CLEMSON SEEKS NINTH WIN OF 2024 SATURDAY AGAINST THE CITADEL

After a thrilling 24-20 win at Pitt last week, Clemson will return to Death Valley on Saturday, Nov. 23 when the Tigers face off with The Citadel Bulldogs in an intrastate, cross-division matchup. Kickoff at Memorial Stadium in Clemson is scheduled for 3:30 p.m. ET.

To steal a turn of phrase from the golfing world, Clemson is "in the clubhouse," so to speak, after wrapping up ACC regular season play with a late comeback win at Pitt last week. The Tigers finished ACC regular season play at 7-1 but will now await results from across the conference to determine whether or not the Tigers will qualify for the ACC Championship Game for a conference-leading 10th time.

Last week, Clemson carried a 17-7 lead into the fourth quarter against Pitt but found itself trailing 20-17 with 1:36 remaining. After a 244-yard first half, Clemson had been stifled to the tune of 27 second-half yards before its final drive. However, Clemson went on a three-play, 75-yard game-winning drive that culminated with a 50-yard Cade Klubnik touchdown run on a quarterback draw to win the game.

The score was Clemson's longest game-winning offensive touchdown on record inside of the final two minutes of a game. It also made Klubnik the first Clemson player with multiple 50-yard touchdown runs in a single season since Travis Etienne in 2019.

A ninth win of the season this Saturday would extend Clemson's streak of consecutive seasons with nine or more wins to 14. With its ninth victory of the 2024 campaign, Clemson would tie the 1987-2000 Florida State Seminoles for the third-longest streak of nine-win seasons in major college football history.

ACC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME SCENARIOS

This week marks the first week that any team can clinch a berth in the 2024 ACC Championship Game. Included below is updated communication from the ACC Championship Game scenarios in play this week:

- Clemson (7-1 in ACC play) would clinch if Miami loses to Wake Forest this week.

- SMU can clinch with a win over Virginia, as they would move to 7-0. The worst SMU could be then is 7-1 if they were to lose their final game versus Cal in Week 14. If there is a 3-way tie at 7-1 with Clemson, Miami, and SMU, Miami and SMU would advance based on wins over both Louisville and Florida State. Clemson went 1-1 against those two teams with a loss to Louisville.

- Miami (5-1) cannot clinch a spot this week.

SENIOR DAY

Clemson will honor its 2024 senior class with individual runs down the Hill prior to Saturday's Senior Day game.

Currently, the 2024 Clemson senior class...

... holds a 38-12 record in the last four years, the seventh-most wins in the nation in that span.

... can become the 11th consecutive Clemson class to win at least 40 games in a four-year span with two more wins.

... won the ACC Championship in 2022 and could still become the 31st senior class in Clemson history to earn multiple conference championships in a four-year span.

... has won 31 games against Power Five conference opponents since 2021, tied for the fifth-most in the nation.

... ranked in the AP Top 25 for 40 polls, including 22 appearances in the AP Top 10.

... has won seven games against AP Top 25 teams.

... went 26-7 against ACC competition over the last four seasons.

... is presently 22-3 at Death Valley.

Additionally, Clemson's current group of fifth-year seniors...

... holds a 48-14 record since 2020, the fifth-most wins in the nation in that span.

... needs two more victories to give Clemson 50 wins in a five-year span for the eighth consecutive year.

... won ACC Championships in 2020 and 2022.

... has won 40 games against Power Five conference opponents since 2020, the third-most in the nation.

... ranked in the AP Top 25 for 57 polls, including 39 appearances in the AP Top 10.

... has won nine games against AP Top 25 teams.

... went 35-8 against ACC competition over the last five seasons.

... enters the week with a 28-3 career record at Death Valley.

Included below is the list of players who have the option to be honored on Senior Day this week. The list includes academic seniors who may potentially elect to forego their final year of athletic eligibility (e.g.: Christian Wilkins participating in 2017 prior to returning for 2018).

For players with eligibility remaining, inclusion on this list does not indicate that a player has opted to depart after the season. Some members of this group can still elect to return for 2025 at their discretion, but they may still choose to be honored Saturday.

MILITARY APPRECIATION DAY

Clemson, formally founded as Clemson Agricultural College in November 1889, was originally a military school, reflecting a belief at the time that a military atmosphere produced the highest academic excellence. Beginning with the first graduating class of 1896, more than 10,000 Clemson men and women have served in the armed forces. Throughout the decades, Clemson's military heritage has remained, even as the university transitioned to a coeducational civilian institution in 1955.

Saturday's game against The Citadel will be Clemson's 31st Military Appreciation Day. The history of the special day dates to 1994 when Clemson had a special flyover for the Clemson vs. Georgia Tech game on Nov. 12, just one day after Veterans Day. The flyover of four F-16s from Shaw Air Force Base during pregame was the highlight of the celebration that day.

Clemson has celebrated its military history every year during games held in November or when Clemson plays host to a school with its own military heritage. The Tigers don purple uniforms for the Military Appreciation Day game in reverence to the Purple Heart, the oldest United States military decoration. General George Washington awarded the first purple-colored, heart-shaped badges to soldiers who fought in the Continental Army during the American Revolution.

Clemson has a 26-4 record in the previous 30 Military Appreciation Day games. The Tigers have won 16 such games in a row, with the last loss coming against Virginia Tech in 2007.

CLEMSON UNDEFEATED VS. FCS TEAMS

Entering this week's contest, Clemson is a perfect 38-0 against Football Championship Subdivision teams since the NCAA formed the division prior to the 1978 season.

Clemson has outscored FCS teams by a 1,621-271 margin all-time, an average victory margin of 35.5 points. Clemson has won 37 of the 38 games by double digits, including each of the last 12 by at least 23 points.

Only one FCS squad has stayed within single digits of Clemson. Clemson defeated Wofford, 35-27, in 2011, with Wofford's 27 points standing as the most by an FCS school against Clemson.

COMMITMENT TO IN-STATE PROGRAMS

Under Head Coach Dabo Swinney, Clemson has typically adhered to a non-conference scheduling philosophy that features two Power Five opponents (rival South Carolina and one additional Power Five squad — typically either Notre Dame or a team from the SEC), one Group of Five opponent, as well as one FCS opponent from the state of South Carolina.

The commitment to football in the state of South Carolina at all levels has resulted in the Tigers hosting a Palmetto State FCS team every year since 2007, with Clemson welcoming Furman, The Citadel, South Carolina State, Presbyterian, Wofford, Charleston Southern and Coastal Carolina (which has since made the transition to FBS) to Memorial Stadium in that span.

Clemson has a winning record against all 12 opponents it has faced from the state of South Carolina. The Tigers are 218-65-13 (.758) all-time against Palmetto State foes, including one game against Marines from Port Royal in 1909 and one against the temporary Camp Sevier cantonment in 1918.

AT HOME IN NON-CONFERENCE PLAY

Clemson has been right at home in non-conference contests at Memorial Stadium in recent years, going 30-1 in its last 31 non-conference home games.

Clemson had won 26 straight prior to a one-point loss to South Carolina in November 2022. Previously, Clemson's longest unbeaten streak (including ties) in non-conference home games was a 20-game unbeaten streak from 1978-84 that saw ties against Boston College and Georgia interrupt winning streaks of 12 games, four games and two games.

Since joining the ACC as a charter member in 1953, Clemson is 132-33-4 at home against opponents from other conferences. That includes a 40-4 mark in non-conference games at Death Valley under Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

SERIES HISTORY VS. THE CITADEL

Clemson holds a 33-5-1 advantage in the series with The Citadel since the teams' first meeting in 1909. Clemson won that first meeting in Charleston by a 17-0 score.

Clemson won the first six games of the series by a combined score of 130-17, including four shutout victories. The Citadel's first win in the series took place in 1916 by a 3-0 score in Orangeburg, S.C. Clemson then won the next four, all by shutouts, prior to a 7-7 tie in 1921.

The Bulldogs had their most successful era in the series from 1924-31 when they won four of eight games. Their biggest win in that stretch took place in 1928 when The Citadel upset a Clemson team that would finish 8-2 by a 12-7 score on Dec. 8, the latest regular season game in Clemson history.

Clemson's loss to The Citadel in 1931 ended up being one of the more consequential defeats in school history. The Tigers suffered a surprising 6-0 loss in Florence, S.C., but after the game, Coach Jess Neely, captain Frank Jervey and others met in a car outside the stadium to discuss ways Clemson could help its football program get back on track. The meeting started the ball rolling towards the establishment of IPTAY ("I Pay Ten A Year"), now one of the nation's most successful athletic fundraising organizations.

Clemson has won the last 18 games in the series, the third-longest winning streak against a single opponent in Clemson history.

MEMORABLE SERIES MOMENTS

1918: Clemson and The Citadel played at the University of South Carolina, as military officials from both schools would not allow players to be absent from any military duties due to athletic events. Since the game was played in Columbia, both schools' cadets and football teams would be able to make the trip to Columbia and return to duty on time. Clemson's John O'Dell scored the game's only touchdown, as the Tigers won 7-0. Both teams made it back to their campuses before their passes expired.

