TIGERS AWAIT MUSTANGS FOR SMU'S DEATH VALLEY DEBUT ON SATURDAY

After earning road wins at North Carolina and Boston College over the last two weeks, Clemson will return to Death Valley on Saturday, Oct. 18 when the Tigers host the SMU Mustangs. Kickoff for SMU's first visit to Memorial Stadium in Clemson is set for 3:30 p.m. ET on ACC Network.

Saturday's game will be a rematch of a classic the teams contested in the 2024 ACC Championship Game in Charlotte. In that game, Clemson raced out to touchdowns on each of its first three drives and carried a 24-7 lead into halftime. A furious comeback by SMU tied the game at 31-31 with 16 seconds remaining, but a 41-yard kickoff return by Adam Randall and a 17-yard pass from Cade Klubnik to Antonio Williams set up Clemson's 56-yard walk-off field goal by Nolan Hauser.

Clemson has made 10 ACC Championship Game appearances, going 9-1 in those games. Prior to this Saturday's rematch with SMU, Clemson has played a rematch of those ACC Championship Games the following year five times. Clemson is 4-1 in those rematches including regular-season wins against Virginia Tech in 2012 and 2017, Virginia in 2020 and North Carolina in 2023.

Last week, Clemson's defense put together its best performance of the season, limiting Boston College to 221 total yards, the fewest surrendered by the Tigers to an opponent this season. That included only 136 passing yards allowed to an Eagles offense that entered the game ranked 10th in the nation at 313.4 passing yards per game. Clemson produced two takeaways and a season-high five sacks in the contest.

Saturday's game will be another installment in what has become a coincidental nostalgia tour for Dabo Swinney throughout October. On Oct. 4, Swinney coached his 300th overall game at Clemson (including his time as both an assistant coach and a head coach) in the Tigers' win at North Carolina. Then, on Oct. 11, Clemson defeated Boston College in Chestnut Hill, the site where Swinney earned his first win as head coach on Nov. 1, 2008. This week, Clemson's game against SMU will take place on the 17th anniversary of Swinney's first game as head coach, a 21-17 home loss to Georgia Tech on Oct. 18, 2008.

MEDIA INFORMATION

DABO SWINNEY PRESS CONFERENCE

Head Coach Dabo Swinney typically holds his weekly press conference at the Smart Family Media Center in the Clemson Athletic Branding Institute on Tuesday of game weeks at 11 a.m. All of Swinney's Tuesday press conferences will be streamed (no login required) on Clemson+.

STUDENT-ATHLETE INTERVIEWS

On typical game weeks, press conferences with select Clemson student-athletes will be held in the Smart Family Media Center on Tuesdays (11:45 a.m. to 2 p.m.) and Wednesdays (11 a.m. to 2 p.m.). Contact Ross Taylor and Brian Hennessy prior to the start of business hours on Monday with special requests for the week.

ASSISTANT COACH PRESS CONFERENCES

Select assistant coaches are tentatively scheduled to speak during availability windows on weeks of the following games:

- OC Garrett Riley: LSU, Open Date 1, Duke, Furman
- DC Tom Allen: LSU, Syracuse, Open Date 2, Florida State
- Others: Nick Eason (GT), Matt Luke (UNC), Mike Reed (BC)

REMOTE ACCESS

Clemson will conduct hybrid in-person and Zoom availabilities throughout the regular season. Media members wishing to participate in Tuesday and Wednesday availabilities with coaches and players may reach out to Ross Taylor to request a Zoom link and passcode.

SWINNEY SUNDAY TELECONFERENCE

Head Coach Dabo Swinney will hold an audio conference call on Zoom on Sundays at 6 p.m. after most games. Contact Ross Taylor to request access to the call.

GAME CREDENTIALS

Media wishing to apply for credentials to cover Clemson Football games at Memorial Stadium must apply at www.sportssystem.com/clemson. Credentials for each game will open two weeks prior to each contest; no season-long credentials will be issued.

All credentialing decisions are made in accordance with the Clemson University Athletics Media Credential Policy, available at ClemsonTigers.com/mediapolicy. Credential requests for home games must be submitted before noon ET on the Wednesday prior to the game.

WEEKLY ACCESS

Media members should contact Clemson Football Communications to request access to player and coach media availability at the Smart Family Media Center. All credentialing decisions are made in accordance with the Clemson University Athletics Media Credential Policy, available at ClemsonTigers.com/mediapolicy.

GAME AVAILABILITY REPORTS

The ACC has instituted player availability reporting for all conference games in 2025. For a typical Saturday game, player availability reports for conference games will be published at theacc.co/fbreports on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

YOUTUBE INTERVIEW ARCHIVE

Clemson Athletic Communications archives most interviews for reference by the media. Archived interviews and press conferences can be accessed at YouTube.com/@ClemsonSportsInfo. Most videos have been timestamped in the video descriptions for easy searching, reference and navigating by members of the media.

COLLEGE PRESSBOX.COM

Clemson media information will be uploaded to CollegePressBox.com. Access and download weekly game notes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for each conference and its member schools.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

- Clemson playing 17 years to the date after Dabo Swinney's first game as head coach, a 21-17 home loss to Georgia Tech on Oct. 18, 2008.
- Clemson attempting to improve to 2-0 all-time against SMU.
- Clemson and SMU meeting in a matchup of the two teams with the most wins against ACC opponents since SMU's addition to the conference prior to the 2024 season (10 each, including postseason play).
- Clemson attempting to win the first regular season meeting between the two programs. The game will also be the first on-campus game contested between the programs.
- Clemson attempting to win the first two games of a series with an opponent for the 30th time in program history. With a Clemson victory, SMU would become the 11th program currently in a power conference to start 0-2 in a series with Clemson all-time (Alabama, Boston College, Georgia Tech, Louisville, Missouri, NC State, Ohio State, Stanford, Virginia and Wake Forest).
- Clemson attempting to hand SMU its first ACC loss of the season for the second time in SMU's two seasons of ACC membership. SMU is 0-1 against Clemson but 10-0 against all other ACC foes since joining the conference.
- Clemson playing a rematch of the prior year's ACC Championship Game for the sixth time after Clemson's 10 appearances, including occurrences against Georgia Tech (2009 title game/2010 season), Virginia Tech (2011/2012 & 2016/2017), Virginia (2019/2020) and North Carolina (2022/2023). Clemson is 4-1 in those regular season rematches from the previous year's title game, with the lone loss coming to Georgia Tech in 2010.
- Clemson playing its lone home game in the month of October. The 2025 campaign marks the second straight season that Clemson has had only one October home game.
- Clemson attempting to improve to 72-7 at Death Valley in the College Football Playoff era. Clemson's current 71-7 home record is the third-best in the country in that span.
- Clemson entering the game having not lost back-to-back home games in a single season since 2008. That set of back-to-back home losses in 2008 included Tommy Bowden's final home game (20-17 loss to Maryland) and Dabo Swinney's first home game as head coach (21-17 loss to Georgia Tech).
- Clemson attempting to improve to 49-15-1 against teams making their first all-time trip to Death Valley since Memorial Stadium opened in 1942.
- Clemson playing its final game before the second of its two scheduled open dates of the 2025 regular season.
- Clemson attempting to improve to 44-22-2 in games prior to regular season open dates since joining the ACC in 1953. Clemson would improve to 17-3 in those games since 2012.
- Clemson attempting to post a perfect 3-0 record in the month of October.
- Clemson attempting to improve to 82-12 against ACC opponents, including postseason play, since 2015.
- Clemson attempting to improve to 144-21 against AP-unranked teams under Dabo Swinney and improve to 121-11 in those games since the start of the 2012 season.
- Clemson attempting to improve to 107-18 in regular season play since the start of the 2015 season.
- Head Coach Dabo Swinney (183-50) entering the game as one of seven coaches in FBS history to win 180 games within the first 20 seasons of a head coaching career. With a win, Swinney would pass LaVell Edwards (183) for sole possession of sixth in that category and trail only Tom Osborne (195), Nick Saban (191), Bob

- Stoops (191), Joe Paterno (187) and Urban Meyer (187) despite Swinney being in only his 18th season (and 17th full season). Note: Stoops and Meyer are not credited on the NCAA's official list of most wins through 20 seasons since they did not coach 20 years.
- Clemson attempting to score 40 points in consecutive games for the first time since last season against Wake Forest and Virginia.
- Clemson attempting to record back-to-back 500-yard performances for the first time since a three-game streak against Florida State, Wake Forest and Virginia last season.
- Clemson attempting to produce four consecutive 400-yard games for the first time since a seven-game streak last season.
- Clemson attempting to average 6.0 or more yards per play in five consecutive games for the first time since a six-game streak last season.
- Clemson attempting to reach both 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards in consecutive games for the first time since last season against Florida State and Wake Forest.
- Clemson attempting to rush for 200 yards in consecutive games for the first time since last season against Florida State and Wake Forest.
- Clemson attempting to rush for four touchdowns in consecutive games for the first time since last September against Appalachian State and NC State.
- Clemson entering the game having scored at least one rushing touchdown in a national-best 91 of its 102 games since the start of the 2018 season. Clemson has also rushed for multiple touchdowns in a national-best 74 games in that span.
- Clemson attempting to hold three straight opponents to 10 or fewer points for the first time since the first three games of the 2021 season.
- Clemson attempting to hold three straight ACC opponents to 10 or fewer points for the first time since the 2020-21 seasons including the 2020 regular season finale, 2020 ACC Championship Game and 2021 conference opener. It would be Clemson's first time doing so in a single season since a four-game streak in 2019.
- Clemson attempting to hold back-to-back opponents to fewer than 250 yards for the first time since 2020 against Miami (Fla.) and Georgia Tech.
- Clemson attempting to hold three consecutive opponents to fewer than 300 yards for the first time since the final two games of 2021 and the 2022 season opener. It would be Clemson's first time accomplishing the feat in a single season since the first three games of the 2021 season.
- Clemson attempting to post five or more sacks in consecutive games for the first time since 2021 against UConn and Wake Forest.
- Clemson attempting to snap its four-game streak of losing the turnover margin, its longest since a five-game streak in 2022.
- Linebacker Sammy Brown attempting to record a sack in back-to-back games for the first time in his career.
- Tight end Christian Bentancur (two touchdowns vs. North Carolina) attempting to join Jake Briningstool (three), Brandon Ford (two) and Jordan Leggett (two) and become the fourth Clemson tight end under Dabo Swinney to record multiple career games with two or more touchdown receptions.
- Defensive end Will Heldt (3.5) sitting 1.5 sacks shy of his single-season career high (5.0 at Purdue in 2024).
- Quarterback Cade Klubnik (22-12) attempting to move past Homer Jordan (22-6-1) and DJ Uiagalelei (22-6) for the sole possession of the seventh-most career wins by a Clemson starting quarterback since World War II.

- Klubnik (eight) attempting to throw for 300 yards to pass Charlie Whitehurst (eight from 2002-05) for sole possession of the fourth-most career 300-yard passing games in Clemson history.

- Klubnik (792) needing eight completions to join Tajh Boyd (901), Charlie Whitehurst (817) and Deshaun Watson (814) as the only quarterbacks in school history to complete 800 career passes.

- Klubnik (888) chasing No. 10 Ken Pengitore (898 from 1971-73), No. 9 DJ Uiagalelei (913 from 2020-22) and No. 8 Trevor Lawrence (943 from 2018-20) on Clemson's leaderboard for career rushing yards by a quarterback since Clemson transitioned from the single wing in 1953.

- Klubnik (15) chasing No. 6 Kelly Bryant (16 from 2015-18) and No. 5 Trevor Lawrence (18 from 2018-20) on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career rushing touchdowns by a quarterback.

- Klubnik (9,598) needing 166 yards of total offense to pass Charlie Whitehurst (9,763) for the fourth-most career yards of total offense (yards gained and/or thrown) in Clemson history.

- Klubnik (9,598) needing 402 yards to become the fourth player in Clemson history to record 10,000 career yards of total offense.

- Offensive lineman Blake Miller (3,304) entering the game fourth in career snaps from scrimmage on record in Clemson history. He is 57 snaps shy of Dalton Freeman (3,361) for third.

Note: Available snap data dates to 1986; scrimmage plays only.

- Offensive lineman Walker Parks (2,941) needing 59 more snaps this season to become the eighth Clemson player on record to record 3,000 career snaps from scrimmage.

- Defensive end T.J. Parker (18.5 sacks) needing two sacks to match Chester McGlockton (20.5 from 1989-91) for the 10th-most career sacks in Clemson history.

