CLEMSON TO FACE BOSTON COLLEGE IN CHESTNUT HILL SATURDAY

Clemson will play on the road for the second straight week when the Tigers face the Boston College Eagles on Saturday, Oct. 11. Kickoff at Alumni Stadium in Chestnut Hill, Mass. is set for 7:30 p.m. ET on ACC Network.

Last week, Clemson rode the strength of a 28-3 first-quarter barrage en route to a 38-10 victory at North Carolina. Clemson had been -10 in first-quarter point differential and -22 in first-half point differential prior to the contest. The Tigers then ripped off four straight touchdown drives to open the win against the Tar Heels.

Clemson scored on its opening play from scrimmage on a 75-yard double pass from wide receiver Antonio Williams to wide receiver T.J. Moore. It marked Clemson's first time scoring on a game's first play from scrimmage since Travis Etienne opened the 2018 ACC Championship Game with a 75-yard touchdown run against Pitt.

This week's game will be the second of Clemson's only set of back-to-back road games of the season. It will also be the second leg of what Dabo Swinney playfully called Clemson's "New England Patriots Tour." After defeating Bill Belichick, who led the Patriots to six Super Bowl titles in 24 seasons, the Tigers will now face Boston College Head Coach Bill O'Brien, who spent six years with Belichick in New England.

Clemson enters this game against 1-4 Boston College having not lost to a team with a losing record at the time of kickoff since losing to 2-5 Boston College in 2010. Clemson has won 35 straight games against teams with losing records, the nation's third-longest active streak according to Stats Perform (Alabama, 38; Ohio State, 36).

Last week, Swinney coached in his 300th total game at Clemson, including both his time as an assistant coach and as a head coach. Clemson was shut out, 30-0, by Georgia in his first game as Clemson's wide receivers coach in August 2003. The Tigers have scored in every game since, a streak that reached 299 games in the 38-10 win last week.

With a score this week, Clemson can record the 13th streak of 300 consecutive games with a point in FBS history. Clemson's point streak is the eighth-longest active streak and is three games shy of tying Texas Tech (302 from 1997-2021) for the 12th-longest streak all-time.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

- Clemson attempting to improve to 22-9-2 all-time against Boston College, dating to the teams' first meeting in the Cotton Bowl on New Year's Day in 1940.

- Clemson attempting to win its 13th consecutive game against Boston College, dating back to 2011. Clemson's active 12-game winning streak against Boston College is its seventh-longest all-time against a single opponent, its fifth-longest active streak, and its second-longest active streak against an ACC opponent.

ALL-TIME WINNING STREAKS OF 10+ GAMES VS. OPPONENTS (CLEMSON)

Rk	Opponent	Wins	Years
1.	Furman	32	1938-Present
2.	Virginia	29	1955-89
3.	The Citadel	19	1932-Present
4.	Wake Forest	16	2009-Present
5.	Wake Forest	15	1977-91
	Presbyterian	15	1944-Present
7.	Boston College	12	2011-Present
8.	Wake Forest	10	1940-50

- Clemson attempting to improve to 15-4 against Boston College since the Eagles joined the ACC in 2005.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 15-1 against Boston College under Head Coach Dabo Swinney. Boston College would be the second program against which Swinney has earned 15 wins, joining Wake Forest (16).

- Clemson, whose most recent meeting with Boston College came in Chestnut Hill in 2022, playing back-to-back games in the series in Massachusetts for the first time since 1952-53. The teams met in Death Valley in three consecutive years from 2019-21 but haven't played consecutive games in the series in Massachusetts since playing games at Braves Field and Fenway Park in 1952 and 1953, respectively.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 11-6-1 all-time in road games against Boston College.

- Clemson attempting to win a sixth straight game in Chestnut Hill to produce Clemson's 10th all-time road winning streak of six or more games against a single opponent.

ROAD WINNING STREAKS AGAINST SINGLE OPPONENTS (CLEMSON ALL-TIME)

Rk	Opponent	Wins	Years
1.	Virginia	12*	1955-88
2.	Furman	10	1939-52
3.	The Citadel	8	1909-27
	Wake Forest	8	2010-Present
6.	South Carolina	7	1934-40
	Virginia Tech	7*	1935-89
	Wake Forest	7	1948-66
9.	South Carolina	6	1989-99

* - Does not include "neutral" Clemson wins in Richmond and Roanoke; Clemson has won five straight at both Boston College (2012-Present) and South Carolina (2015-Present) and can join this list with a win in each location this season.

- Clemson playing the second leg of its only set of back-to-back road games this season.

- Clemson entering the game against 1-4 Boston College having not lost to a team with a losing record at the time of kickoff since losing to 2-5 Boston College in 2010, Dabo Swinney's second full season as head coach. Dating to 2010, Clemson has won 35 straight games against teams with losing records, the nation's third-longest streak according to Stats Perform (Alabama, 38; Ohio State, 36). No other program has an active streak greater than 16.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 33-10 in night games since the start of the 2018 season and 54-13 in night games since 2015.

- Clemson facing Boston College Head Coach Bill

O'Brien for the first time. O'Brien is one of four head coaches slated to face Clemson for the first time this season (Troy's Gerad Parker, Syracuse's Fran Brown and North Carolina's Bill Belichick).

- Clemson attempting to improve to 172-76-3 all-time (and 55-10 since 2011) when facing a coach for the first time.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 42-10 in true road games since the start of the 2015 season. With a victory, Clemson would tie Boise State for the most road wins in the nation in that span.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 81-12 against ACC opponents, including postseason play, since 2015.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 143-21 against AP-unranked teams under Dabo Swinney and improve to 120-11 in those games since the start of the 2012 season.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 106-18 in regular season play since the start of the 2015 season.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney (182-50) entering the game as one of seven coaches in FBS history to win 180 games within the first 20 seasons of a head coaching career. With a win, Swinney would tie LaVell Edwards (183) in that category and trail only Tom Osborne (195), Nick Saban (191), Bob Stoops (191), Joe Paterno (187) and Urban Meyer (187) despite Swinney being in only his 18th season (and 17th full season). Note: Stoops and Meyer are not credited on the NCAA's official list of most wins through 20 seasons since they did not coach 20 years.

- Clemson attempting to score in its 300th consecutive game, a streak that dates to 2003. It would be the 13th streak of 300 or more consecutive games without being shut out in FBS history.

- Clemson attempting to produce three consecutive 400-yard games for the first time this season.

- Clemson attempting to average 6.0 or more yards per play in four consecutive games for the first time since a six-game streak last season.

- Clemson attempting to produce three consecutive 350-yard passing games for the first time since a four-game streak in 2016.

- Clemson attempting to throw five or more touchdown passes in consecutive games for the first time since 2018 against Florida State and Louisville.

- Clemson entering the game having scored at least one rushing touchdown in a national-best 90 of its 101 games since the start of the 2018 season. Clemson has also rushed for multiple touchdowns in a national-best 73 games in that span.

- Clemson (1,497 TFLs since 2012) needing three more tackles for loss to become the first program in the country to record 1,500 tackles for loss since the start of the 2012 season.

- Tight end Christian Bentancur attempting to record a touchdown catch in back-to-back games for the first time in his career.

- Bentancur attempting to become the first Clemson tight end with a touchdown reception in back-to-back games since Jake Briningstool did so against Georgia Tech and North Carolina in 2023.

- Bentancur (and running back Adam Randall) attempting to become the first Clemson player to catch multiple touchdowns in consecutive games since Antonio Williams against Pitt and The Citadel last season.

- Bentancur attempting to join Jake Briningstool (three), Brandon Ford (two) and Jordan Leggett (two) and become the fourth Clemson tight end under Dabo Swinney to record multiple career games with two or more touchdown receptions.

- Defensive tackle Stephylan Green attempting to post a sack in three consecutive games for the first time in his career.

- Green attempting to become the first Clemson defensive tackle with a full sack in three straight games since Carlos Watkins in 2016.

- Defensive end Will Heldt (3.0) sitting two sacks shy of his single-season career high (5.0 at Purdue in 2024).

- Quarterback Cade Klubnik (21-12) attempting to tie Homer Jordan (22-6-1) and DJ Uiagalelei (22-6) for the seventh-most career wins by a Clemson starting quarterback since World War II.

- Klubnik attempting to become the first Clemson quarterback to throw five touchdown passes in consecutive games since Tajh Boyd in 2012 against Wake Forest and Duke.

- Klubnik attempting to throw three or more touchdown passes in three consecutive games for the second time in his career, joining a three-game stretch against Appalachian State, NC State and Stanford in 2024.

- Klubnik (eight) attempting to throw for 300 yards to pass Charlie Whitehurst (eight from 2002-05) for sole possession of the fourth-most career 300-yard passing games in Clemson history.

- Klubnik (770) needing 30 completions to join Tajh Boyd (901), Charlie Whitehurst (817) and Deshaun Watson (814) as the only quarterbacks in school history to complete 800 career passes.

- Klubnik (840) chasing No. 10 Ken Pengitore (898 from 1971-73), No. 9 DJ Uigalelei (913 from 2020-22) and No. 8 Trevor Lawrence (943 from 2018-20) on Clemson's leaderboard for career rushing yards by a quarterback since Clemson transitioned from the single wing in 1953.

- Klubnik (14) chasing No. 7 DJ Uigalelei (15 from 2020-22) and No. 6 Kelly Bryant (16 from 2015-18) on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career rushing touchdowns by a quarterback.

- Klubnik (9,270) entering the game 493 yards behind Charlie Whitehurst (9,763) for the fourth-most career yards of total offense (yards gained and/or thrown) in Clemson history.

- Offensive lineman Blake Miller (3,231) entering the game fourth in career snaps from scrimmage on record in Clemson history.

Note: Available snap data dates to 1986; scrimmage plays only.

- Wide receiver T.J. Moore attempting to record back-to-back 100-yard receiving games for the first time in his career.

- Moore attempting to give Clemson two different wide receivers with back-to-back 100-yard receiving games in a single season for the first time since 2014 when both Artavis Scott and Mike Williams each posted consecutive games with 100 receiving yards. This season, Moore would join Bryant Wesco Jr., who posted consecutive 100-yard games against Troy and Georgia Tech in September.

- Moore attempting to catch a touchdown in back-to-back games for the first time in his career.

- Offensive lineman Walker Parks (2,914) needing 86 more snaps this season to become the eighth Clemson player on record to record 3,000 career snaps from scrimmage.

- Defensive end T.J. Parker (18.5 sacks) needing two sacks to match Chester McGlockton (20.5 from 1989-91) for the 10th-most career sacks in Clemson history.

- Parker (six forced fumbles) needing one forced fumble to tie Levon Kirkland (seven from 1988-91), Keith Adams (seven from 1998-2000) and Vic Beasley (seven from 2011-14) for the seventh-most forced fumbles in a career in Clemson history.

- Running back Adam Randall attempting to become the first Clemson player to score a touchdown of any kind in six consecutive games since Will Shipley in 2022.

- Randall attempting to become the first Clemson player to score a touchdown in each of the first six games of a season since Travis Etienne in 2018.

- Randall attempting to become the fourth Clemson player on record to score a touchdown in each of the first six games of a season, joining C.J. Spiller (all 14 games in 2009), Travis Etienne (first seven games of 2018) and Bill Mathis (first six games of 1959).

- Randall (three) needing one touchdown reception to tie Travis Etienne (four in 2019), C.J. Spiller (four in 2009) and Travis Zachery (four in 2000) for the second-most touchdown catches by a Clemson running back in a single season since the Tigers transitioned away from the single wing in 1953. He is two touchdowns shy of the Clemson single-season record in that span (five, set by Ray Yauger in 1969).

- Randall attempting to become the first Clemson running back to catch a touchdown in three straight games since Clemson moved away from the single wing in 1953.

- Randall (and tight end Christian Bentancur) attempting to become the first Clemson player to catch multiple touchdowns in consecutive games since Antonio Williams against Pitt and The Citadel last season.

- Randall entering the week as one of only two players in the FBS with at least 350 rushing yards and at least three receiving touchdowns (Notre Dame's Jeremiah Love).

- Randall entering the week as one of only four players in the FBS with at least three rushing touchdowns and at least three receiving touchdowns (Notre Dame's Jeremiah Love, Navy's Eli Heidenreich, Vanderbilt's Sedrick Alexander).

