MEDIA INFORMATION

DABO SWINNEY PRESS CONFERENCE
 Head Coach Dabo Swinney typically holds his weekly press conference at the Smart Family Media Center in the Clemson Athletic Branding Institute on Tuesday of game weeks at 11 a.m. All of Swinney's Tuesday press conferences will be streamed (no login required) on Clemson+.

STUDENT-ATHLETE INTERVIEWS
 On typical game weeks, press conferences with select Clemson student-athletes will be held in the Smart Family Media Center on Tuesdays (11:45 a.m. to 2 p.m.) and Wednesdays (11 a.m. to 2 p.m.). Contact Ross Taylor and Brian Hennessy prior to the start of business hours on Monday with special requests for the week.

ASSISTANT COACH PRESS CONFERENCES
 Select assistant coaches are tentatively scheduled to speak during availability windows on weeks of the following games:
 - OC Garrett Riley: LSU, Open Date 1, Duke, Furman
 - DC Tom Allen: LSU, Syracuse, Open Date 2, Florida State
 - Others: Nick Eason (GT), Matt Luke (UNC), Mike Reed (BC)

REMOTE ACCESS
 Clemson will conduct hybrid in-person and Zoom availabilities throughout the regular season. Media members wishing to participate in Tuesday and Wednesday availabilities with coaches and players may reach out to Ross Taylor to request a Zoom link and passcode.

SWINNEY SUNDAY TELECONFERENCE
 Head Coach Dabo Swinney will hold an audio conference call on Zoom on Sundays at 6 p.m. after most games. Contact Ross Taylor to request access to the call.

GAME CREDENTIALS
 Media wishing to apply for credentials to cover Clemson Football games at Memorial Stadium must apply at www.sportssystem.com/clemson. Credentials for each game will open two weeks prior to each contest; no season-long credentials will be issued.
 All credentialing decisions are made in accordance with the Clemson University Athletics Media Credential Policy, available at ClemsonTigers.com/mediapolicy. Credential requests for home games must be submitted before noon ET on the Wednesday prior to the game.

CLEMSON TO HOST SYRACUSE SATURDAY AT MEMORIAL STADIUM

Clemson will play its final contest of September on Saturday, Sept. 20 when the Tigers host the Syracuse Orange. Kickoff at Memorial Stadium in Clemson is set for noon ET on ESPN.

Clemson will seek to rebound from a last-second defeat in the Tigers' conference opener at Georgia Tech last week. Clemson overcame a 13-point second-quarter deficit and a seven-point fourth-quarter deficit in the contest, but a 55-yard walk-off field goal gave the Yellow Jackets the victory. The defeat marked Clemson's first time losing in the final seconds of regulation since Pitt defeated Clemson's 2016 national championship team on a field goal with six seconds to play.

Despite Clemson's 1-2 start, several key contributors emerged through the regular season's first quarter. This past offseason, Clemson sought a transfer at defensive end that could provide instant impact, and the Tigers have received what they sought in the form of junior Will Heldt. After spending his first two seasons at Purdue, Heldt leads Clemson in sacks (2.0) and tackles for loss (5.0) this season. He has recorded multiple tackles for loss in each of Clemson's last two games.

Offensively, wide receiver Bryant Wesco Jr. has reached 100 receiving yards in each of the last two weeks, becoming the first Clemson player to cross the century mark in receiving in back-to-back games since Cornell Powell in 2020. Wesco is tied for second nationally this season with two 100-yard receiving games, and his 310 receiving yards are four yards off the conference lead held by SMU's Romello Brinson.

Last week's contest represented the 15th game of Wesco's young career. The sophomore has recorded 59 career receptions for 1,018 yards with eight receiving touchdowns. Last week, he joined Sammy Watkins (1,295), Artavis Scott (1,153) and Justyn Ross (1,000) as the fourth Clemson player ever to reach 1,000 receiving yards in the first 15 games of their careers. Among those notable names, only Ross completed the feat on fewer receptions than Wesco's 59, as Ross recorded exactly 1,000 receiving yards on 46 catches in Clemson's 15-0 national title season in 2018.

NOTES

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

- Clemson attempting to improve to 39-10 in games following a loss under Dabo Swinney, including season openers following a loss in the previous season finale.

- Clemson entering this week as one of two teams in the country to have already faced two teams ranked in the top 20 of this week's AP Poll (No. 3 LSU and No. 18 Georgia Tech). The other is 0-2 Notre Dame (No. 4 Miami and No. 10 Texas A&M).

- Clemson attempting to improve to 11-2 all-time against Syracuse.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 6-0 all-time against Syracuse in games played at Death Valley. Syracuse would become the fourth opponent against which Clemson has an undefeated home record of 6-0 or better (9-0 vs. Wofford, 6-0 vs. Appalachian State and 6-0 vs. Newberry).

- Clemson attempting to win a seventh straight game against Syracuse to add to the longest streak by either team in series history.

- Clemson attempting to make Syracuse the seventh different opponent against which Clemson would have an active winning streak of seven or more games.

LONGEST ACTIVE CLEMSON WINNING STREAKS VS. OPPONENTS

Rk	Opponent	Wins	Year Started
1.	Furman	32	1938
2.	The Citadel	19	1932
3.	Wake Forest	16	2009
4.	Presbyterian	15	1944
5.	Boston College	12	2011
6.	Virginia Tech	7	2011
7.	Syracuse	6	2018
Five other teams tied		6

- Clemson attempting to improve to 72-6 at Death Valley in the College Football Playoff era. Clemson's current 71-6 home record is the third-best in the country in that span.

- Clemson playing its final game before the first of its two scheduled open dates of the 2025 regular season.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 44-21-2 in games prior to regular season open dates since joining the ACC in 1953. Clemson would improve to 17-2 in those games since 2012.

- Clemson facing Syracuse Head Coach Frank Brown for the first time. Brown is one of four head coaches slated to face Clemson for the first time this season (Troy's Gerad Parker, North Carolina's Bill Belichick and Boston College's Bill O'Brien).

- Clemson attempting to improve to 171-75-3 all-time (and 54-9 since 2011) when facing a coach for the first time.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 80-11 against ACC opponents, including postseason play, since 2015.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 142-20 against AP-unranked teams under Dabo Swinney and improve to 119-10 in those games since the start of the 2012 season.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 105-17 in regular season play since the start of the 2015 season.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney (181-49) entering the game as one of seven coaches in FBS history to win 180 games within the first 20 seasons of a head coaching career. In only his 18th season (and 17th full season), Swinney trails only Tom Osborne (195), Nick Saban (191), Bob Stoops (191), Joe Paterno (187), Urban Meyer (187) and LaVell Edwards (183) in that category. (Note: Stoops and Meyer are not credited on the NCAA's official list of most wins through 20 seasons since they did not coach 20 years.)

- Swinney attempting to improve to 11-1 against Syracuse. Syracuse is one of six teams against which Swinney has earned at least 10 career victories (Wake Forest, Boston College, Georgia Tech, NC State and Florida State).

- Clemson entering the game having not lost the turnover margin in back-to-back games since a three-game streak in October 2023. Clemson lost the turnover margin last week and has lost the turnover margin only twice in its last 22 games.

- Clemson (99) attempting to gain 400 yards to become the fourth team in the nation to reach 400 yards in 100 total games since 2015, joining Oklahoma (105), Ohio State (102) and Alabama (101).

- Clemson attempting to produce a 100-yard receiver in three consecutive games for the first time since 2020 (Travis Etienne & Cornell Powell against Boston College, Powell against Notre Dame and Pitt).

- Clemson entering the game having scored at least one rushing touchdown in a national-best 90 of its 99 games since the start of the 2018 season. Clemson has also rushed for multiple touchdowns in a national-best 73 games in that span.

- Clemson entering the game having rushed for a touchdown in 62 consecutive home games, the nation's longest active streak. The last team to hold Clemson without a rushing touchdown in Death Valley was Troy in 2016.

- Clemson attempting to hold consecutive opponents without a sack for the first time since 2021 against Wake Forest and South Carolina.

- Clemson (1,485) needing 15 tackles for loss to become the first program in the country to reach 1,500 total tackles for loss since the start of the 2012 season.

- Linebacker Sammy Brown attempting to record a sack in back-to-back games for the first time in his career.

- Defensive end Will Heldt attempting to become the first Clemson player with 2.0 or more tackles for loss in three straight games since Jeremiah Trotter Jr. in November 2023.

- Quarterback Cade Klubnik (20-11) attempting to tie Mike Eppley (21-5-1) and Steve Fuller (21-11-3) for the ninth-most career wins by a Clemson starting quarterback since World War II.

- Klubnik (seven) attempting to throw for 300 yards to tie Charlie Whitehurst (eight from 2002-05) for the fourth-most career 300-yard passing games in Clemson history.

- Klubnik (8,656) needing 143 combined passing and rushing yards to surpass Woodrow Dantzler (8,798) to enter the Top 5 in Clemson history in career yards of total offense.

- Klubnik (74) attempting to throw or score one touchdown to become the fifth player in Clemson history to be responsible for 75 career touchdowns, joining Tajh Boyd (133), Deshaun Watson (116), Trevor Lawrence (108) and Travis Etienne (78).

- Klubnik (74) needing four touchdowns to tie or five touchdowns to pass Travis Etienne (78) for fourth on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career touchdown responsibility (touchdowns thrown and/or scored).

- Klubnik attempting to rush for a touchdown in back-to-back games for the first time since a three-game streak in September 2024.

- Klubnik (843) chasing No. 10 Ken Pengitore (898 from 1971-73), No. 9 DJ Uigalelei (913 from 2020-22) and No. 8 Trevor Lawrence (943 from 2018-20) on Clemson's leaderboard for career rushing yards by a quarterback since Clemson transitioned from the single wing in 1953.

- Klubnik (14) chasing No. 7 DJ Uigalelei (15 from 2020-22) and No. 6 Kelly Bryant (16 from 2015-18)

Under Swinney, Clemson is also 38-8 in games in which it enters ranked lower in the AP Poll than it did in its previous contest. This includes the 2014, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2021 season openers in which Clemson opened the season lower than its ranking from the final game of the previous campaign.

CLEMSON PRIOR TO OPEN DATES

Saturday's game will precede the first of Clemson's two regular-season open dates in 2025. The 2025 season marks Clemson's sixth year with multiple open dates since 2013, joining the 2013, 2014, 2019, 2020 and 2024 seasons.

Since joining the ACC as a charter member in 1953, Clemson is 43-21-2 in games preceding regular season open dates. Clemson is 16-6 before regular season open dates under Dabo Swinney, including a 16-2 mark in those games since 2012

-- ON THE OPPONENT --

SERIES HISTORY VS. SYRACUSE

Saturday will represent the 13th meeting between Clemson and Syracuse all-time and the 12th in regular season play.

The Orange won the first meeting at the 1996 Gator Bowl in Jacksonville following the 1995 season by a 41-0 score. Clemson was ranked 23rd entering the game and was coming off a five-game winning streak to close the season. Syracuse was unranked going into the game but jumped to 17th in the final USA Today poll following the win quarterbacked by Donovan McNabb.

Clemson has won 10 of 11 meetings since Syracuse joined the ACC in 2013. The Tigers won four in a row by at least double digits before Syracuse ended the streak with a 27-24 Friday night win over the Tigers at Syracuse in 2017.

