CLEMSON PREPARES FOR FRIDAY NIGHT SHOWDOWN AT LOUISVILLE

Clemson will conclude conference play this week when the Tigers hit the road to face the Louisville Cardinals on Friday, Nov. 14. Kickoff at L&N Federal Credit Union Stadium in Louisville is set for 7:30 p.m. ET on ESPN.

After a 1-3 start to the season in August and September, Clemson is 3-2 in October and November thanks in part to a resurgent offense. Entering its first game of October, Clemson ranked 116th in the nation in scoring offense at 19.8 points per game. Clemson has averaged 34.4 points per game in its five games since, tied for the 19th-best mark in the nation since Oct. 1. Clemson also ranks 19th in the nation in that span in yards per game (444.6).

CLEMSON OFFENSE (BEFORE/AFTER OCTOBER)

	Thru Sept.		Since Oct. 1		Overall
	No.	Rank	No.	Rank	No.	Rank
Yds./Game	365.3	87	444.6	19	409.3	52
Pts./Game	19.8	116	34.4	T-19	27.9	70

Not surprisingly, the offense's ascent in that span has been powered in part by improved performance at the quarterback position, including a 3-1 mark by Cade Klubnik and an impressive spot start by Christopher Vizzina. In four games since the start of October, Klubnik has completed 91-of-117 passes (77.8 percent) for 1,140 yards with eight touchdowns and one interception for a pass efficiency rating of 180.5. Klubnik ranks third in the nation in pass efficiency rating since Oct. 1 among players with at least 100 pass attempts in that span.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

- Clemson attempting to push its all-time record against Louisville to 9-1.
- Louisville becoming the 27th different program against which Clemson has played 10 or more games all-time.
- Clemson attempting to make Louisville the third program against which it has earned at least nine wins in the first 10 games of a series (10-0 in first 10 games vs. Virginia, 9-1 in first 10 games vs. The Citadel).

BEST SERIES RECORDS THROUGH 10 GAMES (CLEMSON HISTORY)

Rk	School	Years	Record
1.	Virginia	1955-66	10-0
2.	The Citadel	1909-19	9-1
3.	Syracuse	1995-2021	8-2
4.	Furman	1896-1921	7-1-2
5.	NC State	1899-1930	7-2-1
	Presbyterian	1916-26	7-2-1
7.	Georgia	1897-1906	7-3
	South Carolina	1896-1912	7-3
	Wake Forest	1933-43	7-3
	Wofford	1896-1933	7-3

Note: Clemson is 8-1 against Louisville all-time (2014-24), and the Cardinals will join this list following Saturday's game.

- Clemson attempting to remain undefeated in road games in the series and improve to 5-0 all-time in Louisville.
- Clemson attempting to win its first five road games in a series with an opponent for the fourth time in school history. Clemson went 5-0 in its first five road games against Virginia, Furman and The Citadel.
- Clemson attempting to improve to 34-26-5 all-time in Friday games and improve to 27-20-5 in Friday regular season games all-time.
- Clemson attempting to improve to 3-1 in Friday regular season games under Dabo Swinney, including wins at Boston College in 2016 and at Syracuse in 2021.
- Clemson attempting to improve to 25-12 in games against teams to which it lost its last meeting under Dabo Swinney.
- Clemson attempting to avoid being beaten by the same team in back-to-back years for the first time since Florida State did so across a three-year span from 2012-14.
- Clemson (3-4 in ACC play) attempting to finish .500 or better in conference play for the 27th consecutive season. Clemson's current 26-year streak entered 2025 tied with Boise State for the longest active streak in the country and the fourth-longest streak in the FBS since 1966.
- Clemson attempting to improve to 46-25-2 in regular season conference finales since 1953.
- Clemson attempting to add to its school record by winning its 11th straight regular season ACC finale. Clemson's last loss in its final game of regular season ACC play came in 2014 against Georgia Tech.
- Clemson attempting to improve to 83-14 against ACC opponents, including postseason play, since 2015.
- Clemson attempting to improve to 43-10 in true road games since the start of the 2015 season. Clemson ranks third in the country in victories in true road games in that span.
- Clemson attempting to improve to 35-10 in night games since the start of the 2018 season and 56-13 in night games since 2015.
- Clemson attempting to improve to 108-20 in regular season play since the start of the 2015 season.
- Clemson attempting to improve to 32-13 against AP Top 25 teams since 2015.
- Head Coach Dabo Swinney (184-52) attempting to become the sixth coach in FBS history to win 185 games within the first 20 seasons of a head coaching career. Swinney trails only Tom Osborne (195), Nick Saban (191), Bob Stoops (191), Joe Paterno (187) and Urban Meyer (187) despite Swinney being in only his 18th season (and 17th full season). Note: Stoops and Meyer are not credited on the NCAA's official list of most wins through 20 seasons since they did not coach 20 years.

- Swinney (184) attempting to match the career win total of College Football Hall of Famer Johnny Majors (185-137-10).

- Clemson entering the game having scored at least one rushing touchdown in a national-best-tying 93 of its 105 games since the start of the 2018 season. Clemson has also rushed for multiple touchdowns in a national-best 75 games in that span.

- Clemson attempting to play back-to-back turnover-free games for the first time since October 2024 at Wake Forest and Florida State.

- Clemson attempting to go four consecutive games without throwing an interception for the first time since the middle of the 2023 season.

- Clemson attempting to hold consecutive ACC opponents to 10 or fewer points for the second time this season. Clemson has held its opponent to exactly 10 points in all three of its ACC wins this season (at North Carolina, at Boston College, vs. Florida State).

- Clemson attempting to record six or more sacks in back-to-back games for the first time since 2021 against UConn and Wake Forest.

- Clemson (25) needing five more sacks to reach 30 sacks for the 14th consecutive season. Clemson's last season with fewer than 30 sacks was in 2011. Entering 2025, Clemson was the only program in the nation to have reached 30 sacks in every year of the College Football Playoff era (since 2014).

- Linebacker Sammy Brown attempting to record a sack in back-to-back games for the first time in his career.

- Kicker Nolan Hauser entering the game having made eight consecutive field goal attempts.

- Hauser (eight) needing to convert his next two field goal attempts to post Clemson's first double-digit streak of consecutive made field goals since B.T. Potter's 13-attempt streak in 2021.

- Hauser attempting to record three or more field goals in consecutive games for the first time in his career. He would be the first Clemson player with back-to-back games with three or more field goals since Jonathan Weitz in the final two games of the 2023 season.

- Defensive end Will Heldt (5.0) entering the game tied with his single-season career high in sacks (5.0 at Purdue in 2024).

- Safety Ricardo Jones attempting to record an interception in back-to-back games for the second time this season.

- Jones (four) attempting to produce the first five-interception season by a Clemson player since Jadar Johnson (five) in 2016.

- Quarterback Cade Klubnik (23-13) attempting to tie Nealon Greene (24-16) for the sixth-most career wins by a Clemson starting quarterback since World War II.

- Klubnik (nine) attempting to throw for 300 yards to become the fourth player in Clemson history to post 10 career 300-yard passing games, joining Tajh Boyd (18 from 2010-13), Trevor Lawrence (13 from 2018-20) and Deshaun Watson (13 from 2014-16).

- Klubnik (71) needing four touchdown passes to become the fourth player in school history to throw 75 career touchdown passes, joining Tajh Boyd (107 from

ACC REGULAR SEASON FINALE

Friday will be Clemson's final game of ACC regular season play in 2025. Clemson is 45-25-2 in conference seasons since the ACC's inception in 1953.

The Tigers have won a school-record 10 straight ACC regular season finales. Clemson's last loss to end ACC regular season play came in 2014 against Georgia Tech.

FRIDAY NIGHT LIGHTS

Clemson is 33-26-5 all-time in games played on Friday. Friday games were a far more common occurrence in the early decades of Clemson football, as the Tigers played 48 of their 64 all-time Friday games to date in their first 60 years of existence.

Prior to this week's contest, only three of Clemson's 16 most-recent Friday games have come in regular season play, including a win at Boston College in 2016, an upset loss at Syracuse in 2017 and a win at Syracuse in 2021.

Clemson is 26-20-5 in regular season Friday games and 7-6 in postseason Friday games, including the 1982 Orange Bowl to conclude Clemson's 1981 national championship season.

TOMBSTONE OPPORTUNITY

To commemorate wins against ranked teams away from Death Valley, Clemson constructed a graveyard at the entrance to the Clemson practice fields near the Poe Indoor Facility and the Allen N. Reeves Football Complex.

At the time of its inception, the graveyard initially commemorated Top 20 road wins. It has since expanded to include any Top 25 win away from home. Under Dabo Swinney's watch, the Tigers have added 27 tombstones to the graveyard — including four during Clemson's 2016 national championship campaign and another three during its 2018 national title run.

-- ON THE OPPONENT --

SERIES HISTORY VS. LOUISVILLE

Clemson enters its 2025 matchup with Louisville boasting an 8-1 all-time record against the Cardinals. The two programs had never met prior to the Cardinals' addition to the Atlantic Coast Conference in 2014. The teams then played six straight years as Atlantic Division foes from 2014-19 before the series was suspended for a year in the ACC's pandemic-adjusted divisionless 2020 schedule.

Clemson collected two more wins from their Atlantic Division counterparts in 2021 and 2022 before Louisville cycled off Clemson's schedule for 2023 when the ACC dumped the divisional format. Louisville earned its first win in the series in 2024.

MEMORABLE SERIES MOMENTS

2014: In the first meeting between the two programs, the 3-2 Tigers hosted the 5-1 Cardinals at Death Valley. Clemson led 14-10 at halftime thanks to two non-offensive touchdowns, including a 72-yard punt return touchdown by Adam Humphries and a fumble recovery in the end zone by Grady Jarrett. Trailing 23-17 late in the fourth quarter, Louisville drove to the Tiger two-yard line, but defensive lineman DeShawn Williams batted away a final Louisville pass to secure the win for Clemson.

2015: Clemson won the first game contested in Louisville between the two schools, earning a 20-17 victory in both schools' conference opener. Touchdown passes from Deshaun Watson to Hunter Renfrow and Jordan Leggett and two Greg Huegel field goals accounted for Clemson's 20 points, while an interception by safety Jadar Johnson on the final play of the game sealed the victory for the visiting Tigers.

2016: The two teams waged one of the most memorable games of the series — if not the decade at large — as a charged Memorial Stadium crowd watched an electrifying performance by two Top 5 squads. No. 5 Clemson recorded a late stop to defeat No. 3 Louisville, 42-36. Louisville quarterback Lamar Jackson completed 27-of-44 passes for 295 yards with one touchdown and rushed 31 times for 162 yards with an additional two scores on the ground, while Clemson quarterback Deshaun Watson completed 20-of-31 passes for 306 yards with five touchdowns and rushed 14 times for 91 yards. The duo would go on to finish first and second, respectively, for the Heisman Trophy at the end of the season. Trailing by six, Louisville drove all the way down to the Clemson nine. However, on 4th-and-12 from the Clemson 14, defensive back Marcus Edmond knocked receiver James Quick out of bounds one yard shy of the marker, forcing a turnover on downs that preserved the victory for Clemson during the Tigers' national championship season.

2017: After three nail-biting wins to open the all-time series, Clemson got its first no-doubter in a 47-21 rout of the Cardinals in Louisville. Third-ranked Clemson rolled No. 14 Louisville, piling up 616 yards of offense in a game that was ESPN College GameDay's featured contest. Kelly Bryant threw for a then-career-high 316 yards in outdueling reigning Heisman Trophy recipient Lamar Jackson, and a young true freshman named Travis Etienne capped the game's scoring with an 81-yard touchdown run to bring the final total to 47-21.

2018: There was no doubt in 2018, as the eventual national champions scored a season-high 77 points in a 77-16 romp in Death Valley. At the time, the 61-point margin of victory was the Tigers' largest in school history in conference play, a mark later broken by a 66-point win at Georgia Tech in 2020. The run game powered Clemson offensively, accounting for 492 of its 661 total yards, as Travis Etienne, Lyn-J Dixon and Tavien Feaster each eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark. The Tigers rushed for 13.3 yards per carry, surpassing the program record of 11.8, set earlier in the season at Wake Forest.

2021: Clemson trailed Louisville, 24-17, entering the fourth quarter of a prime-time game on the road. Despite quarterback DJ Uiagalelei being hobbled by a knee injury, the Tigers scored 13 consecutive points with two B.T. Potter field goals bookending an eight-yard go-ahead touchdown run by Uiagalelei on a nine-play, 57-yard drive. Trailing by six with 2:19 to play, Louisville drove from its own 25 to the Clemson 2 in only 1:04. Facing first-and-goal from its own two-yard line, Clemson stuffed three consecutive run plays and sacked quarterback Malik Cunningham to secure the victory as he scrambled on fourth down.