- Randall attempting to record a fifth straight game with 100 all-purpose yards. It would be Clemson's first such streak since Phil Mafah's five-game streak in October and November of 2024.

- Cornerback Avieon Terrell (six) needing one forced fumble to take sole possession of the Clemson record for career forced fumbles by a defensive back.

- Terrell (six) needing one forced fumble to tie Levon Kirkland (seven from 1988-91), Keith Adams (seven from 1998-2000) and Vic Beasley (seven from 2011-14) for the seventh-most forced fumbles in a career in Clemson history.

- Terrell (three) attempting to take sole possession of a new single-season career high in forced fumbles (three in both 2024 and 2025).

- Terrell attempting to force a fumble in back-to-back games for the second time in his career (2024 vs. The Citadel and South Carolina).

- Wide receiver Bryant Wesco Jr. (five) needing one more touchdown reception to set a new single-season career high.

- Wide receiver Antonio Williams (17) needing one touchdown catch to enter the Top 10 in school history in career touchdown receptions. Glenn Smith (1949-51) and TE Jordan Leggett (2013-16) are presently tied for ninth with 18 each. Artavis Scott sits at eighth (19 from 2014-16).

- Williams (163) chasing No. 9 Rod Gardner (166 from 1997-2000), No. 8 Derrick Hamilton (167 from 2001-03) and No. 7 Mike Williams (177 from 2013-16) on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career receptions.

-- ON THE OPPONENT --

SERIES HISTORY VS. BOSTON COLLEGE

Clemson holds a 21-9-2 lead in its series with Boston College dating to the programs' first meeting in the 1940

Cotton Bowl.

Early in the series, the two teams played three games at famed Fenway Park in Boston, the home of the Boston Red Sox. Clemson won its first game there in 1941 — just 13 days after Ted Williams finished his .406 season for the Red Sox — by a 26-13 score. The teams met at Fenway again the following year, and Boston College won, 14-7. The two teams played to a 14-14 tie in 1953 at Fenway, evening the series' all-time record at Fenway Park at 1-1-1.

The two teams also played at Braves Field in Boston, then the home of the National League's Boston Braves. Clemson had a 3-1 advantage in games played at Braves Field, all between 1942-52. Clemson has a 10-6-1 lead in the series in games played in Boston or Chestnut Hill.

The Tigers have won 14 of the 15 games played against Boston College since Dabo Swinney became Clemson's head coach on an interim basis on Oct. 13, 2008, including his first win as a head coach on Nov. 1, 2008. Clemson's only loss to the Eagles in the Swinney era as head coach came on the road in 2010.

Clemson has won each of the last 12 games in the series. Boston College's last win in the series took place in 2010, a 16-10 final score. The Eagles have not won at Clemson since 2007, a 20-17 Eagles win that determined the ACC Atlantic Division title.

The Tigers hold a 14-4 advantage in the series since Boston College joined the ACC for the 2005 season. BC won each of the first three, all by seven points or less, with two overtime finishes.

Five of Clemson's victories in the series took place during undefeated Tiger regular seasons. Clemson won, 26-19, in 1948 on the way to a perfect 11-0 season, and won, 35-14, in 1950 on the way to a 9-0-1 season. Clemson won, 34-17, in 2015 during its perfect regular season and posted a 27-7 win in Chestnut Hill in 2018 en route to a 12-0 regular season and eventual 15-0 national championship finish. Clemson also defeated Boston College, 59-7, in 2019 during a second-straight perfect regular season.

MEMORABLE MEETINGS

1939: The teams first met in the Cotton Bowl on Jan. 1, 1940 to conclude the 1939 season. That was a landmark victory for the Clemson program, as it represented the school's first bowl game and the school's first win over a Top 20 team, as Boston College was ranked 11th in the nation entering the game. Clemson won, 6-3, behind 115 yards rushing from Charlie Timmons and four pass deflections in the fourth quarter by Clemson legend Banks McFadden. Boston College was coached by Frank Leahy, who ranks second in career winning percentage in college football history. Leahy lost only 13 games in 13 years as a head coach (two at BC and 11 at Notre Dame), but one was to Clemson.

1982: The two teams tied in a 1982 game in Death Valley. The game was televised by CBS on a regional basis, the first CBS broadcast from Clemson's Memorial Stadium. Clemson had a 14-0 lead at intermission, but sophomore quarterback Doug Flutie led Boston College back to take a 17-14 lead. The Tigers tied the game in the fourth quarter on a field goal by Donald Igwebuike, who played soccer and football for the Tigers that fall. He then had another attempt from 43 yards with eight seconds left, but the kick missed and the game ended in a 17-17 tie.

1983: At Chestnut Hill, the Eagles gained a 31-16 win behind Doug Flutie, who would win the Heisman Trophy the following year. Clemson had a 16-3 lead with 25 minutes left in the game, but the Eagles went on a 28-0 run behind Flutie to end the contest. He was 20-of-36 for 223 yards and two touchdowns against a Clemson defense that featured All-American William Perry. The Eagles gained 504 yards of total offense on the night, 281 rushing and 223 passing. It was Clemson's only loss in 1983 (9-1-1) and the most yards against Clemson during its 30-2-2 run between the 1981-83 seasons. Clemson had just two losses and two ties over a three-year period from 1981-83, with one of the losses and one of the ties coming against Boston College in that 1982-83 period.

2005: Boston College earned a 16-13 overtime victory in the first meeting between the two schools as ACC foes.

2008: Dabo Swinney earned his first victory as Clemson's head coach with a 27-21 road win at Boston College. C.J. Spiller totaled 242 all-purpose yards and Clemson scored the game's final 10 points to earn the victory. Clemson jumped out to a 17-0 halftime lead, but Boston College took advantage of several Tiger miscues and scored 21 straight points to take the lead in the fourth quarter. Spiller's 64-yard kickoff return set up the Tigers' go-ahead touchdown pass to Aaron Kelly and the Clemson defense thwarted Boston College to preserve the win.

2018: Clemson brought home both the O'Rourke-McFadden Trophy and the ACC Atlantic Division Trophy following a 27-7 win in Chestnut Hill. The 20-point margin of victory was the closest an opponent came to Clemson in the final 10 games of the Tigers' 15-0 national championship campaign.

2020: Clemson was thrown a curveball two days prior to the game when quarterback Trevor Lawrence tested positive for COVID-19. DJ Uiagalelei then dazzled in his first career start, completing 30-of-41 passes for 342 yards and two touchdowns and added a touchdown on the ground as Clemson scored 24 unanswered points to overcome an 18-point deficit in a 34-28 win. Running back Travis Etienne had a superlative performance, totaling 224 all-purpose yards, as he both became the ACC's all-time leading rusher and set a Clemson single-game record in receiving yards by a running back (140) in the game.

O'ROURKE-McFADDEN TROPHY

This year's matchup represents the 16th time that Clemson and Boston College will play for the O'Rourke-McFadden Trophy, which the Boston College Gridiron Club began sponsoring in 2008. Clemson has won 14 of the 15 years the trophy has been awarded.

The trophy features a leather helmet replica of those used by Charlie O'Rourke of Boston College and Banks McFadden of Clemson when they competed against each other in the 1940 Cotton Bowl in Dallas, Texas. In addition to the trophy presentation, the Boston College Gridiron Club presents a replica leather helmet to the MVP of the winning school in the locker room.

O'Rourke led Boston College to a 26-3-2 record in his three years as the quarterback of the Eagles between 1938-40. One of those three losses was to McFadden and Clemson in the 1940 Cotton Bowl. O'Rourke had his jersey retired at Boston College and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1972.

McFadden led the Tigers to a 9-1 record in 1939 as the starting quarterback. Regarded as the greatest all-around Clemson athlete of the 20th century, he was an All-American in football and basketball at Clemson. The 1939 football team finished 12th in the final AP Poll, and the win over Boston College in the Cotton Bowl was Clemson's first bowl appearance. McFadden was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1959, Clemson's first inductee.

C.J. Spiller won the inaugural Leather Helmet Award for the 2008 game when he had 242 all-purpose yards. Montel Harris is the lone Boston College award-winner in its history thanks to his 143 yards rushing and the game's only offensive touchdown in 2010.

The award unofficially changed hands in 2020, as the ABC announcing crew voted running back Travis Etienne as the official recipient following his 224 all-purpose-yard performance in a comeback 34-28 win. However, immediately upon receiving the honor in the locker room, Etienne presented it to true freshman quarterback DJ Uiagalelei, who threw for more than 300 yards and led the largest comeback victory in Death Valley history in his first career start in place of Trevor Lawrence, who missed the game after testing positive for COVID-19 two days earlier.

After offensive players and kickers won 12 of the first 13 Leather Helmet Awards, Clemson defenders have garnered each of the last two awards. Safety Nolan Turner won it in 2021 after recording seven tackles and an interception as Clemson held BC to 13 points. In 2022, defensive end Xavier Thomas earned the Leather Helmet Award and ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week for posting two sacks and a forced fumble in only six defensive snaps in his first game back from a foot injury.

LAST MEETING

Clemson 31, Boston College 3

(Oct. 8, 2022, Chestnut Hill, Mass.)

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. – No. 5/5 Clemson used touchdowns on its final play of the first half and first drive of the second half to pull away from Boston College, 31-3, at Alumni Stadium. The Tigers held the Eagles to 34 rushing yards, piled up 11 tackles for loss and four sacks, broke up eight passes, and registered 13 quarterback hurries in the victory.

The win extended Clemson's winning streak to a national-best 12 games in a row overall and represented Clemson's 12th in a row in the series with the Eagles. After going into half with a 10-3 lead, the Tigers shut out the Eagles in the second half, allowing just 86 total yards (and one rushing yard) after half.

The Boston College Gridiron Club, by vote of the ABC broadcast crew, presented the Leather Helmet Award to defensive end Xavier Thomas as the game's most valuable player. Despite a limited snap count in reserve, Thomas recorded a career-high-tying 2.0 sacks in the victory.

Quarterback DJ Uiagalelei threw for 220 yards and three scores and led the Tigers in rushing for a second consecutive game with 69 yards on 12 carries. Uiagalelei hit three different receivers on the scores.

Clemson got on the scoreboard first with a field goal on the opening drive, as B.T. Potter hit a 35-yarder 3:32 into the contest, capping a nine-play drive that covered 54 yards. On the kick, Potter set the Clemson record for career field goal yardage.

The Eagles tied the game on the first play of the second quarter on a 30-yard field goal. It would represent their final score of the evening.

Late in the first half, the Tigers took advantage of great field position, as Antonio Williams took a punt 20 yards down to the Boston College 28-yard line. Running back Will Shipley found the end zone seven plays later, giving Clemson a 10-3 advantage with 45 seconds to play in the half. Clemson would carry that advantage into the break. Defensively, the Tigers were in the backfield often, racking up nine quarterback hurries and four tackles for loss in the first half.

Coming out of half, the Tigers came up with a quick stop and then Uiagalelei led the Tigers 73 yards on five plays, hitting Joseph Ngata in stride for a 38-yard score with 11:50 to play in the third quarter. Clemson added to its lead on the first play of the fourth quarter, as Uiagalelei found Beaux Collins alone in the end zone on 3rd-and-8 from the 10-yard line. It capped an eight-play, 73-yard drive, and the extra point extended Clemson's lead to 24-3 with 14:57 to play.

Uiagalelei hit Brannon Spector for a 13-yard touchdown with 4:22 to play, his third touchdown pass of the day to his third different receiver. Uiagalelei had a key rush during the series, picking up 40 yards on 3rd-and-3 to help set up the score.

BOSTON TIES

Clemson has one player from Massachusetts on its roster: safety Ronan Hanafin of Burlington, Mass. Ronan is the brother of Boston College quarterback Shane Hanafin, and his father, Dan, was Boston University's starting quarterback in 1997, the school's final year of football. Dan led Boston University to victory over UMass in 1997, the last victory in BU football history.

Mike Reed, who coaches Clemson's cornerbacks, is a 1995 Boston College graduate. He was a four-year letterman for the Eagles from 1991-94 and was a team captain in 1994. He started his last two years, including 1993 when Boston College had a 9-3 record with a victory over No. 1-ranked Notre Dame in South Bend. He was a second-team All-Big East selection in 1993.

