CLEMSON FACES FURMAN ON SENIOR DAY & MILITARY APPRECIATION DAY

Clemson will play its final home game of the 2025 season this week when the Tigers host the Furman Paladins on Saturday, Nov. 22. Kickoff for the contest designated as Senior Day and Military Appreciation Day at Memorial Stadium in Clemson is set for 4:30 p.m. ET on The CW.

Prior to the game, Clemson will honor its senior class, including athletic underclassmen on track to earn their Clemson degrees this December or May.

"We can't go back and get the start [we wanted], but we can dang sure have the type of finish that we want to have," Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney said postgame last week. "Anybody can have a great start, not everybody can finish well. But we've got a chance to finish well, and I'm really, really proud of that."

"So, hey, next week, we've got a chance to be back in Death Valley for Senior Day. And these guys are special. This is a special group of human beings, a bunch of winners [like] Blake Miller, Tristan [Leigh], Flo [Philip Florenzo], [Holden] Caspersen, [Wade] Woodaz, [Cade] Klubnik, Adam [Randall], Antonio [Williams]... I mean, these guys are amazing... We just have so many great seniors and I'm excited to celebrate them in the Valley."

A win on Saturday would be Clemson's sixth of the season and would clinch bowl eligibility for the Tigers for the 27th consecutive season, including the 2004 campaign in which Clemson declined bowl participation. Clemson has played a bowl game in 20 consecutive seasons, which ranks as the nation's fourth-longest active streak and tied for the 11th-longest streak in FBS history.

MEDIA INFORMATION

DABO SWINNEY PRESS CONFERENCE

Head Coach Dabo Swinney typically holds his weekly press conference at the Smart Family Media Center in the Clemson Athletic Branding Institute on Tuesday of game weeks at 11 a.m. All of Swinney's Tuesday press conferences will be streamed (no login required) on Clemson+.

STUDENT-ATHLETE INTERVIEWS

On typical game weeks, press conferences with select Clemson student-athletes will be held in the Smart Family Media Center on Tuesdays (11:45 a.m. to 2 p.m.) and Wednesdays (11 a.m. to 2 p.m.). Contact Ross Taylor and Brian Hennessy prior to the start of business hours on Monday with special requests for the week.

ASSISTANT COACH PRESS CONFERENCES

Select assistant coaches are tentatively scheduled to speak during availability windows on weeks of the following games:

- OC Garrett Riley: LSU, Open Date 1, Duke, Furman
- DC Tom Allen: LSU, Syracuse, Open Date 2, South Carolina
- Others: Nick Eason (GT), Matt Luke (UNC), Mike Reed (BC)

REMOTE ACCESS

Clemson will conduct hybrid in-person and Zoom availabilities throughout the regular season. Media members wishing to participate in Tuesday and Wednesday availabilities with coaches and players may reach out to Ross Taylor to request a Zoom link and passcode.

SWINNEY SUNDAY TELECONFERENCE

Head Coach Dabo Swinney will hold an audio conference call on Zoom on Sundays at 6 p.m. after most games. Contact Ross Taylor to request access to the call.

GAME CREDENTIALS

Media wishing to apply for credentials to cover Clemson Football games at Memorial Stadium must apply at www.sportssystem.com/clemson. Credentials for each game will open two weeks prior to each contest; no season-long credentials will be issued.

All credentialing decisions are made in accordance with the Clemson University Athletics Media Credential Policy, available at ClemsonTigers.com/mediapolicy. Credential requests for home games must be submitted before noon ET on the Wednesday prior to the game.

WEEKLY ACCESS

Media members should contact Clemson Football Communications to request access to player and coach media availability at the Smart Family Media Center. All credentialing decisions are made in accordance with the Clemson University Athletics Media Credential Policy, available at ClemsonTigers.com/mediapolicy.

GAME AVAILABILITY REPORTS

The ACC has instituted player availability reporting for all conference games in 2025. For a typical Saturday game, player availability reports for conference games will be published at theacc.co/fbreporting on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

YOUTUBE INTERVIEW ARCHIVE

Clemson Athletic Communications archives most interviews for reference by the media. Archived interviews and press conferences can be accessed at YouTube.com/@ClemsonSportsInfo. Most videos have been timestamped in the video descriptions for easy searching, reference and navigating by members of the media.

COLLEGEPRESSBOX.COM

Clemson media information will be uploaded to CollegePressBox.com. Access and download weekly game notes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for each conference and its member schools.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

- Clemson attempting to earn its sixth win of the season to clinch bowl eligibility. Clemson enters the game with the fourth-longest active streak of consecutive seasons with a bowl appearance (20, dating to 2005) and is tied for the third-longest active streak of consecutive seasons being bowl eligible (26, dating to 1999).

- Clemson attempting to earn a sixth win for the 27th consecutive year, dating to 1999. Clemson, Ohio State, Georgia and Oklahoma are the only schools to have won at least six games every year in that span.

- Clemson facing the opponent against whom the team played its first game in program history. Guided by Head Coach Walter Riggs, Clemson earned a 14-6 road victory against the Furman Purple Hurricane in the Tigers' gridiron debut on Oct. 31, 1896.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 45-10-4 against Furman all-time. Clemson's 44 all-time wins against Furman are its fourth-most against a single opponent in Clemson history.

8.	Georgia Tech	36	52	2	.411
9.	Maryland	34	26	2	.565
	The Citadel	34	5	1	.863

- Clemson attempting to win its 33rd consecutive contest against Furman and extend its unbeaten streak (including ties) against the Paladins to 34 consecutive games. The last tie between the two teams occurred in 1937, and the most recent Furman victory in the series came during the 1936 campaign. Clemson's current 32-game winning streak against Furman is its longest winning streak — both active and all-time — against any opponent.

	The Citadel	15	1929-Present
7.	Wake Forest	12	2000-Present
8.	NC State	10	2004-Present

- Clemson attempting to improve to 220-66-13 all-time against foes from the state of South Carolina. Clemson has a winning record against all 12 Palmetto State opponents it has faced all-time.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 40-0 against FCS teams since the NCAA split Division I in 1978.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 43-6 in non-conference home games under Dabo Swinney. A win would move Clemson to 33-3 in its last 36 non-conference games at Death Valley.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 73-9 at Death Valley in the College Football Playoff era. Clemson's current 72-9 home record is the fourth-best in the country in that span.

- Clemson attempting to win at least three home games for the 49th straight season. The last time Clemson won fewer than three games at home in a season was in 1976 when Head Coach Red Parker's 3-6-2 squad went 2-2-1 at home.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 109-20 in regular season play since the start of the 2015 season.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 145-23 against AP-unranked teams under Dabo Swinney and improve to 122-13 in those games since the start of the 2012 season.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney (185-52) attempting to pull within one win of Joe Paterno and Urban Meyer for the fourth-most victories within the first 20 seasons of a head coaching career. Swinney trails only Tom Osborne (195), Nick Saban (191), Bob Stoops (191), Paterno (187) and Meyer (187) despite Swinney being in only his 18th season (and 17th full season). Note: Stoops and Meyer are not credited on the NCAA's official list of most wins through 20 seasons since they did not coach 20 years.

- Swinney (185) attempting to surpass the career win total of College Football Hall of Famer Johnny Majors (185-137-10).

- Clemson entering the game having scored at least one rushing touchdown in a national-best-tying 94 of its 106 games since the start of the 2018 season. Clemson has also rushed for multiple touchdowns in a national-best 76 games in that span.

- Clemson attempting to rush for multiple touchdowns in consecutive games for the first time since November 2024 against The Citadel and South Carolina.

- Clemson attempting to go five consecutive games without throwing an interception for the first time since the final five games of the 2018 season.

- Clemson entering the game having thrown 141 consecutive pass attempts without an interception. Clemson's most recent interception came on its third-to-last pass attempt at Boston College on Oct. 11 on a throw by Christopher Vizzina.

- Clemson attempting to hold three consecutive opponents below 20 points for the first time this season.

- Clemson (26) needing four more sacks to reach 30 sacks for the 14th consecutive season. Clemson's last season with fewer than 30 sacks was in 2011. Entering 2025, Clemson was the only program in the nation to have reached 30 sacks in every year of the College Football Playoff era (since 2014).

- Linebacker Sammy Brown (4.0) needing one more sack to match his single-season career high set in his freshman season last year (5.0).

- Brown attempting to record a sack in three consecutive games for the first time in his career.

- Brown attempting to become the first Clemson linebacker with a full sack in three consecutive games since Barrett Carter against Stanford, Florida State and Wake Forest in 2024.

- Kicker Nolan Hauser entering the game having made 10 consecutive field goal attempts.

- Hauser (10) converting his first two field goal attempts to enter the Top 5 for the longest streak of consecutive made field goals in school history. He is within reach of Jad Dean (12 from 2004-05) and Aaron Hunt (12 in 2002) for fifth, B.T. Potter (13 in 2021) for fourth and Obed Ariri (14 in 1980) for third.

- Hauser (86.7 percent) attempting to finish off the third season by a Clemson kicker under Dabo Swinney with a field goal percentage of 85 percent or better (min. 2 FGA), joining Chandler Catanzaro's 94.7 percent in 2012 and 92.9 percent in 2013.

- Hauser attempting to record multiple field goals in three straight games for the first time in his career. He would be the first Clemson player to score multiple field goals in three consecutive contests since B.T. Potter against Louisiana Tech, Wake Forest and NC State in 2022.

- The Swinney family holding its 200th consecutive field goal attempt. Between Will (2017-21), Drew (2018-22) and Clay (2022-25), members of the Swinney family have held every Clemson placekick since the start of the 2017 season, including all 533 PAT attempts and all 199 field goal attempts in that span.

- Defensive end Will Heldt (5.0) entering the game tied with his single-season career high in sacks (5.0 at Purdue in 2024).

- Quarterback Cade Klubnik (24) attempting to become the sixth Clemson quarterback since World War II to win 25 career games as a starting quarterback, joining Trevor Lawrence (34), Deshaun Watson (32), Tajh Boyd (32), Rodney Williams (32) and Charlie Whitehurst (25).

- Klubnik (24-13) attempting to tie Charlie Whitehurst (25-15) for the fifth-most wins by a Clemson starting quarterback since World War II.

- Klubnik (nine) attempting to throw for 300 yards to become the fourth player in Clemson history to post 10 career 300-yard passing games, joining Tajh Boyd (18 from 2010-13), Trevor Lawrence (13 from 2018-20) and Deshaun Watson (13 from 2014-16).

- Klubnik (71) needing four touchdown passes to become the fourth player in school history to throw 75 career touchdown passes, joining Tajh Boyd (107 from 2010-13), Deshaun Watson (90 from 2014-16) and Trevor Lawrence (90 from 2018-20).

- Klubnik (9,503) needing 163 passing yards to pass Charlie Whitehurst (9,665 from 2002-05) for the fourth-most career passing yards in Clemson history.

- Klubnik (9,503) needing 497 passing yards to join Tajh Boyd (11,904 from 2010-13), Deshaun Watson (10,163 from 2014-16) and Trevor Lawrence (10,098 from 2018-20) as the only quarterbacks in Clemson history to throw for 10,000 career passing yards.

- Klubnik (861) needing 40 completions to tie or 41 completions to pass Tajh Boyd (901 from 2010-13) for the Clemson record for career pass completions.

- Klubnik entering the game having thrown 100 consecutive pass attempts without an interception. His last interception came on his fourth-to-last pass attempt at Boston College on Oct. 11.

- Klubnik (895) chasing No. 10 Ken Pengitore (898), No. 9 DJ Uigalelei (913 from 2020-22), No. 8 Trevor Lawrence (943 from 2018-20) and No. 7 Kelly Bryant (973 from 2015-18) on Clemson's leaderboard for career rushing yards by a quarterback since Clemson transitioned from the single wing in 1953.

- Klubnik (895) needing 105 more rushing yards this season to become the seventh Clemson quarterback to rush for 1,000 career yards since Clemson transitioned from the single wing in 1953.

- Klubnik (16) chasing Trevor Lawrence (18 from 2018-20) for fifth on Clemson's all-time leaderboard for career rushing touchdowns by a quarterback.

- Offensive lineman Blake Miller (51) starting his 52nd consecutive game to extend his school record for consecutive starts by a non-specialist. Miller has started all 51 games played by Clemson since his arrival as a true freshman in 2022.

- Miller (51) tying kicker Chandler Catanzaro (52 from 2010-13) and defensive tackle Tyler Davis (52 from 2019-23) for the fourth-most career starts in Clemson history.

SENIOR DAY

Clemson will honor its 2025 senior class with individual runs down the Hill prior to Saturday's Senior Day game.

Currently, the 2025 Clemson senior class...

... is 35-16 in the last four years, ranking among the top 20 in the nation in that span in wins.

... became the 21st class in Clemson history to win 35 or more games in a four-year span.

... is one of 32 senior classes in Clemson history to earn multiple conference championships in a four-year span.

... has ranked in the AP Top 25 in 39 of 62 polls in their careers (62.9 percent), including 20 polls in which it ranked in the AP Top 10.