DEFEAT-FREE IN DERBY CITY

Clemson is 4-0 all-time at Louisville, and with a win on Friday, Clemson would win its first five road games in a series with an opponent for the fourth time in school history. The Tigers went 5-0 in its first five road games against Virginia, Furman and The Citadel.

LAST MEETING

Louisville 33, Clemson 21

(Nov. 2, 2024, Clemson, S.C.)

CLEMSON, S.C. — Louisville used scores on five consecutive drives to pull ahead of No. 11/8 Clemson en route to a 33-21 win at Memorial Stadium. Running back Phil Mafah tallied a season-high 199 all-purpose yards, including a season-high 171 rushing yards and a pair of scores on 30 carries.

Clemson outgained Louisville, 450-366, piled up 31 first downs, and held the ball for 37:52 on 101 offensive plays, including seven drives of 10 or more plays. Quarterback Cade Klubnik completed 33 of his 56 passing attempts for 228 yards and a touchdown and ran for 43 yards on 12 carries. Wade Woodaz led the Tigers defensively with 11 tackles as the Tigers fell to 8-1 in their all-time series against the Cardinals.

After two scoreless drives by the Tigers, Louisville kicker Brock Travelstead opened the scoring with a 21-yard field goal to put the Cardinals up 3-0. Clemson's offense responded as Klubnik connected with Antonio Williams for a 12-yard passing touchdown to complete an 11-play scoring drive. The score going into the second quarter stood at 7-3.

The Cardinals reclaimed the lead in the second quarter on a rushing touchdown by quarterback Tyler Shough. Clemson attempted to tie the game at 10-10 on a 49-yard field goal attempt by Nolan Hauser, but the kick was blocked. Louisville running back Keyjuan Brown capped the ensuing six-play drive with a touchdown run to give Louisville a 17-7 lead at halftime.

Clemson kept the Cardinals out of the end zone in the third quarter but allowed three Travelstead field goals, which pushed the score to 26-7 at the end of the third quarter.

Clemson cut the lead in the fourth quarter on a 61-yard, 16-play drive ending in Mafah's first touchdown run. After Louisville recovered an onside kick attempt, Isaac Brown rushed 45 yards for a touchdown to push the Cardinals' lead to 33-14. Mafah added his second rushing touchdown with 2:07 remaining in the game, completing a 75-yard, 12-play drive for the Tigers to bring the final score to 33-21.

LAST MEETING IN LOUISVILLE

Clemson 30, Louisville 24

(Nov. 6, 2021, Louisville, Ky.)

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — The Clemson defense made four straight stops inside its own five-yard line to secure a 30-24 road win at Louisville. The Cardinals had first-and-goal at the Clemson two-yard line with 1:18 to play, but Clemson's defense didn't budge as they stopped the Cards on fourth-and-goal from the one-yard line for the second time on the night.

Quarterback DJ Uiagalelei scored Clemson's go-ahead touchdown on an eight-yard run up the middle with 4:12 to play to make the score 27-24, his third total touchdown of the game. B.T. Potter added three more points on a 40-yard field goal to give the Tigers a 30-24 advantage with 2:19 to play.

In total, Clemson's defense held the Cards scoreless in the red zone, forced one turnover and allowed just 6-of-17 third-down conversions. Trenton Simpson led the defense with 10 tackles, including 3.0 tackles for loss and 2.0 sacks.

Offensively, Uiagalelei completed 18-of-30 passes for 220 yards with two passing touchdowns in addition to his rushing touchdown.

On the game's first possession, Louisville went 75 yards in six plays, with Jalen Mitchell going 26 yards up the middle for a touchdown to give the Cardinals a 7-0 lead. It took the Tigers just three plays and 53 seconds to respond, as Uiagalelei connected with Beaux Collins on a post route for 46 yards to tie the score at 7-7.

Clemson forced a stop defensively but fumbled the punt return, giving the Cardinals the ball back on the 28-yard line. Louisville took advantage of the short field, as Malik Cunningham ran through the left side for 23 yards for the score.

After a Louisville field goal, Potter answered with one of his own, hitting a 38-yarder with 5:44 to play in the half. The defense again held, and Clemson took over on its own 14-yard line with just 1:33 to play in the half. Uigalelei marched the Tigers down the field, going 6-for-9 for 71 yards on the drive, culminating in an eight-yard scoring pass to Davis Allen with 18 seconds left to knot the score at 17-17 heading into the half.

Clemson had just two drives in the second quarter but scored on each, going 10 plays and nine plays, respectively, for 140 yards.

On their first possession of the second half, the Cardinals went 59 yards in three plays, with Cunningham taking it 51 yards up the left sideline for a touchdown, his second of the game.

Will Shipley answered with a 75-yard kickoff return to put Clemson in scoring position, but the Tigers were stopped on the one-yard line on the fourth-and-goal. A missed field goal by Louisville later in the third quarter kept the score 24-17 in favor of Louisville, setting the stage for the dramatic fourth quarter. Clemson outscored the Cardinals 13-0 in the final frame, setting up the game-winning goal-line stand.

ONE TIGER FROM KENTUCKY

Clemson has one member of its 2025 roster from the Bluegrass State: sixth-year offensive lineman Walker Parks.

Parks was a two-year captain at Frederick Douglass High School in Lexington, roughly 80 miles east of Louisville. As a senior, he did not allow a sack in 15 games, earning first-team all-state and district player of the year honors en route to being ranked by every major recruiting service as the No. 2 recruit in Kentucky for the Class of 2020.

Parks is the son of former Wildcat offensive lineman David Parks, who lettered at Kentucky from 1991-93. Upon his signing at Clemson, Walker became the Tigers' first signee from Kentucky since cornerback Justin Miller in 2002. Miller was a three-year starter, a 2002 freshman All-American and 2004 all-conference honoree who would become a 2005 second-round pick by the New York Jets.

-- FROM THE ARCHIVES --

NOTES FROM LAST GAME

- Florida State entered the game ranked No. 1 in the nation in total offense (510.5 yards per game). Clemson held Florida State to a season-low 360 yards of offense, only the second time this season the Seminoles have been held below 400 yards (382 vs. Alabama).

- Florida State also entered the game first in the ACC and seventh in the nation in points per game (40.0). Clemson held Florida State to a season-low 10 points.

- Clemson won the turnover margin, 2-0. It snapped a six-game streak in which Clemson had not won the turnover margin.

- Clemson recorded a season-high six sacks. The six sacks were the Tigers' most since an eight-sack effort at Pitt in November 2024.

- Clemson's six sacks were its most in its series against Florida State since 2016 (six).

- Clemson scored points in a 303rd consecutive game to pass the 1997-2021 Texas Tech Red Raiders for sole possession of the 12th-longest streak of consecutive games without being shut out in FBS history.

- Offensive lineman Blake Miller started his 50th consecutive game to break Dalton Freeman's school record for consecutive starts by a non-specialist (49 from 2009-12). Miller has started all 50 games played by Clemson since his arrival as a true freshman in 2022.

- Quarterback Cade Klubnik completed 20-of-27 passes for 221 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions.

- Klubnik (23-12) moved past Homer Jordan (22-6-1) and DJ Uigalelei (22-6) for the sole possession of the seventh-most career wins by a Clemson starting quarterback since World War II.

- Early in the contest, Klubnik (10,217) became the fourth player in Clemson history to record 10,000 career yards of total offense (total yards thrown and/or gained), joining Tajh Boyd (13,069 from 2010-13), Deshaun Watson (12,094 from 2014-16) and Trevor Lawrence (11,041 from 2018-20).

- Klubnik scored his third rushing touchdown of the season on a four-yard score on Clemson's opening drive.

- Klubnik (16) tied Kelly Bryant (16 from 2015-18) for sixth on Clemson's leaderboard for career rushing touchdowns by a quarterback since the Tigers abandoned the single wing in 1953.

- Klubnik's rushing touchdown on the game-opening 13-play, 75-yard drive represented Clemson's first time scoring first in a home game since the season opener against LSU.

- Wide receiver Antonio Williams recorded team highs with six receptions for 62 yards and one touchdown.

- On his first reception of the game, Williams (192) passed Hunter Renfrow (186 from 2015-18) for sole possession of the fifth-most career receptions in Clemson history.

- Williams (2,161) passed Hunter Renfrow (2,133 from 2015-18) and Amari Rodgers (2,144 from 2017-20) for 13th on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career receiving yards.

- Williams caught a 34-yard touchdown on a flea flicker from Klubnik in the second quarter.

- Williams has now caught a touchdown in back-to-back games for the first time since November 2024 against Pitt and The Citadel.

- Williams (19) tied Artavis Scott (19 from 2014-16) for eighth on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career touchdown receptions.

- Wide receiver/holder Clay Swinney scored his first career points on a successful two-point conversion run following Clemson's game-opening touchdown.

- The two-point conversion by Swinney was Clemson's first two-point conversion of the season. It was Clemson's first two-point conversion since the 2023 Gator Bowl vs. Kentucky.

- Swinney became the third Swinney brother to score at Clemson, joining Will (12 points from 2017-21) and Drew (two points from 2018-22).

- Offensive lineman Walker Parks played in his 61st career game to tie defensive end Xavier Thomas (61 from 2018-23) for the seventh-most games played in Clemson history.

- Linebacker Jeremiah Alexander recorded his first career fumble recovery in the first quarter. He also added his first sack on an attempted running back pass in the fourth quarter.

- Cornerback Avione Terrell recorded his career-high second sack of the season in the third quarter and added his single-game career-high second sack of the game in the fourth quarter.

- Terrell became the first Clemson defensive back in the Dabo Swinney era to record 2.0 sacks in a game.

- Terrell now has 4.0 career sacks. His 4.0 career sacks are the most by a Clemson cornerback under Dabo Swinney.

- Linebacker Kobe McCloud was credited with his first career sack in the fourth quarter when he angled Tommy Castellanos out of bounds short of the line of scrimmage.

- Linebacker Sammy Brown recorded this third sack of the season in the fourth quarter.

- Defensive end Will Heldt was credited with his fifth sack of the season while forcing an intentional grounding in the fourth quarter.

- Heldt's 5.0 sacks this season match his single-season career high (5.0 at Purdue in 2024).

- Safety Ricardo Jones added to his team-leading and career-high total in interceptions this season by recording his fourth interception of the year in the fourth quarter.

- Kicker Nolan Hauser went 3-for-3 on field goal attempts.

- Hauser's three field goals were his second-most in a game in his career, trailing his five field goals at Florida State in 2024.

- Hauser now has eight career field goals in two games against Florida State and 21 field goals in 21 career games against all other teams.

- Hauser converted a 40-yard field goal in the second quarter, a 23-yard field goal in the third quarter and a 43-yard field goal in the fourth quarter.

- Hauser's field goals were his sixth, seventh and eighth consecutive made field goal attempts, a streak that dates to Clemson's first game of October at North Carolina. His eight made field goals represent his longest streak of consecutive makes in his career, surpassing his six-field-goal streak to open his career in 2024.

- With the 23-yard field goal, Hauser remained perfect on field goals inside of 40 yards this season (6-for-6).

- Punter Jack Smith tied a career long with a 51-yard punt in the second quarter and placed a career-high three punts inside the 20.

- Captains for the contest were defensive end Cade Denhoff, quarterback Cade Klubnik, running back Adam Randall and linebacker Wade Woodaz.

WITH THE WIN...

- Clemson earned its 17th all-time victory against Florida State.

- Clemson improved to 10-9 all-time in home games against Florida State. Of Clemson's 65 all-time foes at Death Valley since Memorial Stadium opened in 1942, Florida State becomes the 50th against which Clemson has a winning record in the facility.

- Florida State still has not won consecutive games in Death Valley since the Seminoles won their first seven trips to Memorial Stadium from 1975-2001. Since that stretch, Clemson is 10-2 at home against Florida State.

- Clemson improved to 34-10 in night games since the start of the 2018 season and 55-13 in night games since 2015.

- Clemson improved to 26-5 in night games at Memorial Stadium in Dabo Swinney's tenure and moved to 22-2 at home in prime-time games in the College Football Playoff era.

- Clemson improved to 40-12 in games following a loss under Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson improved to 72-9 at Death Valley in the College Football Playoff era.

- Clemson improved to 82-14 against ACC opponents, including postseason play, since 2015.

- Clemson improved to 144-23 against AP-unranked teams under Dabo Swinney and is now 121-13 in those games since the start of the 2012 season.