One of Clemson's most decorated former players, defensive tackle Christian Wilkins, is a native of Springfield. He was a three-time All-American and became the fifth unanimous All-American in school history in 2018. He played on two national championship teams and became Clemson's first winner of the William V. Campbell Trophy, known colloquially as the Academic Heisman.

NOTES FROM LAST GAME

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney coached against North Carolina Head Coach Bill Belichick in the second matchup in college football history between one coach with multiple FBS national championships (Swinney) as a head coach and another with multiple Super Bowl titles (Belichick) as a head coach. The only other such matchup came at the end of the 1992 season, when three-time Super Bowl head coach Bill Walsh led Stanford against two-time national championship head coach Joe Paterno's Penn State squad in the 1993 Blockbuster Bowl.

- The game was Swinney's 300th on staff at Clemson including both his time as an assistant coach and head coach. Swinney became the third member of Clemson's 300-game coaching club. College Football Hall of Famer Frank Howard coached 380 career games (85 as an assistant, 295 as a head coach) at Clemson, not including an additional 44 games he served in Clemson's athletic administration. One of Howard's key lieutenants, Bob Jones, served on Clemson's football staff for 343 games from 1931-69 minus four years of decorated service in World War II.

- Clemson scored 28 points in the first quarter. It was Clemson's first 28-point quarter since a 28-point second quarter at Wake Forest last season and its first 28-point opening frame since a 28-point first quarter vs. NC State last season.

- Clemson's 28 first-quarter points alone gave Clemson a season-high in points in a game this season.

- Clemson opened the game with a touchdown on each of its first four drives. It was Clemson's first time doing so since scoring touchdowns on its first five drives against The Citadel last November, and its first time doing so against an FBS opponent since last September against Appalachian State.

- Clemson gained 488 total yards and has now produced consecutive 400-yard games for the first time this season.

- Clemson threw for a season-high 399 yards and has now thrown for 350 passing yards in consecutive games for the first time since 2020 against Notre Dame and Pitt.

- Clemson's 399 passing yards were its most since throwing for 460 passing yards against Appalachian State in 2024.

- Clemson's 399 passing yards were its second-most in a game in its 61-game all-time series with North Carolina, trailing its 436 passing yards against the Tar Heels in 2014.

- Clemson threw a season-high five passing touchdowns, its most since throwing for five touchdowns against Appalachian State in 2024. It was Clemson's first time throwing five touchdowns against an ACC opponent since 2022 at Wake Forest.

- Clemson averaged a season-high 7.0 yards per play and has now averaged 6.0 or more yards per play in three consecutive games for the first time since a six-game streak last season.

- Quarterback Cade Klubnik completed 22-of-24 passes for 254 yards and four touchdowns.

- Klubnik became only the second quarterback at the college or NFL level ever to throw four touchdown passes in a single half against a team led by Bill Belichick as a head coach. He joined Patrick Mahomes of the Kansas City Chiefs, who threw four second-half touchdowns against Belichick's New England Patriots on Oct. 14, 2018.

- Klubnik (21-12) tied Mike Eppley (21-5-1) and Steve Fuller (21-11-3) for the ninth-most career wins by a Clemson starting quarterback since World War II.

- Klubnik's 91.7 percent completion percentage was a season high and was just shy of his career high of 92.3 set against Appalachian State in 2024.

- Klubnik's 91.7 percent completion percentage was the fourth-highest completion percentage among qualified passers in Clemson history.

- During the contest, Klubnik (81) passed Travis Etienne (78) for fourth on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career touchdown responsibility (touchdowns thrown and/or scored).

- Klubnik's four touchdown passes were a season-high and his most since the 2024 ACC Championship Game (four vs. SMU).

- Klubnik has now thrown three or more touchdown passes in consecutive games for the first time this season.

- On his 11th completion of the game, Klubnik (770) passed Trevor Lawrence (758) for the fourth-most career pass completions in Clemson history.

- On his 20th pass attempt of the game, Klubnik (1,212) passed Deshaun Watson (1,207) for the third-most career passing attempts in Clemson history.

- Klubnik opened the game 8-for-8 for 135 yards and two touchdowns prior to his first incompletion. He finished the first half 21-of-23 for 251 yards and four touchdowns.

- On the first offensive play of the game, wide receiver Antonio Williams threw a 75-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver T.J. Moore.

- The touchdown pass from Williams to Moore marked the first time Clemson scored on its opening offensive play of a game since the 2018 ACC Championship Game (Travis Etienne, 75-yard rushing touchdown vs. Pitt).

- The touchdown by Moore was recorded with 14:49 remaining on the clock in the first quarter. The 11 elapsed seconds marked Clemson's fastest score in a game under Dabo Swinney.

- The 75-yard pass from Williams to Moore was six yards shy of the longest touchdown pass by a non-quarterback in Clemson history (running back Joel Wells to Joe Pagliei vs. South Carolina in 1954).

- The touchdown pass was the second of Williams' career, joining a 28-yard touchdown pass to Jake Briningstool at Wake Forest in 2024.

- Williams became the first non-quarterback to throw multiple career touchdown passes at Clemson since C.J. Spiller (two from 2006-09).

- The touchdown reception was Moore's first of the season and sixth of his career.

- The 75-yard reception was the longest of Moore's career.

- Moore finished the game with a season-high 108 yards on five receptions with one touchdown.

- Moore recorded his first 100-yard receiving game of the season. It was the second of his career and his first since a 116-yard effort at Texas in 2024.

- On his fifth and final reception of the contest, Williams (163) passed Terry Smith (162 from 1990-93) for 10th on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career receptions.

- Running back Adam Randall rushed eight times for 30 yards and caught four passes for a career-high 73 yards and a career-high two receiving touchdowns.

- Randall became the first Clemson running back to catch two touchdowns in a single game since Travis Etienne in the 2019 Fiesta Bowl against Ohio State.

- Randall now has three touchdown receptions this season following his transition to running back. He recorded two touchdown receptions as a wide receiver from 2022-24.

- Randall scored on a 35-yard touchdown pass from Klubnik in the first quarter.

- Including a touchdown reception in Clemson's most recent game against Syracuse, Randall became the first Clemson running back to record a touchdown reception in back-to-back games since C.J. Spiller in 2009 against Florida State and NC State.

- Randall became the first Clemson player to score a touchdown of any kind in five consecutive games since a six-game streak by Will Shipley in 2022.

- Randall became the first Clemson player to score a touchdown in each of the first five games of a season since Travis Etienne in 2018.

- Tight end Christian Bentancur recorded two receptions for 53 yards with two touchdowns.

- Bentancur recorded his first career touchdown reception on a 45-yard scoring grab in the first quarter.

- Bentancur added an eight-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter.

- Bentancur became the first Clemson tight end to record multiple touchdown catches in a game since Jake Briningstool's two touchdowns against SMU in the 2024 ACC Championship Game.

- Tight end Ian Schieffelin recorded his first career reception in the second quarter.

- Wide receiver Tristan Smith recorded season highs with three receptions for 29 yards.

- Defensive tackle Peter Woods converted a fourth-and-1 with a three-yard gain. Woods is now 2-for-2 this season on converting fourth downs on rushing attempts.

- After allowing 58 yards and a field goal on 10 plays on North Carolina's opening drive, Clemson's defense forced four consecutive three-and-outs covering a cumulative minus-five yards.

- Defensive tackle Stephylan Green recorded a second-quarter sack, his career-high second sack of the season.

- Green has now posted a sack in back-to-back games for the first time in his career.

- Placekicker Nolan Hauser recorded his second punt of the season, pinning North Carolina at its own nine on a surprise pooch punt.

- Hauser converted a 27-yard field goal attempt in the fourth quarter.

- The game was the first leg of Clemson's only set of back-to-back road games this season.

- Captains for the contest were safety Khalil Barnes, running back Adam Randall, cornerback Avieon Terrell and wide receiver Antonio Williams.

WITH THE WIN...

- Clemson improved to 41-19-1 against North Carolina all-time. Clemson's 41 wins against North Carolina tie its 41 wins against Virginia for the Tigers' fifth-most against a single opponent in school history.

- Clemson earned a seventh consecutive victory against North Carolina, starting with a 59-38 victory in 2011. The seven straight wins tie the longest winning streak in series history by either team, matching Clemson's seven consecutive wins in the series from 1986-92.

- North Carolina is now the seventh different opponent against which Clemson carries an active winning streak of seven or more games (32 vs. Furman, 19 vs. The Citadel, 16 vs. Wake Forest, 15 vs. Presbyterian, 12 vs. Boston College, 7 vs. Virginia Tech, 7 vs. North Carolina).

- Clemson snapped a two-game losing streak. Clemson has not lost three consecutive games since 2010.

- Clemson faced North Carolina Head Coach Bill Belichick for the first time. Clemson improved to 171-76-3 all-time (and 54-10 since 2011) when facing a coach for the first time.

- Clemson improved to 2-0 all-time against head coaches whose careers include a Super Bowl title as a head coach. Clemson ended the 1988 season with a 13-6 Citrus Bowl win against an Oklahoma squad led by Barry Switzer in his final game as head coach of the Sooners before he later won Super Bowl XXX as head coach of the Dallas Cowboys.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney (182-50) pulled within one victory of LaVell Edwards (183) for the sixth-most wins in the first 20 seasons of an FBS coaching career. Swinney is only in his 18th season (and 17th full season).

- Swinney joined a list of head coaches to defeat both Nick Saban and Bill Belichick that includes Jim Harbaugh, Steve Spurrier, Bill Cowher, Gary Kubiak, Eric Mangini, Mike McCarthy, Dick Jauron, Tony Dungy, Herm Edwards, Dick Vermeil and Romeo Crennel across the college and pro levels.

- Swinney improved to 7-1 against North Carolina.

- Swinney improved to 41-5 all-time against teams from the state of North Carolina.

- Swinney improved to 21-6 in games played inside the state limits of North Carolina (including eight ACC Championship Game victories in Charlotte).

- Swinney moved to 18-5 all-time in games immediately following regular season open dates.

- Clemson improved to 41-10 in true road games since the start of the 2015 season.

- Clemson improved to 39-11 in games following a loss under Dabo Swinney, including season openers following a loss in the previous season finale.

- Clemson improved to 80-12 against ACC opponents, including postseason play, since 2015.

- Clemson improved to 142-21 against AP-unranked teams under Dabo Swinney and is now 119-11 in those games since the start of the 2012 season.

- Clemson improved to 105-18 in regular season play since the start of the 2015 season.

- Clemson improved to 89-9 when scoring first since the start of the 2015 season.

- Clemson is now 156-12 under Dabo Swinney when leading at halftime, including a 139-8 mark since the start of the 2011 season.

- Clemson is now 147-6 when leading after three quarters since the start of the 2011 season.

- Clemson is now 139-11 when totaling more first downs than its opponent since 2011.

- Clemson is now 77-4 since 2015 when outscoring opponents in the "Middle Eight," defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half.

- Clemson is now 122-3 in its last 125 games when holding teams to fewer than 23 points, a span that dates to the middle of the 2010 season.

SCORING CHANGES

- A first-quarter tackle for loss erroneously credited to DT Vic Burley has been changed to be properly credited to DE T.J. Parker.

- North Carolina's final play of the game initially credited to the North Carolina 47 was fixed to reflect the play terminating at the North Carolina 42. The change results in five fewer yards for North Carolina in total yardage and passing yardage and for quarterback Max Johnson and tight end Jake Johnson in their totals.

ON THIS DATE

- Oct. 11, 1941: Clemson defeated Boston College at Fenway Park, 26-13. Joe Blalock scored two touchdowns as Clemson overcame a 6-0 deficit after the first quarter. BC outgained Clemson 363-281, but Clemson came away with the victory.

- Oct. 11, 1958: Clemson kept its top 10 ranking alive with a 12-7 win at Vanderbilt. Harvey White scored the game winner on a three-yard run with three seconds left to win the game.

- Oct. 11, 1980: Obed Ariri booted a 52-yard field goal with six seconds left to give Clemson a 27-24 victory at Virginia. Clemson had trailed by two touchdowns entering the fourth quarter. Before Nolan Hauser's 56-yarder to win the 2024 ACC Championship Game, Ariri's boot had been the longest field goal to win a game in Clemson history.

- Oct. 11, 2003: Clemson extended its all-time record in overtime games to 3-0 with a 30-27 victory over Virginia in Death Valley. Kevin Youngblood scored the walk-off touchdown on a four-yard touchdown pass from Charlie Whitehurst.