1931: The Citadel's most recent win in the series came in a 6-0 victory in Florence, S.C. in 1931. After the game, Head Coach Jess Neely, captain Frank Jervey and others met in a car outside the stadium to discuss ways Clemson could help its football program get back on track. The meeting started the ball rolling towards the establishment of IPTAY.

1948: Clemson closed out a perfect regular season with a 20-0 December win over The Citadel in Charleston. The 10th-ranked Tigers did not allow The Citadel to make a first down in the game, the only recorded time in Clemson history that the Tigers have not allowed a first down. The Bulldogs also failed to complete a pass in the contest.

1954: Defensive end Walt Laraway had one of the great defensive games in Clemson history against The Citadel, recording a 30-yard interception return for a score and a 39-yard blocked punt return for a score. Laraway is one of just three Clemson players in history to score two touchdowns on returns in a single game, including Justin Miller (two kickoff returns at Florida State in 2004) and Kourtnei Brown (fumble return and interception return against North Carolina in 2011).

1973: Coach Red Parker coached his first game as the Tigers' head coach and faced his former team in his debut. Clemson won the game, 14-12.

1978: Clemson won its season opener of an 11-1 season in 1978 against The Citadel by a 58-3 score. Quarterback Steve Fuller went 9-for-9 passing in that game, the most attempts with a perfect completion percentage by a Tiger quarterback. Billy Lott was 6-for-8 off the bench, giving the two a combined 15-for-17 passing day. The .882 team completion percentage is still a single-game Clemson record (minimum 15 attempts).

2013: It was Senior Day in Death Valley, and quarterback Tajh Boyd put on one final show for the Memorial Stadium crowd. Boyd threw five touchdown passes to five different receivers, all before halftime, as No. 6 Clemson defeated The Citadel, 52-6. Boyd completed 21-of-28 passes for 288 yards and tied the then-school record with his five touchdown passes. The game was Clemson's annual Military Appreciation Day, and Daniel Rodriguez, a five-year Army veteran and Purple Heart recipient turned Clemson wide receiver, scored his first career touchdown on a two-yard reception.

2017: Clemson played a season-high 94 players, providing several young players with an opportunity to receive extended playing time. Among those who took advantage were two freshmen, one a running back by the name of Travis Etienne, who rushed eight times for 62 yards and two scores, and another a wide receiver named Tee Higgins, who recorded 178 yards and two highlight-reel touchdowns on six receptions. As their careers progressed, Etienne would become the ACC's all-time rushing leader and touchdown leader and Higgins would tie Clemson legends Sammy Watkins and DeAndre Hopkins' school record for career touchdown receptions.

2020: Clemson's 49-0 shutout of The Citadel was as notable for off-field developments as it was for the on-field product. The game was Clemson's first home game under COVID-19 protocols during the pandemic-impacted 2020 season, and official attendance for the contest was 18,609, a sellout under capacity restrictions. Previously, Clemson's last game attended by fewer than 20,000 at any location came at Duke on Nov. 2, 2002 (16,479), and the last time Clemson had played at Memorial Stadium in front of a crowd fewer than 20,000 people was on Oct. 31, 1964 against Virginia (17,000).

LAST MEETING

Clemson 49, The Citadel 0
(Sept. 19, 2020, Clemson, S.C.)

CLEMSON, S.C. — No. 1 Clemson (2-0, 1-0 ACC) won its home opener at Memorial Stadium, defeating The Citadel by a score of 49-0. The victory marked Clemson's 31st consecutive regular season win, passing the 2013-15 Florida State Seminoles for the longest such streak in ACC history.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence went 8-of-9 passing for 168 yards and three touchdowns. He also ran the ball into the end zone for a fourth consecutive game, dating to the year before. Freshman quarterback DJ Uiagalelei scored his first Clemson touchdown on a 1-yard run in the second quarter, the first of two scores on the ground.

Clemson's defense held the Bulldogs to just 162 total yards and added a score of its own when linebacker James Skalski returned a fumble 17 yards for the first touchdown of his career. Freshman Myles Murphy added two tackles for loss and forced the fumble that led to the Skalski scoop-and-score.

Clemson opened the game with a seven-play, 75-yard scoring drive capped by a 17-yard touchdown pass from Lawrence to Frank Ladson Jr. A Bulldogs punt led to a 44-yard touchdown strike, this time to Amari Rodgers.

Ladson added a 54-yard touchdown grab en route to a three reception and game-leading 89-yard performance, helping Clemson to an eventual 49-0 halftime lead.

The Tigers cruised to the victory in a scoreless second half highlighted by three Bulldog three-and-outs. Clemson's defense forced 10 total punts on the day as well as a turnover on downs in the shutout.

- After having three punts downed inside the 20 in Clemson's first seven games of the season, Swanson has placed 11 punts inside the 20 in Clemson's last three games, including 10 in the last two weeks.

SEASONS OF 9+ OR 10+ WINS

Though Clemson's streak of 12 consecutive 10-win seasons concluded in 2023, Clemson won each of its final five games of the year to conclude the year at 9-4. It was Clemson's 13th consecutive season with nine or more wins, the nation's second-longest active streak, and it ranks tied for fourth in major college football history.

Clemson can extend that streak with a win this week.

SENIOR SUCCESS

Every January, Head Coach Dabo Swinney conducts his first official meeting with his new team. The first order of business in the meeting is to "reset the room," reorganizing the seating arrangement with seniors in front and all succeeding classes in order behind them in the team auditorium.

Several of Swinney's senior classes placed themselves among select company in college football history. The 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 Clemson seniors account for four of only 15 four-year classes in FBS history to reach 50 career wins. That includes the 2018 and 2019 groups that are tied with the 2018 Alabama seniors for the most wins in FBS history (55 wins in four years).

HISTORIC CONFERENCE REIGN

In 2020, Clemson became the first program ever to win 20 ACC Championships. That year, Clemson became the first program in the conference championship game era to win six straight conference championship games. Clemson also became the first ACC program to win six consecutive outright titles, as Florida State had a streak of nine straight ACC titles, but that streak included two co-championships that prevented Bobby Bowden's Seminoles from ever winning more than three straight titles outright.

Clemson's 2022 ACC title was the program's seventh in eight years, as the Tigers became the first team in an active power conference to win seven outright conference titles in an eight-year span since Alabama won eight SEC titles in nine seasons from 1971-79.

Including titles from its days as a member of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association and Southern Conference, Clemson has 27 conference championships overall, also the most of any current ACC school. Duke ranks second among the ACC's current membership with 18 overall conference titles, including 11 Southern Conference titles and seven ACC titles.

The Tigers won the 1900, 1902 and 1903 SIAA Conference championships under John Heisman, then the 1906 SIAA title under Bob Williams. Clemson also won the 1940 and 1948 Southern Conference titles under Frank Howard. Howard won eight total conference titles, including two in the Southern Conference and six in the ACC. Swinney matched Howard with his eighth conference title in 2022.

For the last quarter-century, Clemson's ACC success has not been a roller-coaster ride of lofty heights and deep lows. The last time Clemson finished a season below .500 in regular season conference play was in 1998, when Tommy West's 3-8 squad went 1-7 in ACC play. Clemson's 25-year streak of being .500 or better in conference play is tied for the longest active streak in the country and tied for the fourth-longest of any streak since 1966.

POWER OVER POWER CONFERENCE FOES

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level,'" recounted Swinney. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2013, no team can claim more wins against power conference opponents than the Tigers. In late 2022, Clemson became the first program to reach 100 victories against power conference opponents since 2013.

Clemson's national-best 116 power conference wins since 2013 include victories against Wake Forest (12), Boston College (10), Syracuse (10), Georgia Tech (10), NC State (9), Louisville (8), South Carolina (8), Florida State (8), North Carolina (5), Miami (4), Notre Dame (4), Virginia (4), Virginia Tech (4), Ohio State (3), Pitt (3), Alabama (2), Auburn (2), Oklahoma (2), Texas A&M (2), Georgia (1), Duke (1), Maryland (1), Iowa State (1), Kentucky (1) and Stanford (1).

On a year-by-year basis, Clemson has finished the season atop the country in wins against power conference opponents four times since the institution of the College Football Playoff in 2014, including four of the last seven years. That includes 13 wins against power conference opponents in 2018, the first team ever to reach that figure.

SIGN AND DEVELOP

While proud of his incoming classes, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has long stated that a true ranking of a recruiting class cannot and should not be published until four years later when the group can be evaluated on performance rather than potential.

Much to Swinney's delight, The Athletic has annually assumed that role in recent years, re-ranking every recruiting class four years later to account for on-field performance.

For its re-rankings, The Athletic uses the following grading scale: 5 points: All-American, award winner, top-50 NFL Draft pick; 4: Multi-year starter, all-conference honors; 3: One-year starter or key reserve; 2: Career backup; 0: Minor or no contribution, left the program. The outlet also adds a bonus to each program's class average, derived from its total number of wins from 2017 through 2020 (e.g.: For re-ranking the Class of 2017, Clemson won 51 games, so its class average received a bonus of 0.51).