NOTES

Clemson ranked in the Top 25 of at least one major poll in each of the series' first 11 meetings. Clemson was relegated to "Receiving Votes" in both major polls before a 31-14 win at Syracuse in 2023 and is in a similar position prior to Saturday's upcoming contest.

Syracuse entered the previous two meetings undefeated. Clemson defeated 6-0 Syracuse in 2022 and 4-0 Syracuse in 2023.

LAST MEETING

Clemson 31, Syracuse 14

(Sept. 30, 2023, Syracuse, N.Y.)

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – A diving interception by Jeremiah Trotter Jr. with 6:45 to play combined with Phil Mafah's 32-yard touchdown run on the ensuing play helped secure Clemson's 31-14 win over previously unbeaten Syracuse at the JMA Wireless Dome. The victory was Head Coach Dabo Swinney's 100th ACC regular season win all-time.

True freshman wide receiver Tyler Brown turned in a magnificent eight-catch, 151-yard receiving effort, earning both ACC Wide Receiver and Rookie of the Week. Sophomore quarterback Cade Klubnik finished 23-of-37 for 263 yards and a pair of touchdown passes to lead Clemson to 389 yards of offense on the day.

Defensively, Clemson recorded five sacks and held Syracuse's offense, which entered the week in the Top 10 nationally in points per game and yards per game, to 14 points and 286 yards of offense. On its first sack of the game, Clemson became the first program in the country to record 500 sacks since 2012.

The Tigers jumped out to an early 14-0 lead in the first 10 minutes on the back of a pair of turnovers and led throughout the contest. Clemson recorded a take-away on the game's opening possession when defensive end Justin Mascoll planted Syracuse quarterback Garrett Shrader, forcing a fumble that was recovered by defensive tackle Payton Page. Mascoll was initially called for targeting on the play before an overturned call upon video review gave the Tigers the ball.

The Clemson offense took over on its own 45 and drove 55 yards on eight plays, as Klubnik found Troy Stellato for a 14-yard touchdown. Klubnik evaded the blitz and rolled out to his right, hitting Stellato in stride near the sideline.

With 6:35 to play in the first quarter, Xavier Thomas scooped up an errant toss and returned it 20 yards to the Syracuse three-yard line. Two plays later, running back Will Shipley rushed up the middle from two yards out for his 30th career touchdown, propelling Clemson to a 14-0 lead.

Syracuse struck back on the ensuing possession through the air, hitting on gains of 37 yards, 12 yards, and finishing with a 28-yard touchdown pass from Shrader to Dan Villari.

Two drives later, Clemson again threatened to score, mounting a 14-play drive including three third-and-long conversions to get inside the 10-yard line. However, Syracuse was able to hold on 4th-and-2 from the five, sacking Klubnik to end the threat.

The defense held the Orange to a 57-yard field goal attempt on the next drive, which fell short. Facing a third-and-10, Klubnik scrambled, picking up 14 yards to the Syracuse 47-yard line. On the next play, he found a wide-open Beaux Collins with a deep ball for a 47-yard score to put the Tigers ahead, 21-7, with 2:23 to play in the half.

Clemson had the chance to tack on three more at the end of the first half, but Jonathan Weitz's 42-yard attempt sailed just wide left. Weitz got another chance coming out of half, hitting a 38-yarder to cap a scoring drive that included a 47-yard connection from Klubnik to Brown.

Early in the fourth quarter, Syracuse forced a Jake Briningstool fumble and returned it to the Clemson 42-yard line. A 35-yard completion brought them inside the 10-yard line, and two plays later, Shrader hit LeQuint Allen for a six-yard score to pull the score to 24-14.

With the Orange again driving to mount a comeback, Trotter dove in front of a Shrader pass for an interception on the 32-yard line with 6:45 to play. Mafah took the next handoff and burst down the left side nearly untouched for the touchdown to set the final margin.

NOTES

5 Clemson back from an 11-point fourth-quarter deficit to defeat No. 14 Syracuse, 27-21, in front of a sold-out homecoming crowd at Memorial Stadium. Will Shipley's 50-yard touchdown run with 11:26 to play gave Clemson the lead for good, contributing to a 27-carry, 172-yard day for the sophomore. Fellow running back Phil Mafah registered 18 carries for 94 yards and a score.

With the victory, Clemson won its 38th consecutive home game to take sole possession of the longest home winning streak in ACC history. Clemson's defense held Syracuse scoreless and to only 119 total yards in the second half while piling up four of the team's sacks on the day. The defense helped the Tigers overcome four turnovers, and it produced five total three-and-outs, five sacks and nine tackles for a loss. Jalyn Phillips led Clemson with seven tackles, while Tyler Davis registered a career-high 2.0 sacks. Clemson held Syracuse to 291 total yards, while Clemson's offense tallied a total of 450 yards.

Freshman quarterback Cade Klubnik sparked Clemson's offense in reserve late in the third quarter, leading touchdowns on back-to-back drives and a two-point conversion. Clemson rushed a season-high 60 times for a season-high 293 yards.

Clemson's defense kept Syracuse scoreless on the game's opening possession and forced the Orange to turn the ball over on downs. On Clemson's first offensive snap, DJ Uiagalelei hit an open Davis Allen for 42 yards, moving Clemson to the Syracuse 26. Shipley finished the seven-play drive and pushed across the goal line for Clemson's first touchdown of the game, putting Clemson up 7-0 with 7:45 to play in the first quarter.

Syracuse answered on the next possession, knotting the score at 7-7. The Tigers' next drive was cut short by a Syracuse interception, but the defense held the Orange on the ensuing possession. Clemson took the ball inside the five-yard line on its next possession, but Syracuse's Ja'Had Carter recovered an Uiagalelei fumble and returned it 90 yards for the touchdown, giving the Orange a 14-7 lead with 9:14 left in the first half.

The Tigers then turned the ball over on downs at the Syracuse 32-yard line. The Orange capitalized as quarterback Garrett Shrader capped an eight-play 68-yard drive with a seven-yard score. B.T. Potter nailed a 44-yard field goal with seven seconds to play in the half to set the halftime margin at 21-10.

After the Tigers surrendered two more turnovers in the third quarter — a fumble from Shipley and an interception thrown by Uiagalelei — Clemson's defense forced the Orange to punt on consecutive drives.

With 4:44 left in the third quarter, Klubnik came in at quarterback for Clemson and led the Tigers 80 yards as Mafah sealed the 15-play drive with a one-yard rushing touchdown. Clemson's two-point try was intercepted in the end zone, making the score 21-16 with 13:46 left to play.

The Tigers got the ball back on offense quickly as the defense produced another three-and-out. On Clemson's next drive, Shipley broke away into the open field and ran the ball 50 yards for the touchdown. Klubnik then evaded the pass rush and found Joseph Ngata in the end zone who made a diving catch for two points.

Potter put the Tigers up 27-21 with a clutch 44-yard field goal, giving the Orange the ball back with 1:33 left in the game. R.J. Mickens secured the win for Clemson with an interception with 15 seconds remaining.

NOTES FROM LAST GAME

- After a one-year absence from each other's schedules, Clemson and Georgia Tech faced one another for the 42nd of the last 43 years. By virtue of the ACC adopting a divisionless format with altered protected rivalries in 2024, last season marked the first year since 1982 that Clemson and Georgia Tech did not face one another.

- Clemson opened conference play on the road for the 11th time in the last 14 years.

- Clemson outgained Georgia Tech, 381-358. Clemson is now 158-13 under Dabo Swinney when the Tigers outgain their opponents.

- The defeat was Clemson's first loss in the waning seconds of regulation since a 43-42 loss to Pitt during Clemson's 2016 national championship campaign.

- Clemson lost the turnover margin, 2-0. It snapped a 15-game streak in which Clemson had finished even or better in the turnover margin, its longest since a 17-game streak across the 1989-90 seasons.

- Though Clemson did not record a takeaway, Clemson forced two turnovers on downs, ending two Georgia Tech drives in Clemson territory.

- Quarterback Cade Klubnik completed 15-of-26 passes for 207 yards with one touchdown and one interception. He also added a season-high 17 carries for 62 rushing yards and a touchdown.

- Klubnik's 62 rushing yards tied for the second-most in a game in his career.

- Klubnik scored his first rushing touchdown of the season on a one-yard dive in the second quarter.

- The rushing touchdown was the 14th of Klubnik's career, pulling him within one of DJ Uiagalelei (15 from 2020-22) for seventh on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career rushing touchdowns by a quarterback.

- Klubnik has now rushed for at least one touchdown in all four of his seasons at Clemson. He joined Nealon Greene (1994-97), Charlie Whitehurst (2002-05), Tajh Boyd (2010-13) and Kelly Bryant (2015-18) as the only Clemson quarterbacks to rush for a touchdown in four different seasons since Clemson transitioned away from the single wing in 1953.

- Klubnik's rushing touchdown was the culmination of a 16-play drive, Clemson's longest by number of plays since a 16-play touchdown drive against Louisville last season.

- Clemson has now scored at least one rushing touchdown in a national-best 90 of its 99 games since the start of the 2018 season.

- Wide receiver Bryant Wesco Jr. caught seven passes for a season-high 126 receiving yards with one touchdown.

- Wesco has now recorded back-to-back 100-yard receiving games for the first time in his career. He became the first Clemson player with consecutive 100-yard receiving games since Cornell Powell's three-game streak in 2020.

- Wesco (1,018 in 15 career games) joined Sammy Watkins (1,295), Artavis Scott (1,153) and Justyn Ross (1,000) as the fourth Clemson player ever to reach 1,000 receiving yards in the first 15 games of their careers.

- Wesco now has three touchdown receptions over his last two games.

- Wesco scored on a 73-yard touchdown pass from Klubnik in the third quarter.

- The 73-yard reception by Wesco was Clemson's longest play of the season and the second-longest of Wesco's career, trailing only a 76-yard touchdown against Appalachian State a year earlier.

- Wesco has now caught a touchdown pass in back-to-back games for the first time in his career.

- Running back Adam Randall rushed 15 times for a team-high 80 yards with a touchdown.

- Randall scored on a two-yard touchdown run with 3:26 remaining to help even the score at 21-21. It was his third rushing touchdown of the season and the third of his career.

- The touchdown run by Randall punctuated a 13-play, 75-yard game-tying drive in the fourth quarter.

- Randall became the first Clemson player to rush for a touchdown in three straight games since Phil Mafah against Wake Forest, Virginia and Louisville last season.

- Randall converted a 3rd-and-22 with a 30-yard rush in the second quarter. It represented Clemson's longest third-down conversion without the benefit of a penalty in Dabo Swinney's tenure.

- According to Stats Perform, Randall's 30-yard run on 3rd-and-22 marked only the third time since 2008 that an ACC team has converted a third down of 22 or more yards by rush. The other teams to accomplish it were Virginia Tech (3rd-and-24 against West Virginia in 2021) and Florida State (3rd-and-22 vs. Michigan in 2016).

- Wide receiver Tyler Brown rushed twice for a career-high 26 yards. His previous career high in rushing yards was 23 in 2023 at Syracuse.

- Tight end Ian Schieffelin made his Clemson Football debut and drew a penalty for a first down. Though it was his football debut, it was his 135th intercollegiate competition representing Clemson including his 134 games as part of Clemson's men's basketball program from 2021-25.

- Clemson did not allow a sack, its first such game this season. Clemson had previously won 42 consecutive games when not allowing a sack dating to the 2011 season.