- Oct. 11, 2014: Vic Beasley became Clemson's all-time sack leader in a 23-17 win over Louisville. He recorded a three-yard sack in the first half, his 29th as a Tiger, one better than Michael Dean Perry and Gaines Adams. Clemson scored a touchdown on a 72-yard punt return by Adam Humphries and a fumble recovery by Tavaris Barnes. DeShawn Williams deflected a pass at the goal line on Louisville's last play to preserve the win.

- Overall: Clemson is 10-6 all-time in games contested on Oct. 11, including most recently wins in five of its last six Oct. 11 games dating to 1975.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF STAPLES

From 2014-23, Clemson cemented itself as one of the College Football Playoff's powerhouses of the tournament's inaugural decade. In the 10-year history of the four-team format prior to 2024, only 15 programs earned at least one College Football Playoff berth, and Clemson ranked second in CFP berths, CFP title game appearances, total CFP wins and CFP titles.

Clemson returned to the College Football Playoff in 2024 in the format's first year of expansion to 12 teams and is one berth shy of Alabama (eight) for the most in history.

With a No. 16 ranking in the final College Football Playoff rankings in 2024, Clemson remained one of three programs (alongside Alabama and Ohio State) to finish in the CFP Top 25 in every year since the tournament's inception.

Among the 21 programs ever to qualify for the College Football Playoff from 2014-24, Clemson is one of only seven to hold a positive point differential in CFP play. Clemson has also accounted for three of the nine largest victories by point differential in CFP history.

In 2020, Clemson became the first program ever to win 20 ACC Championships. That year, Clemson became the first program in the conference championship game era to win six straight conference championship games.

Two years later, Clemson's 2022 ACC title was the program's seventh in eight years, as the Tigers became the first team in an active power conference to win seven outright conference titles in an eight-year span since Alabama won eight SEC titles in nine seasons from 1971-79.

Including titles from its days as a member of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association and Southern Conference, Clemson has 28 conference championships overall, also the most of any current ACC school. Duke ranks second among the ACC's current membership with 18 overall conference titles, including 11 Southern Conference titles and seven ACC titles.

The Tigers won the 1900, 1902 and 1903 SIAA Conference championships under John Heisman, then the 1906 SIAA title under Bob Williams. Clemson also won the 1940 and 1948 Southern Conference titles under Frank Howard. Howard won eight total conference titles, including two in the Southern Conference and six in the ACC. Swinney surpassed the legend with a win in the 2024 ACC Championship Game.

For the last quarter-century, Clemson's ACC success has not been a roller-coaster ride of lofty heights and deep lows. The last time Clemson finished a season below .500 in regular season conference play was in 1998, when Tommy West's 3-8 squad went 1-7 in ACC play. Clemson's 26-year streak of being .500 or better in conference play is tied for the longest active streak in the country and tied for the fourth-longest of any streak since 1966.

POWER OVER POWER CONFERENCE FOES

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level,'" recounted Swinney. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2011, no team can claim more wins against power conference opponents than the Tigers.

Clemson's national-best-tying 135 power conference wins since 2011 include at least one victory against 27 different programs, including Wake Forest (14), Boston College (12), Georgia Tech (11), Syracuse (10), NC State (10), Florida State (9), South Carolina (8), Louisville (8), Virginia Tech (7), North Carolina (7), Virginia (4), Notre Dame (4), Auburn (4), Miami (Fla.) (4), Maryland (3), Ohio State (3), Pitt (3), Alabama (2), Texas A&M (2), Oklahoma (2), Duke (2), LSU (1), Georgia (1), Iowa State (1), Kentucky (1), Stanford (1) and SMU (1).

On a year-by-year basis, Clemson has finished the season atop the country in wins against power conference opponents a national-best four times since the institution of the College Football Playoff in 2014. That includes 13 wins against power conference opponents in 2018, the first team ever to reach that figure.

SIGN AND DEVELOP

While proud of his incoming classes, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has long stated that a true ranking of a recruiting class cannot and should not be published until four years later when the group can be evaluated on performance rather than potential.

Much to Swinney's delight, The Athletic annually assumed that role for the classes of 2014-20, re-ranking each recruiting class four years later to account for on-field performance.

For its re-rankings, The Athletic uses the following grading scale: 5 points: All-American, award winner, top-50 NFL Draft pick; 4: Multi-year starter, all-conference honors; 3: One-year starter or key reserve; 2: Career backup; 0: Minor or no contribution, left the program. The outlet also adds a bonus to each program's class average, derived from its total number of wins from 2017 through 2020 (e.g., For re-ranking the Class of 2017, Clemson won 51 games, so its class average received a bonus of 0.51).

Swinney has pointed out that Clemson often falls in rankings as its retention and its commitment to not oversigning leads to smaller recruiting classes. He also notes that much of Clemson's on-field success is a function of the program's development, citing All-Americans like former three-star Isaiah Simmons or former two-star Nolan Turner. The re-rankings illustrate Clemson's impressive track record of talent identification, culture fit, resource allocation and player development.

CLEMSON RECRUITING RANKINGS AND RE-RANKINGS (VIA THE ATHLETIC)

Class	Rank	Re-Rank	Diff.	Record
2014	16	6	+10	50-7
2015	9	2	+7	55-4
2016	11	1	+10	55-4
2017	16	5	+11	51-5
2018	7	2	+5	49-6
2019	10	5	+5	45-9
2020	3	7	-4	40-12
Average	10.2	4.0	+6.2

Note: Initial rank according to 247 Composite

On average, Clemson ranked 10.2 in the 247 Composite team rankings across the 2014-20 recruiting cycles. Upon re-ranking those groups, despite having little room for improvement while recruiting at a Top 15 clip in that span, Clemson ranked 4.0 on average in the re-rankings, a ratings bump of roughly six spots. Each of those Clemson classes averaged at least 10 wins a season during their careers.

SENIOR SUCCESS

Every January, Head Coach Dabo Swinney conducts his first official meeting with his new team. The first order of business in the meeting is to "reset the room," reorganizing the seating arrangement with seniors in front and all succeeding classes in order behind them in the team auditorium.

Several of Swinney's senior classes placed themselves among select company in college football history. The 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 Clemson seniors account for four of only 15 four-year classes in FBS history to reach 50 career wins. That includes the 2018 and 2019 groups that are tied with the 2018 Alabama seniors for the most wins in FBS history (55 wins in four years).

CLEMSON'S WINNINGEST COACH

College Football Hall of Famer Frank Howard, known as "The Bashful Baron of Barlow Bend," compiled a 165-118-12 record in 30 seasons at Clemson from 1940-69.

With a 31-23 upset of No. 12 Notre Dame in 2023, Dabo Swinney earned his 166th career victory as Clemson's head coach, surpassing Howard to become Clemson's all-time winningest coach. Swinney accomplished the feat in his 209th career game.

HEAD COACH CONTINUITY

Over the last decade-and-a-half, Clemson became a beacon of stability in the increasingly unstable environment of college football. Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney is in his 23rd overall season at Clemson in 2025, including his 17th full season as head coach (and his 18th including an interim stint in 2008).

From the start of Swinney's first season as full-time head coach in 2009 through 2024, there were 498 head coaching tenures in the FBS (excluding those by interims) but only one such tenure at Clemson. Clemson is one of five schools with only one head coach in that span.

Clemson is the only school in the ACC with only one head coach since the start of the 2009 season, and among the 21 schools ever to qualify for the College Football Playoff, only Clemson has had only one head coach since 2009.

SIX "FINAL FOURS" FOR SWINNEY

While the term "Final Four" may still be the linguistic property of college basketball, since the advent of the four-team College Football Playoff in 2014, Head Coach Dabo Swinney had Clemson among the sport's final four teams six times from 2015-20, becoming the first coach to lead a team to six consecutive College Football Playoffs since the format's institution in 2014.

The NCAA men's college basketball tournament dates to 1939. In the history of that tournament, only John Wooden of UCLA (nine from 1967-75) and Mike Krzyzewski of Duke (five from 1988-92) coached teams to at least five consecutive Final Fours. With his sixth "Final Four" appearance in 2020, Swinney joined basketball's Wooden as the only college football or men's basketball coaches to take teams to six consecutive Final Fours in their respective sports.

Swinney is among only nine coaches in football and men's basketball to record six career Final Four berths. He is one of only six with a winning record in Final Four games.

Swinney's ability to place his team among the nation's elite quartet has also been illustrated by the polls. Clemson finished first in the AP Poll in 2016 and 2018, second in 2015 and 2019, third in 2020 and fourth in 2017. Swinney became just the fourth coach to record at least six consecutive top four finishes since the AP Poll began in 1936, an exclusive list that also includes Florida State's Bobby Bowden (13), USC's Pete Carroll (seven) and Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson (six).

Clemson's streak represented the fifth time a program has had a run of at least six top four finishes in the AP Poll. Miami (Fla.) had a seven-year run from 1986-92 with two different head coaches leading the program.

THROUGH 200 GAMES

The 2022 Orange Bowl was the 200th game in Dabo Swinney's head coaching career. Among coaches who qualify for the NCAA FBS record book by virtue of five years or 50 wins as a major college head coach, 17 coaches had earned at least 150 victories in their first 200 career games as head coach as of the conclusion of the 2022 season.

At 161-39 through 200 games, Swinney tied Bob Stoops and Robert Neyland (161 each) for the fifth-most wins through 200 career games in major college football history.

Four previous Clemson head coaches earned 150+ FBS wins in their careers: John Heisman (186), Jess Neely (207), Frank Howard (165) and Ken Hatfield (168). Howard, a College Football Hall of Famer, recorded his 150th victory in his 273rd career game, in a 14-10 victory against Maryland in 1966 that clinched a piece of what later became an outright ACC title. Heisman earned win No. 150 in game No. 203, Neely earned it in game No. 268, and Hatfield did it in game 259, though none of those three won more than 43 games in their Clemson tenures.

Included below are the number of games needed for a sample of other notable coaches to reach 150 victories: John Vaught (201), Mark Richt (205), Red Blaik (207), Dan Devine (208), Woody Hayes (209), Bear Bryant (212), Ara Parseghian (212), Pat Dye (212), Bobby Bowden (213), Pop Warner (214), LaVell Edwards (214), Jim Tressel (214), Vince Dooley (214), Amos Alonzo Stagg (225), John Cooper (225), Frank Beamer (230), Lou Holtz (230), Bill Snyder (231), Johnny Majors (255), George Welsh (261), Hayden Fry (277).

FIRST 15 SEASONS // FIRST 20 SEASONS?

Dabo Swinney completed his 15th season (and his 14th full season) in 2022 with a 161-39 record. Swinney amassed the second-most wins through a coach's first 15 seasons in FBS history despite not having the benefit of a full season in his first year, as he went 4-3 on an interim basis in his first season in 2008 after taking over for Tommy Bowden in October.

The 2025 season is Swinney's 18th season (and 17th full season) as Clemson's head coach. With the 2025, 2026 and 2027 seasons remaining to accrue victories in the category, Swinney already ranks seventh in FBS history in wins in the first 20 seasons of a head coaching career (including coaches who did not coach 20 seasons).

SWINNEY VS. HALL OF FAMERS

Including the upcoming Class of 2025 inductions of Nick Saban, Urban Meyer and Larry Blakeney, Swinney has coached against nine College Football Hall of Fame coaches in his head coaching career. Swinney is .500 or better against eight of the nine coaches and has a 22-14 overall record against Hall of Famers.

CHAMPIONSHIP LINEAGE

After being named Clemson's full-time coach in December of 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney set about securing his first signing class in 2009.

His first class, which he tabbed the "Dandy Dozen," brought home Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 during their junior campaign in 2011. With a win in the 2024 ACC Championship Game, every Clemson signing class under Swinney has at least one ACC title to their credit in their tenures at Clemson, and every signing class since 2012 has earned at least one College Football Playoff berth.

Records reflect results as the AP No. 1, not total games coached Sixteen coaches on the list are College Football Hall of Famers. The other four include two who are still active (Swinney and Smart), one who remains on ballots (Coker) and one who did not coach long enough to meet the 10-year coaching threshold to qualify (Carroll). Swinney holds a total of nine career victories over five coaches on the list, including two each over Bob Stoops, Nick Saban, Urban Meyer and Steve Spurrier and one over Bobby Bowden.