... has won eight games against AP Top 25 teams since 2022.

... is seeking its 20th win at Death Valley since 2022.

Additionally, Clemson's current group of fifth-year seniors...

... holds a 45-19 record since 2021, tied for the eighth-most wins in the nation in that span.

... helped Clemson earn 45 wins in a five-year span for the 17th time in school history.

... has ranked in the AP Top 25 in 47 of 78 polls in their careers (61.0 percent), including 24 polls in which it ranked in the AP Top 10.

... won ACC Championships in 2022 and 2024.

... has won nine games against AP Top 25 teams since 2021.

... is 25-8 at Death Valley since 2021.

Included below is the list of players who have the option to be honored on Senior Day this week. The list includes academic seniors who may potentially elect to forego their final year of athletic eligibility (e.g.: Christian Wilkins participating in 2017 prior to returning for 2018).

For players with eligibility remaining, inclusion on this list does not indicate that a player has opted to depart after the season. Some members of this group can still elect to return for 2026 at their discretion, but they may still choose to be honored Saturday.

MILITARY APPRECIATION DAY

Clemson, formally founded as Clemson Agricultural College in November 1889, was originally a military school, reflecting a belief at the time that a military atmosphere produced the highest academic excellence. Beginning with the first graduating class of 1896, more than 10,000 Clemson men and women have served in the armed forces. Throughout the decades, Clemson's military heritage has remained, even as the university transitioned to a coeducational civilian institution in 1955.

Saturday's game will be Clemson's 32nd Military Appreciation Day. The history of the special day dates to 1994 when Clemson had a special flyover for the Clemson vs. Georgia Tech game on Nov. 12, just one day after Veterans Day. The flyover of four F-16s from Shaw Air Force Base during pregame was the highlight of the celebration that day.

Clemson has celebrated its military history every year during games held in November or when Clemson plays host to a school with its own military heritage. The Tigers don purple uniforms for the Military Appreciation Day game in reverence to the Purple Heart, the oldest United States military decoration. General George Washington awarded the first purple-colored, heart-shaped badges to soldiers who fought in the Continental Army during the American Revolution.

Clemson has a 27-4 record in the previous 31 Military Appreciation Day games. The Tigers have won 17 such games in a row, with the last loss coming against Virginia Tech in 2007.

NO QUIT IN THESE TIGERS

In the immediate aftermath of a nail-biting 20-19 road win at No. 19 Louisville last week, Head Coach Dabo Swinney spoke passionately to ESPN's Paul Carcatera about the fight of his 2025 team.

"The tougher it's gotten, the closer they've become, the stronger they've gotten and the more they've dug in," Swinney bellowed. "And that's not normal, not in today's world. That's not normal. Usually when you have some adversity, you divide, [and] people are looking for the sideline or the training room, but not these Tigers, not these seniors... The record don't define you; how you respond is what defines you — in everything. In life, in football, everything. Our record ain't what we want it to be, but we've got a hell of a great group of young people right there... A lot of people have quit on 'em. There ain't no quit in that bunch, and there ain't no quit in me. Go Tigers!"

Clemson's 1-3 start through four games in 2025 was its first 1-3 start since 2004. That year, Tommy Bowden's Clemson team went 5-2 over its seven remaining games to finish the year with a 6-5 record. The Tigers earned bowl eligibility that year but declined postseason opportunities.

Clemson has opened a season with one win or fewer through four games 30 times in its 130-season history. The Tigers have fought back to finish .500 or better in nine of those campaigns (1906, 1914, 1934, 1937, 1961, 1963, 1967, 1985 and 2004).

In 16 of the previous 29 seasons with one win or fewer through four games, Clemson was led by a member of the College Football Hall of Fame. That includes four such seasons under Jess Neely, 11 seasons under Frank Howard and one season under Danny Ford. With a win this week, the 2025 Tigers can become only the fourth team in school history to rebound from a 1-3 or worse start to win six games, joining Howard's 1967 squad, Ford's 1985 squad and Tommy Bowden's 2004 team.

CLEMSON UNDEFEATED VS. FCS TEAMS

Entering this week's contest, Clemson is a perfect 39-0 against Football Championship Subdivision teams since the NCAA formed the division prior to the 1978 season.

Clemson has outscored FCS teams by a 1,672-285 margin all-time, an average victory margin of 35.6 points. Clemson has won 38 of the 39 games by double digits, including each of the last 13 by at least 23 points.

Only one FCS squad has stayed within single digits of Clemson. Clemson defeated Wofford, 35-27, in 2011, with Wofford's 27 points standing as the most by an FCS school against Clemson.

Note: Clemson's 1981 win against Wofford is not included as the NCAA did not reclassify the Southern Conference as Division I-AA (now FCS) until 1982.

COMMITMENT TO IN-STATE PROGRAMS

Under Head Coach Dabo Swinney, Clemson has typically adhered to a non-conference scheduling philosophy that features two Power Five opponents (rival South Carolina and one additional Power Five squad — typically either Notre Dame or a team from the SEC), one Group of Five opponent, as well as one FCS opponent from the state of South Carolina.

The commitment to football in the state of South Carolina at all levels has resulted in the Tigers hosting a Palmetto State FCS team every year since 2007, with Clemson welcoming Furman, The Citadel, South Carolina State, Presbyterian, Wofford, Charleston Southern and Coastal Carolina (which has since made the transition to FBS) to Memorial Stadium in that span.

Clemson has a winning record against all 12 opponents it has faced from the state of South Carolina. The Tigers are 219-66-13 (.757) all-time against Palmetto State foes, including one game against Marines from Port Royal in 1909 and one against the temporary Camp Sevier cantonment in 1918.

CLEMSON VS. SOUTHERN CONFERENCE

Clemson has not lost to a Southern Conference school since the Tigers left the Southern Conference to help form the ACC in 1953. Clemson has won 49 games in a row against Southern Conference teams. Clemson last lost to a Southern Conference team in 1952 when South Carolina defeated the Tigers, 6-0, when both schools were still Southern Conference members.

The last time Clemson lost to a team currently in the Southern Conference was 1936 when Furman defeated the Tigers, 12-0.

AT HOME IN NON-CONFERENCE PLAY

Clemson has been right at home in non-conference contests at Memorial Stadium in recent years, going 32-3 in its last 35 non-conference home games.

Clemson had won 26 straight prior to a one-point loss to South Carolina in November 2022. Previously, Clemson's longest unbeaten streak (including ties) in non-conference home games was a 20-game unbeaten streak from 1978-84 that saw ties against Boston College and Georgia interrupt winning streaks of 12 games, four games and two games.

Clemson is 42-6 in non-conference games at Death Valley under Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

SERIES HISTORY VS. FURMAN

Saturday's contest will bring Clemson back to its very beginnings when the Tigers host Furman, the school against which Clemson played its first game in program history.

The teams met in Clemson's football debut on Oct. 31, 1896, with Coach Walter Riggs' Clemson squad collecting a 14-6 road victory in Greenville, S.C. The two teams did not meet again until 1902, a 28-0 Tiger victory. Clemson won the first seven games of the series between 1896 and 1918 before Furman broke the string with a 7-7 tie in 1919.

Furman earned its first win in the series in Greenville in 1920 by a 14-0 score. The first game in the series at Clemson took place at Riggs Field in 1916, a 7-6 Tiger win and Clemson's first win at Riggs Field.

Included below is an overview of all 58 games contested between Clemson and Furman all-time.

MORE CLEMSON-FURMAN HISTORY

- Clemson has won 32 straight games against Furman since a 0-0 tie between the two schools at Furman in 1937. Furman's last win over Clemson took place in 1936 in a Nov. 26 game played in the snow in Clemson. That contest remains the only time on record that Clemson has played a home game in the snow.

- Overall, Clemson holds a 44-10-4 lead in the series, including a 26-2 lead in games played at Clemson and a 21-0 advantage in games played in Memorial Stadium.

- Clemson did not allow a Furman touchdown between 1962 and 1998, a span of eight games. That streak ended in 2003 when Bo Moore threw a touchdown pass to Brian Bratton in the second quarter. The Paladins had scored five field goals during the previous 34 quarters against Clemson.

- The 2003 Furman game on Sept. 6, 2003 was the last game broadcast by Jim Phillips, Clemson's Hall of Fame broadcaster who suddenly passed away the following Tuesday morning.

- Both teams won national championships in the 1980s. Clemson won the Division I crown in 1981 and Furman won the Division I-AA title in 1988. Furman was the second winningest program in Division I-AA in the 1980s, while Clemson was fifth for that decade among Division I schools.

CLEMSON-FURMAN CONNECTIONS

Four head coaches in Furman history also coached at Clemson, including one Clemson graduate.

- A.P. "Dizzy" McLeod served as Clemson's line coach in 1927 under Josh Cody and coached Clemson's first All-American, center O.K. Pressley. At Furman, McLeod was an outstanding player and coach. He was Furman's head basketball coach beginning with the 1928 season and posted a 69-17 record. In 1932, he became Furman's head football coach, a position he held until 1942. He remains the last Furman coach to defeat Clemson (1936).

- McLeod was followed in 1946 (Furman did not have a team from 1943-45 because of WWII) by Bob Smith, a 1934 Furman graduate. Smith was a star player at Furman from 1931-33. He became the Furman head football coach for the 1946-47 seasons. In 1950, he came to Clemson to coach under Frank Howard. He served Clemson for 28 years as an assistant football coach and head baseball coach. Smith won Clemson's first ACC Championship in any sport when he led the Tigers to the 1954 ACC baseball championship. He is a member of the Athletic Halls of Fame at both institutions.

- Art Baker was an assistant coach at Clemson under Frank Howard from 1965-69, then became head football coach at Furman from 1973-77. He was the head coach when David Whitehurst, the father of former Clemson quarterback Charlie Whitehurst, was the quarterback at Furman. Baker laid the groundwork for considerable success at Furman as he hired Dick Sheridan, Jimmy Satterfield and Bobby Johnson as assistant coaches. They all went on to become head coaches at Furman.

- Bobby Johnson is a 1973 Clemson graduate who went on to become head coach at Furman from 1994-2001. He coached against Clemson for Furman in 1994 and 1998. In 1993, Johnson was Clemson's defensive coordinator, helping the Tigers to a 9-3 season. As a player at Clemson, Johnson led the Tigers in interceptions in 1971 and 1972 and was named Academic All-ACC each season.

- Former Clemson Executive Director of IPTAY George Bennett is a common denominator for both Furman and Clemson. Bennett was the athletic director at Furman from 1986-88, including the 1988 season when Furman won the Division I-AA National Championship. He has had a distinguished career at Clemson that dates to 1955 when he was a Clemson senior and head cheerleader. He is a member of the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame and won the University's Distinguished Service Award in 1986.

PALADINS ON CLEMSON'S STAFF

Three current Clemson football staff members played for and graduated from Furman.

General Manager Jordan Sorrells is a 2009 Furman graduate who is in his 11th year at Clemson. He served as Director of Football Operations at Furman from 2011-14 before coming to Clemson and helping the Tigers to immense recruiting and on-field success in his tenure. He was a two-year starter at quarterback for Furman who ranks among the Paladins' all-time leaders in career touchdown passes, passing yards, completions and completion percentage.

Robbie Caldwell, Clemson's former Offensive Line Coach who is now its Director of High School Relations & Third-Year Transition, is a 1977 Furman graduate who lettered under Art Baker between 1973-75. He was a team captain and was team MVP as a senior in 1975, an unusual accomplishment for an offensive lineman. Caldwell served as a full-time assistant coach at Furman under Dick Sheridan from 1978-85. In those eight seasons, Furman won six league championships. Caldwell was inducted into the Furman Athletic Hall of Fame in 2019.

Clemson Director of Football Administration & Player Personnel Mike Dooley is a 1998 Furman graduate and

LAST MEETING

Clemson 35, Furman 12

(Sept. 10, 2022, Clemson, S.C.)

CLEMSON, S.C. — Clemson accumulated 376 yards total and scored touchdowns on five of its first six drives in a 35-12 win against Furman in the home opener at Memorial Stadium on Saturday. Quarterback DJ Uiagalelei completed 21-for-27 passes for 231 yards and added 36 yards rushing. Clemson rushed for 147 yards on 28 carries, led by Will Shipley, who ran for two scores for the second straight game.

The victory was Clemson's 19th straight in home openers. The win extended Clemson's longest winning streak in home openers all-time, ahead of its 17 from 1944-60.

Clemson's defense held Furman to 12 points, forced two turnovers and recorded two fourth-down stops. The unit registered nine tackles for loss, upping its total two 19 in two games in 2022. Trenton Simpson and Keith Maguire led the Tigers with eight tackles each, while fellow linebacker LaVonta Bentley had seven stops, including 2.5 for loss.

Clemson started the game strong with a touchdown on its first three possessions. On the first drive, Uiagalelei found Beaux Collins for a 40-yard pass over the middle, and three plays later, Uiagalelei found Joseph Ngata in the red zone to put Clemson on the one-yard line. Will Shipley finished the job and pushed his way in for a touchdown, capping a seven-play 75-yard drive.

