OPENING WEEKEND HISTORY

- Entering its sixth season of competition, Clemson has maintained a 16-5 record through action during opening weekend.
- The only season Clemson had a losing record after the first weekend of play was the inaugural season in 2020 when the Tigers were 2-3.
- The Tigers have outthit opponents during opening weekend 175-114.
- Clemson's previous victories against both Georgia State (2023) and Missouri State (2024) came during opening weekend action.

TO KNOWLER IS TO LOVE HER

- Julia Knowler stepped onto the collegiate scene with a splash in 2024.
- In her first collegiate game, Knowler went 3-for-4 with four RBIs and three runs scored. Her hits included a solo home run in her first plate appearance and a two-run shot out of dead center (vs. Missouri State).
- Knowler went on to contribute two hits and two RBIs in the 3-2 victory against Indiana, as well as two hits and one RBI between the Liberty and Oregon games. Both of her hits vs. Liberty and Oregon resulted in the pinch runner scoring.
- Knowler finished her freshman campaign with a .273 average, .500 slugging percentage and .370 on-base percentage. She also added six multi-hit games and nine multi-RBI games
- She missed 20 games last season due to a non-orthopedic surgery.
- The sophomore returns to the lineup in 2025 as the reigning doubles leader (10 - 2024).
- Before Clemson, she was the Florida Gatorade Player of the Year in 2021.

SHE'S GIVING MOORE

- Senior infielder Maddie Moore has come into her own over the last three seasons.
- The Loomis, Calif., native is the lone all-american returning to the Clemson lineup after garnering third team honors at second base following the 2024 season.
- Seeing time throughout her career at second base, third base and shortstop, she leads returners with 171 career starts and 173 career appearances.
- Defensively, she has clocked 207 putouts and 312 assists. Her 312 assists sits second all-time at Clemson trailing only Alia Logoleo (417).
- She also sits second for career double-plays turned with 31 - trailing only Logoleo (38).
- At the plate, Moore has significantly improved during her time in the Orange and Regalia. As a freshman, she maintained a .190 average in comparison to her team-leading .368 average in 2024.
- Additional increases came in the form of total hits (2021 - 19 vs. 2024 - 38) and walks (2021 - 13 vs. 2024 - 29) to result in a .184 on-base percentage increase (.293 to .477).
- Moore takes a 22-game reached base streak into the 2025 campaign that dates back to March 28, 2024 against Boston College.
- This is the second-longest reached base streak by a Tiger trailing only Valerie Cagle's 25 games in 2021 (see top 10 below):

BASE THIEVES

- Not only is senior Maddie Moore smart at the plate, but she has been able to lead the Tigers by stealing 40 bases over the course of her career.
- The senior was a perfect 10-for-10 during her freshman campaign and has gone on to steal an additional 15 bases in both her sophomore and junior seasons.
- With 40 career stolen bases, Moore sits third all-time at Clemson trailing only McKenzie Clark (46) and Carlee Shannon (45).
- Joining Moore on the top-10 list is sophomore Kylee Johnson.
- Johnson stole 11 bases during her freshman campaign on 13 attempts.
- Her 11-consecutive stolen bases dating from Feb. 14, 2024 to April 9, 2024 is tied for the eighth longest streak in Clemson softball history.
- See the complete Top 10 Career Stolen Bases list below:

TOP 10 - CAREER STOLEN BASES

Player	Years	Total
McKenzie Clark	2021-24	46
Carlee Shannon	2020-22	45
Maddie Moore	2022-Pres.	40

- Additional Tigers with stolen bases on the 2025 roster: Alex Brown (17 total - 4 at Clemson), Aby Vieira (2 total), Jamison Brockenbrough (3 total - 0 at Clemson), Reese Basinger (1 total - 0 at Clemson).

BROWNIE POINTS

- Senior Alex Brown joined the Clemson roster prior to the 2024 season after transferring from North Carolina.
- In her first year with the program, she started in all 54 games at either second, third or shortstop.
- At the plate, she floated between the leadoff and second spot and maintained a .328 average with a .462 slugging percentage and .388 on-base percentage.
- She leads all returners from the 2024 season in both runs score (44) and hits (61). She also had a team-high four triples last season.
- In 2024 conference play, she was third on the team (second of those returning in 2025) with a .373 average and 31 hits.
- Most notable in 2024, Brown went 5-for-10 with two home runs, three runs and a 1.200 slugging percentage in the series against the Tar Heels.