Even in its current stretch of recruiting success, Swinney has pointed out that Clemson often falls in rankings as its commitment to not oversigning leads to smaller recruiting classes, as well as noting that much of Clemson's on-field success is a function of the program's development, citing All-Americans like former three-star Isaiah Simmons or former two-star Nolan Turner. The re-rankings illustrate Clemson's impressive track record of talent identification, culture fit, resource allocation and player development.

CLEMSON RECRUITING RANKINGS AND RE-RANKINGS (VIA THE ATHLETIC)

2019	10	5	+5	45-9
2020	3	7	-4	40-12
Average	10.2	4.0	+6.2

Note: Initial rank according to 247 Composite

On average, Clemson ranked 10.2 in the 247 Composite team rankings across the 2014-20 recruiting cycles. Upon re-ranking those groups, despite having little room for improvement while recruiting at a Top 15 clip in that span, Clemson ranked 4.0 on average in the re-rankings, a ratings bump of roughly six spots. Each of those Clemson classes averaged at least 10 wins a season during their careers.

TEAM TALENT

Despite the program often fielding questions about its roster-building philosophy and means of talent acquisition, Clemson ranks as having the nation's fifth-most-talented roster in 247Sports' Team Talent Composite.

Clemson has ranked in the top five in this metric every year since 2020 and in the top 10 in every year since 2016.

CLEMSON'S WINNINGEST COACH

College Football Hall of Famer Frank Howard, known as "The Bashful Baron of Barlow Bend," compiled a 165-118-12 record in 30 seasons at Clemson from 1940-69.

With a 31-23 upset of No. 12 Notre Dame in 2023, Dabo Swinney earned his 166th career victory as Clemson's head coach, surpassing Howard to become Clemson's all-time winningest coach. Swinney accomplished the feat in his 209th career game.

HEAD COACH CONTINUITY

Over the last decade-and-a-half, Clemson became a beacon of stability in the increasingly unstable environment of college football. Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney is in his 22nd overall season at Clemson in 2024, including his 16th full season as head coach (and his 17th including an interim stint in 2008).

From the start of Swinney's first season as full-time head coach in 2009 through 2023, there were 465 head coaching tenures in the FBS (excluding those by interims) but only one such tenure at Clemson.

Clemson is the only school in the ACC with only one head coach since the start of the 2009 season, and among the 15 schools ever to qualify for the College Football Playoff, only Clemson has had only one head coach since 2009.

SIX "FINAL FOURS" FOR SWINNEY

While the term "Final Four" may still be the linguistic property of college basketball, since the advent of the four-team College Football Playoff in 2014, Head Coach Dabo Swinney had Clemson among the sport's final four teams six times from 2015-20, becoming the first coach to lead a team to six consecutive College Football Playoffs since the format's institution in 2014.

The NCAA men's college basketball tournament dates to 1939. In the history of that tournament, only John Wooden of UCLA (nine from 1967-75) and Mike Krzyzewski of Duke (five from 1988-92) coached teams to at least five consecutive Final Fours. With his sixth "Final Four" appearance in 2020, Swinney joined basketball's Wooden as the only college football or men's basketball coaches to take teams to six consecutive Final Fours in their respective sports.

Swinney is among only nine coaches in football and men's basketball to record six career Final Four berths. He is one of only six with a winning record in Final Four games.

Swinney's ability to place his team among the nation's elite quartet has also been illustrated by the polls. Clemson finished first in the AP Poll in 2016 and 2018, second in 2015 and 2019, third in 2020 and fourth in 2017. Swinney became just the fourth coach to record at least six consecutive top four finishes since the AP Poll began in 1936, an exclusive list that also includes Florida State's Bobby Bowden (13), USC's Pete Carroll (seven) and Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson (six).

Clemson's streak represented the fifth time a program has had a run of at least six top four finishes in the AP Poll. Miami (Fla.) had a seven-year run from 1986-92 with two different head coaches leading the program.

THROUGH 200 GAMES

The 2022 Orange Bowl was the 200th game in Dabo Swinney's head coaching career. Among coaches who qualify for the NCAA FBS record book by virtue of five years or 50 wins as a major college head coach, 17 coaches had earned at least 150 victories in their first 200 career games as head coach as of the conclusion of the 2022 season.

At 161-39 through 200 games, Swinney tied Bob Stoops and Robert Neyland (162 each) for the fifth-most wins through 200 career games in major college football history.

Four previous Clemson head coaches earned 150+ FBS wins in their careers: John Heisman (186), Jess Neely (207), Frank Howard (165) and Ken Hatfield (168). Howard, a College Football Hall of Famer, recorded his 150th victory in his 273rd career game, in a 14-10 victory against Maryland in 1966 that clinched a piece of what later became an outright ACC title. Heisman earned win No. 150 in game No. 203, Neely earned it in game No. 268, and Hatfield did it in game 259, though none of those three won more than 43 games in their Clemson tenures.

Included below are the number of games needed for a sample of other notable coaches to reach 150 victories: John Vaught (201), Mark Richt (205), Red Blaik (207), Dan Devine (208), Woody Hayes (209), Bear Bryant (212), Ara Parseghian (212), Pat Dye (212), Bobby Bowden (213), Pop Warner (214), LaVell Edwards (214), Jim Tressel (214), Vince Dooley (214), Amos Alonzo Stagg (225), John Cooper (225), Frank Beamer (230), Lou Holtz (230), Bill Snyder (231), Johnny Majors (255), George Welsh (261), Hayden Fry (277).

FIRST 15 SEASONS

Dabo Swinney completed his 15th season (and his 14th full season) in 2022 with a 161-39 record. Swinney amassed the second-most wins through a coach's first 15 seasons in FBS history despite not having the benefit of a full season in his first year, as he went 4-3 on an interim basis in his first season in 2008 after taking over for Tommy Bowden in October.

CHAMPIONSHIP LINEAGE

After being named Clemson's full-time coach in December of 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney set about securing his first signing class in 2009.

His first class, which he tabbed the "Dandy Dozen," brought home Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 during their junior campaign in 2011. Every Clemson signing class under Swinney except its two most recent classes has at least one ACC title to their credit in their tenures at Clemson, and every signing class from 2012-20 earned at least one College Football Playoff berth.

Clemson was ranked No. 1 in nine consecutive polls to open 2020, its longest streak at No. 1 in school history.

Prior to topping out at No. 3 in 2021, Clemson appeared at No. 1 in at least one AP Poll in six consecutive years from 2015-20. Dabo Swinney joined Nick Saban (14) as the only coach in AP Poll history (since 1936) to lead a team to at least one No. 1 ranking in six consecutive years. Clemson, Alabama (15 from 2008-22) and Miami (seven from 1986-92) remain the only programs to appear at No. 1 in at least six consecutive years.

Clemson is also 13-9 (.591) against AP Top 10 opponents in that time frame, one of only five teams in college football to produce at least a dozen wins against Top 10 foes in that span.

Clemson's success also hasn't been limited to opponents with bloated preseason rankings at kickoff time. Since 2015, Clemson's 68 wins against teams that finish .500 or better are second-most in the nation. Clemson's .791 winning percentage against that group ranks third.

DEATH VALLEY ROARS

Frank Howard Field at Memorial Stadium garnered its famous nickname in the 1940s when Presbyterian College Head Coach Lonnie McMillian, after many years of bringing his teams in for drubbings, dubbed the venue as "Death Valley."

The name stuck, and its patrons have done their part to make it live up to its name and its reputation. In the first 10 years of the College Football Playoff era from 2014-23, Clemson's home atmosphere helped draw 148 false starts by opponents, the second-most of any home venue in the country and the most by a power conference program.

-- NO. 0 WR ANTONIO WILLIAMS --

NO. 0 BECOMES NO. 1 TARGET

In 2022, Antonio Williams earned first-team Freshman All-America honors after he caught 56 passes for 604 yards with four touchdowns over 14 games (10 starts). His 10 starts were the most by a Clemson freshman receiver since Hunter Renfrow's redshirt freshman season (10 in 2015) and the most by a true freshman receiver at Clemson since Sammy Watkins (10 in 2011). He became the first true freshman to lead Clemson in receiving yards since Justyn Ross in 2018 and the first freshman to lead Clemson in receptions since Artavis Scott in 2014.

Injury befell Williams in his sophomore season, as he was limited by an ankle injury to only four regular season games in his second season before returning to play a pivotal role in Clemson's come-from-behind Gator Bowl win against Kentucky in 2023. In the offseason to follow, Head Coach Dabo Swinney praised Williams' maturity and laser focus and said the now-redshirt sophomore was in for a big year in 2024.

The head coach's prognostication has proven correct. Williams has started every game for Clemson and has developed into a bona fide top target for Clemson this season with career highs in receiving yards and receiving touchdowns.