Furman's Axel Lepvreau kicked a 30-yard field goal on their first possession, but the Tigers had a quick response. The Tigers again marched 75 yards, this time on 11 plays, on a drive that took 5:23. Uiagalelei drifted right and threw a short two-yard pass to Jake Briningstool for a touchdown to cap the drive.

On Clemson's next possession, Shipley rushed for his second touchdown of the game to give the Tigers a 21-3 advantage with 9:10 to play in the half. On Furman's ensuing drive, Clemson's Malcolm Greene stripped the ball from Ryan Miller and Fred Davis II recovered the fumble for the Tigers' first takeaway of the game.

With about three minutes left in the first half, Furman quarterback Tyler Huff connected with Ryan Miller for a 25-yard touchdown pass to cut the Clemson lead to 21-9. Clemson responded as Uiagalelei led the Tigers 75 yards in just 1:27, finding the end zone again with 26 seconds left in the half as Kobe Pace finished the drive with a one-yard rushing touchdown. Clemson entered halftime leading 28-9.

Clemson opened the second half with a strong defensive stand and turnover when Barrett Carter came up with his first career interception.

Starting the drive at Clemson's 48-yard line, Shipley took the Tigers' all the way to Furman's 11-yard line as he rushed for 41 yards over three carries. Two plays later, Collins caught a pass from Uiagalelei at the right edge of the end zone to give Clemson a 35-9 lead with 10:08 to play in the third.

Furman would add a field goal with 48 seconds to play in the third quarter, and a scoreless fourth quarter resulted in the 35-12 final score.

TWO SCHOOLS, ONE PAIR OF PANTS

On Oct. 8, 1960, Clemson and Furman shared the same uniform pants. In one of the most bizarre uniform stories in college sports history, both teams wore a then-special water-repellent uniform that day to guard against predicted severe weather.

Clemson wore the pants in defeating Virginia, 21-7, in the afternoon, then had the pants shipped to Furman for a night game against William & Mary. Furman defeated William & Mary that night in Greenville, 25-23. Furman Head Coach Bob King said after the game, "After those big Clemson boys got out of those pants, some of our guys had a hard time making them stay up. We had to tape the legs of the pants for several players."

Players wearing the pants for two different schools defeated two teams from the state of Virginia on the same day.

NOTES FROM LAST GAME

- Clemson held Louisville to 19 points, the Cardinals' lowest output since the 2023 ACC Championship Game (six). It broke Louisville's 23-game streak with 24 or more points, which was the longest streak in ACC history according to ESPN.

- Running back Adam Randall rushed 15 times for 105 yards with a career-high-tying two touchdowns. Randall also added three receptions for 27 yards for a total of 132 yards from scrimmage.

- Randall recorded his third 100-yard rushing game of the season and of his career. Clemson improved to 71-6 when having a 100-yard rusher since 2011.

- Randall recorded his seventh rushing touchdown of the season on a 25-yard scoring run in the second quarter.

- The 25-yard rush represented Randall's longest touchdown run of the season.

- Randall gave Clemson the lead in the fourth quarter with a one-yard plunge on fourth-and-1.

- Clemson has now scored at least one rushing touchdown in a national-best 94 of its 106 games since the start of the 2018 season. Clemson has also scored multiple rushing touchdowns in 76 games in that span, also the nation's best.

- Randall recorded a career-long 46-yard run in the fourth quarter.

- Quarterback Cade Klubnik completed 22-of-34 passes for 187 yards with no interceptions.

- Klubnik (24-13) tied Nealon Greene (24-16) for the sixth-most career wins by a Clemson starting quarterback since World War II.

- Klubnik engineered his fourth career fourth-quarter comeback win, becoming the first Clemson quarterback to collect at least four career fourth-quarter comeback victories since Charlie Whitehurst.

- Clemson has now played four consecutive games without throwing an interception for the first time since the middle of the 2023 season.

- Wide receiver Antonio Williams recorded a team-high seven receptions for 52 yards.

- Williams became the first Clemson player to catch six or more passes in five consecutive games since Amari Rodgers' seven-game streak in 2020.

- Wide receiver T.J. Moore led Clemson with 68 receiving yards on six receptions.

- Cornerback Avieon Terrell recorded Clemson's lone takeaway, forcing and recovering a Louisville fumble in the second quarter. Clemson would score on a 25-yard touchdown run on the following play.

- With his seventh career forced fumble, Terrell took sole possession of the Clemson record for career forced fumbles by a defensive back.

- Terrell tied Levon Kirkland (seven from 1988-91), Keith Adams (seven from 1998-2000) and Vic Beasley (seven from 2011-14) for the seventh-most forced fumbles in a career in Clemson history.

- Terrell's four forced fumbles this year are a new single-season career high and are the most by a Clemson defensive back in a single season since at least 1978.

- Terrell's fumble recovery was his first of the season and the third of his career.

- Linebacker Sammy Brown recorded his fourth sack of the season in the fourth quarter.

- Brown has now recorded a sack in back-to-back games for the first time in his career.

- Kicker Nolan Hauser went 2-for-2 on field goals and 2-for-2 on PATs.

- Hauser (10) has now posted Clemson's first double-digit streak of consecutive made field goals since B.T. Potter's 13-attempt streak in 2021.

- Hauser opened the scoring with a 27-yard field goal. The field goal completed a 12-play, 65-yard drive lasting 6:22.

- Hauser added a 48-yard field goal on Clemson's opening possession of the second half.

- Punter Jack Smith placed a career-high four of his five punts inside the 20.

- Offensive lineman Blake Miller started his 51st consecutive game to extend his school record for consecutive starts by a non-specialist. Miller has started all 51 games played by Clemson since his arrival as a true freshman in 2022.

- Offensive lineman Walker Parks played his 62nd career game to pass defensive end Xavier Thomas (61 from 2018-23) for sole possession of the seventh-most games played in Clemson history.

- Safety Tyler Venables played his 60th career game, becoming the 12th player in Clemson history to appear in 60 career games.

NOTES

- Captains for the contest were defensive end Will Heldt, offensive lineman Blake Miller, offensive lineman Walker Parks and defensive tackle Peter Woods.

WITH THE WIN...

- Clemson pushed its all-time record against Louisville to 9-1.

- Louisville became the 27th different program against which Clemson has played 10 or more games all-time. Louisville is now the third program against which Clemson has earned at least nine wins in the first 10 games of a series (10-0 in first 10 games vs. Virginia, 9-1 in first 10 games vs. The Citadel).

- Clemson remained undefeated in road games in the series by improving to 5-0 all-time in Louisville.

- Clemson won its first five road games in a series with an opponent for the fourth time in school history. Clemson also went 5-0 in its first five road games against Virginia, Furman and The Citadel.

- Clemson improved to 34-26-5 all-time in Friday games, including a 27-20-5 mark in Friday regular season games all-time.

- Clemson improved to 3-1 in Friday regular season games under Dabo Swinney, including wins at Boston College in 2016 and at Syracuse in 2021.

- Clemson improved to 25-12 in games against teams to which it lost its last meeting under Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson still has not been beaten by the same team in back-to-back years since Florida State did so across a three-year span from 2012-14.

- Clemson concluded ACC play with a 4-4 conference record to finish .500 or better in conference play for the 27th consecutive season. Including 2025, Clemson's now-27-year streak is tied with Boise State for the longest active streak in the country and the fourth-longest streak in the FBS since 1966.

- Clemson improved to 46-25-2 in regular season conference finales since 1953.

- Clemson added to its existing school record by winning its 11th straight regular season ACC finale. Clemson's last loss in its final game of regular season ACC play came in 2014 against Georgia Tech.

- Clemson improved to 83-14 against ACC opponents, including postseason play, since 2015.

- Clemson improved to a combined 50-14 against former members of the Big East Conference since each school joined the ACC (Miami, Boston College, Virginia Tech, Syracuse, Pitt and Louisville).

- Clemson improved to 43-10 in true road games since the start of the 2015 season.

- Clemson improved to 35-10 in night games since the start of the 2018 season and 56-13 in night games since 2015.

- Clemson improved to 108-20 in regular season play since the start of the 2015 season.

- Clemson improved to 32-13 against AP Top 25 teams since 2015. Clemson has recorded at least one win against a ranked opponent in all 17 of Dabo Swinney's full seasons as head coach.

- Clemson improved to 92-9 when scoring first since the start of the 2015 season. This season, Clemson is 4-1 when scoring first and 1-4 when the opponent scores first.

- Clemson led at halftime, 10-9, and is now 159-12 under Dabo Swinney when leading at halftime, including a 142-8 mark since the start of the 2011 season.

- Clemson trailed after three quarters, 19-13. The game represented Clemson's 24th fourth-quarter comeback victory under Dabo Swinney and its first since November 2024 at Pitt.

- Clemson is now 141-12 when totaling more first downs than its opponent since 2011.

- Clemson is now 125-3 in its last 128 games when holding teams to fewer than 23 points, a span that dates to the middle of the 2010 season.

- Clemson is now 41-15 in one-possession games since the start of the 2011 season, the highest winning percentage in the country in one-score games in that span.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney (185-52) became the sixth coach in FBS history to win 185 games within the first 20 seasons of a head coaching career. Swinney trails only Tom Osborne (195), Nick Saban (191), Bob Stoops (191), Joe Paterno (187) and Urban Meyer (187) despite Swinney being in only his 18th season (and 17th full season). Note: Stoops and Meyer are not credited on the NCAA's official list of most wins through 20 seasons since they did not coach 20 years.

- Swinney (185) matched the career win total of College Football Hall of Famer Johnny Majors (185-137-10).

SCORING CHANGES

- The 13-yard rushing loss originally charged to punter Jack Smith on a low snap is now charged as a TEAM rush.

- Clemson's tackle for loss on the ensuing play originally split by No. 13 Will Heldt and No. 17 Wade Woodaz is now being split by Heldt and No. 19 DeMonte Capehart.

ON THIS DATE

- Nov. 22, 1941: The Tigers put on the greatest rushing defense exhibition in the first 100 years of Clemson history, holding Furman to -21 yards rushing in a 34-6 win in Greenville. Charlie Timmons scored three touchdowns and added four extra points in his final game as a Tiger. Teammate Sid Tinsley picked up 127 yards on just seven carries.

- Nov. 22, 1947: Bobby Gage ran for 141 yards and passed for 233 as he led Clemson to a 34-18 win over Auburn. Gage threw four touchdown passes and had 374 yards of total offense, records that stood almost 50 years. Hank Walker pulled in 10 passes for 148 yards. It was the first time in Clemson history that the Tigers had a 100-yard rusher, a 100-yard receiver and a 200-yard passer in the same game. The Clemson defense held Auburn to -9 yards rushing.

- Nov. 22, 1980: Clemson defeated No. 14 South Carolina, 27-6, in a contest that gave the Tigers momentum heading into 1981. Willie Underwood recorded two interceptions for 101 yards, including one he returned for a 37-yard touchdown. Underwood entered the game, the 47th of his career, without an interception. Clemson kept South Carolina Heisman Trophy winner George Rogers out of the end zone.

- Nov. 22, 2003: Charlie Whitehurst completed his first 10 passes and threw touchdowns passes on Clemson's first three possessions in Clemson's 63-17 victory at South Carolina. It was the most points scored by Clemson against South Carolina in history and the largest margin of victory for Clemson in the series since 1900. It was also the most points scored by Clemson in any game since an 82-24 win over Wake Forest in 1981. Chad Jasmin rushed for four touchdowns, becoming the first Tiger to score four touchdowns against the Gamecocks since 1918.

- Overall: Clemson is 9-3-1 all-time in games played on Nov. 22, including wins in each of their last four Nov. 22 games in 1997, 2003, 2008 and 2014.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF STAPLES

From 2014-23, Clemson cemented itself as one of the College Football Playoff's powerhouses of the tournament's inaugural decade. In the 10-year history of the four-team format prior to 2024, only 15 programs earned at least one College Football Playoff berth, and Clemson ranked second in CFP berths, CFP title game appearances, total CFP wins and CFP titles.

Clemson returned to the College Football Playoff in 2024 in the format's first year of expansion to 12 teams and is one berth shy of Alabama (eight) for the most in history.

SEASONS OF 9+ OR 10+ WINS

Clemson's run of success over the last decade and a half resulted in the Tigers being posting the third-longest streak of 10-win seasons in FBS history (12) and tying for the third-longest streak of nine-win seasons in major college football history (14).

The nine-win-season streaks by Clemson (Dabo Swinney) and Florida State (Bobby Bowden) were compiled by single head coaches. The top two streaks have been split among multiple head coaches, including Bob Devaney (four from 1969-72), Tom Osborne (25 from 1973-97) and Frank Solich (four from 1998-2001) for Nebraska, and Nick Saban (16 from 2008-23) and Kalen DeBoer (one in 2024) for Alabama.

Of the now 136 active FBS schools, only six programs entered 2025 having won at least six games at the FBS level in every year of the College Football Playoff era. That number dipped to four when pushing the total to seven wins and to two when dropping it to nine wins.