- Parker (six forced fumbles) needing one forced fumble to tie Levon Kirkland (seven from 1988-91), Keith Adams (seven from 1998-2000) and Vic Beasley (seven from 2011-14) for the seventh-most forced fumbles in a career in Clemson history.

- Parker attempting to recover a fumble in consecutive games for the second time in his career (vs. South Carolina and SMU in 2024).

- Running back Adam Randall attempting to become the first Clemson player to score a touchdown of any kind in seven consecutive games since Travis Etienne's seven-game streak in the middle of the 2020 season.

- Randall attempting to become the first Clemson player to score a touchdown in each of the first seven games of a season since Travis Etienne in 2018.

- Randall attempting to become the third Clemson player on record to score a touchdown in each of the first seven games of a season, joining C.J. Spiller (all 14 games in 2009) and Travis Etienne (first seven games of 2018).

- Randall (three) needing one touchdown reception to tie Travis Etienne (four in 2019), C.J. Spiller (four in 2009) and Travis Zachery (four in 2000) for the second-most touchdown catches by a Clemson running back in a single season since the Tigers transitioned away from the single wing in 1953. He is two touchdowns shy of the Clemson single-season record in that span (five, set by Ray Yaeger in 1969).

- Randall entering the week as one of only two players in the FBS with at least 400 rushing yards and at least three receiving touchdowns (Notre Dame's Jeremiyah Love).

- Cornerback Avieon Terrell (six) needing one forced fumble to take sole possession of the Clemson record for career forced fumbles by a defensive back.

- Terrell (six) needing one forced fumble to tie Levon Kirkland (seven from 1988-91), Keith Adams (seven from 1998-2000) and Vic Beasley (seven from 2011-14) for the seventh-most forced fumbles in a career in Clemson history.

- Terrell (three) attempting to take sole possession of a new single-season career high in forced fumbles (three in both 2024 and 2025).

- Wide receiver Bryant Wesco Jr. (six) attempting to add to his existing single-season career high in touchdown receptions.

- Wesco attempting to record consecutive 100-yard receiving games for the second time this season (vs. Troy and Georgia Tech).

- Wesco (three) attempting to become the first Clemson player to record four 100-yard receiving games in a season since Cornell Powell in 2020.

- Wesco (three) attempting to record a fourth 100-yard receiving game in the first seven games of the season. It would be the fifth such season by a Clemson player over the first seven games in the last 30 years, joining Tony Horne (four in 1997), Sammy Watkins (four in both 2011 and 2013) and DeAndre Hopkins (four in 2012).

- Wesco (six) chasing DeAndre Hopkins (nine in 2012) and Sammy Watkins (eight in 2011) for the most receiving touchdowns by a Clemson player through the first seven games of a season.

- Wide receiver Antonio Williams (17) needing one touchdown catch to enter the Top 10 in school history in career touchdown receptions. Glenn Smith (1949-51) and TE Jordan Leggett (2013-16) are presently tied for ninth with 18 each. Artavis Scott sits at eighth (19 from 2014-16).

- Williams (170) chasing No. 7 Mike Williams (177 from 2013-16) and No. 6 Amari Rodgers (181 from 2017-20) on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career receptions.

- Williams (1,903) needing 97 receiving yards to become the 17th player in Clemson history to record 2,000 career receiving yards. He would join Sammy Watkins, DeAndre Hopkins, Aaron Kelly, Mike Williams, Terry Smith, Artavis Scott, Tee Higgins, Justyn Ross, Perry Tuttle, Rod Gardner, Derrick Hamilton, Amari Rodgers, Hunter Renfrow, Jerry Butler, Deon Cain and Airese Currie.

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS GAME

This week's contest has been designated as Clemson's Breast Cancer Awareness game.

Since its inception, breast cancer prevention and research has been one of the core focus areas of Dabo's All In Team Foundation. Breast cancer has impacted the Swinney family personally, as Dabo Swinney's wife, Kathleen, lost her sister, Lisa Lamb, to breast cancer at the age of 49 in 2014.

Over the years, the foundation has donated more than $2.5 million to local hospitals, research teams and organizations focused on breast cancer prevention, research, technology and early detection. Last July, the 2025 Dabo Swinney Ladies Clinic welcomed more than 1,100 participants and raised $250,000 for the cause.

Since 2012, Dabo's All In Team Foundation has partnered with the Bon Secours St. Francis Foundation and the Pearlle Harris Center for Breast Health to provide funding for "Big Pink," the St. Francis Mobile Mammography coach that travels through Oconee, Pickens, Anderson, and Greenville counties providing mammograms to the underserved and underinsured in those communities. In both 2018 and 2022, the foundation provided lead gifts of $250,000 for two new mobile mammography coaches that are equipped with state-of-the-art 3D mammography equipment.

Additionally, in 2023, the foundation committed to expanding its impact into the Lakelands region of the state, providing the lead gift of $250,000 to Self Regional Healthcare for their new mobile mammography unit. Over the years, the foundation has also provided funding to the Breast Care Center at Prisma Health Oconee Memorial Hospital and numerous Clemson University and Anderson University breast cancer research teams.

Clemson's flagship radio station, WCCP 105.5 The Roar FM, annually hosts its Tigers for Tatas campaign in support of the foundation and its fight against breast cancer. More information on The Roar's campaign — including events and ways to donate — will be available at theroarfm.com.

CLEMSON WELCOMES YOU TO DEATH VALLEY

When SMU makes its Death Valley debut on Saturday, the Mustangs will become the 65th different opponent Clemson has faced at Memorial Stadium since the facility opened in 1942.

Clemson is 48-15-1 all-time against opponents making their Death Valley debut. That includes a 12-2 record for the Tigers during Dabo Swinney's head coaching tenure.

CLEMSON PRIOR TO OPEN DATES

Saturday's game will precede the second of Clemson's two regular-season open dates in 2025. The 2025 season marks Clemson's sixth year with multiple open dates since 2013, joining the 2013, 2014, 2019, 2020 and 2024 seasons.

Since joining the ACC as a charter member in 1953, Clemson is 43-22-2 in games preceding regular season open dates. Clemson is 16-7 before regular season open dates under Dabo Swinney, including a 16-3 mark in those games since 2012

SERIES HISTORY VS. SMU

The series history of Clemson and SMU remains easily measurable in months, as it was less than a year ago that Tigers and Mustangs met on the gridiron for the first time. Clemson collected a 34-31 win in the teams' first meeting in the 2024 ACC Championship Game.

LAST MEETING

Clemson 34, SMU 31

(Dec. 7, 2024, Charlotte, N.C.)

CHARLOTTE - Freshman placekicker and Charlotte-area native Nolan Hauser made a 56-yard field goal as time expired to claim the ACC Championship for No. 17 Clemson, 34-31, over No. 8 SMU (11-2, 8-0 ACC) at Bank of America Stadium. Clemson (10-3, 7-1 ACC) claimed its eighth conference championship in the past 10 seasons and became the first program to win 22 ACC titles.

Clemson led 31-14 after three quarters, but SMU scored 17 consecutive points and tied the game 31-31 with 16 seconds remaining. But Clemson responded as senior Adam Randall's 41-yard kickoff return got the Tigers to the Clemson 45-yard line. Junior quarterback Cade Klubnik hit Antonio Williams for 17 yards and Clemson took a timeout with three seconds left. Hauser put the 56-yarder down the middle to capture the title. It was the first time an FBS team kicked a 50+ yard field goal as time expired to win a conference championship game.

Klubnik completed 24 of his 41 pass attempts for 262 yards and an ACC Championship Game record-tying four passing touchdowns to lead Clemson offensively, earning him ACC Championship Game Most Valuable Player honors, joining his selection in 2022 to make him only the third player ever to win multiple ACC Championship Game MVP honors (Deshaun Watson and Tyrod Taylor, two each).

Freshman wide receiver Bryant Wesco Jr., who grew up just 30 miles from SMU's campus, had eight catches for 143 yards and two touchdowns, and tight end Jake Briningstool recorded four catches for 23 yards and two touchdowns. Hauser accounted for 10 points, becoming the first Clemson freshman to record 100 points in a season, as he hit the 56-yarder, a 44-yarder and four extra points.

Defensively, Clemson forced two first-half turnovers, a strip sack by sophomore defensive end T.J. Parker, who also recorded eight tackles (3.5 for loss), and an interception by sophomore safety Khalil Barnes. Sammy Brown led the defense with 14 tackles (0.5 for loss).

Clemson's defense quickly struck first, as Parker forced and recovered a Kevin Jennings fumble on the third play of SMU's opening drive on an 11-yard sack, giving Clemson the ball in SMU territory. The fumble was Parker's sixth forced fumble of the season, giving him sole possession of the school record for caused fumbles in a single season, breaking the previous mark of five set by Brandon Maye in 2009.

On Clemson's second offensive play, Klubnik rolled left, and just as it appeared he would run, he stopped and lobbed a pass over the defense to an open Wesco for a 35-yard touchdown, giving the Tigers a 7-0 lead just 1:25 into the contest.

After forcing a three-and-out and getting a 21-yard punt return from Antonio Williams, Clemson extended its lead to 14-0, capping a four-play, 28-yard drive with a five-yard touchdown pass from Klubnik to tight end Jake Briningstool.

SMU responded on its next possession with a 24-yard touchdown run by Jennings to finish a 10-play, 75-yard drive, shrinking their deficit to 14-7 with 7:05 remaining in the opening quarter.

Clemson struck back with an eight-play, 75-yard drive. Klubnik hit Wesco in stride on third down, as Wesco broke a tackle before taking it into the end zone for a 45-yard touchdown to extend Clemson's lead to 21-7.

Clemson registered its second takeaway of the game on SMU's next drive when Barnes intercepted Jennings in SMU territory, but the Tigers were unable to capitalize. Later in the quarter, Hauser made a 44-yard field goal with 5:22 remaining in the first half, which ended 24-7 in Clemson's favor.

SMU opened the second half with a stop and a score on their first offensive possession when Jennings connected with Brashard Smith for a 10-yard touchdown to cap a seven-play, 74-yard drive, cutting the deficit to 24-14.

After the next two drives resulted in punts, Clemson stretched its lead to 31-14 with a 10-play, 58-yard drive capped by a five-yard touchdown pass to Briningstool, Klubnik's fourth passing touchdown of the game.

SMU answered with a seven-play, 75-yard drive, which finished with a 20-yard touchdown pass from Jennings to Matthew Hibner, shrinking Clemson's lead to 31-21 with 13:22 remaining in the game.

The next three drives ended in punts before SMU finished an eight-play, 21-yard drive with a Collin Rogers 46-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 31-24 with 6:56 remaining. Clemson was forced to punt five plays later, giving SMU the ball at their own 21 with 4:05 remaining.

SMU drove 79 yards in 16 plays to tie the game 31-31 with a Jennings touchdown to Roderick Daniels Jr. with 16 seconds remaining in regulation, setting up Clemson's heroics.

Randall returned the ensuing kickoff to the Clemson 45-yard line with nine seconds remaining. Klubnik found Williams for a 17-yard gain to the SMU 38 with three seconds remaining in regulation. Hauser made a 56-yard field goal to win the game 34-31 for the Tigers as time expired. His 56-yard field goal was the longest in ACC Championship game history. Additionally, the kick was the first walk-off, game-winning play in the 20-year history of the ACC Championship Game.

Thanks to the win, Clemson collected its seventh College Football Playoff berth the following day when the inaugural 12-team field was announced.

CLEMSON-SMU CONNECTIONS

- Garrett Riley: Clemson's current offensive coordinator spent two seasons on the Hilltop from 2020-21, helping the Mustangs to two Top 15 finishes in scoring offense.

- 1981: Both teams enjoyed one of their finest seasons in school history in 1981. Under Ron Meyer, SMU went 10-1 and finished No. 5 in the AP Poll despite being on a postseason ban while on NCAA probation. Clemson, meanwhile, went 12-0 en route to the first of the program's three national titles.

- Whitey Jordan: The Clemson graduate and long-time assistant coach under Frank Howard and Cecil Ingram later became SMU's offensive coordinator from 1982-86, collecting three 10-win seasons and an undefeated 11-0-1 campaign with the Mustangs in 1982. He coached College Football Hall of Famer Eric Dickerson during his time with the Mustangs.

- Chad Morris: Clemson's offensive coordinator from 2011-14 served as SMU's head coach from 2015-17.

-- FROM THE ARCHIVES --

NOTES FROM LAST GAME

- Clemson scored a season-high 41 points, its first 40-point performance since last November against The Citadel (51) and its first against an ACC opponent since last October against Virginia (48).

- Clemson accrued 504 total yards and has now produced three consecutive 400-yard games for the first time this season.

- Clemson's 504 yards were a season high, surpassing its 503 yards against Syracuse.