IN THE CIRCLE

- The Clemson Tigers return only two pitchers from the 2024 staff in senior Brooke McCubbin and sophomore Olivia Duncan.
- McCubbin, who racked up 10 wins last season for the second most on the roster, finished with a 2.83 ERA through 59.1 innings with 42 strikeouts.
- During her first three seasons, she has allowed only 30 extra-base hits (13 doubles, 1 triple, 16 home runs) and limited opponents to a .223 average.
- Duncan, who made six appearances as a freshman, finished with six innings of work and two combined shutouts and two strikeouts.

NOTES

- Looking to bolster the pitching staff, Clemson picked up two transfers from the portal in Reese Basinger and Brook Melynychuk.
- Basinger, an Evans, Ga., native, holds a 2.33 career ERA in three seasons of work at Winthrop with 477 strikeouts through 511.1 innings of work.
- Melynychuk (or "Chuck" amongst the team) comes to Clemson after two years at Louisiana Tech where she posted a 2.49 ERA through 199.2 innings with 94 strikeouts.
- The Hudson Bay, Canada native started at Iowa Western Community College where she garnered ICCAC Pitcher of the Year and Second Team NJCAA All-American honors in 2021.
- The final addition came in freshman Macey Cintron, who represented the Puerto Rico Junior Olympic National Team, including pitching for the Puerto Rico JNT at the WBSC U-19 Women's Softball World Cup at 13-years-old.

200 ON THE BOOKS

- Clemson Softball opened the 2024 season with its 200 game in program history
- The softball program placed itself in a position to have one of the best records through the first 200 games amongst Clemson sports (see 'First 200' chart).
- This comes after the Tigers paced themselves to tie with women's tennis for the most wins through 100 games (78 wins, 22 losses - .780).

FIRST 200 GAMES - BY PROGRAM

Sport (1st Year)	Wins	Loss	Ties	Pct.
MSoccer (1934)	151	37	12	.785
Softball (2020)	155	45	-	.775

MTennis (1921)	108	87	5	.553
MBasketball (1911-12)	82	117	1	.413

- Entering the 2025 season, Clemson is 11 wins away from eclipsing 200 victories as a program.
- The softball program has once again paced itself to be one of the top programs at Clemson to accomplish 200 victories in the fewest amount of games (see 'First 200 Wins' chart).
- This comes after softball paced itself to trail only women's tennis for the fewest amount of games to reach 100 wins (SB: 100-30 for 130 games; WTen: 100-28 for 128 matches).

- Besides softball's head coach John Rittman, only three other sports have current head coaches that have more than 200 games under their belt at the helm of a Clemson program: Brad Brownell (MBB), Mike Noonan

(MSOC) and Dabo Swinney (FB).

- Rittman's 78 wins in his first 100 games surpassed Swinney as the active Clemson head coach with the best record through 100 games. Coach Swinney was 74-26.
- Amongst these four coaches, Rittman (155-45) had the second-best record through 200 games, trailing only Swinney (161-39).
- Rittman became the fifth-fastest head coach to reach 100 wins at Clemson. Among active coaches, Coach Swinney is the only coach to reach 100 wins faster (129).
- Brownell is the only active head coach at Clemson to have over 200 wins during his tenure, surpassing the mark during the 2020-21 season (200-147).
- See full charts below for breakdown of the coaches' first 200 games at the helm of their respective programs and for games to 200 victories:

TIGERS IN THE PROS

- In only five seasons, four complete seasons, Clemson has continued to develop and produce Tigers on the professional level.
- Since 2021, Clemson has had six players participate in two different pro leagues between Athletes Unlimited (3) and the Women's Professional Fastpitch Organization (3).
- The first pro player to dawn the Orange and Regalia was Ansley Gilstrap (2021) when she played for the Florida Vibe.
- Graduate transfer Caroline Jacobsen (2023) became the first Clemson Softball player drafted after being the 20th pick in the 2023 WPF draft by USSSA. She went on to play the previous two seasons with Athletes Unlimited.
- Continuing the draft momentum, Valerie Cagle (2024) became the first Clemson female student athlete to be selected No. 1 overall after being drafted by Athletes Unlimited in 2024.
- Joining Jacobsen and Cagle within the AU organization was outfielder McKenzie Clark (2024) who played in both their AUX Pro Season in Kansas and the AU Pro Softball Championship Season in Illinois.
- Jacobsen (Talons - 38th pick) and Clark (Volts - 42nd pick) continued to make Clemson history by being selected in the inaugural Athletes Unlimited Softball League (AUSL) draft.
- Alia Logoleo (2024 - Chattanooga Steam) and Ally Miklesh (2024 - Florida Vibe) round out the Tigers that have turned pro during head coach John Rittman's tenure.