Despite not reaching No. 1 until 1981, Clemson has been No. 1 in 25 polls all-time, 16th-most of any program.

Clemson was ranked No. 1 in nine consecutive polls to open 2020, its longest streak at No. 1 in school history. Clemson appeared at No. 1 in at least one AP Poll in six consecutive years from 2015-20. Dabo Swinney joined Nick Saban (14) as the only coach in AP Poll history (since 1936) to lead a team to at least one No. 1 ranking in six consecutive years. Clemson, Alabama (15 from 2008-22) and Miami (seven from 1986-92) remain the only programs to appear at No. 1 in at least six consecutive years.

DEATH VALLEY ROARS

Frank Howard Field at Memorial Stadium garnered its famous nickname in the 1940s when Presbyterian College Head Coach Lonnie McMillian, after many years of bringing his teams in for drubbings, dubbed the venue

as "Death Valley."

The name stuck, and its patrons have done their part to make it live up to its name and its reputation. In the first 11 years of the College Football Playoff era from 2014-24, Clemson's home atmosphere helped draw 157 false starts by opponents, the second-most of any home venue in the country and the most by a power conference program.

-- NO. 0 WR ANTONIO WILLIAMS --NO. 0 BECOMES NO. 1 TARGET IN 2024

Antonio Williams earned first-team Freshman All-America honors in 2022 after he caught 56 passes for 604 yards with four touchdowns over 14 games (10 starts). Injury befell Williams in his sophomore season in 2023, as he was limited by an ankle injury to only four regular season games in his second season before returning to play a pivotal role in Clemson's come-from-behind Gator Bowl win against Kentucky.

In the offseason to follow, Head Coach Dabo Swinney praised Williams' maturity and laser focus and said the now-redshirt sophomore was in for a big year in 2024. The head coach's prognostication proved correct. Williams started every game for Clemson and developed into a bona fide top target for Clemson with career highs in every receiving category in 2024.

Williams' versatility was on display in 2024. In addition to posting double-digit touchdown catches, Williams rushed for a touchdown and threw another. Williams' 2024 season marked only the ninth time since 1969 that a Clemson player has passed for a touchdown, rushed for a touchdown and caught a touchdown in a single season, joining Sammy Watkins (2012), C.J. Spiller (2008 and 2009), Jacoby Ford (2009), Ray Williams (1985), Charlie Waters (1969) and Ray Yauger (1969).

CAREER LEADERBOARDS

Williams returned to Clemson in 2025 in reach of the school record for career receiving touchdowns of 27 shared by Clemson legends and NFL standouts DeAndre Hopkins, Sammy Watkins and Tee Higgins.

Klubnik has helped engineer three fourth-quarter comeback wins, including two as a starter:

- vs. Syracuse (2022): Entered in relief of DJ Uiagalelei and became the first backup quarterback to engineer a fourth-quarter comeback win for Clemson since 2018 (Chase Brice vs. Syracuse).

- vs. Kentucky (2023): Went 8-for-8 as he led Clemson on a 12-play, 68-yard game-winning drive in 2:17 of elapsed game time as Clemson earned its largest fourth-quarter comeback win in a bowl game in school history in the 2023 Gator Bowl.

- at Pitt (2024): After Clemson was held to only 27 yards in the first 28 minutes of the second half, Klubnik got the ball with 1:36 remaining and engineered a three-play, 75-yard drive that he finished by rushing for a game-winning 50-yard touchdown with 1:16 remaining.

- Notes: Klubnik recorded a game-winning drive in the 2024 ACC Championship Game against SMU, but the game was tied at the time and Clemson never trailed in the contest. Klubnik also helped Clemson overcome a 16-point first-half deficit against Troy in 2025, though Clemson's third-quarter surge gave the Tigers the lead prior to the fourth quarter.

300-YARD GAMES

Klubnik is one of eight quarterbacks in Clemson history to record multiple 300-yard passing games. His eight career 300-yard games rank tied for fourth in school history.

Note: Klubnik is outside the Top 10 with 840 career rushing yards.

With his first rushing touchdown of the 2025 season at Georgia Tech, Klubnik joined Nealon Greene (1994-97), Charlie Whitehurst (2002-05), Tajh Boyd (2010-13) and Kelly Bryant (2015-18) as the only Clemson quarterbacks to rush for a touchdown in four different seasons since Clemson transitioned away from the single wing in 1953.

A year earlier, Klubnik's seven rushing touchdowns included long touchdown runs of 55 yards against NC State, 34 yards against Stanford and a game-winning 50-yarder at Pitt. Klubnik's 50-yard rushing touchdown at Pitt was Clemson's longest game-winning offensive touchdown inside the final two minutes of a game on record. Klubnik became the first Clemson player to record multiple 50-yard rushing touchdowns in a single season since Travis Etienne in 2019 (two), and he also became the first Clemson quarterback to record multiple 50-yard rushing touchdowns in a career since Woodrow Dantzler (three from 1999-2001).

2024 IN REVIEW

Klubnik took a major leap in his second full season as a starter in 2024. As a junior, he completed 308-of-486 passes for 3,639 yards with 36 passing touchdowns and added career highs with 463 yards and seven touchdowns on 119 rushing attempts.

Klubnik combined for 4,100 yards of total offense and 43 total touchdowns while committing only seven turnovers. Research by ESPN.com's David Hale illustrated that Klubnik became only the eighth quarterback to reach those thresholds in the College Football Playoff era. The other seven all finished in the Top 4 in Heisman voting, including five Heisman winners.

FROM THE SIDELINE TO THE STAGE

Klubnik's national breakout came in the 2022 ACC Championship Game against North Carolina. He entered the game on Clemson's third possession and completed 20-of-24 passes for 279 yards and a passing touchdown and added seven carries for 30 yards and a rushing touchdown. His 83.3 completion percentage set an ACC Championship Game record and led to his selection as the game's Most Valuable Player in Clemson's 39-10 victory. He became the third freshman (and second true freshman) in the game's history to earn the honor.

Two years later, Klubnik repeated as ACC Championship Game MVP in a 34-31 win against SMU. He joined Virginia Tech's Tyrod Taylor and Clemson's Dashaun Watson as the only two-time MVPs in ACC Championship Game history.

Beyond this trio, the only other players in a current power conference to win multiple conference championship MVP awards are Michigan State's Connor Cook (2013 and 2015), Oklahoma's Sam Bradford (2007 and 2008) and Oklahoma's Malcolm Kelly (2004 and 2006).

-- NO. 8 RB ADAM RANDALL --

WHO'S NEXT AT RUNNING BACK?

Clemson entered 2025 with a relative rarity in the Dabo Swinney era: public unknowns at running back.

Under Swinney, the Tigers have enjoyed a run of feature backs that has included C.J. Spiller, Andre Ellington, Wayne Gallman, Travis Etienne, Will Shipley and Phil Mafah among a bevy of other substantial contributors.

With both members of the Shipley/Mafah duo from Clemson's 2021 recruiting class now having matriculated to the NFL, outside observers were curious to see who would helm Clemson's rushing attack in 2025.

Adam Randall seized the role prior to Week 1 and has been a bright spot and an emerging star for Clemson's offense. Randall is in his first season at running back after spending his first three seasons at Clemson at wide receiver. A 41-yard kickoff return as an emergency contributor in the 2024 ACC Championship Game against SMU sparked the idea of the position switch, and he contributed at running back in a pinch in the 2024 College Football Playoff and ripped off a 41-yard run at Texas before making the full-time transition this past offseason.

RANDALL'S HOT START

Randall has scored at least one touchdown in each of Clemson's first five games of the season, becoming the first Clemson player to reach the end zone in each of the first five games of a campaign since Travis Etienne in 2018. Randall, Etienne, C.J. Spiller (2009), James Davis (2006), Travis Zachery (2001) and Bill Mathis (1959) are the only Clemson players to accomplish the feat in records back to 1938.

Randall's position coach, C.J. Spiller, holds the Clemson record for the most consecutive games with a touchdown to start a season when he scored in all 14 games of Clemson's 2009 campaign.

OUT OF THE BACKFIELD

Randall recorded two touchdown receptions in his first three seasons at Clemson as a wide receiver from 2022-24. Randall then exceeded that total this season in a two-game span with three combined receiving touchdowns against Syracuse and North Carolina.

Randall is already two touchdowns shy of the Clemson single-season record for touchdown receptions by a running back since the Tigers transitioned away from the single wing in 1953.

DYNAMIC DUO RETURNS

There was no shortage of contributing factors to Clemson's leap in passing efficiency and explosiveness from 2023 and 2024, but notable among them was the arrival of T.J. Moore and Bryant Wesco Jr. in 2024. While Moore's late-season surge was a bit too belated to garner national recognition, Wesco collected Freshman All-America honors from 247Sports, PFF, ESPN, The Athletic and the FWAA.

The duo ranked in the top six nationally in receiving yards by freshmen.

Moore and Wesco became the first freshman duo in a power conference to each record at least 650 receiving yards and at least five touchdown catches in a single season since at least 2000. Expanded to include the full FBS, the only other schools in that span to accomplish the feat were the 2005 Hawaii Warriors and the 2007 Tulsa Golden Hurricane. They made Clemson the only school with multiple 650-yard freshman receivers in the nation in 2024.

PRODUCTION THROUGH FIVE GAMES

With his second two-touchdown performance of the season vs. Syracuse on Sept. 20, Wesco became the first Clemson player to record five touchdown receptions over the first four games of a season since DeAndre Hopkins in 2012, a season in which Hopkins finished the year with an ACC-record 18 touchdown catches.

Despite being held out of the end zone in Clemson's fifth game at North Carolina, Wesco's five-game total is among the most by a Clemson player through five games in the last 30 years.

100-YARD GAMES IN 2025

Wesco reached the century mark in two of Clemson's first three games this season. He recorded 118 yards against Troy and 126 yards against Georgia Tech, becoming the first Clemson player with consecutive 100-yard receiving games since Cornell Powell against Notre Dame and Pitt in 2020.

Moore added his first 100-yard effort of the season on Oct. 4 with a five-catch, 108-yard performance highlighted by a 75-yard score on the game's opening play from scrimmage.

WESCO'S MEMORABLE START

Wesco recorded one catch in 12 snaps in Clemson's 2024 season opener, as missed opportunities and inefficiency by Clemson — combined with a condensed contest that featured the fewest combined snaps (112) in a Clemson game since 2006 — limited his involvement in his collegiate debut as a true freshman. Afterward, Clemson's coaches vowed to involve him more the following week.

Consider that vow fulfilled.

In his second career game, Wesco caught three passes for 130 yards and a touchdown against Appalachian State, tying the Clemson record for the fewest games needed to record a 100-yard receiving game.

TIGHT END PRODUCTION

Clemson lost its school record holder for career receptions by a tight end over the 2025 offseason when Jake Briningstool graduated and signed with the Kansas City Chiefs. Briningstool caught 127 career passes for 1,380 yards and 17 touchdowns over 48 career games.

Clemson's current group of tight ends will seek to continue the unit's production that has seen the tight end group post 60-plus catches in each of the last three seasons, a first in the Dabo Swinney era.

-- OFFENSIVE LINE --

A VETERAN UNIT IN 2025

Clemson received instant impact from the addition of veteran offensive line coach Matt Luke in his first full season at Clemson in 2024. In his second full season with the Tigers in 2025, he returned an exceedingly veteran unit that returns four of its five primary starters and boasts seven players who have started at least one game for Clemson.

The unit includes two of Clemson's recent iron men. Blake Miller entered his senior season already ranked in the Top 10 in school history in career snaps from scrimmage. Prior to 2025, the two-time All-ACC selection started every game for Clemson at right tackle from 2021-23, and he became the first offensive lineman to start every game played by Clemson during his freshman, sophomore and junior campaigns without the benefit of a redshirt year since starting center Ralph Jenkins from 1943-45.

Miller plays alongside a remarkable comeback story in Walker Parks, who started all 14 games for Clemson in 2024 after missing the majority of the 2022 and 2023 seasons with career-threatening ankle injuries. A veteran of 53 games and 42 starts from 2020-24, Parks is a self-professed Clemson lifer who said of Clemson, "If there were no eligibility [rules], I would stay here forever," a maxim validated by his decision to utilize an extra year of eligibility for a sixth season in 2025.