- Clemson reached both 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards in a game for the first time this season. It was Clemson's first such performance since last November against The Citadel and its first against an ACC opponent since last November against Louisville.

- Clemson rushed for a season-high 226 yards, its first 200-yard rushing performance since last November vs. The Citadel (302).

- Clemson averaged 6.6 yards per play and has now averaged 6.0 or more yards per play in four consecutive games for the first time since a six-game streak last season.

- Clemson scored in its 300th consecutive game, a streak that dates to 2003. It is the 13th streak of 300 or more consecutive games without being shut out in FBS history.

- Clemson has now earned wins of 28 or more points against consecutive ACC opponents for the first time since 2022 (vs. Miami and North Carolina). It's the first time Clemson has recorded 28-point wins against ACC opponents in consecutive weeks since 2020 (against Pitt and Virginia Tech).

- Clemson has now held ACC opponents to 10 or fewer points in road games in consecutive weeks for the first time since 1995 (at Maryland and at Georgia Tech).

- Clemson scored on all six of its first-half drives. After scoring on its first four drives a week ago, Clemson has now recorded back-to-back games scoring on each of its first four drives for the first time since last September against Appalachian State and NC State.

- Clemson scored on each of its first six possessions, doing so in a game for the first time since last November against The Citadel.

- Clemson scored 34 first-half points a week after scoring 35 first-half points at North Carolina. Clemson has now scored 30 points in back-to-back first halves for the first time since the Appalachian State (56) and NC State (45) games last September.

- Clemson rushed for a season-high four touchdowns.

- Four different players rushed for a touchdown for Clemson for the first time since last September against NC State.

- Clemson has now scored at least one rushing touchdown in a national-best 91 of its 102 games since the start of the 2018 season. Clemson's 74 games with multiple rushing touchdowns in that span also lead the nation.

- Quarterback Cade Klubnik completed 22-of-30 passes for 280 yards and a touchdown prior to exiting the game in the third quarter. He also added 48 yards and a touchdown on nine rushing attempts.

- Klubnik (22-12) tied Homer Jordan (22-6-1) and DJ Uiagalelei (22-6) for the seventh-most career wins by a Clemson starting quarterback since World War II.

- Klubnik completed 12 consecutive passes across the first and second quarters. It marked the second straight game in which Klubnik had a streak of 12 consecutive completions, one shy of his career long of 13.

- Klubnik finished the first half 18-of-23 passing for 241 yards with a touchdown. Klubnik was a combined 39-of-46 (84.8 percent) for 495 yards with five touchdowns and no interceptions in the first halves of Clemson's last two contests for a pass efficiency rating of 211.0.

- Klubnik scored his second rushing touchdown of the season on a six-yard rush in the second quarter.

- With the touchdown run, Klubnik (15) became the seventh Clemson quarterback to record 15 or more career rushing touchdowns since the Tigers transitioned away from the single wing in 1953.

- Klubnik (15) tied DJ Uiagalelei (15 from 2020-22) for seventh on Clemson's leaderboard for career rushing touchdowns by a quarterback since 1953.

- Running back Adam Randall rushed 10 times for 36 yards with a touchdown.

- Randall scored an eight-yard touchdown run in the first quarter.

- Randall became the first Clemson player to score a touchdown of any kind in six consecutive games since Will Shipley in 2022.

- Randall became the first Clemson player to score a touchdown in each of the first six games of a season since Travis Etienne in 2018.

- Randall became the fourth Clemson player on record to score a touchdown in each of the first six games of a season, joining C.J. Spiller (all 14 games in 2009), Travis Etienne (first seven games of 2018) and Bill Mathis (first six games of 1959).

- Wide receiver Bryant Wesco Jr. recorded a game-high 106 yards and a touchdown on five receptions.

- Wesco set a new single-season career high with his sixth receiving touchdown of the season on a 38-yard pass from Klubnik in the second quarter.

- Wesco became the fourth Clemson player in Dabo Swinney's head coaching tenure to record at least six receiving touchdowns over the first six games of a season (DeAndre Hopkins, eight in 2012; Deon Cain, six in 2016; Sammy Watkins, six in 2011).

- Wesco recorded his sixth career 100-yard receiving game. It was his season-high-tying third such performance of the season, matching his three 100-yard games from his freshman season in 2024.

- Wide receiver Antonio Williams recorded season highs with seven receptions for 85 yards. He also added a career-high three rushing attempts for 32 rushing yards.

- During the contest, Williams (170) moved past Rod Gardner (166 from 1997-2000) and Derrick Hamilton (167 from 2001-03) into eighth on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career receptions.

- Williams recorded a season-long 24-yard rush in the second quarter. It was his longest rush since a 36-yard touchdown run against Virginia last season.

NOTES

- Defensive tackle Peter Woods scored his first career rushing touchdown on a two-yard rushing touchdown in the second quarter.

- Woods became the first Clemson defender to score a rushing touchdown since linebacker Barrett Carter's four-yard touchdown run vs. The Citadel last season. He became the first Clemson defensive lineman to score a rushing touchdown since Nyles Pinckney's one-yard touchdown run at Georgia Tech in 2020.

- Woods' rushing touchdown was scored on a play with nine offensive linemen and a quarterback in front of the 310-pound Woods. The 11-man unit featured a combined listed weight of 3,340 pounds, as the second-lightest player on the unit behind the 210-pound Klubnik was 295-pound Chapman Pendergrass.

- Woods also recorded a two-yard rush on fourth-and-1 in the first quarter. Woods is 3-for-3 on converting fourth downs via rush this season and 4-for-4 on reaching the line gain on his four carries.

- Running back Keith Adams Jr. recorded career highs with seven carries for a team-high 49 yards and scored his second career rushing touchdown on a one-yard run in the fourth quarter.

- Tight end Josh Sapp recorded a career-long 32-yard reception in the second quarter.

- Clemson recorded a season-high five sacks among its seven tackles for loss.

- Linebacker Sammy Brown recorded his first career forced fumble while recording his second sack of the season in the second quarter.

- The fumble was recovered by defensive end T.J. Parker. It was Parker's first fumble recovery of the season and the fourth of his career.

- Defensive end Jahiem Lawson recorded his career-high second sack of the season in the third quarter.

- Lawson added his career-high second sack of the game in the fourth quarter.

- Lawson's first sack was Clemson's third tackle for loss of the game and Clemson's 1,500th tackle for loss since the start of the 2012 season. Clemson (1,504) became the first program in the country to record 1,500 tackles for loss in that span.

- Defensive tackle Champ Thompson recorded his first career sack in the fourth quarter, forcing a Boston College turnover on downs.

- Woods added his first half-sack of the season in the third quarter, splitting a sack with defensive end Will Heldt.

- Woods became the first FBS player this season to rush for a touchdown and record at least half a sack in a single game.

- Woods became the first Clemson player to contribute to a sack and rush for a touchdown in a single game since Christian Wilkins against South Carolina in 2018.

- Safety Ricardo Jones recorded his team-high and career-high second interception of the season in the fourth quarter. It was the third interception of his career.

- Clemson scored on its opening drive when placekicker Nolan Hauser converted a then-season-long 46-yard field goal.

- Clemson has now scored on its opening drive in three consecutive games. It marks Clemson's first time doing so since accomplishing the feat against Appalachian State, NC State and Stanford in September 2024.

- Hauser then set another season-long with a 50-yard field goal to end the first half.

- The 50-yard field goal by Hauser was the third of his career of 50 or more yards.

- The game was the teams' first meeting since a 31-3 Clemson win in Chestnut Hill in 2022. The games marked Clemson's first time playing back-to-back games in the series in Massachusetts since 1952-53. The teams met in Death Valley in three consecutive years from 2019-21 but hadn't played consecutive games in the series in Massachusetts since playing games at Braves Field and Fenway Park in 1952 and 1953, respectively.

- Captains for the contest were safety Ronan Hanafin, offensive lineman Tristan Leigh, offensive lineman Collin Sadler and linebacker Wade Woodaz.

WITH THE WIN...

- Clemson improved to 22-9-2 all-time against Boston College, dating to the teams' first meeting in the Cotton Bowl on New Year's Day in 1940.

- Clemson won its 13th consecutive game against

Boston College, dating back to 2011. Clemson's active 13-game winning streak against Boston College is its seventh-longest all-time against a single opponent, its fifth-longest active streak, and its second-longest active streak against an ACC opponent.

- Clemson improved to 15-4 against Boston College since the Eagles joined the ACC in 2005.

- Clemson improved to 11-6-1 all-time in road games against Boston College.

- Clemson won its sixth straight game in Chestnut Hill to produce Clemson's 10th all-time road winning streak of six or more games against a single opponent.

- Clemson played the second leg of its only set of back-to-back road games this season.

- Clemson still has not lost to a team with a losing record at the time of kickoff since losing to 2-5 Boston College in 2010, Dabo Swinney's second full season as head coach. Dating to 2010, Clemson has won 36 straight games against teams with losing records at kickoff, tied with Ohio State for the nation's second-longest streak according to Stats Perform (Alabama, 38).

- Clemson improved to 33-10 in night games since the start of the 2018 season and 54-13 in night games since 2015.

- Clemson improved to 172-76-3 all-time (and 55-10 since 2011) when facing a coach for the first time.

- Clemson improved to 42-10 in true road games since the start of the 2015 season. Clemson tied Boise State for the most road wins in the nation in that span.

- Clemson improved to 81-12 against ACC opponents, including postseason play, since 2015.

- Clemson improved to 143-21 against AP-unranked teams under Dabo Swinney and is now 120-11 in those games since the start of the 2012 season.

- Clemson improved to 106-18 in regular season play since the start of the 2015 season.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney (183-50) tied LaVell Edwards (183) for the sixth-most wins in the first 20 years of a coaching career in FBS history. Swinney now trails only Tom Osborne (195), Nick Saban (191), Bob Stoops (191), Joe Paterno (187) and Urban Meyer (187) despite Swinney being in only his 18th season (and 17th full season).

NOTES

- Clemson improved to 15-1 against Boston College under Swinney. Boston College became the second program against which Swinney has earned 15 wins, joining Wake Forest (16).

- Clemson is now 78-4 since 2015 when outscoring opponents in the "Middle Eight," defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half.

- Clemson is now 157-12 under Dabo Swinney when leading at halftime, including a 140-8 mark since the start of the 2011 season.

- Clemson is now 90-9 when scoring first since the start of the 2015 season.

- Clemson improved to 148-6 when leading after three quarters since the start of the 2011 season.

- Clemson improved to 87-4 when rushing for 200+ yards under Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson is now 67-2 when both passing and rushing for 200+ yards under Dabo Swinney. Overall, Clemson is 117-2-1 in program history when reaching those marks.

- Clemson is now 140-11 when totaling more first downs than its opponent since 2011.

- Clemson is now 123-3 in its last 126 games when holding teams to fewer than 23 points, a span that dates to the middle of the 2010 season.

SCORING CHANGES

- The muffed punt originally charged as having touched No. 24 David Eziumume was changed to No. 24 Tyler Venables.

ON THIS DATE

- Oct. 18, 2008: Dabo Swinney served his first game as head coach against Georgia Tech, just five days after he took over the program. He instituted "Tiger Walk" prior to the game. Georgia Tech won the contest, 21-17.

- Overall: Clemson is 5-4 all-time in games played on Oct. 18, including most recently a 17-13 win against Boston College in 2014.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF STAPLES

From 2014-23, Clemson cemented itself as one of the College Football Playoff's powerhouses of the tournament's inaugural decade. In the 10-year history of the four-team format prior to 2024, only 15 programs earned at least one College Football Playoff berth, and Clemson ranked second in CFP berths, CFP title game appearances, total CFP wins and CFP titles.

Clemson returned to the College Football Playoff in 2024 in the format's first year of expansion to 12 teams and is one berth shy of Alabama (eight) for the most in history.

Clemson's lofty perch in that ranking reflects not only its dominance against middle- and lower-tier opponents, but also its success in matchups with other premier programs. Among current power conference teams, 37 different programs recorded at least 100 wins from 2011-24. Clemson has played 16 of those 37 programs since 2011 and is 66-25 (.725) in those contests and is .500 or better against 13 of the 16 teams.

In 2020, Clemson became the first program ever to win 20 ACC Championships. That year, Clemson became the first program in the conference championship game era to win six straight conference championship games.

Two years later, Clemson's 2022 ACC title was the program's seventh in eight years, as the Tigers became the first team in an active power conference to win seven outright conference titles in an eight-year span since Alabama won eight SEC titles in nine seasons from 1971-79.