MADNESS IN McWHORTER

- The Clemson community latched onto the softball program as soon as the sport was announced as an addition in 2017.
- With an original capacity of 1,616 for the 2020-22 seasons, Clemson expanded the outfield berm seating in the summer of 2022 to move the capacity to 2,116.

- For the previous two seasons, Clemson has average over 1,500 fans, including 1,877 during the 2024 home slate.
- With 48,809 fans entering McWhorter Stadium in 2024, Clemson finished 13th nationally and led the ACC in overall attendance. The Tigers' average attendance also led the ACC and ranked seventh nationally.
- Clemson has ranked in the top 10 in either overall attendance and/or average attendance in 2020, 2022, 2023 and 2024. *Note that in 2021, Clemson had attendance restrictions coming off the COVID-19 Pandemic.

MISCELLANEOUS VICTORIES

- In only its sixth year of competition, Clemson has racked up numerous run-rule victories and winning streaks that have become noteworthy in the record book.

- In the previous five seasons, the longest winning streak Clemson has accrued was during the 2023 season when the Tigers went on a 23-game streak.
- The longest win streak the Tigers were able to string together in 2024 began with a 3-1 victory against Minnesota on March 7 and lasted eight games before South Carolina ended the streak on March 20 in extra innings.
- In true road/neutral site games, Clemson's longest streak spanned 18 games from Feb. 22, 2020 (Stetson, 8-6) to May 9, 2021 (at Syracuse, 6-7)

2024 REWIND

- The Tigers finished with a 35-19 overall record, including a 15-9 ACC record to finish fifth during the regular season.
- For the fourth-consecutive season (and every season where an ACC Tournament has been held since Clemson started a program), the Tigers advanced to at least the ACC Semifinals during the ACC Tournament. Clemson ultimately dropped the 10-inning semifinals battle to host and top-seeded Duke, 4-3.
- Every year eligible (*Note the 2020 season is excluded from this count), Clemson has made the NCAA Tournament - this streak continued in 2024 with a selection to the Tuscaloosa Regional (Clemson also made its first postseason appearance in Tuscaloosa in 2021).
- The Tigers finished the 2024 slate with three players in Valerie Cagle, McKenzie Clark and Maddie Moore garnering NFCA All-Region Southeast selections for the most All-Region honorees in a single season by the program.
- Cagle (First Team - P/UTL) and Moore (Third Team - 2B) were both crowned NFCA All-Americans for their fourth and first recognition, respectively.
- Clemson also landed seven selections on the All-ACC teams for the most Tigers to garner selection. The Tigers were spearheaded by Alia Logoleo and Moore earning first team nods, Alex Brown, Clark and Regan Spencer being selected to the second team, while Cagle and Millie Thompson rounded things out with third team honors.

She Will Triumph

Celebrating the rich history of the people and events that have made Clemson Athletics what it is today while signifying the continued growth and competitive excellence of the future of women's athletics. HEAD COACH JOHN RITTMAN

John Rittman, a longtime head coach and member of the USA Softball Women's National Team coaching pool, was named the first Head Coach of Clemson Softball on Nov. 3, 2017. Rittman came to Clemson after serving as the Associate Head Coach at the University of Kansas from 2015-17. Rittman joined the Jayhawks after 18 seasons as the Head Coach at Stanford University and 10 years on the United States National Team coaching staff (2001-08, 2016-18). He returned to the USA Women's National Team staff in 2023 when he served as the head coach for the Japan All-Star Series.

The 2024 campaign had Rittman leading the Tigers to a 35-19 overall record. As a program, Clemson opened the season with its 200th game in history (held a 155-45 overall record at this time) that was eclipsed with a 12-0 run-rule against Missouri State. The Tigers also reached their 100th victory in program history at McWhorter Stadium with a 12-0 shutout against Fordham. Rittman continued to show his excellence at the helm of the program by guiding a program-record number of student-athletes to postseason honors, including two NFCA All-Americans, three NFCA All-Region selections and six All-ACC honorees. Most notable on this list is Rittman's guidance of pitcher/utility Valerie Cagle, who was crowned a First Team All-American for the third time of her tenure, as well as being a First Team NFCA All-Southeast selection and earning All-ACC Third Team honors. Cagle was joined by first-time All-American infielder Maddie Moore, who posted a team-high .368 average after contributing 10 home runs, eight doubles and two triples to the Tiger offense. Moore was joined on the All-ACC First Team by infielder Alia Logoleo, who clocked a .319 average, while fellow infielder Alex Brown garnered Second Team accolades with a .328 average. As a team, the Tigers set single-season records in triples (15), sac flies (25) and sac hits (18). Additionally, Clemson's pitching staff finished with a 2.32 ERA, ranked No. 24 in the NCAA at the end of the year, while the 3.72 strikeout-to-walk ratio ended the year at No. 8. For the second-consecutive season, the Clemson pitching staff allowed only 56 extra-base hits while holding opponents to a .245 batting average behind the efforts of All-ACC selections Regan Spencer (Second Team), Millie Thompson (Third Team) and Cagle. Senior center fielder McKenzie Clark rounded out the All-ACC and NFCA All-Region honorees with a .365 average following 10 home runs, eight doubles and four triples. Clemson capped its season with its fourth-straight NCAA Regional appearance where the Tigers won their ninth NCAA Tournament game with an 8-0 run-rule against USC Upstate.