ANTONIO WILLIAMS CAREER RECEIVING STATS

Season	GP	GS	Rec.	Yds.	TD
2022	14	10	56	604	4
2023	5	4	22	224	2
2024	10	10	53	617	8
Totals	29	24	131	1445	14

Clemson needed — and received — a career day from Williams in its 24-20 win at Pitt on Nov. 16. Williams recorded career highs in receiving yards (149) and receptions (13) and matched his career high with two touchdown receptions. His 13 receptions were the most by a Clemson player since both Mike Williams (15) and Artavis Scott (13) reached the mark against Pitt in 2016, and his performance tied for the fourth-most receptions in a game in Clemson history.

Williams' now sits one receiving touchdown shy of entering the Top 10 in school history for a single season.

Justyn Ross	2018	15	46	1000	21.7	9

Note: Antonio Williams has eight touchdown receptions this season and needs one more to enter the Top 10 in school history.

Williams' versatility has been on display this season. In addition to his eight touchdown catches, Williams has rushed for a touchdown and thrown a touchdown. Williams' 2024 season marks only the ninth time since 1969 that a Clemson player has passed for a touchdown, rushed for a touchdown and caught a touchdown in a single season, joining Sammy Watkins (2012), C.J. Spiller (2008 and 2009), Jacoby Ford (2009), Ray Williams (1985), Charlie Waters (1969) and Ray Yauger (1969).

COMPARISON THROUGH 10 GAMES

Klubnik is Clemson's sixth multi-year primary starter at quarterback under Dabo Swinney, joining Kyle Parker (2009-10), Tajh Boyd (2011-13), Deshaun Watson (2014-16), Trevor Lawrence (2018-20) and DJ Uiagalelei (2021-22).

Klubnik's numbers through 10 games compare favorably against the first 10 games of that group's second years as starter. That group includes players responsible for eight combined All-ACC selections, four combined national championship game appearances, three combined Heisman Trophy finalist selections and two combined national titles in their careers.

HISTORIC NIGHT VS. APP STATE

Klubnik put together one of the greatest single-game performances in Clemson and ACC history in Clemson's 66-20 win against Appalachian State on Sept. 7. Klubnik only played the first half but finished the contest having completed 24-of-26 passes for a career-high 378 yards and five passing touchdowns in addition to scoring two rushing touchdowns while leading the Tigers to touchdowns on all eight drives he engineered.

For the performance, Klubnik collected Walter Camp National Offensive Player of the Week, Davey O'Brien National Quarterback of the Week and PFF Offensive Player of the Week honors while splitting ACC Quarterback of the Week accolades. Included below are some of the statistical superlatives from No. 2's offensive clinic in game No. 2:

- Klubnik finished with a pass efficiency rating of 277.9, breaking Tajh Boyd's school record for a single game with a minimum of 20 attempts (261.9 vs. Syracuse in 2013).

- According to ESPN Stats & Info, Klubnik became the first FBS quarterback in the last 25 years with five or more passing touchdowns, multiple rushing touchdowns and a completion percentage of 90.0 percent or better.

- Klubnik's 378 passing yards were the most by a Clemson quarterback in a half since Trevor Lawrence's 391-yard first half at Georgia Tech in 2020.

- Despite playing only one half, Klubnik's 378 passing yards tied for the 19th-most in a game in school history. It was the most by a Clemson quarterback since Trevor Lawrence's 400 passing yards against Ohio State to end the 2020 season.

- Klubnik's five passing touchdowns set a career high, passing his previous high of four set twice last season. It was the first five-touchdown passing game by a Clemson quarterback since DJ Uiagalelei's five passing touchdowns at Wake Forest in 2022.

- Klubnik's five passing touchdowns in the first half tied a school record, matching Tajh Boyd (vs. Wake Forest in 2012 and The Citadel in 2013) and Trevor Lawrence (vs. Georgia Tech in 2020).

- Klubnik became the first Clemson quarterback to be responsible for seven combined passing and rushing touchdowns since Tajh Boyd's ACC-record eight-touchdown performance against NC State in 2011. (Note: Lamar Jackson later tied Boyd's ACC record against in 2016).

- Klubnik became the first ACC quarterback to record at least four passing touchdowns and multiple rushing touchdowns in a single half since Louisville's Lamar Jackson in 2016, according to ESPN Stats & Info. Klubnik finished with five passing touchdowns and two rushing touchdowns in the first half.

- Klubnik recorded multiple passing touchdowns and multiple rushing touchdowns in a single game for the first time in his career. He became the first Clemson quarterback to accomplish the feat since Deshaun Watson against Virginia Tech in the 2016 ACC Championship Game.

- Klubnik completed his first 13 passes of the game, the longest streak of consecutive completions in his career.

WINS AS A STARTING QUARTERBACK

Klubnik earned his 15th career victory as a starting quarterback on Oct. 19 against Virginia. He became the 18th Clemson quarterback to win 15 career games as a starter since World War II.

Klubnik has also helped engineer three fourth-quarter comeback wins, including two as a starter:

- vs. Syracuse (2022): Entered in relief of DJ Uiagalelei and became the first backup quarterback to engineer a fourth-quarter comeback win for Clemson since 2018 (Chase Brice vs. Syracuse).

- vs. Kentucky (2023 Gator Bowl): Went 8-for-8 as he led Clemson on a 12-play, 68-yard game-winning drive in 2:17 of elapsed game time as Clemson earned its largest fourth-quarter comeback win in a bowl game in school history.

- at Pitt (2024): After Clemson was held to only 27 yards in the first 28 minutes of the second half, Klubnik got the ball with 1:36 remaining and engineered a three-play, 75-yard drive that he finished by rushing for a game-winning 50-yard touchdown with 1:16 remaining.

300-YARD GAMES

Klubnik is one of only 14 quarterbacks in Clemson history to record at least one 300-yard passing game and one of only eight to record multiple 300-yard passing games.

His six career 300-yard games rank fifth in school history.

SPREADING THE BALL AROUND

Offensive Coordinator Garrett Riley's scheme places importance on spreading the ball to various playmakers, and coaches have praised Klubnik's natural penchant for distributing the ball to his various weapons.

In Week 2 of 2023, Klubnik and his fellow quarterbacks completed passes to 16 different receivers, Clemson's second-most in a single game in Dabo Swinney's tenure.

Clemson's highwater mark in that category in 2024 came in its second game of the season when it completed passes to 13 different receivers against App State.

RUSHING TOUCHDOWNS

Klubnik has rushed for a career-high five rushing touchdowns in 2024. His fourth rushing touchdown of the season against Stanford on Sept. 28 gave him double digits for his career and moved him into the Top 10 among Clemson quarterbacks all-time.

Klubnik's rushing touchdowns in 2024 haven't come on run-of-the-mill short yardage plunges. Among his rushing touchdowns this season are touchdown runs of 55 yards against NC State, 34 yards against Stanford and a game-winning 50-yarder at Pitt.

Klubnik's 50-yard rushing touchdown at Pitt was Clemson's longest game-winning offensive touchdown inside the final two minutes of a game on record. Klubnik became the first Clemson player to record multiple 50-yard rushing touchdowns in a single season since Travis Etienne in 2019 (two), and he also became the first Clemson quarterback to record multiple 50-yard rushing touchdowns in a career since Woodrow Dantzler (three from 1999-2001).

FROM THE SIDELINE TO THE STAGE

Klubnik's national breakout came in the 2022 ACC Championship Game against North Carolina. He entered the game on Clemson's third possession and completed 20-of-24 passes for 279 yards and a passing touchdown and added seven carries for 30 yards and a rushing touchdown. His 83.3 completion percentage set an ACC Championship Game record and led to his selection as the game's Most Valuable Player in Clemson's 39-10 victory. He became the third freshman (and second true freshman) in the game's history to earn the honor.

300+ IN FIRST CAREER START

In the 2022 Orange Bowl, Cade Klubnik completed 30-of-54 passes for 320 yards and also rushed 20 times for 51 yards with a touchdown. His 74 plays of total offense (combined rush attempts and pass attempts) were the fifth-most by an individual in Clemson history.

Klubnik's 320 yards were the fourth-most by a Clemson quarterback making his first career start since 1953, as he became only the fourth Clemson quarterback to exceed 300 passing yards in their first start.

Klubnik became the first Clemson freshman quarterback on record to make his starting debut in postseason play. He also became the first Clemson quarterback to make his first career start against an AP Top 6 opponent since Brandon Streeter did so against No. 5 Florida State in 1997.

Klubnik became only the eighth true freshman to start at quarterback for Clemson since the NCAA instituted permanent freshman eligibility in 1972, joining Steve Fuller (1975), Willie Jordan (1975), Patrick Sapp (1992), Nealon Greene (1994), Deshaun Watson (2014), Trevor Lawrence (2018) and DJ Uiagalelei (2020).

100-YARD RUSHING GAMES

After recording one 100-yard rushing game in 2022 and one in 2023, running back Phil Mafah has reached the century mark in rushing yards in six games in 2024.

After being held to 59 yards in the opener, he recorded 100 yards in four of Clemson's next five contests, becoming the first Clemson player to reach 100 yards in four games in a five-game span since Travis Etienne rushed for 100 yards in a school-record six straight games in 2019.

Mafah's six 100-yard games this season are the sixth-most in a season in school history.