Including titles from its days as a member of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association and Southern Conference, Clemson has 28 conference championships overall, also the most of any current ACC school. Duke ranks second among the ACC's current membership with 18 overall conference titles, including 11 Southern Conference titles and seven ACC titles.

The Tigers won the 1900, 1902 and 1903 SIAA Conference championships under John Heisman, then the 1906 SIAA title under Bob Williams. Clemson also won the 1940 and 1948 Southern Conference titles under Frank Howard. Howard won eight total conference titles, including two in the Southern Conference and six in the ACC. Swinney surpassed the legend with a win in the 2024 ACC Championship Game.

POWER OVER POWER CONFERENCE FOES

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level,'" recounted Swinney. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2011, no team can claim more wins against power conference opponents than the Tigers.

Clemson's national-best-tying 136 power conference wins since 2011 include at least one victory against 27 different programs, including Wake Forest (14), Boston College (13), Georgia Tech (11), Syracuse (10), NC State (10), Florida State (9), South Carolina (8), Louisville (8), Virginia Tech (7), North Carolina (7), Virginia (4), Notre Dame (4), Auburn (4), Miami (Fla.) (4), Maryland (3), Ohio State (3), Pitt (3), Alabama (2), Texas A&M (2), Oklahoma (2), Duke (2), LSU (1), Georgia (1), Iowa State (1), Kentucky (1), Stanford (1) and SMU (1).

On a year-by-year basis, Clemson has finished the season atop the country in wins against power conference opponents a national-best four times since the institution of the College Football Playoff in 2014. That includes 13 wins against power conference opponents in 2018, the first team ever to reach that figure.

SIGN AND DEVELOP

While proud of his incoming classes, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has long stated that a true ranking of a recruiting class cannot and should not be published until four years later when the group can be evaluated on performance rather than potential.

Much to Swinney's delight, The Athletic annually assumed that role for the classes of 2014-20, re-ranking each recruiting class four years later to account for on-field performance.

For its re-rankings, The Athletic uses the following grading scale: 5 points: All-American, award winner, top-50 NFL Draft pick; 4: Multi-year starter, all-conference honors; 3: One-year starter or key reserve; 2: Career backup; 0: Minor or no contribution, left the program. The outlet also adds a bonus to each program's class average, derived from its total number of wins from 2017 through 2020 (e.g., For re-ranking the Class of 2017, Clemson won 51 games, so its class average received a bonus of 0.51).

Swinney has pointed out that Clemson often falls in rankings as its retention and its commitment to not oversigning leads to smaller recruiting classes. He also notes that much of Clemson's on-field success is a function of the program's development, citing All-Americans like former three-star Isaiah Simmons or former two-star Nolan Turner. The re-rankings illustrate Clemson's impressive track record of talent identification, culture fit, resource allocation and player development.

CLEMSON RECRUITING RANKINGS AND RE-RANKINGS (VIA THE ATHLETIC)

Class	Rank	Re-Rank	Diff.	Record
2014	16	6	+10	50-7
2015	9	2	+7	55-4
2016	11	1	+10	55-4
2017	16	5	+11	51-5
2018	7	2	+5	49-6
2019	10	5	+5	45-9
2020	3	7	-4	40-12
Average	10.2	4.0	+6.2

Note: Initial rank according to 247 Composite

On average, Clemson ranked 10.2 in the 247 Composite team rankings across the 2014-20 recruiting cycles. Upon re-ranking those groups, despite having little room for improvement while recruiting at a Top 15 clip in that span, Clemson ranked 4.0 on average in the re-rankings, a ratings bump of roughly six spots. Each of those Clemson classes averaged at least 10 wins a season during their careers.

SENIOR SUCCESS

Every January, Head Coach Dabo Swinney conducts his first official meeting with his new team. The first order of business in the meeting is to "reset the room," reorganizing the seating arrangement with seniors in front and all succeeding classes in order behind them in the team auditorium.

Several of Swinney's senior classes placed themselves among select company in college football history. The 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 Clemson seniors account for four of only 15 four-year classes in FBS history to reach 50 career wins. That includes the 2018 and 2019 groups that are tied with the 2018 Alabama seniors for the most wins in FBS history (55 wins in four years).

CLEMSON'S WINNINGEST COACH

College Football Hall of Famer Frank Howard, known as "The Bashful Baron of Barlow Bend," compiled a 165-118-12 record in 30 seasons at Clemson from 1940-69.

With a 31-23 upset of No. 12 Notre Dame in 2023, Dabo Swinney earned his 166th career victory as Clemson's head coach, surpassing Howard to become Clemson's all-time winningest coach. Swinney accomplished the feat in his 209th career game.

ACC'S WINNINGEST COACH

With a 29-13 win against Florida State in October 2024, Dabo Swinney earned his 174th career victory to pass his friend and mentor (and College Football Hall of Famer) Bobby Bowden for the most career head coaching victories as a member of the ACC. Swinney ranks atop conference history in both total wins and career winning percentage.

HEAD COACH CONTINUITY

Over the last decade-and-a-half, Clemson became a beacon of stability in the increasingly unstable environment of college football. Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney is in his 23rd overall season at Clemson in 2025, including his 17th full season as head coach (and his 18th including an interim stint in 2008).

From the start of Swinney's first season as full-time head coach in 2009 through 2024, there were 498 head coaching tenures in the FBS (excluding those by interims) but only one such tenure at Clemson. Clemson is one of five schools with only one head coach in that span.

Clemson is the only school in the ACC with only one head coach since the start of the 2009 season, and among the 21 schools ever to qualify for the College Football Playoff, only Clemson has had only one head coach since 2009.

SIX "FINAL FOURS" FOR SWINNEY

While the term "Final Four" may still be the linguistic property of college basketball, since the advent of the four-team College Football Playoff in 2014, Head Coach Dabo Swinney had Clemson among the sport's final four teams six times from 2015-20, becoming the first coach to lead a team to six consecutive College Football Playoffs since the format's institution in 2014.

The NCAA men's college basketball tournament dates to 1939. In the history of that tournament, only John Wooden of UCLA (nine from 1967-75) and Mike Krzyzewski of Duke (five from 1988-92) coached teams to at least five consecutive Final Fours. With his sixth "Final Four" appearance in 2020, Swinney joined basketball's Wooden as the only college football or men's basketball coaches to take teams to six consecutive Final Fours in their respective sports.

Swinney is among only nine coaches in football and men's basketball to record six career Final Four berths. He is one of only six with a winning record in Final Four games.

* - Men's Basketball Final Four or College Football Playoff

^ - indicates streak of at least six consecutive Final Fours

Swinney's ability to place his team among the nation's elite quartet has also been illustrated by the polls. Clemson finished first in the AP Poll in 2016 and 2018, second in 2015 and 2019, third in 2020 and fourth in 2017. Swinney became just the fourth coach to record at least six consecutive top four finishes since the AP Poll began in 1936, an exclusive list that also includes Florida State's Bobby Bowden (13), USC's Pete Carroll (seven) and Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson (six).

Clemson's streak represented the fifth time a program has had a run of at least six top four finishes in the AP Poll. Miami (Fla.) had a seven-year run from 1986-92 with two different head coaches leading the program.

THROUGH 200 GAMES

The 2022 Orange Bowl was the 200th game in Dabo Swinney's head coaching career. Among coaches who qualify for the NCAA FBS record book by virtue of five years or 50 wins as a major college head coach, 17 coaches had earned at least 150 victories in their first 200 career games as head coach as of the conclusion of the 2022 season.

At 161-39 through 200 games, Swinney tied Bob Stoops and Robert Neyland (161 each) for the fifth-most wins through 200 career games in major college football history.

Four previous Clemson head coaches earned 150+ FBS wins in their careers: John Heisman (186), Jess Neely (207), Frank Howard (165) and Ken Hatfield (168). Howard, a College Football Hall of Famer, recorded his 150th victory in his 273rd career game, in a 14-10 victory against Maryland in 1966 that clinched a piece of what later became an outright ACC title. Heisman earned win No. 150 in game No. 203, Neely earned it in game No. 268, and Hatfield did it in game 259, though none of those three won more than 43 games in their Clemson tenures.

Included below are the number of games needed for a sample of other notable coaches to reach 150 victories: John Vaught (201), Mark Richt (205), Red Blaik (207), Dan Devine (208), Woody Hayes (209), Bear Bryant (212), Ara Parseghian (212), Pat Dye (212), Bobby Bowden (213), Pop Warner (214), LaVell Edwards (214), Jim Tressel (214), Vince Dooley (214), Amos Alonzo Stagg (225), John Cooper (225), Frank Beamer (230), Lou Holtz (230), Bill Snyder (231), Johnny Majors (255), George Welsh (261), Hayden Fry (277).

FIRST 15 SEASONS // FIRST 20 SEASONS?

Dabo Swinney completed his 15th season (and his 14th full season) in 2022 with a 161-39 record. Swinney amassed the second-most wins through a coach's first 15 seasons in FBS history despite not having the benefit of a full season in his first year, as he went 4-3 on an interim basis in his first season in 2008 after taking over for Tommy Bowden in October.

The 2025 season is Swinney's 18th season (and 17th full season) as Clemson's head coach. With the 2025, 2026 and 2027 seasons remaining to accrue victories in the category, Swinney already ranks tied for sixth in FBS history in wins in the first 20 seasons of a head coaching career (including coaches who did not coach 20 seasons).

SWINNEY VS. HALL OF FAMERS

Including the upcoming Class of 2025 inductions of Nick Saban, Urban Meyer and Larry Blakeney, Swinney has coached against nine College Football Hall of Fame coaches in his head coaching career. Swinney is .500 or better against eight of the nine coaches and has a 22-14 overall record against Hall of Famers.

CHAMPIONSHIP LINEAGE

After being named Clemson's full-time coach in December of 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney set about securing his first signing class in 2009.

His first class, which he tabbed the "Dandy Dozen," brought home Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 during their junior campaign in 2011. With a win in the 2024 ACC Championship Game, every Clemson signing class under Swinney has at least one ACC title to their credit in their tenures at Clemson, and every signing class since 2012 has earned at least one College Football Playoff berth.

Clemson was ranked No. 1 in nine consecutive polls to open 2020, its longest streak at No. 1 in school history. Clemson appeared at No. 1 in at least one AP Poll in six consecutive years from 2015-20. Dabo Swinney joined Nick Saban (14) as the only coach in AP Poll history (since 1936) to lead a team to at least one No. 1 ranking in six consecutive years. Clemson, Alabama (15 from 2008-22) and Miami (seven from 1986-92) remain the only programs to appear at No. 1 in at least six consecutive years.

CONSECUTIVE SEASONS REACHING NO. 1 IN AP POLL (SINCE 1936)

4.	Oklahoma	32-14	.696
5.	Georgia	38-19	.667

Note: min. 5 games; data per SportSource Analytics

Clemson is also 14-11 (.560) against AP Top 10 opponents in that time frame, one of only six teams in college football to produce at least a dozen wins against Top 10 foes in that span.

Clemson's success also hasn't been limited to opponents with bloated preseason rankings at kickoff time. Since 2015, Clemson's 70 wins against teams that finish .500 or better are third-most in the nation.

DEATH VALLEY ROARS

Frank Howard Field at Memorial Stadium garnered its famous nickname in the 1940s when Presbyterian College Head Coach Lonnie McMillian, after many years of bringing his teams in for drubbings, dubbed the venue as "Death Valley."

The name stuck, and its patrons have done their part to make it live up to its name and its reputation. In the first 11 years of the College Football Playoff era from 2014-24, Clemson's home atmosphere helped draw 157 false starts by opponents, the second-most of any home venue in the country and the most by a power conference program.

-- NO. 0 WR ANTONIO WILLIAMS --NO. 0 BECOMES NO. 1 TARGET IN 2024

Antonio Williams earned first-team Freshman All-America honors in 2022 after he caught 56 passes for 604 yards with four touchdowns over 14 games (10 starts). Injury befell Williams in his sophomore season in 2023, as he was limited by an ankle injury to only four regular season games in his second season before returning to play a pivotal role in Clemson's come-from-behind Gator Bowl win against Kentucky.

In the offseason to follow, Head Coach Dabo Swinney praised Williams' maturity and laser focus and said the now-redshirt sophomore was in for a big year in 2024. The head coach's prognostication proved correct. Williams started every game for Clemson and developed into a bona fide top target for Clemson with career highs in every receiving category in 2024.

2024	14	14	75	904	11
2025	4	4	17	171	0
Totals	37	32	170	1903	17

Last year, Williams became the first Clemson player with double-digit touchdown receptions in a season since Tee Higgins in 2019 (13). He recorded the ninth season in school history with double-digit touchdown receptions.