- Clemson improved to 107-20 in regular season play since the start of the 2015 season.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney (184-52) passed LaVell Edwards (183) for sole possession of the sixth-most wins through a coach's first 20 seasons in FBS history. Swinney trails only Tom Osborne (195), Nick Saban (191), Bob Stoops (191), Joe Paterno (187) and Urban Meyer (187) despite Swinney being in only his 18th season (and 17th full season). Note: Stoops and Meyer are not credited on the NCAA's official list of most wins through 20 seasons since they did not coach 20 years.

- Swinney (184) matched the career win total of College Football Hall of Famer Darrell Royal (184-60-5).

- Swinney improved to 11-6 all-time against Florida State. Swinney's head coaching tenure accounts for 11 of Clemson's 17 all-time wins against the Seminoles.

- Clemson is now 91-9 when scoring first since the start of the 2015 season.

- Clemson is now 158-12 under Dabo Swinney when leading at halftime, including a 141-8 mark since the start of the 2011 season.

- Clemson improved to 149-7 when leading after three quarters since the start of the 2011 season.

- Clemson now has an 89-6 record when winning the turnover margin since 2011.

- Clemson is now 124-3 in its last 127 games when holding teams to fewer than 23 points, a span that dates to the middle of the 2010 season.

ON THIS DATE

- Nov. 14, 1981: Clemson claimed the ACC title with a 21-7 win over Maryland. Homer Jordan completed 20-of-29 passes for 270 yards in the contest. At the time it was the most completions in a game for a Tiger quarterback in a Clemson victory.

- Nov. 14, 2009: C.J. Spiller threw a touchdown pass, caught a touchdown pass and rushed for a touchdown in Clemson's 43-23 win at NC State.

- Overall: Clemson is 8-9 all-time in games contested on Nov. 14 but has won each of its last three Nov. 14 games (2009 at NC State, 2013 vs. Georgia Tech and 2015 at Syracuse).

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF STAPLES

From 2014-23, Clemson cemented itself as one of the College Football Playoff's powerhouses of the tournament's inaugural decade. In the 10-year history of the four-team format prior to 2024, only 15 programs earned at least one College Football Playoff berth, and Clemson ranked second in CFP berths, CFP title game appearances, total CFP wins and CFP titles.

Clemson returned to the College Football Playoff in 2024 in the format's first year of expansion to 12 teams and is one berth shy of Alabama (eight) for the most in history.

The nine-win-season streaks by Clemson (Dabo Swinney) and Florida State (Bobby Bowden) were compiled by single head coaches. The top two streaks have been split among multiple head coaches, including Bob Devaney (four from 1969-72), Tom Osborne (25 from 1973-97) and Frank Solich (four from 1998-2001) for Nebraska, and Nick Saban (16 from 2008-23) and Kalen DeBoer (one in 2024) for Alabama.

Of the now 136 active FBS schools, only six programs entered 2025 having won at least six games at the FBS level in every year of the College Football Playoff era. That number dipped to four when pushing the total to seven wins and to two when dropping it to nine wins.

POSTSEASON STREAK

Between ACC Championship Games, bowl games and College Football Playoff National Championship Games, Clemson has won at least one postseason game in each of the last 14 years, the longest streak in FBS history. Clemson extended that streak with its win in the 2024 ACC Championship Game.

In 2020, Clemson became the first program ever to win 20 ACC Championships. That year, Clemson became the first program in the conference championship game era to win six straight conference championship games.

Two years later, Clemson's 2022 ACC title was the program's seventh in eight years, as the Tigers became the first team in an active power conference to win seven outright conference titles in an eight-year span since Alabama won eight SEC titles in nine seasons from 1971-79.

Including titles from its days as a member of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association and Southern Conference, Clemson has 28 conference championships overall, also the most of any current ACC school. Duke ranks second among the ACC's current membership with 18 overall conference titles, including 11 Southern Conference titles and seven ACC titles.

The Tigers won the 1900, 1902 and 1903 SIAA Conference championships under John Heisman, then the 1906 SIAA title under Bob Williams. Clemson also won the 1940 and 1948 Southern Conference titles under Frank Howard. Howard won eight total conference titles, including two in the Southern Conference and six in the ACC. Swinney surpassed the legend with a win in the 2024 ACC Championship Game.

For the last quarter-century, Clemson's ACC success has not been a roller-coaster ride of lofty heights and deep lows. Entering 2025, the last time Clemson finished a season below .500 in regular season conference play was in 1998, when Tommy West's 3-8 squad went 1-7 in ACC play. Clemson's 26-year streak of being .500 or better in conference play entered 2025 tied for the longest active streak in the country and tied for the fourth-longest of any streak since 1966.

POWER OVER POWER CONFERENCE FOES

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level,'" recounted Swinney. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2011, as Clemson ranks among the national leaders in wins against power conference opponents in that time span.

Clemson's 137 power conference wins since 2011 include at least one victory against 27 different programs, including Wake Forest (14), Boston College (13), Georgia Tech (11), Syracuse (10), NC State (10), Florida State (10), Louisville (8), South Carolina (8), Virginia Tech (7), North Carolina (7), Virginia (4), Notre Dame (4), Auburn (4), Miami (Fla.) Ohio State (3), Pitt (3), Alabama (2), Texas A&M (2), Oklahoma (2), Duke (2), LSU (1), Georgia (1), Iowa State (1), Kentucky (1), Stanford (1) and SMU (1).

On a year-by-year basis, Clemson has finished the season atop the country in wins against power conference opponents a national-best four times since the institution of the College Football Playoff in 2014. That includes 13 wins against power conference opponents in 2018, the first team ever to reach that figure.

SIGN AND DEVELOP

While proud of his incoming classes, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has long stated that a true ranking of a recruiting class cannot and should not be published until four years later when the group can be evaluated on performance rather than potential.

Much to Swinney's delight, The Athletic annually assumed that role for the classes of 2014-20, re-ranking each recruiting class four years later to account for on-field performance.

For its re-rankings, The Athletic uses the following grading scale: 5 points: All-American, award winner, top-50 NFL Draft pick; 4: Multi-year starter, all-conference honors; 3: One-year starter or key reserve; 2: Career backup; 0: Minor or no contribution, left the program. The outlet also adds a bonus to each program's class average, derived from its total number of wins from 2017 through 2020 (e.g., For re-ranking the Class of 2017, Clemson won 51 games, so its class average received a bonus of 0.51).

Swinney has pointed out that Clemson often falls in rankings as its retention and its commitment to not oversigning leads to smaller recruiting classes. He also notes that much of Clemson's on-field success is a function of the program's development, citing All-Americans like former three-star Isaiah Simmons or former two-star Nolan Turner. The re-rankings illustrate Clemson's impressive track record of talent identification, culture fit, resource allocation and player development.

CLEMSON RECRUITING RANKINGS AND RE-RANKINGS (VIA THE ATHLETIC)

2014	16	6	+10	50-7
2015	9	2	+7	55-4
2016	11	1	+10	55-4
2017	16	5	+11	51-5
2018	7	2	+5	49-6
2019	10	5	+5	45-9
2020	3	7	-4	40-12
Average	10.2	4.0	+6.2

Note: Initial rank according to 247 Composite

On average, Clemson ranked 10.2 in the 247 Composite team rankings across the 2014-20 recruiting cycles. Upon re-ranking those groups, despite having little room for improvement while recruiting at a Top 15 clip in that span, Clemson ranked 4.0 on average in the re-rankings, a ratings bump of roughly six spots. Each of those Clemson classes averaged at least 10 wins a season during their careers.

SENIOR SUCCESS

Every January, Head Coach Dabo Swinney conducts his first official meeting with his new team. The first order of business in the meeting is to "reset the room," reorganizing the seating arrangement with seniors in front and all succeeding classes in order behind them in the team auditorium.

Several of Swinney's senior classes placed themselves among select company in college football history. The 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 Clemson seniors account for four of only 15 four-year classes in FBS history to reach 50 career wins. That includes the 2018 and 2019 groups that are tied with the 2018 Alabama seniors for the most wins in FBS history (55 wins in four years).

CLEMSON'S WINNINGEST COACH

College Football Hall of Famer Frank Howard, known as "The Bashful Baron of Barlow Bend," compiled a 165-118-12 record in 30 seasons at Clemson from 1940-69.

With a 31-23 upset of No. 12 Notre Dame in 2023, Dabo Swinney earned his 166th career victory as Clemson's head coach, surpassing Howard to become Clemson's all-time winningest coach. Swinney accomplished the feat in his 209th career game.

HEAD COACH CONTINUITY

Over the last decade-and-a-half, Clemson became a beacon of stability in the increasingly unstable environment of college football. Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney is in his 23rd overall season at Clemson in 2025, including his 17th full season as head coach (and his 18th including an interim stint in 2008).

From the start of Swinney's first season as full-time head coach in 2009 through 2024, there were 498 head coaching tenures in the FBS (excluding those by interims) but only one such tenure at Clemson. Clemson is one of five schools with only one head coach in that span.

Clemson is the only school in the ACC with only one head coach since the start of the 2009 season, and among the 21 schools ever to qualify for the College Football Playoff, only Clemson has had only one head coach since 2009.

SIX "FINAL FOURS" FOR SWINNEY

While the term "Final Four" may still be the linguistic property of college basketball, since the advent of the four-team College Football Playoff in 2014, Head Coach Dabo Swinney had Clemson among the sport's final four teams six times from 2015-20, becoming the first coach to lead a team to six consecutive College Football Playoffs since the format's institution in 2014.

The NCAA men's college basketball tournament dates to 1939. In the history of that tournament, only John Wooden of UCLA (nine from 1967-75) and Mike Krzyzewski of Duke (five from 1988-92) coached teams to at least five consecutive Final Fours. With his sixth "Final Four" appearance in 2020, Swinney joined basketball's Wooden as the only college football or men's basketball coaches to take teams to six consecutive Final Fours in their respective sports.

Swinney is among only nine coaches in football and men's basketball to record six career Final Four berths. He is one of only six with a winning record in Final Four games.

* - Men's Basketball Final Four or College Football Playoff

^ - indicates streak of at least six consecutive Final Fours

Swinney's ability to place his team among the nation's elite quartet has also been illustrated by the polls. Clemson finished first in the AP Poll in 2016 and 2018, second in 2015 and 2019, third in 2020 and fourth in 2017. Swinney became just the fourth coach to record at least six consecutive top four finishes since the AP Poll began in 1936, an exclusive list that also includes Florida State's Bobby Bowden (13), USC's Pete Carroll (seven) and Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson (six).

Clemson's streak represented the fifth time a program has had a run of at least six top four finishes in the AP Poll. Miami (Fla.) had a seven-year run from 1986-92 with two different head coaches leading the program.

FIRST 15 SEASONS // FIRST 20 SEASONS?

Dabo Swinney completed his 15th season (and his 14th full season) in 2022 with a 161-39 record. Swinney amassed the second-most wins through a coach's first 15 seasons in FBS history despite not having the benefit of a full season in his first year, as he went 4-3 on an interim basis in his first season in 2008 after taking over for Tommy Bowden in October.

2.	Dabo Swinney	Clemson	161
3.	Bob Stoops	Oklahoma	160
4.	Barry Switzer	Oklahoma	149
5.	Tom Osborne	Nebraska	147

The 2025 season is Swinney's 18th season (and 17th full season) as Clemson's head coach. With the 2025, 2026 and 2027 seasons remaining to accrue victories in the category, Swinney already ranks sixth in FBS history in wins in the first 20 seasons of a head coaching career (including coaches who did not coach 20 seasons).

SWINNEY VS. HALL OF FAMERS

Including the upcoming Class of 2025 inductions of Nick Saban, Urban Meyer and Larry Blakeney, Swinney has coached against nine College Football Hall of Fame coaches in his head coaching career. Swinney is .500 or better against eight of the nine coaches and has a 22-14 overall record against Hall of Famers.

Swinney vs. College Football Hall of Famers		22-14 (.611)

With a win against future Pro Football Hall of Famer Bill Belichick on Oct. 4, Swinney joined a list of head coaches across the collegiate and pro levels to defeat both Nick Saban and Bill Belichick that includes Bill Cowher, Gary Kubiak, Eric Mangini, Mike McCarthy, Dick Jauron, Tony Dungy, Herm Edwards, Dick Vermeil, Romeo Crennel, Jim Harbaugh and Steve Spurrier. Swinney's success against the Saban/Belichick duo includes a 28-point win in his most recent bout against both marquee coaches.