MAFAH MAN'S CAREER DAY I

Mild-mannered but hard-running, Mafah was long referenced as part of a one-two punch at running back alongside his then-roommate Will Shipley for most of his career. But with Shipley out with a concussion against No. 12 Notre Dame in early November in 2023, Mafah moved from a co-starring role to featured status and ran with the opportunity.

Technically, he ran with the opportunity a school-record-tying 36 times.

Mafah recorded a career-high 186 rushing yards on those 36 carries with two rushing touchdowns in the 31-23 win against the Irish. His 36 carries tied the school record shared by Jim Shirley (36 against NC State in 1951), Ray Yauger (36 against Wake Forest in 1969) and Raymond Priester (36 against Maryland in 1997).

Mafah's 186 yards were the most by a Clemson player since Kobe Pace's 191-yard rushing performance against Wake Forest in 2021. It was the first 150-yard rushing game by a Clemson player since Shipley's 172-yard rushing performance against Syracuse in 2022.

"I knew going into the game that I would probably have to take a bigger load so I just came in with a mindset that whatever carries I get, I'm going to try to make the most out of each and every one," Mafah said following the defeat of Notre Dame. "I'm just glad that included a win for us."

Mafah, dubbed "Mafah Man" by Running Backs Coach C.J. Spiller, recorded then-career highs in rushing attempts (179), rushing yards (965), rushing touchdowns (13), receptions (21) and receiving yards (108) in 506 snaps over 13 games (five starts) in 2023.

MAFAH MAN'S CAREER DAY II

Mafah earned Most Valuable Player honors for the 2023 Gator Bowl after scoring a career-high four rushing touchdowns on 11 carries against Kentucky. His four rushing touchdowns in the game broke the Clemson bowl record (three by Tracy Johnson vs. Penn State in the 1988 Citrus Bowl) and the Gator Bowl record (three set by many players), as he became the first Clemson player to rush for four touchdowns in a game since C.J. Spiller against Georgia Tech in the 2009 ACC Championship Game.

Three of Mafah's Gator Bowl touchdowns came in the fourth quarter, making him the first Clemson player to score three touchdowns in any single quarter since DeAndre Hopkins against Duke in 2012. He became the first Clemson player with three touchdowns in a fourth quarter since at least 1996.

10+ RUSHING TDs SINCE 2015

Mafah's 13 rushing touchdowns in 2023 gave Clemson at least one player with double-digit rushing touchdowns in a ninth consecutive season. Clemson's nine consecutive seasons with at least one player with double-digit rushing touchdowns enter 2024 as the longest active streak in the country.

BRINNY'S BIG BREAKOUT IN 2023

The departure of long-time trusted tight end Davis Allen after Allen's selection by the Los Angeles Rams in the 2023 NFL Draft created an opportunity for Briningstool in his junior season in 2023. The Nashville-area native who was the top-ranked tight end in the 2021 recruiting class that also included Brock Bowers took advantage with a career year that included a number of record-setting performances.

Briningstool recorded career highs in receptions (50), receiving yards (498) and receiving touchdowns (five) in 2023 en route to All-ACC honors.

Briningstool turned in his first signature performance of his career to date on Oct. 21 last season, catching five passes for a school-tight-end-record 126 yards with two touchdowns against Miami (Fla.). Briningstool's 126 yards were the most in a game by an ACC tight end this season and the most by an ACC tight end (per PFF designations) since Oct. 5, 2019, when Miami's Brevin Jordan had 136 yards on two more catches against Virginia Tech.

Briningstool is responsible for three of the eight 100-yard receiving games by tight ends in Clemson history. His three career 100-yard receiving games are the most by a tight end in school annals.

In Clemson's dramatic bowl win to close 2023, Briningstool gained 91 yards on nine receptions, tying the Clemson single-game school record for receptions by a tight end, matching John McMakin (vs. Florida State in 1970) and Brandon Ford (vs. LSU in 2012). His ninth reception of the game was his 50th of the season, tying the single-season school record for receptions by a tight end set by Dwayne Allen in 2011 (50).

Clemson's tight ends combined for nine catches for 130 yards and two touchdowns in its Sept. 7 win against Appalachian State, the most receiving yards by a tight end group in a game under Dabo Swinney.

-- NO. 12 WR BRYANT WESCO JR. --

LET'S GO, MR. WESCO

True freshman Bryant Wesco Jr. recorded one catch in 12 snaps in Clemson's season opener, as missed opportunities and inefficiency by Clemson — combined with a condensed contest that featured the fewest combined snaps (112) in a Clemson game since 2006 — limited his involvement in his collegiate debut. Afterward, Clemson's coaches vowed to involve him more the following week.

Consider that vow fulfilled.

In his second career game, Wesco caught three passes for 130 yards and a touchdown against Appalachian State, tying the Clemson record for the fewest games needed to record a 100-yard receiving game.

SportSource Analytics produces an Offensive Line Efficiency metric that takes into account tackle for loss percentages, sack percentages, percentages of rushes gaining 4+ yards and success on third-or-fourth-and-short. Clemson among the national leaders in that total metric since 2015.

Clemson was impacted by starting six different offensive line combinations in 2023 while both trying to find its best option at left tackle and managing the long-term losses of starting guards Walker Parks and Marcus Tate. Clemson has started four combinations in 2024.

The group is under new leadership in 2024, as Clemson's added more than 20 years of coaching experience at the position in hiring new offensive line coach Matt Luke.

"He brings an incredible résumé and a wealth of experience and has worked with a bunch of great coaches and players over his career," Dabo Swinney said of Luke's hire. "I have no doubt he will be a great addition."

TRENCH WARFARE

Clemson's success in its 77-15 run since 2018 has been powered in part at the line of scrimmage, where Clemson holds a 291-149 edge over opponents in sacks in that time frame. Clemson's +142 margin in sacks since 2018 is the highest differential in the country.

BARRETT CARTER

Though Clemson lost two-time All-America linebacker Jeremiah Trotter Jr. to the 2024 NFL Draft, Clemson's linebacking corps received a boost when 2023 All-ACC selection Barrett Carter opted to return for his senior season. Carter is now one of nine semifinalists for the 2024 Lott IMPACT Trophy.

"He's one of the best football players in my 20 years at Clemson," Swinney said. "He's a pure football player. I mean, the guy can play anywhere. He could go play tailback, he could play corner, he can play safety, he can play Nickel/Sam, he can play Mike, he can play Will. He's special... He's so smart and he's got unbelievable instincts for the game."

Close observers of Clemson in 2022 quickly recognized Carter's impact in his first year as a starter, and Carter served notice of his arrival to the country with a signature performance against Louisville that year. Carter recorded eight tackles (3.5 for loss), two sacks, an interception and a pass breakup, becoming the first player to record 3.5 or more tackles for loss, 2.0 or more sacks and an interception in a game between two Power Five teams since South Carolina's Melvin Ingram against Auburn in 2011.

Carter finished 2022 credited by the coaching staff with 77 tackles (10.5 for loss), tied for third-most on the team, with 5.5 sacks, eight pass breakups, two interceptions and two forced fumbles in a unit-high 832 snaps over 13 games (all starts). His 832 snaps were the sixth-most by a Clemson linebacker on record.

Carter was one of only three players in the Power Five with at least 10 tackles for loss, 5.0 sacks, multiple interceptions and multiple forced fumbles in 2022. Before Carter and two others reached the marks in 2022, the last two Power Five players to reach Carter's numbers in all four categories were both Butkus Award winners: Georgia's Nakobe Dean (2021) and Clemson's Isaiah Simmons (2019).

No. 0 has also been a hero in the community. He has volunteered his time for the Our Friend Christopher organization in the memory of his late former teammate Christopher Miles, who died of a brain tumor. He also routinely reads to local elementary schools and serves as a mentor to local youth and has aspirations of one day opening a training facility for young athletes.

"I remember I was that young kid that looked up to football players," Carter said. "Now that I have the opportunity to give back, I have no choice but to do so. I just put myself in those shoes and remember when I was that kid."

CARTER'S GATOR BOWL PERFORMANCE

Carter was a star of Clemson's thrilling 38-35 Gator Bowl win against Kentucky to close the 2023 season. Clemson's ability to outscore Kentucky 28-14 in the final frame to earn the comeback win was buoyed by Clemson's four takeaways in the fourth quarter.

Trailing by five, Carter batted a Devin Leary pass into the air, spun around and dove to secure an interception that led to a Clemson field goal. On Kentucky's very next offensive play, Carter recovered a Barion Brown fumble that led to a Phil Mafah go-ahead touchdown on the following play.

Carter's performance marked the second straight game in which a Clemson defender recorded a takeaway on consecutive plays, joining Khalil Barnes' performance at South Carolina in Clemson's regular season finale. Prior to Barnes and Carter accomplishing the feat, the last time it had been accomplished was in 1995, when future Pro Football Hall of Famer Brian Dawkins accomplished the feat against Duke.

Against Kentucky, Carter was credited with five tackles, three pass breakups, an interception, a fumble recovery and a half-sack in the game, earning selection to the AP's All-Bowl Team.