RECEIVING TOUCHDOWNS (SINGLE SEASON, CLEMSON HISTORY)

Rk	Player	Year	G	Rec.	Yards	Avg.	TD
1.	DeAndre Hopkins	2012	13	82	1405	17.1	18

	Justyn Ross	2018	15	46	1000	21.7	9

Williams tied Miami's Xavier Restrepo for the ACC lead in receiving touchdowns in 2024 and finished tied for seventh in that category nationally.

Williams' versatility was on display in 2024. In addition to posting double-digit touchdown catches, Williams rushed for a touchdown and threw another. Williams' 2024 season marked only the ninth time since 1969 that a Clemson player has passed for a touchdown, rushed for a touchdown and caught a touchdown in a single season, joining Sammy Watkins (2012), C.J. Spiller (2008 and 2009), Jacoby Ford (2009), Ray Williams (1985), Charlie Waters (1969) and Ray Yauger (1969).

CAREER LEADERBOARDS

Williams returned to Clemson in 2025 in reach of the school record for career receiving touchdowns of 27 shared by Clemson legends and NFL standouts DeAndre Hopkins, Sammy Watkins and Tee Higgins.

Note: Antonio Williams (1,903) needs 97 more yards to join the list.

Williams entered 2025 with at least one catch in all 33 career games he played in his first three seasons on campus. That came to an end in the 2025 season opener when an early injury limited him to only five snaps against LSU. His streak of 33 consecutive games with a catch from 2022-24 was the seventh-longest streak in Clemson history.

VERSATILITY

Williams' production in the passing game hasn't been limited to the receiving end of throws.

Williams has thrown four career passes, going 4-for-4 for 143 yards and two touchdowns for a career pass efficiency rating of 565.3. His 565.3 pass efficiency rating is the highest by a Clemson passer with multiple attempts on record.

Williams opened Clemson's Oct. 4 win at North Carolina with a 75-yard touchdown pass on the game's first play from scrimmage. It was his second career touchdown pass, making him the first non-quarterback to throw multiple career touchdown passes for Clemson since C.J. Spiller from 2006-09.

Williams has thrown two of Clemson's 19 touchdown passes delivered by non-quarterback since 1953.

Klubnik has helped engineer three fourth-quarter comeback wins, including two as a starter:

- vs. Syracuse (2022): Entered in relief of DJ Uiagalelei and became the first backup quarterback to engineer a fourth-quarter comeback win for Clemson since 2018 (Chase Brice vs. Syracuse).

- vs. Kentucky (2023): Went 8-for-8 as he led Clemson on a 12-play, 68-yard game-winning drive in 2:17 of elapsed game time as Clemson earned its largest fourth-quarter comeback win in a bowl game in school history in the 2023 Gator Bowl.

- at Pitt (2024): After Clemson was held to only 27 yards in the first 28 minutes of the second half, Klubnik got the ball with 1:36 remaining and engineered a three-play, 75-yard drive that he finished by rushing for a game-winning 50-yard touchdown with 1:16 remaining.

- Notes: Klubnik recorded a game-winning drive in the 2024 ACC Championship Game against SMU, but the game was tied at the time and Clemson never trailed in the contest. Klubnik also helped Clemson overcome a 16-point first-half deficit against Troy in 2025, though Clemson's third-quarter surge gave the Tigers the lead prior to the fourth quarter.

300-YARD GAMES

Klubnik is one of eight quarterbacks in Clemson history to record multiple 300-yard passing games. His eight career 300-yard games rank tied for fourth in school history.

Klubnik rushed for a career-high seven rushing touchdowns in 2024. He is one of 12 Clemson quarterbacks to rush for double-digit touchdowns in a career since Clemson transitioned away from the single wing in 1953, and he entered his senior season in reach of becoming the seventh Clemson quarterback in that span to reach 1,000 career rushing yards.

Note: Klubnik is outside the Top 10 with 888 career rushing yards.

With his first rushing touchdown of the 2025 season at Georgia Tech, Klubnik joined Nealon Greene (1994-97), Charlie Whitehurst (2002-05), Tajh Boyd (2010-13) and Kelly Bryant (2015-18) as the only Clemson quarterbacks to rush for a touchdown in four different seasons since Clemson transitioned away from the single wing in 1953.

A year earlier, Klubnik's seven rushing touchdowns included long touchdown runs of 55 yards against NC State, 34 yards against Stanford and a game-winning 50-yarder at Pitt. Klubnik's 50-yard rushing touchdown at Pitt was Clemson's longest game-winning offensive touchdown inside the final two minutes of a game on record. Klubnik became the first Clemson player to record multiple 50-yard rushing touchdowns in a single season since Travis Etienne in 2019 (two), and he also became the first Clemson quarterback to record multiple 50-yard rushing touchdowns in a career since Woodrow Dantzler (three from 1999-2001).

2024 IN REVIEW

Klubnik took a major leap in his second full season as a starter in 2024. As a junior, he completed 308-of-486 passes for 3,639 yards with 36 passing touchdowns and added career highs with 463 yards and seven touchdowns on 119 rushing attempts.

Klubnik combined for 4,100 yards of total offense and 43 total touchdowns while committing only seven turnovers. Research by ESPN.com's David Hale illustrated that Klubnik became only the eighth quarterback to reach those thresholds in the College Football Playoff era. The other seven all finished in the Top 4 in Heisman voting, including five Heisman winners.

FROM THE SIDELINE TO THE STAGE

Klubnik's national breakout came in the 2022 ACC Championship Game against North Carolina. He entered the game on Clemson's third possession and completed 20-of-24 passes for 279 yards and a passing touchdown and added seven carries for 30 yards and a rushing touchdown. His 83.3 completion percentage set an ACC Championship Game record and led to his selection as the game's Most Valuable Player in Clemson's 39-10 victory. He became the third freshman (and second true freshman) in the game's history to earn the honor.

Two years later, Klubnik repeated as ACC Championship Game MVP in a 34-31 win against SMU. He joined Virginia Tech's Tyrod Taylor and Clemson's Deshaun Watson as the only two-time MVPs in ACC Championship Game history.

Beyond this trio, the only other players in a current power conference to win multiple conference championship MVP awards are Michigan State's Connor Cook (2013 and 2015), Oklahoma's Sam Bradford (2007 and 2008) and Oklahoma's Malcolm Kelly (2004 and 2006).

-- NO. 8 RB ADAM RANDALL --

WHO'S NEXT AT RUNNING BACK?

Clemson entered 2025 with a relative rarity in the Dabo Swinney era: public unknowns at running back.

Under Swinney, the Tigers have enjoyed a run of feature backs that has included C.J. Spiller, Andre Ellington, Wayne Gallman, Travis Etienne, Will Shipley and Phil Mafah among a bevy of other substantial contributors.

With both members of the Shipley/Mafah duo from Clemson's 2021 recruiting class now having matriculated to the NFL, outside observers were curious to see who would helm Clemson's rushing attack in 2025.

Adam Randall seized the role prior to Week 1 and has been a bright spot and an emerging star for Clemson's offense. Randall is in his first season at running back after spending his first three seasons at Clemson at wide receiver. A 41-yard kickoff return as an emergency contributor in the 2024 ACC Championship Game against SMU sparked the idea of the position switch, and he contributed at running back in a pinch in the 2024 College Football Playoff and ripped off a 41-yard run at Texas before making the full-time transition this past offseason.

RANDALL'S HOT START

Randall has scored at least one touchdown in each of Clemson's first six games of the season, becoming the first Clemson player to reach the end zone in each of the first six games of a campaign since Travis Etienne in 2018. Randall, Etienne, C.J. Spiller (2009) and Bill Mathis (1959) are the only Clemson players to accomplish the feat in records back to 1938.

Randall's position coach, C.J. Spiller, holds the Clemson record for the most consecutive games with a touchdown to start a season when he scored in all 14 games of Clemson's 2009 campaign.

OUT OF THE BACKFIELD

Randall recorded two touchdown receptions in his first three seasons at Clemson as a wide receiver from 2022-24. Randall then exceeded that total this season in a two-game span with three combined receiving touchdowns against Syracuse and North Carolina.

Randall is two touchdowns shy of the Clemson single-season record for touchdown receptions by a running back since the Tigers transitioned away from the single wing in 1953.

DYNAMIC DUO RETURNS

There was no shortage of contributing factors to Clemson's leap in passing efficiency and explosiveness from 2023 and 2024, but notable among them was the arrival of T.J. Moore and Bryant Wesco Jr. in 2024. While Moore's late-season surge was a bit too belated to garner national recognition, Wesco collected Freshman All-America honors from 247Sports, PFF, ESPN, The Athletic and the FWAA.

The duo ranked in the top six nationally in receiving yards by freshmen.

8.	Cam Coleman	Auburn	37	598
9.	Joseph Williams	Tulsa	30	588
10.	Nyiah Hunter	California	40	578

Moore and Wesco became the first freshman duo in a power conference to each record at least 650 receiving yards and at least five touchdown catches in a single season since at least 2000. Expanded to include the full FBS, the only other schools in that span to accomplish the feat were the 2005 Hawaii Warriors and the 2007 Tulsa Golden Hurricane. They made Clemson the only school with multiple 650-yard freshman receivers in the nation in 2024.

MULTI-TOUCHDOWN GAMES

Wesco's two games with multiple receiving touchdowns are one off the national lead of three this season by TCU's Eric McAlister. Wesco is one of 18 players nationally with multiple games with two or more receiving touchdowns.

On Oct. 4, two of Wesco's teammates also recorded multi-touchdown games when running back Adam Randall and tight end Christian Bentancur both caught two touchdowns at North Carolina.

Clemson is one of 12 schools to have three different players record a multi-touchdown receiving game this season.

100-YARD GAMES IN 2025

Wesco reached the century mark in two of Clemson's first three games this season. He recorded 118 yards against Troy and 126 yards against Georgia Tech, becoming the first Clemson player with consecutive 100-yard receiving games since Cornell Powell against Notre Dame and Pitt in 2020.

Moore added his first 100-yard effort of the season on Oct. 4 with a five-catch, 108-yard performance highlighted by a 75-yard score on the game's opening play from scrimmage. Wesco then added a 106-yard performance at Boston College on Oct. 11.

WESCO'S MEMORABLE START

Last season, Wesco recorded one catch in 12 snaps in Clemson's 2024 season opener, as missed opportunities and inefficiency by Clemson — combined with a condensed contest that featured the fewest combined snaps (112) in a Clemson game since 2006 — limited his involvement in his collegiate debut as a true freshman. Afterward, Clemson's coaches vowed to involve him more the following week.

Consider that vow fulfilled.

In his second career game, Wesco caught three passes for 130 yards and a touchdown against Appalachian State, tying the Clemson record for the fewest games needed to record a 100-yard receiving game.

Wesco became the first Clemson player with two plays from scrimmage of 50-plus yards in a single game since 2021.

TIGHT END PRODUCTION

Clemson lost its school record holder for career receptions by a tight end over the 2025 offseason when Jake Briningstool graduated and signed with the Kansas City Chiefs. Briningstool caught 127 career passes for 1,380 yards and 17 touchdowns over 48 career games.

Clemson's current group of tight ends will seek to continue the unit's production that has seen the tight end group post 60-plus catches in each of the last three seasons, a first in the Dabo Swinney era.

A VETERAN UNIT IN 2025

Clemson received instant impact from the addition of veteran offensive line coach Matt Luke in his first full season at Clemson in 2024. In his second full season with the Tigers in 2025, he returned an exceedingly veteran unit that returns four of its five primary starters and boasts seven players who have started at least one game for Clemson.

The unit includes two of Clemson's recent iron men. Blake Miller entered his senior season already ranked in the Top 10 in school history in career snaps from scrimmage. Prior to 2025, the two-time All-ACC selection started every game for Clemson at right tackle from 2021-23, and he became the first offensive lineman to start every game played by Clemson during his freshman, sophomore and junior campaigns without the benefit of a redshirt year since starting center Ralph Jenkins from 1943-45.

Miller plays alongside a remarkable comeback story in Walker Parks, who started all 14 games for Clemson in 2024 after missing the majority of the 2022 and 2023 seasons with career-threatening ankle injuries. A veteran of 53 games and 42 starts from 2020-24, Parks is a self-professed Clemson lifer who said of Clemson, "If there were no eligibility [rules], I would stay here forever," a maxim validated by his decision to utilize an extra year of eligibility for a sixth season in 2025.