- Defensive end Will Heldt entered the game as Clemson's leader in tackles for loss this season and added two more in the contest.

NOTES

- Heldt has multiple tackles for loss in two of his three career games with Clemson.

- Cornerback Avieon Terrell forced a fumble in the third quarter, his second of the season and the fifth of his career.

- With his fifth career forced fumble, Terrell became the first Clemson defensive back with five or more career forced fumbles since Byron Maxwell from 2007-10 (six).

- Linebacker Sammy Brown recorded his first sack of the season in the third quarter. It was the sixth sack of his career.

- Brown added an additional tackle for loss in the third quarter, dropping Jamal Haynes for a six-yard loss.

- The defeat snapped Clemson's nine-game winning streak against Georgia Tech, the longest in school history.

- Swinney is now 12-6 all-time against Georgia Tech, including postseason play. Georgia Tech remains one of four schools against which Swinney has recorded at least a dozen career victories (Wake Forest, 16; Boston College, 14; NC State, 12).

- Clemson is now 40-14 in one-possession games since the start of the 2011 season.

- Clemson dropped to 76-3 since 2015 when outscoring opponents in the "Middle Eight," defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Clemson outscored Georgia Tech in this window by a 7-0 margin.

- Clemson dropped to 146-6 when leading after three quarters since the start of the 2011 season.

- Clemson opened ACC play against Georgia Tech for the 15th time all-time. Georgia Tech now ties Virginia (15) as Clemson's most common opponent in ACC opens all-time.

- Captains for the contest were defensive tackle DeMonte Capehart, quarterback Cade Klubnik, defensive end T.J. Parker and offensive lineman Walker Parks.

ON THIS DATE

- Sept. 20, 1958: Clemson ran down the Hill on a rug for the first time. The rug was officially given to Clemson on this date before the Clemson-Virginia game by W.W. Pate Sr., president of Wunda Weave Company. It measured 104 feet long and was 13 feet wide. Also at this game, Clemson's first expansion of Memorial Stadium was used for the first time. Memorial Stadium was expanded from 20,000 to 38,000 seats.

- Sept. 20, 1986: Clemson defeated Georgia 31-28, as David Treadwell kicked a 46-yard field goal with no time left on the clock. Athens, Ga. native Norman Haynes led Clemson in tackles with 14, while Terrance Flagler led the offense with nearly 200 all-purpose yards.

- Sept. 20, 1997: Clemson's Tony Horne and Florida State's Peter Warrick put on the greatest individual all-purpose effort in the history of Death Valley. Horne had 10 receptions for 131 yards and had 267 all-purpose yards, while Warrick had a 90-yard punt return and an 80-yard touchdown reception in gaining 372 all-purpose yards as Florida State defeated Clemson 35-28.

- Sept. 20, 2003: Charlie Whitehurst threw for 298 yards and three touchdowns and the Clemson defense held Georgia Tech to just three points and 45 yards rushing in a 39-3 victory in Atlanta. It was Clemson's largest margin of victory over Georgia Tech since 1903, when John Heisman was Clemson's coach.

- Overall: Clemson is 9-4 all-time in games contested on Sept. 20.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF STAPLES

From 2014-23, Clemson cemented itself as one of the College Football Playoff's powerhouses of the tournament's inaugural decade. In the 10-year history of the four-team format prior to 2024, only 15 programs earned at least one College Football Playoff berth, and Clemson ranked second in CFP berths, CFP title game appearances, total CFP wins and CFP titles.

Clemson returned to the College Football Playoff in 2024 in the format's first year of expansion to 12 teams and is one berth shy of Alabama (eight) for the most in history.

NOTES

Playoff rankings in 2024, Clemson remained one of three programs (alongside Alabama and Ohio State) to finish in the CFP Top 25 in every year since the tournament's inception.

Among the 21 programs ever to qualify for the College Football Playoff from 2014-24, Clemson is one of only seven to hold a positive point differential in CFP play. Clemson has also accounted for three of the nine largest victories by point differential in CFP history.

ONE OF THE ERA'S WINNINGEST PROGRAMS

Clemson has a 162-34 record since 2011 and in 2023 became the second program to reach 150 wins in that span.

	Ohio State	162	26	.862
4.	Georgia	158	36	.814
5.	Oklahoma	142	44	.763

Alabama, Clemson, Georgia and Ohio State rank 1-4 in the country in wins since 2015, with the four teams combining for eight of the 10 national championships in that time frame.

5.	Oklahoma	103	31	.769

Clemson's lofty perch in that ranking reflects not only its dominance against middle- and lower-tier opponents, but also its success in matchups with other premier programs. Among current power conference teams, 36 different programs recorded at least 100 wins from 2011-24. Clemson has played 16 of those 36 programs since 2011 and is 66-25 (.725) in those contests and is .500 or better against 13 of the 16 teams.

In 2020, Clemson became the first program ever to win 20 ACC Championships. That year, Clemson became the first program in the conference championship game era to win six straight conference championship games.

Two years later, Clemson's 2022 ACC title was the program's seventh in eight years, as the Tigers became the first team in an active power conference to win seven outright conference titles in an eight-year span since Alabama won eight SEC titles in nine seasons from 1971-79.

Including titles from its days as a member of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association and Southern Conference, Clemson has 28 conference championships overall, also the most of any current ACC school. Duke ranks second among the ACC's current membership with 18 overall conference titles, including 11 Southern Conference titles and seven ACC titles.

The Tigers won the 1900, 1902 and 1903 SIAA Conference championships under John Heisman, then the 1906 SIAA title under Bob Williams. Clemson also won the 1940 and 1948 Southern Conference titles under Frank Howard. Howard won eight total conference titles, including two in the Southern Conference and six in the ACC. Swinney surpassed the legend with a win in the 2024 ACC Championship Game.

For the last quarter-century, Clemson's ACC success has not been a roller-coaster ride of lofty heights and deep lows. The last time Clemson finished a season below .500 in regular season conference play was in 1998, when Tommy West's 3-8 squad went 1-7 in ACC play. Clemson's 26-year streak of being .500 or better in conference play is tied for the longest active streak in the country and tied for the fourth-longest of any streak since 1966.

POWER OVER POWER CONFERENCE FOES

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level,'" recounted Swinney. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2011, no team can claim more wins against power conference opponents than the Tigers.

On a year-by-year basis, Clemson has finished the season atop the country in wins against power conference opponents a national-best four times since the institution of the College Football Playoff in 2014. That includes 13 wins against power conference opponents in 2018, the first team ever to reach that figure.

SIGN AND DEVELOP

While proud of his incoming classes, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has long stated that a true ranking of a recruiting class cannot and should not be published until four years later when the group can be evaluated on performance rather than potential.

Much to Swinney's delight, The Athletic annually assumed that role for the classes of 2014-20, re-ranking each recruiting class four years later to account for on-field performance.

For its re-rankings, The Athletic uses the following grading scale: 5 points: All-American, award winner, top-50 NFL Draft pick; 4: Multi-year starter, all-conference honors; 3: One-year starter or key reserve; 2: Career backup; 0: Minor or no contribution, left the program. The outlet also adds a bonus to each program's class average, derived from its total number of wins from 2017 through 2020 (e.g., For re-ranking the Class of 2017, Clemson won 51 games, so its class average received a bonus of 0.51).

Swinney has pointed out that Clemson often falls in rankings as its retention and its commitment to not oversigning leads to smaller recruiting classes. He also notes that much of Clemson's on-field success is a function of the program's development, citing All-Americans like former three-star Isaiah Simmons or former two-star Nolan Turner. The re-rankings illustrate Clemson's impressive track record of talent identification, culture fit, resource allocation and player development.

CLEMSON RECRUITING RANKINGS AND RE-RANKINGS (VIA THE ATHLETIC)

2014	16	6	+10	50-7
2015	9	2	+7	55-4
2016	11	1	+10	55-4
2017	16	5	+11	51-5
2018	7	2	+5	49-6
2019	10	5	+5	45-9
2020	3	7	-4	40-12
Average	10.2	4.0	+6.2

Note: Initial rank according to 247 Composite

NOTES

On average, Clemson ranked 10.2 in the 247 Composite team rankings across the 2014-20 recruiting cycles. Upon re-ranking those groups, despite having little room for improvement while recruiting at a Top 15 clip in that span, Clemson ranked 4.0 on average in the re-rankings, a ratings bump of roughly six spots. Each of those Clemson classes averaged at least 10 wins a season during their careers.

SENIOR SUCCESS

Every January, Head Coach Dabo Swinney conducts his first official meeting with his new team. The first order of business in the meeting is to "reset the room," reorganizing the seating arrangement with seniors in front and all succeeding classes in order behind them in the team auditorium.

Several of Swinney's senior classes placed themselves among select company in college football history. The 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 Clemson seniors account for four of only 15 four-year classes in FBS history to reach 50 career wins. That includes the 2018 and 2019 groups that are tied with the 2018 Alabama seniors for the most wins in FBS history (55 wins in four years).

The 2025 Clemson seniors (excluding "Super Seniors" using extra years of eligibility afforded by the NCAA) went 30-11 in their first three years from 2022-24. The class entered the 2025 season as one of 14 nationally to have averaged at least 10 wins a year over its first three seasons.

-- HEAD COACH DABO SWINNEY --

CLEMSON'S WINNINGEST COACH

College Football Hall of Famer Frank Howard, known as "The Bashful Baron of Barlow Bend," compiled a 165-118-12 record in 30 seasons at Clemson from 1940-69.

With a 31-23 upset of No. 12 Notre Dame in 2023, Dabo Swinney earned his 166th career victory as Clemson's head coach, surpassing Howard to become Clemson's all-time winningest coach. Swinney accomplished the feat in his 209th career game.

ACC'S WINNINGEST COACH

With a 29-13 win against Florida State in October 2024, Dabo Swinney earned his 174th career victory to pass his friend and mentor (and College Football Hall of Famer) Bobby Bowden for the most career head coaching victories as a member of the ACC. Swinney ranks atop conference history in both total wins and career winning percentage.

HEAD COACH CONTINUITY

Over the last decade-and-a-half, Clemson became a beacon of stability in the increasingly unstable environment of college football. Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney is in his 23rd overall season at Clemson in 2025, including his 17th full season as head coach (and his 18th including an interim stint in 2008).

From the start of Swinney's first season as full-time head coach in 2009 through 2024, there were 498 head coaching tenures in the FBS (excluding those by interims) but only one such tenure at Clemson. Clemson is one of five schools with only one head coach in that span.

Clemson is the only school in the ACC with only one head coach since the start of the 2009 season, and among the 21 schools ever to qualify for the College Football Playoff, only Clemson has had only one head coach since 2009.

SIX "FINAL FOURS" FOR SWINNEY

While the term "Final Four" may still be the linguistic property of college basketball, since the advent of the four-team College Football Playoff in 2014, Head Coach Dabo Swinney had Clemson among the sport's final four teams six times from 2015-20, becoming the first coach to lead a team to six consecutive College Football Playoffs since the format's institution in 2014.

The NCAA men's college basketball tournament dates to 1939. In the history of that tournament, only John Wooden of UCLA (nine from 1967-75) and Mike Krzyzewski of Duke (five from 1988-92) coached teams to at least five consecutive Final Fours. With his sixth "Final Four" appearance in 2020, Swinney joined basketball's Wooden as the only college football or men's basketball coaches to take teams to six consecutive Final Fours in their respective sports.

