew Georgia to a 0-0 stalemate after one quarter in the opener and then proceeded to run out to first quarter leads of 35-0 and 28-0 against App State and NC State, respectively. According to ESPN, Clemson became the first FBS team in the last 20 seasons to lead by 28 or more points after the first quarter of consecutive games.

Through four games, Clemson still has not surrendered a first-quarter point, the team's first time holding opponents scoreless in the first quarter of each of the first four games of a season since 2020. Clemson's first quarter scoring differential of +18.25 points ranks second in the nation.

DEFEATS IN REVIEW

Clemson has lost 18 games since 2015. Eight of Clemson's 18 losses since 2015 — nearly 45 percent — have come against AP Top 5 teams.

The opponents to whom Clemson has lost since 2015 have a combined final record of 172-53, a winning percentage of .764. Clemson has not lost to a team that finished with a losing record since 2017 and has not lost to a team with a losing record at the time of the game since losing to 2-5 Boston College in 2010, Dabo Swinney's second full season as head coach.

Under Swinney, Clemson is also 35-6 in games in which it enters ranked lower in the AP Poll than it did in its previous contest. This includes the 2014, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2021 season openers in which Clemson opened the season lower than its ranking from the final game of the previous campaign.

Losses to Top 5 opponents Ohio State and Georgia across the 2020 and 2021 seasons ended a streak of 127 games since losing back-to-back contests, which had been the longest active streak in the nation and the longest in ACC history.

Clemson had not lost back-to-back games in a single season since November 2011, a streak that was snapped with losses to Miami and NC State in October 2023. It snapped a streak of 161 consecutive games played in which Clemson hadn't lost back-to-back games in a single season, a Clemson record, and, at the time, the nation's longest active streak.

RETURNING EXPERIENCE

According to traditional accounting, Clemson entered the spring of 2024 returning 11 of its 22 primary offensive and defensive starters from 2023. However, Clemson has 33 different players (including K/P/LS) who have started at least one game during their Clemson careers, including 18 of the team's 22 starters from last year's season-ending Gator Bowl win.

Clemson's 33 players with at least one career start prior to this season combined for 740 career game appearances and 340 career starts through 2023.

400-YARD GAMES

Clemson's 92 400-yard games since 2015 are fourth-most in the nation. Clemson has reached 500 yards in 53 of those contests, fifth-most in the nation.

OFFENSIVE BALANCE

Clemson has fielded one of the nation's most balanced offenses since 2018, averaging 261 passing yards per game and 193 rushing yards per game from 2018-23. Clemson was one of only seven power conference teams to average at least 250 passing yards and at least 190 rushing yards on a per-game basis in that span.

Clemson was perfect when exceeding both 200 rushing yards and 200 passing yards — 58-0 under Swinney and 108-0-1 all-time — until a defeat at Duke to open the 2023 season in which the Tigers reached the double-century mark in both categories. The defeat was also a statistical anomaly nationally, as from 2014 through the 2023 season opener, there had been 1,789 instances in which an FBS team had passed for 200-plus yards, rushed for 200-plus yards and given up 28 or fewer points in a single game. Teams who accomplished all three metrics were a combined 1748-41 (97.7 percent).

Clemson's 30 games reaching both 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards since the start of the 2018 season are among the most in the country.

GROUND GAME

Clemson has scored at least one rushing touchdown in 81 of its 86 games since the start of the 2018 season. Clemson's 81 games with a rushing touchdown in that span are the most in the nation. Clemson has scored multiple rushing touchdowns in 67 of those games, also the nation's best.

Clemson has an active streak of 56 consecutive home games with a rushing touchdown at Death Valley; the last team to hold Clemson out of the Memorial Stadium end zones on the ground was Troy in the 2016 home opener.

OWNING THE "MIDDLE EIGHT"

Since 2015, Clemson has frequently won one of the hidden "games within the game" on each side of halftime. SportSource Analytics tracks the "Middle Eight," the section of the game defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Clemson has outscored opponents in that time window 72 times since 2015, posting a 70-2 record in those contests.

Clemson has led all power conference teams in average players per game four times in the last seven years. Prior to the 2021 season in which Clemson's playing rotations were limited by significant attrition, the last time Clemson did not lead power conference teams in that category was in 2016, when Clemson finished second in that category.