Clemson's other two returning primary starters include one of the team's foremost leaders and one of its active parables of patience. Left tackle Tristan Leigh started 23 games over the two previous seasons, and his progression from five-star recruit to off-radar redshirt to trusted contributor has given him stature and respect as one of the team's most trusted leaders. Center Ryan Linthicum, meanwhile, was one of Clemson's revelations of 2024. Last spring, the then-career backup was entering his fourth year with limited experience, and he was given spring practice to audition for the role before Clemson sought veteran help at the position. Instead, Linthicum seized the role, starting all 14 games for Clemson and playing 982 snaps from scrimmage, the most of any Clemson player in 2024.

Though depth and injuries combined to limit them to four combined starts in 2024, redshirt junior Collin Sadler and junior Harris Sewell entered 2025 with a combined 40 games and 14 starts of experience along the Tiger offensive line. Sadler provides versatility across the four tackle and guard positions, while Sewell offers tremendous value as a versatile interior piece across the center and guard spots.

Clemson had a breakout young star's trajectory take a brief detour in late 2024. As a true freshman, Elijah Thurmon impressed when called upon to play 74 outstanding snaps in reserve on the road at Virginia Tech last year, and he earned a start the following week before being lost for the remainder of the season on the game's opening play from scrimmage. Whether as a starter or rotational piece, Thurmon stands primed to be a significant fixture on Clemson's line for the next several seasons.

O-LINE EXPERIENCE BREAKDOWN

Clemson's full offensive line group entered the 2025 season with a combined 249 game appearances, 135 starts and 10,403 career offensive snaps.

ALL-CONFERENCE O-LINEMEN

Since 2015, Clemson has produced a total of 32 All-ACC selections along the offensive line, including 12 first-team honors. Clemson's 32 all-conference selections by offensive linemen are an ACC high and the second-most of any power conference program. Clemson also ranks tied for third nationally in first-team selections in that span.

SportSource Analytics produces an Offensive Line Efficiency metric that takes into account tackle for loss percentages, sack percentages, percentages of rushes gaining 4+ yards and success on third-or-fourth-and-short. Clemson is among the national leaders in that total metric since 2015.

TRENCH WARFARE

Clemson's success in its 82-20 run since 2018 has been powered in part at the line of scrimmage, where Clemson holds a 316-164 edge over opponents in sacks in that time frame. Clemson's +152 margin in sacks since 2018 is the highest differential in the country.

Parker's junior season in 2025 is being played under the tutelage of new Clemson Defensive Coordinator Tom Allen. A year ago, Allen led Penn State defensive end Abdul Carter to unanimous All-America honors and the No. 3 overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft. Carter's 2024 campaign bore a number of statistical similarities to Parker's.

Though he did not garner first-team all-conference honors from the ACC, Parker earned All-America honorable mention recognition from Phil Steele after he broke the Clemson single-season school record for forced fumbles in a season (six), surpassing Brandon Maye's five from 2009. His six forced fumbles finished tied for second in the nation and tied for the national lead among power conference players.

PARKER'S RECORD DAY AT PITT IN 2024

Parker put together one of the most dominant defensive performances in school history in Clemson's 2024 game at Pitt, collecting seven tackles, 5.0 tackles for loss, a school-record-tying 4.0 sacks, his fourth forced fumble of the season and a pass breakup.

Parker earned ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week, Bednarik Award National Player of the Week and Walter Camp Defensive Player of the Week for his performance.

	Austin Bryant (2017)	Auburn	4.0
	Andre Branch (2011)	Virginia Tech	4.0
	Keith Adams (1999)	Duke	4.0

His 4.0 sacks tied for the most of any FBS player in a single game that season. His 5.0 tackles for loss in that game ranked tied for second.

Parker's record day powered Clemson's season highs with eight sacks and 16 tackles for loss in the contest. Clemson's 16 tackles for loss tied for fourth-most in program history and its eight sacks tied for eighth.

WE SEE YOU, T.J. 🙄

Parker emphatically announced his arrival as a freshman in 2023 when he set a Clemson true freshman record with 12.5 tackles for loss. That total tied for the national lead in tackles for loss among freshmen.

Parker initially committed to Penn State but coveted a Clemson offer. He decommitted from the Nittany Lions in hopes of soliciting Clemson, and Clemson's 2023 recruiting class immediately went to work.

"CV [Christopher Vizzina], Peter [Woods] and a few other guys on the team, they hit me up with the eyes emoji on Instagram," Parker said. "It was like, 'You know what time it is.' I texted Coach Ski [Then-Clemson Defensive Ends Coach Lemanski Hall] the eyes emoji, the same thing they sent me, and from there we got in contact and a few days later they offered and I committed."

IMPACT STARTER

Avieon Terrell made his first start at Clemson on Nov. 4, 2023, when he was inserted into the lineup as a true freshman in Clemson's 31-23 home upset of Notre Dame. Beginning that day, Terrell has started every game for Clemson, including the final five games of 2023, all 14 games in 2024 and every game to date in 2025.

As part of his all-conference campaign in 2024, Terrell recorded three forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and two interceptions. He became the first Clemson player under Dabo Swinney to finish a season with at least three forced fumbles, multiple interceptions and multiple fumble recoveries.

Terrell added three forced fumbles over Clemson's first five games of the 2025 season. His six career forced fumbles are the most by a Clemson defensive back since Byron Maxwell's six from 2007-10. Terrell leads the nation in forced fumbles by a cornerback since his first start on Nov. 4, 2023.

On Sept. 20, Terrell made his first start at Clemson's "Tiger" position as the slot cornerback. In his first start at the position, he recorded five pass breakups, tying Clemson's single-game school record set by Perry Williams in 1985 against Virginia Tech.

-- NO. 17 LB WADE WOODAZ --

OPENING A CAN OF WOODAZ

In each of linebacker Wade Woodaz's first three seasons at Clemson, the Tampa product has watched as one of his linebacker counterparts earned All-America recognition, including honors for Barrett Carter in 2022 and 2024 and for Jeremiah Trotter Jr. in 2022 and 2023. Head Coach Dabo Swinney was quick though to warn observers not to overlook Woodaz.

"He's a baller," Swinney said. "The kid is tough, physical, he can really run. He really understands the game at a high level. He played most of his [prep] career as a quarterback and as a safety, so he has a great understanding of the game. He plays really, really hard; he's a great effort guy, he's a great preparer and he loves it. He's a fun guy to coach and a fun guy to watch play because he plays the way you want everybody to play."

Though Clemson's linebacker corps in 2024 included All-American Barrett Carter and ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year Sammy Brown, it was Woodaz who led the team in tackles, a feat he accomplished despite missing two games with a leg contusion. Coaches credited Woodaz with 89 stops, 10 tackles for loss, 3.0 sacks, six pass breakups, three forced fumbles and an interception.

Woodaz was one of six power conference players to record double-digit tackles for loss, three or more forced fumbles and an interception in 2024 (Texas' Anthony Hill Jr. and Colin Simmons, Indiana's Jailin Walker, UCLA's Kain Medrano and Texas Tech's Jacob Rodriguez). He also became the first Clemson player credited with at least 75 tackles and at least three forced fumbles since Isaiah Simmons in 2018.

-- NO. 47 LB SAMMY BROWN --

SAMMY'S SENSATIONAL START

Linebacker Sammy Brown arrived at Clemson in January 2024 as a consensus Top 30 player in his recruiting class and as the nation's reigning High School Butkus Award winner.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney praised Brown as an "alpha," but spoke frequently about Brown's learning curve at the linebacker position after playing both running back and linebacker at Jefferson High School in Commerce, Ga. The linebacker tabbed as 247Sports' No. 1 "freak athlete" in the 2024 recruiting class proved to be a quick study, appearing in all 14 games for Clemson with six starts.

After Clemson opened its first eight games of 2024 in two-linebacker sets, Brown earned his first start at Virginia Tech in November that year as Clemson opened the game with three linebackers. The former five-star prospect delivered, recording a team-high eight tackles (per the gameday stat crew) with 2.5 tackles for loss and a sack.

"Sammy's been getting better and better and better and it was awesome to see him have that type of game," Swinney said after Brown's performance at Virginia Tech. "He's just a confident young man, and, boy, he's got a bright future ahead of him. He's going to be a great one."

Despite playing only 444 defensive snaps over 14 games in 2024, Brown ranked second in the nation in tackles for loss among freshmen.

Along with Barrett Carter (10.5) and Wade Woodaz (10.0), Brown gave Clemson three linebackers with double-digit tackles for loss for the first time since 2016 (Kendall Joseph, Ben Boulware and Dorian O'Daniel).

Brown ranked third in Clemson history in tackles for loss by a true freshman and fourth among that group in sacks.

MEET THE NEW GUYS

- WR Tristan Smith (signed Dec. 18): Smith joined Clemson after playing the 2024 season at Southeast Missouri State, helping the Redhawks to a first-place finish in the Big South-OVC Football Association and a berth in the Football Championship Subdivision playoffs. The 2024 all-conference honoree played in SEMO's final 11 games of the season, catching 76 passes for 934 yards and six touchdown receptions in addition to rushing for one touchdown.

- DE Will Heldt (signed Dec. 19): Heldt signed with Clemson after playing his first two collegiate seasons at Purdue, appearing in all 24 games for the Boilermakers from 2023-24. As a sophomore in 2024, gameday stat crews credited Heldt with 56 tackles (10.0 for loss), 5.0 sacks and a fumble recovery he returned 16 yards for a touchdown. He recorded 2.5 sacks and the 16-yard scoop-and-score in back-to-back games against ranked opponents Illinois and Oregon in October.

- LB Jeremiah Alexander (signed Jan. 8): Alexander played his first three collegiate seasons at Alabama from 2022-24. Following a redshirt year in 2022 in which he appeared in three games, Alexander played in 24 of the Crimson Tide's 27 games across the 2023-24 seasons and was credited with eight tackles in those contests. In high school, he led Alabama's Thompson High School to the 2021 state championship (alongside current Clemson defensive lineman Peter Woods) as a consensus five-star recruit across most major outlets and ranked among the nation's top 50 players in his class.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney expounded on Clemson's strategy for the three winter transfer additions:

"As I've always said, we do what's best for Clemson. We'll use the portal whenever we need it and we'll be strategic with it. We needed it four years ago; we needed a backup quarterback and we got one. The next year, we needed a backup quarterback and we got one and he was here for two years.

"This year, we didn't anticipate signing a defensive line portal guy. We had two great ones committed and we were taking two. But as y'all know, things can change in recruiting. We had a young man back out and decide to go somewhere else, so there wasn't anybody left to recruit that could fill the need. Now we [had] a gap so we had to go use the portal and we needed a high-level guy and we got the guy I wanted to hit [Heldt].

"From a receiver standpoint, we had two guys go in the portal, and so we had a gap. We needed to go get a guy, and we needed somebody that could come in and help us with our depth and come in and compete and we found a great kid in Tristan out in Southeast Missouri. We were looking for a little length, and high school recruiting was over; there was nobody to get. We needed to go get a guy.

"And then the linebacker situation, honestly, we weren't really going to take a 'backer. We knew we needed another guy. Logan Anderson, our signee, tore his ACL. Kobe [McCloud], his situation [rehabbing from a knee injury]. We knew we probably needed another guy, but we were going to wait until May. And then Jeremiah popped up. We knew all about him, obviously recruited him hard, knew his family. That was a really good situation that worked out for us.

"That's really it. Nothing different. I know everybody likes to write about it, but our process is still the same. We're going to recruit high school kids as long as we can get the best of the best. As long as we can get the Gideon Davidsons of the world and the Sammy Browns of the world and the T.J. Parkers and Peter Woods and Cade Klubniks, that's what we're going to do, and we're going to develop... And then we have to respond if we have a situation and we have a gap in our roster or we have kids that leave. For us, that's how we use the portal, but the process isn't any different. They've still got to be the right fit, they've got to check all the boxes, they can't just be a good player. No different than our high school recruiting."

CFP-ERA DEFENSIVE TRACK RECORD

Clemson has a track record of producing one of the nation's top defenses in most seasons since the advent of the College Football Playoff in 2014.

Clemson ranked in the Top 30 in the country in total defense in each of the first 10 seasons of the CFP era and also ranked among the Top 30 in scoring defense in those 10 campaigns (including five Top 5 finishes in the category).

CLEMSON DEFENSE SINCE 2014

2024	374.1	69	23.4	49

Clemson's defensive anomaly in 2024 led to a change in leadership, as the Tigers plucked Penn State Defensive Coordinator Tom Allen for Clemson's defensive coordinator position immediately following the Nittany Lions' exit from the College Football Playoff. Allen now leads a Clemson defense that tied for the national lead in Top 10 finishes in average yards allowed per game in the College Football Playoff era.

ALLEN IS ALL IN

Clemson officially announced Tom Allen as its new defensive coordinator on Jan. 14.