Before Clemson's 10-win streak concluded in 2023, Clemson's 12 consecutive 10-win seasons from 2011-22 represented the third-longest streak in FBS history, alongside Saban-era Alabama squads and Bowden-era Florida State teams.

THE 800 CLUB

With a resounding win against NC State in 2024, Clemson became the 14th FBS program — and first ACC member — ever to reach 800 all-time victories. That year, Clemson moved past Auburn into sole possession of 13th place all-time.

In 2020, Clemson became the first program ever to win 20 ACC Championships. That year, Clemson became the first program in the conference championship game era to win six straight conference championship games.

Two years later, Clemson's 2022 ACC title was the program's seventh in eight years, as the Tigers became the first team in an active power conference to win seven outright conference titles in an eight-year span since Alabama won eight SEC titles in nine seasons from 1971-79.

Including titles from its days as a member of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association and Southern Conference, Clemson has 28 conference championships overall, also the most of any current ACC school. Duke ranks second among the ACC's current membership with 18 overall conference titles, including 11 Southern Conference titles and seven ACC titles.

The Tigers won the 1900, 1902 and 1903 SIAA Conference championships under John Heisman, then the 1906 SIAA title under Bob Williams. Clemson also won the 1940 and 1948 Southern Conference titles under Frank Howard. Howard won eight total conference titles, including two in the Southern Conference and six in the ACC. Swinney surpassed the legend with a win in the 2024 ACC Championship Game.

For the last quarter-century, Clemson's ACC success has not been a roller-coaster ride of lofty heights and deep lows. The last time Clemson finished a season below .500 in regular season conference play was in 1998, when Tommy West's 3-8 squad went 1-7 in ACC play.

In 2025, Clemson extended its streak of being .500 or better in conference play to 27 years, tied for the longest active streak in the country and tied for the fourth-longest of any streak since 1966.

POWER OVER POWER CONFERENCE FOES

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level,'" recounted Swinney. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2011, as Clemson ranks among the national leaders in wins against power conference opponents in that time span.

Clemson's 138 power conference wins since 2011 include at least one victory against 27 different programs, including Wake Forest (14), Boston College (13), Georgia Tech (11), Syracuse (10), NC State (10), Florida State (10), Louisville (9), South Carolina (8), Virginia Tech (7), North Carolina (7), Virginia (4), Notre Dame (4), Auburn (4), Miami (Fla.) (4), Maryland (3), Ohio State (3), Pitt (3), Alabama (2), Texas A&M (2), Oklahoma (2), Duke (2), LSU (1), Georgia (1), Iowa State (1), Kentucky (1), Stanford (1) and SMU (1).

On a year-by-year basis, Clemson has finished the season atop the country in wins against power conference opponents a national-best four times since the institution of the College Football Playoff in 2014. That includes 13 wins against power conference opponents in 2018, the first team ever to reach that figure.

SIGN AND DEVELOP

While proud of his incoming classes, Head Coach

Dabo Swinney has long stated that a true ranking of a recruiting class cannot and should not be published until four years later when the group can be evaluated on performance rather than potential.

Much to Swinney's delight, The Athletic annually assumed that role for the classes of 2014-20, re-ranking each recruiting class four years later to account for on-field performance.

For its re-rankings, The Athletic uses the following grading scale: 5 points: All-American, award winner, top-50 NFL Draft pick; 4: Multi-year starter, all-conference honors; 3: One-year starter or key reserve; 2: Career backup; 0: Minor or no contribution, left the program. The outlet also adds a bonus to each program's class average, derived from its total number of wins from 2017 through 2020 (e.g., For re-ranking the Class of 2017, Clemson won 51 games, so its class average received a bonus of 0.51).

Swinney has pointed out that Clemson often falls in rankings as its retention and its commitment to not oversigning leads to smaller recruiting classes. The re-rankings illustrate Clemson's impressive track record of talent identification, culture fit, resource allocation and player development.

CLEMSON RECRUITING RANKINGS AND RE-RANKINGS (VIA THE ATHLETIC)

Class	Rank	Re-Rank	Diff.	Record
2014	16	6	+10	50-7

2017	16	5	+11	51-5
2018	7	2	+5	49-6
2019	10	5	+5	45-9
2020	3	7	-4	40-12
Average	10.2	4.0	+6.2

Note: Initial rank according to 247 Composite

On average, Clemson ranked 10.2 in the 247 Composite team rankings across the 2014-20 recruiting cycles. Upon re-ranking those groups, despite having little room for improvement while recruiting at a Top 15 clip in that span, Clemson ranked 4.0 on average in the re-rankings, a ratings bump of roughly six spots. Each of those Clemson classes averaged at least 10 wins a season during their careers.

SENIOR SUCCESS

Every January, Head Coach Dabo Swinney conducts his first official meeting with his new team. The first order of business in the meeting is to "reset the room," reorganizing the seating arrangement with seniors in front and all succeeding classes in order behind them in the team auditorium.

Several of Swinney's senior classes placed themselves among select company in college football history. The 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 Clemson seniors account for four of only 15 four-year classes in FBS history to reach 50 career wins. That includes the 2018 and 2019 groups that are tied with the 2018 Alabama seniors for the most wins in FBS history (55 wins in four years).

CLEMSON'S WINNINGEST COACH

College Football Hall of Famer Frank Howard, known as "The Bashful Baron of Barlow Bend," compiled a 165-118-12 record in 30 seasons at Clemson from 1940-69.

With a 31-23 upset of No. 12 Notre Dame in 2023, Dabo Swinney earned his 166th career victory as Clemson's head coach, surpassing Howard to become Clemson's all-time winningest coach. Swinney accomplished the feat in his 209th career game.

Clemson is the only FBS school in the nation whose current men's basketball and football coaches are both the winningest in their respective sports in school history, as Clemson men's basketball coach Brad Brownell entered the 2025-26 season as the program's all-time wins leader (292 prior to the start of the season).

Swinney is one of 11 active coaches to be their current program's all-time winningest coach at the FBS level.

ACC'S WINNINGEST COACH

With a 29-13 win against Florida State in October 2024, Dabo Swinney earned his 174th career victory to pass his friend and mentor (and College Football Hall of Famer) Bobby Bowden for the most career head coaching victories as a member of the ACC. Swinney ranks atop conference history in total wins.

HEAD COACH CONTINUITY

Over the last decade-and-a-half, Clemson became a beacon of stability in the increasingly unstable environment of college football. Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney is in his 23rd overall season at Clemson in 2025, including his 17th full season as head coach (and his 18th including an interim stint in 2008).

From the start of Swinney's first season as full-time head coach in 2009 through 2024, there were 498 head coaching tenures in the FBS (excluding those by interims) but only one such tenure at Clemson. Clemson is one of five schools with only one head coach in that span.

Clemson is the only school in the ACC with only one head coach since the start of the 2009 season, and among the 21 schools ever to qualify for the College Football Playoff, only Clemson has had only one head coach since 2009.

SIX "FINAL FOURS" FOR SWINNEY

While the term "Final Four" may still be the linguistic property of college basketball, since the advent of the four-team College Football Playoff in 2014, Head Coach Dabo Swinney had Clemson among the sport's final four teams six times from 2015-20, becoming the first coach to lead a team to six consecutive College Football Playoffs since the format's institution in 2014.

The NCAA men's college basketball tournament dates to 1939. In the history of that tournament, only John Wooden of UCLA (nine from 1967-75) and Mike Krzyzewski of Duke (five from 1988-92) coached teams to at least five consecutive Final Fours. With his sixth "Final Four" appearance in 2020, Swinney joined basketball's Wooden as the only college football or men's basketball coaches to take teams to six consecutive Final Fours in their respective sports.

Swinney is among only nine coaches in football and men's basketball to record six career Final Four berths. He is one of only six with a winning record in Final Four games.

Swinney's ability to place his team among the nation's elite quartet has also been illustrated by the polls. Clemson finished first in the AP Poll in 2016 and 2018, second in 2015 and 2019, third in 2020 and fourth in 2017. Swinney became just the fourth coach to record at least six consecutive top four finishes since the AP Poll began in 1936, an exclusive list that also includes Florida State's Bobby Bowden (13), USC's Pete Carroll (seven) and Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson (six).

Clemson's streak represented the fifth time a program has had a run of at least six top four finishes in the AP Poll. Miami (Fla.) had a seven-year run from 1986-92 with two different head coaches leading the program.

FIRST 15 SEASONS // FIRST 20 SEASONS?

Dabo Swinney completed his 15th season (and his 14th full season) in 2022 with a 161-39 record. Swinney amassed the second-most wins through a coach's first 15 seasons in FBS history despite not having the benefit of a full season in his first year, as he went 4-3 on an interim basis in his first season in 2008 after taking over for Tommy Bowden in October.

The 2025 season is Swinney's 18th season (and 17th full season) as Clemson's head coach. With the 2025, 2026 and 2027 seasons remaining to accrue victories in the category, Swinney already ranks sixth in FBS history in wins in the first 20 seasons of a head coaching career (including coaches who did not coach 20 seasons).

With a win against future Pro Football Hall of Famer Bill Belichick on Oct. 4, Swinney joined a list of head coaches across the collegiate and pro levels to defeat both Nick Saban and Bill Belichick that includes Bill Cowher, Gary Kubiak, Eric Mangini, Mike McCarthy, Dick Jauron, Tony Dungy, Herm Edwards, Dick Vermeil, Romeo Crennel, Jim Harbaugh and Steve Spurrier. Swinney's success against the Saban/Belichick duo includes a 28-point win in his most recent bout against both marquee coaches.

THROUGH 200 GAMES

The 2022 Orange Bowl was the 200th game in Dabo Swinney's head coaching career. Among coaches who qualify for the NCAA FBS record book by virtue of five years or 50 wins as a major college head coach, 17 coaches had earned at least 150 victories in their first 200 career games as head coach as of the conclusion of the 2022 season.

At 161-39 through 200 games, Swinney tied Bob Stoops and Robert Neyland (161 each) for the fifth-most wins through 200 career games in major college football history.

Notes: Prior to 2025; includes victories at all levels recognized by the NCAA; must record five years or 50 wins as a major college head coach to qualify.

Four previous Clemson head coaches earned 150+ FBS wins in their careers: John Heisman (186), Jess Neely (207), Frank Howard (165) and Ken Hatfield (168). Howard, a College Football Hall of Famer, recorded his 150th victory in his 273rd career game, in a 14-10 victory against Maryland in 1966 that clinched a piece of what later became an outright ACC title. Heisman earned win No. 150 in game No. 203, Neely earned it in game No. 268, and Hatfield did it in game 259, though none of those three won more than 43 games in their Clemson tenures.

Included below are the number of games needed for a sample of other notable coaches to reach 150 victories: John Vaught (201), Mark Richt (205), Red Blaik (207), Dan Devine (208), Woody Hayes (209), Bear Bryant (212), Ara Parseghian (212), Pat Dye (212), Bobby Bowden (213), Pop Warner (214), LaVell Edwards (214), Jim Tressel (214), Vince Dooley (214), Amos Alonzo Stagg (225), John Cooper (225), Frank Beamer (230), Lou Holtz (230), Bill Snyder (231), Johnny Majors (255), George Welsh (261), Hayden Fry (277).

CHAMPIONSHIP LINEAGE

After being named Clemson's full-time coach in December of 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney set about securing his first signing class in 2009.

His first class, which he tabbed the "Dandy Dozen," brought home Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 during their junior campaign in 2011. With a win in the 2024 ACC Championship Game, every Clemson signing class under Swinney has at least one ACC title to their credit in their tenures at Clemson, and every signing class since 2012 has earned at least one College Football Playoff berth.

Sixteen coaches on the list are College Football Hall of Famers. The other four include two who are still active (Swinney and Smart), one who remains on ballots (Coker) and one who did not coach long enough to meet the 10-year coaching threshold to qualify (Carroll). Swinney holds a total of nine career victories over five coaches on the list, including two each over Bob Stoops, Nick Saban, Urban Meyer and Steve Spurrier and one over Bobby Bowden.

Despite not reaching No. 1 until 1981, Clemson has been No. 1 in 25 polls all-time, 16th-most of any program.

When Dabo Swinney was elevated to interim head coach in October 2008 and ultimately to the full-time position that December, one of his stated priorities was to restore Clemson's Death Valley dominance. He is one of only two active head coaches in the FBS with 100 or more career home wins with their current institutions.

DEATH VALLEY ROARS

Frank Howard Field at Memorial Stadium garnered its famous nickname in the 1940s when Presbyterian College Head Coach Lonnie McMillian, after many years of bringing his teams in for drubbings, dubbed the venue as "Death Valley."

The name stuck, and its patrons have done their part to make it live up to its name and its reputation. In the first 11 years of the College Football Playoff era from 2014-24, Clemson's home atmosphere helped draw 157 false starts by opponents, the second-most of any home venue in the country and the most by a power conference program.