Clemson has not only often led the nation in that category but has often lapped the field. In 2019, Clemson played an average of 76.0 players per game, an average that far exceeded all power conference programs by more than 11 players — a full unit — per game.

Per data available via the NCAA stat database, Clemson ranked fourth among power conference schools in average players per game in 2023 but ranked first in total players played.

The approach to creating functional depth and rewarding players ready to play has been a key philosophy for Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose own collegiate playing career was hatched as a walk-on fighting for playing time in Alabama's receiving corps.

"We're fully committed to playing guys who deserve to play," Swinney said. "You commit to a guy early in the season, and even if a guy has only played 10 percent of the snaps, when you get to game eight or nine, they've got some good experience."

Clemson has played 100+ players in a game five times under Dabo Swinney, including a 106-player effort against App State on Sept. 7. Two weeks later, Clemson set its Swinney-era record for most players played against a power conference opponent when 96 players appeared against NC State.

FINISH

In 2018, Clemson debuted a new version of its "This is Why We Work" fourth quarter video at Death Valley, a hype video imploring the team to finish and featuring Director of Strength and Conditioning Joey Batson following:

"Let me tell you something right now: they don't put championship rings on smooth hands! You gotta go earn it! You gotta go earn it six seconds at a time! You win championships when the stadium is empty, when the band ain't playing, when the cheerleaders ain't cheering, when it's just you and your brothers right beside you. That's when you win championships! In the fourth quarter, that is when we shine!"

The video and the speech became a part of Clemson lore, buoyed by its playing during Clemson's comeback win against Syracuse that year en route to a 15-0 national championship season. Over the years, the video has changed but the speech remains the same, with many Clemson fans yelling it in unison as it plays.

Clemson holds a 138-4 record since 2011 when leading after three quarters. And though Head Coach Dabo Swinney frequently reiterates the phrase, "There is nothing less important than the score at halftime," Clemson has the second-best winning percentage in the nation among power conference teams since 2017 in games in which it leads at halftime. Clemson has recorded a halftime lead in 79 games in that span, the most in the nation.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

- Entering the 2024 fall semester, of the 381 eligible players who completed their athletic eligibility at Clemson and/or graduated early in Dabo Swinney's 15+ full years as head coach, 375 (98.4 percent) have earned a degree during their time at Clemson.

- Clemson broke program multi-year APR records in three straight years from 2017-19 (987 in 2016-17, 992 in 2017-18 and 993 in 2018-19) before the NCAA suspended APR reporting during the COVID-19 pandemic. Upon reinstatement of APR reporting in June 2022, Clemson shattered its multi-year APR record with a 999 covering the 2017-18 through 2020-21 academic years.

- Most recently, Clemson posted a 995 multi-year APR covering 2019-20 through 2022-23, fifth-best in the FBS. Clemson's lofty academic success in that period coincided with on-field excellence that included three ACC titles, two College Football Playoff berths and a national championship game berth.

5.	2017-18	992

- Clemson, Air Force and Northwestern are the only FBS programs to produce a 990+ multi-year APR in each of the last five reported cycles.

- Clemson was the only program in the country to finish among the Top 25 in APR rate among FBS schools and the AP Top 25 in all 12 years covering the 2011-22 seasons. Clemson finished in the AP Top 25 in 2023 as well and is awaiting APR reporting for that academic year.

- Prior to the suspension of APR Public Recognition Awards following the COVID-19 pandemic, the NCAA recognized Clemson with its annual honor, which is bestowed upon programs ranking in the Top 10 percent of their respective sports, for nine of the award's last 10 reported academic cycles. Only 37 of the 130 FBS programs earned at least one APR recognition across the 2009-10 through 2018-19 academic years. Only 30 programs earned it multiple times. Clemson, Duke and Northwestern were the only ones to earn the award 9+ times in that 10-year span.

NOTES

- With its award for the 2018-19 academic year, Clemson became the only FBS program since the NCAA created the APR metric in 2003 to win a national championship and an APR Public Recognition Award in the same year multiple times. Alabama is the only other school to accomplish the title/APR double in a single year once (2011-12 academic year).