Swinney is among only nine coaches in football and men's basketball to record six career Final Four berths. He is one of only six with a winning record in Final Four games.

* - Men's Basketball Final Four or College Football Playoff

^ - indicates streak of at least six consecutive Final Fours

Swinney's ability to place his team among the nation's elite quartet has also been illustrated by the polls. Clemson finished first in the AP Poll in 2016 and 2018, second in 2015 and 2019, third in 2020 and fourth in 2017. Swinney became just the fourth coach to record at least six consecutive top four finishes since the AP Poll began in 1936, an exclusive list that also includes Florida State's Bobby Bowden (13), USC's Pete Carroll (seven) and Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson (six).

Clemson's streak represented the fifth time a program has had a run of at least six top four finishes in the AP Poll. Miami (Fla.) had a seven-year run from 1986-92 with two different head coaches leading the program.

THROUGH 200 GAMES

The 2022 Orange Bowl was the 200th game in Dabo Swinney's head coaching career. Among coaches who qualify for the NCAA FBS record book by virtue of five years or 50 wins as a major college head coach, 17 coaches had earned at least 150 victories in their first 200 career games as head coach as of the conclusion of the 2022 season.

At 161-39 through 200 games, Swinney tied Bob Stoops and Robert Neyland (161 each) for the fifth-most wins through 200 career games in major college football history.

Four previous Clemson head coaches earned 150+ FBS wins in their careers: John Heisman (186), Jess Neely (207), Frank Howard (165) and Ken Hatfield (168). Howard, a College Football Hall of Famer, recorded his 150th victory in his 273rd career game, in a 14-10 victory against Maryland in 1966 that clinched a piece of what later became an outright ACC title. Heisman earned win No. 150 in game No. 203, Neely earned it in game No. 268, and Hatfield did it in game 259, though none of those three won more than 43 games in their Clemson tenures.

Included below are the number of games needed for a sample of other notable coaches to reach 150 victories: John Vaught (201), Mark Richt (205), Red Blaik (207), Dan Devine (208), Woody Hayes (209), Bear Bryant (212), Ara Parseghian (212), Pat Dye (212), Bobby Bowden (213), Pop Warner (214), LaVell Edwards (214), Jim Tressell (214), Vince Dooley (214), Amos Alonzo Stagg (225), John Cooper (225), Frank Beamer (230), Lou Holtz (230), Bill Snyder (231), Johnny Majors (255), George Welsh (261), Hayden Fry (277).

FIRST 15 SEASONS // FIRST 20 SEASONS?

Dabo Swinney completed his 15th season (and his 14th full season) in 2022 with a 161-39 record. Swinney amassed the second-most wins through a coach's first 15 seasons in FBS history despite not having the benefit of a full season in his first year, as he went 4-3 on an interim basis in his first season in 2008 after taking over for Tommy Bowden in October.

The 2025 season is Swinney's 18th season (and 17th full season) as Clemson's head coach. With three seasons still remaining to accrue victories in the category, Swinney already ranks seventh in FBS history in wins in the first 20 seasons of a head coaching career (including coaches who did not coach 20 seasons).

CHAMPIONSHIP LINEAGE

After being named Clemson's full-time coach in December of 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney set about securing his first signing class in 2009.

His first class, which he tabbed the "Dandy Dozen," brought home Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 during their junior campaign in 2011. With a win in the 2024 ACC Championship Game, every Clemson signing class under Swinney has at least one ACC title to their credit in their tenures at Clemson, and every signing class since 2012 has earned at least one College Football Playoff berth.

Sixteen coaches on the list are College Football Hall of Famers. The other four include two who are still active (Swinney and Smart), one who remains on ballots (Coker) and one who did not coach long enough to meet the 10-year coaching threshold to qualify (Carroll). Swinney holds a total of nine career victories over five coaches on the list, including two each over Bob Stoops, Nick Saban, Urban Meyer and Steve Spurrier and one over Bobby Bowden.

Despite not reaching No. 1 until 1981, Clemson has been No. 1 in 25 polls all-time, 16th-most of any program.

Clemson was ranked No. 1 in nine consecutive polls to open 2020, its longest streak at No. 1 in school history. Clemson appeared at No. 1 in at least one AP Poll in six consecutive years from 2015-20. Dabo Swinney joined Nick Saban (14) as the only coach in AP Poll history (since 1936) to lead a team to at least one No. 1 ranking in six consecutive years. Clemson, Alabama (15 from 2008-22) and Miami (seven from 1986-92) remain the only programs to appear at No. 1 in at least six consecutive years.

DEATH VALLEY ROARS

Frank Howard Field at Memorial Stadium garnered its famous nickname in the 1940s when Presbyterian College Head Coach Lonnie McMillian, after many years of bringing his teams in for drubbings, dubbed the venue as "Death Valley."

The name stuck, and its patrons have done their part to make it live up to its name and its reputation. In the first 11 years of the College Football Playoff era from 2014-24, Clemson's home atmosphere helped draw 157 false starts by opponents, the second-most of any home venue in the country and the most by a power conference program.

NOTES

-- NO. 0 WR ANTONIO WILLIAMS --

NO. 0 BECOMES NO. 1 TARGET IN 2024

Antonio Williams earned first-team Freshman All-America honors in 2022 after he caught 56 passes for 604 yards with four touchdowns over 14 games (10 starts). Injury befell Williams in his sophomore season in 2023, as he was limited by an ankle injury to only four regular season games in his second season before returning to play a pivotal role in Clemson's come-from-behind Gator Bowl win against Kentucky.

In the offseason to follow, Head Coach Dabo Swinney praised Williams' maturity and laser focus and said the now-redshirt sophomore was in for a big year in 2024. The head coach's prognostication proved correct. Williams started every game for Clemson and developed into a bona fide top target for Clemson with career highs in every receiving category in 2024.

Last year, Williams became the first Clemson player with double-digit touchdown receptions in a season since Tee Higgins in 2019 (13). He recorded the ninth season in school history with double-digit touchdown receptions.

Williams' versatility was on display in 2024. In addition to posting double-digit touchdown catches, Williams rushed for a touchdown and threw another. Williams' 2024 season marked only the ninth time since 1969 that a Clemson player has passed for a touchdown, rushed for a touchdown and caught a touchdown in a single season, joining Sammy Watkins (2012), C.J. Spiller (2008 and 2009), Jacoby Ford (2009), Ray Williams (1985), Charlie Waters (1969) and Ray Yauger (1969).

CAREER LEADERBOARDS

Williams returned to Clemson in 2025 in reach of the school record for career receiving touchdowns of 27 shared by Clemson legends and NFL standouts DeAndre Hopkins, Sammy Watkins and Tee Higgins.

Klubnik has helped engineer three fourth-quarter comeback wins, including two as a starter:

- vs. Syracuse (2022): Entered in relief of DJ Uiagalelei and became the first backup quarterback to engineer a fourth-quarter comeback win for Clemson since 2018 (Chase Brice vs. Syracuse).

- vs. Kentucky (2023): Went 8-for-8 as he led Clemson on a 12-play, 68-yard game-winning drive in 2:17 of elapsed game time as Clemson earned its largest fourth-quarter comeback win in a bowl game in school history in the 2023 Gator Bowl.

- at Pitt (2024): After Clemson was held to only 27 yards in the first 28 minutes of the second half, Klubnik got the ball with 1:36 remaining and engineered a three-play, 75-yard drive that he finished by rushing for a game-winning 50-yard touchdown with 1:16 remaining.

- Notes: Klubnik recorded a game-winning drive in the 2024 ACC Championship Game against SMU, but the game was tied at the time and Clemson never trailed in the contest. Klubnik also helped Clemson overcome a 16-point first-half deficit to Troy in 2025, though Clemson's third-quarter surge gave the Tigers the lead prior to the fourth quarter.

300-YARD GAMES

Klubnik is one of eight quarterbacks in Clemson history to record multiple 300-yard passing games. His seven career 300-yard games rank fifth in school history.

RUSHING THREAT

Klubnik rushed for a career-high seven rushing touchdowns in 2024. He is one of 12 Clemson quarterbacks to rush for double-digit touchdowns in a career since Clemson transitioned away from the single wing in 1953, and he entered his senior season in reach of becoming the seventh Clemson quarterback in that span to reach 1,000 career rushing yards.

Note: Klubnik is outside the Top 10 with 843 career rushing yards.

With his first rushing touchdown of the 2025 season at Georgia Tech, Klubnik joined Nealon Greene (1994-97), Charlie Whitehurst (2002-05), Tajh Boyd (2010-13) and Kelly Bryant (2015-18) as the only Clemson quarterbacks to rush for a touchdown in four different seasons since Clemson transitioned away from the single wing in 1953.

A year earlier, Klubnik's seven rushing touchdowns included long touchdown runs of 55 yards against NC State, 34 yards against Stanford and a game-winning 50-yarder at Pitt. Klubnik's 50-yard rushing touchdown at Pitt was Clemson's longest game-winning offensive touchdown inside the final two minutes of a game on record. Klubnik became the first Clemson player to record multiple 50-yard rushing touchdowns in a single season since Travis Etienne in 2019 (two), and he also became the first Clemson quarterback to record multiple 50-yard rushing touchdowns in a career since Woodrow Dantzler (three from 1999-2001).

2024 IN REVIEW

Klubnik took a major leap in his second full season as a starter in 2024. As a junior, he completed 308-of-486 passes for 3,639 yards with 36 passing touchdowns and added career highs with 463 yards and seven touchdowns on 119 rushing attempts.

Klubnik combined for 4,100 yards of total offense and 43 total touchdowns while committing only seven turnovers. Research by ESPN.com's David Hale illustrated that Klubnik became only the eighth quarterback to reach those thresholds in the College Football Playoff era. The other seven all finished in the Top 4 in Heisman voting, including five Heisman winners.

FROM THE SIDELINE TO THE STAGE

Klubnik's national breakout came in the 2022 ACC Championship Game against North Carolina. He entered the game on Clemson's third possession and completed 20-of-24 passes for 279 yards and a passing touchdown and added seven carries for 30 yards and a rushing touchdown. His 83.3 completion percentage set an ACC Championship Game record and led to his selection as the game's Most Valuable Player in Clemson's 39-10 victory. He became the third freshman (and second true freshman) in the game's history to earn the honor.

Two years later, Klubnik repeated as ACC Championship Game MVP in a 34-31 win against SMU. He joined Virginia Tech's Tyrod Taylor and Clemson's Dashaun Watson as the only two-time MVPs in ACC Championship Game history.

DYNAMIC DUO RETURNS

There was no shortage of contributing factors to Clemson's leap in passing efficiency and explosiveness from 2023 and 2024, but notable among them was the arrival of T.J. Moore and Bryant Wesco Jr. in 2024. While Moore's late-season surge was a bit too belated to garner national recognition, Wesco collected Freshman All-America honors from 247Sports, PFF, ESPN, The Athletic and the FWAA.

The duo ranked in the top six nationally in receiving yards by freshmen.

Moore and Wesco became the first freshman duo in a power conference to each record at least 650 receiving yards and at least five touchdown catches in a single season since at least 2000. Expanded to include the full FBS, the only other schools in that span to accomplish the feat were the 2005 Hawaii Warriors and the 2007 Tulsa Golden Hurricane. They made Clemson the only school with multiple 650-yard freshman receivers in the nation in 2024.