THROUGH 200 GAMES

The 2022 Orange Bowl was the 200th game in Dabo Swinney's head coaching career. Among coaches who qualify for the NCAA FBS record book by virtue of five years or 50 wins as a major college head coach, 17 coaches had earned at least 150 victories in their first 200 career games as head coach as of the conclusion of the 2022 season.

At 161-39 through 200 games, Swinney tied Bob Stoops and Robert Neyland (161 each) for the fifth-most wins through 200 career games in major college football history.

ONE OF THE FASTEST TO 150 WINS

Dabo Swinney earned his 150th career head coaching win in only his 186th career game in the 2021 Cheez-It Bowl. He became the sixth-fastest FBS coach to 150 career wins — two games behind Fielding Yost and Joe Paterno — and the fourth-fastest in the modern era.

Notes: Prior to 2025; includes victories at all levels recognized by the NCAA; must record five years or 50 wins as a major college head coach to qualify.

Four previous Clemson head coaches earned 150+ FBS wins in their careers: John Heisman (186), Jess Neely (207), Frank Howard (165) and Ken Hatfield (168). Howard, a College Football Hall of Famer, recorded his 150th victory in his 273rd career game, in a 14-10 victory against Maryland in 1966 that clinched a piece of what later became an outright ACC title. Heisman earned win No. 150 in game No. 203, Neely earned it in game No. 268, and Hatfield did it in game 259, though none of those three won more than 43 games in their Clemson tenures.

Included below are the number of games needed for a sample of other notable coaches to reach 150 victories: John Vaught (201), Mark Richt (205), Red Blaik (207), Dan Devine (208), Woody Hayes (209), Bear Bryant (212), Ara Parseghian (212), Pat Dye (212), Bobby Bowden (213), Pop Warner (214), LaVell Edwards (214), Jim Tressel (214), Vince Dooley (214), Amos Alonzo Stagg (225), John Cooper (225), Frank Beamer (230), Lou Holtz (230), Bill Snyder (231), Johnny Majors (255), George Welsh (261), Hayden Fry (277).

ALL-TIME ACC LEADERS

Since the conference's founding in 1953, no program has won more regular season games in Atlantic Coast Conference play than Clemson. In 2020, Clemson earned its 300th official regular season victory over an ACC opponent, becoming the first program to accomplish the feat.

CHAMPIONSHIP LINEAGE

After being named Clemson's full-time coach in December of 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney set about securing his first signing class in 2009.

His first class, which he tabbed the "Dandy Dozen," brought home Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 during their junior campaign in 2011. With a win in the 2024 ACC Championship Game, every Clemson signing class under Swinney has at least one ACC title to their credit in their tenures at Clemson, and every signing class since 2012 has earned at least one College Football Playoff berth.

BOWL STREAKS

In 2024, Clemson extended its school-record bowl streak to 20 years. Clemson's 20-year bowl streak is the longest in the ACC and the fourth-longest in the country.

LONGEST ACTIVE BOWL STREAKS

Sixteen coaches on the list are College Football Hall of Famers. The other four include two who are still active (Swinney and Smart), one who remains on ballots (Coker) and one who did not coach long enough to meet the 10-year coaching threshold to qualify (Carroll). Swinney holds a total of nine career victories over five coaches on the list, including two each over Bob Stoops, Nick Saban, Urban Meyer and Steve Spurrier and one over Bobby Bowden.

Despite not reaching No. 1 until 1981, Clemson has been No. 1 in 25 polls all-time, 16th-most of any program.

DEATH VALLEY ROARS

Frank Howard Field at Memorial Stadium garnered its famous nickname in the 1940s when Presbyterian College Head Coach Lonnie McMillian, after many years of bringing his teams in for drubbings, dubbed the venue as "Death Valley."

The name stuck, and its patrons have done their part to make it live up to its name and its reputation. In the first 11 years of the College Football Playoff era from 2014-24, Clemson's home atmosphere helped draw 157 false starts by opponents, the second-most of any home venue in the country and the most by a power conference program.

-- NO. 0 WR ANTONIO WILLIAMS --

NO. 0 BECOMES NO. 1 TARGET IN 2024

Antonio Williams earned first-team Freshman All-America honors in 2022 after he caught 56 passes for 604 yards with four touchdowns over 14 games (10 starts). Injury befell Williams in his sophomore season in 2023, as he was limited by an ankle injury to only four regular season games in his second season before returning to play a pivotal role in Clemson's come-from-behind Gator Bowl win against Kentucky.

In the offseason to follow, Head Coach Dabo Swinney praised Williams' maturity and laser focus and said the now-redshirt sophomore was in for a big year in 2024. The head coach's prognostication proved correct. Williams started every game for Clemson and developed into a bona fide top target for Clemson with career highs in every receiving category in 2024.

Williams tied Miami's Xavier Restrepo for the ACC lead in receiving touchdowns in 2024 and finished tied for seventh in that category nationally.

Williams' versatility was on display in 2024. In addition to posting double-digit touchdown catches, Williams rushed for a touchdown and threw another. Williams' 2024 season marked only the ninth time since 1969 that a Clemson player has passed for a touchdown, rushed for a touchdown and caught a touchdown in a single season, joining Sammy Watkins (2012), C.J. Spiller (2008 and 2009), Jacoby Ford (2009), Ray Williams (1985), Charlie Waters (1969) and Ray Yauger (1969).

CAREER LEADERBOARDS

Williams returned to Clemson in 2025 in reach of the school record for career receiving touchdowns of 27 shared by Clemson legends and NFL standouts DeAndre Hopkins, Sammy Watkins and Tee Higgins.

Williams entered 2025 with at least one catch in all 33 career games he played in his first three seasons on campus. That came to an end in the 2025 season opener when an early injury limited him to only five snaps against LSU. His streak of 33 consecutive games with a catch from 2022-24 was the seventh-longest streak in Clemson history.

VERSATILITY

Williams' production in the passing game hasn't been limited to the receiving end of throws.

Williams has thrown four career passes, going 4-for-4 for 143 yards and two touchdowns for a career pass efficiency rating of 565.3. His 565.3 pass efficiency rating is the highest by a Clemson passer with multiple attempts on record.

Williams opened Clemson's Oct. 4 win at North Carolina with a 75-yard touchdown pass on the game's first play from scrimmage. It was his second career touchdown pass, making him the first non-quarterback to throw multiple career touchdown passes for Clemson since C.J. Spiller from 2006-09.

Williams has thrown two of Clemson's 19 touchdown passes delivered by non-quarterbacks since 1953.

Klubnik has helped engineer three fourth-quarter comeback wins, including two as a starter:

- vs. Syracuse (2022): Entered in relief of DJ Uiagalelei and became the first backup quarterback to engineer a fourth-quarter comeback win for Clemson since 2018 (Chase Brice vs. Syracuse).

- vs. Kentucky (2023): Went 8-for-8 as he led Clemson on a 12-play, 68-yard game-winning drive in 2:17 of elapsed game time as Clemson earned its largest fourth-quarter comeback win in a bowl game in school history in the 2023 Gator Bowl.

- at Pitt (2024): After Clemson was held to only 27 yards in the first 28 minutes of the second half, Klubnik got the ball with 1:36 remaining and engineered a three-play, 75-yard drive that he finished by rushing for a game-winning 50-yard touchdown with 1:16 remaining.

- Notes: Klubnik recorded a game-winning drive in the 2024 ACC Championship Game against SMU, but the game was tied at the time and Clemson never trailed in the contest. Klubnik also helped Clemson overcome a 16-point first-half deficit against Troy in 2025, though Clemson's third-quarter surge gave the Tigers the lead prior to the fourth quarter.

300-YARD GAMES

Klubnik is one of eight quarterbacks in Clemson history to record multiple 300-yard passing games. His nine career 300-yard games rank fourth in school history.

With his first rushing touchdown of the 2025 season at Georgia Tech, Klubnik joined Nealon Greene (1994-97), Charlie Whitehurst (2002-05), Tajh Boyd (2010-13) and Kelly Bryant (2015-18) as the only Clemson quarterbacks to rush for a touchdown in four different seasons since Clemson transitioned away from the single wing in 1953.

A year earlier, Klubnik's seven rushing touchdowns included long touchdown runs of 55 yards against NC State, 34 yards against Stanford and a game-winning 50-yarder at Pitt. Klubnik's 50-yard rushing touchdown at Pitt was Clemson's longest game-winning offensive touchdown inside the final two minutes of a game on record. Klubnik became the first Clemson player to record multiple 50-yard rushing touchdowns in a single season since Travis Etienne in 2019 (two), and he also became the first Clemson quarterback to record multiple 50-yard rushing touchdowns in a career since Woodrow Dantzler (three from 1999-2001).

2024 IN REVIEW

Klubnik took a major leap in his second full season as a starter in 2024. As a junior, he completed 308-of-486 passes for 3,639 yards with 36 passing touchdowns and added career highs with 463 yards and seven touchdowns on 119 rushing attempts.

Klubnik combined for 4,100 yards of total offense and 43 total touchdowns while committing only seven turnovers. Research by ESPN.com's David Hale illustrated that Klubnik became only the eighth quarterback to reach those thresholds in the College Football Playoff era. The other seven all finished in the Top 4 in Heisman voting, including five Heisman winners.

FROM THE SIDELINE TO THE STAGE

Klubnik's national breakout came in the 2022 ACC Championship Game against North Carolina. He entered the game on Clemson's third possession and completed 20-of-24 passes for 279 yards and a passing touchdown and added seven carries for 30 yards and a rushing touchdown. His 83.3 completion percentage set an ACC Championship Game record and led to his selection as the game's Most Valuable Player in Clemson's 39-10 victory. He became the third freshman (and second true freshman) in the game's history to earn the honor.

Two years later, Klubnik repeated as ACC Championship Game MVP in a 34-31 win against SMU. He joined Virginia Tech's Tyrod Taylor and Clemson's Deshaun Watson as the only two-time MVPs in ACC Championship Game history.

Beyond this trio, the only other players in a current power conference to win multiple conference championship MVP awards are Michigan State's Connor Cook (2013 and 2015), Oklahoma's Sam Bradford (2007 and 2008) and Oklahoma's Malcolm Kelly (2004 and 2006).

-- NO. 8 RB ADAM RANDALL --

WHO'S NEXT AT RUNNING BACK?

Clemson entered 2025 with a relative rarity in the Dabo Swinney era: public unknowns at running back.

Under Swinney, the Tigers have enjoyed a run of feature backs that has included C.J. Spiller, Andre Ellington, Wayne Gallman, Travis Etienne, Will Shipley and Phil Mahaf among a bevy of other substantial contributors.

With both members of the Shipley/Mahaf duo from Clemson's 2021 recruiting class now having matriculated to the NFL, outside observers were curious to see who would helm Clemson's rushing attack in 2025.

Adam Randall seized the role prior to Week 1 and has been a bright spot and an emerging star for Clemson's offense. Randall is in his first season at running back after spending his first three seasons at Clemson at wide receiver. A 41-yard kickoff return as an emergency contributor in the 2024 ACC Championship Game against SMU sparked the idea of the position switch, and he contributed at running back in a pinch in the 2024 College Football Playoff and ripped off a 41-yard run at Texas before making the full-time transition this past offseason.

RANDALL'S HOT START

Before being held out of the end zone in Clemson's seventh game of the season, Randall scored at least one touchdown in each of Clemson's first six games in 2025, becoming the first Clemson player to reach the end zone in each of the first six games of a campaign since Travis Etienne in 2018. Randall, Etienne, C.J. Spiller (2009) and Bill Mathis (1959) are the only Clemson players to accomplish the feat in records back to 1938.

Randall's position coach, C.J. Spiller, holds the Clemson record for the most consecutive games with a touchdown to start a season when he scored in all 14 games of Clemson's 2009 campaign.

OUT OF THE BACKFIELD

Randall recorded two touchdown receptions in his first three seasons at Clemson as a wide receiver from 2022-24. Randall then exceeded that total this season in a two-game span with three combined receiving touchdowns against Syracuse and North Carolina.

Randall is two touchdowns shy of the Clemson single-season record for touchdown receptions by a running back since the Tigers transitioned away from the single wing in 1953.

RB PRODUCTION SINCE 2015

Randall is seeking to continue Clemson's recent run of high-scoring backs over the last decade. Entering 2025, Clemson had a running back reach double digits in rushing touchdowns in nine of the previous 10 seasons. Clemson's nine seasons with a running back scoring 10 or more rushing touchdowns in that span are the most in the country.

DYNAMIC DUO

There was no shortage of contributing factors to Clemson's leap in passing efficiency and explosiveness from 2023 and 2024, but notable among them was the arrival of T.J. Moore and Bryant Wesco Jr. in 2024. While Moore's late-season surge was a bit too belated to garner national recognition, Wesco collected Freshman All-America honors from 247Sports, PFF, ESPN, The Athletic and the FWAA.