Clemson earned a team 3.03 GPA during the 2023 season, the second-highest fall GPA in program history and its fourth semester in a row with a team GPA of 3.0 or better. A total of 87 individuals earned a 3.0 GPA or better, the second-highest number of 3.0+ GPAs in program history. That included 18 perfect 4.0s.

- Clemson has had 80+ individuals earn a 3.0 or better GPA in five consecutive semesters.

HISTORIC GRADUATION SUCCESS RATE

Aided in part by a historically elite academic performance by Clemson Football, Clemson Athletics topped the nation among public power conference institutions in Graduation Success Rate (GSR) with a 97 percent mark for the 2013-16 cohort in data released by the NCAA in December 2023. Clemson Football set a new program record of 99 percent, which led all of Division I.

Football's 99 percent mark was the highest GSR score for any power conference football program since the 2018-19 release, and the highest ever recorded among public power conference football programs in the 19 years the NCAA has tracked the metric. The previous GSR record for a public power conference program was 96 by multiple schools.

The interest in watching Clemson play hasn't been limited to television broadcasts. Clemson continues to provide one of the marquee in-venue experiences in all of sports, as Clemson entered 2024 having been ranked in the Top 20 in the nation average home attendance at Memorial Stadium for 43 straight seasons.

2023 ALL-ACC SELECTIONS

Eight Clemson players earned recognition on the ACC's annual squads recognizing the conference's best in 2023. With the honors, Clemson produced at least eight all-conference selections for a ninth straight season and for the 12th time in a 13-season span.

CLEMSON ALL-ACC SELECTIONS (2023)

Tyler Davis	DT	1st
Jeremiah Trotter Jr.	LB	1st
Nate Wiggins	CB	1st
Barrett Carter	LB	2nd
Jake Briningstool	TE	3rd
Blake Miller	OT	3rd
Ruke Orhoro	DT	3rd
Will Putnam	C	3rd

Clemson has produced double-digit All-ACC selections in nine out of the last 11 seasons dating to 2013 with the lone exceptions coming in 2014 and 2023. Clemson had produced 10 or more All-ACC picks in eight straight years before producing eight in 2023. Clemson's eight years with 10+ All-ACC selections since 2015 are more than the rest of the league combined in that span.

RELATIVELY SPEAKING

Clemson's 2024 roster has many connections to college and professional athletics. Below is a list of notable connections:

- Keith Adams Jr., RB: Son of Keith Adams, a Clemson Athletic Hall of Famer at linebacker for the Tigers from 1998-2000.

- Jamal Anderson, LB: Son of Jamal Anderson, an eight-year NFL running back who earned first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors in 1998 in helping the Falcons to a berth in Super Bowl XXXIII.

- Jake Briningstool, TE: Son of Tony Briningstool, a linebacker who played at Michigan State from 1987-92.

- Sammy Brown, LB: Son of former Furman football player Mike Brown.

- Vic Burley, DL: Cousin of Clemson Defensive Run Game Coordinator/Defensive Tackles Coach (and 10-year NFL veteran) Nick Eason.

- Brodey Conn, S/P: Son of Clemson Co-Defensive Coordinator/Safeties Coach Mickey Conn.

- Tavoy Feagin, CB: Son of Michael Feagin, who played at Alabama in 1995 and 1996 when Dabo Swinney was a graduate assistant coach.

- Ashton Hampton, CB: Son of University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff Head Coach Alonzo Hampton.

- Ronan Hanafin, DB: Son of Dan Hanafin, who played quarterback at Boston University and was the program's starting quarterback in its final year in 1997; also the brother of Boston College quarterback Shane Hanafin.

- Nolan Hauser, PK: Son of two former Clemson athletes, including his mother, Sheri Hauser (née Bueter), an All-American soccer player at Clemson from 1994-97, and his father, Scott, who played baseball at Clemson in 1996 and 1997 and was 6-2 as a pitcher on Clemson's College World Series team of 1996. He is the brother of current Clemson women's soccer player Ella Hauser.

- A.J. Hoffer, DE: Brother of Georgia State outside linebacker Ozzie Hoffer.

- Trent Howard, OL: Father, Johnny Howard, played at Alabama with Dabo Swinney.