OPENING A CAN OF WOODAZ

As conference and national acclaim began to accrue for Clemson's linebacking duo of Barrett Carter and Jeremiah Trotter Jr. in recent years, Dabo Swinney was quick to advise observers not to sleep on Wade Woodaz.

"He's a baller," Swinney said. "The kid is tough, physical, he can really run. He really understands the game at a high level. He played most of his [prep] career as a quarterback and as a safety, so he has a great understanding of the game. He plays really, really hard; he's a great effort guy, he's a great preparer and he loves it. He's a fun guy to coach and a fun guy to watch play because he plays the way you want everybody to play."

The first career start for versatile hybrid linebacker from Tampa actually came at safety in the 2022 ACC Championship Game. He then served as Clemson's primary Sam linebacker in the 2022 Orange Bowl.

Woodaz opened the 2023 season with a takeaway in three straight games. He recovered a muffed punt in the season opener at Duke, his second straight season opener with an impact special teams play after blocking a punt in his collegiate debut a year earlier. In Clemson's second game against Charleston Southern, he recorded his first career interception and returned it 35 yards for a touchdown to help Clemson blow the game open.

A week later against Florida Atlantic, he returned another interception 59 yards. In doing so, he became the first Clemson linebacker with an interception in consecutive games since Isaiah Simmons accomplished the feat in the ACC Championship Game and Fiesta Bowl of his Butkus Award-winning 2019 campaign.

WE SEE YOU, T.J. PARKER 👀

While preseason praise and accolades for Clemson's 2023 true freshmen defensive linemen were aimed primarily at defensive lineman Peter Woods, Woods' best friend, defensive end T.J. Parker, emphatically announced his arrival last season.

Parker's production behind the line of scrimmage in 2023 was the best by a first-year freshman in school history.

Parker tied for the national lead in tackles for loss among freshmen in 2023 with 12.5. Additionally, his 5.5 sacks ranked fourth nationally (and second in power conferences) among freshmen.

Parker initially committed to Penn State but coveted a Clemson offer. He decommitted from the Nittany Lions in hopes of soliciting Clemson, and Clemson's 2023 recruiting class immediately went to work.

"CV [Christopher Vizzina], Peter and a few other guys on the team, they hit me up with the eyes emoji on Instagram," Parker said. "It was like, 'You know what time it is.' I texted Coach Ski [Then-Clemson Defensive Ends Coach Lemanski Hall] the eyes emoji, the same thing they sent me, and from there we got in contact and a few days later they offered and I committed."

PARKER'S RECORD DAY

Through nine games in 2024, Parker was having a nice sophomore campaign with 8.5 tackles for loss, 5.0 sacks and three forced fumbles. Parker then put together one of the most dominant defensive performances in school history in Clemson's 10th game, collecting seven tackles, 5.0 tackles for loss, a school-record-tying 4.0 sacks, his fourth forced fumble of the season and a pass breakup.

SAMMY'S SENSATIONAL START

Linebacker Sammy Brown arrived at Clemson in January 2024 as a consensus Top 30 player in his recruiting class and as the nation's reigning High School Butkus Award winner.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney praised Brown as an "alpha," but spoke frequently about Brown's learning curve at the linebacker position after playing both running back and linebacker at Jefferson High School in Commerce, Ga. The linebacker tabbed as 247Sports' No. 1 "freak athlete" in the 2024 recruiting class has had the benefit of learning behind and aside veteran All-ACC and All-America candidates Barrett Carter and Wade Woodaz this season.

In addition to immediately earning a role on special teams, Brown saw extended action at linebacker in runaway wins against App State, NC State and Stanford in September, combining for 30 tackles (as credited by gameday stat crews), 5.5 tackles for loss, 2.0 sacks and two pass breakups in reserve in those three contests.

After Clemson opened its first eight games in two-linebacker sets, Brown earned his first start at Virginia Tech on Nov. 9 as Clemson opened the game with three linebackers. The former five-star prospect delivered, recording a team-high eight tackles (per the gameday stat crew) with 2.5 tackles for loss and a sack.

"Sammy's been getting better and better and better and it was awesome to see him have that type of game," Swinney said after Brown's performance at Virginia Tech. "He's just a confident young man, and, boy, he's got a bright future ahead of him. He's going to be a great one."

Despite playing only 210 defensive snaps this season, Brown ranks second in the nation in tackles for loss by freshmen.

WHO'S YOUR HAUSER?

Placekicker Nolan Hauser arrived at Clemson in January 2024 as the national high school record-holder for career field goals made (66) during his career at Hough High School in Cornelius, N.C. As one of two scholarship kickers on the roster, he earned Clemson's starting placekicker job coming out of fall camp.

Hauser (pronounced HOO-zer, not HOW-zer) opened his career with a streak of 25 consecutive made kicks (five field goals & 20 PATs) before a blocked PAT against Stanford in game four accounted for his first miss.

A week later at Florida State, Hauser made five field goals and accounted for 17 total points in Clemson's 16-point road win. The five-field-goal performance by Hauser was Clemson's first since Chandler Catanzaro went 5-for-5 on field goal attempts against Boston College in 2011. It was the seventh five-field-goal performance by a kicker in Clemson history.

	Nelson Welch	1994	North Carolina	5
	Chandler Catanzaro	2011	Boston College	5
	Nolan Hauser	2024	Florida State	5

On Nov. 9, Hauser's six points against Virginia Tech gave him the school record for points in a true freshman season, breaking the previous mark of 78 set by Sammy Watkins in 2011.

Hauser is a second-generation Clemson student-athlete. His mother, Sheri Hauser (née Bueter), was an All-American soccer player at Clemson from 1994-97, and his father, Scott, played baseball at Clemson in 1996 and 1997 and was 6-2 as a pitcher on Clemson's College World Series team of 1996. His sister, Ella, is also currently a member of Clemson's women's soccer team.

SWANSON'S SURGE

Punter Aidan Swanson returned for his sixth year at Clemson in 2024 following a breakout campaign in his second year as Clemson's starting punter in 2023.

Last year, he improved his punting average from 2022 by roughly a yard-and-a-half and nearly doubled the rate at which he was pinning opponents inside the 20.

AIDAN SWANSON, SEASONS AS A STARTER

Season	Punts	Avg.	Long	I20	I20%
2022	62	42.3	67	16	25.8%
2023	61	43.7	62	28	45.9%
2024	40	42.4	54	14	35.0%

Swanson's 28 punts downed inside the 20 in 2023 tied Bradley Pinion's school record for punts inside the 20 in a single season (28 in 2014).

Swanson's 2023 punting average of 43.67 yards ranked fifth in a season in Clemson history and was only the second average of 43+ yards by a Clemson punter since the turn of the century. He also recorded a 41.98-yard net punting average according to the NCAA formula for the metric, the second-best mark in school history behind Dale Hatcher's 42.4 in 1984.

SEMINAL SWANSON SHOWINGS

Vs. Florida State (2023): Swanson had a career day against Florida State on Sept. 23. His 53.2-yard average was a single-game high for his career, surpassing his 52.5-yard average against Syracuse in 2022. It was the best average by a Clemson punter with a minimum of three punts since Will Spiers' 53.6-yard average against Syracuse in 2020.

Swanson's four punts in that game included a 60-yarder in the first quarter and a 62-yarder in the third quarter. He joined Pittsburgh's Daniel Sparks (2022), Wake Forest's Dom Maggio (2019) and Miami's Pat O'Donnell (2013) as the only ACC players since 2008 with multiple 60-yard punts in a single game, according to Stats Perform.

Vs. Notre Dame (2023): Swanson placed a then-career-high five of his six punts inside the 20 against the Irish. It was the most punts placed inside the 20 by a Clemson punter since Will Spiers in the National Championship Game to end the 2019 season (five vs. LSU), earning Swanson ACC Specialist of the Week honors.

At South Carolina (2023): Swanson immediately tied that mark for punts inside the 20 in the regular season finale, dropping five punts inside the 20 in a nine-point win against South Carolina.

At Virginia Tech (2024): After having four punts downed inside the 20 in the season's first eight games, Swanson placed a season-high four of his five punts at Virginia Tech inside the 20 in a 10-point win.

At Pitt (2024): Swanson recorded a career-high six punts downed inside the 20 in Clemson's four-point comeback win. His six punts inside the 20 were one shy of the school record in the category of seven set by Kevin Laird in the 1996 Peach Bowl against LSU.

THE OTHER SWINNEY DYNASTY

Like the Colquitt family punting at Tennessee, the Swinney family holding for placekicks at Clemson has become a dynasty of its own.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's oldest son, Will, arrived at Clemson in 2017 and immediately earned Clemson's starting holder position on placekicks. He played five seasons and a record-tying 69 games at Clemson through 2021. In those five seasons, Clemson scored 565 points on placekicks, including field goals and PATs, and he held for 555 of those 565 points. The only 10 Clemson kicking points not held by Will in his career were instead held by his brother, Drew, who was Clemson's starter at the position in 2022.