The duo ranked in the top six nationally in receiving yards by freshmen.

8.	Cam Coleman	Auburn	37	598
9.	Joseph Williams	Tulsa	30	588
10.	Nyziyah Hunter	California	40	578

Moore and Wesco became the first freshman duo in a power conference to each record at least 650 receiving yards and at least five touchdown catches in a single season since at least 2000. Expanded to include the full FBS, the only other schools in that span to accomplish the feat were the 2005 Hawaii Warriors and the 2007 Tulsa Golden Hurricane. They made Clemson the only school with multiple 650-yard freshman receivers in the nation in 2024.

100-YARD GAMES IN 2025

Wesco reached the century mark in two of Clemson's first three games this season. He recorded 118 yards against Troy and 126 yards against Georgia Tech, becoming the first Clemson player with consecutive 100-yard receiving games since Cornell Powell against Notre Dame and Pitt in 2020.

Moore added his first 100-yard effort of the season on Oct. 4 with a five-catch, 108-yard performance highlighted by a 75-yard score on the game's opening play from scrimmage. Wesco added a 106-yard performance at Boston College on Oct. 11, and Moore contributed a 124-yard effort vs. SMU on Oct. 18, giving the duo a 100-yard performance in all three of Clemson's October games.

Wide receiver Antonio Williams added his first 100-yard game of the season on Nov. 1 against Duke. His performance gave Clemson a 100-yard receiver in four consecutive games for the first time since 2016 when five players reached the mark over a four-game span against NC State, Florida State, Syracuse and Pitt.

PRODUCTION THROUGH SIX GAMES

Wesco was lost for the remainder of the 2025 season when he sustained a scary back injury vs. SMU that required hospitalization after he landed on his head and neck while being flipped on a punt return.

Prior to that seventh game of the season, Wesco had produced one of Clemson's most productive first six games of a campaign of the last 30 years. The only Clemson player in that span with more touchdown catches through the first half-dozen games of a campaign was DeAndre Hopkins in 2012, a season in which Hopkins finished the year with an ACC-record 18 touchdown catches.

WESCO'S MEMORABLE START IN 2024

Last season, Wesco recorded one catch in 12 snaps in Clemson's 2024 season opener, as missed opportunities and inefficiency by Clemson — combined with a condensed contest that featured the fewest combined snaps (112) in a Clemson game since 2006 — limited his involvement in his collegiate debut as a true freshman. Afterward, Clemson's coaches vowed to involve him more the following week.

Consider that vow fulfilled. In his second career game, Wesco caught three passes for 130 yards and a touchdown against Appalachian State, tying the Clemson record for the fewest games needed to record a 100-yard receiving game.

-- NO. 17 QB CHRISTOPHER VIZZINA --

CV'S STARTING DEBUT

Commonly referred to by his initials "CV," redshirt sophomore quarterback Christopher Vizzina was thrust into his starting debut on Oct. 18 against SMU while Cade Klubnik recovered from an ankle injury.

Vizzina became the 49th different player to start a game at quarterback since Clemson abandoned the single wing in 1953. Despite the performance coming in a defeat, the Alabama native played valiantly in his first career start, completing 29-of-42 passes for 317 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions for a pass efficiency rating of 156.0.

Clemson is 28-20-1 in starting quarterback debuts since 1953.

TIGHT END PRODUCTION

Clemson lost its school record holder for career receptions by a tight end over the 2025 offseason when Jake Briningstool graduated and signed with the Kansas City Chiefs. Briningstool caught 127 career passes for 1,380 yards and 17 touchdowns over 48 career games.

Clemson's current group of tight ends will seek to continue the unit's production that has seen the tight end group post 60-plus catches in each of the last three seasons, a first in the Dabo Swinney era.

A VETERAN UNIT IN 2025

Clemson received instant impact from the addition of veteran offensive line coach Matt Luke in his first full season at Clemson in 2024. In his second full season with the Tigers in 2025, he returned an exceedingly veteran unit that returns four of its five primary starters and boasts seven players who have started at least one game for Clemson.

The unit includes two of Clemson's recent iron men. Blake Miller entered his senior season already ranked in the Top 10 in school history in career snaps from scrimmage. Prior to 2025, the two-time All-ACC selection started every game for Clemson at right tackle from 2021-23, and he became the first offensive lineman to start every game played by Clemson during his freshman, sophomore and junior campaigns without the benefit of a redshirt year since starting center Ralph Jenkins from 1943-45.

Miller plays alongside a remarkable comeback story in Walker Parks, who started all 14 games for Clemson in 2024 after missing the majority of the 2022 and 2023 seasons with career-threatening ankle injuries. A veteran of 53 games and 42 starts from 2020-24, Parks is a self-professed Clemson lifer who said of Clemson, "If there were no eligibility [rules], I would stay here forever," a maxim validated by his decision to utilize an extra year of eligibility for a sixth season in 2025.

Clemson's other two returning primary starters include one of the team's foremost leaders and one of its active parables of patience. Left tackle Tristan Leigh started 23 games over the two previous seasons, and his progression from five-star recruit to off-radar redshirt to trusted contributor has given him stature and respect as one of the team's most trusted leaders. Center Ryan Linthicum, meanwhile, was one of Clemson's revelations of 2024. Last spring, the then-career backup was entering his fourth year with limited experience, and he was given spring practice to audition for the role before Clemson sought veteran help at the position. Instead, Linthicum seized the role, starting all 14 games for Clemson and playing 982 snaps from scrimmage, the most of any Clemson player in 2024.

Though depth and injuries combined to limit them to four combined starts in 2024, redshirt junior Collin Sadler and junior Harris Sewell entered 2025 with a combined 40 games and 14 starts of experience along the Tiger offensive line. Sadler provides versatility across the four tackle and guard positions, while Sewell offers tremendous value as a versatile interior piece across the center and guard spots.

Clemson had a breakout young star's trajectory take a brief detour in late 2024. As a true freshman, Elijah Thurmon impressed when called upon to play 74 outstanding snaps in reserve on the road at Virginia Tech last year, and he earned a start the following week before being lost for the remainder of the season on the game's opening play from scrimmage. Whether as a starter or rotational piece, Thurmon stands primed to be a significant fixture on Clemson's line for the next several seasons.

O-LINE EXPERIENCE BREAKDOWN

Clemson's full offensive line group entered the 2025 season with a combined 249 game appearances, 135 starts and 10,403 career offensive snaps.

ALL-CONFERENCE O-LINEMEN

Since 2015, Clemson has produced a total of 32 All-ACC selections along the offensive line, including 12 first-team honors. Clemson's 32 all-conference selections by offensive linemen are an ACC high and the second-most of any power conference program. Clemson also ranks tied for third nationally in first-team selections in that span.

SportSource Analytics produces an Offensive Line Efficiency metric that takes into account tackle for loss percentages, sack percentages, percentages of rushes gaining 4+ yards and success on third-or-fourth-and-short. Clemson is among the national leaders in that total metric since 2015.

OFFENSIVE LINE EFFICIENCY SINCE 2015

TRENCH WARFARE

Clemson's success in its 83-22 run since 2018 has been powered in part at the line of scrimmage, where Clemson holds a 325-171 edge over opponents in sacks in that time frame. Clemson's +154 margin in sacks since 2018 is the highest differential in the country.

-- NO. 3 DE T.J. PARKER --

PARKER'S PROLIFIC 2024 SEASON

As a sophomore in 2024, defensive end T.J. Parker posted 64 tackles (19.5 for loss), 11.0 sacks, a school-record six forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and a pass breakup while starting all 14 games for the Tigers. He finished the year as the only player in the nation to rank in the Top 10 nationally in forced fumbles (six, T-2nd), tackles for loss (19.5, 5th) and sacks (11.0, 9th).

Parker's junior season in 2025 is being played under the tutelage of new Clemson Defensive Coordinator Tom Allen. A year ago, Allen led Penn State defensive end Abdul Carter to unanimous All-America honors and the No. 3 overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft. Carter's 2024 campaign bore a number of statistical similarities to Parker's.

Though he did not garner first-team all-conference honors from the ACC, Parker earned All-America honorable mention recognition from Phil Steele after he broke the Clemson single-season school record for forced fumbles in a season (six), surpassing Brandon Maye's five from 2009. His six forced fumbles finished tied for second in the nation and tied for the national lead among power conference players.

PARKER'S RECORD DAY AT PITT IN 2024

Parker put together one of the most dominant defensive performances in school history in Clemson's 2024 game at Pitt, collecting seven tackles, 5.0 tackles for loss, a school-record-tying 4.0 sacks, his fourth forced fumble of the season and a pass breakup.

Parker earned ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week, Bednarik Award National Player of the Week and Walter Camp Defensive Player of the Week for his performance.

	Austin Bryant (2017)	Auburn	4.0
	Andre Branch (2011)	Virginia Tech	4.0
	Keith Adams (1999)	Duke	4.0

His 4.0 sacks tied for the most of any FBS player in a single game that season. His 5.0 tackles for loss in that game ranked tied for second.

Parker's record day powered Clemson's season highs with eight sacks and 16 tackles for loss in the contest. Clemson's 16 tackles for loss tied for fourth-most in program history and its eight sacks tied for eighth.

WE SEE YOU, T.J. 🙏🏽

Parker emphatically announced his arrival as a freshman in 2023 when he set a Clemson true freshman record with 12.5 tackles for loss. That total tied for the national lead in tackles for loss among freshmen.

Parker initially committed to Penn State but coveted a Clemson offer. He decommitted from the Nittany Lions in hopes of soliciting Clemson, and Clemson's 2023 recruiting class immediately went to work.

"CV [Christopher Vizzina], Peter [Woods] and a few other guys on the team, they hit me up with the eyes emoji on Instagram," Parker said. "It was like, 'You know what time it is.' I texted Coach Ski [Then-Clemson Defensive Ends Coach Lemanski Hall] the eyes emoji, the same thing they sent me, and from there we got in contact and a few days later they offered and I committed."

-- NO. 8 CB AVIEON TERRELL --

IMPACT STARTER

Avieon Terrell made his first start at Clemson on Nov. 4, 2023, when he was inserted into the lineup as a true freshman in Clemson's 31-23 home upset of Notre Dame. Beginning that day, Terrell has started every game for Clemson, including the final five games of 2023, all 14 games in 2024 and every game to date in 2025.

As part of his all-conference campaign in 2024, Terrell recorded three forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and two interceptions. He became the first Clemson player under Dabo Swinney to finish a season with at least three forced fumbles, multiple interceptions and multiple fumble recoveries.

Terrell added three forced fumbles over Clemson's first five games of the 2025 season. His six career forced fumbles are the most by a Clemson defensive back since Byron Maxwell's six from 2007-10. Terrell leads the nation in forced fumbles by a cornerback since his first start on Nov. 4, 2023.

-- NO. 17 LB WADE WOODAZ --

OPENING A CAN OF WOODAZ

In each of linebacker Wade Woodaz's first three seasons at Clemson, the Tampa product has watched as one of his linebacker counterparts earned All-America recognition, including honors for Barrett Carter in 2022 and 2024 and for Jeremiah Trotter Jr. in 2022 and 2023. Head Coach Dabo Swinney was quick though to warn observers not to overlook Woodaz.

"He's a baller," Swinney said. "The kid is tough, physical, he can really run. He really understands the game at a high level. He played most of his [prep] career as a quarterback and as a safety, so he has a great understanding of the game. He plays really, really hard; he's a great effort guy, he's a great preparer and he loves it. He's a fun guy to coach and a fun guy to watch play because he plays the way you want everybody to play."

Though Clemson's linebacker corps in 2024 included All-American Barrett Carter and ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year Sammy Brown, it was Woodaz who led the team in tackles, a feat he accomplished despite missing two games with a leg contusion. Coaches credited Woodaz with 89 stops, 10 tackles for loss, 3.0 sacks, six pass breakups, three forced fumbles and an interception.

Woodaz was one of six power conference players to record double-digit tackles for loss, three or more forced fumbles and an interception in 2024 (Texas' Anthony Hill Jr. and Colin Simmons, Indiana's Jailin Walker, UCLA's Kain Medrano and Texas Tech's Jacob Rodriguez). He also became the first Clemson player credited with at least 75 tackles and at least three forced fumbles since Isaiah Simmons in 2018.