- Charlie Johnson, WR: Father, Ellis, is a long-time college football coach who served as Clemson's defensive coordinator from 1994-96.

- Jaheim Lawson, DE: Brother of Shaq Lawson, a 2015 consensus All-American at Clemson and 2016 first-round pick.

- Tristan Leigh, OL: Father, Stan, played running back at Virginia from 1990-94.

- Cade Klubnik, QB: Brother, Reed, played wide receiver at Yale from 2016-19.

- Armon Mason, DE: Father, Anthony, played 13 years in the NBA, earning an All-Star selection and an NBA Sixth Man of the Year Award; also a cousin of Atlanta Falcons All-Pro Grady Jarrett.

- Kobe McCloud, LB: Brother of former Clemson wide receiver Ray-Ray McCloud (2015-17); also brother of Texas State quarterback (and former USF/Arizona/James Madison quarterback) Jordan McCloud.

- R.J. Mickens, S: Son of former Texas A&M All-American defensive back and 11-year NFL veteran Ray Mickens.

- T.J. Moore, WR: Son of Terrance Sr., a multi-time all-conference wide receiver at California University of Pennsylvania.

- Caleb Nix, S: Son of former Auburn quarterback Patrick Nix; brother of former Oregon/Auburn quarterback Bo Nix.

- Walker Parks, OL: Son of former Kentucky offensive lineman David Parks.

- Trent Pearman, QB: Son of former Clemson tight end and current Director of Football Scouting Danny Pearman.

NOTES

- Adam Randall, WR: Brother of Austin Randall, a former Coastal Carolina defensive back who transferred to walk-on at Clemson in 2023.

- Ian Reed, OL: Son of Eric Reed, a former member of the US Men's National Rugby Team; brother of Clemson men's soccer goalkeeper Charlie Reed

- Collin Sadler, OL: Grandson of John Schroeder, a former All-America wide receiver at North Carolina who went on to play for the CFL's Hamilton Tiger-Cats.

- Josh Sapp, TE: Son of former Clemson quarterback/defensive end Patrick Sapp (1992-95).

- Clay Swinney, WR: Son of Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney and brother of former Clemson wide receivers/holders Will Swinney and Drew Swinney.

- Caden Story, DT: Son of former Jacksonville State football and baseball player Clifford Story; nephew of 14-year NFL tight end Marcus Pollard; brother of Kentucky safety Kristian Story.

- Avieon Terrell, CB: Brother of A.J. Terrell, current NFL All-Pro cornerback who was an All-ACC performer at Clemson.

- Champ Thompson, DT: Son of Michael Thompson, a fourth-round pick by the Atlanta Falcons in the 2000 NFL Draft.

- Cole Turner, WR: Son of former Alabama player Kevin Turner, who played eight years in the NFL with New England Patriots and Philadelphia Eagles, and brother of former Clemson All-America safety Nolan Turner.

- Tyler Venables, S: Son of Oklahoma head coach and former Clemson defensive coordinator Brent Venables; brother of former Clemson linebacker Jake Venables.

- Bryant Wesco Jr., WR: Son of Bryant Wesco Sr. and Tambia Wesco, both of whom were triple jumpers at Louisiana Tech. Bryant Sr. was inducted into the Louisiana Tech Hall of Fame and Tambia was a 1999 all-conference selection.

- Wade Woodaz and Drew Woodaz, LB: Brothers.

- Watson Young, OL: Is the first fourth-generation Clemson Football player. Son of former Clemson All-American and three-time Academic All-American Kyle Young. Nephew of Will Young, was an offensive lineman at Clemson from 1992-95. Grandson of Ben Watson, a linebacker at Clemson from 1968-70. Great grandson of Ed McLendon, who lettered in 1939 and played the first bowl team in Clemson history that earned a 6-3 win in the 1940 Cotton Bowl.

CHURNING OUT NFL TALENT

Since assuming the head role midseason in 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has produced 83 NFL draft picks during his head coaching tenure (plus an additional supplemental draft selection). His 83 draft picks produced are the most by any coach in the nation since the 2009 NFL Draft, and his 18 first-rounders are the third-most overall and most of any active coach in that span.