-- NO. 0 WR ANTONIO WILLIAMS --

NO. 0 BECOMES NO. 1 TARGET IN 2024

Antonio Williams earned first-team Freshman All-America honors in 2022 after he caught 56 passes for 604 yards with four touchdowns over 14 games (10 starts). Injury befell Williams in his sophomore season in 2023, as he was limited by an ankle injury to only four regular season games in his second season before returning to play a pivotal role in Clemson's come-from-behind Gator Bowl win against Kentucky.

In the offseason to follow, Head Coach Dabo Swinney praised Williams' maturity and laser focus and said the now-redshirt sophomore was in for a big year in 2024. The head coach's prognostication proved correct. Williams started every game for Clemson and developed into a bona fide top target for Clemson with career highs in every receiving category in 2024.

Williams tied Miami's Xavier Restrepo for the ACC lead in receiving touchdowns in 2024 and finished tied for seventh in that category nationally.

Williams' versatility was on display in 2024. In addition to posting double-digit touchdown catches, Williams rushed for a touchdown and threw another. Williams' 2024 season marked only the ninth time since 1969 that a Clemson player has passed for a touchdown, rushed for a touchdown and caught a touchdown in a single season, joining Sammy Watkins (2012), C.J. Spiller (2008 and 2009), Jacoby Ford (2009), Ray Williams (1985), Charlie Waters (1969) and Ray Yauger (1969).

CAREER LEADERBOARDS

Williams returned to Clemson in 2025 in reach of the school record for career receiving touchdowns of 27 shared by Clemson legends and NFL standouts DeAndre Hopkins, Sammy Watkins and Tee Higgins.

VERSATILITY

Williams' production in the passing game hasn't been limited to the receiving end of throws.

Williams has thrown four career passes, going 4-for-4 for 143 yards and two touchdowns for a career pass efficiency rating of 565.3. His 565.3 pass efficiency rating is the highest by a Clemson passer with multiple attempts on record.

Williams opened Clemson's Oct. 4 win at North Carolina with a 75-yard touchdown pass on the game's first play from scrimmage. It was his second career touchdown pass, making him the first non-quarterback to throw multiple career touchdown passes for Clemson since C.J. Spiller from 2006-09.

Williams has thrown two of Clemson's 19 touchdown passes delivered by non-quarterbacks since 1953.

Klubnik has helped engineer four fourth-quarter comeback wins, including three as a starter:

- vs. Syracuse (2022): Entered in relief of DJ Uiagalelei and became the first backup quarterback to engineer a fourth-quarter comeback win for Clemson since 2018 (Chase Brice vs. Syracuse).

- vs. Kentucky (2023): Went 8-for-8 as he led Clemson on a 12-play, 68-yard game-winning drive in 2:17 of elapsed game time as Clemson earned its largest fourth-quarter comeback win in a bowl game in school history in the 2023 Gator Bowl.

- at Pitt (2024): After Clemson was held to only 27 yards in the first 28 minutes of the second half, Klubnik got the ball with 1:36 remaining and engineered a three-play, 75-yard drive that he finished by rushing for a game-winning 50-yard touchdown with 1:16 remaining.

- at Louisville (2025): Trailing 19-13 after three quarters, Adam Randall's one-yard plunge on fourth-and-goal gave Clemson the lead, and two missed field goals by Louisville gave the Tigers a 20-19 road win against the 19th-ranked Cardinals.

- Notes: Klubnik recorded a game-winning drive in the 2024 ACC Championship Game against SMU, but the game was tied at the time and Clemson never trailed in the contest. Klubnik also helped Clemson overcome a 16-point first-half deficit against Troy in 2025, though Clemson's third-quarter surge gave the Tigers the lead prior to the fourth quarter.

Note: Klubnik dropped to 895 last week.

With his first rushing touchdown of the 2025 season at Georgia Tech, Klubnik joined Nealon Greene (1994-97), Charlie Whitehurst (2002-05), Tajh Boyd (2010-13) and Kelly Bryant (2015-18) as the only Clemson quarterbacks to rush for a touchdown in four different seasons since Clemson transitioned away from the single wing in 1953.

A year earlier, Klubnik's seven rushing touchdowns included long touchdown runs of 55 yards against NC State, 34 yards against Stanford and a game-winning 50-yarder at Pitt. Klubnik's 50-yard rushing touchdown at Pitt was Clemson's longest game-winning offensive touchdown inside the final two minutes of a game on record. Klubnik became the first Clemson player to record multiple 50-yard rushing touchdowns in a single season since Travis Etienne in 2019 (two), and he also became the first Clemson quarterback to record multiple 50-yard rushing touchdowns in a career since Woodrow Dantzler (three from 1999-2001).

2024 IN REVIEW

Klubnik took a major leap in his second full season as a starter in 2024. As a junior, he completed 308-of-486 passes for 3,639 yards with 36 passing touchdowns and added career highs with 463 yards and seven touchdowns on 119 rushing attempts.

Klubnik combined for 4,100 yards of total offense and 43 total touchdowns while committing only seven turnovers. Research by ESPN.com's David Hale illustrated that Klubnik became only the eighth quarterback to reach those thresholds in the College Football Playoff era. The other seven all finished in the Top 4 in Heisman voting, including five Heisman winners.

FROM THE SIDELINE TO THE STAGE

Klubnik's national breakout came in the 2022 ACC Championship Game against North Carolina. He entered the game on Clemson's third possession and completed 20-of-24 passes for 279 yards and a passing touchdown and added seven carries for 30 yards and a rushing touchdown. His 83.3 completion percentage set an ACC Championship Game record and led to his selection as the game's Most Valuable Player in Clemson's 39-10 victory. He became the third freshman (and second true freshman) in the game's history to earn the honor.

Two years later, Klubnik repeated as ACC Championship Game MVP in a 34-31 win against SMU. He joined Virginia Tech's Tyrod Taylor and Clemson's Dashaun Watson as the only two-time MVPs in ACC Championship Game history.

Beyond this trio, the only other players in a current power conference to win multiple conference championship MVP awards are Michigan State's Connor Cook (2013 and 2015), Oklahoma's Sam Bradford (2007 and 2008) and Oklahoma's Malcolm Kelly (2004 and 2006).

-- NO. 8 RB ADAM RANDALL --

WHO'S NEXT AT RUNNING BACK?

Clemson entered 2025 with a relative rarity in the Dabo Swinney era: public unknowns at running back.

Under Swinney, the Tigers have enjoyed a run of feature backs that has included C.J. Spiller, Andre Ellington, Wayne Gallman, Travis Etienne, Will Shipley and Phil Mafah among a bevy of other substantial contributors.

With both members of the Shipley/Mafah duo from Clemson's 2021 recruiting class now having matriculated to the NFL, outside observers were curious to see who would helm Clemson's rushing attack in 2025.

Adam Randall seized the role prior to Week 1 and has been a bright spot and an emerging star for Clemson's offense. Randall is in his first season at running back after spending his first three seasons at Clemson at wide receiver. A 41-yard kickoff return as an emergency contributor in the 2024 ACC Championship Game against SMU sparked the idea of the position switch, and he contributed at running back in a pinch in the 2024 College Football Playoff and ripped off a 41-yard run at Texas before making the full-time transition this past offseason.

RANDALL'S HOT START

Before being held out of the end zone in Clemson's seventh game of the season, Randall scored at least one touchdown in each of Clemson's first six games in 2025, becoming the first Clemson player to reach the end zone in each of the first six games of a campaign since Travis Etienne in 2018. Randall, Etienne, C.J. Spiller (2009) and Bill Mathis (1959) are the only Clemson players to accomplish the feat in records back to 1938.

Randall's position coach, C.J. Spiller, holds the Clemson record for the most consecutive games with a touchdown to start a season when he scored in all 14 games of Clemson's 2009 campaign.

OUT OF THE BACKFIELD

Randall recorded two touchdown receptions in his first three seasons at Clemson as a wide receiver from 2022-24. Randall then exceeded that total this season in a two-game span with three combined receiving touchdowns against Syracuse and North Carolina.

Randall is two touchdowns shy of the Clemson single-season record for touchdown receptions by a running back since the Tigers transitioned away from the single wing in 1953.

DYNAMIC DUO

There was no shortage of contributing factors to Clemson's leap in passing efficiency and explosiveness from 2023 and 2024, but notable among them was the arrival of T.J. Moore and Bryant Wesco Jr. in 2024. While Moore's late-season surge was a bit too belated to garner national recognition, Wesco collected Freshman All-America honors from 247Sports, PFF, ESPN, The Athletic and the FWAA.

The duo ranked in the top six nationally in receiving yards by freshmen.

Moore and Wesco became the first freshman duo in a power conference to each record at least 650 receiving yards and at least five touchdown catches in a single season since at least 2000. Expanded to include the full FBS, the only other schools in that span to accomplish the feat were the 2005 Hawaii Warriors and the 2007 Tulsa Golden Hurricane. They made Clemson the only school with multiple 650-yard freshman receivers in the nation in 2024.

100-YARD GAMES IN 2025

Wesco reached the century mark in two of Clemson's first three games this season. He recorded 118 yards against Troy and 126 yards against Georgia Tech, becoming the first Clemson player with consecutive 100-yard receiving games since Cornell Powell against Notre Dame and Pitt in 2020.

Moore added his first 100-yard effort of the season on Oct. 4 with a five-catch, 108-yard performance highlighted by a 75-yard score on the game's opening play from scrimmage. Wesco added a 106-yard performance at Boston College on Oct. 11, and Moore contributed a 124-yard effort vs. SMU on Oct. 18, giving the duo a 100-yard performance in all three of Clemson's October games.

Wide receiver Antonio Williams added his first 100-yard game of the season on Nov. 1 against Duke. His performance gave Clemson a 100-yard receiver in four consecutive games for the first time since 2016 when five players reached the mark over a four-game span against NC State, Florida State, Syracuse and Pitt.

PRODUCTION THROUGH SIX GAMES

Wesco was lost for the remainder of the 2025 season when he sustained a scary back injury vs. SMU that required hospitalization after he landed on his head and neck while being flipped on a punt return.

Prior to that seventh game of the season, Wesco had produced one of Clemson's most productive first six games of a campaign of the last 30 years. The only Clemson player in that span with more touchdown catches through the first half-dozen games of a campaign was DeAndre Hopkins in 2012, a season in which Hopkins finished the year with an ACC-record 18 touchdown catches.

WESCO'S MEMORABLE START IN 2024

Last season, Wesco recorded one catch in 12 snaps in Clemson's 2024 season opener, as missed opportunities and inefficiency by Clemson — combined with a condensed contest that featured the fewest combined snaps (112) in a Clemson game since 2006 — limited his involvement in his collegiate debut as a true freshman. Afterward, Clemson's coaches vowed to involve him more the following week.

Consider that vow fulfilled. In his second career game, Wesco caught three passes for 130 yards and a touchdown against Appalachian State, tying the Clemson record for the fewest games needed to record a 100-yard receiving game.

Wesco's 130-yard performance against Appalachian State included a touchdown of 76 yards as well as a 51-yard reception that set up a two-yard Cade Klubnik touchdown run on the ensuing play. Wesco became the first Clemson player with two plays from scrimmage of 50-plus yards in a single game since 2021.

-- NO. 17 QB CHRISTOPHER VIZZINA --

CV'S STARTING DEBUT

Commonly referred to by his initials "CV," redshirt sophomore quarterback Christopher Vizzina was thrust into his starting debut on Oct. 18 against SMU while Cade Klubnik recovered from an ankle injury.

Vizzina became the 49th different player to start a game at quarterback since Clemson abandoned the single wing in 1953. Despite the performance coming in a defeat, the Alabama native played valiantly in his first career start, completing 29-of-42 passes for 317 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions for a pass efficiency rating of 156.0.

Clemson is 28-20-1 in starting quarterback debuts since 1953.

TIGHT END PRODUCTION

Clemson lost its school record holder for career receptions by a tight end over the 2025 offseason when Jake Briningstool graduated and signed with the Kansas City Chiefs. Briningstool caught 127 career passes for 1,380 yards and 17 touchdowns over 48 career games.

Clemson's current group of tight ends will seek to continue the unit's production that has seen the tight end group post 60-plus catches in each of the last three seasons, a first in the Dabo Swinney era.

-- OFFENSIVE LINE --

A VETERAN UNIT IN 2025

Clemson received instant impact from the addition of veteran offensive line coach Matt Luke in his first full season at Clemson in 2024. In his second full season with the Tigers in 2025, he returned an exceedingly veteran unit that returns four of its five primary starters and boasts seven players who have started at least one game for Clemson.

The unit includes two of Clemson's recent iron men. Blake Miller entered his senior season already ranked in the Top 10 in school history in career snaps from scrimmage. Prior to 2025, the two-time All-ACC selection started every game for Clemson at right tackle from 2021-23, and he became the first offensive lineman to start every game played by Clemson during his freshman, sophomore and junior campaigns without the benefit of a redshirt year since starting center Ralph Jenkins from 1943-45.

Miller plays alongside a remarkable comeback story in Walker Parks, who started all 14 games for Clemson in 2024 after missing the majority of the 2022 and 2023 seasons with career-threatening ankle injuries. A veteran of 53 games and 42 starts from 2020-24, Parks is a self-professed Clemson lifer who said of Clemson, "If there were no eligibility [rules], I would stay here forever," a maxim validated by his decision to utilize an extra year of eligibility for a sixth season in 2025.