"Tom checked every box that I was looking for," Head Coach Dabo Swinney said. "We've got a great football coach — and a great leader of men — coming to Clemson... He brings a ton of experience and was highly recommended by some of the best people in this business. He is obviously coming off of a great year as the defensive coordinator at Penn State, and we're excited to welcome him as our defensive coordinator here at Clemson."

Allen joined the Tigers with more than three decades of coaching experience. In 2024, he helped Penn State to a school-record 13 wins and a College Football Playoff berth. His defense recorded two pick-sixes in Penn State's 38-10 win against SMU in the College Football Playoff First Round, and in the following game, his unit bottled up Heisman runner-up Ashton Jeanty, holding the star running back to a season-low 3.47 yards per carry and no touchdowns in a 31-14 Penn State victory in the CFP Quarterfinal at Fiesta Bowl.

Penn State finished seventh in the nation in total defense (294.8 yards per game) and eighth in the nation in scoring defense (16.5 points per game) under Allen's guidance in 2024.

300 OR FEWER YARDS

BACKFIELD INVADERS

Clemson's defense calls Death Valley home but might as well file for dual residency in opponents' backfields. Since 2012, Clemson leads the nation in both sacks and tackles for loss.

In September 2023, Clemson became the first program in the country to record 500 sacks since the start of the 2012 season. In October 2025, Clemson also became the first program to reach 1,500 tackles for loss in that span.

WHO'S YOUR HAUSER?

Placekicker Nolan Hauser arrived at Clemson in January 2024 as the national high school record-holder for career field goals made (66) during his career at Hough High School in Cornelius, N.C.

Hauser (pronounced HOO-zer, not HOW-zer) opened his career with a streak of 25 consecutive made kicks (five field goals & 20 PATs) in 2024 before a blocked PAT against Stanford accounted for his first miss.

A week later at Florida State, Hauser made five field goals and accounted for 17 total points in Clemson's 16-point road win. The five-field-goal performance by Hauser was Clemson's first since Chandler Catanzaro went 5-for-5 on field goal attempts against Boston College in 2011.

Hauser's six points against Virginia Tech in November 2024 gave him the school record for points in a true freshman season, breaking the previous mark of 78 set by Sammy Watkins in 2011. In the ACC Championship Game, he reached the century mark to post the first 100-point season by a true freshman in Clemson history.

Hauser's 113-point 2024 season ranked tied for sixth in Clemson history in kicking points scored in a single season and tied for ninth in school history in points scored by any means in a single season.

Hauser is a second-generation Clemson student-athlete. His mother, Sheri Hauser (née Bueter), was an All-American soccer player at Clemson from 1994-97, and his father, Scott, played baseball at Clemson in from 1995-97 and was 6-2 as a pitcher on Clemson's College World Series team of 1996. His sister, Ella, was also a member of Clemson's women's soccer team from 2021-24.

HAUSER'S HIGHLIGHT

Though the pronunciation of his last name often trips up observers, Hauser made his name much more nationally recognizable with the seminal highlight of the 2024 ACC Championship Game.

In what Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney called "the biggest kick in Clemson history," the true freshman booted a 56-yard game winning field goal as time expired to give Clemson its 22nd ACC title, its 10th win of the season and its seventh College Football Playoff berth. Of note:

- Hauser's field goal gave Clemson the first walk-off win in ACC Championship Game history.

- Hauser became the first Clemson player to kick a game-winning walk-off field goal since Chandler Catanzaro hit a 37-yard field goal to beat LSU to end the 2012 Chick-Fil-A Bowl.

- Hauser's 56-yard field goal was the longest game-winning field goal as time expired in Clemson history.

- Hauser's career-long 56-yard field goal was the fourth-longest field goal in Clemson history but its longest away from Death Valley. It was also the longest field goal in postseason play in Clemson history.

- Hauser became the first FBS player ever to win a conference championship game by kicking a field goal of 50 or more yards as time expired.

- The game-winning field goal came in Hauser's home metro area, as his hometown of Cornelius, N.C. is roughly 20 miles north of Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte.

THE OTHER SWINNEY DYNASTY

Like the Colquitt family punting at Tennessee, the Swinney family holding for placekicks at Clemson has become a dynasty of its own.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's oldest son, Will, arrived at Clemson in 2017 and immediately earned Clemson's starting holder position on placekicks. He played five seasons and a record-tying 69 games at Clemson through 2021. In those five seasons, Clemson scored 565 points on placekicks, including field goals and PATs, and he held for 555 of those 565 points. The only 10 Clemson kicking points not held by Will in his career were instead held by his brother, Drew, who was Clemson's starter at the position in 2022.

Will and Drew were succeeded by the youngest of the three Swinney boys, Clay, a redshirt junior in his third season as Clemson's starting holder in 2025. Clay's presence creates a plausible scenario in which every Clemson placekick in a full 10-year span from 2017-26 could be held by a Swinney.

Clemson's last hold by any player outside the Swinney family was on the final point of Clemson's 2016 national championship, as Seth Ryan, coincidentally also the son of a famous long-time coach (Rex Ryan), held the PAT following Hunter Renfrow's game-winning touchdown with one second remaining.

Note: Listed points only reflect kicking points on held field goals or PATs. Will Swinney scored 12 additional points, six via receiving touchdown on offense and six via rushing touchdown on a fake field goal; Drew Swinney scored two additional points on a fake PAT.

Clemson's 2024 win against Stanford marked Clemson's 100th consecutive game with a Swinney as holder, a game that ironically resulted in Dabo Swinney's 100th career home win at Memorial Stadium. The family crossed 800 kicking points held for in the contest as well.

DEFEATS IN REVIEW

Clemson has lost 34 games since 2015, the fourth-fewest in the nation in that span. Eleven of Clemson's 24 losses since 2015 — more than 45 percent — have come against AP Top 10 teams.

The opponents to whom Clemson has lost since 2015 have a combined final record of 225-70, a winning percentage of .763. Clemson has not lost to a team that finished with a losing record since 2017 and has not lost to a team with a losing record at the time of the game since losing to 2-5 Boston College in 2010, Dabo Swinney's second full season as head coach.

Under Swinney, Clemson is also 38-9 in games in which it enters ranked lower in the AP Poll than it did in its previous contest. This includes the 2014, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2021 season openers in which Clemson opened the season lower than its ranking from the final game of the previous campaign.

POINT STREAK

Clemson has put points on the board in 300 consecutive games since last being shut out in the 2003 season opener. In October 2025, it became the 13th shutout-free streak of 300 or more games in FBS history.

Clemson's +16 turnover margin in 2024 ranked eighth in school history. It was the team's top turnover margin in a season under Dabo Swinney, surpassing its +15 mark in 2019.

Clemson struggled mightily with giveaways in 2023 en route to its first four-loss season since 2011. The Tigers then rebounded in ball security amid a College Football Playoff berth in 2024, but the giveaway bug returned to contribute to Clemson's start in 2025.

400-YARD GAMES

Clemson's 102 400-yard games since 2015 are tied for the third-most in the nation. Clemson became the fourth program to reach 100 games of 400 yards or more in that span with a 503-yard effort against Syracuse in September.

Clemson has reached 500 yards in 59 of those contests, tied for fourth-most in the nation.

OFFENSIVE BALANCE

Clemson fielded one of the nation's most balanced offenses from 2018-24, averaging 264 passing yards per game and 191 rushing yards per game in that span. Clemson was one of only six teams nationally to average at least 260 passing yards and at least 190 rushing yards on a per-game basis in that time frame.

Expanded to cover the entire College Football Playoff era prior to 2025, Clemson, Alabama and Oklahoma were the only schools to exceed 29,000 rushing yards and 40,000 passing yards in the first 11 years of the College Football Playoff era.

Clemson's six such games in 2024 ranked tied for first nationally and rank tied for fourth in a season in school history.

Clemson was undefeated when exceeding both 200 rushing yards and 200 passing yards — 58-0 under Swinney and 108-0-1 all-time — until opening the 2023 season with a loss at Duke in which the Tigers reached the double-century mark in both categories. The defeat was also a statistical anomaly nationally, as from 2014 through that 2023 season opener, FBS teams who passed for 200-plus yards, rushed for 200-plus yards and gave up 28 or fewer points in a single game were a combined 1748-41 (97.7 percent).

The anomaly struck again in 2024 when Clemson reached 200 yards in both categories in a loss to Louisville. After Clemson's loss in that game, FBS teams who, like Clemson, reached 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards while also producing 30+ first downs and no turnovers were a combined 326-21 (93.9 percent) since 2000.

GROUND GAME

Clemson has scored at least one rushing touchdown in 91 of its 102 games since the start of the 2018 season. Clemson's 91 games with a rushing touchdown in that span are the most in the nation. Clemson has scored multiple rushing touchdowns in 74 of those games, also the nation's best.

Clemson was held without a rushing touchdown in its 34-21 home loss to Syracuse on Sept. 20. Prior to that game, Clemson had an active streak of 62 consecutive home games with a rushing touchdown at Death Valley. Before Syracuse accomplished the feat this year, the last team to hold Clemson out of the Memorial Stadium end zones on the ground was Troy in the 2016 home opener.

MIND THE "MIDDLE EIGHT"

Since 2015, Clemson's most successful teams have frequently won one of the hidden "games within the game" on each side of halftime. SportSource Analytics tracks the "Middle Eight," the section of the game defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Clemson has outscored opponents in that time window 82 times since 2015, posting a 78-4 record in those contests.

2022	Michigan	68.6
2023	Michigan	70.9
2024	Tennessee	71.8

Note: Includes independent Notre Dame, which has College Football Playoff access equivalent with power conferences.

Clemson has not only often led the nation in that category but has often lapped the field. In 2019, Clemson played an average of 76.0 players per game, an average that far exceeded all power conference programs by more than 11 players — a full unit — per game.

Per data available via the NCAA stat database, Clemson ranked second among power conference schools in average players per game in 2024 — only six hundredths of a player behind national leader Tennessee — but ranked first in total players played.

Note: Partial-season allowances for redshirts began in 2018.

The approach to creating functional depth and rewarding players ready to play has been a key philosophy for Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose own collegiate playing career was hatched as a walk-on fighting for playing time in Alabama's receiving corps.

"We're fully committed to playing guys who deserve to play," Swinney said. "You commit to a guy early in the season, and even if a guy has only played 10 percent of the snaps, when you get to game eight or nine, they've got some good experience."

In a statistic unlikely to be challenged in the wake of upcoming NCAA roster limits, Clemson has played 100+ players in a game six times under Dabo Swinney.

YARDS PER PLAY

From 2018-20, Clemson strung together its three best seasons in school history in yards per play while accumulating a 39-3 record and three College Football Playoff berths. In the three years to follow, Clemson's explosiveness dropped from an average of seventh nationally to an average of 91st.

The Tigers took a significant jump nationally in yards per play and scrimmage plays of various distances in 2024.

FINISH

In 2018, Clemson debuted a new version of its "This is Why We Work" fourth quarter video at Death Valley, a hype video imploring the team to finish and featuring Director of Strength and Conditioning Joey Batson bellowing:

"Let me tell you something right now: they don't put championship rings on smooth hands! You gotta go earn it! You gotta go earn it six seconds at a time! You win championships when the stadium is empty, when the band ain't playing, when the cheerleaders ain't cheering, when it's just you and your brothers right beside you. That's when you win championships! In the fourth quarter, that is when we shine!"

The video and the speech became a part of Clemson lore, buoyed by its playing during Clemson's comeback win against Syracuse that year en route to a 15-0 national championship season. Over the years, the video has changed but the speech remains the same, with many Clemson fans yelling it in unison as it plays.

Clemson holds a 164-9 record under Dabo Swinney when leading after three quarters, including a 148-6 mark since 2011.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

- Entering the 2025 fall semester, of the 410 eligible players who completed their athletic eligibility at Clemson and/or graduated early in Dabo Swinney's 16+ full years as head coach, 404 (98.5 percent) have earned a degree during their time at Clemson.

- Clemson earned the AFCA Academic Achievement Award for 2024. The award was Clemson's fourth in the last seven years, but it was Clemson's fourth in the last five years that the honor was actually awarded, as the organization did not name recipients during a two-year period amid the COVID-19 pandemic.

- Clemson broke program multi-year NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) records in three straight years from 2017-19 (987 in 2016-17, 992 in 2017-18 and 993 in 2018-19) before the NCAA suspended APR reporting during the COVID-19 pandemic. Upon reinstatement of APR reporting in June 2022, Clemson shattered its multi-year APR record with a 999 covering the 2017-18 through 2020-21 academic years. Clemson has posted a 995 multi-year APR in each of the last three cycles.