WESCO'S MEMORABLE START

Wesco recorded one catch in 12 snaps in Clemson's 2024 season opener, as missed opportunities and inefficiency by Clemson — combined with a condensed contest that featured the fewest combined snaps (112) in a Clemson game since 2006 — limited his involvement in his collegiate debut as a true freshman. Afterward, Clemson's coaches vowed to involve him more the following week.

Consider that vow fulfilled.

In his second career game, Wesco caught three passes for 130 yards and a touchdown against Appalachian State, tying the Clemson record for the fewest games needed to record a 100-yard receiving game.

Wesco's 130-yard performance against Appalachian State included a touchdown reception of 76 yards as well as a 51-yard reception that set up a two-yard Cade Klubnik touchdown run on the ensuing play. Wesco became the first Clemson player with two plays from scrimmage of 50-plus yards in a single game since 2021.

RUNNING BACKS

Clemson entered 2025 with a relative rarity in the Dabo Swinney era: public unknowns at running back.

Under Swinney, the Tigers have enjoyed a run of feature backs that has included C.J. Spiller, Andre Ellington, Wayne Gallman, Travis Etienne, Will Shipley and Phil mafah among a bevy of other substantial contributors.

With both members of the Shipley/Mafah duo from Clemson's 2021 recruiting class now having matriculated to the NFL, outside observers are curious to see who will seize Clemson's rushing attack in 2025.

Notable candidates entering the year included:

- Adam Randall: Clemson's season-opening starter and physically imposing former wide receiver whom Dabo Swinney said in July could be "one of the great stories in college football this year." He contributed at running back in a pinch in the College Football Playoff and ripped off a 41-yard run at Texas.

- Jay Haynes: Clemson's No. 2 running back in 2024 averaged 6.86 yards per carry a year ago but spent the 2025 offseason returning from a knee injury suffered in the 2024 ACC Championship Game.

- David Eziumume: A redshirt freshman who came to Clemson as one of the nation's top 20 running backs in the class of 2024 according to most recruiting services.

- Keith Adams Jr.: A bruising bowling ball whose hard-nosed running style and penchant for seeking contact earned him the nickname "Hammerhead" from the coaching staff.

- Gideon Davidson: A true freshman who was a consensus national top 100 player and unanimous four-star prospect out of Virginia. Swinney has often referred to him as "the best back in the country" in the 2025 recruiting class.

That group will seek to continue Clemson's recent run of high-scoring backs over the last decade. Entering 2025, Clemson had a running back reach double digits in rushing touchdowns in nine of the previous 10 seasons. Clemson's nine seasons with a running back scoring 10 or more rushing touchdowns in that span are the most in the country.

TIGHT ENDS

Clemson lost its school record holder for career receptions by a tight end over the 2025 offseason when Jake Briningstool graduated and signed with the Kansas City Chiefs. Briningstool caught 127 career passes for 1,380 yards and 17 touchdowns over 48 career games.

Clemson's current group of tight ends will seek to continue the unit's production that has seen the tight end group post 60-plus catches in each of the last three seasons, a first in the Dabo Swinney era.

A VETERAN UNIT IN 2025

Clemson received instant impact from the addition of veteran offensive line coach Matt Luke in his first full season at Clemson in 2024. In his second full season with the Tigers in 2025, he is expected to benefit from the return of an exceedingly veteran unit that returns four of its five primary starters and boasts seven players who have started at least one game for Clemson.

The unit includes two of Clemson's recent iron men. Blake Miller entered his senior season already ranked in the Top 10 in school history in career snaps from scrimmage. Prior to 2025, the two-time All-ACC selection started every game for Clemson at right tackle from 2021-23, and he became the first offensive lineman to start every game played by Clemson during his freshman, sophomore and junior campaigns without the benefit of a redshirt year since starting center Ralph Jenkins from 1943-45.

Miller plays alongside a remarkable comeback story in Walker Parks, who started all 14 games for Clemson in 2024 after missing the majority of the 2022 and 2023 seasons with career-threatening ankle injuries. A veteran of 53 games and 42 starts from 2020-24, Parks is a self-professed Clemson lifer who said of Clemson, "If there were no eligibility [rules], I would stay here forever," a maxim validated by his decision to utilize an extra year of eligibility for a sixth season in 2025.

Clemson's other two returning primary starters include one of the team's foremost leaders and one of its active parables of patience. Left tackle Tristan Leigh started 23 games over the two previous seasons, and his progression from five-star recruit to off-radar redshirt to trusted contributor has given him stature and respect as one of the team's most trusted leaders. Center Ryan Linthicum, meanwhile, was one of Clemson's revelations of 2024. Last spring, the then-career backup was entering his fourth year with limited experience, and he was given spring practice to audition for the role before Clemson sought veteran help at the position. Instead, Linthicum seized the role, starting all 14 games for Clemson and playing 982 snaps from scrimmage, the most of any Clemson player in 2024.

Though depth and injuries combined to limit them to four combined starts in 2024, redshirt junior Collin Sadler and junior Harris Sewell entered 2025 with a combined 40 games and 14 starts of experience along the Tiger offensive line. Sadler provides versatility across the four tackle and guard positions, while Sewell offers tremendous value as a versatile interior piece across the center and guard spots.

Clemson had a breakout young star's trajectory take a brief detour in late 2024. As a true freshman, Elyjah Thurmon impressed when called upon to play 74 outstanding snaps in reserve on the road at Virginia Tech last year, and he earned a start the following week before being lost for the remainder of the season on the game's opening play from scrimmage. Whether as a starter or rotational piece, Thurmon stands primed to be a significant fixture on Clemson's line for the next several seasons.

O-LINE EXPERIENCE BREAKDOWN

Clemson's full offensive line group entered the 2025 season with a combined 249 game appearances, 135 starts and 10,403 career offensive snaps.

ALL-CONFERENCE O-LINEMEN

Since 2015, Clemson has produced a total of 32 All-ACC selections along the offensive line, including 12 first-team honors. Clemson's 32 all-conference selections by offensive linemen are an ACC high and the second-most of any power conference program. Clemson also ranks tied for third nationally in first-team selections in that span.

SportSource Analytics produces an Offensive Line Efficiency metric that takes into account tackle for loss percentages, sack percentages, percentages of rushes gaining 4+ yards and success on third-or-fourth-and-short. Clemson is among the national leaders in that total metric since 2015.

TRENCH WARFARE

Clemson's success in its 80-19 run since 2018 has been powered in part at the line of scrimmage, where Clemson holds a 306-160 edge over opponents in sacks in that time frame. Clemson's +146 margin in sacks since 2018 is the highest differential in the country.

PARKER'S PROLIFIC 2024 SEASON

As a sophomore in 2024, defensive end T.J. Parker posted 64 tackles (19.5 for loss), 11.0 sacks, a school-record six forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and a pass breakup while starting all 14 games for the Tigers.

He finished the year as the only player in the nation to rank in the Top 10 nationally in forced fumbles (six, T-2nd), tackles for loss (19.5, 5th) and sacks (11.0, 9th).

Parker's junior season in 2025 is being played under the tutelage of new Clemson Defensive Coordinator Tom Allen. A year ago, Allen led Penn State defensive end Abdul Carter to unanimous All-America honors and the No. 3 overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft. Carter's 2024 campaign bore a number of statistical similarities to Parker's.

Though he did not garner first-team all-conference honors from the ACC, Parker earned All-America honorable mention recognition from Phil Steele after he broke the Clemson single-season school record for forced fumbles in a season (six), surpassing Brandon Maye's five from 2009. His six forced fumbles finished tied for second in the nation and tied for the national lead among power conference players.

PARKER'S RECORD DAY AT PITT IN 2024

Parker put together one of the most dominant defensive performances in school history in Clemson's 2024 game at Pitt, collecting seven tackles, 5.0 tackles for loss, a school-record-tying 4.0 sacks, his fourth forced fumble of the season and a pass breakup.

Parker earned ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week, Bednarik Award National Player of the Week and Walter Camp Defensive Player of the Week for his performance.

	Austin Bryant (2017)	Auburn	4.0
	Andre Branch (2011)	Virginia Tech	4.0
	Keith Adams (1999)	Duke	4.0

His 4.0 sacks tied for the most of any FBS player in a single game that season. His 5.0 tackles for loss in that game ranked tied for second.

Parker's record day powered Clemson's season highs with eight sacks and 16 tackles for loss in the contest. Clemson's 16 tackles for loss tied for fourth-most in program history and its eight sacks tied for eighth.

WE SEE YOU, T.J. 🙏🏻

Parker emphatically announced his arrival as a freshman in 2023 when he set a Clemson true freshman record with 12.5 tackles for loss. That total tied for the national lead in tackles for loss among freshmen.

Parker initially committed to Penn State but coveted a Clemson offer. He decommitted from the Nittany Lions in hopes of soliciting Clemson, and Clemson's 2023 recruiting class immediately went to work.

"CV [Christopher Vizzina], Peter [Woods] and a few other guys on the team, they hit me up with the eyes emoji on Instagram," Parker said. "It was like, 'You know what time it is.' I texted Coach Ski [Then-Clemson Defensive Ends Coach Lemanski Hall] the eyes emoji, the same thing they sent me, and from there we got in contact and a few days later they offered and I committed."

-- NO. 8 CB AVIEON TERRELL --

IMPACT STARTER

Avieon Terrell made his first start at Clemson on Nov. 4, 2023, when he was inserted into the starting lineup as a true freshman in Clemson's 31-23 home upset of Notre Dame. Beginning that day, Terrell has started every game for Clemson, including the final five games of 2023, all 14 games in 2024 and every game to date in 2025.

As part of his all-conference campaign in 2024, Terrell recorded three forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and two interceptions. He became the first Clemson player under Dabo Swinney to finish a season with at least three forced fumbles, multiple interceptions and multiple fumble recoveries.

Terrell added two forced fumbles over Clemson's first three games of the 2025 season. His five career forced fumbles are the most by a Clemson defensive back since Byron Maxwell's six from 2007-10. No cornerback in the country has more forced fumbles than Terrell since Terrell became a starter.

-- NO. 17 LB WADE WOODAZ --

OPENING A CAN OF WOODAZ

In each of linebacker Wade Woodaz's first three seasons at Clemson, the Tampa product has watched as one of his linebacker counterparts earned All-America recognition, including honors for Barrett Carter in 2022 and 2024 and for Jeremiah Trotter Jr. in 2022 and 2023. Head Coach Dabo Swinney was quick though to warn observers not to overlook Woodaz.

"He's a baller," Swinney said. "The kid is tough, physical, he can really run. He really understands the game at a high level. He played most of his [prep] career as a quarterback and as a safety, so he has a great understanding of the game. He plays really, really hard; he's a great effort guy, he's a great preparer and he loves it. He's a fun guy to coach and a fun guy to watch play because he plays the way you want everybody to play."

Though Clemson's linebacker corps in 2024 included All-American Barrett Carter and ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year Sammy Brown, it was Woodaz who led the team in tackles, a feat he accomplished despite missing two games with a leg contusion. Coaches credited Woodaz with 89 stops, 10 tackles for loss, 3.0 sacks, six pass breakups, three forced fumbles and an interception.

Woodaz was one of six power conference players to record double-digit tackles for loss, three or more forced fumbles and an interception in 2024 (Texas' Anthony Hill Jr. and Colin Simmons, Indiana's Jailin Walker, UCLA's Kain Medrano and Texas Tech's Jacob Rodriguez). He also became the first Clemson player credited with at least 75 tackles and at least three forced fumbles since Isaiah Simmons in 2018.