Clemson's other two returning primary starters include one of the team's foremost leaders and one of its active parables of patience. Left tackle Tristan Leigh started 23 games over the two previous seasons, and his progression from five-star recruit to off-radar redshirt to trusted contributor has given him stature and respect as one of the team's most trusted leaders. Center Ryan Linthicum, meanwhile, was one of Clemson's revelations of 2024. Last spring, the then-career backup was entering his fourth year with limited experience, and he was given spring practice to audition for the role before Clemson sought veteran help at the position. Instead, Linthicum seized the role, starting all 14 games for Clemson and playing 982 snaps from scrimmage, the most of any Clemson player in 2024.

Though depth and injuries combined to limit them to four combined starts in 2024, redshirt junior Collin Sadler and junior Harris Sewell entered 2025 with a combined 40 games and 14 starts of experience along the Tiger offensive line. Sadler provides versatility across the four tackle and guard positions, while Sewell offers tremendous value as a versatile interior piece across the center and guard spots.

Clemson had a breakout young star's trajectory take a brief detour in late 2024. As a true freshman, Elijah Thurmon impressed when called upon to play 74 outstanding snaps in reserve on the road at Virginia Tech last year, and he earned a start the following week before being lost for the remainder of the season on the game's opening play from scrimmage. Whether as a starter or rotational piece, Thurmon stands primed to be a significant fixture on Clemson's line for the next several seasons.

O-LINE EXPERIENCE BREAKDOWN

Clemson's full offensive line group entered the 2025 season with a combined 249 game appearances, 135 starts and 10,403 career offensive snaps.

ALL-CONFERENCE O-LINEMEN

Since 2015, Clemson has produced a total of 32 All-ACC selections along the offensive line, including 12 first-team honors. Clemson's 32 all-conference selections by offensive linemen are an ACC high and the second-most of any power conference program. Clemson also ranks tied for third nationally in first-team selections in that span.

SportSource Analytics produces an Offensive Line Efficiency metric that takes into account tackle for loss percentages, sack percentages, percentages of rushes gaining 4+ yards and success on third-or-fourth-and-short. Clemson is among the national leaders in that total metric since 2015.

PARKER'S RECORD DAY AT PITT IN 2024

Parker put together one of the most dominant defensive performances in school history in Clemson's 2024 game at Pitt, collecting seven tackles, 5.0 tackles for loss, a school-record-tying 4.0 sacks, his fourth forced fumble of the season and a pass breakup.

Parker earned ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week, Bednarik Award National Player of the Week and Walter Camp Defensive Player of the Week for his performance.

	Keith Adams (1999)	Duke	4.0

His 4.0 sacks tied for the most of any FBS player in a single game that season. His 5.0 tackles for loss in that game ranked tied for second.

Parker's record day powered Clemson's season highs with eight sacks and 16 tackles for loss in the contest. Clemson's 16 tackles for loss tied for fourth-most in program history and its eight sacks tied for eighth.

WE SEE YOU, T.J. 🙏🙏

Parker emphatically announced his arrival as a freshman in 2023 when he set a Clemson true freshman record with 12.5 tackles for loss. That total tied for the national lead in tackles for loss among freshmen.

Parker initially committed to Penn State but coveted a Clemson offer. He decommitted from the Nittany Lions in hopes of soliciting Clemson, and Clemson's 2023 recruiting class immediately went to work.

"CV [Christopher Vizzina], Peter [Woods] and a few other guys on the team, they hit me up with the eyes emoji on Instagram," Parker said. "It was like, 'You know what time it is.' I texted Coach Ski [Then-Clemson Defensive Ends Coach Lemanski Hall] the eyes emoji, the same thing they sent me, and from there we got in contact and a few days later they offered and I committed."

-- NO. 8 CB AVIEON TERRELL --

IMPACT STARTER

Avieon Terrell made his first start at Clemson on Nov. 4, 2023, when he was inserted into the lineup as a true freshman in Clemson's 31-23 home upset of Notre Dame. Beginning that day, Terrell has started every game for Clemson, including the final five games of 2023, all 14 games in 2024 and every game to date in 2025.

As part of his all-conference campaign in 2024, Terrell recorded three forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and two interceptions. He became the first Clemson player under Dabo Swinney to finish a season with at least three forced fumbles, multiple interceptions and multiple fumble recoveries.

Terrell added three forced fumbles over Clemson's first five games of the 2025 season. His six career forced fumbles are the most by a Clemson defensive back since Byron Maxwell's six from 2007-10. Terrell leads the nation in forced fumbles by a cornerback since his first start on Nov. 4, 2023.

Terrell is the only player in the nation this season credited with at least six passes defended and three or more forced fumbles.

-- NO. 17 LB WADE WOODAZ --

OPENING A CAN OF WOODAZ

In each of linebacker Wade Woodaz's first three seasons at Clemson, the Tampa product has watched as one of his linebacker counterparts earned All-America recognition, including honors for Barrett Carter in 2022 and 2024 and for Jeremiah Trotter Jr. in 2022 and 2023. Head Coach Dabo Swinney was quick though to warn observers not to overlook Woodaz.

"He's a baller," Swinney said. "The kid is tough, physical, he can really run. He really understands the game at a high level. He played most of his [prep] career as a quarterback and as a safety, so he has a great understanding of the game. He plays really, really hard; he's a great effort guy, he's a great preparer and he loves it. He's a fun guy to coach and a fun guy to watch play because he plays the way you want everybody to play."

Though Clemson's linebacker corps in 2024 included All-American Barrett Carter and ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year Sammy Brown, it was Woodaz who led the team in tackles, a feat he accomplished despite missing two games with a leg contusion. Coaches credited Woodaz with 89 stops, 10 tackles for loss, 3.0 sacks, six pass breakups, three forced fumbles and an interception.

Woodaz was one of six power conference players to record double-digit tackles for loss, three or more forced fumbles and an interception in 2024 (Texas' Anthony Hill Jr. and Colin Simmons, Indiana's Jailin Walker, UCLA's Kain Medrano and Texas Tech's Jacob Rodriguez). He also became the first Clemson player credited with at least 75 tackles and at least three forced fumbles since Isaiah Simmons in 2018.

-- NO. 47 LB SAMMY BROWN --

SAMMY'S SENSATIONAL START

Linebacker Sammy Brown arrived at Clemson in January 2024 as a consensus Top 30 player in his recruiting class and as the nation's reigning High School Butkus Award winner.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney praised Brown as an "alpha," but spoke frequently about Brown's learning curve at the linebacker position after playing both running back and linebacker at Jefferson High School in Commerce, Ga. The linebacker tabbed as 247Sports' No. 1 "freak athlete" in the 2024 recruiting class proved to be a quick study, appearing in all 14 games for Clemson with six starts.

After Clemson opened its first eight games of 2024 in two-linebacker sets, Brown earned his first start at Virginia Tech in November that year as Clemson opened the game with three linebackers. The former five-star prospect delivered, recording a team-high eight tackles (per the gameday stat crew) with 2.5 tackles for loss and a sack.

"Sammy's been getting better and better and better and it was awesome to see him have that type of game," Swinney said after Brown's performance at Virginia Tech. "He's just a confident young man, and, boy, he's got a bright future ahead of him. He's going to be a great one."

Despite playing only 444 defensive snaps over 14 games in 2024, Brown ranked second in the nation in tackles for loss among freshmen.

3.	Dylan Stewart	South Carolina	10.5
4.	Jawaun Campbell	Jacksonville State	8.0
5.	Jo'Laison Landry	Texas State	7.5

Along with Barrett Carter (10.5) and Wade Woodaz (10.0), Brown gave Clemson three linebackers with double-digit tackles for loss for the first time since 2016 (Kendall Joseph, Ben Boulware and Dorian O'Daniel).

Brown ranked third in Clemson history in tackles for loss by a true freshman and fourth among that group in sacks.

MEET THE NEW GUYS

- WR Tristan Smith (signed Dec. 18): Smith joined Clemson after playing the 2024 season at Southeast Missouri State, helping the Redhawks to a first-place finish in the Big South-OVC Football Association and a berth in the Football Championship Subdivision playoffs. The 2024 all-conference honoree played in SEMO's final 11 games of the season, catching 76 passes for 934 yards and six touchdown receptions in addition to rushing for one touchdown.

- DE Will Heldt (signed Dec. 19): Heldt signed with Clemson after playing his first two collegiate seasons at Purdue, appearing in all 24 games for the Boilermakers from 2023-24. As a sophomore in 2024, gameday stat crews credited Heldt with 56 tackles (10.0 for loss), 5.0 sacks and a fumble recovery he returned 16 yards for a touchdown. He recorded 2.5 sacks and the 16-yard scoop-and-score in back-to-back games against ranked opponents Illinois and Oregon in October.

- LB Jeremiah Alexander (signed Jan. 8): Alexander played his first three collegiate seasons at Alabama from 2022-24. Following a redshirt year in 2022 in which he appeared in three games, Alexander played in 24 of the Crimson Tide's 27 games across the 2023-24 seasons and was credited with eight tackles in those contests. In high school, he led Alabama's Thompson

High School to the 2021 state championship (alongside current Clemson defensive lineman Peter Woods) as a consensus five-star recruit across most major outlets and ranked among the nation's top 50 players in his class.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney expounded on Clemson's strategy for the three winter transfer additions:

"As I've always said, we do what's best for Clemson. We'll use the portal whenever we need it and we'll be strategic with it. We needed it four years ago; we needed a backup quarterback and we got one. The next year, we needed a backup quarterback and we got one and he was here for two years.

"This year, we didn't anticipate signing a defensive line portal guy. We had two great ones committed and we were taking two. But as y'all know, things can change in recruiting. We had a young man back out and decide to go somewhere else, so there wasn't anybody left to recruit that could fill the need. Now we [had] a gap so we had to go use the portal and we needed a high-level guy and we got the guy I wanted to hit [Heldt].

"From a receiver standpoint, we had two guys go in the portal, and so we had a gap. We needed to go get a guy, and we needed somebody that could come in and help us with our depth and come in and compete and we found a great kid in Tristan out in Southeast Missouri. We were looking for a little length, and high school recruiting was over; there was nobody to get. We needed to go get a guy.

"And then the linebacker situation, honestly, we weren't really going to take a 'backer. We knew we needed another guy. Logan Anderson, our signee, tore his ACL. Kobe [McCloud], his situation [rehabbing from a knee injury]. We knew we probably needed another guy, but we were going to wait until May. And then Jeremiah popped up. We knew all about him, obviously recruited him hard, knew his family. That was a really good situation that worked out for us.

"That's really it. Nothing different. I know everybody likes to write about it, but our process is still the same. We're going to recruit high school kids as long as we can get the best of the best. As long as we can get the Gideon Davidsons of the world and the Sammy Browns of the world and the T.J. Parkers and Peter Woods and Cade Klubniks, that's what we're going to do, and we're going to develop... And then we have to respond if we have a situation and we have a gap in our roster or we have kids that leave. For us, that's how we use the portal, but the process isn't any different. They've still got to be the right fit, they've got to check all the boxes, they can't just be a good player. No different than our high school recruiting."

CFP-ERA DEFENSIVE TRACK RECORD

Clemson has a track record of producing one of the nation's top defenses in most seasons since the advent of the College Football Playoff in 2014.

Clemson ranked in the Top 30 in the country in total defense in each of the first 10 seasons of the CFP era and also ranked among the Top 30 in scoring defense in those 10 campaigns (including five Top 5 finishes in the category).

CLEMSON DEFENSE SINCE 2014

2024	374.1	69	23.4	49

Clemson's defensive anomaly in 2024 led to a change in leadership, as the Tigers plucked Penn State Defensive Coordinator Tom Allen for Clemson's defensive coordinator position immediately following the Nittany Lions' exit from the College Football Playoff. Allen now leads a Clemson defense that tied for the national lead in Top 10 finishes in average yards allowed per game in the College Football Playoff era.

ALLEN IS ALL IN

Clemson officially announced Tom Allen as its new defensive coordinator on Jan. 14.

"Tom checked every box that I was looking for," Head Coach Dabo Swinney said. "We've got a great football coach — and a great leader of men — coming to Clemson... He brings a ton of experience and was highly recommended by some of the best people in this business. He is obviously coming off of a great year as the defensive coordinator at Penn State, and we're excited to welcome him as our defensive coordinator here at Clemson."