In recent years, Clemson has been the NFL's primary provider of first-round talent among defensive linemen and linebackers. Clemson's nine first-round picks from its defensive front seven since the 2015 NFL Draft rank first in the nation.

FIRST-ROUND DEFENSIVE LINEMEN & LINEBACKERS SINCE 2015 NFL DRAFT

Rk	School	DL/LB
1.	Clemson	9
2.	Georgia	8
3.	Alabama	7
4.	Michigan	6
5.	Ohio State	4

Additional nuggets on Clemson's recent success in the NFL Draft are included below:

- Clemson has produced at least five selections five times in the last six NFL Drafts, including six selections in 2019, seven selections in 2020, five selections in 2021, six in 2023 and six in 2024. Clemson has produced at least five picks nine times in the last 11 drafts; only Alabama (11) and Ohio State (10) have done so more times in that span.

- Clemson has now had at least one first-round draft choice in 10 of the last 12 years, standing alongside Alabama, Florida, Georgia and Ohio State as the only programs to produce a first-round pick in at least 10 of the last 12 years.

- Clemson has produced at least one Top 50 pick in 17 of the last 19 NFL Drafts, dating to 2006. The only drafts in that span in which Clemson did not produce a Top 50 pick were in 2009 and 2018. Florida (18), Clemson (17), Alabama (17), Ohio State (17) and USC (17) are the only schools to enter the 2024 NFL Draft having produced at least one Top 50 pick in at least 17 of the last 19 NFL Drafts.

- Since 2013, Clemson has produced first-round picks from the QB, RB, WR, DE, DT, LB and DB position groups. The only other school with at least one first-rounder at all those positions in that span is Alabama.

- Clemson has had at least one player chosen by 30 of the 32 NFL franchises since 2003. Head Coach Dabo Swinney has produced a draft pick for 28 of the 32 NFL teams in his head coaching tenure.

- Clemson has had at least one player selected in 22 consecutive drafts since 2003, representing the second-longest streak in school history behind a 24-year streak across the 1951-74 NFL Drafts.

- Clemson is one of only six schools to have produced multiple draft picks in each of the last 22 NFL Drafts (LSU, Michigan, Oklahoma, Ohio State and USC).

*Note: For listing purposes, Clemson chose to progress classes as though 2020 was a normal year of eligibility. For example, players listed as redshirt senior in 2024 following a "redshirt year" in 2020 may not have officially redshirted in 2020, but would have qualified for one in a normal year. Clemson denotes extra years of eligibility on the back end of players' careers (i.e.: "Super Seniors" in 2024 are listed with the "+Sr." designation).

2024 GAME RECAPS

GAME 1	CLEMSON	3
	GEORGIA	34
	AUG. 31, 2024 MERCEDES-BENZ STADIUM • ATLANTA, GA.

ATLANTA — No. 1 Georgia used a 28-3 second half run to pull away No. 14 Clemson, 34-3, in the Aflac Kickoff Game at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta.

Linebacker Wade Woodaz led Clemson with a career-high eight tackles (seven solo, one for loss), while sophomore defensive lineman Peter Woods added a career-high 2.5 tackles for loss. Antonio Williams led Clemson's offense with six receptions for 76 yards.

The game was scoreless after the first quarter, as the teams traded punts on each of the game's first five possessions. Second-quarter field goals of 30 and 55 yards by Peyton Woodring gave Georgia a 6-0 halftime edge. The tightly contested first half featured only 50 combined plays from scrimmage, 10 combined first downs and eight combined punts.

Georgia extended its lead to 13-0 on the opening possession of the second half when Carson Beck found Colbie Young for a seven-yard touchdown. Clemson scored on its first possession of the second half when freshman Nolan Hauser made a 26-yard field goal, the first of his collegiate career, to cut the lead to 13-3. However, Georgia extended its advantage to 20-3 with 3:15 remaining in the third quarter on a one-yard touchdown run by Nate Frazier.

Georgia's London Humphreys added a 40-yard touchdown reception on a pass from Beck with 9:57 to play in the fourth quarter to make the score 27-3 in favor of the Bulldogs. An interception by Georgia's Malaki Starks — the game's lone takeaway — set up Cash Jones to cap the ensuing Georgia drive with a 15-yard rushing touchdown, pushing the final score to 34-3.