Clemson's other two returning primary starters include one of the team's foremost leaders and one of its active parables of patience. Left tackle Tristan Leigh started 23 games over the two previous seasons, and his progression from five-star recruit to off-radar redshirt to trusted contributor has given him stature and respect as one of the team's most trusted leaders. Center Ryan Linthicum, meanwhile, was one of Clemson's revelations of 2024. Last spring, the then-career backup was entering his fourth year with limited experience, and he was given spring practice to audition for the role before Clemson sought veteran help at the position. Instead, Linthicum seized the role, starting all 14 games for Clemson and playing 982 snaps from scrimmage, the most of any Clemson player in 2024.

Though depth and injuries combined to limit them to four combined starts in 2024, redshirt junior Collin Sadler and junior Harris Sewell entered 2025 with a combined 40 games and 14 starts of experience along the Tiger offensive line. Sadler provides versatility across the four tackle and guard positions, while Sewell offers tremendous value as a versatile interior piece across the center and guard spots.

Clemson had a breakout young star's trajectory take a brief detour in late 2024. As a true freshman, Elijah Thurmon impressed when called upon to play 74 outstanding snaps in reserve on the road at Virginia Tech last year, and he earned a start the following week before being lost for the remainder of the season on the game's opening play from scrimmage. Whether as a starter or rotational piece, Thurmon stands primed to be a significant fixture on Clemson's line for the next several seasons.

O-LINE EXPERIENCE BREAKDOWN

Clemson's full offensive line group entered the 2025 season with a combined 249 game appearances, 135 starts and 10,403 career offensive snaps.

The experience of Clemson's unit ranked among the Top 10 in terms of both collective games played and games started in a survey of FBS sports information directors prior to the 2025 season. Clemson's totals in each category were accrued exclusively at Clemson rather than by transfers who played or started games at other institutions.

Clemson has had to lean on all of that experience though in 2025 with the unit besieged by injuries. Clemson has started six different offensive line combinations through 10 games.

Clemson's three-game stretch to open November marked the first time this season that Clemson started the same offensive line combination for three consecutive games. That quintet was then broken up by season-ending injuries to Walker Parks and Brayden Jacobs at Louisville.

ALL-CONFERENCE O-LINEMEN

Since 2015, Clemson has produced a total of 32 All-ACC selections along the offensive line, including 12 first-team honors. Clemson's 32 all-conference selections by offensive linemen are an ACC high and the second-most of any power conference program. Clemson also ranks tied for third nationally in first-team selections in that span.

SportSource Analytics produces an Offensive Line Efficiency metric that takes into account tackle for loss percentages, sack percentages, percentages of rushes gaining 4+ yards and success on third-or-fourth-and-short. Clemson is among the national leaders in that total metric since 2015.

OFFENSIVE LINE EFFICIENCY SINCE 2015

Rk Team	TFL%	Sack%	4+ Rush%	3rd/S%	4th/S%	OL Eff.

TRENCH WARFARE

Clemson's success in its 84-22 run since 2018 has been powered in part at the line of scrimmage, where Clemson holds a 326-172 edge over opponents in sacks in that time frame. Clemson's +154 margin in sacks since 2018 is the highest differential in the country.

PARKER'S PROLIFIC 2024 SEASON

As a sophomore in 2024, defensive end T.J. Parker posted 64 tackles (19.5 for loss), 11.0 sacks, a school-record six forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and a pass breakup while starting all 14 games for the Tigers. He finished the year as the only player in the nation to rank in the Top 10 nationally in forced fumbles (six, T-2nd), tackles for loss (19.5, 5th) and sacks (11.0, 9th).

Parker's junior season in 2025 is being played under the tutelage of new Clemson Defensive Coordinator Tom Allen. A year ago, Allen led Penn State defensive end Abdul Carter to unanimous All-America honors and the No. 3 overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft. Carter's 2024 campaign bore a number of statistical similarities to Parker's.

Though he did not garner first-team all-conference honors from the ACC, Parker earned All-America honorable mention recognition from Phil Steele after he broke the Clemson single-season school record for forced fumbles in a season (six), surpassing Brandon Maye's five from 2009. His six forced fumbles finished tied for second in the nation and tied for the national lead among power conference players.

PARKER'S RECORD DAY AT PITT IN 2024

Parker put together one of the most dominant defensive performances in school history in Clemson's 2024 game at Pitt, collecting seven tackles, 5.0 tackles for loss, a school-record-tying 4.0 sacks, his fourth forced fumble of the season and a pass breakup.

Parker earned ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week, Bednarik Award National Player of the Week and Walter Camp Defensive Player of the Week for his performance.

	Austin Bryant (2017)	Auburn	4.0
	Andre Branch (2011)	Virginia Tech	4.0
	Keith Adams (1999)	Duke	4.0

His 4.0 sacks tied for the most of any FBS player in a single game that season. His 5.0 tackles for loss in that game ranked tied for second.

Parker's record day powered Clemson's season highs with eight sacks and 16 tackles for loss in the contest. Clemson's 16 tackles for loss tied for fourth-most in program history and its eight sacks tied for eighth.

WE SEE YOU, T.J. 🐯

Parker emphatically announced his arrival as a freshman in 2023 when he set a Clemson true freshman record with 12.5 tackles for loss. That total tied for the national lead in tackles for loss among freshmen.

Parker initially committed to Penn State but coveted a Clemson offer. He decommitted from the Nittany Lions in hopes of soliciting Clemson, and Clemson's 2023 recruiting class immediately went to work.

"CV [Christopher Vizzina], Peter [Woods] and a few other guys on the team, they hit me up with the eyes emoji on Instagram," Parker said. "It was like, 'You know what time it is.' I texted Coach Ski [Then-Clemson Defensive Ends Coach Lemanski Hall] the eyes emoji, the same thing they sent me, and from there we got in contact and a few days later they offered and I committed."

-- NO. 8 CB AVIEON TERRELL --

IMPACT STARTER

Avieon Terrell made his first start at Clemson on Nov. 4, 2023, when he was inserted into the lineup as a true freshman in Clemson's 31-23 home upset of Notre Dame. Beginning that day, Terrell has started every game for Clemson, including the final five games of 2023, all 14 games in 2024 and every game to date in 2025.

As part of his all-conference campaign in 2024, Terrell recorded three forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and two interceptions. He became the first Clemson player under Dabo Swinney to finish a season with at least three forced fumbles, multiple interceptions and multiple fumble recoveries.

Terrell added three forced fumbles over Clemson's first five games of the 2025 season, and the Thorpe Award semifinalist added his fourth of the year at Louisville in November.

His seven career forced fumbles are a Clemson school record for a defensive back and tied for seventh-most in school history across all positions.

Note: Terrell made his first start on Nov. 4, 2023

On Sept. 20, Terrell made his first start at Clemson's "Tiger" position as the slot cornerback vs. Syracuse. In his first start at the position, he recorded five pass breakups, tying Clemson's single-game school record set by Perry Williams in 1985 against Virginia Tech.

FORCED FUMBLES IN 2025

Terrell's four forced fumbles in 2025 rank tied for first in the ACC and tied for fourth nationally this season.

Terrell is the only player in the nation this season credited with at least nine passes defended and four or more forced fumbles. The only other player in the nation to reach even six passes defended and four forced fumbles is Texas Tech linebacker Jacob Rodriguez, presumed to be among the frontrunners for the Butkus Award and other prominent national defensive awards.

-- NO. 17 LB WADE WOODAZ --

OPENING A CAN OF WOODAZ

In each of linebacker Wade Woodaz's first three seasons at Clemson, the Tampa product has watched as one of his linebacker counterparts earned All-America recognition, including honors for Barrett Carter in 2022 and 2024 and for Jeremiah Trotter Jr. in 2022 and 2023. Head Coach Dabo Swinney was quick though to warn observers not to overlook Woodaz.

"He's a baller," Swinney said. "The kid is tough, physical, he can really run. He really understands the game at a high level. He played most of his [prep] career as a quarterback and as a safety, so he has a great understanding of the game. He plays really, really hard; he's a great effort guy, he's a great preparer and he loves it. He's a fun guy to coach and a fun guy to watch play because he plays the way you want everybody to play."

Though Clemson's linebacker corps in 2024 included All-American Barrett Carter and ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year Sammy Brown, it was Woodaz who led the team in tackles, a feat he accomplished despite missing two games with a leg contusion. Coaches credited Woodaz with 89 stops, 10 tackles for loss, 3.0 sacks, six pass breakups, three forced fumbles and an interception.

Woodaz was one of six power conference players to record double-digit tackles for loss, three or more forced fumbles and an interception in 2024 (Texas' Anthony Hill Jr. and Colin Simmons, Indiana's Jailin Walker, UCLA's Kain Medrano and Texas Tech's Jacob Rodriguez). He also became the first Clemson player credited with at least 75 tackles and at least three forced fumbles since Isaiah Simmons in 2018.

-- NO. 47 LB SAMMY BROWN --

SAMMY'S SENSATIONAL START

Linebacker Sammy Brown arrived at Clemson in January 2024 as a consensus Top 30 player in his recruiting class and as the nation's reigning High School Butkus Award winner.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney praised Brown as an "alpha," but spoke frequently about Brown's learning curve at the linebacker position after playing both running back and linebacker at Jefferson High School in Commerce, Ga. The linebacker tabbed as 247Sports' No. 1 "freak athlete" in the 2024 recruiting class proved to be a quick study, appearing in all 14 games for Clemson with six starts.

After Clemson opened its first eight games of 2024 in two-linebacker sets, Brown earned his first start at Virginia Tech in November that year as Clemson opened the game with three linebackers. The former five-star prospect delivered, recording a team-high eight tackles (per the gameday stat crew) with 2.5 tackles for loss and a sack.

"Sammy's been getting better and better and better and it was awesome to see him have that type of game," Swinney said after Brown's performance at Virginia Tech. "He's just a confident young man, and, boy, he's got a bright future ahead of him. He's going to be a great one."

Despite playing only 444 defensive snaps over 14 games in 2024, Brown ranked second in the nation in tackles for loss among freshmen.

Along with Barrett Carter (10.5) and Wade Woodaz (10.0), Brown gave Clemson three linebackers with double-digit tackles for loss for the first time since 2016 (Kendall Joseph, Ben Boulware and Dorian O'Daniel).

Brown ranked third in Clemson history in tackles for loss by a true freshman and fourth among that group in sacks.

MEET THE NEW GUYS

- WR Tristan Smith (signed Dec. 18): Smith joined Clemson after playing the 2024 season at Southeast Missouri State, helping the Redhawks to a first-place finish in the Big South-OVC Football Association and a berth in the Football Championship Subdivision playoffs. The 2024 all-conference honoree played in SEMO's final 11 games of the season, catching 76 passes for 934 yards and six touchdown receptions in addition to rushing for one touchdown.

- DE Will Heldt (signed Dec. 19): Heldt signed with Clemson after playing his first two collegiate seasons at Purdue, appearing in all 24 games for the Boilermakers from 2023-24. As a sophomore in 2024, gameday stat crews credited Heldt with 56 tackles (10.0 for loss), 5.0 sacks and a fumble recovery he returned 16 yards for a touchdown. He recorded 2.5 sacks and the 16-yard scoop-and-score in back-to-back games against ranked opponents Illinois and Oregon in October.

- LB Jeremiah Alexander (signed Jan. 8): Alexander played his first three collegiate seasons at Alabama from 2022-24. Following a redshirt year in 2022 in which he appeared in three games, Alexander played in 24 of the Crimson Tide's 27 games across the 2023-24 seasons and was credited with eight tackles in those contests. In high school, he led Alabama's Thompson High School to the 2021 state championship (alongside current Clemson defensive lineman Peter Woods) as a consensus five-star recruit across most major outlets and ranked among the nation's top 50 players in his class.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney expounded on Clemson's strategy for the three winter transfer additions:

"As I've always said, we do what's best for Clemson. We'll use the portal whenever we need it and we'll be strategic with it. We needed it four years ago; we needed a backup quarterback and we got one. The next year, we needed a backup quarterback and we got one and he was here for two years.

"This year, we didn't anticipate signing a defensive line portal guy. We had two great ones committed and we were taking two. But as y'all know, things can change in recruiting. We had a young man back out and decide to go somewhere else, so there wasn't anybody left to recruit that could fill the need. Now we [had] a gap so we had to go use the portal and we needed a high-level guy and we got the guy I wanted to hit [Heldt].

"From a receiver standpoint, we had two guys go in the portal, and so we had a gap. We needed to go get a guy, and we needed somebody that could come in and help us with our depth and come in and compete and we found a great kid in Tristan out in Southeast Missouri. We were looking for a little length, and high school recruiting was over; there was nobody to get. We needed to go get a guy.