Allen joined the Tigers with more than three decades of coaching experience. In 2024, he helped Penn State to a school-record 13 wins and a College Football Playoff berth. His defense recorded two pick-sixes in Penn State's 38-10 win against SMU in the College Football Playoff First Round, and in the following game, his unit bottled up Heisman runner-up Ashton Jeanty, holding the star running back to a season-low 3.47 yards per carry and no touchdowns in a 31-14 Penn State victory in the CFP Quarterfinal at Fiesta Bowl.

Penn State finished seventh in the nation in total defense (294.8 yards per game) and eighth in the nation in scoring defense (16.5 points per game) under Allen's guidance in 2024.

300 OR FEWER YARDS

WHO'S YOUR HAUSER?

Placekicker Nolan Hauser arrived at Clemson in January 2024 as the national high school record-holder for career field goals made (66) during his career at Hough High School in Cornelius, N.C.

Hauser (pronounced HOO-zer, not HOW-zer) opened his career with a streak of 25 consecutive made kicks (five field goals & 20 PATs) in 2024 before a blocked PAT against Stanford accounted for his first miss.

A week later at Florida State, Hauser made five field goals and accounted for 17 total points in Clemson's 16-point road win. The five-field-goal performance by Hauser was Clemson's first since Chandler Catanzaro went 5-for-5 on field goal attempts against Boston College in 2011.

Hauser's six points against Virginia Tech in November 2024 gave him the school record for points in a true freshman season, breaking the previous mark of 78 set by Sammy Watkins in 2011. In the ACC Championship Game, he reached the century mark to post the first 100-point season by a true freshman in Clemson history.

Hauser's 113-point 2024 season ranked tied for sixth in Clemson history in kicking points scored in a single season and tied for ninth in school history in points scored by any means in a single season.

His mother, Sheri Hauser (née Bueter), was an All-American soccer player at Clemson from 1994-97, and his father, Scott, played baseball at Clemson in from 1995-97 and was 6-2 as a pitcher on Clemson's College World Series team of 1996. His sister, Ella, was also a member of Clemson's women's soccer team from

HAUSER'S HIGHLIGHT

Though the pronunciation of his last name often trips up observers, Hauser made his name much more nationally recognizable with the seminal highlight of the 2024 ACC Championship Game.

In what Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney called "the biggest kick in Clemson history," the true freshman booted a 56-yard game winning field goal as time expired to give Clemson its 22nd ACC title, its 10th win of the season and its seventh College Football Playoff berth. Of note:

- Hauser's field goal gave Clemson the first walk-off win in ACC Championship Game history.

- Hauser became the first Clemson player to kick a game-winning walk-off field goal since Chandler Catanzaro hit a 37-yard field goal to beat LSU to end the 2012 Chick-Fil-A Bowl.

- Hauser's 56-yard field goal was the longest game-winning field goal as time expired in Clemson history.

- Hauser's career-long 56-yard field goal was the fourth-longest field goal in Clemson history but its longest away from Death Valley. It was also the longest field goal in postseason play in Clemson history.

- Hauser became the first FBS player ever to win a conference championship game by kicking a field goal of 50 or more yards as time expired.

- The game-winning field goal came in Hauser's home metro area, as his hometown of Cornelius, N.C. is roughly 20 miles north of Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte.

THE OTHER SWINNEY DYNASTY

Like the Colquitt family punting at Tennessee, the Swinney family holding for placekicks at Clemson has become a dynasty of its own.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's oldest son, Will, arrived at Clemson in 2017 and immediately earned Clemson's starting holder position on placekicks. He played five seasons and a record-tying 69 games at Clemson through 2021. In those five seasons, Clemson scored 565 points on placekicks, including field goals and PATs, and he held for 555 of those 565 points. The only 10 Clemson kicking points not held by Will in his career were instead held by his brother, Drew, who was Clemson's starter at the position in 2022.

Will and Drew were succeeded by the youngest of the three Swinney boys, Clay, a redshirt junior in his third season as Clemson's starting holder in 2025. Clay's presence creates a plausible scenario in which every Clemson placekick in a full 10-year span from 2017-26 could be held by a Swinney.

Clemson's last hold by any player outside the Swinney family was on the final point of Clemson's 2016 national championship, as Seth Ryan, coincidentally also the son of a famous long-time coach (Rex Ryan), held the PAT following Hunter Renfrow's game-winning touchdown with one second remaining.

Note: Listed points only reflect kicking points on held field goals or PATs. Will Swinney scored 12 additional points, six via receiving touchdown on offense and six via rushing touchdown on a fake field goal; Drew Swinney scored two additional points on a fake PAT.

Clemson's 2024 win against Stanford marked Clemson's 100th consecutive game with a Swinney as holder, a game that ironically resulted in Dabo Swinney's 100th career home win at Memorial Stadium. The family crossed 800 kicking points held for in the contest as well.

-- NOTES & NUGGETS --DEFEATS IN REVIEW

Clemson has lost 34 games since 2015, the fourth-fewest in the nation in that span. Eleven of Clemson's 24 losses since 2015 — more than 45 percent — have come against AP Top 10 teams.

The opponents to whom Clemson has lost since 2015 have a combined final record of 223-70, a winning percentage of .761. Clemson has not lost to a team that finished with a losing record since 2017 and has not lost to a team with a losing record at the time of the game since losing to 2-5 Boston College in 2010, Dabo Swinney's second full season as head coach.

Clemson's +16 turnover margin in 2024 ranked eighth in school history. It was the team's top turnover margin in a season under Dabo Swinney, surpassing its +15 mark in 2019.

Clemson struggled mightily with giveaways in 2023 en route to its first four-loss season since 2011. The Tigers then rebounded in ball security amid a College Football Playoff berth in 2024, but the giveaway bug returned to contribute to Clemson's start in 2025.

400-YARD GAMES

Clemson's 101 400-yard games since 2015 are tied for the fourth-most in the nation. Clemson became the fourth program to reach 100 games of 400 yards or more in that span with a 503-yard effort against Syracuse in September.

OFFENSIVE BALANCE

Clemson fielded one of the nation's most balanced offenses from 2018-24, averaging 264 passing yards per game and 191 rushing yards per game in that span. Clemson was one of only six teams nationally to average at least 260 passing yards and at least 190 rushing yards on a per-game basis in that time frame.

Clemson was undefeated when exceeding both 200 rushing yards and 200 passing yards — 58-0 under Swinney and 108-0-1 all-time — until opening the 2023 season with a loss at Duke in which the Tigers reached the double-century mark in both categories. The defeat was also a statistical anomaly nationally, as from 2014 through that 2023 season opener, FBS teams who passed for 200-plus yards, rushed for 200-plus yards and gave up 28 or fewer points in a single game were a combined 1748-41 (97.7 percent).

The anomaly struck again in 2024 when Clemson reached 200 yards in both categories in a loss to Louisville. After Clemson's loss in that game, FBS teams who, like Clemson, reached 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards while also producing 30+ first downs and no turnovers were a combined 326-21 (93.9 percent) since 2000.

GROUND GAME

Clemson has scored at least one rushing touchdown in 90 of its 101 games since the start of the 2018 season. Clemson's 90 games with a rushing touchdown in that span are the most in the nation. Clemson has scored multiple rushing touchdowns in 73 of those games, also the nation's best.

Clemson was held without a rushing touchdown in its 34-21 home loss to Syracuse on Sept. 20. Prior to that game, Clemson had an active streak of 62 consecutive home games with a rushing touchdown at Death Valley. Before Syracuse accomplished the feat this year, the last team to hold Clemson out of the Memorial Stadium end zones on the ground was Troy in the 2016 home opener.

MIND THE "MIDDLE EIGHT"

Since 2015, Clemson's most successful teams have frequently won one of the hidden "games within the game" on each side of halftime. SportSource Analytics tracks the "Middle Eight," the section of the game defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Clemson has outscored opponents in that time window 81 times since 2015, posting a 77-4 record in those contests.

2024	71.7	10-4

Note: Partial-season allowances for redshirts began in 2018.

The approach to creating functional depth and rewarding players ready to play has been a key philosophy for Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose own collegiate playing career was hatched as a walk-on fighting for playing time in Alabama's receiving corps.

"We're fully committed to playing guys who deserve to play," Swinney said. "You commit to a guy early in the season, and even if a guy has only played 10 percent of the snaps, when you get to game eight or nine, they've got some good experience."

In a statistic unlikely to be challenged in the wake of upcoming NCAA roster limits, Clemson has played 100+ players in a game six times under Dabo Swinney.

EXPLOSIVENESS RETURNS IN 2024

From 2018-20, Clemson strung together its three best seasons in school history in yards per play while accumulating a 39-3 record and three College Football Playoff berths. In the three years to follow, Clemson's explosiveness dropped from an average of seventh nationally to an average of 91st.

The Tigers took a significant jump nationally in yards per play and scrimmage plays of various distances in 2024.

FINISH

In 2018, Clemson debuted a new version of its "This is Why We Work" fourth quarter video at Death Valley, a hype video imploring the team to finish and featuring Director of Strength and Conditioning Joey Batson bellowing:

"Let me tell you something right now: they don't put championship rings on smooth hands! You gotta go earn it! You gotta go earn it six seconds at a time!"

You win championships when the stadium is empty, when the band ain't playing, when the cheerleaders ain't cheering, when it's just you and your brothers right beside you. That's when you win championships! In the fourth quarter, that is when we shine!"

The video and the speech became a part of Clemson lore, buoyed by its playing during Clemson's comeback win against Syracuse that year en route to a 15-0 national championship season. Over the years, the video has changed but the speech remains the same, with many Clemson fans yelling it in unison as it plays.

Clemson holds a 163-9 record under Dabo Swinney when leading after three quarters, including a 147-6 mark since 2011.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

- Entering the 2025 fall semester, of the 410 eligible players who completed their athletic eligibility at Clemson and/or graduated early in Dabo Swinney's 16+ full years as head coach, 404 (98.5 percent) have earned a degree during their time at Clemson.

- Clemson earned the AFCA Academic Achievement Award for 2024. The award was Clemson's fourth in the last seven years, but it was Clemson's fourth in the last five years that the honor was actually awarded, as the organization did not name recipients during a two-year period amid the COVID-19 pandemic.

- Clemson broke program multi-year NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) records in three straight years from 2017-19 (987 in 2016-17, 992 in 2017-18 and 993 in 2018-19) before the NCAA suspended APR reporting during the COVID-19 pandemic. Upon reinstatement of APR reporting in June 2022, Clemson shattered its multi-year APR record with a 999 covering the 2017-18 through 2020-21 academic years. Clemson has posted a 995 multi-year APR in each of the last three cycles.

- Most recently, Clemson posted a 995 multi-year APR covering 2020-21 through 2023-24, tied for fifth-best in the FBS. Clemson's lofty academic success in that period coincided with 40 wins in a four-year span and two ACC titles.

	2021-22	995
5.	2018-19	993

- Clemson and Northwestern are the only FBS programs to produce a 990+ multi-year APR in each of the last six reported cycles.

- Clemson is the only program in the country to have finished among the Top 25 in APR among FBS schools and the AP Top 25 in every reported APR cycle since 2011.

2024-25	Pending ('26)	Pending ('26)	14th

Notes: The NCAA suspended APR reporting for the 2019-20 academic year amid COVID-19, but Clemson's unreported APR would have again placed Clemson in the top 25 of FBS programs; APR data for 2024-25 will be published in spring 2026.

- Prior to the suspension of APR Public Recognition Awards following the COVID-19 pandemic, the NCAA recognized Clemson with its annual honor, which is bestowed upon programs ranking in the Top 10 percent of their respective sports, for nine of the award's last 10 reported academic cycles. Only 37 FBS programs earned at least one APR recognition across the 2009-10 through 2018-19 academic years. Only 30 programs earned it multiple times. Clemson, Duke and Northwestern were the only ones to earn the award 9+ times in that 10-year span.

- With its award for the 2018-19 academic year, Clemson became the only FBS program since the NCAA created the APR metric in 2003 to win a national championship and an APR Public Recognition Award in the same year multiple times. Alabama is the only other school to accomplish the title/APR double in a single year once (2011-12 academic year).