-- NO. 47 LB SAMMY BROWN --

SAMMY'S SENSATIONAL START

Linebacker Sammy Brown arrived at Clemson in January 2024 as a consensus Top 30 player in his recruiting class and as the nation's reigning High School Butkus Award winner.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney praised Brown as an "alpha," but spoke frequently about Brown's learning curve at the linebacker position after playing both running back and linebacker at Jefferson High School in Commerce, Ga. The linebacker tabbed as 247Sports' No. 1 "freak athlete" in the 2024 recruiting class proved to be a quick study, appearing in all 14 games for Clemson with six starts.

After Clemson opened its first eight games of 2024 in two-linebacker sets, Brown earned his first start at Virginia Tech in November that year as Clemson opened the game with three linebackers. The former five-star prospect delivered, recording a team-high eight tackles (per the gameday stat crew) with 2.5 tackles for loss and a sack.

"Sammy's been getting better and better and better and it was awesome to see him have that type of game," Swinney said after Brown's performance at Virginia Tech. "He's just a confident young man, and, boy, he's got a bright future ahead of him. He's going to be a great one."

Despite playing only 444 defensive snaps over 14 games in 2024, Brown ranked second in the nation in tackles for loss among freshmen.

3.	Dylan Stewart	South Carolina	10.5
4.	Jawaun Campbell	Jacksonville State	8.0
5.	Jo'Laison Landry	Texas State	7.5

Along with Barrett Carter (10.5) and Wade Woodaz (10.0), Brown gave Clemson three linebackers with double-digit tackles for loss for the first time since 2016 (Kendall Joseph, Ben Boulware and Dorian O'Daniel).

Brown ranked third in Clemson history in tackles for loss by a true freshman and fourth among that group in sacks.

MEET THE NEW GUYS

- WR Tristan Smith (signed Dec. 18): Smith joined Clemson after playing the 2024 season at Southeast Missouri State, helping the Redhawks to a first-place finish in the Big South-OVC Football Association and a berth in the Football Championship Subdivision playoffs. The 2024 all-conference honoree played in SEMO's final 11 games of the season, catching 76 passes for 934 yards and six touchdown receptions in addition to rushing for one touchdown.

- DE Will Heldt (signed Dec. 19): Heldt signed with Clemson after playing his first two collegiate seasons at Purdue, appearing in all 24 games for the Boilermakers from 2023-24. As a sophomore in 2024, gameday stat crews credited Heldt with 56 tackles (10.0 for loss), 5.0 sacks and a fumble recovery he returned 16 yards for a touchdown. He recorded 2.5 sacks and the 16-yard scoop-and-score in back-to-back games against ranked opponents Illinois and Oregon in October.

- LB Jeremiah Alexander (signed Jan. 8): Alexander played his first three collegiate seasons at Alabama from 2022-24. Following a redshirt year in 2022 in which he appeared in three games, Alexander played in 24 of the Crimson Tide's 27 games across the 2023-24 seasons and was credited with eight tackles in those contests. In high school, he led Alabama's Thompson High School to the 2021 state championship (alongside current Clemson defensive lineman Peter Woods) as a consensus five-star recruit across most major outlets and ranked among the nation's top 50 players in his class.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney expounded on Clemson's strategy for the three winter transfer additions:

"As I've always said, we do what's best for Clemson. We'll use the portal whenever we need it and we'll be strategic with it. We needed it four years ago; we needed a backup quarterback and we got one. The next year, we needed a backup quarterback and we got one and he was here for two years.

"This year, we didn't anticipate signing a defensive line portal guy. We had two great ones committed and we were taking two. But as y'all know, things can change in recruiting. We had a young man back out and decide to go somewhere else, so there wasn't anybody left to recruit that could fill the need. Now we [had] a gap so we had to go use the portal and we needed a high-level guy and we got the guy I wanted to hit [Heldt].

"From a receiver standpoint, we had two guys go in the portal, and so we had a gap. We needed to go get a guy, and we needed somebody that could come in and help us with our depth and come in and compete and we found a great kid in Tristan out in Southeast Missouri. We were looking for a little length, and high school recruiting was over; there was nobody to get. We needed to go get a guy.

"And then the linebacker situation, honestly, we weren't really going to take a 'backer. We knew we needed another guy. Logan Anderson, our signee, tore his ACL. Kobe [McCloud], his situation [rehabbing from a knee injury]. We knew we probably needed another guy, but we were going to wait until May. And then Jeremiah popped up. We knew all about him, obviously recruited him hard, knew his family. That was a really good situation that worked out for us.

"That's really it. Nothing different. I know everybody likes to write about it, but our process is still the same. We're going to recruit high school kids as long as we can get the best of the best. As long as we can get the Gideon Davidsons of the world and the Sammy Browns of the world and the T.J. Parkers and Peter Woods and Cade Klubniks, that's what we're going to do, and we're going to develop... And then we have to respond if we have a situation and we have a gap in our roster or we have kids that leave. For us, that's how we use the portal, but the process isn't any different. They've still got to be the right fit, they've got to check all the boxes, they can't just be a good player. No different than our high school recruiting."

CFP-ERA DEFENSIVE TRACK RECORD

Clemson has a track record of producing one of the nation's top defenses in most seasons since the advent of the College Football Playoff in 2014.

Clemson ranked in the Top 30 in the country in total defense in each of the first 10 seasons of the CFP era and also ranked among the Top 30 in scoring defense in those 10 campaigns (including five Top 5 finishes in the category).

CLEMSON DEFENSE SINCE 2014

2024	374.1	69	23.4	49

Clemson's defensive anomaly in 2024 led to a change in leadership, as the Tigers plucked Penn State Defensive Coordinator Tom Allen for Clemson's defensive coordinator position immediately following the Nittany Lions' exit from the College Football Playoff. Allen now leads a Clemson defense that tied for the national lead in Top 10 finishes in average yards allowed per game in the College Football Playoff era.

ALLEN IS ALL IN

Clemson officially announced Tom Allen as its new defensive coordinator on Jan. 14.

"Tom checked every box that I was looking for," Head Coach Dabo Swinney said. "We've got a great football coach — and a great leader of men — coming to Clemson... He brings a ton of experience and was highly recommended by some of the best people in this business. He is obviously coming off of a great year as the defensive coordinator at Penn State, and we're excited to welcome him as our defensive coordinator here at Clemson."

Allen joined the Tigers with more than three decades of coaching experience. In 2024, he helped Penn State to a school-record 13 wins and a College Football Playoff berth. His defense recorded two pick-sixes in Penn State's 38-10 win against SMU in the College Football Playoff First Round, and in the following game, his unit bottled up Heisman runner-up Ashton Jeanty, holding the star running back to a season-low 3.47 yards per carry and no touchdowns in a 31-14 Penn State victory in the CFP Quarterfinal at Fiesta Bowl.

Penn State finished seventh in the nation in total defense (294.8 yards per game) and eighth in the nation in scoring defense (16.5 points per game) under Allen's guidance in 2024.

300 OR FEWER YARDS

Clemson has held opponents under 300 yards of offense 52 times since the start of the 2018 season, fourth-most in the country.

BACKFIELD INVADERS

Clemson's defense calls Death Valley home but might as well file for dual residency in opponents' backfields. Since 2012, Clemson leads the nation in both sacks and tackles for loss.

In September 2023, Clemson became the first program in the country to record 500 sacks since the start of the 2012 season. In October 2025, Clemson also became the first program to reach 1,500 tackles for loss in that span.

DEFENSIVE TOUCHDOWNS

In 2024, Clemson extended its streak of scoring multiple defensive touchdowns to 15 straight seasons. The last time Clemson had fewer than two defensive touchdowns in a season was 2009, Dabo Swinney's first full season as head coach, when the Tigers supplemented a single defensive touchdown with six special teams touchdowns.

WHO'S YOUR HAUSER?

Placekicker Nolan Hauser arrived at Clemson in January 2024 as the national high school record-holder for career field goals made (66) during his career at Hough High School in Cornelius, N.C.

Hauser (pronounced HOO-zer, not HOW-zer) opened his career with a streak of 25 consecutive made kicks (five field goals & 20 PATs) in 2024 before a blocked PAT against Stanford accounted for his first miss.

A week later at Florida State, Hauser made five field goals and accounted for 17 total points in Clemson's 16-point road win. The five-field-goal performance by Hauser was Clemson's first since Chandler Catanzaro went 5-for-5 on field goal attempts against Boston College in 2011.

	Nelson Welch	1994	North Carolina	5
	Chandler Catanzaro	2011	Boston College	5
	Nolan Hauser	2024	Florida State	5

Hauser's six points against Virginia Tech in November 2024 gave him the school record for points in a true freshman season, breaking the previous mark of 78 set by Sammy Watkins in 2011. In the ACC Championship Game, he reached the century mark to post the first 100-point season by a true freshman in Clemson history.

Hauser's 113-point 2024 season ranked tied for sixth in Clemson history in kicking points scored in a single season and tied for ninth in school history in points scored by any means in a single season.

Hauser is a second-generation Clemson student-athlete. His mother, Sheri Hauser (née Bueter), was an All-American soccer player at Clemson from 1994-97, and his father, Scott, played baseball at Clemson in from 1995-97 and was 6-2 as a pitcher on Clemson's College World Series team of 1996. His sister, Ella, was also a member of Clemson's women's soccer team from 2021-24.

HAUSER'S HIGHLIGHT

Though the pronunciation of his last name often trips up observers, Hauser made his name much more nationally recognizable with the seminal highlight of the 2024 ACC Championship Game.

In what Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney called "the biggest kick in Clemson history," the true freshman booted a 56-yard game winning field goal as time expired to give Clemson its 22nd ACC title, its 10th win of the season and its seventh College Football Playoff berth. Of note:

- Hauser's field goal gave Clemson the first walk-off win in ACC Championship Game history.

- Hauser became the first Clemson player to kick a game-winning walk-off field goal since Chandler Catanzaro hit a 37-yard field goal to beat LSU to end the 2012 Chick-Fil-A Bowl.

- Hauser's 56-yard field goal was the longest game-winning field goal as time expired in Clemson history.

- Hauser's career-long 56-yard field goal was the fourth-longest field goal in Clemson history but its longest away from Death Valley. It was also the longest field goal in postseason play in Clemson history.

- Hauser became the first FBS player ever to win a conference championship game by kicking a field goal of 50 or more yards as time expired.

- The game-winning field goal came in Hauser's home metro area, as his hometown of Cornelius, N.C. is roughly 20 miles north of Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte.

THE OTHER SWINNEY DYNASTY

Like the Colquitt family punting at Tennessee, the Swinney family holding for placekicks at Clemson has become a dynasty of its own.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's oldest son, Will, arrived at Clemson in 2017 and immediately earned Clemson's starting holder position on placekicks. He played five seasons and a record-tying 69 games at Clemson through 2021. In those five seasons, Clemson scored 565 points on placekicks, including field goals and PATs, and he held for 555 of those 565 points. The only 10 Clemson kicking points not held by Will in his career were instead held by his brother, Drew, who was Clemson's starter at the position in 2022.

Will and Drew were succeeded by the youngest of the three Swinney boys, Clay, a redshirt junior in his third season as Clemson's starting holder in 2025. Clay's presence creates a plausible scenario in which every Clemson placekick in a full 10-year span from 2017-26 could be held by a Swinney.

Clemson's last hold by any player outside the Swinney family was on the final point of Clemson's 2016 national championship, as Seth Ryan, coincidentally also the son of a famous long-time coach (Rex Ryan), held the PAT following Hunter Renfrow's game-winning touchdown with one second remaining.

Note: Listed points only reflect kicking points on held field goals or PATs. Will scored 12 additional points, six via receiving touchdown on offense and six via rushing touchdown on a fake field goal; Drew and Clay each scored two additional points on a fake PAT.

Clemson's 2024 win against Stanford marked Clemson's 100th consecutive game with a Swinney as holder, a game that ironically resulted in Dabo Swinney's 100th career home win at Memorial Stadium.

The family crossed 800 kicking points held for in the contest as well.

DEFEATS IN REVIEW

Clemson has lost 26 games since 2015, the fourth-fewest in the nation in that span. Eleven of Clemson's 26 losses since 2015 — 42.3 percent — have come against AP Top 10 teams.

The opponents to whom Clemson has lost since 2015 have a combined final record of 239-85, a winning percentage of .738. Clemson has not lost to a team that finished with a losing record since 2017 and has not lost to a team with a losing record at the time of the game since losing to 2-5 Boston College in 2010, Dabo Swinney's second full season as head coach.

Under Swinney, Clemson is also 38-9 in games in which it enters ranked lower in the AP Poll than it did in its previous contest. This includes the 2014, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2021 season openers in which Clemson opened the season lower than its ranking from the final game of the previous campaign.