GAME 2	APPALACHIAN STATE	20
	CLEMSON	66
	SEPT. 7, 2024 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON — Clemson scored a touchdown on each of its first eight possessions of the first half to ride a 35-0 first quarter lead and 56-13 halftime edge to a 66-20 win against Appalachian State in Death Valley.

Cade Klubnik earned Walter Camp National Offensive Player of the Week and Davey O'Brien National Quarterback of the Week for his performance in which he completed 24-of-26 passes for 378 yards and five passing touchdowns and rushed for two additional touchdowns in only one half of play. According to ESPN, he became the only FBS player win the last 25 years to record five passing touchdowns, two rushing touchdowns and a completion rate of 90 percent or better in a game.

Clemson's 712 yards of offense were the sixth-most in school history. That total included a school-record 525 yards in the first half. Clemson's 35 first-quarter points were the most in a first quarter in school history, and its 56 first-half points were a modern record for the program.

Clemson recorded its first game with a 300-yard passer (Klubnik), a 100-yard rusher (Phil Mafah) and two 100-yard receivers (Bryant Wesco Jr. & Jake Briningstool) since 2012 against NC State when Clemson had a 300-yard passer (Tajh Boyd), two 100-yard rushers (Andre Ellington and Tajh Boyd) and two 100-yard receivers (Sammy Watkins and Brandon Ford).

	SEPT. 21, 2024 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON — Clemson earned its 800th victory in program history with a 59-35 victory against NC State at Memorial Stadium. Clemson became the 14th FBS program and first ACC team ever to reach 800 wins.

Quarterback Cade Klubnik completed 16-of-24 passes for 209 yards with three passing touchdowns and added four carries for a career-high 70 rushing yards and one rushing touchdown. Running back Phil Mafah rushed seven times for 107 yards with a touchdown. Clemson's first-team offense scored points on eight of its nine drives, including seven touchdowns and one field.

Clemson raced out to a 28-0 first-quarter lead, becoming the first FBS team in 20 years of accessible ESPN data to hold a lead of 28 or more points after the first quarter of consecutive games. After NC State got on the board early in the second quarter, Clemson scored an additional 17 points to give the Tigers a 45-7 halftime advantage.

Adam Randall caught his first career touchdown on Clemson's first drive of the third quarter and defensive back Ashton Hampton scored on a 53-yard pick-six to push the score to 59-14 after three quarters. NC State would add 21 points against Clemson's backups in the fourth quarter to pull the final score to 59-35.

2024 GAME RECAPS

GAME 4	STANFORD	14
	CLEMSON	40
	SEPT. 28, 2024 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. - Head Coach Dabo Swinney earned his 100th home win and tied Bobby Bowden's ACC record with his 173rd career victory overall as Clemson defeated Stanford, 40-10, at Death Valley in the teams' first matchup as conference foes.

Quarterback Cade Klubnik completed 15-of-31 passes for 255 yards with four passing touchdowns and added seven carries for 48 yards with a rushing touchdown. Wide receiver Bryant Wesco Jr. caught two passes for a team-high 104 yards and a touchdown.

Defensively, Clemson recorded a season-high four sacks while adding three takeaways and three turnovers on downs. Linebacker Barrett Carter tied his career high with 3.5 tackles for loss, while linebacker Sammy Brown recorded 2.0 sacks for his first career multi-sack game.

After Clemson turned Stanford over on downs on the game's opening possession, the Tigers opened the scoring on a 34-yard touchdown scramble by Klubnik. Red zone interceptions by Avieon Terrell and Jeadyn Lukus and a 20-yard Nolan Hauser field goal gave Clemson a 10-0 first-quarter lead. The teams traded second-quarter touchdowns to make the game 17-7 at the half.

Clemson pulled away in the second half thanks to three of Klubnik's four passing touchdowns on the day. Wide receiver Cole Turner and tight end Olsen Patt-Henry each recorded their first career receiving touchdowns, as the former rose up to haul in a 43-yard pass from Klubnik and the latter snagged a two-yard Klubnik throw in the end zone. Wesco scored on a 34-yard catch-and-run and joined Sammy Watkins as the only players in Clemson history to record multiple 100-yard receiving games in the first four games of a career.