-- NO. 47 LB SAMMY BROWN --

SAMMY'S SENSATIONAL START

Linebacker Sammy Brown arrived at Clemson in January 2024 as a consensus Top 30 player in his recruiting class and as the nation's reigning High School Butkus Award winner.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney praised Brown as an "alpha," but spoke frequently about Brown's learning curve at the linebacker position after playing both running back and linebacker at Jefferson High School in Commerce, Ga. The linebacker tabbed as 247Sports' No. 1 "freak athlete" in the 2024 recruiting class proved to be a quick study, appearing in all 14 games for Clemson with six starts.

After Clemson opened its first eight games of 2024 in two-linebacker sets, Brown earned his first start at Virginia Tech in November that year as Clemson opened the game with three linebackers. The former five-star prospect delivered, recording a team-high eight tackles (per the gameday stat crew) with 2.5 tackles for loss and a sack.

"Sammy's been getting better and better and better and it was awesome to see him have that type of game," Swinney said after Brown's performance at Virginia Tech. "He's just a confident young man, and, boy, he's got a bright future ahead of him. He's going to be a great one."

Despite playing only 444 defensive snaps over 14 games in 2024, Brown ranked second in the nation in tackles for loss among freshmen.

Along with Barrett Carter (10.5) and Wade Woodaz (10.0), Brown gave Clemson three linebackers with double-digit tackles for loss for the first time since 2016 (Kendall Joseph, Ben Boulware and Dorian O'Daniel).

Brown ranked third in Clemson history in tackles for loss by a true freshman and fourth among that group in sacks.

MEET THE NEW GUYS

- WR Tristan Smith (signed Dec. 18): Smith joined Clemson after playing the 2024 season at Southeast Missouri State, helping the Redhawks to a first-place finish in the Big South-OVC Football Association and a berth in the Football Championship Subdivision playoffs. The 2024 all-conference honoree played in SEMO's final 11 games of the season, catching 76 passes for 934 yards and six touchdown receptions in addition to rushing for one touchdown.

- DE Will Heldt (signed Dec. 19): Heldt signed with Clemson after playing his first two collegiate seasons at Purdue, appearing in all 24 games for the Boilermakers from 2023-24. As a sophomore in 2024, gameday stat crews credited Heldt with 56 tackles (10.0 for loss), 5.0 sacks and a fumble recovery he returned 16 yards for a touchdown. He recorded 2.5 sacks and the 16-yard scoop-and-score in back-to-back games against ranked opponents Illinois and Oregon in October.

- LB Jeremiah Alexander (signed Jan. 8): Alexander played his first three collegiate seasons at Alabama from 2022-24. Following a redshirt year in 2022 in which he appeared in three games, Alexander played in 24 of the Crimson Tide's 27 games across the 2023-24 seasons and was credited with eight tackles in those contests. In high school, he led Alabama's Thompson High School to the 2021 state championship (alongside current Clemson defensive lineman Peter Woods) as a consensus five-star recruit across most major outlets and ranked among the nation's top 50 players in his class.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney expounded on Clemson's strategy for the three winter transfer additions:

"As I've always said, we do what's best for Clemson. We'll use the portal whenever we need it and we'll be strategic with it. We needed it four years ago; we needed a backup quarterback and we got one. The next year, we needed a backup quarterback and we got one and he was here for two years.

"This year, we didn't anticipate signing a defensive line portal guy. We had two great ones committed and we were taking two. But as y'all know, things can change in recruiting. We had a young man back out and decide to go somewhere else, so there wasn't anybody left to recruit that could fill the need. Now we [had] a gap so we had to go use the portal and we needed a high-level guy and we got the guy I wanted to hit [Heldt].

"From a receiver standpoint, we had two guys go in the portal, and so we had a gap. We needed to go get a guy, and we needed somebody that could come in and help us with our depth and come in and compete and we found a great kid in Tristan out in Southeast Missouri. We were looking for a little length, and high school recruiting was over; there was nobody to get. We needed to go get a guy.

"And then the linebacker situation, honestly, we weren't really going to take a 'backer. We knew we needed another guy. Logan Anderson, our signee, tore his ACL. Kobe [McCloud], his situation [rehabbing from a knee injury]. We knew we probably needed another guy, but we were going to wait until May. And then Jeremiah popped up. We knew all about him, obviously recruited him hard, knew his family. That was a really good situation that worked out for us.

"That's really it. Nothing different. I know everybody likes to write about it, but our process is still the same. We're going to recruit high school kids as long as we can get the best of the best. As long as we can get the Gideon Davidsons of the world and the Sammy Browns of the world and the T.J. Parkers and Peter Woods and Cade Klubniks, that's what we're going to do, and we're going to develop... And then we have to respond if we have a situation and we have a gap in our roster or we have kids that leave. For us, that's how we use the portal, but the process isn't any different. They've still got to be the right fit, they've got to check all the boxes, they can't just be a good player. No different than our high school recruiting."

-- DEFENSE --

CFP-ERA DEFENSIVE TRACK RECORD

Clemson has a track record of producing one of the nation's top defenses in most seasons since the advent of the College Football Playoff in 2014.

Clemson ranked in the Top 30 in the country in total defense in each of the first 10 seasons of the CFP era and also ranked among the Top 30 in scoring defense in those 10 campaigns (including five Top 5 finishes in the category).

Clemson's defensive anomaly in 2024 led to a change in leadership, as the Tigers plucked Penn State Defensive Coordinator Tom Allen for Clemson's defensive coordinator position immediately following the Nittany Lions' exit from the College Football Playoff. Allen now leads a Clemson defense that tied for the national lead in Top 10 finishes in average yards allowed per game in the College Football Playoff era.

ALLEN IS ALL IN

Clemson officially announced Tom Allen as its new defensive coordinator on Jan. 14.

"Tom checked every box that I was looking for," Head Coach Dabo Swinney said. "We've got a great football coach — and a great leader of men — coming to Clemson... He brings a ton of experience and was highly recommended by some of the best people in this business. He is obviously coming off of a great year as the defensive coordinator at Penn State, and we're excited to welcome him as our defensive coordinator here at Clemson."

Allen joined the Tigers with more than three decades of coaching experience. In 2024, he helped Penn State to a school-record 13 wins and a College Football Playoff berth. His defense recorded two pick-sixes in Penn State's 38-10 win against SMU in the College Football Playoff First Round, and in the following game, his unit bottled up Heisman runner-up Ashton Jeanty, holding the star running back to a season-low 3.47 yards per carry and no touchdowns in a 31-14 Penn State victory in the CFP Quarterfinal at Fiesta Bowl.

Penn State finished seventh in the nation in total defense (294.8 yards per game) and eighth in the nation in scoring defense (16.5 points per game) under Allen's guidance in 2024.

300 OR FEWER YARDS

Clemson has held opponents under 300 yards of offense 50 times since the start of the 2018 season, third-most in the country.

Clemson's defense calls Death Valley home but might as well file for dual residency in opponents' backfields.

Since 2012, Clemson leads the nation in both sacks and tackles for loss. In September 2023, Clemson became the first program in the country to record 500 sacks since the start of the 2012 season.

DEFENSIVE TOUCHDOWNS

In 2024, Clemson extended its streak of scoring multiple defensive touchdowns to 15 straight seasons. The last time Clemson had fewer than two defensive touchdowns in a season was 2009, Dabo Swinney's first full season as head coach, when the Tigers supplemented a single defensive touchdown with six special teams touchdowns.

WHO'S YOUR HAUSER?

Placekicker Nolan Hauser arrived at Clemson in January 2024 as the national high school record-holder for career field goals made (66) during his career at Hough High School in Cornelius, N.C.

Hauser (pronounced HOO-zer, not HOW-zer) opened his career with a streak of 25 consecutive made kicks (five field goals & 20 PATs) in 2024 before a blocked PAT against Stanford accounted for his first miss.

A week later at Florida State, Hauser made five field goals and accounted for 17 total points in Clemson's 16-point road win. The five-field-goal performance by Hauser was Clemson's first since Chandler Catanzaro went 5-for-5 on field goal attempts against Boston College in 2011.

	Nelson Welch	1992	Maryland	5
	Nelson Welch	1994	North Carolina	5
	Chandler Catanzaro	2011	Boston College	5
	Nolan Hauser	2024	Florida State	5

Hauser's six points against Virginia Tech in November 2024 gave him the school record for points in a true freshman season, breaking the previous mark of 78 set by Sammy Watkins in 2011. In the ACC Championship Game, he reached the century mark to post the first 100-point season by a true freshman in Clemson history.

Hauser's 113-point 2024 season ranked tied for sixth in Clemson history in kicking points scored in a single season and tied for ninth in school history in points scored by any means in a single season.

Hauser is a second-generation Clemson student-athlete. His mother, Sheri Hauser (née Bueter), was an All-American soccer player at Clemson from 1994-97, and his father, Scott, played baseball at Clemson in from 1995-97 and was 6-2 as a pitcher on Clemson's College World Series team of 1996. His sister, Ella, was also a member of Clemson's women's soccer team from 2021-24.

HAUSER'S HIGHLIGHT

Though the pronunciation of his last name often trips up observers, Hauser made his name much more nationally recognizable with the seminal highlight of the 2024 ACC Championship Game.

In what Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney called "the biggest kick in Clemson history," the true freshman booted a 56-yard game winning field goal as time expired to give Clemson its 22nd ACC title, its 10th win of the season and its seventh College Football Playoff berth. Of note:

- Hauser's field goal gave Clemson the first walk-off win in ACC Championship Game history.

- Hauser became the first Clemson player to kick a game-winning walk-off field goal since Chandler Catanzaro hit a 37-yard field goal to beat LSU to end the 2012 Chick-Fil-A Bowl.

- Hauser's 56-yard field goal was the longest game-winning field goal as time expired in Clemson history.

- Hauser's career-long 56-yard field goal was the fourth-longest field goal in Clemson history but its longest away from Death Valley. It was also the longest field goal in postseason play in Clemson history.

- Hauser became the first FBS player ever to win a conference championship game by kicking a field goal of 50 or more yards as time expired.

- The game-winning field goal came in Hauser's home metro area, as his hometown of Cornelius, N.C. is roughly 20 miles north of Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte.

THE OTHER SWINNEY DYNASTY

Like the Colquitt family punting at Tennessee, the Swinney family holding for placekicks at Clemson has become a dynasty of its own.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's oldest son, Will, arrived at Clemson in 2017 and immediately earned Clemson's starting holder position on placekicks. He played five seasons and a record-tying 69 games at Clemson through 2021. In those five seasons, Clemson scored 565 points on placekicks, including field goals and PATs, and he held for 555 of those 565 points. The only 10 Clemson kicking points not held by Will in his career were instead held by his brother, Drew, who was Clemson's starter at the position in 2022.

Will and Drew were succeeded by the youngest of the three Swinney boys, Clay, a redshirt junior in his third season as Clemson's starting holder in 2025. Clay's presence creates a plausible scenario in which every Clemson placekick in a full 10-year span from 2017-26 could be held by a Swinney.

Clemson's last hold by any player outside the Swinney family was on the final point of Clemson's 2016 national championship, as Seth Ryan, coincidentally also the son of a famous long-time coach (Rex Ryan), held the PAT following Hunter Renfrow's game-winning touchdown with one second remaining.