WINNING ONE-POSSESSION GAMES

Since 2011, the Tigers have played 55 games with a final margin of eight or fewer points, and Clemson's .727 winning percentage in those one-possession contests is the best in the country in that time frame.

Clemson's +16 turnover margin in 2024 ranked eighth in school history. It was the team's top turnover margin in a season under Dabo Swinney, surpassing its +15 mark in 2019.

Clemson struggled mightily with giveaways in 2023 en route to its first four-loss season since 2011. The Tigers then rebounded in ball security amid a College Football Playoff berth in 2024, but Clemson has been playing catch-up in turnover-related categories for much of 2025.

OFFENSIVE BALANCE

Clemson fielded one of the nation's most balanced offenses from 2018-24, averaging 264 passing yards per game and 191 rushing yards per game in that span. Clemson was one of only six teams nationally to average at least 260 passing yards and at least 190 rushing yards on a per-game basis in that time frame.

Clemson was held without a rushing touchdown in its 34-21 home loss to Syracuse on Sept. 20. Prior to that game, Clemson had an active streak of 62 consecutive home games with a rushing touchdown at Death Valley. Before Syracuse accomplished the feat this year, the last team to hold Clemson out of the Memorial Stadium end zones on the ground was Troy in the 2016 home opener.

MIND THE "MIDDLE EIGHT"

Since 2015, Clemson's most successful teams have frequently won one of the hidden "games within the game" on each side of halftime. SportSource Analytics tracks the "Middle Eight," the section of the game defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Clemson has outscored opponents in that time window 82 times since 2015, posting a 78-4 record in those contests.

The approach to creating functional depth and rewarding players ready to play has been a key philosophy for Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose own collegiate playing career was hatched as a walk-on fighting for playing time in Alabama's receiving corps.

"We're fully committed to playing guys who deserve to play," Swinney said. "You commit to a guy early in the season, and even if a guy has only played 10 percent of the snaps, when you get to game eight or nine, they've got some good experience."

In a statistic unlikely to be challenged in the wake of upcoming NCAA roster limits, Clemson has played 100+ players in a game six times under Dabo Swinney.

FINISH

In 2018, Clemson debuted a new version of its "This is Why We Work" fourth quarter video at Death Valley, a hype video imploring the team to finish and featuring Director of Strength and Conditioning Joey Batson bellowing:

"Let me tell you something right now: they don't put championship rings on smooth hands! You gotta go earn it! You gotta go earn it six seconds at a time! You win championships when the stadium is empty, when the band ain't playing, when the cheerleaders ain't cheering, when it's just you and your brothers right beside you. That's when you win championships! In the fourth quarter, that is when we shine!"

The video and the speech became a part of Clemson lore, buoyed by its playing during Clemson's comeback win against Syracuse that year en route to a 15-0 national championship season. Over the years, the video has changed but the speech remains the same, with many Clemson fans yelling it in unison as it plays.

Clemson holds a 165-10 record under Dabo Swinney when leading after three quarters, including a 149-7 mark since 2011.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

- Entering the 2025 fall semester, of the 410 eligible players who completed their athletic eligibility at Clemson and/or graduated early in Dabo Swinney's 16+ full years as head coach, 404 (98.5 percent) have earned a degree during their time at Clemson.

- Clemson earned the AFCA Academic Achievement Award for 2024. The award was Clemson's fourth in the last seven years, but it was Clemson's fourth in the last five years that the honor was actually awarded, as the organization did not name recipients during a two-year period amid the COVID-19 pandemic.

- Clemson broke program multi-year NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) records in three straight years from 2017-19 (987 in 2016-17, 992 in 2017-18 and 993 in 2018-19) before the NCAA suspended APR reporting during the COVID-19 pandemic. Upon reinstatement of APR reporting in June 2022, Clemson shattered its multi-year APR record with a 999 covering the 2017-18 through 2020-21 academic years. Clemson has posted a 995 multi-year APR in each of the last three cycles.

- Most recently, Clemson posted a 995 multi-year APR covering 2020-21 through 2023-24, tied for fifth-best in the FBS. Clemson's lofty academic success in that period coincided with 40 wins in a four-year span and two ACC titles.

- Clemson and Northwestern are the only FBS programs to produce a 990+ multi-year APR in each of the last six reported cycles.

- Clemson is the only program in the country to have finished among the Top 25 in APR among FBS schools and the AP Top 25 in every reported APR cycle since 2011.

2024-25	Pending ('26)	Pending ('26)	14th

Notes: The NCAA suspended APR reporting for the 2019-20 academic year amid COVID-19, but Clemson's unreported APR would have again placed Clemson in the top 25 of FBS programs; APR data for 2024-25 will be published in spring 2026.

- Prior to the suspension of APR Public Recognition Awards following the COVID-19 pandemic, the NCAA recognized Clemson with its annual honor, which is bestowed upon programs ranking in the Top 10 percent of their respective sports, for nine of the award's last 10 reported academic cycles. Only 37 FBS programs earned at least one APR recognition across the 2009-10 through 2018-19 academic years. Only 30 programs earned it multiple times. Clemson, Duke and Northwestern were the only ones to earn the award 9+ times in that 10-year span.

- With its award for the 2018-19 academic year, Clemson became the only FBS program since the NCAA created the APR metric in 2003 to win a national championship and an APR Public Recognition Award in the same year multiple times. Alabama is the only other school to accomplish the title/APR double in a single year once (2011-12 academic year).

- A program-record 98 individuals earned a 3.0 GPA or better in Fall 2024. That included program-record 20 perfect 4.0s.

- Clemson set a record in Fall 2024 with the highest single-semester GPA in program history with a 3.19 team GPA. Clemson followed that up with a 3.18 spring semester.

- Entering the 2025 fall semester, Clemson has had 75+ individuals earn a 3.0 or better GPA in eight consecutive semesters.

HISTORIC GRADUATION SUCCESS RATE

Aided in part by historically elite academic performance by Clemson Football, Clemson Athletics tied for best in the NCAA among public Power Five institutions in Graduation Success Rate (GSR) with a 96 percent mark for the 2014-17 cohort in data released by the NCAA in November 2024.

Football reached a 99 percent mark for the second year in a row, again tying the highest GSR score for any Power Five football program, and tying the highest ever recorded among public Power Five football programs in the 20 years the NCAA has tracked the metric. Football trailed only Air Force and LIU (100 percent) in this release, and tied Columbia, Harvard and Northwestern.

The interest in watching Clemson play hasn't been limited to television broadcasts. Clemson continues to provide one of the marquee in-venue experiences in all of sports, as Clemson entered 2024 having been ranked in the Top 20 in the nation average home attendance at Memorial Stadium for 44 straight seasons.

2024 ALL-ACC SELECTIONS

A conference-best 10 Clemson players earned recognition on the ACC's annual squads recognizing the conference's best in 2024. With the honors, Clemson produced double-digit All-ACC selections for the ninth time in 10 seasons.

RELATIVELY SPEAKING

Clemson's 2025 roster has many connections to college and professional athletics. Below is a list of notable connections:

- Keith Adams Jr., RB: Son of Keith Adams, a Clemson Athletic Hall of Famer at linebacker for the Tigers from 1998-2000.
- Jamal Anderson, LB: Son of Jamal Anderson, an eight-year NFL running back who earned first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors in 1998 in helping the Falcons to a berth in Super Bowl XXXIII.
- Logan Brooking, TE: Son of 15-year NFL linebacker Keith Brooking, a five-time Pro Bowl selection who was 12th pick of the 1998 NFL Draft and remains the all-time leading tackler for both Georgia Tech and the Atlanta Falcons.
- Sammy Brown, LB: Son of former Furman football player Mike Brown.
- Vic Burley, DT: Cousin of Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Tackles Coach (and 10-year NFL veteran) Nick Eason.
- Brodey Conn, LS/P: Son of Defensive Pass Game Coordinator/Safeties Coach Mickey Conn.
- Ashton Hampton, CB: Son of University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff Head Coach Alonzo Hampton.
- Ronan Hanafin, S: Son of Dan Hanafin, who played quarterback at Boston University and was the program's starting quarterback in its final year in 1997; also the brother of Boston College quarterback Shane Hanafin.
- Nolan Hauser, PK: Son of two former Clemson athletes, including his mother, Sheri Hauser (née Bueter), an All-American soccer player at Clemson from 1994-97, and his father, Scott, who played baseball at Clemson from 1995-97 and was 6-2 as a pitcher on Clemson's College World Series team of 1996. He is the brother of recent Clemson women's soccer player Ella Hauser.
- Brayden Jacobs, OL: Son of nine-year NFL running back Brandon Jacobs, a two-time Super Bowl champion with the New York Giants who accrued more than 9,000 career rushing yards.
- Charlie Johnson, TE: Son of Ellis Johnson, a long-time college football coach who served as Clemson's defensive coordinator from 1994-96.
- Jaheim Lawson, DE: Brother of Shaq Lawson, a 2015 consensus All-American at Clemson and 2016 first-round pick.
- Tristan Leigh, OL: Son of Stan Leigh, who played running back at Virginia from 1990-94.
- Cade Klubnik, QB: Brother of Reed Klubnik, who played wide receiver at Yale from 2016-19.

- Armon Mason, DE: Son of Anthony Mason, who played 13 years in the NBA, earning an All-Star selection and an NBA Sixth Man of the Year Award; also a cousin of Atlanta Falcons All-Pro Grady Jarrett.

- Kobe McCloud, LB: Brother of former Clemson wide receiver Ray-Ray McCloud (2015-17); also brother of former USF/Arizona/James Madison/Texas State quarterback) Jordan McCloud.

- T.J. Moore, WR: Son of Terrance Moore Sr., a multi-time all-conference wide receiver at California University of Pennsylvania.

- Walker Parks, OL: Son of former Kentucky offensive lineman David Parks.

- Trent Pearman, QB: Son of former Clemson tight end and current Director of Football Scouting Danny Pearman.

- Ian Reed, OL, and Charlie Reed, PK/P: Sons of Eric Reed, a former member of the US Men's National Rugby Team.

- Collin Sadler, OL: Grandson of John Schroeder, a former All-America wide receiver at North Carolina who went on to play for the CFL's Hamilton Tiger-Cats.

- Clark Sanderson, WR: Son of former Alabama wide receiver Craig Sanderson (1988-90).

- Josh Sapp, TE: Son of former Clemson quarterback/defensive end Patrick Sapp (1992-95).

- Clay Swinney, WR: Son of Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney and brother of former Clemson wide receivers/holders Will Swinney and Drew Swinney.

- Caden Story, DL: Son of former Jacksonville State football and baseball player Clifford Story; nephew of 14-year NFL tight end Marcus Pollard; brother of Kentucky safety Kristian Story.

- Avieon Terrell, CB: Brother of A.J. Terrell, current NFL All-Pro cornerback who was an All-ACC performer at Clemson.

- Champ Thompson, DT: Son of Michael Thompson, a fourth-round pick by the Atlanta Falcons in the 2000 NFL Draft.

- Cole Turner, WR: Son of former Alabama player Kevin Turner, who played eight years in the NFL with the New England Patriots and Philadelphia Eagles, and brother of former Clemson All-America safety Nolan Turner.

- Tyler Venables, S: Son of Oklahoma head coach and former Clemson defensive coordinator Brent Venables; brother of former Clemson linebacker Jake Venables.

- Bryant Wesco Jr., WR: Son of Bryant Wesco Sr. and Tambia Wesco, both of whom were triple jumpers at Louisiana Tech. Bryant Sr. was inducted into the Louisiana Tech Hall of Fame and Tambia was a 1999 all-conference selection.

- Wade Woodaz and Drew Woodaz, LB: Brothers.

- Watson Young, OL: Is the first fourth-generation Clemson Football player. Son of former Clemson All-American and three-time Academic All-American Kyle Young. Nephew of Will Young, who was an offensive lineman at Clemson from 1992-95. Grandson of Ben Watson, a linebacker at Clemson from 1968-70. Great grandson of Ed McLendon, who lettered in 1939 and played the first bowl team in Clemson history that earned a 6-3 win in the 1940 Cotton Bowl.

CHURNING OUT NFL TALENT

Since assuming the head role midseason in 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has produced 86 NFL draft picks during his head coaching tenure. His 86 draft picks produced are the most by any active coach in the nation since the 2009 NFL Draft, and his 18 first-rounders are the fourth-most overall and second-most of any active coach in that span.

In recent years, Clemson has been one of the NFL's primary provider of first-round talent among defensive linemen and linebackers. Clemson's nine first-round picks from its defensive front seven since the 2015 NFL Draft rank second in the nation.