- A program-record 98 individuals earned a 3.0 GPA or better in Fall 2024. That included program-record 20 perfect 4.0s.

- Clemson set a record in Fall 2024 with the highest single-semester GPA in program history with a 3.19 team GPA. Clemson followed that up with a 3.18 spring semester.

- Entering the 2025 fall semester, Clemson has had 75+ individuals earn a 3.0 or better GPA in eight consecutive semesters.

HISTORIC GRADUATION SUCCESS RATE

Aided in part by historically elite academic performance by Clemson Football, Clemson Athletics tied for best in the NCAA among public Power Five institutions in Graduation Success Rate (GSR) with a 96 percent mark for the 2014-17 cohort in data released by the NCAA in November 2024.

Football reached a 99 percent mark for the second year in a row, again tying the highest GSR score for any Power Five football program, and tying the highest ever recorded among public Power Five football programs in the 20 years the NCAA has tracked the metric. Football trailed only Air Force and LIU (100 percent) in this release, and tied Columbia, Harvard and Northwestern.

RELATIVELY SPEAKING

Clemson's 2025 roster has many connections to college and professional athletics. Below is a list of notable connections:

- Keith Adams Jr., RB: Son of Keith Adams, a

Clemson Athletic Hall of Famer at linebacker for the Tigers from 1998-2000.

- Jamal Anderson, LB: Son of Jamal Anderson, an eight-year NFL running back who earned first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors in 1998 in helping the Falcons to a berth in Super Bowl XXXIII.

- Logan Brooking, TE: Son of 15-year NFL linebacker Keith Brooking, a five-time Pro Bowl selection who was 12th pick of the 1998 NFL Draft and remains the all-time leading tackler for both Georgia Tech and the Atlanta Falcons.

- Sammy Brown, LB: Son of former Furman football player Mike Brown.

- Vic Burley, DT: Cousin of Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Tackles Coach (and 10-year NFL veteran) Nick Eason.

- Brodey Conn, LS/P: Son of Defensive Pass Game Coordinator/Safeties Coach Mickey Conn.

- Ashton Hampton, CB: Son of University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff Head Coach Alonzo Hampton.

- Ronan Hanafin, S: Son of Dan Hanafin, who played quarterback at Boston University and was the program's starting quarterback in its final year in 1997; also the brother of Boston College quarterback Shane Hanafin.

- Nolan Hauser, PK: Son of two former Clemson athletes, including his mother, Sheri Hauser (née Bueter), an All-American soccer player at Clemson from 1994-97, and his father, Scott, who played baseball at Clemson from 1995-97 and was 6-2 as a pitcher on Clemson's College World Series team of 1996. He is the brother of recent Clemson women's soccer player Ella Hauser.

- Brayden Jacobs, OL: Son of nine-year NFL running back Brandon Jacobs, a two-time Super Bowl champion with the New York Giants who accrued more than 9,000 career rushing yards.

- Charlie Johnson, TE: Son of Ellis Johnson, a long-time college football coach who served as Clemson's defensive coordinator from 1994-96.

- Jaheim Lawson, DE: Brother of Shaq Lawson, a 2015 consensus All-American at Clemson and 2016 first-round pick.

- Tristan Leigh, OL: Son of Stan Leigh, who played running back at Virginia from 1990-94.

- Cade Klubnik, QB: Brother of Reed Klubnik, who played wide receiver at Yale from 2016-19.

- Armon Mason, DE: Son of Anthony Mason, who played 13 years in the NBA, earning an All-Star selection and an NBA Sixth Man of the Year Award; also a cousin of Atlanta Falcons All-Pro Grady Jarrett.

- Kobe McCloud, LB: Brother of former Clemson wide receiver Ray-Ray McCloud (2015-17); also brother of former USF/Arizona/James Madison/Texas State quarterback) Jordan McCloud.

- T.J. Moore, WR: Son of Terrance Moore Sr., a multi-time all-conference wide receiver at California University of Pennsylvania.

- Walker Parks, OL: Son of former Kentucky offensive lineman David Parks.

- Trent Pearman, QB: Son of former Clemson tight end and current Director of Football Scouting Danny Pearman.

- Ian Reed, OL, and Charlie Reed, PK/P: Sons of Eric Reed, a former member of the US Men's National Rugby Team.

- Collin Sadler, OL: Grandson of John Schroeder, a former All-America wide receiver at North Carolina who went on to play for the CFL's Hamilton Tiger-Cats.

- Clark Sanderson, WR: Son of former Alabama wide receiver Craig Sanderson (1988-90).

- Josh Sapp, TE: Son of former Clemson quarterback/defensive end Patrick Sapp (1992-95).

- Clay Swinney, WR: Son of Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney and brother of former Clemson wide receivers/holders Will Swinney and Drew Swinney.

- Caden Story, DL: Son of former Jacksonville State football and baseball player Clifford Story; nephew of 14-year NFL tight end Marcus Pollard; brother of Kentucky safety Kristian Story.

- Aiveon Terrell, CB: Brother of A.J. Terrell, current NFL All-Pro cornerback who was an All-ACC performer at Clemson.

- Champ Thompson, DT: Son of Michael Thompson, a fourth-round pick by the Atlanta Falcons in the 2000 NFL Draft.

- Cole Turner, WR: Son of former Alabama player Kevin Turner, who played eight years in the NFL with the New England Patriots and Philadelphia Eagles, and brother of former Clemson All-America safety Nolan Turner.

- Tyler Venables, S: Son of Oklahoma head coach and former Clemson defensive coordinator Brent Venables; brother of former Clemson linebacker Jake Venables.

CHURNING OUT NFL TALENT

Since assuming the head role midseason in 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has produced 86 NFL draft picks during his head coaching tenure. His 86 draft picks produced are the most by any active coach in the nation since the 2009 NFL Draft, and his 18 first-rounders are the fourth-most overall and second-most of any active coach in that span.

MOST PLAYERS DRAFTED BY COACH SINCE 2009 NFL DRAFT

Rk	Coach	Total Picks
1.	Nick Saban	133
2.	Dabo Swinney*	86
3.	Brian Kelly*	84
4.	Kirby Smart*	76
5.	Jim Harbaugh	73
6.	Jimbo Fisher	72
7.	James Franklin*	66
8.	Urban Meyer	65
9.	Kirk Ferentz*	65
10.	Mark Richt	64

In recent years, Clemson has been one of the NFL's primary provider of first-round talent among defensive linemen and linebackers. Clemson's nine first-round picks from its defensive front seven since the 2015 NFL Draft rank second in the nation.

FIRST-ROUND DEFENSIVE LINEMEN & LINEBACKERS SINCE 2015 NFL DRAFT

Rk	School	DL/LB
1.	Georgia	10
2.	Clemson	9
3.	Alabama	8
4.	Michigan	8
5.	Ohio State	5

Additional nuggets on Clemson's recent success in the NFL Draft are included below:

- Clemson has had at least one player selected in 23 consecutive drafts since 2003, representing the second-longest streak in school history behind a 24-year streak across the 1951-74 NFL Drafts.

- Clemson is one of only six schools to have produced multiple draft picks in each of the last 23 NFL Drafts (LSU, Michigan, Oklahoma, Ohio State and USC).

- Clemson has had at least three selections in 16 of its 17 drafts since Dabo Swinney was elevated to head coach. Clemson is one of six schools to have produced three or more picks at least 16 times in that span alongside Alabama, LSU, Ohio State, Oklahoma and USC.

- Including two defensive picks in the 2025 NFL Draft, Clemson has produced multiple defensive draft picks in 14 of the 17 drafts of the Dabo Swinney era.

Clemson, LSU, Alabama, Ohio State and Georgia are the only programs to produce multiple draft picks from their defenses in at least 14 drafts in that span.

- Clemson has had at least one player chosen by 30 of the 32 NFL franchises since 2003. The lone exceptions in that time frame are the Patriots, who last selected a Tiger in 1991, and the Panthers, who have never selected a Clemson player despite playing their first season in franchise history in Death Valley.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney has produced a draft pick for 28 of the 32 NFL teams in his head coaching tenure; the only NFL teams not to select a Clemson player in Swinney's head coaching tenure are the Chicago Bears, Denver Broncos, New England Patriots and Carolina Panthers.

- Though Clemson did not have a player selected in the first round of the 2025 NFL Draft, Clemson has had at least one first-round draft choice in 10 of the last 13 years, standing alongside Alabama, Florida, Georgia and Ohio State as the only programs to produce a first-round pick in at least 10 of the last 13 years.

- Since 2013, Clemson has produced first-round picks from the QB, RB, WR, DE, DT, LB and DB position groups. The only other school with at least one first-round pick at all those positions in that span is Alabama.

- Linebacker Barrett Carter's selection in the 2025 NFL Draft represented the fourth consecutive draft in which Clemson had a linebacker selected. Clemson and Alabama are the only programs in the nation to produce at least one linebacker in each of the last four NFL Drafts.

- Safety R.J. Mickens' selection in the 2025 NFL Draft gave Clemson at least one drafted defensive back in 13 of Clemson's 17 drafts in the Dabo Swinney era.

2025 GAME RECAPS

GAME 4	SYRACUSE	34
	CLEMSON	21
	SEPT. 20, 2025 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. - Clemson racked up 503 yards of offense, but Syracuse ran out to a 24-7 first-half lead en route to a 34-21 Orange win at Memorial Stadium.

Running back Adam Randall recorded 227 all-purpose yards, including seven catches for 44 yards and a touchdown in addition to his 130 rushing yards. Quarterback Cade Klubnik went 37-for-60 for 363 yards and three touchdown passes.

Syracuse scored on its first drive when quarterback Steve Angeli connected with Justus Ross-Simmons on a 12-yard touchdown pass. Syracuse then used a surprise onside kick and 11 plays to add another three points.

Clemson capitalized on its first possession, finishing a nine-play, 75-yard drive with a 38-yard touchdown pass from Klubnik to Bryant Wesco Jr.

Syracuse extended its lead to 17-7 with a nine-yard rushing touchdown, and after forcing Clemson to punt, Darrell Gill Jr. caught a 22-yard touchdown pass to make the score 24-7. Klubnik's six-yard touchdown pass to Randall with 1:06 left to play in the half cut Syracuse's halftime advantage to 24-14.

The teams incurred a one-hour-and-36-minute lightening delay that began with four minutes remaining in halftime. Syracuse increased its lead in the third quarter as Woody converted a 49-yard field goal with 11:44 on the clock. Later in the quarter, the Orange recovered a Clemson fumble, and Rickie Collins connected with Ross-Simmons on an 18-yard touchdown pass to extend their lead 34-14.

A nine-yard fourth-quarter touchdown pass from Klubnik to Wesco made the score 34-21, but an interception and a turnover on downs on Clemson's final two possessions gave Syracuse the victory.

GAME 5	CLEMSON	38
	NORTH CAROLINA	10
	OCT. 4, 2025 KENAN STADIUM • CHAPEL HILL, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - Clemson scored a touchdown on its first offensive play and on each of its first four possessions as the Tigers rode a 28-3 first-quarter lead to a 38-10 victory at Kenan Stadium.

The contest was the 300th overall game for Dabo Swinney at Clemson, including 68 games as an assistant coach and 232 as head coach. His matchup with Bill Belichick was the second time in college football history a coach with multiple FBS national championships as a head coach faced one with multiple Super Bowl titles as a head coach.

Quarterback Cade Klubnik finished 22-of-24 for 254 passing yards and four touchdowns through the air. Wide receiver T.J. Moore hauled in five passes for 108 yards and a touchdown, and running back Adam Randall and tight end Christian Bentancur each added two receiving touchdowns.

Moore scored on the game's first play from scrimmage, converting a double pass from Antonio Williams for a 75-yard touchdown. North Carolina cut the lead to 7-3 on its opening possession, but Clemson added touchdowns on its next three possessions — a 35-yard pass to Randall, a 45-yard pass to Bentancur and another 23-yard pass to Randall — for a 28-3 edge.

Clemson pushed its halftime advantage to 35-3 in front of an emptying crowd with an eight-yard pass to Bentancur with 2:02 to play in the half.

Clemson's reserves pushed the score to 38-3 early in the fourth quarter. North Carolina found the end zone for the first time on an 11-yard touchdown run by Benjamin Hall with 10:25 to play, but Clemson ultimately earned its seventh straight win against the Tar Heels.