During the fourth season at the helm of the program, Rittman guided the Tigers to a 49-12 overall record that started with a perfect 14-0 run to open the season before the Tigers posted a 37-1 record through the first week of April for another program best. Clemson capped the regular season with a 5-4 victory to mark the 150th of the program and Rittman's 900th-win of his coaching tenure. He became the 44th collegiate softball coach to reach the 900-win benchmark. Hosting the second regional in program history, Clemson went on to defeat UNCG and Auburn to make the second-consecutive super regional appearance. The Tigers took the next step as a program by surpassing previous team bests in multiple categories. Offensively, Clemson tallied 488 hits with a .313 average. The Tigers led the ACC in On-Base Percentage (.409) and Scoring (6.08 per game) and finished in the top 25 of the NCAA in eight offensive categories. Defensively, Clemson finished with a .980 fielding percentage to lead the ACC and finish seventh in the NCAA. The Tiger defense also turned 31 double plays (.510 per game), which ranked sixth in the nation. With Rittman's tutelage, redshirt junior Valerie Cagle was named the 2023 USA Softball Player of the Year, a Rawlings Gold Glove (pitcher) recipient, the ACC Player of the Year and a NFCA First Team All-American for the second time of her career after she led the ACC in seven categories and ranked in the top 25 of the NCAA in 11. As a team, the Tigers clocked their highest individual ranking climbing as high as No. 4 and finished the season at No. 9 in both major polls. Clemson finished with five All-ACC honorees and 15 on the All-Academic Softball Team, while Cagle was tabbed the ACC Softball Scholar-Athlete of the Year. After posting a 3.68 team GPA, 17 student-athletes received Easton/NFCA All-America Scholar Athlete distinctions while the team maintained the 12th-highest team GPA in Division I.

In the third year of the program, Rittman continued to guide Clemson to new heights by making the program's first Super Regional appearance after earning the program's first national seed and hosting a Regional. Early in the season, the Tigers upset then-No. 6 Washington, 2-0, at the St. Pete/Clearwater Elite Invitational for the program's first top-10 win. Clemson followed that by playing its 100th game in program history against Illinois on March 13. The Tigers won with a 4-0 victory to tie Clemson women's tennis for the most wins through a program's first 100 games with a 78-22 record. With that record, Rittman solidified himself as the winningest coach among active head coaches at Clemson surpassing Dabo Swinney (football), who held a 74-26 record. The Tigers continued to reach new levels by winning their 100th game in only 130 games on May 1 with a 3-2 win against Georgia Tech on Senior Day to become the second-fastest program at Clemson to reach 100 wins trailing only women's tennis (128). The Tigers were ACC Tournament Runner-Ups after defeating then-No. 19 Notre Dame, 7-3, and then-No. 2 Virginia Tech, 4-1, in the first two rounds before falling in the championship game, 8-6, to then-No. 3 Florida State. The upset win over Virginia Tech marks Clemson softball's highest victory over a ranked opponent in program history. The hot streak continued for Clemson entering postseason as the Tigers earned the No. 10 national seed for the NCAA softball tournament. The Tigers welcomed No. 17 Auburn, Louisiana and UNCW for the Clemson Regional and made a clean sweep in three games by shutting out all three programs and run-ruling UNCW and Louisiana to advance to the Stillwater Super Regional. Clemson finished the year with five All-ACC team selections, and Valerie Cagle was named a NFCA First Team All-American. Behind Rittman's efforts, Clemson climbed as high as No. 14 in the NFCA national rankings and earned its first single digit ranking from ESPN/USA Softball rankings coming in at No. 9.

Rittman graduated from New Mexico State with a degree in journalism in 1986. He was a three-year letterwinner in baseball as an outfielder at NMSU after transferring from Yavapai Junior College in Prescott, Arizona.

Rittman and his wife, Lorie, a former softball player at the University of Oklahoma, are the parents of Justin, a UCLA graduate and former fullback for the Bruins, and Jake, a Notre Dame graduate and former punter for the Fighting Irish.