Clemson's 2024 win against Stanford marked Clemson's 100th consecutive game with a Swinney as holder, a game that ironically resulted in Dabo Swinney's 100th career home win at Memorial Stadium. The family crossed 800 kicking points held for in the contest as well.

TURNOVER TURNAROUND

Amid Clemson's frustrating 4-4 start to the 2023 season, Head Coach Dabo Swinney was running out of descriptors to explain Clemson's maddening penchant for turning the ball over — and doing so catastrophically.

A year later, Clemson was one of the nation's best teams at protecting the football. The Tigers ranked fourth in the nation in turnover margin (+16) in 2024.

Clemson's +16 turnover margin ranked eighth in school history. It was the team's top turnover margin in a season under Dabo Swinney, surpassing its +15 mark in 2019.

With 10 giveaways in 14 games, Clemson set a school record for fewest giveaways per game and tied for second in fewest total giveaways.

DEFEATS IN REVIEW

Clemson has lost 23 games since 2015, the fourth-fewest in the nation in that span. Eleven of Clemson's 23 losses since 2015 — just shy of 50 percent — have come against AP Top 10 teams.

The opponents to whom Clemson has lost since 2015 have a combined final record of 217-66, a winning percentage of .767. Clemson has not lost to a team that finished with a losing record since 2017 and has not lost to a team with a losing record at the time of the game since losing to 2-5 Boston College in 2010, Dabo Swinney's second full season as head coach.

400-YARD GAMES

Clemson's 99 400-yard games since 2015 are tied for the fourth-most in the nation. Clemson has reached 500 yards in 57 of those contests, fifth-most in the nation.

OFFENSIVE BALANCE

Clemson fielded one of the nation's most balanced offenses from 2018-24, averaging 264 passing yards per game and 191 rushing yards per game in that span. Clemson was one of only six teams nationally to average at least 260 passing yards and at least 190 rushing yards on a per-game basis in that time frame.

Expanded to cover the entire College Football Playoff era prior to 2025, Clemson, Alabama and Oklahoma were the only schools to exceed 29,000 rushing yards and 40,000 passing yards in the first 11 years of the College Football Playoff era.

Clemson was undefeated when exceeding both 200 rushing yards and 200 passing yards — 58-0 under Swinney and 108-0-1 all-time — until opening the 2023 season with a loss at Duke in which the Tigers reached the double-century mark in both categories. The defeat was also a statistical anomaly nationally, as from 2014 through that 2023 season opener, FBS teams who passed for 200-plus yards, rushed for 200-plus yards and gave up 28 or fewer points in a single game were a combined 1748-41 (97.7 percent).

The anomaly struck again in 2024 when Clemson reached 200 yards in both categories in a loss to Louisville. After Clemson's loss in that game, FBS teams who, like Clemson, reached 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards while also producing 30+ first downs and no turnovers were a combined 326-21 (93.9 percent) since 2000.

GROUND GAME

Clemson has scored at least one rushing touchdown in 90 of its 99 games since the start of the 2018 season. Clemson's 90 games with a rushing touchdown in that span are the most in the nation. Clemson has scored multiple rushing touchdowns in 73 of those games, also the nation's best.

MIND THE "MIDDLE EIGHT"

Since 2015, Clemson's most successful teams have frequently won one of the hidden "games within the game" on each side of halftime. SportSource Analytics tracks the "Middle Eight," the section of the game defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Clemson has outscored opponents in that time window 79 times since 2015, posting a 76-3 record in those contests.

Clemson has not only often led the nation in that category but has often lapped the field. In 2019, Clemson played an average of 76.0 players per game, an average that far exceeded all power conference programs by more than 11 players — a full unit — per game.

Per data available via the NCAA stat database, Clemson ranked second among power conference schools in average players per game in 2024 — only six hundredths of a player behind national leader Tennessee — but ranked first in total players played.

Note: Partial-season allowances for redshirts began in 2018.

The approach to creating functional depth and rewarding players ready to play has been a key philosophy for Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose own collegiate playing career was hatched as a walk-on fighting for playing time in Alabama's receiving corps.

"We're fully committed to playing guys who deserve to play," Swinney said. "You commit to a guy early in the season, and even if a guy has only played 10 percent of the snaps, when you get to game eight or nine, they've got some good experience."

In a statistic unlikely to be challenged in the wake of upcoming NCAA roster limits, Clemson has played 100+ players in a game six times under Dabo Swinney.

FINISH

In 2018, Clemson debuted a new version of its "This is Why We Work" fourth quarter video at Death Valley, a hype video imploring the team to finish and featuring Director of Strength and Conditioning Joey Batson bellowing:

"Let me tell you something right now: they don't put championship rings on smooth hands! You gotta go earn it! You gotta go earn it six seconds at a time! You win championships when the stadium is empty, when the band ain't playing, when the cheerleaders ain't cheering, when it's just you and your brothers right beside you. That's when you win championships! In the fourth quarter, that is when we shine!"

The video and the speech became a part of Clemson lore, buoyed by its playing during Clemson's comeback win against Syracuse that year en route to a 15-0 national championship season. Over the years, the video has changed but the speech remains the same, with many Clemson fans yelling it in unison as it plays.

Clemson holds a 162-9 record under Dabo Swinney when leading after three quarters, including a 146-6 mark since 2011.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

- Entering the 2025 fall semester, of the 410 eligible players who completed their athletic eligibility at Clemson and/or graduated early in Dabo Swinney's 16+ full years as head coach, 404 (98.5 percent) have earned a degree during their time at Clemson.

- Clemson earned the AFCA Academic Achievement Award for 2024. The award was Clemson's fourth in the last seven years, but it was Clemson's fourth in the last five years that the honor was actually awarded, as the organization did not name recipients during a two-year period amid the COVID-19 pandemic.

- Clemson broke program multi-year NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) records in three straight years from 2017-19 (987 in 2016-17, 992 in 2017-18 and 993 in 2018-19) before the NCAA suspended APR reporting during the COVID-19 pandemic. Upon reinstatement of APR reporting in June 2022, Clemson shattered its multi-year APR record with a 999 covering the 2017-18 through 2020-21 academic years. Clemson has posted a 995 multi-year APR in each of the last three cycles.

- Most recently, Clemson posted a 995 multi-year APR covering 2020-21 through 2023-24, tied for fifth-best in the FBS. Clemson's lofty academic success in that period coincided with 40 wins in a four-year span and two ACC titles.

- Clemson and Northwestern are the only FBS programs to produce a 990+ multi-year APR in each of the last six reported cycles.

- Clemson is the only program in the country to have finished among the Top 25 in APR among FBS schools and the AP Top 25 in every reported APR cycle since 2011.

Notes: The NCAA suspended APR reporting for the 2019-20 academic year amid COVID-19, but Clemson's unreported APR would have again placed Clemson in the top 25 of FBS programs; APR data for 2024-25 will be published in spring 2026.

- Prior to the suspension of APR Public Recognition Awards following the COVID-19 pandemic, the NCAA recognized Clemson with its annual honor, which is bestowed upon programs ranking in the Top 10 percent of their respective sports, for nine of the award's last 10 reported academic cycles. Only 37 FBS programs earned at least one APR recognition across the 2009-10 through 2018-19 academic years. Only 30 programs earned it multiple times. Clemson, Duke and Northwestern were the only ones to earn the award 9+ times in that 10-year span.

- With its award for the 2018-19 academic year, Clemson became the only FBS program since the NCAA created the APR metric in 2003 to win a national championship and an APR Public Recognition Award in the same year multiple times. Alabama is the only other school to accomplish the title/APR double in a single year once (2011-12 academic year).

- A program-record 98 individuals earned a 3.0 GPA or better in Fall 2024. That included program-record 20 perfect 4.0s.

- Clemson set a record in Fall 2024 with the highest single-semester GPA in program history with a 3.19 team GPA. Clemson followed that up with a 3.18 spring semester.

- Entering the 2025 fall semester, Clemson has had 75+ individuals earn a 3.0 or better GPA in eight consecutive semesters.

HISTORIC GRADUATION SUCCESS RATE

Aided in part by historically elite academic performance by Clemson Football, Clemson Athletics tied for best in the NCAA among public Power Five institutions in Graduation Success Rate (GSR) with a 96 percent mark for the 2014-17 cohort in data released by the NCAA in November 2024.

Football reached a 99 percent mark for the second year in a row, again tying the highest GSR score for any Power Five football program, and tying the highest ever recorded among public Power Five football programs in the 20 years the NCAA has tracked the metric. Football trailed only Air Force and LIU (100 percent) in this release, and tied Columbia, Harvard and Northwestern.

ALL EYES ON CLEMSON

"Where the Blue Ridge yawns its greatness, where the Tigers play..."

Those are the opening words to Clemson's alma mater. In recent years, "where the Tigers play" has also been where eyes and television sets inevitably turn.

From 2018-24, Clemson games accounted for three of the nine most-watched college football games and five of the 26 most-watched games in that span.

The interest in watching Clemson play hasn't been limited to television broadcasts. Clemson continues to provide one of the marquee in-venue experiences in all of sports, as Clemson entered 2024 having been ranked in the Top 20 in the nation average home attendance at Memorial Stadium for 44 straight seasons.

2024 ALL-ACC SELECTIONS

A conference-best 10 Clemson players earned recognition on the ACC's annual squads recognizing the conference's best in 2024. With the honors, Clemson produced double-digit All-ACC selections for the ninth time in 10 seasons.

RELATIVELY SPEAKING

Clemson's 2025 roster has many connections to college and professional athletics. Below is a list of notable connections:

- Keith Adams Jr., RB: Son of Keith Adams, a Clemson Athletic Hall of Famer at linebacker for the Tigers from 1998-2000.

- Jamal Anderson, LB: Son of Jamal Anderson, an eight-year NFL running back who earned first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors in 1998 in helping the Falcons to a berth in Super Bowl XXXIII.

- Logan Brooking, TE: Son of 15-year NFL linebacker Keith Brooking, a five-time Pro Bowl selection who was 12th pick of the 1998 NFL Draft and remains the all-time leading tackler for both Georgia Tech and the Atlanta Falcons.

- Sammy Brown, LB: Son of former Furman football player Mike Brown.

- Vic Burley, DT: Cousin of Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Tackles Coach (and 10-year NFL veteran) Nick Eason.

- Brodey Conn, LS/P: Son of Defensive Pass Game Coordinator/Safeties Coach Mickey Conn.

- Ashton Hampton, CB: Son of University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff Head Coach Alonzo Hampton.

- Ronan Hanafin, S: Son of Dan Hanafin, who played quarterback at Boston University and was the program's starting quarterback in its final year in 1997; also the brother of Boston College quarterback Shane Hanafin.

- Nolan Hauser, PK: Son of two former Clemson athletes, including his mother, Sheri Hauser (née Bueter), an All-American soccer player at Clemson from 1994-97, and his father, Scott, who played baseball at Clemson from 1995-97 and was 6-2 as a pitcher on Clemson's College World Series team of 1996. He is the brother of recent Clemson women's soccer player Ella Hauser.

- Brayden Jacobs, OL: Son of nine-year NFL running back Brandon Jacobs, a two-time Super Bowl champion with the New York Giants who accrued more than 9,000 career rushing yards.

- Charlie Johnson, TE: Son of Ellis Johnson, a long-time college football coach who served as Clemson's defensive coordinator from 1994-96.