"And then the linebacker situation, honestly, we weren't really going to take a 'backer. We knew we needed another guy. Logan Anderson, our signee, tore his ACL. Kobe [McCloud], his situation [rehabbing from a knee injury]. We knew we probably needed another guy, but we were going to wait until May. And then Jeremiah popped up. We knew all about him, obviously recruited him hard, knew his family. That was a really good situation that worked out for us.

"That's really it. Nothing different. I know everybody likes to write about it, but our process is still the same. We're going to recruit high school kids as long as we can get the best of the best. As long as we can get the Gideon Davidsons of the world and the Sammy Browns of the world and the T.J. Parkers and Peter Woods and Cade Klubniks, that's what we're going to do, and we're going to develop... And then we have to respond if we have a situation and we have a gap in our roster or we have kids that leave. For us, that's how we use the portal, but the process isn't any different. They've still got to be the right fit, they've got to check all the boxes, they can't just be a good player. No different than our high school recruiting."

-- DEFENSE --

CFP-ERA DEFENSIVE TRACK RECORD

Clemson has a track record of producing one of the nation's top defenses in most seasons since the advent of the College Football Playoff in 2014.

Clemson ranked in the Top 30 in the country in total defense in each of the first 10 seasons of the CFP era and also ranked among the Top 30 in scoring defense in those 10 campaigns (including five Top 5 finishes in the category).

CLEMSON DEFENSE SINCE 2014

2023	287.8	8	21.1	30
2024	374.1	69	23.4	49

Clemson's defensive anomaly in 2024 led to a change in leadership, as the Tigers plucked Penn State Defensive Coordinator Tom Allen for Clemson's defensive coordinator position immediately following the Nittany Lions' exit from the College Football Playoff. Allen now leads a Clemson defense that tied for the national lead in Top 10 finishes in average yards allowed per game in the College Football Playoff era.

ALLEN IS ALL IN

Clemson officially announced Tom Allen as its new defensive coordinator on Jan. 14.

"Tom checked every box that I was looking for," Head Coach Dabo Swinney said. "We've got a great football coach — and a great leader of men — coming to Clemson... He brings a ton of experience and was highly recommended by some of the best people in this business."

Allen joined the Tigers with more than three decades of coaching experience. In 2024, he helped Penn State to a school-record 13 wins and a College Football Playoff berth. His defense recorded two pick-sixes in Penn State's 38-10 win against SMU in the College Football Playoff First Round, and in the following game, his unit bottled up Heisman runner-up Ashton Jeanty, holding the star running back to a season-low 3.47 yards per carry and no touchdowns in a 31-14 Penn State victory in the CFP Quarterfinal at Fiesta Bowl.

Penn State finished seventh in the nation in total defense (294.8 yards per game) and eighth in the nation in scoring defense (16.5 points per game) under Allen's guidance in 2024.

300 OR FEWER YARDS

BACKFIELD INVADERS

Clemson's defense calls Death Valley home but might as well file for dual residency in opponents' backfields. Since 2012, Clemson leads the nation in both sacks and tackles for loss.

In September 2023, Clemson became the first program in the country to record 500 sacks since the start of the 2012 season. In October 2025, Clemson also became the first program to reach 1,500 tackles for loss in that span.

WHO'S YOUR HAUSER?

Placekicker Nolan Hauser arrived at Clemson in January 2024 as the national high school record-holder for career field goals made (66) during his career at Hough High School in Cornelius, N.C.

Hauser (pronounced HOO-zer, not HOW-zer) opened his career with a streak of 25 consecutive made kicks (five field goals & 20 PATs) in 2024 before a blocked PAT against Stanford accounted for his first miss.

A week later at Florida State, Hauser made five field goals and accounted for 17 total points in Clemson's 16-point road win. The five-field-goal performance by Hauser was Clemson's first since Chandler Catanzaro went 5-for-5 on field goal attempts against Boston College in 2011.

Hauser's six points against Virginia Tech in November 2024 gave him the school record for points in a true freshman season, breaking the previous mark of 78 set by Sammy Watkins in 2011. In the ACC Championship Game, he reached the century mark to post the first 100-point season by a true freshman in Clemson history.

Hauser's 113-point 2024 season ranked tied for sixth in Clemson history in kicking points scored in a single season and tied for ninth in school history in points scored by any means in a single season.

Hauser is a second-generation Clemson student-athlete. His mother, Sheri Hauser (née Bueter), was an All-American soccer player at Clemson from 1994-97, and his father, Scott, played baseball at Clemson in from 1995-97 and was 6-2 as a pitcher on Clemson's College World Series team of 1996. His sister, Ella, was also a member of Clemson's women's soccer team from 2021-24.

HAUSER'S HIGHLIGHT

Though the pronunciation of his last name often trips up observers, Hauser made his name much more nationally recognizable with the seminal highlight of the 2024 ACC Championship Game.

In what Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney called "the biggest kick in Clemson history," the true freshman booted a 56-yard game winning field goal as time expired to give Clemson its 22nd ACC title, its 10th win of the season and its seventh College Football Playoff berth. Of note:

- Hauser's field goal gave Clemson the first walk-off win in ACC Championship Game history.

- Hauser became the first Clemson player to kick a game-winning walk-off field goal since Chandler Catanzaro hit a 37-yard field goal to beat LSU to end the 2012 Chick-Fil-A Bowl.

- Hauser's 56-yard field goal was the longest game-winning field goal as time expired in Clemson history.

- Hauser's career-long 56-yard field goal was the fourth-longest field goal in Clemson history but its longest away from Death Valley. It was also the longest field goal in postseason play in Clemson history.

- Hauser became the first FBS player ever to win a conference championship game by kicking a field goal of 50 or more yards as time expired.

- The game-winning field goal came in Hauser's home metro area, as his hometown of Cornelius, N.C. is roughly 20 miles north of Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte.

HAUSER IN 2025

After a shaky start to his sophomore season that included with a miss in two of Clemson's first three games (and an additional miss wiped out by a pre-snap timeout), Hauser has responded by hitting 10 consecutive field goal attempts since the start of October.

THE OTHER SWINNEY DYNASTY

Like the Colquitt family punting at Tennessee, the Swinney family holding for placekicks at Clemson has become a dynasty of its own.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's oldest son, Will, arrived at Clemson in 2017 and immediately earned Clemson's starting holder position on placekicks. He played five seasons and a record-tying 69 games at Clemson through 2021. In those five seasons, Clemson scored 565 points on placekicks, including field goals and PATs, and he held for 555 of those 565 points. The only 10 Clemson kicking points not held by Will in his career were instead held by his brother, Drew, who was Clemson's starter at the position in 2022.

Will and Drew were succeeded by the youngest of the three Swinney boys, Clay, a redshirt junior in his third season as Clemson's starting holder in 2025. Clay's presence creates a plausible scenario in which every Clemson placekick in a full 10-year span from 2017-26 could be held by a Swinney.

Clemson's last hold by any player outside the Swinney family was on the final point of Clemson's 2016 national championship, as Seth Ryan, coincidentally also the son of a famous long-time coach (Rex Ryan), held the PAT following Hunter Renfrow's game-winning touchdown with one second remaining.

Note: Listed points only reflect kicking points on held field goals or PATs. Will scored 12 additional points, six via receiving touchdown on offense and six via rushing touchdown on a fake field goal; Drew and Clay each scored two additional points on a fake PAT.

Clemson's 2024 win against Stanford marked Clemson's 100th consecutive game with a Swinney as holder, a game that ironically resulted in Dabo Swinney's 100th career home win at Memorial Stadium. The family crossed 800 kicking points held for in the contest as well.

DEFEATS IN REVIEW

Clemson has lost 26 games since 2015, the fourth-fewest in the nation in that span. Eleven of Clemson's 26 losses since 2015 — 42.3 percent — have come against AP Top 10 teams.

The opponents to whom Clemson has lost since 2015 have a combined final record of 241-86, a winning percentage of .737. Clemson has not lost to a team that finished with a losing record since 2017 and has not lost to a team with a losing record at the time of the game since losing to 2-5 Boston College in 2010, Dabo Swinney's second full season as head coach.

Clemson was held without a rushing touchdown in its 34-21 home loss to Syracuse on Sept. 20. Prior to that game, Clemson had an active streak of 62 consecutive home games with a rushing touchdown at Death Valley. Before Syracuse accomplished the feat this year, the last team to hold Clemson out of the Memorial Stadium end zones on the ground was Troy in the 2016 home opener.

MIND THE "MIDDLE EIGHT"

Since 2015, Clemson's most successful teams have frequently won one of the hidden "games within the game" on each side of halftime. SportSource Analytics tracks the "Middle Eight," the section of the game defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Clemson has outscored opponents in that time window 82 times since 2015, posting a 78-4 record in those contests.

2022	Michigan	68.6
2023	Michigan	70.9
2024	Tennessee	71.8

Note: Includes independent Notre Dame, which has College Football Playoff access equivalent with power conferences.

Clemson has not only often led the nation in that category but has often lapped the field. In 2019, Clemson played an average of 76.0 players per game, an average that far exceeded all power conference programs by more than 11 players — a full unit — per game.

Per data available via the NCAA stat database, Clemson ranked second among power conference schools in average players per game in 2024 — only six hundredths of a player behind national leader Tennessee — but ranked first in total players played.

2024	71.7	10-4

Note: Partial-season allowances for redshirts began in 2018.

The approach to creating functional depth and rewarding players ready to play has been a key philosophy for Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose own collegiate playing career was hatched as a walk-on fighting for playing time in Alabama's receiving corps.

"We're fully committed to playing guys who deserve to play," Swinney said. "You commit to a guy early in the season, and even if a guy has only played 10 percent of the snaps, when you get to game eight or nine, they've got some good experience."

In a statistic unlikely to be challenged in the wake of upcoming NCAA roster limits, Clemson has played 100+ players in a game six times under Dabo Swinney.

FINISH

In 2018, Clemson debuted a new version of its "This is Why We Work" fourth quarter video at Death Valley, a hype video imploring the team to finish and featuring Director of Strength and Conditioning Joey Batson bellowing:

"Let me tell you something right now: they don't put championship rings on smooth hands! You gotta go earn it! You gotta go earn it six seconds at a time! You win championships when the stadium is empty, when the band ain't playing, when the cheerleaders ain't cheering, when it's just you and your brothers right beside you. That's when you win championships! In the fourth quarter, that is when we shine!"

The video and the speech became a part of Clemson lore, buoyed by its playing during Clemson's comeback win against Syracuse that year en route to a 15-0 national championship season. Over the years, the video has changed but the speech remains the same, with many Clemson fans yelling it in unison as it plays.

Clemson holds a 165-10 record under Dabo Swinney when leading after three quarters, including a 149-7 mark since 2011.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

- Entering the 2025 fall semester, of the 410 eligible players who completed their athletic eligibility at Clemson and/or graduated early in Dabo Swinney's 16+ full years as head coach, 404 (98.5 percent) have earned a degree during their time at Clemson.

- Clemson earned the AFCA Academic Achievement Award for 2024. The award was Clemson's fourth in the last seven years, but it was Clemson's fourth in the last five years that the honor was actually awarded, as the organization did not name recipients during a two-year period amid the COVID-19 pandemic.

- Clemson broke program multi-year NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) records in three straight years from 2017-19 (987 in 2016-17, 992 in 2017-18 and 993 in 2018-19) before the NCAA suspended APR reporting during the COVID-19 pandemic. Upon reinstatement of APR reporting in June 2022, Clemson shattered its multi-year APR record with a 999 covering the 2017-18 through 2020-21 academic years. Clemson has posted a 995 multi-year APR in each of the last three cycles.

- Most recently, Clemson posted a 995 multi-year APR covering 2020-21 through 2023-24, tied for fifth-best in the FBS. Clemson's lofty academic success in that period coincided with 40 wins in a four-year span and two ACC titles.

5.	2018-19	993

- Clemson and Northwestern are the only FBS programs to produce a 990+ multi-year APR in each of the last six reported cycles.

- Clemson is the only program in the country to have finished among the Top 25 in APR among FBS schools and the AP Top 25 in every reported APR cycle since 2011.

Notes: The NCAA suspended APR reporting for the 2019-20 academic year amid COVID-19, but Clemson's unreported APR would have again placed Clemson in the top 25 of FBS programs; APR data for 2024-25 will be published in spring 2026.

- Prior to the suspension of APR Public Recognition Awards following the COVID-19 pandemic, the NCAA recognized Clemson with its annual honor, which is bestowed upon programs ranking in the Top 10 percent of their respective sports, for nine of the award's last 10 reported academic cycles. Only 37 FBS programs earned at least one APR recognition across the 2009-10 through 2018-19 academic years. Only 30 programs earned it multiple times. Clemson, Duke and Northwestern were the only ones to earn the award 9+ times in that 10-year span.

- With its award for the 2018-19 academic year, Clemson became the only FBS program since the NCAA created the APR metric in 2003 to win a national championship and an APR Public Recognition Award in the same year multiple times. Alabama is the only other school to accomplish the title/APR double in a single year once (2011-12 academic year).

- A program-record 98 individuals earned a 3.0 GPA or better in Fall 2024. That included program-record 20 perfect 4.0s.