Will and Drew were succeeded by the youngest of the three Swinney boys, Clay, a redshirt sophomore who entered his second season as Clemson's starting holder in 2024. Clay's presence creates a plausible scenario in which every Clemson placekick in a full 10-year span from 2017-26 could be held by a Swinney.

Clemson's last hold by any player outside the Swinney family was on the final point of Clemson's 2016 national championship, as Seth Ryan, coincidentally also the son of a famous long-time coach (Rex Ryan), held the PAT following Hunter Renfrow's game-winning touchdown with one second remaining.

Note: Listed points only reflect kicking points on held field goals or PATs. Will Swinney scored 12 additional points, six via receiving touchdown on offense and six via rushing touchdown on a fake field goal; Drew Swinney scored two additional points on a fake PAT.

Clemson's Sept. 28 win against Stanford marked Clemson's 100th consecutive game with a Swinney as holder, a game that ironically resulted in Dabo Swinney's 100th career home win at Memorial Stadium. The family crossed 800 kicking points held for in the contest as well.

CONFERENCE PLAY IN REVIEW

Clemson concluded ACC regular season play on Nov. 16 with a thrilling 24-20 win at Pitt. The Tigers presently sit in second place in the ACC with a 7-1 conference record and are in the clubhouse with seven conference wins while awaiting other teams in contention to finish conference play.

This season marked Clemson's 11th in school history with seven or more ACC wins, joining the 1983, 2012, 2013, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020 and 2022 campaigns.

Clemson has 10 seasons with seven or more conference wins since Dabo Swinney was hired as the full-time coach prior to the 2009 season, more than double any other ACC program in that span.

TURNOVER TURNAROUND

Amid Clemson's frustrating 4-4 start to the 2023 season, Head Coach Dabo Swinney was running out of descriptors to explain Clemson's maddening penchant for turning the ball over — and doing so catastrophically.

This season, Clemson has been one of the nation's best teams at protecting the football. The Tigers rank tied for the second-fewest giveaways in the nation (six) and tied for eighth in turnover margin (+12).

EXPLOSIVENESS IS BACK

From 2018-20, Clemson strung together its three best seasons in school history in yards per play while accumulating a 39-3 record and three College Football Playoff berths. In the three years to follow, Clemson's explosiveness dropped from an average of seventh nationally to an average of 91st.

The Tigers have taken a significant jump nationally in yards per play and scrimmage plays of various distances.

FIRST HALF IN REVIEW

Head Coach Dabo Swinney often likes to break the 12-game regular season into three-game "quarters" for his team. Clemson finished the first quarter of its 2024 regular season 2-1, but Clemson responded resoundingly to a disappointing loss to Georgia in the season opener. Clemson then went a resounding 3-0 in its "second quarter," including a home win against Stanford and two road wins at Florida State and Wake Forest.

Clemson's first quarter was powered largely by two of Clemson's most explosive offensive performances in recent memory. Clemson scored 66 points on 712 yards against App State (9.8 yards per play) and scored 59 points on 523 yards against NC State (7.8 yards per play) in blowout victories. In doing so, Clemson scored 59 or more points in back-to-back games for only the third time in school history.

Despite being held to three points in its season opener, Clemson's scored 246 points through its first six games this season, the fifth-most through six games in school history.

2.	2000	272
3.	2018	253
4.	2012	248
5.	2024	246

Clemson drew Georgia to a 0-0 stalemate after one quarter in the opener and then proceeded to run out to first quarter leads of 35-0 and 28-0 against App State and NC State, respectively. According to ESPN, Clemson became the first FBS team in the last 20 seasons to lead by 28 or more points after the first quarter of consecutive games.

Clemson did not surrender a point in a first quarter this season until Wake Forest scored a touchdown with 1:32 remaining in the first quarter of Clemson's sixth game. Clemson held opponents scoreless in the first quarter of each of the first five games of a season for the first time since 1990 and played 88:28 of game time in first quarters this season before allowing a first-quarter point.

Clemson has outscored opponents 107-20 in the first quarter of games this season. Clemson's first quarter scoring differential of +8.70 points ranks third nationally.

DEFEATS IN REVIEW

Clemson has lost 19 games since 2015. Eight of Clemson's 19 losses since 2015 — more than 42 percent — have come against AP Top 5 teams.

The opponents to whom Clemson has lost since 2015 have a combined final record of 183-58, a winning percentage of .759. Clemson has not lost to a team that finished with a losing record since 2017 and has not lost to a team with a losing record at the time of the game since losing to 2-5 Boston College in 2010, Dabo Swinney's second full season as head coach.

Under Swinney, Clemson is also 36-7 in games in which it enters ranked lower in the AP Poll than it did in its previous contest. This includes the 2014, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2021 season openers in which Clemson opened the season lower than its ranking from the final game of the previous campaign.

WINNING ONE-SCORE GAMES

Since 2011, the Tigers have played 50 games with a final margin of eight or fewer points, and Clemson's .780 winning percentage in those one-possession contests is the best in the country in that time frame.

According to traditional accounting, Clemson entered the spring of 2024 returning 11 of its 22 primary offensive and defensive starters from 2023. However, Clemson has 33 different players (including K/P/LS) who have started at least one game during their Clemson careers, including 18 of the team's 22 starters from last year's season-ending Gator Bowl win.

Clemson's 33 players with at least one career start prior to this season combined for 740 career game appearances and 340 career starts through 2023.

OFFENSIVE BALANCE

Clemson has fielded one of the nation's most balanced offenses since 2018, averaging 261 passing yards per game and 193 rushing yards per game from 2018-23. Clemson was one of only seven power conference teams to average at least 250 passing yards and at least 190 rushing yards on a per-game basis in that span.

Clemson was perfect when exceeding both 200 rushing yards and 200 passing yards — 58-0 under Swinney and 108-0-1 all-time — until a defeat at Duke to open the 2023 season in which the Tigers reached the double-century mark in both categories. The defeat was also a statistical anomaly nationally, as from 2014 through the 2023 season opener, there had been 1,789 instances in which an FBS team had passed for 200-plus yards, rushed for 200-plus yards and given up 28 or fewer points in a single game. Teams who accomplished all three metrics were a combined 1748-41 (97.7 percent).

The anomaly struck again in 2024 when Clemson reached 200 yards in both categories in a loss to Louisville. After Clemson's loss in that game, FBS teams who, like Clemson, reached 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards while also producing 30+ first downs and no turnovers were a combined 326-21 (93.9 percent) since 2000.

Clemson's 33 games reaching both 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards since the start of the 2018 season are among the most in the country.

OWNING THE "MIDDLE EIGHT"

Since 2015, Clemson has frequently won one of the hidden "games within the game" on each side of halftime. SportSource Analytics tracks the "Middle Eight," the section of the game defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Clemson has outscored opponents in that time window 76 times since 2015, posting a 74-2 record in those contests.

The approach to creating functional depth and rewarding players ready to play has been a key philosophy for Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose own collegiate playing career was hatched as a walk-on fighting for playing time in Alabama's receiving corps.

"We're fully committed to playing guys who deserve to play," Swinney said. "You commit to a guy early in the season, and even if a guy has only played 10 percent of the snaps, when you get to game eight or nine, they've got some good experience."

Clemson has played 100+ players in a game five times under Dabo Swinney, including a 106-player effort against App State on Sept. 7. Two weeks later, Clemson set its Swinney-era record for most players played against a power conference opponent when 96 players appeared against NC State.

FINISH

In 2018, Clemson debuted a new version of its "This is Why We Work" fourth quarter video at Death Valley, a hype video imploring the team to finish and featuring Director of Strength and Conditioning Joey Batson bellowing:

"Let me tell you something right now: they don't put championship rings on smooth hands! You gotta go earn it! You gotta go earn it six seconds at a time! You win championships when the stadium is empty, when the band ain't playing, when the cheerleaders ain't cheering, when it's just you and your brothers right beside you. That's when you win championships! In the fourth quarter, that is when we shine!"

The video and the speech became a part of Clemson lore, buoyed by its playing during Clemson's comeback win against Syracuse that year en route to a 15-0 national championship season. Over the years, the video has changed but the speech remains the same, with many Clemson fans yelling it in unison as it plays.

Clemson holds a 143-4 record since 2011 when leading after three quarters. And though Head Coach Dabo Swinney frequently reiterates the phrase, "There is nothing less important than the score at halftime," Clemson ranks tied for the national lead since 2017 in both A) number of games leading at halftime and B) winning percentage in those games.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

- Entering the 2024 fall semester, of the 381 eligible players who completed their athletic eligibility at Clemson and/or graduated early in Dabo Swinney's 15+ full years as head coach, 375 (98.4 percent) have earned a degree during their time at Clemson.

- Clemson broke program multi-year APR records in three straight years from 2017-19 (987 in 2016-17, 992 in 2017-18 and 993 in 2018-19) before the NCAA suspended APR reporting during the COVID-19 pandemic. Upon reinstatement of APR reporting in June 2022, Clemson shattered its multi-year APR record with a 999 covering the 2017-18 through 2020-21 academic years.