- Jaheim Lawson, DE: Brother of Shaq Lawson, a 2015 consensus All-American at Clemson and 2016 first-round pick.

- Tristan Leigh, OL: Son of Stan Leigh, who played running back at Virginia from 1990-94.

- Cade Klubnik, QB: Brother of Reed Klubnik, who played wide receiver at Yale from 2016-19.

- Armon Mason, DE: Son of Anthony Mason, who played 13 years in the NBA, earning an All-Star selection and an NBA Sixth Man of the Year Award; also a cousin of Atlanta Falcons All-Pro Grady Jarrett.

- Kobe McCloud, LB: Brother of former Clemson wide receiver Ray-Ray McCloud (2015-17); also brother of former USF/Arizona/James Madison/Texas State quarterback) Jordan McCloud.

- T.J. Moore, WR: Son of Terrance Moore Sr., a multi-time all-conference wide receiver at California University of Pennsylvania.

- Walker Parks, OL: Son of former Kentucky offensive lineman David Parks.

- Trent Pearman, QB: Son of former Clemson tight end and current Director of Football Scouting Danny Pearman.

- Ian Reed, OL, and Charlie Reed, PK/P: Sons of Eric Reed, a former member of the US Men's National Rugby Team.

- Collin Sadler, OL: Grandson of John Schroeder, a former All-America wide receiver at North Carolina who went on to play for the CFL's Hamilton Tiger-Cats.

- Clark Sanderson, WR: Son of former Alabama wide receiver Craig Sanderson (1988-90).

- Josh Sapp, TE: Son of former Clemson quarterback/defensive end Patrick Sapp (1992-95).

- Clay Swinney, WR: Son of Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney and brother of former Clemson wide receivers/holders Will Swinney and Drew Swinney.

- Caden Story, DL: Son of former Jacksonville State football and baseball player Clifford Story; nephew of 14-year NFL tight end Marcus Pollard; brother of Kentucky safety Kristian Story.

- Avieon Terrell, CB: Brother of A.J. Terrell, current NFL All-Pro cornerback who was an All-ACC performer at Clemson.

- Champ Thompson, DT: Son of Michael Thompson, a fourth-round pick by the Atlanta Falcons in the 2000 NFL Draft.

- Cole Turner, WR: Son of former Alabama player Kevin Turner, who played eight years in the NFL with the New England Patriots and Philadelphia Eagles, and brother of former Clemson All-America safety Nolan Turner.

- Tyler Venables, S: Son of Oklahoma head coach and former Clemson defensive coordinator Brent Venables; brother of former Clemson linebacker Jake Venables.

- Bryant Wesco Jr., WR: Son of Bryant Wesco Sr. and Tambia Wesco, both of whom were triple jumpers at Louisiana Tech. Bryant Sr. was inducted into the Louisiana Tech Hall of Fame and Tambia was a 1999 all-conference selection.

- Wade Woodaz and Drew Woodaz, LB: Brothers.

- Watson Young, OL: Is the first fourth-generation Clemson Football player. Son of former Clemson All-American and three-time Academic All-American Kyle Young. Nephew of Will Young, who was an offensive lineman at Clemson from 1992-95. Grandson of Ben Watson, a linebacker at Clemson from 1968-70. Great grandson of Ed McLendon, who lettered in 1939 and played the first bowl team in Clemson history that earned a 6-3 win in the 1940 Cotton Bowl.

CHURNING OUT NFL TALENT

Since assuming the head role midseason in 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has produced 86 NFL draft picks during his head coaching tenure. His 86 draft picks produced are the most by any active coach in the nation since the 2009 NFL Draft, and his 18 first-rounders are the fourth-most overall and second-most of any active coach in that span.

In recent years, Clemson has been one of the NFL's primary provider of first-round talent among defensive linemen and linebackers. Clemson's nine first-round picks from its defensive front seven since the 2015 NFL Draft rank second in the nation.

FIRST-ROUND DEFENSIVE LINEMEN & LINEBACKERS SINCE 2015 NFL DRAFT

Rk	School	DL/LB
1.	Georgia	10
2.	Clemson	9
3.	Alabama	8
	Michigan	8
5.	Ohio State	5

Additional nuggets on Clemson's recent success in the NFL Draft are included below:

- Clemson has had at least one player selected in 23 consecutive drafts since 2003, representing the second-longest streak in school history behind a 24-year streak across the 1951-74 NFL Drafts.

- Clemson is one of only six schools to have produced multiple draft picks in each of the last 23 NFL Drafts (LSU, Michigan, Oklahoma, Ohio State and USC).

- Clemson has had at least three selections in 16 of its 17 drafts since Dabo Swinney was elevated to head coach. Clemson is one of six schools to have produced three or more picks at least 16 times in that span alongside Alabama, LSU, Ohio State, Oklahoma and USC.

- Including two defensive picks in the 2025 NFL Draft, Clemson has produced multiple defensive draft picks in 14 of the 17 drafts of the Dabo Swinney era. Clemson, LSU, Alabama, Ohio State and Georgia are the only programs to produce multiple draft picks from their defenses in at least 14 drafts in that span.

- Clemson has had at least one player chosen by 30 of the 32 NFL franchises since 2003. The lone exceptions in that time frame are the Patriots, who last selected a Tiger in 1991, and the Panthers, who have never selected a Clemson player despite playing their first season in franchise history in Death Valley.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney has produced a draft pick for 28 of the 32 NFL teams in his head coaching tenure; the only NFL teams not to select a Clemson player in Swinney's head coaching tenure are the Chicago Bears, Denver Broncos, New England Patriots and Carolina Panthers.

- Though Clemson did not have a player selected in the first round of the 2025 NFL Draft, Clemson has had at least one first-round draft choice in 10 of the last 13 years, standing alongside Alabama, Florida, Georgia and Ohio State as the only programs to produce a first-round pick in at least 10 of the last 13 years.

- Since 2013, Clemson has produced first-round picks from the QB, RB, WR, DE, DT, LB and DB position groups. The only other school with at least one first-round at all those positions in that span is Alabama.

- Linebacker Barrett Carter's selection in the 2025 NFL Draft represented the fourth consecutive draft in which Clemson had a linebacker selected. Clemson and Alabama are the only programs in the nation to produce at least one linebacker in each of the last four NFL Drafts.

- Safety R.J. Mickens' selection in the 2025 NFL Draft gave Clemson at least one drafted defensive back in 13 of Clemson's 17 drafts in the Dabo Swinney era.

2025 GAME RECAPS

GAME 1	LSU	17
	CLEMSON	10
	AUG. 30, 2025 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. - Trailing by seven late in the game, Clemson drove to the LSU 15-yard line but was stopped on downs as No. 9 LSU defeated No. 4 Clemson, 17-10.

Quarterback Cade Klubnik finished 19-of-38 for 230 passing yards. Defensively, Clemson had eight tackles for loss, forced two takeaways and held LSU to 354 yards of total offense. In his first career start, safety Ronan Hanafin led Clemson with 12 tackles, followed by linebacker Sammy Brown with 11 tackles.

Ricardo Jones returned a fumble forced by Avieon Terrell 24 yards to the LSU 24 to set up Clemson's first score, a Nolan Hauser 42-yard field goal with 8:57 to play in the first quarter. LSU later knotted the score at 3-3 on a 52-yard field goal by Damian Ramos 4:07 into the second quarter.

Klubnik then led Clemson on a 13-play, 75-yard drive capped by one-yard touchdown by Adam Randall, giving Clemson a 10-3 lead with 4:36 to play in the half.

After Clemson missed a 48-yard field goal early in the third quarter, LSU evened the score at 10-10 on a two-yard touchdown run by Caden Dunham. LSU took its first lead of the game with 12:18 remaining in the fourth quarter when LSU quarterback Garrett Nussmeier completed an 11-play, 73-yard drive with an eight-yard touchdown pass to Trey/Dez Green to give LSU a 17-10 lead.

After trading several scoreless fourth-quarter possessions, Clemson forced an LSU punt after the two-minute timeout to give Clemson one final drive. After a 16-yard punt return by Bryant Wesco Jr. set up Clemson at its own 43, Clemson drove 42 yards but was ultimately stopped in the LSU red zone with 59 seconds to play.

GAME 2	TROY	16
	CLEMSON	27
	SEPT. 6, 2025 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. - No. 8 Clemson scored the final 27 points of the game en route to a 27-16 win against Troy at Memorial Stadium.

Running back Adam Randall led Clemson with 165 all-purpose yards including a career-high 112 rushing yards and one touchdown in addition to four catches for 23 yards. Wide receiver Bryant Wesco Jr. caught two touchdowns, leading all receivers with seven catches for 118 yards. Clemson intercepted three passes and sacked Troy four times.

Troy opened the game with a five-play, 75-yard drive that ended in a 44-yard touchdown from Goose Crowder to Tray Taylor. Shortly after, the game entered into a 92-minute lightning delay with Troy leading 7-0.

Coming out of the break, Troy extended its lead to 16-0 on a 37-yard first-quarter field goal and a four-yard second-quarter pick-six on a batted ball. But Clemson scored its first of its 27 unanswered points late in the first half on a 25-yard Nolan Hauser field goal to bring the halftime score to 16-3.

Clemson got in gear coming out of halftime, immediately marching 75 yards in eight plays, 59 yards of which came via Randall on the ground including a one-yard touchdown run. Clemson took the lead 58 seconds later, cashing in an interception with a 26-yard Wesco touchdown one play later. The Tigers' next two possessions resulted in a 30-yard Hauser field goal and a 34-yard scoring pass to Wesco to bring the score to 27-16.

In all, after the slow start, Clemson scored on five consecutive possessions across the final three quarters before running out the final 4:24 of clock on the game's final drive.

GAME 3	CLEMSON	21
	GEORGIA TECH	24
	SEPT. 13, 2025 BOBBY DODD STADIUM • ATLANTA, GA.

ATLANTA - No. 12 Clemson overcame a second-quarter deficit of 13 points and a fourth-quarter deficit of seven points, but a 55-yard field goal as time expired gave Georgia Tech a 24-21 victory at Bobby Dodd Stadium.

Bryant Wesco Jr. hauled in seven passes for 126 yards, including a go-ahead 73-yard touchdown reception. Adam Randall added 80 rushing yards on 15 carries and a late game-tying touchdown.

Georgia Tech ran out to a 13-0 second quarter lead, converting a Clemson fumble into a field goal in the first quarter and adding the first 10 points of the second quarter. Clemson got on the board with a 16-play, 75-yard drive capped by a one-yard Cade Klubnik rushing touchdown to make it 13-7 at halftime.

Clemson received the opening kickoff of the second half and drove 66 yards to the Georgia Tech 9-yard line, but Klubnik was intercepted by T.J. Daniels. After forcing a three-and-out, Klubnik connected with Wesco for a 73-yard touchdown to give Clemson its first lead of the game at 14-13.

Across the third and fourth quarters, Georgia Tech drove 90 yards in 13 plays, and Haynes King rushed for a one-yard touchdown to take the lead. The Yellow Jackets converted a two-point attempt to push the score to 21-14. Clemson responded with a 13-play, 75-yard drive, capped by a two-yard touchdown run by Adam Randall to tie the game, 21-21, with 3:26 remaining.

Georgia Tech drove 38 yards to the Clemson 37-yard line, and the Yellow Jackets sent the field goal unit on the field with the clock running, and Aidan Birr made a 55-yard field goal as time expired to give Georgia Tech the 24-21 victory.