- Clemson set a record in Fall 2024 with the highest single-semester GPA in program history with a 3.19 team GPA. Clemson followed that up with a 3.18 spring semester.

- Entering the 2025 fall semester, Clemson has had 75+ individuals earn a 3.0 or better GPA in eight consecutive semesters.

HISTORIC GRADUATION SUCCESS RATE

Aided in part by historically elite academic performance by Clemson Football, Clemson Athletics tied for best in the NCAA among public Power Five institutions in Graduation Success Rate (GSR) with a 96 percent mark for the 2014-17 cohort in data released by the NCAA in November 2024.

Football reached a 99 percent mark for the second year in a row, again tying the highest GSR score for any Power Five football program, and tying the highest ever recorded among public Power Five football programs in the 20 years the NCAA has tracked the metric. Football trailed only Air Force and LIU (100 percent) in this release, and tied Columbia, Harvard and Northwestern.

ALL EYES ON CLEMSON

"Where the Blue Ridge yawns its greatness, where the Tigers play..."

Those are the opening words to Clemson's alma mater. In recent years, "where the Tigers play" has also been where eyes and television sets inevitably turn.

From 2018-24, Clemson games accounted for three of the nine most-watched college football games and five of the 26 most-watched games in that span.

The interest in watching Clemson play hasn't been limited to television broadcasts. Clemson continues to provide one of the marquee in-venue experiences in all of sports, as Clemson entered 2024 having been ranked in the Top 20 in the nation average home attendance at Memorial Stadium for 44 straight seasons.

2024 ALL-ACC SELECTIONS

A conference-best 10 Clemson players earned recognition on the ACC's annual squads recognizing the conference's best in 2024. With the honors, Clemson produced double-digit All-ACC selections for the ninth time in 10 seasons.

RELATIVELY SPEAKING

Clemson's 2025 roster has many connections to college and professional athletics. Below is a list of notable connections:

- Keith Adams Jr., RB: Son of Keith Adams, a Clemson Athletic Hall of Famer at linebacker for the Tigers from 1998-2000.

- Jamal Anderson, LB: Son of Jamal Anderson, an eight-year NFL running back who earned first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors in 1998 in helping the Falcons to a berth in Super Bowl XXXIII.

- Logan Brooking, TE: Son of 15-year NFL linebacker Keith Brooking, a five-time Pro Bowl selection who was 12th pick of the 1998 NFL Draft and remains the all-time leading tackler for both Georgia Tech and the Atlanta Falcons.

- Sammy Brown, LB: Son of former Furman football player Mike Brown.

- Vic Burley, DT: Cousin of Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Tackles Coach (and 10-year NFL veteran) Nick Eason.

- Brodey Conn, LS/P: Son of Defensive Pass Game Coordinator/Safeties Coach Mickey Conn.

- Ashton Hampton, CB: Son of University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff Head Coach Alonzo Hampton.

- Ronan Hanafin, S: Son of Dan Hanafin, who played quarterback at Boston University and was the program's starting quarterback in its final year in 1997; also the brother of Boston College quarterback Shane Hanafin.

CHURNING OUT NFL TALENT

Since assuming the head role midseason in 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has produced 86 NFL draft picks during his head coaching tenure. His 86 draft picks produced are the most by any active coach in the nation since the 2009 NFL Draft, and his 18 first-rounders are the fourth-most overall and second-most of any active coach in that span.

MOST PLAYERS DRAFTED BY COACH SINCE 2009 NFL DRAFT

In recent years, Clemson has been one of the NFL's primary provider of first-round talent among defensive linemen and linebackers. Clemson's nine first-round picks from its defensive front seven since the 2015 NFL Draft rank second in the nation.

FIRST-ROUND DEFENSIVE LINEMEN & LINEBACKERS SINCE 2015 NFL DRAFT

Rk	School	DL/LB
1.	Georgia	10
2.	Clemson	9
3.	Alabama	8

Michigan	8
5. Ohio State	5

Additional nuggets on Clemson's recent success in the NFL Draft are included below:

- Clemson has had at least one player selected in 23 consecutive drafts since 2003, representing the second-longest streak in school history behind a 24-year streak across the 1951-74 NFL Drafts.

- Clemson is one of only six schools to have produced multiple draft picks in each of the last 23 NFL Drafts (LSU, Michigan, Oklahoma, Ohio State and USC).

- Clemson has had at least three selections in 16 of its 17 drafts since Dabo Swinney was elevated to head coach. Clemson is one of six schools to have produced three or more picks at least 16 times in that span alongside Alabama, LSU, Ohio State, Oklahoma and USC.

- Including two defensive picks in the 2025 NFL Draft, Clemson has produced multiple defensive draft picks in 14 of the 17 drafts of the Dabo Swinney era. Clemson, LSU, Alabama, Ohio State and Georgia are the only programs to produce multiple draft picks from their defenses in at least 14 drafts in that span.

- Clemson has had at least one player chosen by 30 of the 32 NFL franchises since 2003. The lone exceptions in that time frame are the Patriots, who last selected a Tiger in 1991, and the Panthers, who have never selected a Clemson player despite playing their first season in franchise history in Death Valley.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney has produced a draft pick for 28 of the 32 NFL teams in his head coaching tenure; the only NFL teams not to select a Clemson player in Swinney's head coaching tenure are the Chicago Bears, Denver Broncos, New England Patriots and Carolina Panthers.

- Though Clemson did not have a player selected in the first round of the 2025 NFL Draft, Clemson has had at least one first-round draft choice in 10 of the last 13 years, standing alongside Alabama, Florida, Georgia and Ohio State as the only programs to produce a first-round pick in at least 10 of the last 13 years.

- Since 2013, Clemson has produced first-round picks from the QB, RB, WR, DE, DT, LB and DB position groups. The only other school with at least one first-rounder at all those positions in that span is Alabama.

- Linebacker Barrett Carter's selection in the 2025 NFL Draft represented the fourth consecutive draft in which Clemson had a linebacker selected. Clemson and Alabama are the only programs in the nation to produce at least one linebacker in each of the last four NFL Drafts.

- Safety R.J. Mickens' selection in the 2025 NFL Draft gave Clemson at least one drafted defensive back in 13 of Clemson's 17 drafts in the Dabo Swinney era.

GAME 4

SYRACUSE	34
CLEMSON	21

SEPT. 20, 2025
MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. - Clemson racked up 503 yards of offense, but Syracuse ran out to a 24-7 first-half lead en route to a 34-21 Orange win at Memorial Stadium.

Running back Adam Randall recorded 227 all-purpose yards, including seven catches for 44 yards and a touchdown in addition to his 130 rushing yards. Quarterback Cade Klubnik went 37-for-60 for 363 yards and three touchdown passes.

Syracuse scored on its first drive when quarterback Steve Angeli connected with Justus Ross-Simmons on a 12-yard touchdown pass. Syracuse then used a surprise onside kick and 11 plays to add another three points.

Clemson capitalized on its first possession, finishing a nine-play, 75-yard drive with a 38-yard touchdown pass from Klubnik to Bryant Wesco Jr.

Syracuse extended its lead to 17-7 with a nine-yard rushing touchdown, and after forcing Clemson to punt, Darrell Gill Jr. caught a 22-yard touchdown pass to make the score 24-7. Klubnik's six-yard touchdown pass to Randall with 1:06 left to play in the half cut Syracuse's halftime advantage to 24-14.

The teams incurred a one-hour-and-36-minute lighting delay that began with four minutes remaining in halftime. Syracuse increased its lead in the third quarter as Woody converted a 49-yard field goal with 11:44 on the clock. Later in the quarter, the Orange recovered a Clemson fumble, and Rickie Collins connected with Ross-Simmons on an 18-yard touchdown pass to extend their lead 34-14.

A nine-yard fourth-quarter touchdown pass from Klubnik to Wesco made the score 34-21, but an interception and a turnover on downs on Clemson's final two possessions gave Syracuse the victory.

GAME 5

CLEMSON	38
NORTH CAROLINA	10

OCT. 4, 2025
KENAN STADIUM • CHAPEL HILL, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - Clemson scored a touchdown on its first offensive play and on each of its first four possessions as the Tigers rode a 28-3 first-quarter lead to a 38-10 victory at Kenan Stadium.

The contest was the 300th overall game for Dabo Swinney at Clemson, including 68 games as an assistant coach and 232 as head coach. His matchup with Bill Belichick was the second time in college football history a coach with multiple FBS national championships as a head coach faced one with multiple Super Bowl titles as a head coach.

Quarterback Cade Klubnik finished 22-of-24 for 254 passing yards and four touchdowns through the air. Wide receiver T.J. Moore hauled in five passes for 108 yards and a touchdown, and running back Adam Randall and tight end Christian Bentancur each added two receiving touchdowns.

Moore scored on the game's first play from scrimmage, converting a double pass from Antonio Williams for a 75-yard touchdown. North Carolina cut the lead to 7-3 on its opening possession, but Clemson added touchdowns on its next three possessions — a 35-yard pass to Randall, a 45-yard pass to Bentancur and another 23-yard pass to Randall — for a 28-3 edge.

Clemson pushed its halftime advantage to 35-3 in front of an emptying crowd with an eight-yard pass to Bentancur with 2:02 to play in the half.

Clemson's reserves pushed the score to 38-3 early in the fourth quarter. North Carolina found the end zone for the first time on an 11-yard touchdown run by Benjamin Hall with 10:25 to play, but Clemson ultimately earned its seventh straight win against the Tar Heels.

GAME 6

CLEMSON	41
BOSTON COLLEGE	10

OCT. 11, 2025
ALUMNI STADIUM • CHESTNUT HILL, MASS.

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. - Clemson scored on all six of its first-half drives to earn a 41-10 win over Boston College at Alumni Stadium. The win pushed the Tigers' winning streak against Boston College to 13 games.

The Boston College Gridiron Club presented the Leather Helmet Award to quarterback Cade Klubnik as the game's MVP. Klubnik finished 22-for-30 for 280 yards passing and a 38-yard touchdown pass to Bryant Wesco Jr. and also ran for 48 yards and a touchdown on nine carries. Wesco amassed a team-high 106 yards and a touchdown on five catches.

The Eagles entered the contest ranked 10th nationally at 313.4 passing yards per game, but Clemson held BC to just 136 passing yards. The defense also added five sacks, seven tackles for loss, an interception and a fumble recovery.

Clemson opened the game with a 13-play field goal drive on offense and a three-and-out on defense, setting up an Adam Randall eight-yard touchdown run. The Eagles answered with a field goal, but the Tigers responded with another touchdown drive ending in the first career touchdown for defensive tackle Peter Woods on a two-yard run.

Boston College cut the Clemson lead to 17-10 in the second quarter on a two-yard Turbo Richard touchdown run, but the score would be the Eagles' final points of the game. Klubnik scampered for a six-yard touchdown on Clemson's next possession, and the Tigers tacked on 10 more points before halftime on Klubnik's shot to Wesco and an end-of-half 50-yard field goal by Hauser to give the Tigers a 34-10 halftime advantage.

Clemson pushed the final score to 41-10 on a 10-play, 60-yard drive that resulted in a one-yard touchdown run by Keith Adams Jr. in the final minute.

2025 GAME RECAPS

GAME 10	CLEMSON	20
	LOUISVILLE	19
	NOV. 14, 2025 L&N FCU STADIUM • LOUISVILLE, KY.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — After running back Adam Randall scored his second touchdown of the game on fourth-and-goal with 7:16 to play, Clemson held Louisville to two missed field goals and a turnover on downs to earn a 20-19 road win at No. 19/21 Louisville.

Randall rushed for 105 yards and two touchdowns on 15 carries. Linebacker Sammy Brown led Clemson with 11 tackles (2.0 for loss) and a sack, and cornerback Avieon Terrell forced and recovered a fumble, which gave him sole possession of the Clemson record for career forced fumbles by a defensive back (seven).

Clemson struck first, finishing a 12-play, 65-yard opening drive with a 27-yard Nolan Hauser field goal. Louisville leveled the score at 3-3 late in the first quarter with a 51-yard field goal by Cooper Ranvier.

Louisville quarterback Miller Moss scored a one-yard rushing touchdown to give Louisville its first lead of the game. The Cardinals held a 9-3 lead following a missed extra point by Ranvier. After a Clemson punt, Terrell's strip gave Clemson the ball in Louisville territory at the 25-yard line. On the next play, Randall rushed for a 25-yard touchdown to give Clemson a 10-9 halftime lead.

Louisville received the ball to start the second half and capped a seven-play, 75-yard drive with a two-yard touchdown pass from wide receiver Caullin Lacy to Nate Kurisky. Clemson cut the deficit to 16-13 on the ensuing possession on a 48-yard Hauser field goal and Louisville responded with a 39-yard field goal.

A wild fourth quarter included Louisville stopping Clemson on fourth-and-goal at the Louisville 1, but the Tigers got the ball back and took the lead on Randall's one-yard touchdown. Louisville had opportunities for go-ahead field goals from 50 and 46 yards in the final 4:06 but converted neither before Clemson forced a final turnover on downs to earn the Friday night win.