- Most recently, Clemson posted a 995 multi-year APR covering 2019-20 through 2022-23, fifth-best in the FBS. Clemson's lofty academic success in that period coincided with on-field excellence that included three ACC titles, two College Football Playoff berths and a national championship game berth.

- Clemson, Air Force and Northwestern are the only FBS programs to produce a 990+ multi-year APR in each of the last five reported cycles.

- Clemson was the only program in the country to finish among the Top 25 in APR rate among FBS schools and the AP Top 25 in all 12 years covering the 2011-22 seasons. Clemson finished in the AP Top 25 in 2023 as well and is awaiting APR reporting for that academic year.

- Prior to the suspension of APR Public Recognition Awards following the COVID-19 pandemic, the NCAA recognized Clemson with its annual honor, which is bestowed upon programs ranking in the Top 10 percent of their respective sports, for nine of the award's last 10 reported academic cycles. Only 37 of the 130 FBS programs earned at least one APR recognition across the 2009-10 through 2018-19 academic years. Only 30 programs earned it multiple times. Clemson, Duke and Northwestern were the only ones to earn the award 9+ times in that 10-year span.

- With its award for the 2018-19 academic year, Clemson became the only FBS program since the NCAA created the APR metric in 2003 to win a national championship and an APR Public Recognition Award in the same year multiple times. Alabama is the only other school to accomplish the title/APR double in a single year once (2011-12 academic year).

Clemson earned a team 3.03 GPA during the 2023 season, the second-highest fall GPA in program history and its fourth semester in a row with a team GPA of 3.0 or better. A total of 87 individuals earned a 3.0 GPA or better, the second-highest number of 3.0+ GPAs in program history. That included 18 perfect 4.0s.

- Clemson has had 80+ individuals earn a 3.0 or better GPA in five consecutive semesters.

HISTORIC GRADUATION SUCCESS RATE

Aided in part by a historically elite academic performance by Clemson Football, Clemson Athletics topped the nation among public power conference institutions in Graduation Success Rate (GSR) with a 97 percent mark for the 2013-16 cohort in data released by the NCAA in December 2023. Clemson Football set a new program record of 99 percent, which led all of Division I.

Football's 99 percent mark was the highest GSR score for any power conference football program since the 2018-19 release, and the highest ever recorded among public power conference football programs in the 19 years the NCAA has tracked the metric. The previous GSR record for a public power conference program was 96 by multiple schools.

CHURNING OUT NFL TALENT

Since assuming the head role midseason in 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has produced 83 NFL draft picks during his head coaching tenure (plus an additional supplemental draft selection). His 83 draft picks produced are the most by any coach in the nation since the 2009 NFL Draft, and his 18 first-rounders are the third-most overall and most of any active coach in that span.

In recent years, Clemson has been the NFL's primary provider of first-round talent among defensive linemen and linebackers. Clemson's nine first-round picks from its defensive front seven since the 2015 NFL Draft rank first in the nation.

Additional nuggets on Clemson's recent success in the NFL Draft are included below:

– Clemson has produced at least five selections five times in the last six NFL Drafts, including six selections in 2019, seven selections in 2020, five selections in 2021, six in 2023 and six in 2024. Clemson has produced at least five picks nine times in the last 11 drafts; only Alabama (11) and Ohio State (10) have done so more times in that span.

– Clemson has now had at least one first-round draft choice in 10 of the last 12 years, standing alongside Alabama, Florida, Georgia and Ohio State as the only programs to produce a first-round pick in at least 10 of the last 12 years.

– Clemson has produced at least one Top 50 pick in 17 of the last 19 NFL Drafts, dating to 2006. The only drafts in that span in which Clemson did not produce a Top 50 pick were in 2009 and 2018. Florida (18), Clemson (17), Alabama (17), Ohio State (17) and USC

(17) are the only schools to enter the 2024 NFL Draft having produced at least one Top 50 pick in at least 17 of the last 19 NFL Drafts.

– Since 2013, Clemson has produced first-round picks from the QB, RB, WR, DE, DT, LB and DB position groups. The only other school with at least one first-rounder at all those positions in that span is Alabama.

– Clemson has had at least one player chosen by 30 of the 32 NFL franchises since 2003. Head Coach Dabo Swinney has produced a draft pick for 28 of the 32 NFL teams in his head coaching tenure.

– Clemson has had at least one player selected in 22 consecutive drafts since 2003, representing the second-longest streak in school history behind a 24-year streak across the 1951-74 NFL Drafts.

– Clemson is one of only six schools to have produced multiple draft picks in each of the last 22 NFL Drafts (LSU, Michigan, Oklahoma, Ohio State and USC).

Note: For listing purposes, Clemson chose to progress classes as though 2020 was a normal year of eligibility. For example, players listed as redshirt senior in 2024 following a "redshirt year" in 2020 may not have officially redshirted in 2020, but would have qualified for one in a normal year. Clemson denotes extra years of eligibility on the back end of players' careers (i.e.: "Super Seniors" in 2024 are listed with the "+Sr." designation).

CLEMSON	3
GEORGIA	34

AUG. 31, 2024
MERCEDES-BENZ STADIUM • ATLANTA, GA.

ATLANTA — No. 1 Georgia used a 28-3 second half run to pull away No. 14 Clemson, 34-3, in the Aflac Kickoff Game at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta.

Linebacker Wade Woodaz led Clemson with a career-high eight tackles (seven solo, one for loss), while sophomore defensive lineman Peter Woods added a career-high 2.5 tackles for loss. Antonio Williams led Clemson's offense with six receptions for 76 yards.

The game was scoreless after the first quarter, as the teams traded punts on each of the game's first five possessions. Second-quarter field goals of 30 and 55 yards by Peyton Woodring gave Georgia a 6-0 halftime edge. The tightly contested first half featured only 50 combined plays from scrimmage, 10 combined first downs and eight combined punts.

Georgia extended its lead to 13-0 on the opening possession of the second half when Carson Beck found Colbie Young for a seven-yard touchdown. Clemson scored on its first possession of the second half when freshman Nolan Hauser made a 26-yard field goal, the first of his collegiate career, to cut the lead to 13-3. However, Georgia extended its advantage to 20-3 with 3:15 remaining in the third quarter on a one-yard touchdown run by Nate Frazier.

Georgia's London Humphreys added a 40-yard touchdown reception on a pass from Beck with 9:57 to play in the fourth quarter to make the score 27-3 in favor of the Bulldogs. An interception by Georgia's Malaki Starks — the game's lone takeaway — set up Cash Jones to cap the ensuing Georgia drive with a 15-yard rushing touchdown, pushing the final score to 34-3.

CLEMSON	66

SEPT. 7, 2024
MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. — Clemson scored a touchdown on each of its first eight possessions of the first half to ride a 35-0 first quarter lead and 56-13 halftime edge to a 66-20 win against Appalachian State in Death Valley.

Cade Klubnik earned Walter Camp National Offensive Player of the Week and Davey O'Brien National Quarterback of the Week for his performance in which he completed 24-of-26 passes for 378 yards and five passing touchdowns and rushed for two additional touchdowns in only one half of play. According to ESPN, he became the only FBS player win the last 25 years to record five passing touchdowns, two rushing touchdowns and a completion rate of 90 percent or better in a game.

Clemson's 712 yards of offense were the sixth-most in school history. That total included a school-record 525 yards in the first half. Clemson's 35 first-quarter points were the most in a first quarter in school history, and its 56 first-half points were a modern record for the program.

Clemson recorded its first game with a 300-yard passer (Klubnik), a 100-yard rusher (Phil Mafah) and two 100-yard receivers (Bryant Wesco Jr. & Jake Briningstool) since 2012 against NC State when Clemson had a 300-yard passer (Tajh Boyd), two 100-yard rushers (Andre Ellington and Tajh Boyd) and two 100-yard receivers (Sammy Watkins and Brandon Ford).

MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. - Head Coach Dabo Swinney earned his 100th home win as Clemson defeated Stanford, 40-10, at Death Valley in the teams' first matchup as conference foes.

Quarterback Cade Klubnik completed 15-of-31 passes for 255 yards with four passing touchdowns and added seven carries for 48 yards with a rushing touchdown. Wide receiver Bryant Wesco Jr. caught two passes for a team-high 104 yards and a touchdown.

After Clemson turned Stanford over on downs on the game's opening possession, the Tigers opened the scoring on a 34-yard touchdown scramble by Klubnik. Red zone interceptions by Avieon Terrell and Jeadyn Lukus and a 20-yard Nolan Hauser field goal gave Clemson a 10-0 first-quarter lead. The teams traded second-quarter touchdowns to make the game 17-7 at the half.

Clemson pulled away in the second half thanks to three of Klubnik's four passing touchdowns on the day. Wide receiver Cole Turner and tight end Olsen Patt-Henry each recorded their first career receiving touchdowns, as the former rose up to haul in a 43-yard pass from Klubnik and the latter snagged a two-yard Klubnik throw in the end zone. Wesco scored on a 34-yard catch-and-run and joined Sammy Watkins as the only players in Clemson history to record multiple 100-yard receiving games in the first four games of a career.