- Most recently, Clemson posted a 995 multi-year APR covering 2020-21 through 2023-24, tied for fifth-best in the FBS. Clemson's lofty academic success in that period coincided with 40 wins in a four-year span and two ACC titles.

5.	2018-19	993

- Clemson and Northwestern are the only FBS programs to produce a 990+ multi-year APR in each of the last six reported cycles.

- Clemson is the only program in the country to have finished among the Top 25 in APR among FBS schools and the AP Top 25 in every reported APR cycle since 2011.

Notes: The NCAA suspended APR reporting for the 2019-20 academic year amid COVID-19, but Clemson's unreported APR would have again placed Clemson in the top 25 of FBS programs; APR data for 2024-25 will be published in spring 2026.

- Prior to the suspension of APR Public Recognition Awards following the COVID-19 pandemic, the NCAA recognized Clemson with its annual honor, which is bestowed upon programs ranking in the Top 10 percent of their respective sports, for nine of the award's last 10 reported academic cycles. Only 37 FBS programs earned at least one APR recognition across the 2009-10 through 2018-19 academic years. Only 30 programs earned it multiple times. Clemson, Duke and Northwestern were the only ones to earn the award 9+ times in that 10-year span.

- With its award for the 2018-19 academic year, Clemson became the only FBS program since the NCAA created the APR metric in 2003 to win a national championship and an APR Public Recognition Award in the same year multiple times. Alabama is the only other school to accomplish the title/APR double in a single year once (2011-12 academic year).

- A program-record 98 individuals earned a 3.0 GPA or better in Fall 2024. That included program-record 20 perfect 4.0s.

- Clemson set a record in Fall 2024 with the highest single-semester GPA in program history with a 3.19 team GPA. Clemson followed that up with a 3.18 spring semester.

- Entering the 2025 fall semester, Clemson has had 75+ individuals earn a 3.0 or better GPA in eight consecutive semesters.

HISTORIC GRADUATION SUCCESS RATE

Aided in part by historically elite academic performance by Clemson Football, Clemson Athletics tied for best in the NCAA among public Power Five institutions in Graduation Success Rate (GSR) with a 96 percent mark for the 2014-17 cohort in data released by the NCAA in November 2024.

Football reached a 99 percent mark for the second year in a row, again tying the highest GSR score for any Power Five football program, and tying the highest ever recorded among public Power Five football programs in the 20 years the NCAA has tracked the metric. Football trailed only Air Force and LIU (100 percent) in this release, and tied Columbia, Harvard and Northwestern.

RELATIVELY SPEAKING

Clemson's 2025 roster has many connections to college and professional athletics. Below is a list of notable connections:

- Keith Adams Jr., RB: Son of Keith Adams, a Clemson Athletic Hall of Famer at linebacker for the Tigers from 1998-2000.
- Jamal Anderson, LB: Son of Jamal Anderson, an eight-year NFL running back who earned first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors in 1998 in helping the Falcons to a berth in Super Bowl XXXIII.
- Logan Brooking, TE: Son of 15-year NFL linebacker Keith Brooking, a five-time Pro Bowl selection who was 12th pick of the 1998 NFL Draft and remains the all-time leading tackler for both Georgia Tech and the Atlanta Falcons.
- Sammy Brown, LB: Son of former Furman football player Mike Brown.
- Vic Burley, DT: Cousin of Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Tackles Coach (and 10-year NFL veteran)

Nick Eason.

- Brodey Conn, LS/P: Son of Defensive Pass Game Coordinator/Safeties Coach Mickey Conn.
- Ashton Hampton, CB: Son of University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff Head Coach Alonzo Hampton.
- Ronan Hanafin, S: Son of Dan Hanafin, who played quarterback at Boston University and was the program's starting quarterback in its final year in 1997; also the brother of Boston College quarterback Shane Hanafin.
- Nolan Hauser, PK: Son of two former Clemson athletes, including his mother, Sheri Hauser (née Bueter), an All-American soccer player at Clemson from 1994-97, and his father, Scott, who played baseball at Clemson from 1995-97 and was 6-2 as a pitcher on Clemson's College World Series team of 1996. He is the brother of recent Clemson women's soccer player Ella Hauser.
- Brayden Jacobs, OL: Son of nine-year NFL running back Brandon Jacobs, a two-time Super Bowl champion with the New York Giants who accrued more than 9,000 career rushing yards.
- Charlie Johnson, TE: Son of Ellis Johnson, a long-time college football coach who served as Clemson's defensive coordinator from 1994-96.

CHURNING OUT NFL TALENT

Since assuming the head role midseason in 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has produced 86 NFL draft picks during his head coaching tenure. His 86 draft picks produced are the most by any active coach in the nation since the 2009 NFL Draft, and his 18 first-rounders are the fourth-most overall and second-most of any active coach in that span.

MOST PLAYERS DRAFTED BY COACH SINCE 2009 NFL DRAFT

In recent years, Clemson has been one of the NFL's primary provider of first-round talent among defensive linemen and linebackers. Clemson's nine first-round picks from its defensive front seven since the 2015 NFL Draft rank second in the nation.

FIRST-ROUND DEFENSIVE LINEMEN & LINEBACKERS SINCE 2015 NFL DRAFT

Rk	School	DL/LB
1.	Georgia	10
2.	Clemson	9
3.	Alabama	8
	Michigan	8
5.	Ohio State	5

Additional nuggets on Clemson's recent success in the NFL Draft are included below:

- Clemson has had at least one player selected in 23 consecutive drafts since 2003, representing the second-longest streak in school history behind a 24-year streak across the 1951-74 NFL Drafts.

- Clemson is one of only six schools to have produced multiple draft picks in each of the last 23 NFL Drafts (LSU, Michigan, Oklahoma, Ohio State and USC).

- Clemson has had at least three selections in 16 of its 17 drafts since Dabo Swinney was elevated to head coach. Clemson is one of six schools to have produced three or more picks at least 16 times in that span alongside Alabama, LSU, Ohio State, Oklahoma and USC.

- Including two defensive picks in the 2025 NFL Draft, Clemson has produced multiple defensive draft picks in 14 of the 17 drafts of the Dabo Swinney era. Clemson, LSU, Alabama, Ohio State and Georgia are the only programs to produce multiple draft picks from their defenses in at least 14 drafts in that span.

- Clemson has had at least one player chosen by 30 of the 32 NFL franchises since 2003. The lone exceptions in that time frame are the Patriots, who last selected a Tiger in 1991, and the Panthers, who have never selected a Clemson player despite playing their first season in franchise history in Death Valley.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney has produced a draft pick for 28 of the 32 NFL teams in his head coaching tenure; the only NFL teams not to select a Clemson player in Swinney's head coaching tenure are the Chicago Bears, Denver Broncos, New England Patriots and Carolina Panthers.

- Though Clemson did not have a player selected in the first round of the 2025 NFL Draft, Clemson has had at least one first-round draft choice in 10 of the last 13 years, standing alongside Alabama, Florida, Georgia and Ohio State as the only programs to produce a first-round pick in at least 10 of the last 13 years.

- Since 2013, Clemson has produced first-round picks from the QB, RB, WR, DE, DT, LB and DB position groups. The only other school with at least one first-rounder at all those positions in that span is Alabama.

- Linebacker Barrett Carter's selection in the 2025 NFL Draft represented the fourth consecutive draft in which Clemson had a linebacker selected. Clemson and Alabama are the only programs in the nation to produce at least one linebacker in each of the last four NFL Drafts.

- Safety R.J. Mickens' selection in the 2025 NFL Draft gave Clemson at least one drafted defensive back in 13 of Clemson's 17 drafts in the Dabo Swinney era.

GAME 4

SYRACUSE	34
CLEMSON	21

SEPT. 20, 2025
MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. - Clemson racked up 503 yards of offense, but Syracuse ran out to a 24-7 first-half lead en route to a 34-21 Orange win at Memorial Stadium.

Running back Adam Randall recorded 227 all-purpose yards, including seven catches for 44 yards and a touchdown in addition to his 130 rushing yards. Quarterback Cade Klubnik went 37-for-60 for 363 yards and three touchdown passes.

Syracuse scored on its first drive when quarterback Steve Angeli connected with Justus Ross-Simmons on a 12-yard touchdown pass. Syracuse then used a surprise onside kick and 11 plays to add another three points.

Clemson capitalized on its first possession, finishing a nine-play, 75-yard drive with a 38-yard touchdown pass from Klubnik to Bryant Wesco Jr.

Syracuse extended its lead to 17-7 with a nine-yard rushing touchdown, and after forcing Clemson to punt, Darrell Gill Jr. caught a 22-yard touchdown pass to make the score 24-7. Klubnik's six-yard touchdown pass to Randall with 1:06 left to play in the half cut Syracuse's halftime advantage to 24-14.

The teams incurred a one-hour-and-36-minute lighting delay that began with four minutes remaining in halftime. Syracuse increased its lead in the third quarter as Woody converted a 49-yard field goal with 11:44 on the clock. Later in the quarter, the Orange recovered a Clemson fumble, and Rickie Collins connected with Ross-Simmons on an 18-yard touchdown pass to extend their lead 34-14.

A nine-yard fourth-quarter touchdown pass from Klubnik to Wesco made the score 34-21, but an interception and a turnover on downs on Clemson's final two possessions gave Syracuse the victory.

GAME 5

CLEMSON	38
NORTH CAROLINA	10

OCT. 4, 2025
KENAN STADIUM • CHAPEL HILL, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - Clemson scored a touchdown on its first offensive play and on each of its first four possessions as the Tigers rode a 28-3 first-quarter lead to a 38-10 victory at Kenan Stadium.

The contest was the 300th overall game for Dabo Swinney at Clemson, including 68 games as an assistant coach and 232 as head coach. His matchup with Bill Belichick was the second time in college football history a coach with multiple FBS national championships as a head coach faced one with multiple Super Bowl titles as a head coach.

Quarterback Cade Klubnik finished 22-of-24 for 254 passing yards and four touchdowns through the air. Wide receiver T.J. Moore hauled in five passes for 108 yards and a touchdown, and running back Adam Randall and tight end Christian Bentancur each added two receiving touchdowns.

Moore scored on the game's first play from scrimmage, converting a double pass from Antonio Williams for a 75-yard touchdown. North Carolina cut the lead to 7-3 on its opening possession, but Clemson added touchdowns on its next three possessions — a 35-yard pass to Randall, a 45-yard pass to Bentancur and another 23-yard pass to Randall — for a 28-3 edge.

Clemson pushed its halftime advantage to 35-3 in front of an emptying crowd with an eight-yard pass to Bentancur with 2:02 to play in the half.

Clemson's reserves pushed the score to 38-3 early in the fourth quarter. North Carolina found the end zone for the first time on an 11-yard touchdown run by Benjamin Hall with 10:25 to play, but Clemson ultimately earned its seventh straight win against the Tar Heels.

GAME 6

CLEMSON	41
BOSTON COLLEGE	10

OCT. 11, 2025
ALUMNI STADIUM • CHESTNUT HILL, MASS.

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. - Clemson scored on all six of its first-half drives to earn a 41-10 win over Boston College at Alumni Stadium. The win pushed the Tigers' winning streak against Boston College to 13 games.

The Boston College Gridiron Club presented the Leather Helmet Award to quarterback Cade Klubnik as the game's MVP. Klubnik finished 22-for-30 for 280 yards passing and a 38-yard touchdown pass to Bryant Wesco Jr. and also ran for 48 yards and a touchdown on nine carries. Wesco amassed a team-high 106 yards and a touchdown on five catches.

The Eagles entered the contest ranked 10th nationally at 313.4 passing yards per game, but Clemson held BC to just 136 passing yards. The defense also added five sacks, seven tackles for loss, an interception and a fumble recovery.

Clemson opened the game with a 13-play field goal drive on offense and a three-and-out on defense, setting up an Adam Randall eight-yard touchdown run. The Eagles answered with a field goal, but the Tigers responded with another touchdown drive ending in the first career touchdown for defensive tackle Peter Woods on a two-yard run.

Boston College cut the Clemson lead to 17-10 in the second quarter on a two-yard Turbo Richard touchdown run, but the score would be the Eagles' final points of the game. Klubnik scampered for a six-yard touchdown on Clemson's next possession, and the Tigers tacked on 10 more points before halftime on Klubnik's shot to Wesco and an end-of-half 50-yard field goal by Hauser to give the Tigers a 34-10 halftime advantage.

Clemson pushed the final score to 41-10 on a 10-play, 60-yard drive that resulted in a one-yard touchdown run by Keith Adams Jr. in the final minute.