FIRST-ROUND DEFENSIVE LINEMEN & LINEBACKERS SINCE 2015 NFL DRAFT

Rk	School	DL/LB
1.	Georgia	10
2.	Clemson	9
3.	Alabama	8

5.	Ohio State	5

Additional nuggets on Clemson's recent success in the NFL Draft are included below:

- Clemson has had at least one player selected in 23 consecutive drafts since 2003, representing the second-longest streak in school history behind a 24-year streak across the 1951-74 NFL Drafts.

- Clemson is one of only six schools to have produced multiple draft picks in each of the last 23 NFL Drafts (LSU, Michigan, Oklahoma, Ohio State and USC).

- Clemson has had at least three selections in 16 of its 17 drafts since Dabo Swinney was elevated to head coach. Clemson is one of six schools to have produced three or more picks at least 16 times in that span alongside Alabama, LSU, Ohio State, Oklahoma and USC.

- Including two defensive picks in the 2025 NFL Draft, Clemson has produced multiple defensive draft picks in 14 of the 17 drafts of the Dabo Swinney era. Clemson, LSU, Alabama, Ohio State and Georgia are the only programs to produce multiple draft picks from their defenses in at least 14 drafts in that span.

- Clemson has had at least one player chosen by 30 of the 32 NFL franchises since 2003. The lone exceptions in that time frame are the Patriots, who last selected a Tiger in 1991, and the Panthers, who have never selected a Clemson player despite playing their first season in franchise history in Death Valley.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney has produced a draft pick for 28 of the 32 NFL teams in his head coaching tenure; the only NFL teams not to select a Clemson player in Swinney's head coaching tenure are the Chicago Bears, Denver Broncos, New England Patriots and Carolina Panthers.

- Though Clemson did not have a player selected in the first round of the 2025 NFL Draft, Clemson has had at least one first-round draft choice in 10 of the last 13 years, standing alongside Alabama, Florida, Georgia and Ohio State as the only programs to produce a first-round pick in at least 10 of the last 13 years.

- Since 2013, Clemson has produced first-round picks from the QB, RB, WR, DE, DT, LB and DB position groups. The only other school with at least one first-rounder at all those positions in that span is Alabama.

- Linebacker Barrett Carter's selection in the 2025 NFL Draft represented the fourth consecutive draft in which Clemson had a linebacker selected. Clemson and Alabama are the only programs in the nation to produce at least one linebacker in each of the last four NFL Drafts.

- Safety R.J. Mickens' selection in the 2025 NFL Draft gave Clemson at least one drafted defensive back in 13 of Clemson's 17 drafts in the Dabo Swinney era.

BY ROSTER STATUS

105-Man	104
Designated	21

Notes: Clemson has announced its intent to provide scholarships all the way up to the permissible 105-man roster limit; "Designated Student-Athletes" are those who would have been excluded from teams following the initial House vs. NCAA settlement proposal but were later grandfathered in upon final approval. They may remain on the roster and/or transfer without being counted against roster limits for the duration of their careers.

BY MEANS OF ARRIVAL

2025 GAME RECAPS

GAME 1	LSU	17
	CLEMSON	10
	AUG. 30, 2025 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. - Trailing by seven late in the game, Clemson drove to the LSU 15-yard line but was stopped on downs as No. 9 LSU defeated No. 4 Clemson, 17-10.

Quarterback Cade Klubnik finished 19-of-38 for 230 passing yards. Defensively, Clemson had eight tackles for loss, forced two takeaways and held LSU to 354 yards of total offense. In his first career start, safety Ronan Hanafin led Clemson with 12 tackles, followed by linebacker Sammy Brown with 11 tackles.

Ricardo Jones returned a fumble forced by Avieon Terrell 24 yards to the LSU 24 to set up Clemson's first score, a Nolan Hauser 42-yard field goal with 8:57 to play in the first quarter. LSU later knotted the score at 3-3 on a 52-yard field goal by Damian Ramos 4:07 into the second quarter.

Klubnik then led Clemson on a 13-play, 75-yard drive capped by one-yard touchdown by Adam Randall, giving Clemson a 10-3 lead with 4:36 to play in the half.

After Clemson missed a 48-yard field goal early in the third quarter, LSU evened the score at 10-10 on a two-yard touchdown run by Caden Dunham. LSU took its first lead of the game with 12:18 remaining in the fourth quarter when LSU quarterback Garrett Nussmeier completed an 11-play, 73-yard drive with an eight-yard touchdown pass to Trey/Dez Green to give LSU a 17-10 lead.

After trading several scoreless fourth-quarter possessions, Clemson forced an LSU punt after the two-minute timeout to give Clemson one final drive. After a 16-yard punt return by Bryant Wesco Jr. set up Clemson at its own 43, Clemson drove 42 yards but was ultimately stopped in the LSU red zone with 59 seconds to play.

GAME 2	TROY	16
	CLEMSON	27
	SEPT. 6, 2025 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. - No. 8 Clemson scored the final 27 points of the game en route to a 27-16 win against Troy at Memorial Stadium.

Running back Adam Randall led Clemson with 165 all-purpose yards including a career-high 112 rushing yards and one touchdown in addition to four catches for 23 yards. Wide receiver Bryant Wesco Jr. caught two touchdowns, leading all receivers with seven catches for 118 yards. Clemson intercepted three passes and sacked Troy four times.

Troy opened the game with a five-play, 75-yard drive that ended in a 44-yard touchdown from Goose Crowder to Tray Taylor. Shortly after, the game entered into a 92-minute lightning delay with Troy leading 7-0.

Coming out of the break, Troy extended its lead to 16-0 on a 37-yard first-quarter field goal and a four-yard second-quarter pick-six on a batted ball. But Clemson scored its first of its 27 unanswered points late in the first half on a 25-yard Nolan Hauser field goal to bring the halftime score to 16-3.

Clemson got in gear coming out of halftime, immediately marching 75 yards in eight plays, 59 yards of which came via Randall on the ground including a one-yard touchdown run. Clemson took the lead 58 seconds later, cashing in an interception with a 26-yard Wesco touchdown one play later. The Tigers' next two possessions resulted in a 30-yard Hauser field goal and a 34-yard scoring pass to Wesco to bring the score to 27-16.

In all, after the slow start, Clemson scored on five consecutive possessions across the final three quarters before running out the final 4:24 of clock on the game's final drive.

GAME 3	CLEMSON	21
	GEORGIA TECH	24
	SEPT. 13, 2025 BOBBY DODD STADIUM • ATLANTA, GA.

ATLANTA - No. 12 Clemson overcame a second-quarter deficit of 13 points and a fourth-quarter deficit of seven points, but a 55-yard field goal as time expired gave Georgia Tech a 24-21 victory at Bobby Dodd Stadium.

Bryant Wesco Jr. hauled in seven passes for 126 yards, including a go-ahead 73-yard touchdown reception. Adam Randall added 80 rushing yards on 15 carries and a late game-tying touchdown.

Georgia Tech ran out to a 13-0 second quarter lead, converting a Clemson fumble into a field goal in the first quarter and adding the first 10 points of the second quarter. Clemson got on the board with a 16-play, 75-yard drive capped by a one-yard Cade Klubnik rushing touchdown to make it 13-7 at halftime.

Clemson received the opening kickoff of the second half and drove 66 yards to the Georgia Tech 9-yard line, but Klubnik was intercepted by T.J. Daniels. After forcing a three-and-out, Klubnik connected with Wesco for a 73-yard touchdown to give Clemson its first lead of the game at 14-13.

Across the third and fourth quarters, Georgia Tech drove 90 yards in 13 plays, and Haynes King rushed for a one-yard touchdown to take the lead. The Yellow Jackets converted a two-point attempt to push the score to 21-14. Clemson responded with a 13-play, 75-yard drive, capped by a two-yard touchdown run by Adam Randall to tie the game, 21-21, with 3:26 remaining.

Georgia Tech drove 38 yards to the Clemson 37-yard line, and the Yellow Jackets sent the field goal unit on the field with the clock running, and Aidan Birr made a 55-yard field goal as time expired to give Georgia Tech the 24-21 victory.

GAME 7	SMU	35
	CLEMSON	24
	OCT. 18, 2025 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. — Quarterback Christopher Vizzina played valiantly in his first career start, but SMU drove 75 yards in 13 plays for a late touchdown to hold off Clemson for a 35-24 win in Memorial Stadium.

Vizzina completed 29-of-42 passes for 317 yards and three touchdowns. Cade Klubnik, who had made 34 consecutive starts, missed the game with an ankle injury. Wide receiver T.J. Moore led the offense with 124 receiving yards and two touchdowns on five catches.

SMU scored on a 70-yard touchdown pass to Jordan Hudson on the Mustangs' third drive. Sam Keltner increased the SMU lead to 10 with a 51-yard field goal. Vizzina connected with Moore on a 32-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter, but two more Keltner field goals pushed SMU's halftime advantage to 16-7.

In the third quarter, Moore snagged a deep ball from Vizzina with one hand and scampered for a 62-yard touchdown. SMU answered on its following possession on a 35-yard rushing touchdown by Derrick McFall.

A 28-yard Nolan Hauser field goal pulled Clemson within six entering the fourth quarter, but Matthew Hibner's 22-yard touchdown reception and a missed extra point reinstated extended SMU's lead to 29-17.

Clemson cut SMU's lead to five on Vizzina's 23-yard jump ball to Tristan Smith on 4th-and-21 for Smith's first touchdown as a Tiger, capping an eight-play, 49-yard drive to make the score 29-24 with 6:44 to play. However, SMU drove 75 yards in 13 plays to close out the scoring with a six-yard rushing touchdown by Chris Johnson Jr. to make the final score 35-24.

GAME 8	DUKE	46
	CLEMSON	45
	NOV. 1, 2025 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. — Clemson stormed back from a 21-7 first-quarter deficit to take a lead into the fourth quarter, but a touchdown and two-point conversion in the final minute gave Duke a 46-45 win, its first victory at Death Valley since 1980.

Clemson recorded season highs to date with 45 points and 560 yards. The Tigers dropped to 134-1 all-time when scoring 45 points in a game and 61-3 all-time when recording 550 or more yards in a game.

Quarterback Cade Klubnik went 27-for-36 passing for a career-high 385 yards and two touchdown passes. Antonio Williams led Clemson with 142 receiving yards on 10 catches and scored two touchdowns — one receiving and one rushing.

Interrupted only by Williams' second career rushing touchdown, Duke scored touchdowns on each of its first three possessions for a 21-7 edge after one quarter. Clemson surged in the second quarter, scoring 21 consecutive points on a touchdown reception by Williams and two Adam Randall touchdown runs. But Duke tied the game at halftime with a 43-yard pass with 11 seconds remaining in the second quarter.

The teams traded scores in the third, as a Peter Woods touchdown run was immediately answered by a 100-yard kickoff return (102 unofficially) by Duke's Sahmir Hagans.

Clemson later led 45-38 and pinned Duke at its own six with 5:19 to play, but Duke drove 94 yards for a Nate Sheppard touchdown run and a two-point conversion with 40 seconds remaining to earn the win.

GAME 9	FLORIDA STATE	10
	CLEMSON	24
	NOV. 8, 2025 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. — Clemson opened up an 18-0 first-half lead and held the nation's No. 1 offense at bay to earn a 24-10 victory over Florida State in Memorial Stadium.

Clemson held Florida State to a season-low 360 yards of offense, 150 yards below the Seminoles' 510-yard average entering the game. The Tigers also held the Seminoles 30 points below their season average of 40.0 points per game entering the contest.

Quarterback Cade Klubnik went 20-for-27 for 221 passing yards with a passing touchdown and a rushing touchdown. Clemson sacked Florida State six times, led by cornerback Avieon Terrell, who recorded 2.0. Right tackle Blake Miller earned his 50th consecutive start, breaking Dalton Freeman's school record for consecutive starts by a non-specialist.

Clemson drove 75 yards in 13 plays on the game's opening possession, punctuated by a four-yard Klubnik touchdown run and a two-point conversion on a fake PAT by Clay Swinney for an 8-0 lead. Clemson added to its lead in the second quarter, as two plays after Florida State dropped a potential fourth-down conversion, Klubnik hit Antonio Williams on a flea flicker for a 34-yard touchdown.

Clemson tacked on a Nolan Hauser field goal late in the second quarter, and Florida State scored its only touchdown of the game on a seven-yard pass with 33 seconds remaining in the half, bringing the halftime score to 18-7.

Two Hauser field goals pushed Clemson's lead to 24-7 early in the fourth quarter. Florida State added a fourth-quarter field goal but wouldn't score again, as Clemson produced all six of its sacks in the second half to help stifle the Seminole offense.
